Jalsa Salana UK 2018

As everyone knows more than 90% of arrangements are done of members of the community on voluntary basis.

All the participants should rectify and remove any weaknesses and come forward if the workers need any help.

We can only be united if we bear the burden of each other and help each other when required.

This fundamental principal should be remembered by both guests as well as hosts.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

The first matter for the attention of the workers is that they have presented themselves to serve those people, who have come to participate in the Jalsa initiated by the Promised Messiah (as) upon the command of God Almighty.

The workers should always remember that no matter what attitude the guests may have, those who are serving must care for their feelings and sentiments while exhibiting the highest morals.

Even if a guest or a participant were to adopt a wrong attitude, it is still the duty of the worker to keep his passions under control and not to reply with the same attitude.

The Holy Prophet (sa) was most respectful to his guests and God Almighty has mentioned the most excellent model of the Holy Prophet (sa) regarding hospitality.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

Those who are on duty should demonstrate the highest morals in every department and wherever they are offering duties.

Everyone has to play a role in creating a pleasant atmosphere here so that we can fulfil the purpose for which we have gathered here; which is to improve our moral and spiritual state.

The workers should make it incumbent upon themselves that whatever the conduct of the other person may be, they should always have a smile on their faces. anger.

This outwardly state also has an impact on their hearts and as a result, they will not develop any harshness in their hearts.

These very morals will be the means of informing the non-Ahmadi guests in attendance of the high morals taught by Islam. This is a silent manner of Tabligh.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

The Holy Prophet (sa) states that nothing weighs heavier on the scale than good morals.

Furthermore, he also stated that the one who possesses good morals, acquires the status of one, who is regular in offering prayers and observing the fasts.

God Almighty has especially commanded the guests not to go beyond the bounds of their rights, while being guests. Guests should not wrongfully take advantage of their being guests.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

By the grace of God Almighty, the workers serve every guest wholeheartedly. They render their services for the guests of the Promised Messiah (as) with an ardent devotion.

Even if you observe any minor shortcomings and flaws, then ignore them and keep this purpose in mind that we have merely gathered here in order to listen to the teachings of God Almighty, His Messenger (sa) and of His religion.

If a guest notices shortcoming in a certain department, then they should write to the person in charge of the department instead of quarrelling with the workers.

Even if the shortcoming is not removed or improved this year, Jama'at will be mindful of it for the coming year. This is the beauty of the system of the Jama'at that whatever flaws and shortcomings are highlighted, efforts are then made to improve them for the future.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

Holy Prophet (sa) said that one of the good morals taught by Islam is that a believer refrains from idle and unnecessary speech.

In this Jalsa, which the Promised Messiah (as) has declared to be solely for the sake of God, we should refrain from every kind of idle speech and time wasting.

You should listen to the proceedings attentively. Even if those delivering the speech are not of your preferred choice, however the topics of the speeches are chosen so that they can be of benefit to everyone.

Do not leave the Jalsa Gah [main arena of the Jalsa Salana] unless there is an urgent need to do so. The attendance in all other programmes should be as much as it is right now so the children and youth are able to realise the importance of Jalsa Salana and they are able to connect with faith and strive in this way.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

Those people who drive here should cooperate with the administration and they should park their cars where and how they are instructed to do so.

In terms of management there is a department of hygiene and cleanliness. Particular attention needs to be direct to this as well.

These days due to the lack of rain, the grass has become very dry resulting into a fire hazard. Therefore, all preventive measures should be observed.

From a security point of view you must keep an eye on your surroundings. Whether you are in the Jalsa Gah or outside anyone can cause mischief so one must remain vigilant of this.

There is also the complaint from the ladies that during the speeches in the main marquee some women continue to chat amongst themselves, this is not acceptable.

Jalsa Salana UK 2018

May Allah enable us to reap maximum benefit from the Jalsa and to follow the instructions which I have just given, and which have been outlined in the programme booklets given to you. Pray especially that out of God Almighty's grace alone this Jalsa remains blessed in every respect and He protects us from all evil and that we all partake of the blessings for which we have gathered here today.
