Introduction

Islam is the culmination of religious development, which Allah the Almighty started by commissioning Ḥaḍrat Adam as. The Holy Prophet, Ḥaḍrat Muhammad [Peace and blessings of Allah be upon him] provided an excellent model for human life, and was bestowed the perfect Book as a guidance, for all times to come.

The Holy Prophet sa made prophecies that a time will come that the Muslims will disregard the Holy Qur’an, people calling themselves ‘ulema’ would be the worst creation under the canopy of heavens, and forces of evil would join hands in the form of dajjāl [Antichrist]. He also made a mighty prophecy that Allah the Almighty would raise a Mahdī [divinely guided rejuvenator] to vanquish the evils of the latter days and establish true faith. According to another ḥadīth the Promised Mahdī is none other than [the second coming of] Ḥaḍrat ‘Īsā as [Jesus].

Based on divine revelations, Ḥaḍrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian, Founder of the Ahmadiyyah Muslim Community, claimed to be the Promised Messiah, in whom the prophecies about the Mahdī and the second coming of Ḥaḍrat ‘Īsā as [Jesus] have been fulfilled.

Even before his claim, he was known to be an exemplary Muslim and a champion of Islam. His revelations include repeated challenges to his opponents to point to any blemish in his life.

Tadhkirah constitutes a collection of both the direct verbal revelations and dreams and visions received by the Promised Messiah as. All of these are within the context of the Holy Qur’an. They neither add anything to the teachings of Islam nor take anything away from them. The Promised Messiah has emphasized repeatedly that all the blessings he has received are a consequence of following the Holy Prophet. He writes:

The Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, is the true and the primary object of these divine favours. These [blessings] are bestowed upon others merely on account of their relationship to him.

He also prophesied that the divine mission entrusted to him would succeed in establishing the Unity of God, in its true sense, throughout the world. He writes:

The time is near that the true Unity of God, which is perceived within their nature even by those who dwell in the desert or are completely unaware of any teaching, will spread through all regions. On that day there will remain no artificial atonement nor an artificial god. A single stroke of God will frustrate all the plans of disbelief, not by any sword, nor by any gun, but by bestowing light on eager souls and by illuminating the pure hearts. Then will there be an understanding of all that which I say.

A study of his dreams, visions and revelations shows how he was graced with the help, succour and glad tidings throughout his life. These blessings will inshā’Allāh [God willing] continue to grace all those who follow him sincerely.

Foreword to the First English Edition

This volume presents an English rendering of the dreams, visions and verbal revelations vouchsafed to Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, the Promised Messiah and Mahdi, over a period of more than 30 years. The original was compiled from various publications (books, journals and newspapers) in which the material was contemporaneously publicised.

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad was born in February 1835 at Qadian, India and died at Lahore on May 26th 1908. He was a scion of a noble family which had been settled in Qadian for 400 years. From his childhood he had been devoted to spiritual values and had an innate antipathy towards worldly concerns.

In compliance with his father’s wishes he took up a minor administrative appointment in his younger days but soon abandoned it and returned to his life of religious study and devotion. Off and on, under his father’s directions, he would proceed upon an errand of a temporal character but derived no satisfaction from it. His father perceiving his strong bent towards matters spiritual gave up the attempt to persuade him to interest himself in a worldly career.

A deep study of the Holy Quran, a passionate devotion to the Holy Prophet of Islam (peace be on him) and a constant pre-occupation with divine worship and prayer became the pattern of his life. He was much distressed at observing the indifference of the Muslims towards the moral and spiritual values inculcated by the Holy Quran and was deeply pained by the attacks of non-Muslim propagandists against the doctrines and teachings of Islam.

He found that the Christian missionaries of the time put themselves in the vanguard of those elements which were hostile to Islam. After deep and prolonged reflection over this painful situation he was moved to undertake a vindication of Islam from every point of view. This took the shape of his epoch-making production entitled the Braheen Ahmadiyya, the publication of the very first part of which endeared him to the hearts of all sincere Muslims as an outstanding champion of Islam.

By that time he had become a recipient of revelation. The successive parts of Braheen Ahmadiyya set forth many of his dreams and visions and the verbal revelations received by him. It became obvious to the readers of Braheen Ahmadiyya that he was destined to be a great force in Islam.

In 1889 he laid the foundations of the Ahmadiyyah Movement and sent forth a call for the righteous to enter into a covenant of spiritual allegiance to him as a Reformer within the body spiritual of Islam. His call was responded to by several people who covenanted to be his helpers and to obey him in all matters of moral and spiritual import. His call also aroused a certain degree of opposition among the Muslims which in the course of time took on the character of bitter hostility in which certain sections of the non-Muslims also joined.

Under divine direction Mirza Ghulam Ahmad claimed to be the Messiah and the Mahdi whose advent had been foretold by the Holy Prophet of Islam (peace be on him).

The gravamen of the charge made against him by the Muslim divines was that he claimed to be a prophet contrary to the directive contained in the Holy Quran to the effect: Muhammad is not the father of any of your men, but he is the Messenger of Allah and Seal of the Prophets (Khatam-an-Nabiyyeen). Allah has full knowledge of all things (33:41).
In answer to this Mirza Ghulam Ahmad explained that he most sincerely and whole-heartedly believed that the Holy Prophet, peace be on him, was Khatam-an-Nabiyyeen in the fullest and most exalted connotation of the expression. He believed that the Holy Prophet was most richly endowed by Allah with all the excellences of prophethood at the highest level. He affirmed that by the advent of the Holy Prophet the prophethood of all previous prophets which was current and binding upon their respective peoples had come to an end and that thereafter the only prophethood that was to be current was the prophethood of the Holy Prophet^{sa} and no other prophethood. The spiritual status of Prophet would thereafter be conferred only upon one who would be the most sincere and most faithful follower of the Holy Prophet^{sa} and whose light would be a reflection of the light of the Holy Prophet, peace be on him, and would be wholly derived from him. Such a person would be spiritually at one with the Holy Prophet^{sa} and would have no separate independent spiritual identity of his own. Mirza Ghulam Ahmad claimed to be a prophet only in that sense and he claimed that in his advent were fulfilled the prophecies concerning the advent of the Messiah and the Mahdi. He rejected as false and derogatory of the dignity of the Holy Prophet, peace be on him, as Khatam-an-Nabiyyeen, the notion that Jesus, a prophet in Israel, would come back from heaven to carry out the revival of Islam.

Mirza Ghulam Ahmad affirmed that the Holy Quran comprehends the totality of divine guidance needed for the whole of mankind for all time, and that it cannot be added to or subtracted from in the least degree. He rejected as unfounded the false notion entertained by the bulk of his Muslim opponents that a number of verses of the Holy Quran had been abrogated. He taught that every directive set out in the Holy Quran was binding for all time according to its true import.

Mirza Ghulam Ahmad affirmed that his claim to prophethood, as explained by him, was in accord with the Holy Quran and the true Hadith. He set forth in support of his claim: Children of Adam, if Messengers come to you from among yourselves, rehearsing My commandments, unto you, then whoso is mindful of his duty to Allah and acts righteously, on such shall come no fear nor shall they grieve. But those who reject Our Signs and turn away from them in disdain, these shall be the inmates of the Fire; therein shall they abide. (7:36-37)

He also pointed out that the Holy Prophet, on whom be peace, speaking of the advent of the Messiah had described him as a prophet of Allah, and on the death of his son Ibrahim he had said that had he lived he would have been a true prophet. Concerning Abu Bakr he had said: Abu Bakr is the most exalted person among my people except one who might be a Prophet. He also drew attention to an admonition of Ayesha, wife of the Holy Prophet, to the effect: Call him Khatam-an-Nabiyyeen but do not say that there will be no Prophet after him.

Attention might in this context be drawn to a criterion laid down in the Holy Quran wherein it is affirmed: If he had fabricated any saying and attributed it to Us, We would surely have seized him by the right hand, and then surely We would have severed his large artery, and not one of you could have kept Us from it. (69:45-48)

Divines and commentators are agreed that these verses furnish an irrefutable test of the truth of a claimant of the receipt of divine revelation. If such a claimant persists in his claim and survives for a period of twenty three years, his claim must be accepted as true. The principle deduced from these verses is that God will not permit one who falsely claims to be a recipient of divine revelation to flourish at all and such a claimant would not survive for a period equal to that of the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet, peace be on him. It is a well known fact fully publicised that Mirza Ghulam Ahmad maintained his claim of being a recipient of divine revelation for more than 30 years right till the time of his death.

The whole life of Mirza Ghulam Ahmad was exemplary in every sense and there can be no doubt that since his early childhood he was being prepared to be a vehicle of the divine will. We read in the Quran concerning Moses: I surrounded thee with My love, so that thou mightest be reared under My care ... We proved thee in various ways... then thou camest up to the standard, Moses, and I chose thee for Myself. (20:40-42) As with Moses so with every Prophet.

The grant of revelation is a pure bounty of God. It is not the choice of a recipient however righteous and exalted he might be. There is a widespread notion in the west that revelation is an upsurge of the mind of a righteous human being. The Quran rejects that notion. For instance, it says of the Holy Prophet: He does not speak out of his own desire; the Quran is pure revelation sent down to him. (53:4-5).

At another place it is said: His are the most exalted attributes. He is the Lord of the throne. He causes His Word to descend on whomsoever of His servants He pleases that He may warn people of the Day of Meeting. (40:16)

In its wider connotation revelation might comprise dreams, visions and verbal revelation. The distinction between dreams and visions for this purpose is that a vision is experienced in a state of wakefulness in which the recipient's faculties are withdrawn from any other experience and are concentrated on the subject matter of the vision.

True dreams are a common experience and that a person may have a true dream or dreams is not an indication of his righteousness or sanctity. Such an experience is merely proof that all human beings possess the faculty of experiencing a true dream and that, therefore, one should not reject the notion of higher forms of revelation out of hand.

In this volume will be discovered a variety of experiences of all forms of revelation. Some of the verbal revelations are a repetition of verses of the Holy Quran. Their purpose is to emphasise some aspects of the connotation of the verses and their applicability to a particular set of circumstances. The revelation of a Quranic verse does not import any addition to the Holy Quran.

Some of the revelations were repeated many times. This was not at the choice of the recipient. Each time the revelation was vouchsafed afresh.

This collection of revelations is replete with prophecies many of which have been fulfilled, some of them repeatedly and some await fulfilment.

It is hoped that a rendering into English of all this material would be found most helpful by seekers after truth in this age and in succeeding ages who may not have, for lack of knowledge of the original, access to the actual words in which the revelation is expressed.

Foreword to the Second English Edition

Ḥaḍrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was sent as the Promised rejuvenator and reformer by Allah the Almighty in accordance with His promises. Allah the Almighty graced him with His word in abundance and guided him throughout his life.

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} passed away on May 26, 1908. After his demise, the institution of Khilāfat was established in the Aḥmadiyyah Muslim Jamā‘at [Community] in accordance with the prophecies. By the grace of God the Community is now headed by his fifth successor—Ḥaḍrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, Khalifatul Masīḥ V\textsuperscript{aba}.

Tadhkirah is a collection of the revelations, visions and dreams of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. The first edition was compiled by a committee, headed by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad\textsuperscript{ra}, appointed by Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{ra} and was published in 1935. The second edition was prepared under the leadership of Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\textsuperscript{ra} and was published in 1956. The third edition was prepared by Maulānā Abdul Latīf Bahawalpuri and was published in 1969. The fourth edition\textsuperscript{1} was prepared under the leadership of Syed Abdul Hayee and was published in 2004.

The first English translation of Tadhkirah was prepared by Ḥaḍrat Chaudhry Muhammad Zafrullah Khan\textsuperscript{ra} and was published by the London Mosque in 1976. The second \textsuperscript{1} In fact the fourth edition was prepared by Qazi Muhammad Nazeer in 1977. The fifth edition was prepared under the leadership of Syed Abdul Hayee and was published in 2004. [Munir-ud-Din Shams]

English edition is now being published by the Additional Vakālat-e-Taṣnīf. This translation is revised by the English Translation Section (based in USA) of Additional Vakālat-e-Taṣnīf. It is prepared under the guidance of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ V̅aba, who gave his time liberally for this project. My humble self had the good fortune of sitting in Ḥuḍūr’s blessed audience and working closely on this project.

Special Characteristics of this Edition:

Some of the special characteristics of this edition are as follows:

• The direct verbal revelations are given in the original words;

• Wherever the Promised Messiahas has himself translated and/or explained a revelation in Urdu, our English translation/explanation is based on it and is given in the text, because the understanding bestowed upon the recipient of the revelation is its best explanation.

• Revelations not translated by the Promised Messiahas are, in general, translated in the footnotes. Where exceptions were deemed necessary the translation by the publishers have been italicized and given in brackets [].

• Translation of revelations containing the words of the Holy Qur’an—if they have not been translated by the Promised Messiahas himself—has been done in consultation with the translation of the Holy Qur’an by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīh IVrht or by Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Sher Ali ra.
Notes that are not a part of the original citations have been given in footnotes. Publishers’ notes from various editions of Tadhkirah have also been translated and improved where possible with the permission of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ Vāba. The responsibility for such footnotes rests with the publishers. We have tried to identify the writers of the footnotes as far as possible.

All entries in Tadhkirah that are based on personal narrations are subject to the process of verification. In this English translation, we have followed the Fourth Edition of original Tadhkirah. Any changes that were considered necessary during the process of verification were made with the approval of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ Vāba. It may also be noted that Khuṭbah Ilḥāmiyyah is a revealed sermon. It was published by the Promised Messiah as himself in a book form, and is not included in Tadhkirah.

This English edition is revised by Additional Vakālat-e-Taṣnīf in the English Translation section (based in USA) headed by Munawar Ahmed Saeed.

Foreword to the Third English Edition

The second English edition of Tadhkirah was published by Additional Wakālat-e-Taṣnīf in 2009. As was pointed out in the second edition, Khutbah Ilhāmiyyah is a revealed sermon, but could not be incorporated into the second edition. It has now been included in the present third English Edition under the instructions of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ V̆aba. The Promised Messiah as Says:

“On the morning of April 11, 1900, the day of ‘Idul-Adhā [the Festival of Sacrifices], I received a revelation:

[Urdu] Deliver an address in Arabic today, you have been bestowed the capacity.

This was followed by the revelation:

[Arabic] This address has been made eloquent by God Almighty…

Thereupon, I stood up after the ‘Īd Prayer to deliver the address in Arabic. God Almighty knows that the capacity was bestowed upon me from the unseen and the eloquent Arabic address proceeded from my mouth extempore, which was utterly beyond my capacity. …Subḥānallāh [Holy is Allah]. A fountain was at that time bursting forth from the unseen. I do not know whether it was I who was speaking or an angel speaking with my tongue. I knew only that I had no part in this address. Sentence after sentence issued from my mouth, already properly arranged and every sentence was a Sign for me….This is a literary miracle exhibited by God and no one can match it.

This English edition of Tadhkiraḥ also incorporates corrections and completes various incomplete quotations. Please note that the references of Maktubāt-e-Ahmadiyyah, where the year is not specified, are based on the first edition printed in India.

The review process was guided by Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ Vaba. My humble self was blessed with the opportunity to seek his guidance, obtain approval of the final translation, and convey his decisions to the reviewers and other departments as necessary.

The following members of my team had the honour of helping in preparing this revised English edition: Munawar Ahmed Saeed, Usman Nasir Choudhary, Abdul Wahab Mirza, and Fouzan Pal. I am also grateful for assistance from the Central Arabic Desk and Naẓārat Ishā’at in Rabwah, Pakistan.

May Allah reward all of them and their families for their sacrifices and bless them abundantly in this world and the hereafter.

Terminology

Please note that we have used the following terminology in citing the original references: Ishtihār has been translated as ‘Announcement’, Ḍamīmah\(^2\) as ‘Appendix’, and Maktūb as ‘Letter of.’

Citation of References from the Holy Qur’an

According to our system of counting Qura’nic verses, the verse Bismillahir-Rahmānir-Rahīm (In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, Ever Merciful) is counted as the first verse of the sūrah that it precedes.

Salutations

The name of Muḥammad\(^{sa}\), the Holy Prophet of Islam, has been followed by the symbol \(^{sa}\), which is an abbreviation for the salutation صلی الله عليه وسلم \(Ṣallallāhu ʿAlaihi Wasallam\) (may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). The names of other prophets and messengers are followed by the symbol \(^{as}\), an abbreviation for عليه السلام ‘Alaihis-Salām (on whom be peace). The actual salutations have not generally been set out in full, but they should nevertheless, be understood as being repeated in full in each case. The symbol \(^{ra}\) is used with the name of the companions of the Holy Prophet\(^{sa}\) and those of the Promised Messiah\(^{as}\). It stands for رضی الله عنہ/عنہا/عنہم \(Raḍī yallāhu ʿanh/ʿanhā/ʿanhum\) (May Allah be pleased with

Raḥimahullāhu Ta‘ālā (may Allah grant him peace) and ḍāba stands for أبدا الله تعالى بنصره العزيز
Ayyadahullāhu Ta‘ālā binasrihil-‘Azīz (May Allah the Almighty help him with His powerful support).

Transliteration

In transliterating Arabic words we have followed the following system adopted by the Royal Asiatic Society.

1. at the beginning of a word, pronounced as a, i, u preceded by a very slight aspiration, like h in the English word ‘honour’.
2. th, pronounced like th in the English word ‘thing’.
3. h, a guttural aspirate, stronger than h.
4. kh, pronounced like the Scotch ch in ‘loch’.
5. dh, pronounced like the English th in ‘that’.
6. s, strongly articulated s.
7. d, similar to the English th in ‘this’.
8. t, strongly articulated palatal t.
9. z, strongly articulated z.
10. ‘, a strong guttural, the pronunciation of which must be learnt by the ear.
11. gh, a sound approached very nearly in the r ‘grasseye’ in French, and in the German r. It requires the muscles of the throat to be in the ‘gargling’ position whilst pronouncing it.
ق $q$, a deep guttural k sound.

Short vowels are represented by $a$ for — $\text{َ}$ (like $u$ in ‘bud’); $i$ for — $\text{ِ}$ (like $i$ in ‘bid’); $u$ for — $\text{ُ}$ (like $oo$ in ‘wood’); the long vowels by $\ddot{a}$ for — or $\ddot{i}$ (like $a$ in ‘father’); $\breve{i}$ for $\text{ى}$ — or — (like $ee$ in ‘deep’); $\dddot{a}i$ for $\text{ى}$ — (like $i$ in ‘site’); $\breve{u}$ for $\text{و}$ — $\text{ُ}$ (like $oo$ in ‘root’); $au$ for $\text{و}$ — (resembling $ou$ in ‘sound’).

Please note that in transliterated words the letter ‘$e$’ is to be pronounced as in ‘prey’ which rhymes with ‘day’; however the pronunciation is flat without the element of English diphthong. If in Urdu and Persian words ‘$e$’ is lengthened a bit more it is transliterated as ‘$ei$’ to be pronounced as ‘$ei$’ in ‘feign’ without the element of diphthong thus $\text{Kei}$ is transliterated as ‘Kei’. For the nasal sound of ‘$n$’ we have used the symbol ‘$\breve{n}$’. Thus Urdu word ‘$\text{مین}$’ would be transliterated as ‘$\text{mei}$’.

The consonants not included in the above list have the same phonetic value as in the principal languages of Europe.

Student Life

(A) In my early youth I saw [in a dream] that I was in a magnificent building, which was very clean and neat where people were talking about the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. I enquired from the people where the Holy Prophet ṣa was and they pointed to a room in which I entered along with other persons. When I presented myself to Holy Prophet ṣa, he was much pleased, and returned my greeting with a better greeting. I can still recall and can never forget his charm and beauty and the kind and affectionate look that he directed towards me. He won my heart with his love and the beauty and glory of his countenance. He asked me: ‘O Aḥmad, what are you holding in your right hand?’ When I looked towards my right hand, I found that I had a book in my hand and I felt that I had written it myself. I answered him: ‘O Messenger ṣa of Allah, this is something I have written.’ He enquired: ‘What is the name of your book?’ I was surprised and looked at the book a second time and felt that it resembled a book in my library, which was called Ḍayrā, so I answered him: ‘O Messenger ṣa of Allah, this book is called Ḍayrā.’ He said: ‘Show me your book Ḍayrā.’ When the Holy Prophet ṣa took it, it turned into a delicate and attractive fruit as soon as his blessed hand touched it. When the Holy Prophet ṣa cut it as fruit is cut, pure honey began to flow out of it like pouring water. I perceived the wetness of honey on the right arm of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, from his fingers to his elbow, which were dripping with honey. I also felt that the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was showing me all this in order to make me wonder. Then it was conveyed to my heart that there was the dead body of a person lying outside the door who had been destined by Allah the Almighty to be brought to life by that fruit and that the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was to bestow life upon him. When this thought passed through my mind I saw that the dead person had suddenly come to life and had come up to me running and stood behind me, but that he was in a weak condition as if he was hungry. Then the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, looked at me smiling and cut the fruit into several pieces and ate one of them himself and gave all the rest to me, while they were dripping with honey and said to me: ‘O Ahmad, give one of the pieces to this person so that he might draw strength from it.’ I gave him a piece and, like a greedy person, he started eating it immediately.

I then saw that the chair in which the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was sitting began to rise till it reached up to the ceiling and I noticed that the face of the Holy Prophetsa began to shine as if reflecting rays of the sun and moon. I was watching his blessed countenance and my tears were flowing because of delight and ecstasy. Then I woke up and I was still weeping profusely.

Allah the Almighty then put it in my mind that the dead person in my dream was Islam and that Allah the Almighty would revive it at my hands through the spiritual power of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.
You do not know that this time may well be near; so wait eagerly for it. In this dream the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, nurtured me with his blessed hands, through his holy words and his light and the gift of fruit [from his blessed garden].

(B) My humble self saw Ḥadrat Khâtamul-Anbiyā’; may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, in a dream in 1864 or 1865 in my early youth, when I was still pursuing my studies. In my dream I had in my hand a religious book which I felt was of my own authorship. Upon seeing the book, the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, enquired from me in Arabic: ‘How have you named this book?’ I submitted: ‘I have named it Quṭbī.’ The interpretation of this name has now come to my mind on the publication of this well-publicised book [Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyāh]—that it is a book, which in its reasoning and arguments is firm and unshakeable like the polar star. Presenting the firmness of the contents of this book, I have issued a challenge and announced the award of a prize of 10,000 rupees [for anyone who might be able to refute it].

In short, the Holy Prophet⁶ sa took that book from me. The moment the blessed hands of the Holy Prophet⁶ sa touched it, it became an attractive and lovely fruit resembling a guava, but as large as a watermelon. When the Holy Prophet⁶ sa started cutting it into pieces to distribute it, it yielded so much honey that his blessed hand and forearm began to drip with it.

Then a dead body that was lying outside the door came to life as a miracle of the Holy Prophet \( \text{sa} \) and came and stood behind me. My humble self was standing before the Holy Prophet \( \text{sa} \) as a supplicant stands before a ruler. The Holy Prophet \( \text{sa} \) was occupying his chair in great glory and majesty, and with display of authority, as if he was a great champion.

To summarise, the Holy Prophet \( \text{sa} \) handed over to me a piece of the fruit so that I might give it to the newly revived person and he bestowed upon me all the remaining pieces. I gave that one piece to the revived person, which he ate immediately. When he finished eating it, I noticed that the blessed chair of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, had risen much higher and the countenance of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, began to shine forth like the rays of the sun, which was an indication of the revival and progress of Islam. While watching this display of light I woke up.

Period of Youth

In early youth, when one’s natural bent is towards play and sport, I saw in my dream that I entered a house in which there were several people who were my servants and attendants. I said to them: ‘Set up my house and clean up my bed, because my time has come.’ Then I woke up in fear of my life, as the impression on my mind was that I was about to die.\(^7\)

I remember that about thirty-four or so years ago, I saw in my dream that the ugly and dark figure of Satan was standing somewhere. First, he turned to me and I slapped him on the face and said: ‘Avaunt Satan, you have no part in me.’ Then he turned to someone else and took him along. I knew that person. Then I woke up.

On the same day, or shortly thereafter, the person whom I had seen in my dream that Satan had taken away, had an attack of epilepsy and became one of its victims. This led me to conclude that the interpretation of the companionship of Satan was epilepsy.

the Batala Taḥṣīl in lieu of his jāgīr8 in the Sialkot district, had died, I related this to Lālah Bhīm Sein who was a lawyer in Sialkot, and he was much surprised. On the same day at about 2 p.m. Mr. Prinsep, Commissioner Amritsar, arrived in Sialkot without prior notice and immediately directed Mr. McNabb, the Deputy Commissioner of Sialkot, to draw up an inventory of the gardens and other property of Raja Tejā Singh in the Sialkot District as the Raja had died the previous day in Batala. On learning this, Lālah Bhīm Sein wondered greatly how it was that I had received intimation of the Raja’s death before the news had arrived in Sialkot. Thirty-five years or so have passed since this revelation was vouchsafed.

Concerning a case instituted by my late father against one of his tenants relating to some tenancy rights in dispute, it was revealed to me in a dream that the suit would be decreed favourably. I communicated this dream to an Ārya\(^\text{11}\) who lives in Qadian.

Then it so happened that on the final date of the hearing only the defendant appeared in the court with some of his witnesses and no attorney, etc., appeared from this side. The defendant and all witnesses, upon their return in the evening, spread the news that the suit had been dismissed. On hearing this news, the said Ārya accused me of falsehood and mocked me. It is difficult for me to put into words the pain and torment that I suffered at that time, for it was hard to imagine that all these people, which included some who were impartial, would make a statement contrary to the facts. In this condition of extreme grief and sorrow the following revelation came to me very forcefully and was entrenched into my heart like an iron nail:

[Urdu] The suit has been decreed; are you a Muslim!

It meant: ‘Do you not believe and, despite being a Muslim, entertain any doubt.’ On further investigation it transpired that the suit had in fact been decreed and that the opposite party had misunderstood the verdict when they heard it.

When he appeared in the law examination from the district [Sialkot], I told him based on a dream that: ‘It has been decreed that all candidates who have appeared in the law or attorneyship examination from that district would fail, but you alone will succeed in the law examination.’ I also communicated this to about thirty other people.

12 The name of the Revenue Officer who was trying the suit was Ḥāfīz Ḥidāyat ‘Alî. He dismissed the suit on the statement of the defendant that according to a decision of the Commissioner he was entitled to cut down the tree in dispute. When he announced the dismissal of the suit the defendant and his witnesses went out of the court room. They returned to the village and announced that the suit has been dismissed. Thereafter, the Reader of the Court, who left the court room for a little while, returned and pointed out to the Revenue Officer that the order of the Commissioner which the defendant had relied upon had been set aside by the Financial Commissioner. The Reader put up the file to the Revenue Officer. Thereupon, Ḥidāyat ‘Alî made a complete turnabout, tore up his first order, and decreed the suit.

Once I saw in a dream that my brother Ghulām Qādir was seriously ill. This dream was communicated to several people. Accordingly, my brother became seriously ill thereafter.

