Majlis Ansarullah USA

25th Annual National Ijtima and 14th National Majlis-i-Shūrā

October 27 to 29, 2006

By the grace and infinite Mercy of Almighty Allah, the 25th National Ijtima of Majlis Ansarullah USA was held from October 27th to 29th, 2006 at Baitur-Rahman Mosque in Silver Spring, MD.

Friday, October 27, 2006

The inaugural session of the Ijtima started at 3:15 PM after Jum‘a Prayer. Nā’ib Amīr USA, Munir Hamid, presided over this session. The meeting started with recitation from the Holy Qur’an, followed by the Ansar pledge led by Sadr Majlis Ansarullah, Dr. Wajeeh Bajwa. Approximately 200 Ansar, including 135 Shūrā delegates were in the audience in the opening session.

In his welcome address, Sadr Ansarullah thanked all Ansar members for taking time from their busy schedule to attend the Ijtima, and conveyed to them Hazoor’s message of prayers and blessing and all success for this Ijtima. Sadr Sahib reminded the participants to cooperate with the administration and earnestly urged them to take the ownership of the Ijtima. He further requested all to avail of this opportunity to get to know one another better. He requested every Nasir to make a point of introducing himself to his fellow attendees, both born Ahmadis and those who joined the Jama‘at later in life, and make an effort to meet one new person at each meal time.

Nā’ib Amīr, Munir Hamid, in his address, drew attention of the audience to the Remembrance of Death and the Life Hereafter. He asked Ansar members to continuously struggle to inculcate love of Allah in oneself, and pass it on to the next generation.

The Ijtima’s inaugural session was followed by the first session of Majlis-i-Shūrā. Sadr Ansarullah presented guidelines to Shūrā delegates in accordance with the Friday Sermon of Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul-Masih Al-Khamis (ayyadahullahu binasrihil-‘aziz) delivered on March 24, 2006. Hazoor (ayyadahullāhu ta‘ālā binaṣrihil-‘aziz) had delivered this sermon at the commencement of Majlis-i-Shūrā Pakistan. Proposal and implementation report for 2005 was presented by Qa’id Umumi, Munawar Saqib, along with proposals for 2006. Budget for 2007 was presented by Qa’id Māl, Kalim Rana.

Four sub-committees were formed to deliberate on the five proposals approved for discussion by Hazoor (ayyadahullāhu ta‘ālā binaṣrihil-‘aziz). These committees were: Tabligh, Ta’lim, Finance, and General. The sub-committees presented their respective reports at 8:30 pm and 14th Majlis-i-Shūrā concluded at 9:45 PM. Most of the members attending Shūrā/Ijtima preferred to sleep in the mosque.

Saturday, October 28, 2006

Morning activities started at 5:30 AM with Tahajjud Prayer, followed by Fajr Prayer and Darsul-Qur’an. The second day’s session was designated for educational and sports competitions along with exhortation to work (Talqīn-i-‘Amal) sessions. The first competition was for the Recitation of the Holy Qur'an which started at 9:15 am. The salient feature of day two, other than having education competitions, was the interactive Talqin-i-'Amal on Tarbiyyat and Ta'lim. Emphasis was given to importance of being role models for our families, and recitation, understanding and implementation the Holy Qur'an in our daily lives.

Sunday, October 29, 2006

Morning activities started at 4:30 AM with Tahajjud Prayer, followed by Fajr Prayer and Darsul-Qur'an. The final day's regular program commenced at 9:00 AM with the remaining few educational and sports competitions.

The concluding sessions was chaired by Amīr USA, Dr. Ahsanullah Zafar. This session included introduction of new members, Sadr's annual report, remembrance of those who had passed away in 2006, and prize distribution. Sadr Sahib highlighted the Majlis's achievements since January 2006 and also listed areas that need improvement.

In his concluding remarks, Amīr Sahib said that Ansar members must become active in preaching. He encouraged Ansar members to take active part in discussions with non-Muslims and develop close relationships with those who are open minded and are interested in listening to different view point. He urged African-American Ahmadis to take active part in Tabligh as directed by Hazoor (ayyadahullāhu ta'ālā binaṣrihil-'azīz) in his address to the US Jama'at at the US Jama'at's Annual Convention.

The Ijtima concluded with Pledge led by Sadr Sahib followed by silent prayer led by respected Amīr Sahib.

Total attendance at the 25th Annual Ijtima was around 317 members from all parts of the US.

Chanda Ansar Hall

Majlis-i-Shura of 1996 had recommended building a hall, “Ansar Hall,” next to Baitur-Rahman Mosque. This proposal was approved by Hadrat Khalifatul-Masih IV (rahimahullah) in 1998. At this time we have opportunity to build this hall at the Baitur-Rahman Mosque as part of the extension project that is to be completed by next year. The Ansar Majlis-i-Amila made recommendation to build Ansar Hall as part of this project and this request is approved by Hadrat Khalifatul-Masih Al-Khamis (ayyadahullahu binasrihil-aziz).

In order to meet our commitment of raising $500,000, as stipulated in the original proposal, we must contribute generously towards this fund. May Allah enable Majlis Ansarullah USA to fulfill this obligation, Ameen.
