Jalsa UK

Insha'Allah Jalsa UK will be starting next week and many guests from different countries and cities have started to arrive.

Other than Ahmadis, many prominent non-Ahmadis including politicians, professors, media members etc come for Jalsa and keep a close eye on everything during Jalsa.

They especially watch our Nizam (system of Jama'at) and our volunteers. Therefore, all volunteers are engaged in silent Tabligh while they serve the guests.

Media is also playing an important role in introducing Jama'at worldwide and Jalsa presents an excellent opportunity in this regard.

Our Responsibilities

Volunteers responsibilities

Therefore, all volunteers should understand their importance. Not only do they win the pleasure of Allah through their service, but also greatly influence the guests due to their high morals. We should take care of all needs of our guests.

The Promised Messiah (as) has said that I try my best that guests should not face any difficulty and are afforded all kinds of facilities.

Huzur said this includes all departments such as Transport, accommodation, security etc that they should make all possible arrangements for guests.

Guests of the Promised Messiah (as)

Every person who comes to our Jalsa is a guest of the Promised Messiah (as), therefore we should take care of all guests. Whether rich or poor, all should be taken care of equally.

The Promised Messiah (as) has also said that those people who are new and unaware of Jama'at, their every need should be especially taken care of and shouldn't be given any chance to complain. These people travel many miles to come and attend Jalsa with honest hearts.

The Holy Prophet (sa) said

The Holy Prophet (sa) once said that for those who believe in Allah and the day of Judgment, three things are absolutely vital; Speak good or stay silent – Respect your neighbours – Respect your guests.

May Allah enable all volunteers to serve all of the guests of the Promised Messiah (as).

May Allah the Almighty enable all the workers to serve the guests of the Promised Messiah (as) in the best manner.

Funeral prayers in absentia

Huzur-e-Anwar also announced two funeral prayers in absentia - Mukarram Syed Muhammad sahib son of Dr. Muhammad Ismail sahib and Mukarrama Mahmuda Begum sahiba.
