Islam Ahmadiyya - Success and Rapid Progress

The rapid progress of the Ahmadiyyat in the world is a sign of the truthfulness of Promised Messiah (on whom be peace).

The trials and persecution faced by Ahmadiyya community are accompanied with signs of Divine succour.

Today tabligh resources are extensive yet people are still being guided through dreams to a large extent.

Faith inspiring incidents from new converts.

During his recent trip to Holland, a journalist who writes for a regional newspaper and is also published in national papers, asked Hazrat Khalifatul Masih if Jama'at Ahmadiyya was the fastest growing community in the world

Huzoor replied to him that on an international level indeed our community was growing the most..

This is a great testimony of the truthfulness of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) that a voice that started in a small town of India is now resounding in every city and town around the world.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said: Allah the Exalted is spreading this community in the world, indeed Allah the Exalted has willed to spread it in the world.

We are facing trials but these trials, whether personal or communal, are accompanied with signs of Divine succour more than ever.

Every Pakistani who has come to the West from Pakistan and who has a sense of gratitude will not deny that God has blessed him a lot after migration.

Given the level of opposition and the degree of persecution of followers of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace), had this been a man-made community it would have perished by now.

However, here God is showing us progress!

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said: Our opponents tried opposition in every way but God made us progress. It is a testimony of truth that the world tries its utmost but fails. This is a sign of God.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said: Many dreams and visions are being experienced these days. It appears God Almighty wishes to inform people through dreams. Swarms of God's angels hover in the heavens and put it in hearts of people, insisting that they accept [the Promised Messiah].

Today, the opponents are still trying their utmost and important, powerful religious leaders, even governments carry our proceedings against us but the words of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) are being proven right. The opponents are failing and people continue to come into the Jama'at by taking Bai 'at.

Today tabligh resources are extensive yet people are still being guided through dreams to a large extent. Indeed, tabligh also works but God continues to directly guide people.

Once the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said to a new Ahmadi you are very fortunate that the doors that God closed on important maulawis, He opened them up for you.

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said:.

Read the Holy Qur'an and never despair of God.

Read the translation of the Holy Qur'an

Adorn your Salat as you offer it and also understand its meanings

Do not read the Holy Qur'an as if it is as ordinary book, rather, read it as Word of God

Offer Salat like the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) used to offer it.

Read the translation of the Holy Quran

After offering the prescribed prayers say your supplications and your needs in your own language

The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said: It is obligatory to recite Surah Al Fatihah in Salat and it is this prayer which clearly shows that real supplication is made during Salat. Therefore Allah the Exalted has taught this prayer.

Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said Be assured that one cannot attain true belief in Oneness of God - as long as one offers Salat in a parrot-like manner, this does not move the soul and one is not protected from stumbling - a stage which takes one to excellence in spirituality. Keep the creed that God has no partner and demonstrate this with your practice.'

If we do not have congruity in our word and deed it is a cause for concern.

Develop your strength of belief and illuminate your hearts and be those who receive grace and blessings. .

Try and never break the connection you have made with the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)..

'In the name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful. All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of all the worlds, the Gracious, The Merciful, Master of the Day of Judgement. Thee alone do we worship and Thee alone do we implore for help. Guide us in the right path – The path of those on whom Thou hast bestowed Thy blessings, those who have not incurred displeasure, and those who have not gone astray.' (1-7) That is, it is essential to praise and glorify Allah the Exalted before supplication which generates a passion and love for Allah in the soul. This is why it is stated: All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of all the worlds, the Gracious, Who bestows without being asked and without one doing anything meritorious, the Merciful, Who also rewards what is meritorious in this world as well as in the Hereafter, Master of the Day of Judgement, all judgement lies with Him, good and bad both. One is a perfect believer in the Oneness of God when one acknowledges Allah the Exalted as Master of the Day of Judgement. Look, it is sinful to consider those in authority as everything and it is tantamount to associating partners with God. Indeed, their obedience is important in the sense that Allah the Exalted has placed them in authority but one should not turn them into gods. Give the dues of man to man and the dues of God Almighty to God Almighty. Then say: Thee alone do we worship and Thee alone do we implore for help. Guide us in the right path - that is, the path of those on whom Thou hast bestowed Thy blessings. And these are the group of the Prophets, the Truthful, the Martyrs and the Righteous. Blessings and grace of this group are sought in this prayer. Save us from the path of those who incurred Your displeasure and who went astray.'
