FOREWORD

This series of books was originally published in Urdu to provide children with a basic knowledge and understanding of revered figures from our religious history. Illustrations, children’s activities and glossaries have been added to enhance the learning experience for children. The goal of the series is for children to develop a love and appreciation for the profound faith and the immense sacrifices of the revered personalities portrayed in these books. It is also hoped that the examples of righteousness found in these pages inspire children to cultivate a personal relationship with Allah the Almighty.

This particular book is about the life of Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra bint ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib, the paternal aunt of our beloved Master, the Holy Prophet Muḥammadsa. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra was extremely courageous and helped the Muslims in two important battles. She was near in age to the Holy Prophetṣa and was very dear to him.
The Children’s Book Team of Additional Wakālat-e-Taṣnīf has rendered the series in English. Some modifications and additions have been made to the original text for the sake of historical accuracy and style.

The team is headed by Uzma Saeed Ahmad and includes: Aamna Bhatti, Hafia Khan, Rafia Rehana Khattak, Noma Saeed Samee, and Amina Maryem Shams. We would like to thank Ayyaz Mahmood Khan and Abdul Quddus Arif for their efforts in reviewing this book and preparing it for publication. May Allah the Almighty reward them abundantly in this world and the hereafter. Āmīn.

Hadrat Šafiyyah ra bint ‘Abdul-Muţţalib was a Šaḥabiyah ra (female companion of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad sa). She was the daughter of Ḥadrat ‘Abdul-Muţţalib, the chief of the Quraish and the grandfather of the Holy Prophet sa. Therefore, she was the paternal aunt of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad sa. This is why she is also known as ‘Ammatun-Nabi (the paternal aunt of the Prophet)². The name of her mother was Ḥallah bint Wuhaib. Ḥallah was the first cousin of Ḥadrat Āminah ra, the mother of Holy Prophet Muḥammad sa. The Holy Prophet sa and Ḥadrat Šafiyyah ra were born around the same time, so it would be safe to say that they were about the same age. Some other paternal aunts of the Holy Prophet sa are also mentioned in the books of history. However, only Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra accepted Islam. When our beloved master, the Holy Prophet Muḥammad sa, started calling people toward the true religion, Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra accepted Islam immediately. Thus she was included in the blessed group to whom Allah promised paradise in the hereafter while they were still alive3.

In the period of Jāhiliyyah, before the advent of Islam, she was married to Ḥārith bin Ḥarb. When he passed away she married ‘Awwām bin Khuwailid, who was the brother of Ummul-Mu’minīn (Mother of the Believers) Ḥaḍrat Khadijatul-Kubrā ra. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra had three sons. One of them was Ḥaḍrat Zubair ra bin Al-‘Awwām who had the honour of receiving the title of Hawārī-e-Rasūl (the Messenger’s Disciple), and he was also included in the group of those ten companions of Holy Prophet sa who were given the good news of entering paradise upon their deaths in this very life. The name of her second son was Sā’īb ra, and the name of her third son was ‘Abdul-Ka‘bah. Ḥaḍrat Sā’īb ra participated in the battles of Badr, the Ditch, and Yamāmah4. Ḥaḍrat Zubair ra was a little boy when his father passed away. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra was also young at that time, but she chose to remain a widow for the rest of
After the death of her husband, Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra was left with the difficult task of raising her young son on her own. She raised Ḥaḍrat Zubairra in an exemplary manner. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra wished for her son to grow up to be a brave and courageous warrior. That is why she was very harsh with him when it was necessary for his training. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra made Ḥaḍrat Zubairra do very difficult and demanding tasks and when necessary she scolded him as well.

One day Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra was harshly disciplining Ḥaḍrat Zubairra. His uncle, Nawfal bin Khuwailid, happened to walk by and see Ḥaḍrat Zubairra being punished. When he saw the child being disciplined he told Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra to stop. She responded by saying, “Do not think I punish him because I do not love him. I do so only so that he will become smart.”