Thereupon, I began to pray for him. I saw another dream that he was being called by an elder deceased member of the family. The usual interpretation of such a dream is death. His illness became more serious and he was reduced to a skeleton. This caused me great anxiety and I turned to Allah the Almighty, praying for his recovery…. I started praying and a few days later I saw in my dream that my brother was walking about in the house in full health without any support. He was accordingly restored to health by Allah the Almighty and lived for fifteen years thereafter.¹⁵

It so happened that my elder brother, who had appeared in the competitive examination for the post of taḥṣīldār and had been successful, was staying in Qadian at his home awaiting his assignment to a post. One day, at the time of ‘Aṣr, I was occupied with reading the Holy Qur’an in the upper chambers of the house. At the end of one page, as I was about to turn over to the next, I suddenly experienced a state of vision. I saw Sehaj Rām dressed in black and standing before me in the attitude of great humility and supplication as if trying to persuade me to intercede for him that he might be shown mercy. I said to him: ‘There is no time left for mercy;’ and simultaneously I was made to understand by Allah the Almighty that Sehaj Rām had expired at that moment. But no information had yet been conveyed about it. Thereafter, I descended from my room and found that my brother was sitting in the company of six or seven people and that their conversation related to the matter of my brother’s assignment to a post. I said: ‘Should Pandit Sehaj Rām die, his post would also be suitable.’ Those present laughed at me for having suddenly announced the death of a person who was hale and hearty. On the second or third day, the news arrived that Sehaj Rām had died suddenly at that very hour.

(A) A wonderful revelation was vouchsafed to me in Urdu in 1868 or 1869….It happened in this way: Maulavī Abū

16 A sub-collector of revenues. [Publishers]
Saʿīd Muḥammad Ḥusain of Batala, who had at one time been my fellow student, came back to Batala after completing his divinity studies. The people of Batala looked askance at him on account of some of his notions and ideas. One person was very insistent that I should debate a point in dispute with Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain. Yielding to his insistence, I accompanied this man in the evening to the home of Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain and found him in the company of his father in the Mosque.

To summarise, upon hearing the explanation of Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain, I concluded that there was nothing objectionable in his statement; and consequently, for the sake and pleasure of Allah, I declined to enter into a debate with him. The same night the revelation came to me from Allah the Noble, with reference to my declining to enter into the debate:

[Urdu] Your God is well pleased with what you have done. He will bless you greatly, so much so that Kings will seek blessings from your garments.

Thereafter in a vision, I was shown those kings; they were riding upon horses.

Since my attitude of humility and lowliness was adopted purely for the sake of God and His Messengerṣa, Allah, the Perfect Benevolent, did not desire to leave it unrewarded.

(B) Allah, the Lord of Glory, has also given me the glad tidings that some of the nobility and some of the kings will also join our group. He vouchsafed to me the revelation:
[Urdu] I shall grant you blessing upon blessing, so much so that kings\(^{17}\) will seek blessings from your garments.

\[^{18}\text{Barakātud-Du‘ā', p. 30, first edition, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 6, p. 35}\]

(C) Those who seek blessings in this manner will enter into the bai‘at [pledge of allegiance]. Because of their entering into the bai‘at, their governments will also practically belong to this Community.

Then I was shown those kings in a vision. They were riding upon horses and were not less than six or seven.

(D) I saw in a blessed dream a group of sincere believers and just and righteous kings, some of whom belonged to this country [India], some to Arabia, some to Iran, some to Syria, some to Turkey, and some to other regions of which I am not aware. Thereafter, I was told by Allah the Almighty:

This is the dream that I saw and this is the revelation that was vouchsafed to me by God the All-Knowing.

(A) About twelve years ago, there was a Hindu gentleman [Lālah Sharampat] who is now a member of Ārya Samāj of Qadian and who is alive and well. He bitterly denied the miracles and the prophecies of Ḥaḍrat Khātamur-Rusul, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.… A near relation of this Hindu gentleman [Bishambar Dās] was sent to prison because of some unexpected allegation against him. Another Hindu [Khush Ḥāl Chand] was also sent to prison along with him. Their case was taken up to the Chief Court on appeal. In that state of confusion and distress, that Ārya gentleman said to me one day: ‘It would be considered a revelation of the unseen, if someone can tell us now what the result of our case would be.’… I was overwhelmed by a God-given fervour that God may humiliate and confound him in connection with this very matter and I supplicated: ‘O Benevolent God, this man denies the honour and greatness of Your Noble Prophet and utterly denies the signs and prophecies that You have shown and promulgated through Your Messenger, but the revelation of the final result of this case can confound him. You have power over everything. You do ordain all according to Your will, and there is nothing hidden and beyond Your comprehensive knowledge.’

Thereupon, God—Who protects His true faith, Islam, and desires the honour and greatness of His Messenger—revealed the whole matter to me in a dream at night. He disclosed to me that the divine will was that the case would be remitted by the Chief Court back to the Lower Court, and in that Lower Court his [Bishambar Dās] sentence would be reduced by one-half but he would not be acquitted; and that his companion would serve out the whole of his sentence and he would also not be acquitted. I thanked my Benevolent God when I woke up that He had safeguarded me against being embarrassed before an opponent, and I related this dream to a large number of people immediately and also informed that Hindu [Lālah Sharampat] of it the same day.

(B) Bishambar Dās had been imprisoned for a year and his brother Sharampat, an active Ārya, had requested that I pray for him and had also enquired what the result of the case would be. I made my supplication and saw in a vision that I had gone to the office where the record of the case was kept and, opening the file, I had crossed out the words ‘one year’ and had written in their place the words ‘six months’.

Then it was conveyed to me in a divine revelation that the case would be remitted by the Chief Court to the lower court and [that the sentence of Bishambar Dās] would be reduced from one year to six months, but that he would not be acquitted. I communicated the entire vision very clearly to Sharampat, the Ārya, who is still alive.

When everything happened as I had foretold, he wrote to me: ‘You are a righteous servant of God and that is why He has revealed these hidden matters to you.’

About 1870

(A) In this true dream of mine, which was like a clear vision, it was conveyed to me that one Bishambar Dās, a Hindu, who is alive and present in Qadian, would not be acquitted in a criminal case, but that his sentence would be reduced by one-half, and that his fellow prisoner named Khush Ḥāl, who is also alive and present in Qadian, would serve out the whole of his sentence. A trial was encountered about this aspect of the vision. It so happened that when the Chief Court remitted the case to the lower court, in accordance with the prophecy of my humble self, the relatives of the two accused persons considered this remittal as an acquittal and announced the news in the town that both of them had been acquitted of the crime. I recall that this news spread in town during the evening. I was ready to offer the ‘Ishā’ Prayer while I was in the mosque, when one of the worshippers stated that this news had been spread in town and that the accused persons had returned to town. As I had publicly announced that they would certainly not be acquitted, I became prey to indescribable grief and sorrow. Then God, who always lends support to this humble servant of His, gave me the glad tiding at the beginning or during the course of the Prayer with this revelation:

Accordingly, the next morning it became clear that the news about the acquittal was totally false and that the result was exactly as my humble self had been foretold and of which Sharampat, the Ārya, and several other people had been apprised in advance.

(B) After an appeal had been preferred in the Chief Court in the case of Bishambar Dās, ‘Alī Muḥammad, a mullah of Qadian, who is still alive and is opposed to my Movement, came to me in our larger Mosque at the time of ‘Ishā’ Prayers and told me that the appeal was accepted and Bishambar Dās had been acquitted. He added that there was great rejoicing over it in the bazaar. On this I became a prey to such grief and sorrow as Allah alone knows. In that condition of grief, my senses were completely numb. The prayers began while I was in this condition. While I was in prostration during the prayers, the revelation was vouchsafed to me:

أَلَا تَخْرُّنِي إِنَّكَ أَنتَ الْفَضِّلُ

That is [Arabic] Grieve not, indeed you are on top.

I informed Sharampat of this and eventually it was known that Bishambar Dās had not been acquitted though his appeal was accepted.

During the meal we were very intimate and affectionate with each other like two brothers or two companions and friends of long standing. Afterwards, in the same place where I am now writing, the Masīḥ[^as], I, and a perfectly righteous descendant of the Holy Prophet[^sa] happily stayed together in the courtyard for some time. The descendant of the Holy Prophet[^sa] held a piece of paper in his hand in which the names of some eminent personalities from among the followers of the Holy Prophet[^sa] were entered and it also included words of praise which had been bestowed upon them by Allah the Almighty. He started reading this paper which seemingly indicated that he wanted to inform the Masīḥ[^as] of the ranks, which are decreed by Allah, for the chosen ones from among the Muslims. All praise entered in that paper was on behalf of God the Almighty. When the reading of the paper was approaching its end and only a small portion of it was left, the name of this humble one was mentioned and the following appreciation was entered in it in the Arabic language as proceeding from God the Almighty:

In a dream I saw an angel seated on an elevated platform in the guise of a boy. In his hand he was holding a pure loaf of bread, which was very bright. He gave it to me and said:

[Urdu] This is for you and for the dervishes who are with you.

I saw this dream at a time when I was not at all known nor had I put forth any claim nor was there any group of dervishes with me. But now I have a large Jamā‘at of people who have voluntarily chosen to put their faith above the world and have thus reduced themselves to the position of dervishes. Having migrated from their homes and having separated themselves from their relatives and friends, they have taken up permanent abode near me.

I had interpreted the loaf of bread as meaning that God Himself will provide for me and for my followers and that we will not be rendered anxious on account of lack of provision.

This has been the case over a long number of years.

The rest of their bodies were outside the ditch. The ditch ran east to west and the sheep had been laid on the edge of the ditch from the south. Each sheep was attended by a butcher and every butcher had a knife in his hand, which was placed at the neck of the sheep. The butchers were looking towards the sky as if awaiting the divine command. I found myself walking in the plain to the north and felt that the butchers were angels who were ready to slaughter the sheep as soon as they received the command from above. I approached them and recited the following verse of the Holy Qur’an:

That is [Arabic] Say to them: What would my Lord care for you, were you not to worship Him and were you not to abide by His commandments.

The events transpired accordingly. A cholera epidemic broke out in the Punjab and other parts of India. In Amritsar and Lahore especially, the epidemic was so severe that hundreds of thousands of people lost their lives. The loss of life was so widespread that corpses were carried on carts and it became difficult for the Muslims to arrange for funeral prayers.

our Jāmi‘ Mosque and then they emerged into the courtyard of the mosque. The woman stood near them. At that moment, a bright star appeared in the East. Sayyed ‘Abdul-Qādir was very happy at its appearance and greeted it with:

\textit{assalāmo ‘alaikum} [may peace be on you]. His companion also said: \textit{assalāmo ‘alaikum}. That star was myself. [As has been said]: [A believer sees visions himself and visions about him are vouchsafed to others.]

\textbf{About 1875}

At this point I recall a very clear vision which was as follows:\footnote{According to \textit{Kitābul-Bariyyah}, First Edition, page 166, footnote, \textit{Rūḥānī Khazā‘in}, volume 13, page 198 footnote, this vision belongs to the time somewhat before the demise of the revered father (may Allah shower His mercy upon him) of the Promised Messiah (may peace be upon him). [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]} After \textit{Maghrib} prayer, while I was fully awake, I was overtaken by a slight numbing of my faculties…and had a wonderful experience. First there was a sound of some people walking fast…and then five very dignified, holy, and handsome personages came into my vision. They were the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, Ḥaḍrat ‘Alī, Ḥasan, Ḥusain and Fāṭimah az-Zahrā’, may Allah be pleased with all of them. One of them, and I think it was Ḥaḍrat Fāṭimah, may Allah be pleased with her, out of great affection and kindness like a loving mother, placed this humble one’s head upon her thigh.
Then I was given a book concerning which I was told: ‘It is a commentary on the Holy Qur’an, which has been compiled by ‘Alî and now ‘Alî bestows it upon you.’ [Allah be praised for all this].

32 Publishers’ Note: Some details of this vision mentioned elsewhere by the Promised Messiah as are given below:

(A) I saw that ‘Alî, may Allah be pleased with him, showed me a book and said: ‘This is a commentary on the Qur’an which I have compiled and which God has commanded I should give to you.’ I stretched forth my hand and took the book. The Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was looking at me and heard what ‘Alî had said but did not himself speak as if he was saddened on account of some of my sorrows. When I saw him in my vision his countenance was the same as I had seen previously. The whole building was lit up with his light. Holy is Allah Who is the Creator of light and of illumined personages.

(B) He [Haḍrat ‘Alîra] gave me the commentary of the Book of Allah, the All-Knowing, and said: ‘This is my commentary and now you are most deserving of it; felicitations on that which has been bestowed upon you.’ So I stretched forth my hand and took the book and thanked Allah, the Bestower, the Most Powerful. I found him [Haḍrat ‘Alîra] of good presence, possessing good qualities, courteous, humble, and having a bright shining face. I affirm on oath that he met me with great affection and kindness. It was conveyed to me that he knew me and was aware that my doctrine and my stand were opposed to those of the Shi‘as, but he did not seem to resent it. Indeed, he met me like a sincere friend and showed great affection for me. He was accompanied by Ḥasanra and Ḥusainra and by the Best of Messengers Haḍrat Khâtamun-Nabiyyînra and by a handsome young woman—righteous and of high status; good natured and dignified—whose face was lit up with spiritual light. I found her filled with sorrow, which she was trying to suppress. It was conveyed to me that she was the

During the lifetime of my father, when his death was approaching, I saw in a dream an old holy personage with a blessed countenance, who conveyed to me that it was customary in the family of the Holy Prophet sa to fast for a period by way of preparation for the reception of heavenly light. I took this as an indication that I should follow this tradition.

I, therefore, deemed it proper to adhere to fasting over a lengthy period….The wonders that I experienced as a result of such fasting include a variety of subtle visions that were manifested to me. I met some of the past Prophets and some of the highly placed saints among the Muslims…. Moreover, I was vouchsafed visions of spiritual light in the shape of bright columns of green and red so beautiful and enchanting that their description cannot be conveyed in words. These columns extended up to heaven. Some of them were bright white, some green and some red. Their sight filled my heart with great joy. There is no delight in Lady Fāṭima az-Zahrā’. I was lying down. She approached me and sat down next to me and placed my head upon her thigh and was most kind to me. I noticed that she was sorrowful and anxious on account of my troubles, as mothers are anxious on account of the tribulations of their children. It was then conveyed to me that my relationship [with her] was like that of a spiritual son and it passed through my mind that her sorrow was an indication of the persecution that I was to undergo at the hands of my people, countrymen and enemies. Then Ḥasanra and Ḥusainra approached me and showed me fraternal affection and met me like kind well-wishers.

This vision was one of those that I experienced while I was awake and it happened many years ago.

life which could be compared with the delight that the heart and soul experienced through beholding them.

I am given to understand that these columns were a representation of the interaction of the love between God and His servant. That is to say, it was a light that proceeded upwards from the heart and there was a second light that descended from above. The meeting of the two took the shape of a column. These are spiritual experiences which the world cannot understand because they are far above the reach of the world’s eyes. But there are some in this world who are made aware of these phenomena.

In short, the wonders that were vouchsafed to me on account of this long period of fasting consist of these various kinds of visions….But I would not advise all and sundry to undertake such an exercise, nor did I do so of my own accord…. It should be remembered that I adopted this hard physical discipline for nine to ten months in compliance with a divine command conveyed to me in a clear vision and I endured the extremes of hunger and thirst. Then I gave it up as a continuous discipline but had recourse to it from time to time.

I once beheld angels in the guise of humans. I cannot recall whether there were two or three of them. They were conversing amongst themselves and said to me: ‘Why do you endure so much hardship? It is apprehended that you might make yourself ill.’ I thought that the reference was to my continuous fasting over six months.\[^{33}\]

\textbf{June 1876}\[^{34}\]

When my revered father died I was informed in a dream that the time of his death was near. I was in Lahore when I saw the dream, so I hastened back to Qadian. I found him ill with dysentery but I did not expect that he would die the very next day, for his illness had taken a turn for the better and he showed great steadfastness. The next day we were all with him during mid-day. The day being very hot, he very kindly suggested that I should rest a little. It was the month of June and the temperature was very high. I retired into an upper room and lay down while a servant gently massaged my feet.

In this condition, which resembled a light slumber, I received the revelation:

\text{وَاتَّبَعُونَهُمُ الْمَآثِرَ فِي سَبْتِ النَّهَارِ}

That is [Arabic] We call to witness the heaven where all decrees originate and We call to witness the event which will happen after the setting of the sun.

\[^{34}\] See also \textit{Dhikr-e-Ḥabīb}, by Ḥāḍrat Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiq\(^{a}\), page 224. [Publishers]
I was made to understand that this revelation was by way of condolence on the part of Allah the Almighty, and that the ocurrence to which it related was that my father would die after sunset…. My father died the same day after sunset ³⁵.

June 1876

When I received the revelation from Allah the Glorious centering the death of my revered father, which I have just mentioned, I was naturally troubled by the thought that some sources of income which were available only during my father’s lifetime would now cease and we might be faced with adversity. Thereupon, I received the second revelation:

آَيَّا لِسَلَّمُ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَلِيُّ يَدُوَّارٍ

That is [Arabic] Is not Allah sufficient for His Servant?

This revelation afforded me complete comfort and satisfaction and it impressed itself upon my heart like a steel nail. I call to witness Allah, the Lord of Honour and Glory, in Whose hands is my life that He has demonstrated the truth of this revelation of glad tiding in a manner that I could not have conceived of. He has provided for me as no father could have done for a child.

when my revered father, may Allah grant him forgiveness—who was a respected notable and was known with honour in the neighbourhood—died, two or three days after his death I saw in my dream a very beautiful woman whose features are still in my memory. She said to me: ‘My name is Rānī\(^{36}\)’. She conveyed it to me by gestures that she was the honour and dignity of this household and that she was about to depart, but would stay on for my sake.

In response to my comment that ‘you are a wonderfully handsome man’ he answered: ‘Yes, I am worthy of being looked at.’

Thereupon, I collected all our relatives and told them very clearly that they would not succeed in that suit and should not proceed with its defence; but, relying upon the apparent strength of their case, they paid no heed to my warning and continued the defence. In the court of first instance, the decision went in favour of my brother. But how could the matter be concluded contrary to the revelation from Allah the All-Knowing! Finally, in the Chief Court, my brother lost the case. In this way the truth of the revelation became manifest for everyone.

Approximately fifteen or sixteen years ago, or perhaps a little earlier, I dispatched an article in support of Islam against the Aryas for printing in a press owned by a Christian by the name of Rallia Ram, who was also a lawyer and lived in Amritsar. He was also the owner and editor of a newspaper. The article was sent in a postal packet open on both sides and I also placed a letter in the packet along with the article. This letter contained statements in support of Islam and refutation of other faiths and requested that the article might be printed in his paper. The Christian [editor] was upset on account of religious differences. He took advantage of the law that the placing of such a letter in a postal packet was an offence punishable with a fine up to 500 rupees or with imprisonment up to six months, of which I was utterly unaware. He reported the matter to the postal authorities and filed a case against me.

Before I received intimation of this case Allah the Almighty showed me in a dream that Rallia Ram, the lawyer, had sent a serpent to me so that I might be bitten by 41 Presently, such are not the laws of the postal service, but were the laws at that time. See Act 4 of 1866, clauses 12, 56, and Government of India Notification 2424, dated December 7, 1877, clause 43. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri] it but I fried the serpent as one fries a fish and sent it back to him.

I realise that this was an indication that the decision in that case might become a ruling helpful to lawyers in such cases.

In short, I was summoned to Gurdaspur (the headquarters of the district) to answer this charge. All the lawyers with whom I consulted advised that the only way of deliverance open to me was to plead that I had not put the letter in the packet and that Rallia Rām himself might have put the letter in the packet after having received both of them separately. The lawyers assured me that in such case I would be acquitted as there would be no evidence against me except the statement of Rallia Rām. They also advised that two or three false witnesses might be produced in support of such statement. They felt that without recourse to this device there was no hope of my deliverance and that conviction was certain. I told them categorically that I would not swerve an inch from the truth whatever the consequence might be. I appeared in the court of an English magistrate and a European superintendent of post offices appeared as complainant on behalf of the government. The magistrate proceeded to record my statement and asked me: ‘Did you put this letter in the packet and were the letter and the packet dispatched by you?’ I answered without any hesitation: ‘This is my letter and this is the packet that I dispatched. I myself placed the letter in the packet when I sent it, but I did not put the letter in the packet with any dishonest intention to cause loss of revenue to the government. I did not consider the letter as being distinct and separate from the article enclosed in the packet, nor did the letter contain any personal matter.’ Allah the Almighty inclined the heart of the magistrate in my favour. The superintendent of post offices created an uproar and made long speeches in English, which I could not follow except that each time the superintendent made a point, the magistrate would reject it saying: ‘No, no.’ When the superintendent concluded his submission and finished venting his anger the magistrate wrote his order in a couple of lines and said to me: ‘You may leave.’ I came out of the court room deeply grateful to my Real Benevolent Who had upheld me in opposition to a European officer. I realise fully that God Almighty delivered me from that misfortune on account of my adhering to the truth.

Before this case, I had seen a dream that a man had stretched forth his hand to take away my cap, whereupon I said: ‘What are you up to?’ On this he left the cap on my head and said: ‘That is all right, that is all right.’

From this, I understand that the Érya religion would fail by God’s decree and that they [Érya Samâjists] will run away from their religion, shall turn their backs upon it, and will come to naught. This revelation came to me a long time ago—a matter of nearly thirty years—and I communicated it to a local Érya, namely, Lâlah Sharampât.

About twenty-five years ago, I saw a dream in Gurdaspur that I was sitting on a châr-pa’î [cot] and that Maulavî ‘Abdullâh Ghaznavî (deceased) was sitting on my left on the same cot. Meanwhile, it passed through my mind that I should push Maulavî [‘Abdullâh Ghaznavî] off the châr-pa’î. I began to move slowly towards him until he got off the cot and sat down on the ground. Thereupon, three angels appeared from heaven, one of whom bore the name: Khairâ’ittû. They also sat down on the ground as Maulavî ‘Abdullâh was sitting and I remained seated on the châr-pa’î. Then I said to all of them: ‘I will now pray and you say Âmîn.’ Thereafter, I supplicated:

43 [Arabic] Lord, remove all uncleanness from me and purify me completely. [Publishers]
As soon as I woke up I felt sure that Maulavī ‘Abdullāh would soon die\textsuperscript{44} and that a special grace had been decreed for me in the heavens. Thereafter, I felt all the time that a heavenly power was working inside me until I began to receive revelation in continuous succession. In that one night, Allah the Almighty perfected in me a change of the kind which cannot be brought about by the hand of man or by man’s volition.\textsuperscript{45}

It seems to me that Maulavī ‘Abdullāh Ghaznavī had been drawn to the Punjab to bear witness to the light which was to be vouchsafed to me and he bore such witness. His testimony was affirmed by Ḥāfiẓ Muḥammad Yūsuf and his brother Muḥammad Ya‘qūb but later they were overcome by the love of the world.

I declare on oath in the name of God—whose false oath is the act of curse—that Maulavī ‘Abdullāh made an affirmation of my claim in my dream. I pray that if this statement of mine, which I have made on oath, is false, then Allah the Almighty might be pleased to bring about my death in great torment within the lifetime of the progeny of Maulavī ‘Abdullāh and his followers and disciples; and if I have told the truth, then God might be pleased to make me prevail and to confound them, or to guide them aright. Maulavī ‘Abdullāh’s own words were: \textit{You have been given the sword of heavenly Signs and other reasoning. When I was in the world I was hoping that God would raise such a person in the world.}’ This is the dream that I

In those very days, the night before or the night after, I saw in a vision a person who appeared to me to be an angel, but I felt in my dream that his name was Sher ‘Alî. He made me lie down and took out my eyeballs and cleaned them and removed every smear and speck from them and wiped away all matter that might be the cause of a disorder or of short-sightedness. He converted a clear light, which was already there but had been covered up by some opaque matter, into the likeness of a bright star. Having done this, that person disappeared and I reverted from that state of vision to complete wakefulness.

On one occasion a student who knew English came to see me and in his presence was vouchsafed to me the revelation:

[English] This is My enemy.

I had perceived that this revelation related to him, but I asked him its meaning. He turned out to be of the same ilk and his mind was found to be a prey to many kinds of ills.

Once I fell seriously ill, so much so that on three separate occasions my relatives, perceiving that my last moment had arrived, recited sūrah Yā Sīn to me as is customary among Muslims. On the third occasion, while the sūrah was being recited, I saw that some of my relatives—who have since passed away—were sobbing out of control behind the walls. I was suffering from a species of severe colic and was purging blood every few minutes. I continued in this condition for sixteen days. Another person who was suffering from a similar disorder died on the eighth day, though he had not suffered as severely as I was suffering. When the sixteenth day arrived everybody despaired of my life and sūrah Yā Sīn was recited to me the third time. All my relatives believed that I would be in my grave before sunset. Then it so happened that as God had in the past taught His Prophets prayers for deliverance from misfortunes He also taught me through revelation a prayer as follows:

Allah the Almighty revealed upon my heart to put my hand in river water which should have some sand with it and to recite this prayer and to wipe my chest and my back, hands, and face with the water and that in this manner I would be healed. Accordingly, river water with sand was sent for hastily and I started doing as I had been directed. The whole of my body had seemed to be on fire which was so painful that I felt death would be preferable to that condition and would be a deliverance from torment, but when I started doing as I had been directed, I call God—in Whose hand is my life—to witness that every time I recited these blessed words and wiped my body with the river water I felt the fire departing from my body and coolness and comfort taking its place. The water in the vessel had not yet been exhausted when I felt that my illness had departed from me completely and after sixteen days, I slept in health and comfort. Next morning, I received the revelation:

An eminent personage...whose name was Maulavī ‘Abdullāh Ghaznavī... I saw this eminent and righteous person in my dream after his death that he was standing fully armed in a military way with great dignity and majesty. I mentioned some of my revelations to him and asked him to interpret one of my dreams. I told him that I had seen in a dream that I was holding a sword, the hilt of which was in my hand and its point reached

In Nuzūlul-Masih, the Promised Messiah asw writes:

[I saw that] he [Maulavī ‘Abdullāh Ghaznavī] was standing in the street of a large town and I entered a mosque with him and he had a large number of people with him, who were strong men, all armed and wearing military uniforms. Maulavī ‘Abdullāh seemed to be one of them and appeared as a young man, very strong, in military uniform, and armed with his sword hanging by his side. I felt that all these people were awaiting some grand command and all of them [except Maulavī ‘Abdullāh] were angels equipped and ready for some desperate venture.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulāna Jalal-ud-Din ShAMS

In describing this sword, the Promised Messiah asw writes in Ā’inā-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām:

That sword that I had in my hand was very bright and sent forth light in the form of dripping drops.

In Nuzūlul-Masih, he writes:

That sword sent forth shining rays like the rays of the sun. I wielded it to the right and to the left, each time killing thousands of people. On account of its extraordinary length it reached the ends of the earth and worked like lightning traversing thousands of miles in a second. I perceived that the hand that wielded it was mine but the power came from heaven. Each time I wielded it to the right or the left large numbers of people were cut and fell down.

up to the sky. When I turned it to the right thousands of my opponents were killed and when I turned it to the left thousands of my enemies were killed.

Ḥaḍraṭ ‘Abdullāh, may Allah be pleased with him, was very pleased to hear this dream of mine. With his face beaming with cheerfulness, happiness, and clear conviction, he said: ‘The interpretation of your dream is that God will employ you for high purposes. Wielding the sword on the right and killing opponents means that the task will be accomplished through spiritual light and the manifestations of spiritual Signs; while wielding it to the left and slaughtering thousands of enemies means that Allah will employ you to confound them with reason and argument and thus in both ways Allah will establish the truth.’ He added: ‘When I was in the world I was hoping that God will surely raise such a person.’ Then he took me to a large building in which a number of righteous and godly people were sitting, all of them armed in military fashion and sitting upright as if waiting for some command immediately expected for the performance of some military task….

This blessed dream, which is really a type of vision, points to the same Signs of the Messiah that I have mentioned above. That the slaughter of swine and killing of infidels by the Messiah has the same import: he will convey the divine arguments convincingly and will frustrate them through the sword of argument. [Allah knows best.]

