Huzoor (aba) said It is impossible to calculate Divine grace or to know its highpoint.

Some detail of this trip prepared in a report form by Vakeelul Tabsheer has been published in Al Fazl

The Press Desk made good arrangement of providing news of the main events of the tour for the English-speaking members of the Jama'at.

Indeed, each day gives us a new awareness of Divine grace and corroborates the truthfulness of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

We must follow the true Islamic teachings explained by the Promised Messiah (as) with due diligence, commitment and only for the sake of gaining acceptance by Allah.

They have not abandoned their faith. In fact their faith is further strengthened. Their only concern was to seek prayers for their faith.

Apart from Jama'at engagements of meetings, classes and mulaqats, a reception was held here for outside guests.

Non-Ahmadi guests from Indonesia also attended this reception, among them were university professors, scholars, politicians and journalists.

The guest said that today no one has the administrative system and the leadership that Jama'at Ahmadiyya has and it presented the true model of Islam.

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih said many among these people accepted Ahmadiyyat in their hearts but feared certain organisations.

A reception was held in Melbourne in which 220 people from all walks of life came including members of parliament, high-ranking military personnel including a major general representing the chief of army staff, officers of the federal police, local councillors and academics.

An MP acknowledged Huzoor's mention of the qualities of peace, justice, fairness and service of mankind and said that she knew Ahmadi ladies are not only taking this message forward but are also putting it in practice. She also remarked positively about Ahmadi children.

A councillor said that it was evident from Huzoor's address that he preached what his religion was about. He said it was very pleasant to listen to a religious leader giving such a beautiful message. He said it would be great if Jama'at Ahmadiyya raised its profile and took this message further afield.

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih said now it was the task of the Australian Jama'at to move onwards and upwards.

Next was a trip to Brisbane where Baitul Muqet mosque was inaugurated.

A reception was held which was attended by people from all walks of life including MPs, police officers, doctors,
academics, teachers, engineers, people from the church, priests and neighbours.

A police commissioner commended Jama'at at work and said that the Jama'at was always very co-operative. He said the Jama'at demonstrated high moral courage.

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih had a Tabligh conversation with an MP who acknowledged that the teaching of the Qur'an was higher than that of the Bible.

The deputy mayor said that Jama'at Ahmadiyya excelled at serving humanity and was most helpful during the floods in Queensland. It is generally said about immigrants that they do not integrate very well but this cannot be said about Jama'at Ahmadiyya.

After Australia Hazrat Khalifatul Masih visited New Zealand.

the Maori tribe gave a reception in Huzoor's honour of the stature that is given to heads of state where Lawa e Ahmadiyyat was also raised.

Huzoor held talks with him and presented him with Maori translation of the Holy Qur'an. Later, the King came to the inauguration of the mosque and the Queen also came.

With the grace of God a Maori person took Bai'at and a couple more are ready for Bai'at.

Huzoor said that following the translation, Maori people will come in the fold of the Jama'at.

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih inaugurated their first ever mosque called mosque Baitul Muqet

The media covered the Maori event as well as the inauguration of the mosque very well.

Another function in New Zealand was in the capital city in the prestigious Grand Hall of the parliament building. It was attended by Israeli, Iranian and British diplomats.

Checkpoint is a noteworthy programme of a non-commercial radio station of New Zealand which gave news with reference to our Jama'at during prime time.

The next country on the tour was Japan.

A reception was held in Nagoya, which was attended by 117 guests including leader of the Communist party, congressmen, the mayor, members of the provisional parliament, representatives of Shintoism and Buddhism, academics, lawyers etc.

Leader of the Communist Party who is also a member of city parliament and also in-charge of camp for the displaced travelled 1000 kilometres to attend the reception.

He said that the services given by Jama'at Ahmadiyya following the earthquake and tsunami in 2011 were unforgettable for them.

He said Chaudhary Zafrulla Khan Sahib addressed a conference held in San Francisco in 1951 in which he said that Japan should be dealt with fairly.

The lawyer said that in appreciation of those remarks they had good ties with Jama'at Ahmadiyya.

Unfortunately today Chaudhary Zafrullah Sahib's personality is not valued in his own country where he was once the foreign minister. Now his name as the foreign minister has been removed from history text books and children are being taught incorrect history.

Next Hazrat Khalifatul Masih gave some information about the media coverage of his tour.

God is facilitating the introduction of the beautiful teaching of Islam in every region of the world and people are finding out about the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

This is according to the pronouncement made by the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) that this age is the age of the accomplishment of publication based on guidance.

The media coverage is a practical testimony by God because it was not possible for us to arrange such extensive coverage in the four countries.

In fact, the message and introduction of Jama'at reached 46 countries, in which Pakistan is included. For those who have sense, just this is sufficient proof of the truthfulness of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said 'Now, in obedience to the direction: 'And as for the bounty of your Lord do relate it to others.' (93:12) I do not see any harm in declaring that the Merciful God has, through His grace and bounty, bestowed all these characteristics on me in abundance.

He has not sent me empty-handed, nor has He appointed me without any accompanying signs. He has bestowed all these signs upon me which are being manifested and will continue to be manifested. God Almighty will go on manifesting these signs until the truth is clearly established.'
