This book, Hazrat Umme Kulsoom, is the story of one of the blessed daughters of the Holy Prophet Muhammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

Umme Kulsoom means ‘Mother of Kulsoom’. She was the third daughter of the Holy Prophet Muhammadṣa by Hazrat Khadijahra. She had the honour of accepting Islam soon after her mother, who was the first woman to accept Islam. Hazrat Umme Kulsoomra bore many hardships because of her faith. This book captures these briefly with the hope that the reader can catch a glimpse into the life and character of this noble lady.

This book was originally written by Khadijah
Zafar in Urdu. The English version of the book was produced by the English Translation section of Additional Wakalat-e-Tasnif. The translation was done by Busaina Ahmad, while the review and formatting were completed by Waseem Sayed, Bushra Shahid, Maryam Bhatti, Asifah Wahab Mirza, Aamna Bhatti and Maria Qudoos Shahid. Her Blessed Family Hazrat Umme Kulsoomra is the story of a blessed daughter of our beloved master, the Holy Prophet Muhammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

The Holy Prophetsas was twenty-five1 years old when he married Hazrat Khadijahra, the daughter of Khuwailid. Hazrat Khadijahra belonged to the Asad tribe2 and was a wealthy lady of high moral character. Because of her piety and righteousness, she came to be known as Tahirah3 in Makkah. Hazrat Khadijahra became impressed by the honesty and trustworthiness of the Holy Prophetsas and sent him a proposal of marriage through her friend Nafeesah, the daughter of Mena. The Holy Prophetsas accepted the proposal after seeking counsel from his uncle, Abu Talib.4
Hazrat Khadijah ra gave birth to all the children of the Holy Prophet sas except for his son Hazrat Ibrahim ra who was born to Hazrat Mariyah Qibtiyyah ra. The Holy Prophet sas had three sons and four daughters from Hazrat Khadijah ra. The names of his three sons were Qasim, Tahir, and Tayyab. In some traditions, Hazrat Tayyab ra is also referred to as Hazrat Abdullah ra.

His daughters’ names were Zainab, Ruqayyah, Umme Kulsoom and Fatimah. All of these children of the Holy Prophet sas were born before his claim of prophethood. The Holy Prophet’s kunyat, or parental lineage name, was Abul-Qasim (the Father of Qasim) after his eldest son’s name Qasim. All three sons passed away in childhood, however, the daughters reached adulthood and accepted Islam.

Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra was six years old when the Holy Prophet sas announced his prophethood. In other words, she was born in Makkah six years before the Holy Prophet sas announced his prophethood. She had two elder sisters: Hazrat Zainab ra, who was ten years old at that time, and Hazrat Ruqayyah ra, who was a year older than her. All three sisters witnessed the period of opposition towards their beloved father after his claim of prophethood.
CHAPTER TWO
Her First Marriage

It was normal in those days, according to Arab custom, for girls to be married at what would seem a very young age these days. So, the two sisters, Hazrat Ruqayyah ra and Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra were married at an early age. Hazrat Ruqayyah ra was married to Utbah the elder son of the paternal uncle of the Holy Prophet sas, Abu Lahab, and Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra was married to Abu Lahab’s other son, Utaibah. At that time Abu Lahab was not an opponent of the Holy Prophet sas, but when the Holy Prophet sas claimed prophethood, both Abu Lahab and his wife, Umme Jameel, became bitter enemies of the Holy Prophet sas. Umme Jameel used to lay down thorns in the alleyway where the Holy Prophet sas would pass. Due to this, the blessed feet of the Holy Prophet \textsuperscript{sas} would get wounded. The Holy Prophet \textsuperscript{sas}, a mercy for the entire universe, always showed great patience and forbearance. However, this would just enrage his enemies even more.

It is because of his enmity towards Islam that Abu Lahab threatened to break all ties with his sons if they did not divorce the daughters of the Holy Prophet Muhammad \textsuperscript{sas}. So Hazrat Ruqayyah \textsuperscript{ra} and Hazrat Umme Kulsoom \textsuperscript{ra} were divorced at the same time. This was the first of many big trials that the Holy Prophet \textsuperscript{sas} had to face because of the enmity towards Islam.