It was also an indication that she would be of a Sayyed family.

About 1881

One prophecy, dating about eighteen years back, is the following:

[Arabic]

Translation: [Arabic] God, Who has bestowed upon you a marital arrangement with a noble family who are Sayyed, is the True God. Also,
He has made your own descent from a noble family which is compounded mix of Persians and Sayyeds.

About 1881

On one occasion, I received the following revelation in the mosque about the time of Ṭa‘ṣr:

[Urdu] I have determined to arrange another wedding for you. I will make all the arrangements Myself and you will not be put to any trouble.

This was accompanied by a Persian couplet:

56 In this revelation the family of my wife and my family are both described together as having been provided by God and both have been treated as praiseworthy to about the same extent. This is a clear indication that as my in-laws are descendants of Ḥaḍrat Fāṭimah, in the same way there is a mix of descent from Ḥaḍrat Fāṭimah in my genealogy through some of my grandmothers. The precedence given to my wife’s family in the revelation over my family is to stress the fact that she is a direct descendant of Ḥaḍrat Fāṭimah and I have partly inherited her blood.

57 [Persian] I shall make all arrangements for your new wedding and shall provide all that you might need. [Publishers]

Publishers’ Note: In Ḥaqqatul-Wahī, the Promised Messiah writes:

I prayed to Allah the Almighty that I cannot bear the expenses of this marriage. Thereupon, I received the revelation:
Some revelations indicated that the family into which I would marry would be high and noble. One revelation said that ‘God has provided you with a noble descent and has arranged your marriage in a noble family.’ All this was communicated to Lālah Sharampat long before the event. He well knows that, without any effort on my part, God arranged this relationship in a high and noble family… of Sayyeds and made provision for all connected matters and expense in such a manner that I did not undergo any trouble in that regard. To this day, He continues to fulfil this promise.

The details of this prophecy were supplied in other revelations, so much so that even the name of the town Delhi was mentioned and this was communicated to several people…and all came about as had been foretold. Without any previous relationship or connection, my marriage was arranged in a well known noble Sayyed family of Delhi…. God had promised that through my progeny He will lay a great foundation for the support of Islam and among them He will cause to appear one who will be blessed with the heavenly spirit. Therefore, He determined that I should marry into such a family and should be granted progeny from this marriage, which would spread the light of

That is [Persian] I shall provide whatever you need for the marriage, and I shall grant you whatever you need from time to time.

guidance which has been planted at my hand far and wide in the world. It is a curious coincidence that just as the grandmother of the Sayyeds was named Shehr Bāno, in the same way my wife who will be the mother of my progeny is named Nuṣrat Jahān Begum [Lady Help of the World]. This seems to be an indication that God has laid the foundation of my progeny to help the whole world. It is the way of God that prophecies are sometimes indicated through names.

About eighteen years ago, I had an opportunity to visit Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain Batālavī, Editor of Ishā’atus-Sunnah at his house. He asked me whether I had received any revelation lately and I mentioned to him the revelation, which I had already mentioned several times to my friends:

I interpreted this to him and to all others to mean that: God has intended to bring two women to me in marriage—the first time a virgin and the second time a widow. The first part of the revelation, relating to a virgin, has been fulfilled. By Allah’s grace, I have four sons from that wife. I await fulfilment of the part about the widow.59

58 [Arabic] A virgin and a widow. [Publishers]

59 In my humble opinion both aspects of the revelation were fulfilled in the person of Ḥaḍrat Ammān Jān, who came as a virgin and remained behind as a widow. Allah knows best. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

(A) A Hindu Ārya…had been suffering for sometime from tuberculosis. Gradually, his disease worsened and he began to despair for his life. He came to me one day and wept bitterly in despair. I was deeply affected by his distress and supplicated to God, the One, on his behalf. As God had decreed his health, I received the following revelation as soon as I prayed:

That is [Arabic] We commanded the fire of fever to become cool and safe.
I immediately informed him and several other Hindus—who are still present and residing in this town—of this revelation. Trusting fully in God, I expressed the assurance that he would be restored to health and would certainly not die of that disease. Within a week thereafter, he recovered fully from his life-threatening illness. [All praise is due to Allah for this.]

[Barāhīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah, part 3, pp. 227–228 sub-footnote 1, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 1, p. 252 sub-footnote 1]

(B) Malāwāmal was afflicted with tuberculosis and when his condition became dangerous I supplicated on his behalf and received the revelation:

 القاهرةِ نار نارِةَ نارِةَ بَرَءَةٌ وَ سَكَانَتٌ

That is [Arabic] O fire of fever, cool down.
Then I saw in a dream that I had pulled him out of the grave. He was informed both of the revelations and of the dream before the events occurred.

When some time had passed after the first revelation and I was confronted with several complications on account of people’s lack of interest and I was also facing exceeding difficulties, one day Allah the Noble revealed to me at about the time of Maghrib:

60 Revelation of the year 1879: [Urdu] Not just now. [Publishers]

61 This revelation was vouchsafed to Mary at the time of the birth of her son ‘Īsā [Jesus], may peace be upon him. She was feeling weak and exhausted. In the same book Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah, God the Almighty named me Mary also and commanded me:

[Arabic] [Be of the righteous and the truthful.]

See page 242 of Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah [Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 1, page 267]. Therefore, the revelation granted to me indicates that my spiritual condition of being Mary had now given spiritual birth to a child who was named ‘Īsā [Jesus]. So long as my spiritual condition of being Jesus was in its elementary stages the spiritual qualities that I possessed as Mary continued to nurture him and when he came into his full powers he was informed:

[Arabic] [O ‘Īsā I shall cause you to die and shall raise you towards Me.]

See page 556 of Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah [Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 1, page 664]. It was the same promise which was set out in sūrah at-Tahrīm [last verse of Chapter 66 of the Holy Qur’an]. In accordance with this promise, it was incumbent that someone from among the Muslims should be named Mary and through the spiritual process ‘Īsā [Jesus] should be born and should be called Son of Mary. I am that person. Mary was commanded: and so was I, the only difference being that Mary was then suffering from physical exhaustion and I was suffering from lack of financial means.

On the first or second of Muḥarram, 1299 AH65 I saw in a dream that someone had sent me fifty rupees towards the cost of my book. An Ārya66 also saw a dream that someone had sent me a thousand rupees for the same purpose. He related his dream to me and I immediately told him of my dream and said to him: ‘Nineteen twentieth of your dream is false; this is a consequence of your being a Hindu and outside the pale of Islam.’ He might have taken it ill, but it was the truth and this was confirmed on the fifth or sixth of Muḥarram when the sum of fifty rupee, which had been remitted by Sheik Muḥammad Baha’-ud-Dīn, Chief Minister of Junagadh State, was received as assistance towards the cost of the book in the presence of several people one of whom was an Ārya. On one occasion I received a revelation which indicated that there was a difference among the higher angels. The indication was that the will of God was prepared to bring about a renaissance of Islam, but the angels had not yet been informed of the identity of the rejuvenator. Hence that was being debated.

At the same time I saw in a dream that a search was being made for one who should revive the faith. A person appeared before me and pointing to me said:

That is [Arabic] This is the man who loves the Messenger of Allah.

His meaning was that the principal condition of this assignment was the love of the Holy Prophet and that I fulfilled that condition.

I was occupied in writing something one night and then went to sleep and [in my dream] I saw the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and his face was bright like the full moon. He came close to me and I felt as if he wished to embrace me. So he embraced me and I saw that rays of light proceeded from his countenance and entered into me. I felt these rays were like palpable light and I believed that I was seeing them not only through my spiritual sight but also with my physical eyes. Thereafter, I did not perceive that he had separated himself from me nor did I perceive that he had left me. Thereafter, the doors of revelation were opened to me and God addressed me and said:

67 [Arabic] Allah has placed blessing in you, O Aḥmad....

It means: I am the first to turn towards Allah under His command in this age or the first to believe in this commandment. Allah knows best.

(C) When the 13th century of the Hegira came to an end and the 14th century was about to begin, Allah the Almighty, informed me through revelation that I was the Reformer of this century and I received the revelation:

[Arabic] [The Most Gracious One has taught you the Qurʾan... I am the first of the believers.]

(D) By virtue of this revelation Allah bestowed upon me Qurʾanic knowledge and called me the first of believers and filled me like an ocean with divine philosophy and truth and has assured me repeatedly through revelation that in this age no one’s knowledge or love of the Divine comes up to my knowledge and my love.

70 The meaning of the revelation [making Islam prevail over all other faiths] is that: God will help the wronged believers by illumining their faith and perfecting its appeal by incontrovertible arguments and shining reasoning and thus making it prevail over other faiths.

Historically speaking, the definition of Aṣḥābuṣ-Ṣuffah is as follows: ‘In one corner of the Prophet’s mosque in Madinah, a covered platform was prepared which was known as Suffah. This served as the resting place of indigent Emigrants who dedicated themselves to the worship of Allah, the company of the Holy Prophetṣa, and recitation of the Holy Qu’ran. They became known as Aṣḥābuṣ-Ṣuffah.’ In these revelations of the Promised Messiahṣa, his companions who had left their homes to reside in Qadian are honoured with the same title. [Publishers]

On page 242 of Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah\(^{80}\) the revelation is mentioned …

This was followed by the revelation:

\(^{78}\) Allah the Almighty has blessed the Aḥṣābūṣ-Ṣaffah mentioned in the revelation with His approval. He who does not abandon everything and come and dwell here, or at least does not entertain that desire, makes me apprehensive lest he should be lacking in the purifying relationships. This is a grand prophecy and proclaims the greatness of those who were, in divine knowledge, destined to leave their homes, countries and properties and to take up their residence in Qadian to be near me.

\(^{79}\) It is part of human nature that a believer on experiencing some special divine manifestation calls down blessings. Thus the revelation: \(\text{يُصَّرِّبُونَ مِنكَ} \) They will call down blessings on you, indicates that those who will be close to me all the time shall witness many Signs and will be so affected by them that often their eyes will start running and, in the height of emotion, they will call down blessings on me involuntarily. This is happening and this prophecy is fulfilled over and over again.

Holy is Allah, how grand is this prophecy which was conveyed to me seventeen years ago when only two or three people came to visit me, and that also infrequently. On one occasion this humble one saw, in a state of vision, surah al-Fātiḥah written on a piece of paper which was in my hand and the writing was so beautiful and attractive as if the paper on which it was written was loaded with soft red rose petals beyond count. As I recited the verses of the surah many of these rose petals flew upwards producing a sweet musical sound. The flowers were very delicate, large, beautiful, fresh, and full of fragrance. As they ascended, my heart and mind were perfumed with their fragrance and I felt so intoxicated that the delight that I experienced turned my heart completely away from the world and all that is in it.

This vision indicates that the rose has a special spiritual affinity with surah al-Fātiḥah.

Some time ago I was in great need of money and the local Āryas who used to come and visit me knew this well.
…Quite involuntarily the thought welled up in my mind that I should supplicate God, the One, for resolving my difficulty so that, through acceptance of my prayer, I should not only overcome my difficulty but also furnish a proof of divine support to my opponents—a Sign of which they should become witnesses. So I supplicated the same day and begged that, as a sign, I might be informed of the coming of help. Thereupon, I received the revelation:

دین وبن نکے بدیرنا نوچن وکھانا بندل
أَکْرَمِ النَّجَّارَ الْمُرْجَمِ - فِي نَشَأَتِي لَقَدْ نَصَبْتُ
Then will you go to Amritsar.

[Urdu] After ten days I shall demonstrate my [surging] Sign. [Arabic] [Hearken! The help of Allah is near like a pregnant she-camel in labour.] [English] Then will you go to Amritsar.

i.e., money would arrive after ten days and that God’s succour is as close as the end of the labour of a she-camel when she is about to give birth to her foal. Then He said in English that: After ten days when the money will arrive then will you go to Amritsar.

All this was fulfilled in the presence of the Āryas exactly as had been foretold. Nothing at all was received during the first ten days and then on the eleventh day 110 rupees were received from Muḥammad Afḍal Khān, Superintendent, Settlement, Rawalpindi, and twenty rupees were received from another source and thereafter money began to arrive unexpectedly. On the same day when the money was received from Muḥammad Afḍal Khān and others I had to go to Amritsar as I received summons from the Small Causes Court, Amritsar, to appear as a witness.

Some time back … a gentleman named Nūr Ṭḥāmād, who is both a ḥāfīz and a ḥājī and perhaps also knows some Arabic and preaches from the Holy Qur’an and lives in Amritsar, came to Qadian in the course of his wanderings…. Since he was staying with me, and had expressed to me in very strong words the opinion about revelation which he entertained, I felt much aggrieved by it. I tried in every possible manner to convince him of his misconception but my reasoning had no effect upon him. Then I turned to Allah the Almighty and told Ḥāfīz [Nūr Ṭḥāmād] that I would supplicate to Allah the Noble, and would not be surprised if some prophecy might be made of which he might himself see the fulfilment.

Accordingly, I made my supplication that night and towards the morning I saw in my vision a letter which had arrived by post on which there was a superscription in English:

I am quarrelleur.

And another in Arabic:

[Arabic] This is a shattering witness. [Publishers]

And I also received these words by way of revelation as if they had been addressed to me by the writer of the letter. Then the vision ended.

Since I do not have any knowledge of the English language, I informed Miyān Nūr Ṭḥāmād of this vision and revelation and enquired from someone who was conversant with English what the meaning of the English superscription was. He explained that it meant that the writer was a disputant. From this brief sentence I understood clearly that I was about to receive a letter relating to some dispute. I conceived that the Arabic superscription which was the next sentence written by the scribe meant that the writer of the letter had written it in connection with some evidence relating to a dispute.

It so happened that Ḥafīz Nūr Aḥmad was not able to leave for Amritsar that day on account of heavy rain. His inability to leave because of a heavenly cause was in fact an intimation of the acceptance of my prayer so that, as I had supplicated, he himself might witness the fulfilment of the prophecy. In short, the entire prophecy was narrated to him.

In the afternoon, in his presence, I received a registered letter from the Reverend Rajab ‘Alī, owner and manager of the Safīr-e-Hind Press, Amritsar, reporting that he had instituted a suit against his scribe, who is also the scribe of this book, in the Small Causes Court and had given my name as a witness. At the same time I received summons from the court. The interpretation of the Arabic superscription—which means that ‘this witness is shattering’—then became patent inasmuch as the proprietor of the Safīr-e-Hind Press was absolutely certain that my testimony, which he was sure would be in accord with the facts, would prove destructive for the defendant on account of its weight, truth, and reliability. That is why the proprietor of the Press had me summoned as a witness.

It so happened that the day on which this prophecy was fulfilled was also the day on which the other prophecy mentioned above was also fulfilled. Thus, Miyān Nūr Aḥmad witnessed the fulfilment of that prophecy also. That is to say, money was received on that day after the expiry of the period of ten days and I was summoned and had to go to Amritsar. [Allah be praised for all this.]

One day I received a revelation at the time of Fajr:

[Urdu] Today some money will arrive from a relative of Ḥāji Arbāb Muḥammad Lashkar Khān.

As usual, this prophecy was communicated to some Āryas and it was agreed that one of them should go to the post office at the time of the delivery of the mail. Accordingly, one Ārya named Malāwāmal went to the post office and brought the news that a money order in the value of ten rupees had arrived from Hoti Mardan. He also brought a letter which stated that this money had been sent by Arbāb Sarwar Khān. As the word Arbāb was a common courtesy title [in both names], I pointed out to the Āryas that this mutual connection was sufficient to establish the truth of the prophecy. However, some of them objected that a common courtesy title did not necessarily prove that they were related, and persisted in their objection. I was compelled to write a letter to make the requisite enquiry.
After several days, the response came from a friend Munshī Ilāhī Bakhsh who was an accountant at Hoti Mardan saying that Arbāb Sarwar Khān was the son of Arbāb Muḥammad Lashkar Khān. This confounded all my opponents.

December 30, 1882

(A) I was thinking of your town in connection with a wonderful vision that I saw on Saturday, December 30, 1882 whereby God the Almighty disclosed to me the sincere good wishes of a person of Ludhiana of whose name I was not aware. In the vision I was told his name and address but it has escaped my memory. I can recall only that he is a resident of Ludhiana and concerning him I saw the writing:

84 Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī of Ludhiana [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
85 Ludhiana [Publishers]
86 There was a gentleman in Ludhiana of the name of Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī, who had entered into the covenant of bai‘at with me. He made such good progress within a few years that his then condition was disclosed to me in a revelation:

[Arabic] [Its roots are firm and its branches spread into heaven.]

This meant that at that time he was a sincere believer and all the indications supported this. He was constantly occupied with talking about me and copied out in his own hand every letter that I wrote to him and invited other people to have similar faith in me. If he discovered a dry piece of bread as my leftover he would eat it as something full of blessings. He was the first one from Ludhiana to come to me in Qadian. At one time it was disclosed to me in a vision that ‘Abbās ‘Alī would stumble and draw away from me. Even that letter of mine he copied into his collection of my letters. Thereafter, when he met me he expressed surprise over my vision saying: How can that be, for I am ready to lay down my life for you? When the time came that I put forward my claim of being the Promised Messiah he took it ill and for some time did not disclose his uneasiness. Thereafter, during the debate with Maulavi Muhammad Ḥusain in Ludhiana concerning my claim, he had the opportunity of associating with my opponents and then the divine decree became manifest and he turned against me openly.

[Urdu] A sincere well wisher; [Arabic] His intents are so strong and perfect that they are neither shaking nor deficient.

(B) Towards the morning I saw in a vision that a paper was presented to me which bore the words:

یا غفلت کس وہ ہوئے کو اس کا لیے نہ ہوے

[Urdu] There is a well wisher in Ludhiana. His name and address were also disclosed to me, but have escaped my memory and his faith and sincerity were further attested as following on the same paper:

אסלה קאראת וּפּרֶפּיָההָהָ בְּיְבִיכַהְר הַכְּפַר

I do not know who this person is but I conceive that Allah might create that condition in your mind or in someone else’s mind. [Allah knows best.]

87 [Arabic] Whose root is firm and whose branches reach into heaven. [Publishers]

88 The reference is to Nāvvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar. [Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams]
The perusal of your letters discloses several elements of your sincerity and nobility. On one occasion something was also disclosed to me in a vision. It may be that sometimes in the future God Almighty might disclose something further.

The day your letter reached me some parts of it with slight variations were disclosed to me in a vision. More of the same type might be in your heart. This is a relationship established by God Almighty.

During your meeting with me, in the course of our conversation, I saw in a vision that your mind was not well disposed towards me and that some of your thoughts

92 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\(^{\text{ra}}\): As prophesied in this vision, Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī later denied his belief in the claim of the Promised Messiah\(^{\text{as}}\) to be the Messiah and Mahdī, and died in that condition. In addition to this letter, on September 22, 1883 the about certain people were not acceptable in divine estimation, whereupon I received the revelation:

tālā matā nāḥiyya, in nāṭe musāāt.\]

… I did not deem it proper to disclose this to you at that time but have tried hard that Allah the Noble may clear the condition of your mind. I would not be surprised that you might be affected again with similar constraints. When a person enters a new dwelling it is natural that he is pleased with some of its features and is not pleased with others. It would therefore be appropriate that you should supplicate that God might confirm your affection for me. You should not let yourself be influenced by any new development so that your affection for me might reach its climax. This humble one occupies a position in the estimation of Allah which is very far from worldly relationships and so far my soul responds to every companion with Promised Messiah\(^93\) warned him about the coming trials. The words of the letter are:

May Allah support you and safeguard you against everything disagreeable. The establishing of a relationship with me is subject to a degree of trial which you cannot escape.

\(^{94}\) You cannot keep company with me in patience. And how can you be patient about things the knowledge of which you comprehend not? (al-Kahf, 18:68–69) [Publishers]
Pandit Shiv Narāyan, a distinguished Brahma Samāj scholar, wrote to me from Lahore that he intended to write a refutation of Part 3. The letter had not yet reached me when God Almighty disclosed its purport to me in a vision. I related this to several Hindus and, at the time of the delivery of the mail, a Hindu Ārya was sent to the post office so that he might serve as a witness. He brought the letter from the post office. I wrote to Pandit Shiv Narāyan in reply: ‘You desire to refute the possibility of revelation, yet God Almighty informed me through revelation of your letter and its content. If you doubt this you can come to Qadian and verify it, for your Hindu brethren are its witnesses. Your writing a refutation would cause you much inconvenience. The method [that I have suggested] would settle the matter very quickly.’

April 1883

One morning in April 1883, I was informed in a state of wakefulness that some money would arrive from Jhelum….I had received no letter from Jhelum about the dispatch of any money….Within less than five days, I received forty-five rupees by money order from Jhelum. On checking this, it was confirmed that the money order had been dispatched on the day on which God, the Knower of the unseen, had informed me about it.

On one occasion this humble one saw, in a dream, a tent set up for a great ruler or king where people’s affairs were being determined. I felt that I was holding the office of Superintendent and was in charge of case records, many of which were lying about. Another person was acting as Assistant Superintendent under me. Suddenly an orderly came running in and said that the case of the Muslims has been called, be quick and produce the record.

This vision indicates that divine favour is directed towards the reform and progress of the Muslims. I feel certain that God Almighty will restore to the Muslims the strong faith, sincerity and trust which they have forgotten and will enrich many with His special blessings, for all blessings, manifest and hidden, are in His hand.

A few days ago God Almighty vouchsafed to me the following revelation:

96 [Arabic] Say: If you love Allah, then follow me, Allah will then love you. I shall cause you to die and shall raise you towards Me and shall place those who follow you above those who reject you till the Day of Judgment. People will say: ‘Whence have you obtained this?’ Say: Allah is Wonderful. He chooses whom He wills from among His servants. We revolve these days among people.

has been revealed to me repeatedly—so many times that God alone knows the count—and with such emphasis that it has penetrated my heart like a steel nail. This indicates that God Almighty will greatly bless all those friends who follow my way and will grant them victory over those who follow other ways and this superiority shall be maintained till the Day of Judgment. No one will come after my humble self who will be opposed to my way. God Almighty will destroy any one who opposes my way and his way will not endure. This is a promise by God, the contrary of which will never happen.

Before the writing of this letter I received the revelation:

99 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: The reference is to the suit that Martyn Clark brought against the Promised Messiahra in August 1897. The Promised Messiahra writes:

Through this prosecution, at the instance of Henry Martyn Clark, in which I was charged with conspiracy to murder, was fulfilled the prophecy which was mentioned in Barāhīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah twenty years before the prosecution was launched. That revelation was:

Several times this humble one has received the following revelation in very clear words:

1883 or earlier

Some time ago I saw in a dream that I had received a letter from Hyderabad written by Navvāb Iqbal-ud-Daulah, which contained an intimation of the dispatch of some money…. A few days later the letter arrived from Hyderabad and the said Navvāb sent one hundred rupees.

ī. [Arabic] Allah will clear him of that which they alleged because he has a high standing with Allah.

This is a tremendous Sign that despite the fact that all these people—Maulāvī Muḥammad Ḥusain on behalf of the Muslims, Lālah Rām Bhaj Dutt on behalf of the Hindus and Dr. Henry Martyn Clark on behalf of the Christians—had combined against me to humiliate me and, together with their supporters, mounted an assault against me, as it happened at the time of Jang-e-Ahzāb [the Battle of the Moat], Allah humiliated all of them and established my innocence. …so that the revelation might be fulfilled:

[Arabic] [Allah cleared him of that which they alleged.]

1883 or earlier

I recall that on one occasion I first received the revelation in English:

I love you.

Then came the revelation:

[English] I am with you.

Then came the revelation:

[English] I shall help you.

Then came the revelation:

[English] I can what I will do.

Then, with such emphasis that my body trembled at it, came the revelation:

[English] We can what We will do.

I felt at the time from the tone and pronunciation that an Englishman was standing over me and was uttering these phrases. Despite the awe-striking tone, my soul derived a pleasure from these revelations, which was comforting and satisfying even before the meanings had been ascertained. Such revelations in English have often been repeated.

1883 or earlier

On one occasion in the morning, I saw in my vision a few printed pages, which had come through the post office, at the end of which were the words:

[English] I am by ‘Īsā.

After ascertaining the meaning of the phrase from someone who knew English, I informed two Hindu Āryas of it and told them that my understanding was that some Christian, or someone who thought like a Christian, would send me printed matter criticising Islam. At the time of the mail delivery an Ārya was sent to the post office. He brought some printed pages in which some unintelligent person had raised some objections in the manner of Christians.

1883 or earlier

On one occasion, when I was seeking guidance in connection with a certain matter, I saw in a dream that I was given a silver coin of almond colour which had two lines embossed on it. The first line had this sentence in English:

Yes, I am happy.

The second phrase, which was written below a line that had been drawn, was the translation of the first phrase:

[Urdu] Yes, I am happy.

1883 or earlier

On one occasion, when some grief and sorrow was in the offing, I saw in a vision a paper on which the following English phrase was written:

Life of pain.

1883 or earlier

On one occasion I received a revelation in English concerning some opponents who had, out of pure rancour, desecrated the Holy Qur’an and, out of irremediable enmity, had made some irrelevant and stupid criticisms against the mighty and strong faith of Islam. The two sentences revealed in English were:

God is coming by His army. He is with you to kill enemy.

That is, God is coming with a host of reasoning and arguments. He is with you to overpower and destroy the opponents.

بُيْرَتْنَا بِأَسْأَلِكَ وَسَكَانَتَا بِأَسْأَلِكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّكَ حَمَّارًا ذَيَّكَّ

[Arabic] You have been blessed, O Aḥmad, and the Lord has bestowed His blessing upon you with truth.

تأيَّبْنَا مَجْبُورًا وَأَعْرَضْنا قَرِينًا

[Arabic] Your status is wonderful and your reward is near.

إِلَيْهِ رَضِيَ اللهُ مَنْ تَرَاهُ إِلَيْهِ رَضِيَ اللهُ مَا كَانَ مُحْتَسَبًا

[Arabic] I am pleased with you. I shall raise you towards Me. The heaven and the earth are with you as they are with Me.

In this revelation has been used in singular form because it denotes [whatever is in the heavens and the earth]. The purport of the whole revelation is the expression of divine bounties and blessings which are bestowed upon a perfect believer by virtue of his obedience to Hadrat Khairur-Rusul[^1] [the Best of Messengers]. The Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, is the true and the primary object of these divine favours. They [blessings] are bestowed upon others merely on account of their relationship to him.

100 The word ‘by’ is also used in the English language to denote ‘together with’ or ‘in company with’. (See Dialect Dictionary by Joseph Wright, page 470) [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

Then the revelation came:

[Arabic] You have a high station in My presence. I have chosen you for Myself.

[Arabic] You are to Me like My Unity and Uniqueness[^101]. The time has arrived when you

[^101]: The Promised Messiah[^84] said:
I understand this to mean that when someone is appointed to uphold the Unity of God and appears at a time when people are looking down upon and disrespecting the Unity of God, the appointed person develops such a zeal for Unity of God that he disregards all his aims and objectives and devotes himself exclusively to this task, thus becoming Unity personified. All his movements and words are charged with the spirit of Unity. People in the world have turned their lowly objects into idols. Until Allah the Almighty Himself charges someone with this zeal, it cannot be acquired. Just as some people are so restless about their children and other objectives that they sometimes commit suicide; in the same way, the appointed one is restless to establish Unity. He desires that the will of God, and His Unity, Greatness and Grandeur should will be helped and made well-known among people.

[Arabic] Has not man i.e., you, passed through a period of time when nobody in the world knew you or talked about you? That is, nobody knew you as to who you are and you had no status. That is, you amounted to nothing.

