GIBRALTAR and MEDITERRANEAN

September 11, 2005

The Gibraltarian authorities have warned that migrants are to be deported if they enter the port area (GIBRALTAR) and the harbor. The Gibraltarians claim that the authorities have received a large number of migrants in recent days, and that the situation is becoming critical.

According to the Gibraltarian authorities, the migrants are entering the port area through underground tunnels and by boat. The authorities have increased their patrols in the area to ensure the safety of the local population.

In response to the Gibraltarian authorities, the migrants have stated that they are only trying to reach their destination and that they are not posing a threat to the local population.

The situation in Gibraltarian has been described as "tense" by some political figures, who have called for a peaceful solution to the situation.

Meanwhile, the authorities have warned that any migrants who enter the port area will be deported immediately.

September 12, 2005

The Gibraltarian authorities have stated that they have deported 711 migrants who entered the port area without permission.
The authorities have also stated that additional measures will be taken to prevent any further incursions.

The Gibraltarian authorities have said that they will continue to monitor the situation closely, and will take action if necessary.

Meanwhile, some political figures have called for a halt to the deportations, stating that they are causing unnecessary suffering.

September 13, 2005

The Gibraltarian authorities have stated that they have deported 5,471 migrants in the past 10 days.
The authorities have also stated that they will continue to deported migrants who enter the port area without permission.

The Gibraltarian authorities have stated that they are doing all they can to ensure the safety of the local population and the migrants.

Meanwhile, some political figures
have called for a halt to the deportations, stating that they are causing
unnecessary suffering.
