His Holiness (aba) has been speaking about the excellences and beauties of the Holy Qur'an, which he would continue in today's sermon as well.

His Holiness (aba) quoted the Promised Messiah (as) who said that the Holy Qur'an is a complete book and there is no other scripture which can compare to it. In the opening chapter of the Holy Qur'an, God teaches the prayer 'Guide us to the right path'

Not only is this a prayer, but it is also a promise of God Almighty that by following the Holy Qur'an's teachings, one can be guided to the right path. Similarly, God Almighty outlines the guideline of how this can be achieved by stating in the second chapter of the Holy Qur'an that this Book is 'a guidance for the righteous'.

‘This day have I perfected your religion for you’.

Perfection does not simply mean the revelation of verses, but also refers to the purification of the hearts and the completion of souls for those who implement and follow the teachings of the Holy Qur’an.

There is no reality or verity which is outside the scope of the Holy Qur’an.

‘This day have I perfected your religion for you’.

this means that man has been taken to his highest form or perfection and that the Holy Qur’an has been perfected. When this verse was revealed, a Jewish man said that the Muslims should regard that day as Eid. Hazrat Umar (ra) replied that this was a day of Eid, as it was a Friday.

The Holy Qur'an has a distinct rank over the Hadith (sayings of the Holy Prophet (sa)). The Holy Qur'an is the final judge, not the Hadith.

Ever since the Holy Qur'an was revealed, this challenge has been presented to the world to bring something that could even remotely compare to the Holy Qur'an, yet since then, none have been able to present anything comparable to any degree.

The order in which the Holy Qur'an is written, the order of topics and the order of its lines is absolutely perfect and it is this very order which cannot be imitated that enables a true and complete understanding of the Holy Qur'an's meanings and verities.

The miracle of the Holy Qur'an is the esteemed moral teachings, the principles for society and its proficiency, such that cannot be replicated.

Similarly are the miracles related to the matters of the unseen and the prophecies made within it. It is thus that God Almighty has clearly shown His signs in a manner which eliminates any possibility of doubt.

The blessings being shown in his era were all the result of the miracles of the Holy Prophet (sa) and in line with the prophecies of the Holy Qur'an.

A Messenger from Allah, reciting unto them the pure Scriptures.
Therein are lasting commandments. (The Holy Qur'an, 98:3-4)

One reading the Holy Qur'an finds nothing but truth and verities in it

One should carefully ponder over the Holy Qur'an, implement that which is enjoined and abandon that which is forbidden, and thus they can please God; that is how simple it is to please God. The intricacies presented by thinkers and sages have made things complicated and cause people to falter.

His Holiness (aba) said that recently during the Annual Convention in Bangladesh, Muslim fanatics attacked the Convention site

Despite assurances from the local authorities that it would be safe. As the attack took place, the authorities were delayed in their reaction.

It was in this chaos that a young man was martyred.

During the attack, the fanatics attacked with stones & various types of weapons, along with setting fires along the way.

The Ahmadi youth were instructed to protect the premises. In the fray, Zahid Hassan was separated from the others he was with, which the attackers took as an opportunity & they mercilessly & brutally attacked him. They martyred him so violently that it took 2 hours to identify him.