This is a reference to the favours and bounties already bestowed as an indication of the further bounties of the Benevolent One.

[Arabic] All kinds of Holiness belong to Allah, Who possesses all Blessings, and is the Highest. He has raised your status. The name and respect for your forefathers will be cut off—that is, they will not be known and honoured in their personal capacities—and God will start the respect and honour with you.

[Arabic] You have been helped with prestige and have been brought to life with truth, O truthful one. You have been helped and your opponents said: ‘No way of escape is left.’

This indicates that divine help will reach such a stage that the opponents will be broken-hearted and they will be filled with despair and truth will be made manifest.

prevail. The following phrase is used on such an occasion:

[Arabic] [You are to Me like My Unity and Uniqueness.]

[Arabic] Allah would not leave you till He distinguishes clearly between the foul and the pure.

[Arabic] Allah is supreme over His decree but most people know it not.

[Arabic] When the help and the victory comes from Allah and the words of your Lord are fulfilled the disbelievers would deserve to be addressed as: This is what you desired to be hastened.

That is [Arabic] I decided to appoint a Khalîfah [vicegerent] from Myself so I created Ādam. I will establish in the earth.

This is an abbreviated sentence i.e., ‘I am going to establish him’. The word khalîfah in this revelation means a person who would be the means of conveying the message and guidance between Allah and His creatures. Here it does not signify kingdom or government....Instead, it connotes only a spiritual office and spiritual vicegerency. Also, in this revelation, Ādam does not refer to the Ādam, the father of mankind. It means a person through whom a movement of conveying the message and guidance should be established for the spiritual revival of mankind. He will thus be in the position of a spiritual father for the seekers of truth. This is a grand prophecy predicting the establishment of a spiritual movement at a time when none of its insignia are visible.

Then the revelation defined the spiritual status of that spiritual Ādam:

\text{Danuww} \quad \text{[ascent] here means nearness to God} \quad \text{... Tadallā [descent] means that having equipped oneself with the likeness of divine attributes, one should descend towards God’s creatures with mercy and compassion, as does the Most Gracious, Ever Merciful One. As the degree of danuww and tadallā are adjusted to each other and are mutually conditioned, the degree of tadallā will correspond to the degree of danuww. The perfection of danuww is that there should be a perfect reflection of divine attributes in the heart of the seeker and that God should manifest Himself in the heart and spirit of the seeker to a perfect degree. This is the essence of vicegerency and of the breathing of the Spirit of God into a person and equipping oneself with divine attributes.}

As the descent is dependent upon equipment with the likeness of divine attributes, the perfection of this equipment demands that such an individual should strive in compassion for God’s creatures and in seeking their welfare to the utmost degree which cannot be exceeded. Such a person in this manner combines within himself two opposites. He is turned completely towards God and is also completely turned towards God’s creatures. In this way, he becomes a chord between two bows—that of Divinity and that of humanity—having a perfect relationship with both…. Anyone who arrives at this station is turned towards and is pulled in two directions at the same time; one towards God Who is Eternal and the other towards God’s creatures who have been brought into being by Him. The Eternal and the created thus make a circle, the upper side of which is the Absolute and the lower half of which is the possible. In the middle of that circle, the perfect man through his ascent and descent establishes a strong union like a single chord between two bows. That is to say, he becomes a conductor between the Creator and His creatures. First he is invested with the special mantle of ascent, that is, nearness to God and he ascends to the highest pinnacle of that nearness. Then he is brought towards God’s creatures. His ascent and descent are represented in the shape of two bows and the spirit of the perfect man who connects those two becomes the chord between the two bows. The word ‘qāb’ is used in the Arabic idiom for the string of a bow.

Thus the literal meaning of the verse would be that he approached God and then descended towards mankind and through this ascent and descent became a single chord between two bows. As his facing towards mankind results from [immersing himself in] the holy fountain of divine attributes, his attention towards mankind is the obverse of his facing towards God. In other words, as the Divine Master out of His compassion leans so much towards His creatures, it is as if He is quite close to them. It follows that when a seeker after God arrives at the end of his search he reverts to where God is. The perfection of his ascent or approach to God becomes the cause of his descent towards man.

[Arabic] He will revive the faith and will establish the Law.

[Arabic] O Ādam, O Maryam [Mary],

104 O Āḥmad dwell you and your companion in the jannat—that is, into attaining the means of true salvation. I have breathed into you the spirit of righteousness from Myself.

In explaining these revelations, the Promised Messiah says: Mary here does nor refer to Mary, the Mother of Jesus, nor does Ādam refer to the Ādam, the progenitor, nor does Āḥmad refer to the Ḥadrat Khātāmul-Anbiyā’ [Seal of the Prophets], may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Similarly, in these revelations the names Mūsā [Moses], ʾĪsā [Jesus], and Dāwūd [David] have been mentioned, but these names do not refer to those Prophets. Rather, my humble self is indicated in all these instances. Since Mary here does not connote a feminine but a masculine, the use of the masculine gender is appropriate; hence, the phrase should be used... The word zauij refers to the companions and the close associates, not the zauij [in the sense of spouse]. In the lexicon, the word is applied in both situations. The word jannat is sometimes used in my
In this revelation the naming of the spiritual Ādam has been explained. That is to say, as Ādam\textsuperscript{as} was created without the intervention of means, in the same way the spirit is breathed into a spiritual Ādam without the intervention of any visible means.

This breathing of the spirit in its true reality is confined to the Prophets\textsuperscript{as} and this bounty is bestowed upon particular individuals from among the Muslims on account of their complete submission to the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa} and by way of inheritance from him.

(B) One of the difficulties I encountered in my propagation was my claim of being a Prophet, recipient of divine revelation, and also my being a Promised Messiah. In this connection, portraying my agony about this matter, I received the revelation:

[Arabic] The pains of childbirth drove her to the trunk of a date-palm tree and she said: ‘O! Would that I had died before this and had become a thing quite forgotten.’ [Publishers]

106 In Kashti-e-Nūḥ, which was published in 1902, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} writes:

Here I mention another revelation. I do not remember whether or not I have published it in any of my books or announcements, but keep in mind that I have narrated it to hundreds of people and it is noted in the diary of my Makhād [the pains of childbirth] denotes those matters which produce dangerous consequences and by jid‘īn-nakhlah [the trunk of the date-palm tree] refers to those people who are the progeny of Muslims but are Muslims only in name.

In this context, the meaning of the revelation would be:

[Arabic] This heartfelt invitation which was bound to draw the inveterate enmity of the people brought this commissioned one towards the people who are like a dry branch or root of the date-palm tree. Then, being frightened of the prospect, he said: Would that I had died before this and had been quite forgotten.

[Barāhīn-e-Aḥmadīyah, part 5, p. 53 footnote, Rūḥānī Khazā‘in, vol. 21, pp. 68–69 footnote]

revelations. It relates to a period when Allah the Almighty first bestowed the title of Mary upon me and then revealed to me about Nafkh-e-Rūḥ [the breathing of the soul]. This was followed by the revelation:

That is, [Arabic] then Mary, which refers to this humble one, was brought to the trunk of the date-palm tree by the pangs of childbirth.

That is, I had to deal with ignorant masses and unenlightened scholars, who did not possess the fruit of faith. They rejected and insulted me and abused me and they raised a storm of opposition. Then Mary said: ‘I wish that I had died before this, and were totally forgotten.’

This refers to the clamour that was, in the beginning, started by the Maulavīs [clerics] as a group. They could not tolerate my claim and tried to annihilate me in every way possible. In this revelation, Allah the Almighty has depicted the condition of my heart at the torment and agony that I endured at that time in view of the noise and condemnation of the ignorant.

There were other revelations in the same context. For instance:

[Arabic] ...and People said: ‘O Maryam [Mary]! What an abominable and despicable thing—far removed from righteousness—have you perpetrated. Your father and your mother were not such people.’

Thereafter the revelation came:

[Arabic] You have been helped and they said: ‘There is no way of escape left.’

107 I recall that there was a Sayyed in Batala of the name of Faḍl Shāh or Mehr Shāh who was very fond of my father and had great regard for him. When someone told him of my claim that I was the Promised Messiah he wept a lot and said: ‘His father was a very good man;’ meaning: Who has he taken after for his father was a good man—a simple and straight Muslim and far from any kind of imposture? Likewise, many people said: ‘You have defamed your family by making such a claim.’

108 Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: i.e. After the revelation:

[Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah, part 4, p. 496, footnote 3, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 1, p. 591, footnote 3]
A man of Persian descent has published the refutation of those who have disbelieved and have obstructed people from the path of Allah. Allah appreciates his effort.

The book of the wali [the friend of Allah] is Dhulfaqār-e-‘Alī [the sword of ‘Alī].

This means that this book confounds and

(A) At one time Dhulfaqār [the sword] was in the hands of ‘Alī [May Allah honour his face] but God will bestow Dhulfaqār upon this Imām also in such a manner that his shining hand will perform that which Dhulfaqār performed in the time of ‘Alī. That hand will be as if it was the Dhulfaqār of ‘Alī [May Allah honour his face] which has appeared a second time.

This is an indication that the Imām will be Sultānul-Qalam [the champion of the pen] and that his pen will perform what Dhulfaqār used to perform. The prophecy (of Ni’matullāh Walī) is the exact translation of the revelation vouchsafed to this humble one printed ten years ago in the Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah, which is:

It means that the book of this Wali is the Dhulfaqār of ‘Alī. Here the reference is to this humble one. For this reason, this humble one has in many visions been called Ghāzi. There is a reference to this in several other places in Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah.

That is why God the Exalted has named this humble one Champion of the Pen and has named my pen the Dhulfaqār of ‘Alī.

It is a prophecy which has reference to the great effectiveness and the widespread blessings of the book.\textsuperscript{110}

Then the revelation came:

\[ \text{[Arabic]} \] Had faith been hanging with the Pleiades—that is, had departed from the world altogether—the above-mentioned man would have found it.

\[ \text{[Arabic]} \] Its oil might well-nigh glow forth on its own even if the fire has not even touched it.

\[ \text{[Arabic]} \] Do they say: ‘We are a strongly supported host that is fully capable of giving a response?’ This entire host will soon be routed and they will run away turning their backs. When such people see a Sign they [\textit{turn away and}] say: ‘This is an ordinary and time-worn magic,’ even though their hearts are convinced of those Signs. In their hearts they are convinced that there is now no way of escape. It is by the mercy of Allah that you are gentle with them. If you had been harsh and hard-hearted they would have scattered away from around you, even if they were to witness Qur’anic miracles by which the mountains would have moved.

These revelations were vouchsafed with reference to the people who behaved in that way and it may be that there might be others who talk in the same way and, even after being fully convinced, would continue to deny.

Thereafter the revelation came:

![Revelation Verse]

That is [Arabic] We have caused these Signs and wonders and this revelation filled with points of wisdom and verity, to descend near Qadian.\(^ {111} \) We have sent it down to satisfy a real need and it has descended to satisfy the \(^ {111} \) Deep reflection on this revelation shows that the reference to Qadian in the revelation indicates that my appearance in Qadian had been foretold in previous scriptures. Now that this new revelation has shown that in Allah’s estimation Qadian resembles Damascus, the meanings of the earlier revelation has been clarified…. The interpretation is:

![Revelation Verse]

[Arabic] [We have sent it down close to Damascus on eastern side near the White Minaret.]

It is to be noted that my place of residence is on the eastern edge of Qadian.

The real need. The prophecy of Allah and His Messenger has been fulfilled at its duly appointed time. Allah’s command was bound to be carried out.

The last portion of the revelation indicates that the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, had mentioned the appearance of this person in his ḥadīth…and that God Almighty has also made reference to this in His Holy Word. The indication [by the Holy Prophet] has been mentioned among the revelations set out in part 3 and the indication in the Holy Qur’an is in the following verse.

On the day, when the revelation just mentioned—referring to Qadian—was received, I saw my brother Mirzā Ghulām Qādir in a vision reciting the Holy Qur’an aloud. In the course of recitation he recited:

i.e.: [Arabic] [Allah’s promise was bound to be carried out.]

113 He it is Who sent His Messenger with guidance and the Religion of Truth, that He might make it prevail over every other religion. (at-Taubah, 9:33; al-Fath, 48:29; aṣ-Ṣaff, 61:10)

114 This [seeing my brother in my vision] indicates that his name has a connection with the interpretation of my vision. The word Qādir [Powerful] which is part of his name indicated that all this is the decree of Qādir-e-Muṭlaq [the Most Powerful] and is not to be wondered at. This is how the wonders of His power have always been manifested.
I expressed my surprise that the name of Qadian should be mentioned in the Holy Qur’an, on which he said: ‘Here it is, you can see.’ I looked and saw that this revelation was set out about the middle of the right page of the Holy Qur’an. Then I said to myself: ‘It is true that the name of Qadian is mentioned in the Holy Qur’an’ and I also said: ‘Three names are mentioned with honour in the Holy Qur’an: Mecca, and Medina, and Qadian.’

The Revelation after it\textsuperscript{116} is:

\begin{quote}
[Arabic] Call down blessings on Muḥammad and the progeny of Muḥammad, who is Sayyed-e-Wuld-e-Ādam [the Chief of mankind] and Khātamun-Nabiyyīn [the Seal of the Prophets], may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.
\end{quote}

This indicates that all these bounties and exaltations are on account of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa} and a reward for loving him…. In the same way, the direction to call down blessings on the progeny of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa} means that in acquiring divine light, love for the members of the household of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa} plays a great part. A person who attains nearness to God does so by virtue of that He exalts the humble and the lowly and reduces the great and highly placed to the dust.

spiritual inheritance from those righteous and holy ones and becomes their heir in respect of all his knowledge and spiritual insight.

It has been revealed to this humble one that on account of meekness, humility, trust in God, sincerity and the Signs and heavenly light, my humble self resembles the Masih [Messiah] in his earthly life and that the nature of this humble one and the nature of the Masih resemble greatly as if they are two pieces of the same jewel or two fruits of the same tree. There is such a complete unity between us that the spiritual eye would have little to distinguish between us. There also exists an overt resemblance which is that the Masih [Messiah] was the follower and servant of the faith of a perfect and high-standing Prophet, i.e., Mūsā as [Moses] and his gospel is a branch of the Torah, and this humble one is one of the lowly servants of that majestic Prophet who is the Sayyedur-Rusul [the chief of all Prophets as] and crown of all the Prophets as. The Champion of Allah in the mantle of the Prophets.

This revelation means that a person who receives divine guidance and training, and becomes a recipient of revelation, wears a mantle which properly belongs to Prophets and is loaned to a non-prophet. This mantle of the Prophets is bestowed upon some individuals from among the Muslims so that they might lead the weak and the defective to perfection. This is the meaning of the saying of the Holy Prophet sa: Though such people are not prophets, they are entrusted with the functions of prophethood.

You were on the brink of a pit and He rescued you therefrom. That is, He created the means for your rescue.

The will of Allah is turning towards bestowing mercy upon you and if you revert to Meaning [Persian] Be glad, O My Aḥmad, you are My purpose and are with Me. I have planted the tree of your honour with My own hand.

prohibited category] and to guard their private parts and ears from unworthy acts. That is required and essential for their attainment of purification.

This means that it is incumbent upon every believer to refrain from all that is prohibited and to safeguard all his limbs against misuse. His purification depends entirely on this....

[Arabic] When My servants ask you concerning Me, I am close. I respond to the call of the supplicant when he calls on Me. I have sent you so that I may provide the means of attaining mercy for all people.

[Arabic] Those who disbelieve from among the People of the Book and the idolaters—that is, have firmly persisted in disbelief—would not desist from their disbelief until clear proof was shown to them. Their stratagem was mighty.

This indicates that the heavenly Signs and reasoned arguments that Allah the Almighty has set forth at the hand of this humble one were utterly needed to complete the admonition. The dark-minded people of this age, who are infected with the worm of ignorance and vice, were not likely to give up their mischief without clear Signs and conclusive reasoning. They were instead occupied with devising plans for the utter destruction of the garden of Islam from the face of the earth.
[Urdu] Had God not done this the world would have been enveloped in darkness.

This revelation points to the fact that the world was in great need of these clear Signs and that the worldly people whom their disbelief and viciousness had converted into spiritual lepers could not have come back to health without this heavenly medicine which is like the water of life for the seekers of truth.

[Arabic] When it is said to them: Create not disorder in the land and do not spread disbelief, idolatry, and evil doctrines, they retort: ‘Ours is the right way; we are not trouble-makers. Rather we are peace-makers and reformers.’ Hearken; they are the disorderly ones who are creating disorder on the earth. Proclaim: I seek the protection of the Lord of creation from the mischief of every wicked creation and against the mischief of the dark night.

This means that this age, on account of its great corruption, is like a dark night and that divine power and strength are needed for its illumination. This task is beyond human power.

[Arabic] I will be your Helper, I shall protect you. I shall make you a leader of men. Do the people wonder? Say that Allah is Wonderful, He always does wonderful things. He chooses whom He likes from among His servants. He is not questioned about that which He does as to why He did so, but the people are questioned. And such days We cause to alternate among men.

This [last part of the revelation] means that everything happens by turn and that divine favours continue to be bestowed upon individuals from among the Muslims turn by turn.

[Arabic] They will ask: ‘Whence have you obtained this? This is all imposture.’ When Allah the Almighty helps a believer He makes many in the earth jealous of him. The Fire is the ultimate resort for those who persist in jealousy and do not reform themselves. Tell them: ‘All these works belong to God;’ and then leave them being beguiled by their sport.

[Arabic] Deal kindly with people and be compassionate towards them. You are to them like Mūsā [Moses] and be steadfast with regard to whatever they might say.

Ḥaḍrat Mūsā [Moses] exercised more forbearance and gentleness towards the Banī Isrā’īl [the Israelites] than any of their other Prophets. Neither Masīḥ [Messiah] nor any other Prophet in Israel approached the high status of Ḥaḍrat Mūsā. The Torah says that Ḥaḍrat Mūsāās was better and higher than all Prophets in Israel in kindness, gentleness, and high moral qualities. For instance, the Torah says: The man Moses was very meek, above all the men who were upon the face of the earth (Numbers, 12:3). Thus, God has praised the meekness of Mūsāas [Moses] in the Torah using words which He has not employed with reference to any other Prophet in Israel. It is true, however, that the high moral qualities of the Seal of the Prophets, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, which are mentioned in the Holy Qur’an, are thousands of times higher than those of Ḥaḍrat Mūsāas inasmuch as God has announced concerning the Seal of the Prophets, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, that he comprehends in his own person all high moral qualities that are found spread out among all the Prophets. Moreover, He has said with regard to the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him: [You do most surely possess the highest moral excellences]129 …As the Muslim divines are like the Prophets of Israel, therefore, in this revelation this humble one has been likened to Ḥaḍrat Mūsāas. This is all a part of the blessings of the Chief of the Prophets that God, the Noble, honours individual ones among his humble followers with such noble messages out of His great bounty and benevolence. [O Allah, send down Your blessings upon Muḥammad and upon the progeny of Muḥammad.]

129 al-Qalam, 68:5 [Publishers]
After that come the following revealed sentences:

[Arabic] When it is said to them: Believe as other people have believed, they say: ‘Shall we believe as the foolish have believed?’ Beware! it is surely they that are foolish, but they do not know. They love that you should make compromises. Say: O ye disbelievers, I worship not that which you worship. You were told to revert to Allah but you do not come back. You were admonished to overpower your sinful inclinations but you do not overpower them. Do you ask for any recompense for which they feel encumbered and imagine that acceptance of truth is a heavy burden? Nay! They have been given the truth without anything in return, and still they hate the truth. Holy is Allah and far above the faults that they attribute to Him. Do these people think that by merely making a verbal profession of faith they would be left alone without a trial? They long for praise for what they have not done. There is nothing that is hidden from Allah. As long as Allah does not reform something, no reform can take place. Whosoever is repelled by Allah, none can draw him back.
Will you grieve yourself to death because they believe not. Follow not that of which you have no knowledge. Do not supplicate Me in the matter of the wrongdoers; they will be drowned. O Ibrāhīm [Abraham], stay away from him; he is not a good person. You are only a Warner and are not a keeper over them.

These few verses, which have been revealed as revelation, are about some specific people.

This is followed by the revelation:

Beseech help with steadfastness and Prayer, and take the station of Ibrāhīm [Abraham] as a place for Prayer.

In this revelation the place of Ibrāhīm [Abraham] means high moral qualities and a strong relationship with Allah by way of love of Allah, devotion to Him, seeking His pleasure and complete faithfulness. This is the real station of Ibrāhīm which is awarded to the Muslims through obedience and by way of inheritance. He who is created with the spirit of Ibrāhīm must tread along that path.

130 Another wording of this revelation (quoted in Barahīn-e-Ahmadiyyah, part 5, Rūhānī Khazā’in, volume 21, page 115) is: [Arabic] [His deeds are evil.] [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

131 Here it [the station of Ibrāhīm] means that you should perform your worship and put your doctrines in accord with those of this Ibrāhīm [Abraham] who has been sent and model yourselves upon him in all things.

[Arabic] Allah the Almighty will spread the shade of His mercy over you and will redress your grievances and will have mercy on you; and if all men refrain from safeguarding you, Allah Himself will safeguard you. And Allah will certainly safeguard you with His help even if all the people refrain from it.

This means that God will Himself help me, and will safeguard my effort from going to waste and His many supports will be ever available to me.

And obviously he who denies this claim [of mine] would also declare [me] to be a disbeliever. The word هَامُان Hāmān, points towards the characteristic of هَامَان haimān which denotes someone who wanders lonely in a valley.

(B) This revelation may be read with كَفَّرَ kafara or كَفَّرَ kaffara. The first wording of the revelation has reference to someone who would at one time have confidence in me and would think well of me and would later turn away and deny me. This description applies very well to Maulāvi Muḥammad Ḥusain of Batala who declared such confidence in his colleague: ‘Prepare a fire of some mischief or tribulation, so that I might learn about the God of Mūsā [Moses] (that is, of this man) and find out how He helps him, and whether He is with him or not, because I consider this man to be a liar.’

This, though in terms of the past, gives intimation of something that will happen in the future.

133 This revelation was published in the Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah twelve years before I was declared a non-believer. [This was the time] when Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain wrote out his declaration of apostasy and asked Miyān Nadhīr Ḥusain of Delhi to be the first to place his stamp of approval on it and thus declare me a non-believer and to publish it among all Muslims. Twelve years before this declaration and the stamp of approval from the above-mentioned Miyān [Nadhīr Ḥusain], this book [Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah] had been published throughout the Punjab and India. Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain, who turned out to be the first to propound this declaration, after twelve years, was the one who laid the foundation of declaration of apostasy. Miyān Nadhīr Ḥusain of Delhi was the one to spread this fire throughout the country on account of his reputation. Here is a proof of God’s knowledge of the Unseen, inasmuch as this prophecy was made at a time when there was no cause or occasion for this declaration and Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain considered himself to be in my service. At that time God the Almighty revealed this prophecy. Anyone endowed with even minimal reason and intelligence should reflect whether it is within human power of mine or of anyone else to know, on the basis of intellectual conjectures, twelve years in advance, a storm, the fierceness of which would carry away a person like Maulāvī Muḥammad Ḥusain—who professed such sincerity towards me—into such great error and along with him a person like Miyān Nādhir Ḥusain who had said that no book like the Barāhīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah had been published in the history of Islam. Indeed this is purely God’s knowledge [of the Unseen] which is termed a miracle.

\(^{134}\) This prophecy was fulfilled with the martyrdom of Maulānā Sayyed ‘Abdul-Latīf of Kabul and Maulāvī ‘Abdur-Raḥmān of Kabul (May Allah be pleased with them both). For details see Tadhkiratul-Shahādatain. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

I was a hidden treasure and I liked to be recognised. The heavens and the earth

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams ra: Pīr Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu’mānī ra has related: One day I enquired from the Promised Messiah as: The mystics and other scholars have strived hard in interpreting. Can you please tell us what this sentence means? The Promised Messiah as said: Its simple meaning is that when error, misguidance, disbelief, paganism and all kinds of heresies spread in the world, the recognition of God and ways of approaching Him become obscure, hearts become hardened and are emptied of the fear of Allah. At such times and age, Allah becomes like a hidden treasure. Then He determines that He should again be known to mankind and be recognised by people. For this purpose, He chooses one of His servants and bestows upon him the mantle of Khilafat and is recognised through him. That favoured and chosen servant fills empty hearts afresh with the love of God and discloses the mysteries of His cognition to people. This has been the way of Allah in every age since eternity. The same came to pass in our age that people lost the cognition of Allah and introduced perverted ideas into His attributes. They neglected the attributes of Allah and abandoned His books and scriptures. They fashioned His equals and associates. Thus God became like a hidden treasure. Thereupon God has raised me, bestowing His love and cogni-were both a closed mass and We cleft them both. They will mock you and will say mockingly: ‘Is this the one whom Allah has raised for the reformation of mankind.’ That is, do not expect the reformation of those whose nature is steeped in evil.

The revelation continues:

Say: I am\textsuperscript{136} but a human being like you. God sends me revelation that you have none worthy of worship except Allah. He alone is worthy of worship and none should be associated with Him. All good and welfare is comprehended in the Qur’an; it cannot be found anywhere else. It is only those whom Allah has cleansed and purified with His own hand who penetrate to the verities of the Qur’an. I have spent a whole lifetime among you before this, then do you not understand\textsuperscript{137}?...

\textsuperscript{136} In \textit{Arba’in}, number 2, page 8, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} has quoted this revelation with reference to \textit{Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah} as following: \textit{تَحَكَّمُوْتُ إِنَّكَ} before \textit{بُكَرِيرُ} was omitted through scribe’s error. See \textit{Arba’in}, number 2, page 8, \textit{Rūhānī Khazā’in}, volume 17, page 354. The English meaning given above includes the meaning of \textit{آتِكَ}. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

\textsuperscript{137} It was about 1884 that God vouchsafed to me the revelation:
[Arabic] Say: The [real] guidance is only the guidance from Allah. My Lord is with me, He will soon open the way for me. O my Lord, have mercy from heaven and forgive; I am overcome so do You combat [the enemy] on my behalf. O my Lord, O my Lord, why have you forsaken me? Eli aus.

The last portion of this revelation, i.e., Eli aus, has remained unclear on account of the speed of the revelation, nor were its meaning disclosed to me. [Allah knows best]...

[Arabic] [I have lived a whole lifetime among you before this, then do you not understand?] This was an indication on behalf of God the All-Knowing, that no opponent of mine would be able to point to any default in my life. Accordingly, up till now, when I am about sixty-five years of age, no one, whether living close to me or far from me, can point to any stain in my past life. Indeed God Himself has made my opponents bear witness to the purity of my past life. For instance, Maulāwī Muḥammad Ḥusain has, on many occasions, praised me and the members of my family in his journal Ishā‘ī‘at-Sunnah and has claimed that no one is better acquainted with me and my family than him. Then, to the extent that he understood, he praised me. In this way an opponent, who became the originator of my condemnation as a non-believer, has confirmed the truth of this prophecy ... [I have lived among you...].

purified you. And you will receive My help. Hearken! it is the army of Allah which always prevails. Allah is not such as to chastise them while you are among them or while they seek forgiveness.

[Arabic] I am your inevitable support. I am the One Who brings you to life. I have breathed into you the spirit of righteousness and have poured love upon you from Myself so that you might be treated well in My presence. So you are like a seed that sends forth its sprout then it grows stronger until it stands firmly on its stem.

In these revelations, God has indicated such support and bounty and pointed to such rise in dignity and honour and greatness as would gradually reach its perfection.