As a result of her perfect training Ḥaḍrat Zubairra grew into a sincere Muslim, a brave soldier, and a courageous commander. In fact, when Ḥaḍrat Zubairra accepted Islam, this same paternal uncle tortured him by wrapping him in a mat and forcing him to inhale smoke. His uncle tried to force him to abandon Islam, but the training Ḥaḍrat Zubairra had received from his blessed mother,
HADRAT ŞAFİYYAH RA

Hadrat Şafiyah RA, allowed him to endure this treatment willingly and he would only say, “I cannot reject the truth once I have recognised it.”

Hadrat Zubair RA was born with a pure and righteous heart, and his mother’s training enhanced these qualities even more in him and filled his heart with utter love and reverence for Islam and the Holy Prophet SA.

We can get an idea of just how intensely Hadrat Zubair RA was devoted to the Holy Prophet SA from the following incident. In the early days of the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet SA someone spread the rumour that the Holy Prophet SA had been captured by the enemies or even martyred by them. The news distressed Hadrat Zubair RA so much that he did not waste a single moment and set out in search of the Holy Prophet SA. When he found the Holy Prophet SA safe and sound he took a deep sigh of relief.

The Holy Prophet SA took a look at his unsheathed sword and asked, “What is this Zubair?”

Hadrat Zubair RA replied, “O Prophet of Allah, may my parents be sacrificed for you, I had heard that the enemies had captured you, or even martyred you.”

The Holy Prophet SA smiled and said, “If that really had been the case, then what would you have done?”

Hadhrat Zubairra replied immediately, “O Prophet of Allah, I would have died fighting the people of Makkah.”6 This is why Hadhrat Zubairra is given the honour of being recognised as the first to lift a sword in the defence of Islam.

This is exactly the kind of attitude Hadhrat Ṣafiyyahra wanted her son to have. It was the result of her wonderful training that when Hadhrat Zubairra was put through unthinkable torture to make him renounce Islam and return to his old pagan religion, his response was that he would never go back to disbelieving no matter what it cost him. Five years after the start of the Prophethood of Muḥammadsa, the cruelty of the disbelievers towards the Muslims surpassed all bounds in Makkah. The Holy Prophetsa advised his followers to migrate to Abyssinia, which is called Ethiopia today. The first group to travel to Ethiopia consisted of about fifteen Muslims. Hadhrat Zubairra was part of this group. Hadhrat Ṣafiyyahra was very distressed upon being separated from her son, but since it was the directive of the Holy Prophetsa and it insured the safety of her son, she very patiently and uncomplainingly bid farewell to her beloved son to go to a foreign land.

When barely three months had passed since these migrants had migrated in the way of Allah to Ethiopia, they heard the news along the lines that all the disbelievers of Makkah had accepted Islam or maybe that the disbelievers and the Holy Prophet SA had made peace between them. Upon hearing this news some migrants came back to Makkah. Ḥaḍrat Zubair RA was one of them. However, upon their arrival in Makkah they came to find out that this news was false. Nevertheless, Ḥaḍrat Şafiyyah RA rejoiced upon being reunited with her beloved son and prostrated in front of Allah while her heart was filled with gratitude to see her son alive and well. After living in Makkah for a while Ḥaḍrat Zubair RA decided to take up trade as a profession and started traveling to and from Syria with trading caravans. During the same time, Ḥaḍrat Şafiyyah RA arranged a marriage between him and the daughter of Ḥaḍrat Abû Bakr RA, Ḥaḍrat Asmā’ RA.

At the time when the Holy Prophet SA, along with his dear friend Ḥaḍrat Abû Bakr RA, migrated to Madînah, Ḥaḍrat Zubair RA was in Syria on business. When he was returning to Makkah from Syria he happened to cross paths with the Holy Prophet SA and Ḥaḍrat Abû Bakr RA who were on their way to Madînah. Ḥaḍrat Zubair RA presented them with a few white garments and the Holy Prophet SA and Ḥaḍrat Abû Bakr RA entered Madînah wearing these same garments.

