Huzur (aba) gave a discourse on the Divine signs to distinguish the lofty station of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

رَفِيعُ الدَّرَجَاتِ ذُو الْعَرْشِ يُلْقِي الرُّوحَ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ
مِنْ عِبَادِهِ لِيُنذِرَ يَوْمَ التَّلَاقِ

‘The Exalter of ranks, the Lord of the Throne. He causes the spirit to descend with His command to whomsoever of His servants He pleases, that He may give warning of the Day of Meeting Him,’

(40:16)

The Rafi-ud-darajaat God (Exalter of ranks) has sent the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

- Allah sends His chosen people to revive the spiritually ailing. Just as God has sent His Prophets to each nation in each era, in the current age, He sent the Promised Messiah.
- This advent was in accordance with the prophecy of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) and borne out of his ardent love for the Prophet.
- The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) had said that the Mahdi would be guided by God and will come to put right the troubled world of Islam, guiding people to the straight path.

Allah the Exalted revealed to the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) that he was the chosen one

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) received many revelations from God

He sends down the Spirit on whomsoever He wills from among His servants.'

(Tadhkirah, 2007, p.764).

'You are to Me like My Spirit.'

(Tadhkirah, 2007, p.883).

In this age, The Wise, All-Knowing God sent Hadhrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad Qadiani.

His advent has been cited in the Holy Qur'an with reference to latter days and ahadith speak of him as a significant sign for the Ummah as they are urged to accept him.

Huzur (aba) said if the Muslims read this message with sincerity of heart there is no way they would not accept the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

Indeed, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) had said that whoever lives in the age of the Mahdi should take my greetings to him.

Convey my message of peace to Mehdi (salam)

In one tradition related by the grandson of Hadhrat Imam Hussein, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) said, 'for our Mahdi two signs, the like of which have never appeared before will be evident'.

The reference is of course to the solar and lunar eclipses.

Huzur (aba) said while the mention of the extraordinary signs here signifies the station of the Messiah and Mahdi, the use of the term 'our Mahdi' by the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) signifies the love and high regard he had for him.

The unique celestial sign for the Mahdi

God had promised to exhibit His signs of corroboration and to exalt the Mahdi.

This promise was fulfilled when the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) made his claim and indeed is still being fulfilled.

Prophets of God are always opposed and so was the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace). His opposition continues to this day.

He was granted a lofty station by God then Who continues to exalt him to this day.

Mahdi is destined to be successful

'end is for the God-fearing' (11:50)

A number of aspects of a divine prophecy were the source of honour for the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)

- The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) has mentioned a few of these signs in his book 'Anjam e Atham'; a book that he wrote at the death of Abdullah Atham.
- Atham was a Christian priest who died as fulfilment of the challenge of Mubalah (spiritual/prayer duel). His death was a sign of the splendour of Islam and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him).
- Many religious scholars and 'custodians of shrines' did not accept his death as a sign of the truthfulness of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).
- The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace), therefore, wrote a book of two hundred pages, followed by an appendix and also a footnote.
- In the detailed footnote he mentioned the 10 signs of the Divine support and honour bestowed on him after the Mubalah.