[Arabic] We have granted you, that is, will grant, a clear victory. Some intervening disagreeable events and hardships will be encountered so that Allah the Almighty may forgive your shortcomings, past and future.

This revelation means that God—being All-Powerful—could have, if He willed, caused the purpose in view to be accomplished without any type of tribulation and to cause a great victory to be achieved quite easily. But the tribulations are for the purposes of raising rank and of forgiveness of defaults….
[Arabic] Is not Allah sufficient for His servant? So Allah cleared him of the charges that were made against him and he has a high standing in the estimation of God.\(^{138}\) Is not Allah sufficient for His servant? When his Lord manifested Himself on the mountain, He broke it into bits; that is, the mountains of difficulties were made easy to surmount. Is not Allah sufficient for His servant? We will make him a source of mercy for the people and this matter had already been determined. This is the word of truth which you doubt.

\(^{138}\) This prophecy was fulfilled as following: At the time of Captain Douglas, I was charged with murder; Allah cleared me of that charge. Then I was charged at the time of Deputy Commissioner Douie, and Allah cleared me of that charge. I was also charged with being ignorant and the opposing maulavīs were themselves proven to be ignorant. Then Mehr ‘Alī charged me with being a plagiarist and he was proven to be so himself.

the disbelievers, that is, the disbelievers are speechless and powerless before them and the awe of their truthfulness permeates the hearts of the disbelievers. They are compassionate among themselves. They are men whom commerce does not stop nor does trade hinder them from the remembrance of Allah. That is, their love for Allah has reached such perfection that worldly engagements, no matter how unrelenting, do not interfere in their condition [of devotion]. Allah will make the Muslims benefit from their blessings. So their appearance indicates signs of the mercy of Allah. Then observe those Signs. If you possess anyone like them, that is, if there are people among your companions and coreligionists who possess such support from Allah, then cite the example of such others if you are truthful. He who wishes for and seeks a religion other than the faith of Islam, such religion will never be accepted of him and in the hereafter he will be of the losers.

[Arabic] O Aḥmad, mercy flows from your lips. We have bestowed upon you abundant points of wisdom\(^\text{139}\). Therefore observe prayer and offer sacrifice in gratitude to Your Lord and \(^{139}\) Publishers’ Note: The Promised Messiah\(^\text{as}\) has translated this phrase in Nuzūlul-Masīḥ as following:

We shall bestow upon you many well wishers and a large Jamā’at will be granted to you.

Nuzūlul-Masīḥ, p. 131, Rūhānī Khazā’in, vol. 18, p. 509 establish prayer for My remembrance. You are with Me and I am with you. Your secret is My secret. We have relieved you of the burden which had well-nigh broken your back, and have exalted your name. You are on the straight path, of high standing in this world and the hereafter and of those who are close to Allah.

[Arabic] Allah will support you, Allah will help you. Allah will raise the argument of Islam. It is the beauty of Allah that has purified you in every situation. The mysteries that God Almighty has granted to His auliya’ [friends of Allah] cannot be encompassed; someone is drawn towards Him by one way, and someone else by another....

This is an indication that there are two divine attributes which operate for the moral and spiritual development of God’s servants. One operates by way of tenderness, bountifulness and benevolence. It is called Jamāl [Beauty]. The other operates by way of power and harshness. It is called Jalāl [Majesty]. It is thus the way of Allah that those who are summoned to His presence are nurtured sometimes through His attribute of Beauty and sometimes through His attribute of Majesty. In matters where the grace of the One God is directed in a magnificent manner, the attribute of Beauty is always manifested in abundance, but on some occasions Allah wills to discipline or nurture His favoured servant through the attributes of Majesty. Even with regard to the Prophets it has been the way of God Almighty that they are nurtured normally through the operation of the attributes of Beauty but sometimes the attributes of Majesty also come into operation to demonstrate their steadfastness and their high moral qualities. They are afflicted with all types of tribulations at the hands of evil people so that their high moral qualities, which cannot be demonstrated without the pressure of great suffering, may be demonstrated and people of the world may know that they are not weaklings but are truly faithful.

[Arabic] They will ask: Whence have you obtained this? This is but selected magic. We shall not believe till we behold Allah manifestly. A stupid one does not confirm anything except the sword of destruction. [He] is my enemy and your enemy. Say: The decree of Allah is imminent; do not try to hasten it. When the help of Allah arrives it will be asked: Am I not your Lord? They will answer: Why not.
[Arabic] I shall give you full reward\(^{140}\) and shall raise you towards Me. I shall raise those who follow you, that is, enter into the fold of true followers of Allah and His Messenger, above those who deny you till the Day of Judgment. That is, they will prevail over their opponents in reasoning and arguments and the radiant lights of truthfulness and sincerity will always accompany them. Do not slacken and be not grieved; Allah is exceedingly Compassionate towards you. Hearken, truly there is no fear on the friends of Allah, nor do they grieve. You will die in a condition that Allah will be pleased with you. Then enter into Paradise, God willing, in peace. Peace be on you, you have been cleansed of idolatry, so enter the Garden in peace. Peace be on you, you have been blessed. Allah has heard your supplication; He hears the supplications. You are blessed in the world and in the hereafter. The maladies of people and the blessings of God.

This means that my being blessed will help to cure people of their spiritual ills and that those whose spirits are \(^{140}\) The Promised Messiah\(^{as}\) says: In the Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah I had mistakenly interpreted tawaffā as meaning ‘full reward’, which some of the maulavīs cite as a criticism against me. They are not justified in this as I confess that I was mistaken in this. But there is no mistake in the revelation. I am a human being and am subject to human frailties such as mistake and forgetfulness like other human beings, though I know that God does not leave me under the influence of a mistake. I do not, however, claim that I cannot be mistaken in an interpretation.

Divine revelation is free from mistake but man’s words are not free from the possibility of mistake, because forgetfulness and mistake are essential human characteristics.

fortunate will be directed and guided by my teachings, and will be healed and cured of physical ills except the ills for which an unchangeable decree of Allah has been determined.

Then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] Your Lord is All-Powerful and does whatever He determines.

Then He said:

Keep in mind the bounty of God. I have exalted you above all the scholars of your time.

It should be remembered that this exaltation is partial and is derived; that is to say, whoever follows Ḥaḍrat Khâtamul-Anbiyā’, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, [the Seal of the Prophets] perfectly, ranks in the estimation of Allah above his contemporaries. All true and perfect exaltation has been bestowed by the One [Allah the Almighty] on the Seal of the Prophets. All others are rewarded according to their degree of love and obedience to him.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: The phrase is explained by the Promised Messiah as following: Epidemics will spread among the people and simultaneously God’s blessings will be promulgated. That will be so because He will safeguard some from this calamity as a Sign and secondly, these ailments will become a source of spiritual blessings and there would be many who will partake of spiritual blessings in these awe-striking days and will join the truthful movement. That is what actually happened; and many who were bigoted against the Movement joined it by witnessing the awe-striking event of the plague.

Observe then how high is the degree of his perfection. Allah, send down Thy blessings on him and his people. [Publishers]
The meaning of the remaining part of the revelation quoted above is:

O soul at rest upon truthfulness, return to your Lord, you well pleased with Him, and He well pleased with you. So enter among My chosen servants and enter My Paradise. Your Lord has been benevolent towards you and has been bountiful towards your friends and has taught you that which you could not know. If you try to count the favours of God, it will not be possible for you to do so.

Before this\textsuperscript{143} God the Almighty caused the following prayer to flow several times from this humble one by way of revelation:

\text{تُرِبِّ اِسْتِعْمَالُ مِنْ رَبِّيِّكَ حَيَّةً بَرَاءةً}

That is [Arabic] O my Lord, make me so blessed that wherever I may live, blessing may abide with me.

Then of His grace and benevolence God accepted the supplication which He had Himself taught. This is one of the wonderful ways of Providence that He Himself teaches a supplication by way of revelation and then responds that: ‘Your supplication has been granted.’

Only a few days ago, I was suddenly confronted with certain situations in which I faced three types of grief. I could think of no means of resolving this and there appeared no way out of suffering loss and damage. The same evening, my humble self went out for a walk in the woods, as was my routine. At the time, I was accompanied by an Ārya named Malāwāmal. Upon my return, when I approached the gate of the village, I received the following revelation:

That is [Arabic] We shall deliver you from this grief—will certainly deliver you. Know you not that Allah has power to do all things?

That Ārya was informed about this revelation at the very spot it was received. Then God removed all three aspects of the grief.

[So, Allah be praised for all this.]

Holy Qu’ran is the Book of God and is the word of My mouth] i.e., whose mouth is referred to. He said It means the words of Allah’s mouth. Allah the Almighty has said: ‘The words of My mouth.’ There are instances in the Holy Qur’an where different pronouns are used for the same subjects.

Revelation:

[English] Though all men should be angry, but God is with you. He shall help you. Words of God can not exchange.

[Arabic] All good is in the Qur’an, which is the Book of Allah the Almighty; that very Allah, who is the Most Gracious. Towards that Gracious One ascend all holy words.

[Arabic] Allah is the Noble One who causes the rain to descend after people have despaired of it and spreads His mercy over the world.

This means that God turns His attention towards the revival of the Faith precisely at the time when the need arises.

[Arabic] He chooses whomsoever He wills from among His servants.

[Arabic] In this way We bestowed Our bounty on Yūsuf [Joseph] so that We may avert from him evil and indecency; so that you should warn those people whose ancestors have not been warned by anyone, and therefore, they are neglectful.
Here the name Yūsuf refers to this humble one on account of some spiritual affinity [And Allah knows best].

Then the revelation came:

بين يعترفون شهاده: وَهُدِيَتُ النَّبِيِّ مُصْفَلًا أَنَّهُمْ أَمْسِكَوْا مَعَهُ وَأَنَّهُمْ أَخَذَوْا مَنْ تَأَرَّقُونَ إِنَّ فَتْحًا لَّهُ مَّدَّةً مَّعْلُومًا. تَبَيَّنَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَا كُنَّ يَكْرُهُونَ

[Arabic] Say: I have with me proof from Allah, then will you not believe?

That is, God Almighty’s support, [His] revealing the secrets of the unseen, informing of hidden things before their occurrence, accepting prayers, revelations in various languages, and disclosing points of wisdom and divine verities, are all divine testimony which is the duty of the believer to accept. The [translation of the] remaining above-mentioned revelations is:

[Arabic] Indeed my Lord is with me. He will show me the way. O my Lord! forgive my sins and show mercy from heaven. Our Lord is حَقَّ [‘Ājī] (The meaning of this has not been disclosed as yet). O my Lord, prison is more attractive to me than that the unworthy things towards which they invite me. O my Lord deliver me from my grief. [Hebrew] O my God! O my God! Why have You forsaken me? [Persian] Your bounties have made us daring.

All these are mysteries which apply to their proper times, which are in the knowledge of the All-Knowing.

Then the revelation came:

[Howasha‘nā, Na‘sā]

These two phrases are probably Hebrew of which the meaning has not as yet been disclosed to this humble one.

Thereafter, two English phrases were revealed of the correct wording of which I am still not sure on account of the speed of the revelation. They are:

I love you. I shall give you a large party of Islam.

Thereafter, two English phrases were revealed of the correct wording of which I am still not sure on account of the speed of the revelation. They are:

I love you. I shall give you a large party of Islam.

After this is the revelation:

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mīrzā Bashīr Ahmadra: The Promised Messiah as says in explanation of this revelation in Barāḥīn-e-Āḥmadiyyah, part 5:

O God, I pray to You to deliver me and release me from difficulties; We have delivered.

Both these phrases are in Hebrew. This is a prophecy which has been set forth in the form of a supplication followed by an assurance of its acceptance. In summary, it means that the then difficulties of being alone, poor and helpless, were destined to be resolved at some future time. This prophecy was fulfilled twenty-five years later when no trace was left of all those difficulties.

[Arabic] O ‘Īsā [Jesus] I shall give you full reward\textsuperscript{150} or cause you to die and shall raise you towards Me, meaning that I shall raise your status or will raise you from the life on earth towards Me, (and I shall clear you of all the accusations and calumnies of the disbelievers) and grant predominance to your followers over those who disbelieve, till the Day of Judgment. This means that: ‘I shall give supremacy to those who follow your beliefs and religion over others in arguments, reasoning, and blessings, until the Day of Resurrection.’ There is a group from among the first ones and a group from among the last ones.\textsuperscript{151}

In this revelation, the word ‘Īsā alludes to my humble self.

\textsuperscript{148} The revelation has been repeated so many times that Allah alone knows the count. Sometimes I received it continuously from mid-night till the \textit{Fajr} time.

\textsuperscript{149} The sentence was inadvertently missed in \textit{Barāhīn} (See \textit{Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah}, volume 5, page 73, \textit{Rūhānī Khazā’in}, volume 21, pages 94). [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

\textsuperscript{151} This means that two types of people would join my Community. A group of these has also joined the Community and this is continuing.

[Arabic] It is the power of [the Gracious] God, which He, the Absolutely Independent will demonstrate for His servant.

That is [Arabic] To be the ‘servant of Allah, the Absolutely Independent’ is a status that is bestowed through special bounty. It cannot be achieved through efforts alone.

You must do what I told you.

[Arabic] O Dāwūd [David], behave towards people gently and benevolently and return the greetings of peace with a better greeting. And proclaim the bounties of your Lord to the people. [English] You must do what I told you. [Arabic] Be grateful for My favour that you have found it ahead of time. Today you have a great share of good, you are a Muḥaddath [recipient of divine discourse] of Allah. You have the quality of distinguishing between the truth and falsehood.

[Arabic] Peace on you O Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. Today you have an established position of high rank, trustworthiness, and strong intellect with Us. You are loved of Allah, special friend of Allah, and lion of Allah. Call down blessings on Muḥammad, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

That is, all these bounties are in consequences of obedience to the same Noble Prophet

The translation of the remainder is:

[Arabic] Your Lord has not forsaken you, nor is He displeased with you. Have We not opened up your bosom? Have We not made everything easy for you by granting you Baitul-Fikr [the Place of Contemplation] and Baitudh-Dhikr [the Place of Prayer]. He who enters Baitudh-Dhikr sincerely for the sake of worship, with purity of intention and good faith, will be secure against an evil end.

Here Baitul-Fikr refers to the upper room in which this humble one has remained, and still remains, occupied with the compilation of this book and Baitudh-Dhikr refers to the mosque established next to it.
The last sentence mentioned above refers to the attribute of the same mosque\textsuperscript{153} whose letters also indicate the

\textsuperscript{[Maktūbāt-e-Aḥmadiyyah, vol. 1, p. 55]}

(B) On one occasion when I desired to discover through revelation the phrase which would express the date of the consecration of this mosque…, I received the revelation:

\textquotedblleft This mosque is a source of blessings, and is blessed itself. In it will be performed every blessed deed.\textquotedblright

(C) There are three types of Signs in this revelation. (1) First that this revelation comprises the date of the consecration of this mosque. (2) Second that in it is a prophecy stating that the affairs of a great Community will be settled in this mosque. Accordingly, thousands of people have made their covenant of repentance in this mosque. Hundreds of points relating to the mysteries of the faith are expounded in this mosque. Designs for new publications are settled in this mosque and a large number of Muslims offer the five daily prayers in this mosque and hear sermons and make their sincere heartfelt supplications. No sign of any of these things existed at the time of its consecration. (3) Third, this revelation indicates that there will be some calamity in future. Whoever will enter this mosque with complete sincerity will be secure against that calamity. Other references in the \textit{Barāhīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah} prove conclusively that plague is that calamity. Thus, this is a prophecy that whoever enters this mosque with complete devotion and sincerity, such as is acceptable to God, will be secure against the plague, that is, against death by plague.

Then I received a revelation about my own humble self:

\textbf{فُجِّيَتْ وَبَٰعْيَتْ مَبَارَةً}

\[\text{[Arabic] You have been elevated and made blessed.}\]

That is [Arabic] Those who will believe in the blessings and light which have been bestowed upon you by Allah the Almighty, and whose faith is sincere and filled with loyalty, will be secured from the paths of error. They alone are rightly guided in the sight of Allah.

[Arabic] The opponents will desire to extinguish the light of Allah. Say: Allah Himself is the Guardian of this light. Allah’s favour guards you. We have sent it down and We are the Guardian. Allah is the Best of guardians and He is the Most Merciful. They will try to frighten you with diverse things; they are the leaders of disbelief. Fear not, indeed, you will be on top. That is, you shall prevail in terms of arguments, proofs, acceptance, and blessings. Allah will help you in many fields; that is, you will remain victorious in all polemical discussions and debates.

[Arabic] My Day will distinguish clearly between truth and falsehood. Allah has decreed: I and My messengers shall certainly prevail. No one can change the words of God. These acts of God are powerful arguments in support of the truthfulness of the faith [of Islam]. I shall provide you help from Myself. I Myself shall deliver you from distress, and your Lord is Powerful. You are with Me and I am with you. I have created the night and the day for you. Act as you would like, for I have forgiven you; you have a standing with Me of which people have no knowledge.

The last sentence does not mean that the prohibitions of the law are lawful for you; rather, it means that prohibited things are repulsive in your sight and that the love of righteous acts has been ingrained within your nature. In other words, whatever is God’s will has been made the will of His servant, and all matters of faith have been made dear to him as a

[Arabic] And they will say: ‘This is (nothing but) a falsehood that he has invented. We have not heard of any such thing among our elders, that is, among the auliyā’ of past.’ The fact is that all children of Ādam have not been created equal; God has exalted some of them above others and has chosen them from among others. This indeed is the truth, so that it might be a Sign for the believers. Do you imagine that Our wonders are confined to Aṣḥāb-e-Kahf [the People of the Cave] only. No, rather, Allah possesses wonders since eternity and His wonders never come to an end. Everyday He is in a magnificent state. Thus, We taught those Signs to Sulaimān [Solomon], meaning my humble self. People denied them wrongfully, though their hearts believed [in them]. So, We

The Promised Messiah as has quoted the same revelation in Arba’in, number 2, 1st edition, page 7, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 17, page 353, with reference to Barahīn-e-Ahmadiyyah and the word جُهٔ is included there. shall soon strike terror in their hearts. Say: Light has descended from Allah, so do not reject it if you are believers. Peace be on Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. We purified him and delivered him from grief. We Ourself have done this; therefore you should follow the footsteps of Ibrāhīm.

Meaning that, follow the true path of the Noble Messenger™ which is no longer clearly recognized by many people in this age—some of them have become slaves of the letter like the Jews while some others have indulged in the worship of creatures, like the polytheists. They should enquire about this path from this humble servant of the Benevolent God and should tread upon it.

August 1883

(A) The news of his [Pandit Dayānand’s] passing away, which happened on October 30, 1883, was indicated to me by God Almighty about three months in advance and this was communicated by me to some Āryas.

(B) Concerning Pandit Dayānand, Lālah Sharampat was informed two months before his demise that his end was very near. Actually, in my vision I had seen him dead.

[Shaḥna-e-Ijāqq, p. 43, Rūhānī Khazā’in, vol. 2, p. 382]

(C) Pandit Dayānand, the founder of the Ārya faith, propagated his views in the Punjab and incited mean minded Hindus to insult the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and likewise other Prophets. He [Pandit Dayānand] himself, from the moment he began to compile his books, started to attack the honour of all holy and chosen Prophets of God in his satanic books, and more particularly filled his book Satyārath Prakāsh with much filth of lies, and uttered filthy abuses about great Prophets. Thereupon, I received the revelation concerning him:

[Urdu] God the Almighty will very soon remove such an evil one from the earth.

August 28, 1883
Probably day before yesterday, i.e., on Tuesday, I looked at the mosque and immediately another revelation was received from God Almighty:

[Arabic] In it are blessings for mankind.

[Maktūbāt-e- Ağmadiyyah, vol. 1, p. 45, Letter no. 25, dated August 30, 1883]

September 6, 1883
On Thursday, September 6, 1883, God Almighty informed me through His blessed revelation in order to set my mind at rest at a time of need:

[Urdu] Twenty and one rupees are coming.
This glad tiding had a special feature that the exact amount was mentioned. To give intimation of a specific amount is special to the All-Knowing; no one else can do so. The second, even more wonderful, feature was that this amount was of an unusual nature, because it had no relationship to the price that had been fixed for this book. Because of these special features this revelation was communicated to some Āryas ahead of time.

September 10, 1883

Then a revelation was received definitely and emphatically for the third time on September 10, 1883:

[Urdu] Twenty and one rupees have arrived.

This was understood to mean that the prophecy would be fulfilled the same day. Within approximately three minutes of the receipt of this revelation, a man of the name of Wazīr Singh, who was ill, arrived and immediately presented a rupee to me. I do not practice as a physician, but if by chance a person who is suffering arrives and I am able to think of a suitable medicine I give it away for the sake of Allah and to earn His blessings. However, I accepted this rupee from him for it passed through my mind that this rupee might be connected with the prophecy. Then, I sent a trusted messenger to the post office expecting that the rest of the prophecy would be fulfilled through the post office. The postal clerk, a Hindu, sent word that he had received a money order of the value of five rupees to which a card was attached—which had arrived from Dera Ghazi Khan—but that he did not have any money with him and would remit this money as soon as he would receive it. I was so surprised and perturbed upon receiving this information as cannot be described in words. While I had bowed down my head, thinking that five and one would make only six; how will they turn into twenty-one, I begged Allah what the matter was. During this contemplation, I suddenly received the revelation:

[Urdu] Twenty and one have arrived, there is no doubt in this.
A short while after, an Ārya who had heard the message of the postal clerk happened to go to the post office and in the course of conversation the postal clerk told him that the money order was of the value of twenty rupees, but that unthinkingly he had mentioned the amount of five rupees. The same Ārya brought twenty rupees and a post card from Munshi Ilāhī Bakhsh, Accountant, and it was discovered that the post card had not been attached to the money order and it was also discovered from the writing of Munshi Ilāhī Bakhsh that the money order had arrived at Qadian on September 6, 1883, that is to say, on the day on which the first revelation had been received. Thus, the whole statement of the postal clerk was proved wrong and the revelation of the All-Knowing was proved correct. In memory of this blessed day one rupee’s worth of sweets were distributed among others to some Āryas also.

October 9, 1883

What a wonderful dream I had last night—that some persons whom I did not recognise were inscribing some verses over the door of the mosque\(^{157}\) with green ink. I conceived that they were angels, who were carrying green ink with them, and were writing some verses in calligraphy that was involved and continuous. This humble one started reading these verses but only one of them has remained in my memory and that was:

\(^{157}\) Refers to Mubārak Mosque. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

which is a self evident truth for who can repel God’s bounty? No one can demolish a structure that He desires to raise and no one can humiliate the one whom He desires to exalt.

[Maktabat-e-Ahmadiyyah, vol. 1, p. 61, addressed to Mir Abbas Ali of Ludhiana, dated October 9, 1883]

October 22, 1883

Today while my humble self was correcting proofs I was handed a few sheets of paper in a vision. They bore the inscription:

فُنِّقَنَّهُ رَحْمَةٍ

[Urdu] Let the drums of victory beat.

Then a person showed me a picture on the other side of the sheets and said:

دِیکُوْکایی کا سِتے تَوَصُّرِمَارَی

When I looked, it was indeed the picture of my humble self, in green attire. The picture was very majestic like that of a victorious commander laced with armaments. On the right and left of the picture were inscribed the words:

دِیکُوْکایی کا سِتے تَوَصُّرِمَارَی

[Arabic] The instrument of Allah the All-Powerful and [Persian] Vicegerent—with royal authority—of Ahmad the Chosen [Prophet of God].

This is Monday, Dhul-Hajj 19, 1300 AH, October 22, 1883 CE, Katak 6, 1940 [Bikrami].

Before October 24, 1883

On one occasion, my humble self received the revelation from God Almighty:

[Urdu] If all people should turn away, I can help from below the earth or from above the heaven.

Before October 29, 1883

On several occasions, my humble self has received such sentences in the converse from God, the One, as indicated that the whole world is under complete control and subjugation of the powerful grip of the One, and divine control is exercised all through the heaven and the earth.

Before October 29, 1883

A few days ago, I received the revelation:

[Arabic] If He should afflict you with harm, no one, other than Him can remove it and if He should desire to bestow good upon you no one can repel His bounty. Know you not that Allah has complete power to do all that He wills? The promise of Allah is bound to be fulfilled.

November 19-20, 1883

Last night I received another strange revelation:

[159] [Arabic] If He should afflict you with harm, no one, other than Him can remove it and if He should desire to bestow good upon you no one can repel His bounty. Know you not that Allah has complete power to do all that He wills? The promise of Allah is bound to be fulfilled. [Publishers]

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: The word [yaamsaska] is written as [tamsaska] in the reference quoted above; this appears to be a scribe’s error.
This revelation was also repeated several times. It has only two meanings. The first meaning is: Tell your beneficiary or your brother that: ‘I shall complete My favour upon you.’ The second meaning is: ‘I shall cause (you) to die.’

I do not know who this might relate to. There are several people who stand in such relationship to me. I often receive such revelations or see such visions in which news is conveyed with regard to ease or hardship or accidents or age concerning myself or some of my friends.

Fifteen years later when my brother [Mirzā Ghulām Qādir]’s time of death drew near, I was in Amritsar. It was disclosed to me in a dream that the cup of his life was now definitely full and he would soon die. I related this dream to Ḥakīm Muḥammad Sharīf, who is a physician in Amritsar.

[Hayāt-e-Aḥmad volume 2, number 2, page 72 (by Sheikh Yaʿqūb ʿAlī ʿIrfānī), this revelation is written clearly with the words بَنَّ وَالِدَة يَهُوَ. But in Maktūbāt-e-Āhmadiyyah, volume 1, page 67, Letter number 35, addressed to Mīr ʿAbbās ʿAlī Shāh dated November 20, 1883, the word is not written very legibly. It can be read as بَنَّ وَالِدَة يَهُوَ also. The translation by the Promised Messiah as maurud-e-faid [your beneficiary] strengthens that possibility, although daif [the guest] can also be understood as maurud-e-faid [the beneficiary]. [Allah knows best.] It may be noted the brother of the Promised Messiah as passed away in those days. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

In 1868 the brother of the Promised Messiah, Mirzā Ghulām Qādir fell ill, and was reduced to a bare skeleton. The Promised Messiah as prayed for his recovery. He was shown in a dream that he was walking in the house without any support. The Promised Messiah as has written that he lived for fifteen years after that dream. For details see page 11 under About 1868. [Publishers] and then wrote to my brother that he should prepare for the hereafter as I had been shown that he had only a short while to live. He informed the other members of the family of this and a few weeks later he passed away.

The sixty-first Sign is the death of my brother, Mirzá Ghulárn Qádir, concerning which I received the revelation as if a son of mine had said:

162

This was also communicated to the Ārya Sharampat ahead of time. The revelation indicated that my brother would die an untimely and sudden death which would cause much grief… and it was disclosed to me thereafter that this revelation was an indication of my brother’s death. My brother died suddenly two or three days after and that son of mine was deeply grieved.

One day before the death of my brother Mirzá Ghulárn Qádir, I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Funeral.