After staying in Makkah for a while Ḥaḍrat Zubair ra also migrated to Madīnah along with his mother Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra and his wife Ḥaḍrat Asmā’ ra. In Madīnah, Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra lived with her son Ḥaḍrat Zubair ra and he looked after her lovingly and wholeheartedly. In 1st Hijrī, Ḥaḍrat Zubair ra was blessed with a son named ‘Abdullāh bin Zubair ra. The birth of this grandson of Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra holds a lot of importance in the history of Islam because no child had been born to any Muslim immigrant in Madīnah for many months preceding his birth. The Jews of Madīnah had taken advantage of the situation and had spread a rumour that they had cast a spell on the Muslims which was preventing them from having children and now they would never have any more children. The birth of Ḥaḍrat ‘Abdullāh ra proved them liars and gave Muslims a reason to rejoice. When the Muslims raised the joyous and passionate slogan of Na‘ra-e-Takbīr, [slogan proclaiming the Greatness of Allah] which echoed throughout the hills of Madīnah.

Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah ra was a brave and courageous lady and she took part in several battles. She brought water to the soldiers and tended to their wounds, and sometimes she even picked up the sword and fought the enemies herself. The battle of Uḥud that took place in the 3rd Hijrī was a difficult battle for the Muslims because they suffered heavy losses in that battle. When the tables turned on Muslims in this battle because of their mistakes, panic spread among them and they became confused. The enemy army managed to surround the Holy Prophetṣa and started to close in on him. Back at home when Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra heard about this situation, she immediately marched out of her home with a spear in her hand. On her way to the battlefield she came across Muslim soldiers who were fleeing from the battlefield. She called out to them angrily and challenged their sense of honour and pride by saying, “Have you left the Holy Prophet Muḥammadṣa behind!”

Her provocations caused these fleeing soldiers to return to the battlefield and fight to protect the Holy Prophetṣa.

In the 5th year after Hijrah many of the disbelieving tribes of Arabia and the Jewish tribes joined forces and prepared an immense attack on the Muslim city of Madīnah. Madīnah was the stronghold of the Muslims and compared to the approaching army had very few resources with which to defend itself.

Inside Madīnah a Jewish tribe called Banū Quraiṣah had a fortress. This tribe had signed a pact of peace with the Muslims; however, during the Battle of the Ditch they betrayed the Muslims and began helping the enemies of Islam. It was a time of great trial for the Muslims, however they remained firm and did not hesitate because they had made an oath to sacrifice their wealth and lives in the cause of Allah.

The biggest problem that the Muslims faced in this battle was the defencelessness of their women and children to the enemy threat inside Madīnah. To keep the women and children safe the Holy Prophetṣa moved them all into a fortress called Fārī‘ which was built by the Anṣār.

The fortress of the Banū Quraīṣah was located very close to this area. When the women and children were sent there the Muslims were not yet aware of the changed loyalties of the Banū Quraīṣah. They believed that the Banū Quraīṣah would help protect the women and children of Madīnah. Ḥaḍrat Ḥassān bin Thābitra was appointed guard at this fortress. Even though this fortress was quite strong, it was not completely safe from danger. Because the Holy Prophetṣa and all his companions were busy fighting and defending the city at the boundary lines, no Muslim warriors were available inside the city to defend this fortress.

When it became known that the Jewish tribe had switched allegiances the Muslims became worried about their women and children who were vulnerable to the threat presented by the Banū Quraizah. As the war went on for many days, a Jewish man showed up in the vicinity of the fortress and started asking questions about the people inside it. Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra happened to spot this Jewish man, and her superior intelligence and instincts allowed her to identify this man as a spy. She feared that if he told the Banū Quraizah that there were only women and children in this fortress with no one to defend them, they would certainly attack the fortress. So, she sought out Ḥaḍrat Ḥassān bin Thābitra immediately and advised him to go outside the fortress and kill this Jewish spy. If he were not killed he would tell the enemy that this fortress was defenceless and was housing only women and children. If this information reached the Banū Quraizah it would most likely lead to an attack in which all the women and children of the Muslims would be killed!