Hazrat Umme Kulsoom \textsuperscript{ra} accepted Islam with her mother \textsuperscript{6}, Hazrat Khadijah \textsuperscript{ra} when the Holy Prophet \textsuperscript{sas} first claimed prophethood. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom \textsuperscript{ra} took the oath of allegiance at the hand of the Holy Prophet sas together with her sisters when some other ladies also, were granted this honour. This was also the beginning of the period of hardships for the Holy Prophet sas and his family.

One of these hardships was that the enemy surrounded the home of the Holy Prophet sas. At such a time, he was forced to take refuge in a valley known as Shi‘b Abi Talib to save himself and his companions from the evil of these people.
CHAPTER THREE
Difficult Times

The Shi‘b Abi Talib (valley) was a narrow pass between two hills that were owned by the family of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas}. It was in this valley that the family of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} had to take refuge. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra} lived there patiently with her mother, Hazrat Khadijah\textsuperscript{ra}, for two and a half to three years. During this time in the valley, the enemies enforced a boycott, which means that no one was allowed to trade with the new Muslims. Amongst other hardships, there was very little food for the family because of this boycott.

By the time the boycott ended, Hazrat Khadijah\textsuperscript{ra} had become very weak because of her old age. She passed away in the tenth year of the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas}, during the blessed month of Ramadan. She is buried in the cemetery called Jannat al-Mu‘alla, also known as Al-Hajun. In the same year, Abu Talib, the uncle of the Holy Prophet Muhammad\textsuperscript{sas}, also passed away.

At the time of the demise of Hazrat Khadijah\textsuperscript{ra}, her daughter Hazrat Zainab\textsuperscript{ra} was already married and had migrated to Abyssinia [present-day Ethiopia]. Her other two daughters, Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra} and Hazrat Fatimah\textsuperscript{ra}, were left without a mother. This was indeed a year of grief for the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas}.

As for Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}, after going through a painful divorce and the trial of Shi‘b Abi Talib, she had to endure the grief of the loss of her beloved mother.\textsuperscript{7} Hazrat Khaulah bint Hakeem\textsuperscript{ra} approached the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} and suggested to him that the only solution to his domestic difficulties was to remarry. The Holy Prophet ﷺ accepted the advice and married an elderly lady, Hazrat Saudah bint Zam‘ah. Her arrival in the family provided great support to the Holy Prophet ﷺ and both girls were raised under her care.

It was a very difficult time for the Muslims as Makkah was under the governance of Abu Jahl and his deputies, Abu Sufyan, Utbah, Shaibah, and Waleed—all of whom were arch-enemies of Islam. These were the days of extreme hardships for the Muslims living in Makkah. The enemies did not leave any stone unturned in causing pain to the Muslims.
CHAPTER FOUR
Migration to Madinah

When the disbelievers of Makkah planned the arrest and assassination of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, Allah the Almighty permitted the Holy Prophet ﷺ to migrate. Earlier, many Muslims had migrated to Abyssinia [Ethiopia] and at last, the day arrived when the Holy Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah with Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique ﷺ. Because of the situation at that time, the Holy Prophet ﷺ could not risk taking Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ﷺ and Hazrat Fatimah ﷺ with him, so they stayed in Makkah with their new mother, Hazrat Saudah ﷺ. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ﷺ and Hazrat Fatimah ﷺ spent this time with great resilience and bravery.

Soon after the Holy Prophet ﷺ had migrated, he sent Hazrat Abu Raafi’ ﷺ and Hazrat Zaid bin Harisah ra to Makkah, to bring his esteemed wife, Hazrat Saudah, and his beloved daughters to Madinah.

To get to Madinah Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra crossed the desert with the help of Hazrat Abu Raafi’ ra. She had never undertaken such a long and difficult journey like this one in her life, but she braved it.