I informed several people of this revelation. Next day my brother died.¹⁶³

December 1883

In the course of this week some phrases in English and other languages have been revealed to me...which are:

\text{Πρίσινος} & \quad \text{Οπτωσ} \\
\text{Pression} & \quad \text{‘Umar, Brāṭos or Plāṭos} \end{align*}

[\textit{Pression, ‘Umar, Brāṭos or Plāṭos}]

The speed of revelation left some of these words indistinct. It is not clear whether it [the last word] is Brāṭos or Plāṭos. ‘Umar is an Arabic word. We need to enquire into the linguistic origin and meanings of Brāṭos and Pression. These were followed by two other words:

\text{ホーム-スクムタ-スムサ}

¹⁶³ Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad asked Ḥaḍrat Ummul-Mu’mīnīn in which year Mirzā Ghulām Qādir died. She said: ‘He had already passed away one year before my marriage’ (which took place in 1884). \textit{The Punjab Chiefs} also mentions 1883 as the year of his death. [Publishers]

¹⁶⁴ (A) This is a Hebrew word meaning: Deliver us. This resembles the revelation I received:

\text{יִאַשֵׁר הַמֶּלֶךְ יְדוּוָן} \end{align*}

[\textit{al-Badr}, vol. 2, no. 16, May 8, 1903, p. 122]

[\textit{Arabic}] O Messiah who has been sent for human welfare, help us to avert the plague.

(B) As these revelations are in a foreign tongue and revelation comes fast, it is possible that there may be a slight departure from the pronunciation. It has also been observed that sometimes the divine word does not follow human idiom or follows an archaic idiom and sometime does not even follow the rules of grammar. There are several such instances in the Holy Qur’an e.g. (\textit{Tā Ḥā}, 20:64) where in the verse \(إِنَّهُ مَا كَانَ كَأَسْلَاءٍ\) the prevailing usage by men calls for \(إِنَّهُ مَا كَانَ كَأَسْلَاءٍ\).

It is not known to which language these two belong. These were followed by a revelation. The first sentence is Arabic, then English:

\[\text{You must do what I told you.}\]

[Arabic] O Dāwūd [David], behave towards people with kindness and benevolence.
[English] You must do what I told you.

The Urdu sentence is also a revealed one. After that there was a revelation in English, but its translation is not revealed….It should be remembered that I am not sure of the sequence; and sometimes revelations are received in different order. The revelations are:

[English] Though all men should be angry but God is with you. He shall help you. Words of God not can exchange.

After that there were a few more revelations in English of which the following are remembered:

[English] I shall help you;

This was followed by:

[English] You have to go Amritsar;

165 This seems to be a scribe’s error. The same revelation has been quoted before (See page 124) and contains the words can not. [Syed Abdul Hayee] and then followed a sentence of which I do not know the meaning:

[English] He halts in the zillah Peshawar.

166 The word ‘zilla’ is used in English. See Public Service Inquiries Act Section 8 and the Punjab Courts Act, (published by Shamir Chand) Article 23. See also Oxford Dictionary under ‘zilla’. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
January 1884

Originally, at the beginning of the compilation of this book, its situation was different. Thereafter, a sudden manifestation of divine power made me aware, like Mūsā [Moses], of a universe of which I had no notion before. That is to say, this humble one, like Ḥaḍrat Ibn-e-'Imrān [Prophet Moses as], was also proceeding in the dark night of his own concepts, when suddenly from behind the curtain of the unseen came a voice:

\begin{verbatim}
\textit{إِنَّكَ لَأَنَّا إِلَيْكَ رَبُّ}
\end{verbatim}

Such mysteries were then revealed as were beyond the reach of reason and imagination. Therefore, the Lord of all the worlds is now the Guardian and Manager of this book, both manifest and hidden.

[Hamn Aur Hamārī Kitāb, back title page Barāhīn-e-Āhmadiyyah, part 4, Rūḥānī Khazā'īn, vol. 1, p. 673]

The Promised Messiah as said: One of the old revelations received by me is:

\begin{verbatim}
\textit{إِنَّكَ لَأَنَّا إِلَيْكَ رَبُّ}
\end{verbatim}

167 [Arabic] Verily, I am your Lord. [Publishers]

168 [Arabic] Do these people not reflect on your affair? Had this matter not been from Allah, they would have found much contradiction in it. [Publishers]

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad as: Since al-Badr states that this revelation was received during the time of the writing of the Barāhīn-e-Āhmadiyyah, it has been placed immediately after the revelations recorded in Barāhīn.
January 1884

A few days ago my humble self saw a strange dream. [It is that] there is a company of ascetics and worshippers and each one of them stands up to describe his way of life and while doing so recites an appropriate verse the last word of which is like qu’ūd or sujūd or shuhūd as in this verse تاپ شوگر گانم رقیق گردید. Some of them recite such couplets describing their experiences. At the end, I was about to recite a verse when my dream ended and the verse that I had intended to recite found utterance in a revelation as following:

[Translated]

January 3, 1884

(A) The fifty rupees sent by you arrived exactly at a time of need. Some people had made an untimely demand and I was in great need of fifty rupees. I supplicated and received the revelation:

[Translated]

169 I spend the whole night in standing and prostrating [in worship]. [Publishers]

170 [Persian] O ascetic, I know not the formalities of asceticism and devotional ceremonies.

My Lord has Himself led my steps to the way of Dāwūd [David]. [Publishers]

171 [Persian] Observe My good acceptance of thy supplication and see how quickly I respond to it. [Publishers]
This revelation was received on January 3, 1884 and on the 6th the money you sent was received. [Allah be praised for all this]

(B) Once I was in great need of fifty rupees and, as sometimes happens in the case of people who voluntarily adopt poverty and put their trust in God, I had nothing with me at the time. When I went out for a walk in the morning, the thought of the need prompted me to make a supplication in the jungle. I withdrew to an isolated place on the bank of the canal at a distance of three miles from Qadian towards Batala and made my supplication there. As soon as I had finished I received a revelation the rendering of which [in Urdu] is:

[Urdu] Observe how soon I accept your supplications.

I returned joyfully to Qadian and went to the post office to find out whether any money had arrived. I received a letter in which it was stated that a person from Ludhiana had dispatched fifty rupees and the amount reached me probably that day or the following day.

January 1884

One night I saw in a dream that my humble self was in a house which I do not recall and many people whom I had not previously known had come to see me. You [Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī] were also one of them, but it seemed that it was not your house. Those people observed something about me which they did not like and I lost their goodwill. On this you said to me: ‘You had better make a change of your appearance.’ I replied to you: ‘No, that would be an innovation.’ On this those people were affronted and withdrew to a neighbouring house and perhaps you were also with them. Then I went to that house so that I might lead them in Prayer. They again said with dismay: ‘We have already performed the Prayer.’ Then I decided to withdraw from them and to leave them alone, and stepped out. I felt that one of them was following me. When I looked, I found that it was you. Now, though details in a dream are not always definite and reliable and, if He so wills, God can even change His conditional decrees, I am apprehensive lest, God forbid, it should be your town. You should not pay much heed to the eagerness and devotion of people. True devotion, such as should withstand all trials and stumbling, is to be found only in one out of hundreds of thousand....It would be better if you do not insist too much on helping this humble one, as this might lead to many risky situations. I do not follow the way of the common ascetics and devotees, nor do I spend my time according to their custom and habit. Indeed, I am unfamiliar and far away from their mode.

About February 1884

I remember that about three months ago my son wrote to me that he had appeared in the competitive examination for the post of tahşīldār and he asked me to pray that he might be successful and emphasized his request with great humility and earnestness. Rather than being sympathetic, I reacted angrily upon reading the letter because of his great concern and anxiety about a worldly matter. Immediately after reading it, I destroyed the letter with great dislike and aversion, being reluctant to make a supplication in respect of a worldly affair to my Lord. As soon as I destroyed the letter, I received the revelation:\textsuperscript{174}

\[ \text{Will be successful.} \]

This wonderful revelation was also communicated to several people and in fact he succeeded in the examination. [Allah be praised for this].

\[ \text{Letter dated May 11, 1884, addressed to Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar and al-Ḥakam, vol. 3, no. 34 dated September 23, 1899, pp. 1, 2} \]

On one occasion Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān\textsuperscript{175} (deceased), Chief of Ludhiana, wrote a letter to me that some of the sources of his income had been blocked and he asked me to supplicate that they might be restored. When I supplicated, I received the revelation:

\[ \text{Will be restored.} \]

\textsuperscript{174} \textit{al-Ḥakam} version cites: مَمَعَالَمَةٍ meaning: ‘May he pass’ which seems to be a scribe’s error. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri]

\textsuperscript{175} Please note that Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān was the Chief of Jhajjar, but lived in Ludhiana. He was very devoted to the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{a} and wrote to him often for prayers for the relief of his troubles. The order and the dates of the Signs mentioned about him are not known precisely, except one or two. The best estimate is that they belong to 1884 or thereabout. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
I communicated this to him by letter and two to four days later, those sources were restored and his confidence in me became firm.

He [Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar] wrote to me again in connection with some¹⁷⁶ matters that he had not disclosed to anyone. The moment he mailed his letter I received a revelation that a letter of the type was expected from him. Thereupon I wrote to him immediately that he was sending me a letter the purport of which was such and such. The next day I received his letter. When he received my letter he was wonder-struck how I had become aware of that hidden matter because he had not disclosed it to anyone. This increased his confidence in me so much that he became totally immersed in my love and devotion. He entered both these Signs in a small pocket book which he always kept with him.

In my vision I received his [Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar’s] second letter in which he had described his ¹⁷⁶ ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān, Navvāb of Jhajjar, had started a grain market in Ludhiana. Through the mischief of someone, this market was deserted and he began to incur great loss. Then he turned to me with a request for prayers. But before I received any letter from Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad Khān] for prayer specifically in this matter, I was informed by Allah the Almighty that a letter on the subject would be received by me.

great anxiety, thereupon I …prayed for him and I received the revelation [Urdu] This obstruction will be removed for a time and he will be relieved of this distress.

I had mentioned this revelation in the letter that I wrote to him which made him wonder still more. This revelation was fulfilled very speedily and within a few days his market flourished in a very good way and the obstruction was removed.

February 12, 1884

Perhaps two days ago I again received the revelation:

This last part has been revealed to me previously also.

February 15, 1884

Today I received the revelation from Allah the Noble:

This [Arabic] O Servant of the God Who exalts! I shall raise you towards Me. I shall bestow honour and victory upon you. None can stop that which I bestow. [Publishers]

177 [Arabic] O Yahya [John] hold fast to this Book. Hold fast to it and be not afraid. We shall restore to it its original qualities. [Publishers]
March 28, 1884

After I had written this letter the following couplet of some eminent personage came to me as a revelation:

May 9, 1884

One of the indications of your [Navvāb ‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar’s] acceptance by God, the Noble, is that sometimes He informs me in advance of your attention towards me. I had a wonderful experience day before yesterday as well. I had not yet received your money order or your letter. I was shown in a vision a money order of yellow colour as coming from you and was then informed by revelation of your letter and was made aware of the state of your mind and the contents of the letter. The letter included a revealed sentence by way of a statement from you: ‘I believe this is the result of your attention.’ The contents of the letter and the purport of what was on your mind were communicated to three Hindus and several Muslims. Thereafter, your money order and letter were received.

May 1884

Once I saw in a dream that the condition of Navvāb [‘Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar] had moved from anxiety to joy and that he was prosperous and grateful. The dream was very lucid and clear; it was a form of vision. Next morning I informed Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad Khān] of this dream.

May 1884

Then it so happened that one Munshī Ilāhī Bakhsh, Accountant, who is one of those who are assisting me in the publication of this book [Barāḥīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah], wrote to me for prayers in connection with one of his problems and sent me fifty rupees as a present. He had also requested prayers a few days earlier, but I was occupied with supplication for Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad Khān of Jhajjar] and postponed praying for him to some other time. On the day I received the glad tidings concerning the matter of Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad], I thought that I should pray with full attention for Munshī Ilāhī Bakhsh. So when I found an opportunity after the ‘Aṣr prayers to pray without distraction and intended to perform my prayer, it occurred to me that I should still include Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad Khān] in my prayer. Accordingly, I supplicated on behalf of both Navvāb ['Alī Muḥammad] and Munshī Ilāhī Bakhsh. After supplication I received the following revelation at the same spot:

That is [Arabic] We shall relieve both of them of their distress...
A few days later I received a letter from Navvāb [‘Alī Muḥammad Khān] that the sarā‘ī [lodging house] had started operating again.

November 1884
One of the problems that I encountered at the time of my marriage\(^{180}\) was that, as my heart and brain suffered from weakness and I had suffered many illnesses..., my sexual power was almost non-existent and my life was like that of an old man. Therefore, some of my friends expressed concern at this marriage... that I was not fit for it because of such a weak condition... In short, I supplicated the Almighty regarding this problem and He revealed to me a prescription to treat the ailment. I saw in a vision that an angel was feeding me the medicines. I prepared that prescription and God blessed it so much that I was convinced that I had been given the vigour and strength which can be attained by a man of perfect health. Thereafter, four sons were bestowed upon me.

Early March 1885

The author has also been informed that he is the Reformer of the age and that his spiritual qualities have a resemblance to the qualities of Masîh [Messiah], son of Mary—each bearing a strong affinity and likeness with the other. And [I have also been told] that, due entirely to the blessing of perfect obedience to the Best of Mankind and the Most Exalted of All the Messengers, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, this humble one has been granted exaltation above many of the great saints who have passed away before me, just as the Prophets and Messengers were granted earlier. Following my way is the road to salvation, good fortune and blessings; and to go against it is a cause for deprivation and despondency.

March 8, 1885

This humble one, compiler of Barâhîn-e-Aḥmadiyyah, has been commissioned by God, the All Powerful, may He be glorified, to strive for the reformation of mankind, in the manner of the Israeli Prophet from Nazareth (Masîh) [Messiah], with perfect humility, meekness, lowliness, ...and courtesy.... It has therefore been decided that to bring the argument to a conclusive end, this letter...together with an announcement in English¹⁸³... be published and a copy thereof should be sent to the reverend missionaries... and to respected representatives of Brahmans, Āryas, followers of nature, and the Muslim divines….

This plan has not been adopted of my own thinking and initiative. Rather, I have been permitted by the Almighty Master to do so and I have been assured through revelation, as a prophecy, that the addressees of this letter (who do not respond to the truth upon receiving the letter) will be held guilty and will be confounded and rendered helpless.

Just now I have seen in a dream that I am confronted with some difficulty and say: َلَّا إِلَهَ إِلَّا الَّذِي نُزَيَّلَ إِلَيْهِ الْحَبْلُ [To Allah we belong and to Him shall we return].

I said to the person who was interrogating me on behalf of the government: ‘Will they imprison me or put me to death?’ His reply was somewhat to the effect that arrangements to be humiliated have been made. I said: ‘I am under the control of my God Almighty, the Glorious. I will sit where He will direct me to sit and I will stand where He directs me to stand’ and then the revelation came to me:

َيَتَّقُونِ نِعَمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَتَكُونُواْ صَادِقِيْنَ

That is [Arabic] The ʿabdāl [devotees] of Syria and the servants of Allah from among the Arabs are supplicating on your behalf.

Allah alone knows what the import is and when or how it might come to pass.184 َوَأَنَّهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ِالْعِوْلَمُ [Allah knows best].

July 10, 1885

I remember that on one occasion I saw in a state of 185 Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: Maulavi Ḍabullaḥ of Sannourra had the following statement published in al-Fadl, volume 4, number 24, September 26, 1916 by way of attestation of this event:

It was the month of Ramaḍān on the 27th day of which was Friday. I had the honour of being in attendance upon the blessed presence. After offering the Fajr Prayer, the Promised Messiah[as], as was his wont, retired into the chamber (i.e., the small room to the east of Masjid Mubārak) and lay down on a cot. Sitting near him, my humble self started massaging his feet as usual. This continued till the sun came out and the chamber was lit up.

The Promised Messiah[as] was lying on his side and his forearm covered his face. I was thinking with great joy how fortunate I was and what a blessed opportunity had been afforded to me by Allah, the Holy and High, that it was the blessed month of Ramaḍān and it was the blessed 27th day, the blessed period of the last ten days [of Ramaḍān], a blessed Friday and I was in the company of the blessed personage. I thought to myself how many blessings combined for me that day; it would not be strange if God Almighty were to show me some Sign of the Promised Messiah[as]. I was deep in these delightful thoughts as I was massaging his foot near the ankle when suddenly I perceived a slight trembling of his body, whereupon he removed his forearm from his face and looked at me. His eyes were wet and were possibly running with tears. He covered up his face again and continued in that posture. When I looked at his ankle I noticed a red drop which was round and had not spread out. I put the tip of my forefinger on the drop and it spread out and it coloured my finger also. I was surprised and the verse passed through my mind:

[Arabic] [The colouring of Allah and who is better than Allah in the matter of colouring. (al-Baqarah, 2:139)]

Then I thought that if this was Allah’s colouring may be it had a fragrance. I smelt my finger but there was no fragrance. Then I started massaging his back and observed a few wet red stains on his shirt which made me wonder, and I vision that I had written certain divine decrees with my own hand setting out events in the future and then got up and examined the whole chamber but did not find any red stain anywhere else. I was very puzzled, and resumed massaging his feet. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} continued lying down with his face covered with his forearm. In a short while he sat up and then went to the mosque and sat there. My humble self continued massaging his back.

It was then that I asked him: ‘Huḍūr, where did these red drops fall from?’ At first, he put me off; but on my persisting he related the whole incident as he has set out in detail in his books. Before describing the incident, he expounded to me in detail the matter of beholding God Almighty and the external materialization of elements observed in a vision. He drew upon the experiences of Ḥaḍrat Mohy-ud-dīn Ibn-e-‘Arabī to make me fully comprehend how perfect individuals are vouchsafed the experience of the personification of divine attributes of Beauty and Majesty.

Then the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} asked me: ‘Did any drop fall on your clothes?’ I looked at my clothes and answered:
‘There is no drop on me.’ He asked me to look at my cap (which was of white muslin.) I took off my cap and looked at it and saw that there was a drop on it also. I felt very happy that a drop of the divine ink had fallen on me too. I begged the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} persistently to bestow upon me the shirt on which the red drops had fallen.. He agreed on the condition that I should give a direction in my will that on my death it should be buried along with me. His hesitation in bestowing it upon me was due to his apprehension that after the death of both of us, people might convert it into an object of worship; and he gave it to me after a good deal of discussion between us. It is still with me and bears the red stains exactly as they were then.

This is my true eye-witness testimony! Suffice to say that if I have lied, may I be subject to the warning of:
[Curse of Allah be upon the liars.]

Taking Allah as Ever-Present, All-Seeing, I declare on oath in the name of Allah that whatever I have stated is the truth in its entirety. If I have forged a lie I call down upon myself the curse! curse!! curse!!! and wrath! wrath!! wrath!!! of Allah. Humbly, ‘Abdullah of Sannour. presented the paper to Allah the All-Powerful, Gloried be His name, for His signature. (It should be remembered that it often happens in visions and divinely inspired dreams that some divines attribute of Beauty or Majesty are beheld by the recipient of the vision in the form of a human being and the person seeing the vision thinks, by way of symbolism, that he is actually beholding God, the Absolutely All-Powerful. Among those with experience of spiritual visions, this matter is well-recorded, known, and accepted as an established fact. It cannot be denied by anyone with experience of visions.) To the same Peerless and Self-Sufficient Being—Who manifested His attribute of Beauty to my mind in the state of vision and appeared to be God, the All-Powerful—I presented the document containing divine decrees for attestation. And He, Who was manifesting Himself in the form of a Ruler, dipped His pen in red ink and first flicked it in my direction and with the rest of the red ink which remained at the point of the pen He put His signature\textsuperscript{186} to the document. Thereupon, the state of vision came to an end and when I opened my eyes to look at the material world around me, I witnessed several red drops falling on my clothes. Two or three of the drops also fell on the cap of one ‘Abdullāh of Sannour (Patiala State) who was at the time sitting close to me. Thus, the red ink which was part of the vision materialized externally and became visible. Many other such manifestations have been witnessed which it would take too long to relate.

I saw [in a dream] that I was present in the court of Allah the Almighty and was awaiting the hearing of my case. Then I heard the response:

On another occasion, I saw that I had gone to court and Allah the Almighty was presiding over the court like a Judge. A Reader was holding a file in his hand which he presented to the Judge. On looking into the file the Judge enquired: ‘Is Mirzā present?’ I took a closer look and observed an empty chair close to Allah the Almighty. He indicated to me that I should sit down in it. Then I woke up.

August 5, 1885

I received a revelation concerning Mirzā Imām-ud-Dīn and Nizām-ud-Dīn, that: Within thirty-one months they would encounter a great misfortune.

I understood this to mean that a man or a woman from among their close relatives would die which would cause great sorrow and division among them. This would happen within thirty-one months from today which is Sāwan 23, 1942 [Bikrami], August 5, 1885. Written on August 5, 1885.

187 [Arabic] Wait a while, O Mirzā, I shall soon be free. [Publishers]

188 Accordingly, in the middle of the 31st month, the daughter of Mirzā Nizām-ud-Dīn, niece of Mirzā Imām-ud-Dīn, aged twenty-five years, died leaving behind a small child.

(A) About fourteen years ago I saw in a dream that my wife 189 had given birth to a fourth son and three were already present. I also saw in the dream that the "aqīqah 190 of this fourth son was performed on Monday. When I saw this dream I had no son—not a single one—[from this wife] and yet I saw in my dream that I had four sons from this wife who were present before me and that the "aqīqah of the youngest was performed on Monday.

When this son, Mubārak Aḥmad, was born this dream had escaped my memory and Sunday was fixed for his "aqīqah. But by God’s design it rained so much that the "aqīqah could not be performed that day and was per force postponed to Monday. Then I recalled that fourteen years earlier I had seen a dream that a fourth son would be born to me and his "aqīqah would be performed on Monday. All the anxiety was then turned into joy observing how God Almighty had fulfilled His own word. We were working very hard to perform the "aqīqah on Sunday but could not do any thing and the "aqīqah was performed on Monday. This was a grand prophecy that four sons would be born during the period of fourteen years and the "aqīqah of the fourth would be performed on Monday. A person would not know that he would have four sons, all of which would remain alive. These are the doings of God. It is a pity that our people see these Signs and shut their eyes to them.

(B) Fourteen years ago I had seen in a dream that I would have four sons and that the ‘aqīqah of the fourth would be performed on a Monday.

[Letter dated June 26, 1899 addressed to Dr. Khalīfah Rashīd-ud-Dīn]

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour, who is a patwārī [A village registrar of land] in Patiala State, was pursuing a matter very diligently and had hope of achieving it. He requested me to supplicate for him in that behalf. When I prayed, I instantly received the revelation:

I told him that the object he was pursuing would never be achieved and informed him of the words of the revelation. It so happened that certain difficulties arose and the object, though within reach, could not be achieved.

November 28, 1885

On the night of the November 28, 1885, that is the night before November 28, there was such a display of meteors in the sky the like of which I had not witnessed in my whole life before and so many thousands of flames were traversing the atmosphere in the skies that there is no other spectacle in the world which I can cite to describe it. I recall that at that time the following revelation was vouchsafed to me repeatedly:

[Arabic] It was not you who let loose but it was Allah Who let loose.

191 [Persian] How many a desire terminates in dust. [Publishers]
This pelting had great affinity to the pelting of the stars in the sky.

This exhibition of the pelting of stars that occurred on the night of November 28, 1885 was so vast that it was visible all over and was described in great wonder in the papers of Europe, America and Asia. People might have thought that it was purposeless, yet God, the Noble, knows that I was the one who watched this spectacle with the greatest attention and derived the greatest delight from it. My eyes continued to be regaled by this spectacle for a long time. This display of the pelting of the stars started early in the evening. Because of divine glad-tidings, I derived great pleasure from it, for it was revealed upon my heart that it had appeared as a Sign in my support.

Thereafter, the people of Europe saw the comet which had been observed in the time of Ḥaḍrat Masīḥ the Messiah and it was conveyed to me that this comet was another Sign in support of my truth.

(A) Some frightening indications have been conveyed to me by Allah with regard to myself, some of my collateral relatives, some of my friends, some of my national brethren with philosophic bent of mind who are eminent as if they were Najmul-Hind the stars of India, and about a native

193 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad ra:

(A) In an announcement of March 12, 1897, addressing Sir Sayyed Ahmad Khan the Promised Messiah as said:
new-comer\textsuperscript{194} of Punjabi origin. For some, they indicate trials, for others they indicate death of close relatives, and for some others they indicate the death of the person himself. If Allah the All-Powerful so wills, they will be published after due consideration.

That prophecy of mine was also fulfilled in an awe-striking way. On one occasion he suddenly lost one hundred and fifty thousand rupees through the dishonesty of a mischievous person, and was so affected… that for three days he did not eat anything… Once, he even became unconscious.

(B) ‘Towards the end of his life, Sir Sayyed had to bear the heavy bereavement of the death of a grown up son.’

\textsuperscript{194} (A) I had told several Hindus and Muslims of several towns that by the person of Punjabi origin was meant Dalīp Singh concerning whom it had been given out that he would arrive in the Punjab but I foretold that he would be disappointed in this hope and that he would encounter difficulties in this journey threatening his comfort, honour, or life… In the end, in accordance with this prophecy, he suffered much inconvenience, trouble, suffering and humiliation and failed in his purpose.

(B) Dalīp Singh was sent back from Aden and his honour and comfort were put in jeopardy as I had foretold to a large number of people.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad\textsuperscript{12}: The newspaper Riyād-e-Hind dated May 3, 1886 published the news about Mahārājā Dalīp Singh’s being stopped at Aden on page 214, column 1.]

(C) The person mentioned in the announcement of February 20, 1886 as a nobleman of Punjabi origin was Dalīp Singh. This was conveyed to more than five hundred Hindus and Muslims in various towns before the event and the announcement of February 20, 1886 was distributed in distant lands. Then all that was announced about Dalīp Singh in advance was fulfilled.

[Surmah Chashm-e-Āryah, p. 188, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 2, p. 236]
(B) He [Lālah Sharampat] was told about Dalīp Singh before the event that it had been disclosed\(^\text{195}\) to me that he was not destined to arrive in the Punjab. He would either die or be humiliated but would not achieve his purpose

\(^{195}\) Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams\(^\text{ra}\): It is narrated by Maulāvī Jamāl-ud-Dīn of Sekhwan, District Gurdaspur that this vision was seen in November 1885. He writes: My humble self went to meet the Promised Messiah\(^\text{as}\) in November 1885. The same day Allah the Almighty revealed the news about Dalīp Singh to him. He related it to me and several other people who were present. He said: ‘These people are expressing great joy on the expected arrival of Dalīp Singh; they will be deprived of that joy. I have been informed by God Almighty that when he travels to come, he would face great hardship and tribulation.’ The Promised Messiah\(^\text{as}\) went as far as saying that: ‘I have been shown his dead body in a coffin.’

(A) God, the Noble, may His Name be glorified, has disclosed to me the name of the town where I should stay for a period in seclusion; and it is Hoshiarpur.¹⁹⁶

(B) Badr reports that:
A revelation of the Promised Messiah, peace be on him, has been well known in the following words or in words meaning that:

[Urdu] One of the affairs will be resolved in Hoshiarpur.

January 1886

Be it known that Aḥmad Baig’s wife and her family were related to me but would not follow my way in matters of faith. On the contrary, they were very daring in committing sins and indulging in all types of innovations. They had exceeded the limits in this respect. It was conveyed to me by the Most Gracious One by revelation that He would chastise them if they did not repent. My Lord said to me that:

أَنْ تَقُولُواٰ لَنَفْسَكُمْ أَلَيْكُمْ مُصِيبٌ وَلَئِنْ تَسْعَى لَمْ يُصِيبْكُمُ اللَّهُ إِلَّا مَا كَانَ مِثْلًا مِنَ السُّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَأَنتُمُ الْخَيْرُ الْخَيْرَاتِ

To complete the admonition I counselled them and said: ‘Seek forgiveness from the Lord Who forgives;’ but they paid no heed to my words and advanced further in their hostility towards me. Then it occurred to me that I should make a public announcement about it so that they might take to the ways of righteousness and return to the path of goodness and be among those who ask forgiveness of God the Almighty.