Ḥaḍrat Ḥassān bin Thābitra disagreed with her and said, “If I were able enough to fight this Jewish man, then would I not be fighting alongside the Holy Prophetra right now?!”

Upon hearing this response, Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra got up immediately, dug out a wooden pole from the ground that was holding the tent they were standing in, and went after the Jewish man herself. She served a forceful blow on the Jewish man’s head with the wooden pole rendering him dead. Then she advised Ḥaḍrat Ḥassānra to confiscate the dead man’s clothes and weapons, but Ḥaḍrat Ḥassānra hesitated again. She asked Ḥaḍrat Ḥassānra to cut off his head and throw it over the walls of the fortress, and yet again Ḥaḍrat Ḥassānra refused. This lead to Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra taking the matters into her own hands again. She decapitated the dead Jewish man herself and flung his head out of the fortress walls. When the men of Banū Quraizah who were waiting for their spy to return saw the severed head they were horrified. They thought that an army of Muslims soldiers was inside the fortress. They decided against attacking it and returned to their own fortress.⁸

This is how the courage, bravery, and fearlessness of Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyahra saved all the Muslim women and children from a huge danger, and the cruel and evil plans of the Banū Quraizah. She not only defeated the Banū Quraizah with her foresight and wisdom but she also proved that if the occasion demanded the Muslim female warriors were also ready to jump into the battlefield and fight dutifully. Her wise actions sabotaged the evil plans of the Banū Quraizah.
Because of her services the Holy Prophet ﷺ granted her a share from the war bounty. It should be noted that ฮาดรัต Ṣafiyyahra was about fifty eight years when she displayed such acts of unmatched bravery.⁹

During the battle of Uḥud when the Holy Prophet ﷺ heard the news of the martyrdom of ฮาดรัต Ḥamzahra, he set out to find 侘ดรัต Ḥamzahra himself, and his search ended in the Valley of Batan. 侘درัต Ḥamzahra was speared to death while fighting courageously by the slave of Jabr bin Muṭ‘im named Waḥshī bin Ḥarb. When the Holy Prophet ﷺ saw 侘درัต Ṣafiyyahra approaching the battlefield, he called out to her son Zubairra and said to him, “Stop your mother from coming any further because Ṣafiyyahra might lose her senses upon seeing the mutilated body of her brother Ḥamzahra.”

The Holy Prophetra did not want 侘ดรัต Ṣafiyyahra to find her beloved and brave brother’s body in such an awful condition. 侘ดรัต Zubairra relayed these instructions to his mother, and she understood the reason behind them and said, “I have learned that my brother’s dead body was mutilated, but it all happened while he fought in the way of Allah. Allah knows that I am not happy about it, but I will be patient while facing this misfortune, and God willing, I will display forbearance, and I hope that Allah will reward me for it.”

When the Holy Prophet\(^\text{sa}\) was made aware of the response by Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah\(^\text{ra}\), he gave her permission to view the dead body of Ḥaḍrat Ḥamzah\(^\text{ra}\) and admonished others to clear her way. She approached her beloved brother’s lifeless body while weeping and when she saw his scattered remains she sighed loudly and recited, “To Allah we belong, and to Him we shall return.” Then she silently prayed for his forgiveness and offered two sheets of cloth to aid with his burial. After the burial she journeyed back to Madīnah.

When Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah\(^\text{ra}\) was praying for her beloved brother’s forgiveness, she could not stop her tears from spilling out of her eyes and started wailing uncontrollably. When the Holy Prophet\(^\text{sa}\) saw her crying his eyes welled up with tears as well. He approached her and admonished her to be patient and said, “Gabriel the trustworthy has given me the good news that Allah has given Ḥamzah\(^\text{ra}\) bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib the titles of \textit{Asadullāh} and \textit{Asadur-Rasūl} (The Lion of God and The Lion of the Messenger) in His heavenly abode.”\(^{10}\)

This incident signifies that Ḥaḍrat Ṣafiyyah\(^\text{ra}\) was very patient and she always surrendered to Allah’s will like a true and devout Muslim.