Meanwhile, in Madinah, the Holy Prophet sas was busy in the construction of the mosque known as Masjid an-Nabawi. It was wise to build the home of the Holy Prophet sas within the perimeter of Masjid an-Nabawi so that his family could live with him as well. As the construction of their home was not complete, upon their arrival in Madinah, the family of the Holy Prophet sas stayed in the house of a companion Hazrat Haris bin Nauman ra. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra, Hazrat Fatimah ra and Hazrat Saudah ra stayed there for some time. When the construction work was completed, all three of them moved to their home in Masjid an-Nabawi.

In the second year of the Hijrah, the disbelievers of Makkah attacked the Muslims. The battle took place in the field of Badr. Some great companions of the Holy Prophet sas were martyred during this battle. At the time of the Battle of Badr, Hazrat Ruqayyah ra (who was now married to Hazrat Usman ra) was extremely ill. The Holy Prophet sas instructed Hazrat Usman ra to stay behind in Madinah and look after his wife. Hazrat Usman ra took great care of her, but she could not regain her health. Hazrat Ruqayyah ra passed away on the day the battle began.
Marriage to Hazrat Usman<sup>ra</sup>

Meanwhile, at the Battle of Badr, the son-in-law of Hazrat Umar<sup>ra</sup>, Khunais bin Hazafah<sup>ra</sup> (who was married to of Hazrat Hafsah<sup>ra</sup>) was martyred. Hazrat Hafsah<sup>ra</sup> was just eighteen years of age at the time. Hazrat Umar<sup>ra</sup> was deeply pained by the fact that she was widowed at such a young age.

After some time, Hazrat Umar<sup>ra</sup> asked Hazrat Usman<sup>ra</sup>, who had also been widowed recently, to marry Hazrat Hafsah<sup>ra</sup>. But Hazrat Usman<sup>ra</sup> did not reply. Upon this Hazrat Umar<sup>ra</sup> then explained his daughter’s situation to the Holy Prophet<sup>sas</sup>. The Holy Prophet<sup>sas</sup> said:

I will tell you about a person that is even better for Hafsah than Usman<sup>ra</sup>. And I will tell you of an even better match for Usman<sup>ra</sup> than Hafsah’s. You should marry Hafsah to me and I will give my daughter Umme Kulsoom in marriage to Hazrat Usman who is grieving the loss of Ruqayyah.\textsuperscript{8}

This way Hazrat Umme Kulsoom and Hazrat Usman were married. The Holy Prophet fixed the same dowry of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom as was fixed for Hazrat Ruqayyah. He said at the time of the nikah:

Allah has instructed me through the Angel Gabriel that I should marry my daughter, Hazrat Umme Kulsoom to you [Hazrat Usman] with the same dowry that was fixed for Hazrat Ruqayyah.\textsuperscript{9}
Hazrat Usman⁷⁸ had the honour of becoming the son-in-law of the Holy Prophet⁷⁹ for the second time and because of this, Hazrat Usman⁷⁸ is also known as Dhun-Noorain (Possessor of Two Lights).

Out of all those who migrated to Madinah from Makkah, Hazrat Usman⁷⁸ was the wealthiest. He had been blessed with a lot of money and so every imaginable worldly luxury that was available those days was at the disposal of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom⁷⁸. Hazrat Anas bin Malik⁷⁸ narrates that he saw Hazrat Umme Kulsoom⁷⁸ in a pure silk dress once, and at another time he saw her wearing an extremely expensive striped silk shawl, which was a part of her dress.
Demise and Burial

Both husband and wife were living a very happy life. As the moral training of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra had taken place in the home of the Holy Prophet sas, she looked after her husband in the best possible manner. Hazrat Usman ra also held Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra in high esteem. Knowing that she was the beloved daughter of the man who is the Chief of both worlds, Hazrat Usman ra had great respect for his wife.

Both husband and wife were happily married for six years even though they had no children from their marriage. Then sadly, Hazrat Umme Kulsoom ra became ill when she was just twenty-two years old. After a brief illness, she passed away.