Therefore, I made the announcement while I was in Hoshiarpur, but they irresponsibly cast it behind their backs.

(A) When they did not change their ways, even after this announcement, and did not give up the path that leads to ruin, Allah disclosed to me certain matters about this family while I was between sleep and waking. This vision recounted some details of the revelation I had received

197 [Arabic] If they do not repent and do not turn back from their misconduct, We shall pour upon them chastisement from heaven and shall give them death with humiliation without leaving any offspring behind; and We shall fill their homes with widows and divorcees. But if they repent and reform, We shall turn to them with mercy and shall give up the design of their punishment. Thus, they will experience whatever they choose on their own accord. [Publishers] concerning them and it happened in this wise. When I was about to go to sleep, Aḥmad Baig’s mother-in-law was personified before me and her condition caused me distress and I trembled. In the meeting, she appeared to me to be in great distress and I saw [in the vision] that her eyes were shedding tears. I said to her:

[Arabic] O Woman, repent, repent for misfortune is about to befall your progeny.

That is, your daughter and maternal granddaughter will be involved in distress.

Then I came out of this condition and My Lord granted me the understanding that the vision I had seen was an interpretation granted by Allah the All-Knowing of the revelation I had previously received.

I was given the understanding by God, the Requiter, that the word ‘aqibi means her daughter and her maternal granddaughter and not anyone else from among her children. It was conveyed to me that misfortune meant two afflictions, one upon her daughter and the other upon her maternal granddaughter. By the command of Allah Aḥkam-ul-Ḥākimin [the Arbiter above all arbiters] the two would resemble each other.

(B) In January 1886, I received another revelation in Hoshiarpur about Mīrzā Aḥmad Baig198 which was announced to a group of people among whom were Bābū

198 The reference is to Mīrzā Aḥmad Baig of Hoshiarpur, who was married to a cousin of the Promised Messiah⁸⁴, to whom Muḥammadī Begum was born. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
February 20, 1886

God, the Merciful and Noble, the Magnificent and High, Who has power to do all that He wills (glory be to Him and exalted be His name) addressed me in a revelation and said:

I saw this woman [the mother-in-law of Aḥmad Baig of Hoshiarpur, who was the grandmother of Muḥammād Begum and mother of Mirzā Imām-ud-Dīn] and noticed the marks of weeping on her face and said to her: ‘O Woman repent, repent, for misfortune is pursuing your progeny and affliction is about to descend upon you. He [Mirzā Aḥmad Baig] will die and will be survived by several dogs. [Publishers] [Urdu] I confer upon you a Sign of My mercy according to what you begged of me. So I have heard your entreaties and have honoured your prayers with My acceptance through My mercy and made your journey (i.e. the journey to Hoshiarpur and Ludhiana) a source of blessings for you. Therefore, a Sign of power, mercy, nearness is bestowed on you, a Sign of grace and beneficence is awarded to you and you are granted the key of success and victory. Peace on you, O victorious one. Thus did God speak so that those who desire life may be rescued from the grip of death and those who are buried in the graves may come out of them and so that the superiority of Islam and the dignity of God’s Word may become manifest unto the people and so that truth may arrive with all its blessings and falsehood may flee with all its ills, and so that people may understand that I am the Lord of Power, I do whatever I will, and so that they may believe that I am with you, and so that those who do not believe in God and deny and reject His religion and His Book and His Holy Messenger Muḥammad, the Chosen One⁵⁰⁰ may be confronted with a clear Sign and the way of the guilty ones may become manifest.

Rejoice, therefore, that a handsome and pure boy will be bestowed on you; you will receive an unblemished youth who will be of your seed and will be of your progeny.

A handsome and pure boy⁵⁰⁰ is coming as your guest. His name is Emmanuel and also Bashīr. He has been invested with a spirit of holiness, and he is free from all impurity. He is the light of Allah. Blessed is he who comes from heaven.

He will be accompanied by grace⁵⁰¹ which shall arrive with him.⁵⁰² He will be 200 ‘A handsome and pure boy is coming as your guest...who comes from heaven.’ These sentences...indicate a short life, because a guest is he who comes and leaves within a few days and departs very soon. The sentence that follows points to the Promised Reformer and that continues up to the end.... The prophecy of February 20...consisted of two prophecies, which were mistaken as one. Thereafter...this mistake was corrected by the subsequent revelation.

characterised with grandeur, greatness and wealth. He will come into the world and will heal many of their disorders through his Messianic qualities and through the blessings of Note by Hadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: In accordance with this revelation, a son was born to the Promised Messiah on August 7, 1887 before the birth of Musleh-e-Mau’ud [the Promised Reformer]. He had a short life and passed away in November 1888. Thereafter, in accordance with the revelation ‘He will be accompanied by grace which will come with him’, a son was born who was named Faḍl in the prophecy and who is also called Mahmūd and Bashīr II and who has also been called Faḍl-e-‘Umar. He was born on January 12, 1889 and was bestowed the office of Khilāfīat on March 14, 1914.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: In the pamphlet At-Tablīgh, attached to Ā’īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām, the Promised Messiah gives a further description of the qualities of the Promised Reformer as following:

[Arabic] [Grace will arrive with his coming. He is light and is blessed and holy and is of the righteous. He will spread blessings and will nurture people on pure food and will be a helper of the faith.... He will be one of My Signs and will be the banner of My supports so that those who deny you should know that I am with you through My open grace.... He will be perceptive, intelligent and handsome. His heart will be filled with knowledge, his interior will be gentle and his breast will be filled with security. He will be bestowed the Messianic spirit and will be blessed with the spirit of security. Monday! O blessed Monday, blessed spirits will arrive on that day.]

the Spirit of Holiness. He is the Word of Allah for Allah’s mercy and honour have equipped him with the Word of Majesty. He will be extremely intelligent and perceptive and will be meek of heart and will be filled with secular and spiritual knowledge. He will convert three into four (of this the meaning is not clear). It is Monday a blessed Monday. [Persian] [Son, delight of the heart, high ranking, noble.] [Arabic] [A manifestation of the First and the Last, a manifestation of the True and the High; as if Allah has descended from heaven.] [Urdu] His advent will be greatly blessed and will be a source of manifestation of Divine Majesty. Behold a light comes, anointed by God with the perfume of His pleasure. We shall pour Our Spirit into him and he will be sheltered under the shadow of God. He will grow rapidly in stature and will be the means of procuring the release of those held in bondage. His fame will spread to the ends of the earth and peoples will be blessed through 203 This is not just a prophecy. Indeed, it is a grand heavenly Sign which Almighty God has shown for demonstrating the truth and greatness of the noble, compassionate and merciful Prophet, Muḥammad, the Chosen One, peace and blessings of Allah be on him and his people. This Sign is hundreds of times greater and better and more perfect and more exalted and more complete than bringing a dead person back to life. To bring a dead one to life merely means to bring a spirit back to life by supplication to God…the possibility of which many critics question…. In this instance, God the Almighty has, through His great grace and benevolence and through the blessings of Ḥadrat Khātamul-Anbīyāʾ [the Seal of the Prophets], peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his people, by accepting the supplications of this humble one, promised to send such a blessed spirit whose manifest and hidden blessings will spread throughout the earth. It might on the surface appear like bringing to life a dead person but this Sign is hundreds of times better than reviving a dead. Only the soul of the dead is revived through supplication and here, too, a soul him. He will then be raised to his spiritual station in heaven. [Arabic] [This is a matter decreed.]

God Almighty then gave me the good news saying:

has been sought through supplication. But what a tremendous difference there is between those souls and this soul. [Announcement of Monday, March 22, 1886, Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 1, pp. 114–115]
Your house will be filled with blessings and I shall perfect My favours unto you and you will have a large progeny from blessed women, some of whom you will find hereafter, and I will cause a great increase in your progeny and will bless it; but some of them will die in early age and your progeny will spread greatly in different lands. Every branch of your collaterals will be cut off and will come to an end soon through childlessness.

If they do not repent, God will send chastisement after chastisement upon them, until they are completely wiped out. Their houses will be filled with widows and God’s wrath will descend upon their walls. But if they turn to God, He will turn to them in mercy. God will spread your blessings about and will revive a ruined house through you and will fill a fearful house with blessings. Your progeny will not be cut off and will flourish till the end of days.

204 When the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} made his claim, there were about seventy men in his [collateral] family. But now the progeny of none of the seventy—except those who are physical or spiritual progeny of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}—is alive.

[Hadrat Khalifatul Masih II\textsuperscript{a}, al-\textit{Hakam}, nos. 19–22, dated May 21–28 and June 7–12, 1943, p. 10]
God will maintain your name with honour till the day when the world comes to an end and will convey your message to the ends of the earth. I shall exalt you and shall call you to Myself but your name will never be erased from the face of the earth. It will so happen that all those who seek to humiliate you, and are determined to cause you to fail and wish to ruin you will themselves be frustrated and will die in failure and frustration. But God will grant you complete success and will grant you all that you desire. I will cause an increase of your true and sincere friends and shall bless their lives and their properties and they will grow in number and they will prevail over the other Muslims—who are jealous of you and are hostile to you—till the Day of Judgment. God will not forget your supporters and will not lose sight of them and they will have their reward according to the degree of their devotion. You are to me as the prophets of Banī Isrāʾīl [Israelites] (that is: You resemble them as a reflection). You are to Me as My Unity. You are of Me and I am of you. The time is approaching, indeed it is near, when God will put your love in the hearts of kings and nobles till they will seek blessings from your garments. O you who deny and who oppose the truth, if you are in doubt concerning My servant, if you deny the grace and bounty that I have bestowed upon My servant, then produce some true Sign concerning yourselves like this Sign of mercy, if you are truthful. If you are unable to produce it, and be sure you will never be able to produce it, then be mindful of the Fire which has been prepared for the disobedient, the liars and the transgressors. (The end)

About four months ago it was conveyed to this humble one that a son Qawīyyut-Tāqatain [physically and spiritually strong], Kāmiluz-Zāhiri wal-Bāṭin [perfect in his manifest and hidden powers], will be bestowed upon me whose name will be Bashīr. Up to now my own impression was that possibly that blessed son will be born of my present wife. Now I am receiving frequent revelations to the effect that I will soon have to marry again and that it has been divinely determined that a pious and good-natured wife will be bestowed upon me who will bear children. What is surprising is that when this revelation was received I was bestowed in a vision four fruits, three of them mangoes but one of them very large of green colour which did not resemble any of the fruits of this world. I conceive, though this is not yet confirmed by revelation, that the fruit which is not of the fruits of this world is the promised blessed son for there is no doubt that the interpretation of fruit is children. As there has been good news of a pious wife and simultaneously four fruits have been bestowed in a vision, one of which is of a special kind, my mind is inclined to this interpretation. [But Allah knows best.]

It so happens that in these days two people made suggestions about a new marriage, but when I supplicated by way of istikhārah,²⁰⁵ I was informed about one woman that her portion is humiliation, privation and disgrace and that she is not worthy of being my wife and with regard to ²⁰⁵ A special Prayer made to seek guidance from Allah before making an important decision. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed] the second the indication was that she is not good-looking. This seems to indicate that the handsome son of noble character, whose birth has been prophesied, can on the face of it be expected from a pious, good-looking wife. [But Allah knows best.]

March 1886

In the Announcement of February 20, 1886 made by this humble one...there is a prophecy of the birth of a righteous son possessing the qualities mentioned in the announcement....Such a son, according to the divine promise, will surely be born within nine years^{206}, soon or late, but certainly within this period.

^{206} (A) The grandeur of the prophecy relating to the birth of a son whose various high qualities have been set out is not reduced by any long period that might be specified for its fulfilment even though it might be the double of nine years. The heart of every just person will bear clear witness that the fulfilment of such a high prophecy which comprises the birth of such an outstanding and special personality is beyond human power. The revelation of such good news in consequence of the acceptance of prayer is not only a prophecy but is a grand heavenly Sign.

[Announcement of April 8, 1886, Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 1, pp. 116–117]

(B) According to the divine promise he...will certainly be born within the term announced. Heaven and earth can move away but it is not possible that His promise may not be fulfilled.

(C) I know, and know it with complete certainty, that God Almighty will deal with me according to His promise. If the time of the birth of the Promised Son is not yet, he will appear later. If there is left only one day of the term announced, then God, the Lord of Honour and Glory, will not let that day end till He has fulfilled His promise.

April 8, 1886

(A) After the announcement mentioned above, I supplicated again for further disclosure concerning this matter and it was disclosed to me today, April 8, 1886, by God Almighty that a son will be born very soon. Such period cannot exceed the interval of one pregnancy. Thus, it is obvious, that a son will probably be born soon, or certainly in the next pregnancy, but it has not been disclosed whether the one who will be born soon is the same Promised Son or whether he will be born at some other time within the term of nine years.

[Announcement of April 8, 1886, Majmū’a-e-Ishtihār, vol. 1, p. 117]

(B) There are two phrases in the Arabic revelation:

لا أُرْوِيْنَا الْجَلَِّ

ْعَنْصَرُ الْجَلَِّ

These indicate descent or a near descent.

[Announcement of April 8, 1886 footnote, Majmū’a-e-Ishtihār, vol. 1, p. 117]

(C) Thereafter the following revelation was also received:

تمُرَّنَّكَ مَا كَانَ مَثْلُكَ وَالَّذِي بِهِ يَبْعَثُ أَبَاهُ وَأَمَّهُ يَأْمُرُهُ بِالْمَيْتِ

[Urdu] They said: Is this the one who was to come or shall we wait for another?

207 After the Announcement of March 22, 1886 [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

When a daughter was born and people created an uproar to cause misunderstanding that the prophecy had been proved false, I received the following revelation:

Meaning that the opponents are shouting that the prophecy has been proved false but intelligent people will soon realise the truth and the ignorant ones will be put to shame.

April 26, 1886

I had seen a fearsome dream concerning Sheikh Mehr ‘Alī in Qadian on April 26, 1886, the interpretation of which was that he would be afflicted with a great misfortune. He was informed of this about the same time. The dream was that the carpet had caught fire and there was great hue and cry. A terrible flame of fire mounted up and there was no

208 A daughter, was born to the Promised Messiah as on April 15, 1886 who was named ‘Īṣmat. On the birth of this daughter, his opponents raised an uproar that the prophecy about the birth of the son was proved false because the current pregnancy had ended in the birth of a daughter and not that of a son. However, this allegation was baseless because the Promised Messiah as had nowhere stated that the then pregnancy would end in the birth of a son. Indeed, he had explained with reference to the revelation of April 8, 1886 that a son would be born soon, either at the end of the then current pregnancy or at the end of the succeeding one. Accordingly, Bashīr 1st was born in the pregnancy following the birth of ‘Īṣmat. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

209 In accordance with this prophecy, after the birth of ‘Īṣmat, on August 7, 1887 a son was born who was named Bashīr Aḥmad and in whose birth was fulfilled the prophecy of February 20, 1886, namely: ‘A handsome and pure boy will come as your guest’, and was also fulfilled the prophecy in the Announcement of April 8, 1886 that: ‘A son will be born very soon.’ [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] one to put it out. At last I poured water over it repeatedly and put it out\textsuperscript{210}. The fire was no longer visible but there still was some smoke. I could not see how much the fire had destroyed but I conceived that there was no great damage. This was the dream mentioned in my letter\textsuperscript{211} to Sheikh Mehr ‘Alî and the letter was found in his house by his son after his arrest. Thereafter, I had one or two dreams the greater part of which was frightening and a part was reassuring. I interpret this to mean that possibly there are intervening difficulties, but the end is good. However, the \textsuperscript{210} When I saw this dream God conveyed its interpretation to me clearly that Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] would be afflicted with a great misfortune which will affect his honour and my putting out the fire by pouring water on to it meant that the misfortune would be repelled through my prayer and not through any other means…. After about six months it happened accordingly. I was in Ambala Cantonment when a person of the name of Muḥammad Bakhsh came to me on behalf of Jân Muḥammad, son of Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî], and told me that Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] had been arrested in connection with such and such a case. I enquired from him about the letter that I had written six months earlier warning Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] of such a misfortune, but Muḥammad Bakhsh confessed lack of knowledge of such a letter. However, Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] himself—after his release—often stated that the letter had been found in one of his boxes. While Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] was in custody I received several letters from his son Jân Muḥammad, possibly written by Muḥammad Bakhsh, who was a connection of theirs, requesting me for prayers. Allah knows that I prayed for him diligently through several nights. At first the situation appeared very involved and threatening but at last God accepted my supplications and conveyed to me the good news of his deliverance. This was conveyed briefly to his son...

I prayed for him for long. At the end, reassurance of divine grace and deliverance was conveyed to me in a few words which were quite definite.

\textsuperscript{211} The reference is to the letter that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} wrote to Sheikh Mehr ‘Alî, Chief of Hoshiarpur. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] end has not yet been clearly disclosed to me so that I cannot say anything with certainty. [Allah knows best.]

Navvāb Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān212… threatened non-Muslims with the sword of the Mahdī and was at last seized. His title of Navvāb was revoked and he wrote very humbly to me requesting me to pray for him. Considering his situation pitiable, I supplicated for him and God the Almighty addressed me and said:

212 The Promised Messiah as had sent some of the early parts of Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah to Navvāb Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān and had suggested that he should contribute towards the publication of this book. Navvāb [Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān] wrote back that the purchase of books setting forth religious discussions or helping in their publication was contrary to the policy of the British Government and therefore, no expectation should be entertained for help from his State. Referring to this reply the Promised Messiah as wrote in the announcement included in Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah, part 4, entitled Musalmānī kī Nāzuk Ḥālat aur Angreizī Government:

We too place no hope in the Navvāb [Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān], our only hope is in God Almighty and He is Sufficient for us. (May the British Government be ever pleased with him).

Thereafter, the British Government was displeased with Navvāb [Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān] over something and revoked his title of Navvāb. The Promised Messiah as has recorded:

This misfortune encountered by Navvāb Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān was the result of a prophecy of mine which is mentioned in Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah. He had torn up my book Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah and sent it back to me in that condition. I had then prayed that his honour might be torn up and that is what came to pass.

When Navvāb [Ṣiddīq Ḥasan Khān] realised his mistake, he wrote to Promised Messiah as for prayers. [Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams] [Urdu] His honour has been saved from being shattered.

…Finally, after some time he received orders of the Government to the effect that Šiddīq Ḥasan Khān’s title of Navvāb should be restored.

Mirzā Imām-ud-Dīn and Nizām-ud-Dīn, as well as all the Ārīya living here and Lekhrām Peshāwarī and hundreds of other people know it well that I had made a prophecy about him [Mirzā Aḥmad Baig of Hoshiarpur] in general terms, namely that someone named Aḥmad Baig from among our relatives is about to die.\(^{213}\)

August 3, 1886

It has been disclosed to me by Allah today also, which is August 3, 1886, that if he\(^{214}\) does not repent he will soon face the consequences of his misdoings. Should it be a sorrow or grief which is normally encountered, that should not be considered the fulfilment of this prophecy, but if he suffers some affliction which is entirely unexpected then it would be right to conclude that this is in accord with the prophecy. Should he, however, repent, his end will be good; or after a warning he would be granted comfort.

Today, at the time of Fajr the following was put into my mind by way of revelation:

[Arabic] ʿAbdul-Bāṣīṭ

I did not understand who was meant. In your letter received today I saw ʿAbdul-Bāṣīṭ. It is possible that the words may have reference to you.²¹⁵ [Allah knows best.]

April 1887

A few days ago, being anxious about the repayment of this debt, I saw in a dream that I was standing in a low pit and was trying to climb out of it, but my hand did not reach the top. Meanwhile, a man of God came and extended his hand down to me from above. I caught hold of it and climbed up and got out of the pit and said to him: ‘May Allah reward you for this service.’

Today, on reading your letter, I was convinced that you are the person who had extended his hand which removed my anxiety, for as I had in my dream prayed for the person who had extended his hand to me, in the same way, prayer burst forth from my mouth for you in the deep emotion of ²¹⁵ Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Ḥaḍrat Ya’qūb ʿAlī ʿIrfont states: Ḥaḍrat Ḥakīmul-Ummat [Khalīfatul Maṣīḥ I] has said several times that his revealed name is ʿAbdul-Bāṣīṭ (Maktūbāt, volume 5, number 2, page 20).

Once an English speaking friend of Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain Bātālvī named Najaf ‘Alī (who went to Kabul and probably is still there) came to see me. With him was my friend Mirzā Khudā Bakhsh.216 When we—the three of us—went out for a walk, I saw in a vision that Najaf ‘Alī has made some statements indicating some feelings of opposition and hypocrisy towards me. When I told him about the vision, he admitted that it was so.

On one occasion I was travelling by train in the direction of Ludhiana when I received the revelation:

216 The statement of Mirzā Khudā Bakhsh published in Paighām-e-Sūlah, volume 23, number 77, page 4, shows that when he and Maulavī Najaf ‘Alī came to Qadian, the Promised Messiah215 was holding correspondence with an American citizen Mr. Alexander Russel Webb. The Promised Messiah215 narrated this vision during the walk and Maulavī Najaf ‘Alī admitted that he had turned bitterly against the Promised Messiah215 after listening to Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain Bātālvī and had made up his mind not to agree to anything the Promised Messiah215 said.

Shahna-e-Haqq, shows that this incident took place in 1887, because the correspondence with Alexander Russel Webb is recorded therein. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

I was given to understand that Imām Bībī—who was the widow of one of our collaterals—would die and half her land would revert to us and the remaining half would revert to our collaterals.

I communicated this revelation to those of my friends who were with me at that time. And so it happened that the woman died and her land was divided half and half between our collaterals and us.

1887 (About)

Once I had occasion to go to the village Kunjran in the Gurdaspur District. Sheikh Ḥāmid ‘Alī of Thaih Ghulām Nabī was with me. When I decided in the morning to set out on this journey, I received the revelation:

Accordingly, during the course of the journey Ḥāmid ‘Alī lost his cloak and I lost a handkerchief. Ḥāmid ‘Alī had only that cloak at that time.

August 7, 1887

That is [Arabic] We have sent this child as a witness, affirming good tidings, and as a Warner. He is like heavy rain in which there are diverse kinds of darknesses as well as thunder and lightning. All of these things are under his two feet.219 [i.e., will follow after he departs.]

219 The revelation indicated that there would first be darkness and then thunder and light. As the arrangement of the words shows, it was destined that after the death of the deceased son, there would first be darkness, then thunder and lightening. Fulfilment of the prophecy began in the same sequence. With the death of Bashīr 1st there ensued the darkness of doubt in which people were involved. Thunder and lightening will be manifested thereafter. As the darkness has already been demonstrated it should be realised that the promised thunder and light will also be surely demonstrated. When the light comes it will wipe out the darkness completely from the hearts and minds which were afflicted with it and whatever objections have issued from the mouths of those whose hearts are neglectful and dead and all the objections and criticisms raised by the ignorant ones will be completely met and effaced….Then, O ye who have observed the darkness, do not be surprised but rejoice and jump with joy that after it the light will now follow.

(A) After the birth of that son, his\textsuperscript{220} inner purity and upright qualities were referred to in the revelation. He was called \textit{Pāk} [pure], \textit{Nūrullāh} [Allah’s light], \textit{Yadullāh} [Allah’s hand], \textit{Muqaddas} [holy], \textit{Bashīr} [bearer of glad tidings], and \textit{Khuḍā bā Māst} [God is with us]…. God gave the deceased son many names in His revelation, some of them being \textit{Bashīr} [bearer of glad tidings], Emmanuel, \textit{Khuḍā bā Māst} [God is with us], \textit{Raḥmat-e-Ḥaqq} [Mercy of the True God], and \textit{Yadullāhi bi-Jalālin wa Jamālin} [the hand of Allah in beauty and majesty].

(B) God had revealed to me that this boy,\textsuperscript{221} who had died, was at the highest point in his personal faculties and that his nature was completely shorn of worldly emotions and that he was filled with the light of faith, had a bright nature, a high destiny, and a righteous soul. He was called, among others, by the names of the \textit{Bārān-e-Raḥmat} [rain of mercy], \textit{Mubashshir} [giver of glad tidings] and \textit{Bashīr} [bearer of glad tidings] and \textit{Yadullāhi bi-Jalālin wa Jamālin} [the hand of Allah in beauty and majesty]. One of the revelations in appreciation [of Bashīr 1st] was:

indicating that: ‘He is superior to you in his personal faculties’.

January 5, 1888
A few days ago, while looking into some of my old papers, I found a paper in which I had made a memorandum for myself in my own handwriting. It recorded January 5, 1888 as the date of writing it. Its subject matter was that I had seen in a dream that Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain had opposed me in a certain matter and had published a statement and given it the heading ‘Mean’ referring to myself. I did not comprehend the import of it but having read it I said to you: ‘I had told you not to do such a thing, then why did you publish this statement?’

[This is what I saw in my dream and Allah knows best its interpretation.]

February 14, 1888

On the night between February 13 and 14, I saw two frightening dreams about you, which portended a great grief and sorrow. I was much worried and uncertain as to the import of the dreams and a revelation came in a light slumber which has totally escaped my memory. Then, yesterday your letter arrived containing the grievous news of the death of Sunderdās. [To Allah we belong and to Him shall we return.] It seems that this was the sorrow to which the dream was related.

About 1888

On one occasion I travelled from Ludhiana to Patiala. Before I set out I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Some loss will be incurred in the course of this journey and some worry and suffering will be encountered.

I informed my companions of this. Before we set out from Patiala for the return journey, it was time for ‘Āṣr Prayer and in order to make my ablutions I took off my cloak and handed it to a servant of Sayyed Muḥammad Ḥasan Khān, a minister of the State of Patiala. Thereafter, when the time came to purchase our tickets, I put my hand in my pocket and discovered that the handkerchief in which the money had been folded had fallen out of my pocket. Then I remembered the revelation that this loss had to be suffered. After we boarded the train and arrived at the railway station of Doraha, a European traveller deliberately misinformed one of my companions that the train had arrived at Ludhiana and we all got out of the train. After the train left we discovered that it was a different station. Having detrained at a deserted place we were all put to much trouble. In this way the second part of the revelation was also fulfilled.

A Christian of the name of Fateh Masîh once claimed that he was the recipient of revelation. I asked him to make a prophecy and he was much confused. He proposed that a written note should be enclosed inside an envelope and that I should then spell out what was written therein. God the Almighty directed me that:

[Urdu] You [should] accept it.

When I accepted that challenge also, Reverend Whitebrecht announced, in the presence of several hundred people, that Fateh Masîh was a liar.

(A) Allah observed that my cousins and near relatives were committed to ruinous courses…and that they denied the existence of God and were wicked people…. Allah saw that they incited people to vice and forbade good…and did not refrain from speaking ill of the Holy Prophet, peace and the blessings of Allah be upon him, but persisted in it…. While they were in this condition Allah chose me for the revival of His faith…and provided me handsomely with inspiration and verbal revelation and communications and visions…whereupon they rebelled and mockingly demanded Signs and said: ‘We have no knowledge of any God Who speaks to anyone…so let him produce a Sign if he is truthful…’ In this way they advanced daily in their error and their arrogance till they decided to propagate their evil thoughts and to mislead the ignorant ones with their delusions. They have published a document in which they have abused the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and have abused the Word of Allah and have denied the existence of God, hallowed be His name. Along with this they have demanded Signs in support of my truthfulness and have demanded proof of the existence of God Almighty. They have published this document widely in all quarters and have thus helped all the non-Muslims of India against Islam and have transgressed greatly, the equal of which has not been heard of even about the Pharaohs…. When this document of theirs, which was prepared by the biggest of them in evil as well as in age, reached me…I found it full of phrases whereby the heavens might be rent asunder…. Thereupon, I bolted my doors and supplicated my Lord, the Bountiful, prostrating myself before Him and...saying: My Lord, my Lord, help Your servant and humiliate Your enemies. Respond to me O Lord, respond to me. How long will they mock You and Your Messenger, how long will they call Your Book false and will abuse Your Messenger? I beseech You of Your mercy, O Ḥayy [the Ever-Living], Qayyūm [the Self Subsisting], Mu‘īn [the Helper].