璜德拉特 Şafiyyah RA was highly intelligent and knowledgeable. She was very skilled in Arabic poetry and literature. She even composed poetry herself and was considered a poetess. At the death of her father,璜德拉特 ‘Abdul-Muţţalib, and her brother,璜德拉特 Hamzah RA, she wrote some very sentimental odes in their honour. She also wrote a beautiful poem on the death of the Holy Prophet SA.11

The Holy Prophet SA was the nephew and cousin of璜德拉特 Şafiyyah RA and was also her husband’s brother-in-law.璜德拉特 Şafiyyah RA grew up in the same house as the Holy Prophet SA. This is why she had an extraordinary love for the Holy Prophet SA. He also shared a heartfelt bond with her, and used to call her son,璜德拉特 Zubair RA, ‘Ibn Şafiyyah.’ When the Holy Prophet SA passed away in 11th Hijrî,璜德拉特 Şafiyyah RA suffered from tremendous grief. At this occasion she wrote a verse which accurately depicts the extent of her sorrow and torment.

This brave lady passed away in 20th Hijrî at the age of seventy-three, during the Khilâfat of璜德拉特 ‘Umar Farûq RA. She was laid to rest in Ḫannatul-Baqî’.12 May Allah shower her with abundant mercy. Āmîn.
The following abbreviations have been used. Readers are urged to recite the full salutations when reading the book:

sa ṣallallāhu ʿalaihi wa sallam, meaning ‘may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him,’ is written after the name of the Holy Prophet Muḥammadṣa.

as ʿalaihis-salām, meaning ‘may peace be on him,’ is written after the name of Prophets other than the Holy Prophet Muḥammadṣa.

ra raḍiyallāhu ʿanhu/ʿanhā/ʿanhum, meaning ‘may Allah be pleased with him/her/them,’ is written after the names of the Companions of the Holy Prophet Muḥammadṣa or of the Promised Messiahṣa.

In transliterating Arabic words we have adopted the following system established by the Royal Asiatic Society.

1 at the beginning of a word, pronounced as a, i, u preceded by a very slight aspiration, like b in the English word honour.

2 th, pronounced like th in the English word thing.

3 b, a guttural aspirate, stronger than h.

4 kh, pronounced like the Scotch ch in loch.

5 dh, pronounced like the English th in that.
ṣ, strongly articulated s.

ḍ, similar to the English th in this.

ṭ, strongly articulated palatal t.

‘, a strong guttural, the pronunciation of which must be learnt by the ear.

gh, a sound approached very nearly in the r grasseye in French, and in the German r. It requires the muscles of the throat to be in the ‘gargling’ position whilst pronouncing it.

q, a deep guttural k sound.

’, a sort of catch in the voice.

Short vowels are represented by:

a  for ā (like u in bud)

i  for ī (like i in bid)

u  for ū (like oo in wood)

Long vowels by:

ā  for ā or ā (like a in father);

ī  for ī or ĕ (like ee in deep);

ū  for ū (like oo in root);
Other:

- ai for ې (like i in site);
- au for ې (resembling ou in sound)

The consonants not included in the above list have the same phonetic value as in the principal languages of Europe. While the Arabic ن is represented by n, we have indicated the Urdu ن as n. Curved commas are used in the system of transliteration, ‘ for ﯐, ’ for ۔.

We have not transliterated Arabic words which have become part of English language. The Royal Asiatic Society rules of transliteration for names of persons, places and other terms, could not be followed throughout the book as many of the names contain non-Arabic characters and carry a local transliteration and pronunciation style which in itself is also not consistent either.
