Summary of Friday Sermon Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih V 15.9.2017 (TELUGU)

In the name of Allah, whom you admit to be Allah, let us ask Allah to forgive me and to forgive any error in our words. In the name of Allah, whom you admit to be Allah, let us ask Allah to forgive me and to forgive any error in our words.

15.9.2017

Today, we are studying a talk from the 19th Muharram of 1429 to 1430 A.H. of our Holy Saint. The subject is: ‘The Significance of the Holy Month of Muharram’.

The significance of the Holy Month of Muharram is that it is the time for the commemoration of the Holy Prophet (PBUH). The Holy Prophet (PBUH) is the center of our religion and his teachings are the basis of our faith. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) is the model of humanity and his guidance is the foundation of our moral and spiritual life.

In the Holy Month of Muharram, we should cherish the memory of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and follow his teachings. We should be inspired by his example and strive to be like him. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) taught us to be patient, kind, and just. He taught us to be humble and modest. He taught us to be generous and compassionate. He taught us to be truthful and honest.

In the Holy Month of Muharram, we should reflect on the teachings of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and apply them to our lives. We should try to be like him in our conduct and behavior. We should strive to be people who are respected and admired by others. We should try to be people who are beloved by Allah and praised by His Messenger (PBUH).

In the Holy Month of Muharram, we should also remember the sacrifices of our forefathers who followed the path of the Holy Prophet (PBUH). They endured hardships and suffered for the sake of Allah and His Messenger (PBUH). They were the examples of humanity and their example should be followed.

In conclusion, the Holy Month of Muharram is a time for reflection and inspiration. It is a time for us to remember the Holy Prophet (PBUH) and to follow his teachings. It is a time for us to be inspired by his example and to strive to be like him. It is a time for us to be grateful for the sacrifices of our forefathers and to follow their example.

May Allah accept our words and deeds and forgive our errors. Amen.