Hazrat Usman ra was in a state of grief! It was difficult for the Holy Prophet sas to see what his son-in-law was going through. He expressed pride that Hazrat Usman\textsuperscript{ra} was his son-in-law and said that even if he had ten daughters he would have given each one of them—after the passing away of the other—to Hazrat Usman\textsuperscript{ra} in marriage.\textsuperscript{10} This is how deeply the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} loved and cared for Hazrat Usman\textsuperscript{ra}.

Upon the death of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}, the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas}, with tears flowing from his eyes, instructed how to prepare the body for burial: The Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} instructed that lote-tree\textsuperscript{11} leaves should be brought and boiled in water. This water was used to wash the body of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra} three, five or seven times as needed.

After the body had been bathed with this water, camphor was applied to the body of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}. Then, the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} placed the burial cloths in a specific order. First, one sheet was placed inside the coffin, then another was used as a shirt.

After that, the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} had one sheet put over the head of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}. Another sheet was wrapped around her body, and finally, a big sheet was placed on top. Hazrat Umme Atiyyah\textsuperscript{ra}, a \textit{sahabiyah} (companion) of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas}, assisted in the washing of the body.

The Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sas} led the funeral prayer of his beloved daughter, Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}. With tears in their eyes, illustrious \textit{Sahabah} like Hazrat Abu Talha\textsuperscript{ra}, Hazrat Ali\textsuperscript{ra}, Hazrat Fazl bin Abbas\textsuperscript{ra}, and Hazrat Usama ibn Zaid\textsuperscript{ra} placed the body of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra}, with great care and reverence in her final resting place. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom\textsuperscript{ra} was buried in Jannatul-Baqee’, beside her sister, Hazrat Ruqayyah\textsuperscript{ra}.
May Allah the Almighty grant her a high status in Paradise and enable future generations to follow her excellent example of steadfastness and righteousness. Aameen.

Al-Hajun—The other name of Jannat al-Mu‘alla. Jannat al-Mu‘alla is an Arabic word translated as ‘The Most Exalted Paradise’, and is a cemetery to the north of the Ka‘bah in Makkah, Saudi Arabia. It is the place where Hazrat Khadijah ra, the wife of the Holy Prophet Muhammad sas, his grandfather, and other ancestors are buried.

Battle of Badr—The first battle in the history of Islam between the Muslims and the non-believers.

Bin/Bint—Arabic word that means ‘son of’/‘daughter of’.

Hazrat—His/her Holiness

Hijrah—This Arabic word literally means ‘migration’ and refers to the Migration of the Holy Prophet Muhammad sas from Makkah to Madinah.
This historical event marks the beginning of the Islamic calendar.

Jannatul Baqee‘—Or ‘Garden of Heaven’ is the oldest and the first Islamic cemetery in present-day Saudi Arabia. It is located to the southeast of the Prophet’s Mosque and contains the graves of some members of the family of the Holy Prophet Muhammad \(^{sas}\) and his companions.

Masjid an-Nabawi—Literally translated as ‘the Prophet’s Mosque’. It was originally built by the Holy Prophet Muhammad \(^{sas}\) in the city of Madīnah after migrating from Makkah. This is the second holiest site in Islam after the Ka‘bah. The Mosque is also a major pilgrimage site during Hajj. Hajj is the annual pilgrimage to Makkah and one of the five pillars of Islam.

Sahabah/Sahabiyaat—The term for the male/female companions of the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. That is, those men and women who have met the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ in person. Male companions are called the Sahabah (Sahabi is the singular). The companions of the Prophet hold a very high rank in Islam, due to their high level of piety, sacrifice and righteousness.

Shi‘b Abi Talib— Or ‘the Valley of Abu Talib’ is a valley between the Mount Abu Qubais and the Mount Khandamah in Makkah. Seven years after the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ announced his prophethood, the idol-worshippers of Makkah declared an economic and social boycott on the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and his followers. So they lived in Shi‘b Abi Talib for three years under blockade.

Umm— Arabic word that means ‘mother of’.