Then Allah had mercy on me in consequence of my weeping, my sighing, and my tears and He called me and said:
This is the substance of what my Lord has revealed to me. So I conveyed the messages of my Lord to them, but they felt no fear and did not affirm the truth. Instead, they increased in their rebellion and denial, and went on mocking like the enemies of the faith. Then my Lord addressed me and said:

[Arabic] I have observed their disobedience and their transgression, I shall soon afflict them with various types of misfortunes and shall wipe them out from under the heavens. You will soon see how I shall deal with them and I have power to do all that I might will. I shall make their women widows, and their children orphans, and their houses ruins, so that they might taste that which they have said and they have earned. But I shall not destroy them suddenly at one swoop, but stage by stage, so that they might have a chance of turning back and repenting. My curse will descend upon them and upon their homes and upon their little ones and their big ones and their women and their men and their guests who will enter their doors. All of them will be accursed except those who believe and act righteously and cut off their relations with them and keep off from their gatherings. Those will be the recipients of My mercy. [Publishers]

[Arabic] We shall show them Signs which will cause them to weep and shall send down upon them strange afflictions and Thus did Allah the Almighty deal with them, breaking their backs with the weight of sorrows and debts and privations and sent down upon them all kinds of trials and tribulations and opened for them the doors of death and destruction so that they might turn back and should give up their indifference, but their hearts were hardened and they did not understand nor did they wake up nor did they fear.

When the time of the display of the Sign drew near, it so happened in those days that one of their near relations of the name of Āḥmad Baig desired to take possession of the land of his sister whose husband had disappeared many years before.

(B) This man’s [Mīrzā Āḥmad Baig Hoshiarpuri’s] sister had been married to a cousin of mine whose name was Ghulām Ḥusain. He disappeared twenty-five years ago and has not been heard of since. His land was recorded in the government records in the name of this man’s sister, the reversion of which belongs to us. In the recent settlement of land, which is in District Gurdaspur, the said Mīrzā Āḥmad Baig desired—with the consent of his sister—to have the land, which was valued at four or five thousand rupees, recorded in the name of his son Muḥammad Baig as a gift from Āḥmad Baig’s sister and a deed of gift was executed by the sister. As this deed could not be effective without our consent, the said Āḥmad Baig turned to us with great humility and meekness and begged us to attest the deed of gift. I was inclined to make this attestation and then the thought passed through my mind that, as it had been my extraordinary diseases and shall make their lives a misery and shall pile up afflictions upon them and no one will be able to help them.

custom to supplicate by way of istikhārah on all important matters, I should do the same on this occasion. This was the reply I returned to Mirzā Aḥmad Baig. Thereafter, on account of his continued persistence I supplicated in the form of istikhārah. What an istikhārah it was! It seemed that the time of begging Allah for a heavenly Sign had come, which God Almighty had displayed in this way.

The All-Powerful, the All-Wise God directed me to ask for the hand of the elder daughter of Aḥmad Baig in marriage[^225^] and to tell them that all kindness and courtesy to be extended to them would be conditional upon this marriage and that this marriage would be a source of [^225^]: I have been informed of matters which had never entered my mind nor did I know anything about them. At such a time God directed me through revelation that I should seek the hand of his elder daughter in marriage and should tell him that he should first establish this relationship with me and should thereby seek light from my light. I was also directed to tell him that I had been commanded to let him have the land which he had asked for and even some more and to show benevolence towards him in many ways, provided he would agree to the marriage of his elder daughter to me. This would be a covenant between us and if he agreed to it he would find me a good party to it; but if he did not agree to it I was to warn him that I had been informed by God that her marriage to anyone else would not prove blessed for the person she marries nor for her father. If he did not comply with my request he would be afflicted with misfortunes culminating in his death. He would die within three years of the marriage [of his daughter]. Indeed, his death might occur earlier at a time when he is unaware. So also the husband of that girl would die within two and a half years of the marriage. This is a divine decree and you can act as you might choose, I have warned you....Then, I wrote to him under divine direction and as indicated by my Gracious God...‘I am writing this letter to you under divine direction and not of my own accord, so make this letter secure in your box for this is from one true and faithful and God knows that I am entirely truthful in this matter and the promise I have made has been made by God’s direction and not on my own. It is Allah Who has made me speak under His revelation.’

blessing and a Sign of mercy for them and that thereby they would become participants in all the blessings and mercies set out in the Announcement of February 20, 1886, but if they declined this offer, the girl would suffer great distress. In such case, the person whom she marries would die within two and a half years of the date of the marriage and her father would die within three years of that date. The death is decreed within three years of the marriage. It is not, however, necessary that he would not suffer some misfortune before the expiry of that term. Some of the visions indeed indicated earlier afflictions, [And Allah knows best]. And [I was also told that] the family would be afflicted with differences and privations and misfortunes and that this daughter would encounter many disgraceful and sorrowful events during the intervening period.

In those days, when I repeatedly sought detail and particularization, I was told that God had determined that after removing every obstacle He would in the end bring about the marriage of the elder daughter of Aḥmad Baig with me and would thereby bring the faithless back to faith and the erring back to guidance. The Arabic revelation in this context is:

	ext{كَاَيْنُوا بِيَبَا كَأَنْ تَوَلَّيْ مَا يَتَحْفَرُونَوَ دَمِنَّكُمُّهُمَا عَلَى ذَيَّةً هَيْلآ إِلَّآ إِلَّآ كَأَنْ تَحْفَرُ

interfering in this matter, Allah will be your Helper. God will ultimately bring her back to you. There is none who can change the words of Allah. Your Lord is the Powerful One, and whatever He determines to do, takes place. You are with Me and I am with you. Soon you will be granted a praiseworthy station, meaning that though the foolish and ignorant ones will say all sorts of disagreeable things out of their evil and suspicious minds, and will utter worthless words, but in the end, observing the support of God, they will feel ashamed. And when the truth is established everyone will give expression to praise.

(C) Of these Signs is one which my Lord has promised in respect of my near relations. They rejected and mocked the Signs of Allah and denied God and His Messenger and said: ‘We have no need of Allah or of His Book or of His Messenger, the Seal of the Prophets.’ They also said: ‘We shall not accept any Sign unless we are shown a Sign in our own lives. We do not believe in the Qur’an and we do not know what Prophethood is and what faith is and we deny all that.’ Then I called on my Lord in humility and in earnestness and stretched out my hands to Him in supplication and He vouchsafed to me the revelation:

I stood in no need of seeking this match. Allah the Almighty had provided for all my needs. He had bestowed children upon me, among them a son who will be the lamp of the faith. He has also promised another son within a short time whose name will be Maḥmūd Aḥmad and who will prove a person of high resolve in his undertakings.

The use of the words ‘light of faith’ for Bashīr 1st is due to his personal faculties, as the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, has said about his son Ibrāhīm, ‘If he had lived long, he would have been a righteous Prophet.’ The Promised Messiah as has explained the revelation of February 20, 1886 in the Sabz Ishtihār of December 1, 1888, which will be mentioned later. [Allah the Almighty] has given me the glad tidings that:

[Urdu] Whoever opposes you and bears enmity towards you, after having recognised you, is condemned to hell.

Divine revelation has made it abundantly clear that the coming of Bashîr, who has died, was not without purpose. His death will be the source of life for all those who grieved over it purely for the sake of Allah and who bore steadfastly the trial that his death involved.

1888

On the occasion of this\(^{237}\) death, I received this revelation concerning some Muslims:

\(^{237}\) That is, the death of Bashîr 1\(^{st}\). [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
In this revelation God has set forth clearly that Bashīr’s death was a necessary trial for people. Those who were weak lost hope of the appearance of the Promised Reformer and they said: ‘You will continue to talk about this Joseph till you make yourself seriously ill, or expire.’ So God directed me to turn away from such till the promised time arrives and promised a limitless reward for those who were steadfast at the time of Bashīr’s death. These are God’s doings and are surprising in the eyes of the shortsighted.

I had a young son named Bashīr whom Allah caused to die while he was still a suckling babe. Those who are righteous and cultivate the fear of Allah, look only to Allah as being the Best and Eternal. At that time I received a revelation from my Lord:

For those who were steadfast there is a reward without end. [Publishers]

(A) God the Almighty revealed to this humble one that:

(Arabic) Allah creates what He wills.

[Urdu] A second Bashîr will be bestowed upon you whose name is also Maḥmûd. He will be a person of high resolve in his projects.

[Arabic] He creates what He wills.

(B) In a revelation this second son was called Bashîr too. God said:

[Urdu] A second Bashîr will be bestowed upon you.

This is the same Bashîr whose other name is Maḥmûd concerning whom it was said that:

[Urdu] He will be of high resolve and will be like you in beauty and benevolence.

[Arabic] He creates what He wills.

(C) God, the Lord of Honour and Glory...had—out of His grace and beneficence—promised that after the death of Bashîr 1st, a second Bashîr would be bestowed whose name will also be Maḥmûd and addressing me said that:

TADHKIRAH

[Urdu] He will be of high resolve and will be like you in beauty and benevolence. He is All-Powerful and creates as He wills.

[Ishtihār Takmīl-e-Tablīgh, January 12, 1889, Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 1, p. 191]

My eldest son who is alive, whose name is Maḥmūd, was not yet born when I was given intimation through a vision of his birth and I saw his name written on the wall of the mosque as:

Maḥmūd.

Thereupon, I printed an announcement on green sheets of paper for publication of this prophecy. The date of its publication is December 1, 1888.

1888

The following couplet concerning the Promised Reformer found utterance on my tongue in a dream:

1888

(A) God Almighty also disclosed to me that the prophecy of February 20, 1886 prophesied the birth of two blessed boys. Up to the words: [Urdu] [Blessed is he who comes from heaven]; the prophecy related to

240 [Persian] O Pride of Messengers, I have realised the degree of your nearness to God. Your coming has been delayed [and] you have come from a long distance. [Publishers]
Bashīr 1st who became the spiritual cause of the descent of divine mercy, and the rest of it related to the second Bashīr.

(B) No one should be misled that the prophecy just mentioned related to the Promised Reformer. It has been clearly expounded by revelation that all these phrases related to the son who died. The prophecy with regard to the Promised Reformer begins with the words:

اُنْ کے کیا سعیہ مبینہ ہو جاگے رہے جاگے

[Urdu] [He will be accompanied with grace which shall arrive with him].

Thus, the Promised Reformer has been named Faḍl in the revelation. His second name is Maḥmūd and his third name is Bashīr Thānī [Bashīr the Second]. In one revelation he has been named Faḍl-e-‘Umar. It was inevitable that his coming should have been postponed till the Bashīr, who has died, had been born and called back, for all these matters were placed by divine wisdom to take place after his death. The first Bashīr was a forerunner of the second and therefore both were mentioned in the same Prophecy.

241 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashīr Ahmad: On January 12, 1889, when Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masih IIaba was born, the Promised Messiah as published the news of his birth in an Announcement called Takmil-e-Tablīgh. He said:

God the Glorious, had of His Grace and Benevolence promised—as was set out in the Announcement of July 10, 1888 and the Announcement of December 1, 1888—that after the death of Bashīr 1st, a second Bashīr will be bestowed whose name will also be Maḥmūd. And addressing my humble self, Allah the Almighty said: He would be a person of high resolve and will be like you in beauty and benevolence. God is Almighty and creates whatever He wills. Accordingly, today, Saturday January 12, 1889 CE, Jamādi’ul-Awwal 9, 1306 AH, Sunday, a son has been born to this humble one who has for the moment been named Bashīr and Maḥmūd, only by way of good omen. An announcement will be made after full disclosure as I have not yet been given to understand whether this son will grow up and be the Promised Reformer or whether there is some other one. I know, however, and know it for a certainty that God Almighty will deal with me according to His promise and that if the time of the birth of the Promised Son is not yet, then He will appear at some other time. If there should remain only one day out of the term specified, God the Glorious, will not let that day come to an end till His promise is fulfilled. In a dream I had uttered this verse concerning the Promised Reformer:

Thus—if according to the divine will—by delay was meant only the period which has elapsed before the birth of this son who has been named Bashīr-ud-Dīn Maḥmūd by way of good omen, then it would be no wonder if he should prove to be the Promised Son. Otherwise, he will arrive at some other time.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shamsra: In this Ishtihār [announcement], the Promised Messiahas has regarded Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ IIas as the fulfilment of the prophecy about Muṣleḥ-e-Mau’ūd and also named him Bashīr-ud-Dīn Maḥmūd Aḥmad by way of good omen. But he promised further information after complete disclosure. This promise was fulfilled in different books as following:

(A) The birth of Maḥmūd, my elder son, was prophesied clearly in the Sabz Ishtihār together with the name Maḥmūd. That announcement was published with reference to the death of the first boy and comprised several pages like a pamphlet.
(B) The fifth prophecy was concerning the birth of my son Maḥmūd that he would be the next to be born and would be named Maḥmūd. This prophecy was published in the Sabz Ishtihār which was distributed in thousands and is still available. That son was born within the term of the prophecy and is in his ninth year.

(C) The birth of my elder son Maḥmūd was prophesied in the Announcement of July 10, 1888 and the Announcement of December 1, 1888, which was printed on green paper….The Sabz Ishtihār also stated that the son about to be born would be named Maḥmūd…. Then after this prophecy had been publicised fully through the announcements…then by the grace and mercy of Allah, Maḥmūd was born on Saturday January 12, 1889 CE, Jamādi’ul-Awwal 9, 1306 AH, Sunday.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad

The prophecy of the Promised Messiah as about the Promised Reformer, as the Promised Messiah as had himself considered in the footnote of his Announcement Takmīl-e-Tablīgh of January 12, 1889, and had also hinted at several other places, was fulfilled in the person of Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ ʿĪbāda, may Allah the Almighty help him with His powerful support, as is clearly evidenced by the events. Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ ʿĪbāda has himself applied it to himself.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams

On January 28, 1944, in the Friday sermon, Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ ʿĪbāda announced his claim to be the Promised Reformer on the basis of divine intimation. He said:

(A) Allah the Almighty has finally made His will manifest and has granted me the knowledge personally also that the prophecies about the Promised Reformer are about me.

(B) I read all those prophecies together for the first time, and after reading them I can assert with great confidence and certainty that Allah the Almighty has fulfilled the prophecy in me.

[al-Fadl, February 1, 1944, p. 6]
(A) I have been commanded that the seekers after truth should enter into the covenant of bai’at\(^{242}\) with me for the purpose of learning the way of true faith, true purity of faith and the love of the Lord and of discarding an evil, slothful and disloyal life. Therefore, those who perceive some of such strength in themselves should come forward to me. I shall be the sharer of their sorrows and shall try to lighten their burdens. God will bless them through my prayers and my attention towards them, provided they are wholeheartedly ready to comply with the conditions of the covenant which are divinely determined. This is a divine command that I have conveyed today. The revelation in Arabic in this context is:

\text{إذا عَمِّرْتُكمُ أَمَامَيْنِ، فَأَنْصُرُواْ عَلَىْ مَلَكَةِ الْحَقَّ وَأَنْصُرُواْ عَلَىْ مَلَكَةِ الْبَشْرَىَّةِ، وَأَنْصُرُواْ مَعِيَّنَةً مَعِيُّنَةً، إِنَّيْ أَنْصُرُ أَنْصُرَةَ الْكَلِمَةِ.}

(B) God told me at the time of the foundation of this Community that:

I have been told that some of the benefits and advantages of the covenant of bai‘at—that are appointed for all of you—depend upon the arrangement that the blessed names of all of you should be entered in a register together with the names of your fathers and your permanent and present residences, along with a brief description (if possible).

God, the Lord of Glory and Honour, is greatly pleased with this arrangement, whereby a large group of the righteous—strung together on the same string—will make its magnificent appearance to other people in the form of a collective unity, and will display the rays of its righteousness—drawn from various sources—in one continuous line.

God the Almighty has determined out of His pure grace and special benignity to make the supplications of my humble self and the attention of my modest being a means of the appearance and emergence of their 244 pure faculties. His Holy Majesty has filled me with eagerness to occupy myself with strengthening the inner discipline of these seekers.

Of the Signs that have been shown by way of prophecy, is the prophecy that I made concerning our brother Qādī Ḍiāʾ ud-Dīn of Qazi Kot, District Gujranwala…which is that:… Qādī [Ḍiā’-ud-Dīn], you would be confronted with a severe trial 245.

came to see me and humbly requested me to deliver a sermon…. I accepted his request with pleasure and had in mind to speak in regular public about the essence of Islam…But thereafter God the Almighty dissuaded me from this effort.

I am sure that as I was not in good health, God the Almighty did not desire that I should suffer some ill consequence from making an intellectual effort and that is why He stopped me from delivering the sermon.

On a previous occasion, I had a similar experience. While I was physically in a weak condition, I saw one of the past Prophets in a vision and he said to me with sympathy and goodwill, ‘Why do you do such hard mental work; if you continue, you will fall ill.’

December 1890

What doubts make you hesitate in accepting this Messiah;
Whose resemblance [to the first Messiah] has been affirmed by God.
You call expert physicians by the same title;
Indeed, you also bestow it upon handsome people.

Our lord and master the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his progeny, had declared as a prophecy that a time would come when the Muslims would acquire a strong resemblance to the Jews…. Then a man of Persian origin would be raised to teach them the faith. Had faith ascended to the Pleiades, that man would have brought it down from that height. This is a prophecy of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Divine revelation has expounded the purport of this prophecy to my humble self and God the Almighty has made it clear to me by revelation that Ḥaḍrat Masīḥ Ibn-e-Maryam [Jesus, son of Mary] was also a teacher of faith who appeared fourteen centuries after Hadhrat Mūsā [Moses]. Now, it so happened that when about 1400 years had passed after the advent of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, the Muslims largely developed the same evil characteristics which the Jews had developed. Thus, it was necessary to fulfil the prophecy made about them. In consequence, God the Almighty, of His perfect power, has sent for them the like of the Messiah as a teacher of faith.

To me also, God Almighty has given the good news:

\[ \text{Mort kā yeh din, yeh jeetā hāyina kā} \]

[Urdu] I shall again bestow life on you after your death.

And said that:

\[ \text{Jo kā yeh din, yeh jeetā hāyina kā} \]

[Urdu] Those who are close to God the Almighty, come to life again after their death.

And said that:

\[ \text{Ye in aghād kā nāhājā kā gāorī ki tadārānā kā} \]

[Urdu] I shall display My flash and shall exalt you through a demonstration of My power.

This [promise of] my second life indicates rejuvenation of my objectives.

The Wise and Powerful One, having raised this humble one for the reform of mankind…has divided the affair of the support of truth and propagation of Islam for the purpose of drawing the world towards truth and righteousness into many branches\textsuperscript{246}…. This system consisting of five branches which God the Almighty has established with His own hand…in the estimation of God the Almighty they are all indispensable. The reform that He desires cannot be achieved without recourse to all of these five means.

\textsuperscript{246} This consists of five branches which have been elaborated in the same book by the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{a}. The First branch is Publications, second is Announcements, third is Guest House and hospitality towards the guests, fourth is Letters, and the fifth branch is the System of \textit{bai’at}. Once it so happened that I was reading the poem of N’imatullah Walî in which he has prophesied about my advent, has even mentioned my name, and has foretold that the Promised Messiah would appear at the end of the thirteenth century of the Hijrah. Moreover, he has written a couplet concerning me [in Persian]: It means that the one who is destined to come will be both the Mahdi and Isa; both names will apply to him and he will make both these claims.

While I was reciting this verse, I received the revelation:

This meant: [Persian] I see Maulavi Sayyed Muhammed Ahsan of Amroha has given up his post in Bhopal State so as to pass his time near the Promised Messiah appointed by God and to strive in support of his claim.

This was a prophecy that was very clearly fulfilled afterwards.

256 This revelation is also mentioned in the paper Qadian dated September 1, 1902, but the first line has instead of ایکوا نہ ہے لیا. Unless the narrator made a mistake, it seems that this revelation has two renderings. Allah knows best. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
When the verses [of the Holy Qur’an] were revealed condemning the pagans as an abomination, polluted, and the worst of creation, and as stupid and the progeny of Satan, and that their idols will be the fuel of fire and will be castigated into Hell, Abū Ṭālib sent for the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and said to him: ‘Son of my brother, the people are much provoked by your abuses and are bent on killing you and me too. You have dubbed their wise men as fools and have called their ancestors the worst of creation, and have named their revered gods the firewood of hell and fuel for fire and have generally described all of them as an abomination, progeny of Satan, and polluted. I advise you, as your well-wisher, to control your tongue and stop all this abuse; otherwise, I would have no power to protect you against the wrath of the people.’

The Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, answered: Uncle, I have uttered no abuse. All that I have said is a fact and is entirely relevant to the situation. This is what I have been sent for. If this should involve my death I would gladly welcome such death for myself. My life is dedicated to this purpose and I cannot refrain from expressing the truth for fear of death.

Uncle, if you are apprehensive on account of your own weakness and on the score of the trouble in which you might be involved, you might withdraw your protection from me. God knows that I am in no need of you. I shall never refrain from conveying the Divine message. I hold the commandments of my Lord as dearer than my life. Should I be killed in this cause, I would wish to be restored to life so that each time I should die in the cause of Allah. I am not affected by fear. Rather, I consider it most delightful to suffer in this cause.

While the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was speaking his face shone with the light of truth. When he concluded, Abū Ṭālib, perceiving the light in his face, was overcome by emotion and said: I was not aware of this exalted condition of yours. You exist in a different world and in a different condition. Go and continue as you wish. So long as I am alive, I shall support you to the limits of my capacity.

All of this subject dealing with the events related to Abū Ṭālib is set out in well-known books, but the whole of the subject has been revealed upon the heart of my humble self by Allah the Almighty, except that an occasional phrase has been added by my humble self by way of explanation.

The Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim relates that the Messiah would descend near the white Minaret in the east of Damascus…. It has been disclosed to me by Allah that the interpretation of Damascus in this context is a town the dwellers of which have the temper of Yazīd and the habits and thoughts of the wretched Yazīd… It has been conveyed to me that by Damascus, therefore, is meant the place which possesses this well known characteristic of Damascus. By specifying Damascus as the place of the appearance of the Messiah, Allah the Almighty has indicated that by the [word] Messiah is not meant the first Messiah to whom the Gospel was revealed, but it refers to someone from among the Muslims who, in his spiritual aspect, would resemble the Messiah [Jesus] and also Imām Ḥusain, for Damascus is the capital of Yazīd and is the centre of the Yazīdīs from which proceeded thousands of tyrannical commands.... God Almighty, therefore, mentioned Damascus specifically for the purpose of indicating that whereas Damascus was the source of such tyrannical commands and was the city of such hard-hearted and black-minded people, now a city like Damascus will become the headquarters for spreading justice and faith, for most Prophets have appeared in towns whose people were wrongdoers and yet God has been converting the accursed places into homes of blessings.

I received a revelation concerning Qadian as following:

big landlord], would appear in Transoxania, that is to say, in the direction of Samarkand, would support the family of the Messenger, and would himself be supported by every believer as an obligation, it has been revealed to me that this prophecy and the prophecy of the advent of the Messiah who will be the Imām of the Muslims, and will be from among the Muslims himself, have the same purpose and that my humble self is the fulfilment of both.

Then, that Maṃṣūr258 was shown to me in a vision and it was said concerning him:

[Urdu] He is prosperous, he is prosperous.
But due to some wise design of God the Almighty, I was not able to identify him. I hope, however, that he will be shown to me on some other occasion.

I had written so far when I received the revelation:

258 Who is mentioned in the ḥadīth of Abū Dāwūd concerning ‘Ḥārith’ [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalāl-ud-Dīn Shamsa: This means that the commander of his advance guard would be named ‘Maṃṣūr’. In this vision Maṃṣūr probably refers to Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IIaba, Allah knows best.
This was followed by a revelation:

[Urdu] These ulema have changed My house about. They have set up their fireplaces in My temple and their cups and thūthiān fill My place of worship. Like rats, they are nibbling at the aḥādīth of My Prophet.

(thūthiān are small cups which are called sakoriān in Hindī. By place of worship are meant the hearts of most of the maulavīs of this age which are filled with worldly desires.)

This humble one saw in a state of vision that two individuals, who looked like men, were sitting in a house, one on the ground and the other near the roof. Addressing the one who was sitting on the ground, I said: I need an army of one hundred thousand, but he kept quiet and returned no answer. Then, I turned to the one who was near the roof towards the sky and addressed him. I said: I need an army of one hundred thousand, He replied: a hundred thousand will not be bestowed, but five thousand soldiers will be given. Thereupon, I said to myself that although five thousand is a small number, but if God Almighty so wills, a few can prevail over many and I recited the verse:

It has been disclosed to me that whatever is rejected in consequence of my supplications will not be acceded through any other means and a door that is opened through me cannot be closed through any other means.

God Almighty has conveyed to me through a sure and certain prophecy that out of my progeny there will be one who will resemble Jesus in many respects. He will descend from heaven and will straighten out the way of the dwellers upon earth. He will set free those who are held in bondage and deliver those who are imprisoned in the chains of doubt.

A few days ago I was meditating whether a certain hadith: ُلاَّاَلِيَّةَ لاَثْلَيْنَةَ (Arabic) [Persian] Son, delight of the heart, high ranking, noble.

means that the Promised Messiah would appear towards the end of the thirteenth century of the Hijrah and whether this humble one is included within the meaning of that hadith. Then my attention was, in a vision, directed to the value of the letters of the name set out below as indicating that the Messiah would appear at the close of the thirteenth century, and this had been determined in advance by divine decree. The name is:

The value of the letters comprised in this name is exactly 1300. In this village of Qadian there is no other person bearing the name Ghulām Aḥmad. Indeed, it has been conveyed to me that there is no one else in the whole world who bears the name Ghulām Aḥmad Qādīānī. It has been the way of Allah with me that He, hallowed be His name, conveys some mysteries to me which are comprised in the value of the alphabet.

(A) On one occasion, I was thinking of the time of the creation of Ādam and my attention was directed towards the value of the letters of sūrah al-‘Aṣr as comprising the date.

(B) God Almighty has disclosed to me through a vision that on the basis of the value of the letters comprised in sūrah al-‘Aṣr, the time from the birth of Ādam to the blessed period of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—that is, including all 23 years of his prophethood—amounts to a total period of 4739 lunar years, that is to say from the beginning of human civilization [Ādam] to the death of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

With regard to the death of a certain person, God the Almighty revealed to me through the value of the letters of the alphabet, namely:

264 By the solar count, our Holy Prophet Muhammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was raised by Allah the Exalted 4598 years after Adam.

That is [Arabic] He is a dog and he will die according to the value of the letters in the word kalb [dog], which amounts to fifty-two.

This means that his age will not exceed fifty-two years and that he will die within the course of his fifty second year.

A few days ago, I saw in a vision a person who was approaching death through tuberculosis. He disclosed to me that his name was Dīn Muḥammad and it was conveyed to me that this man was a personification of Dīn-e-Muḥammadī [the faith of Muḥammad SA]. I comforted him that he would be healed through me.

1891

I have named mesmerism as ‘Amalut-Tīrb’ which Ḥadrat Masīḥ AS [the Messiah] also practised to some degree. This

---

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams AS: According to lexicons tīrb means: of the same age or similar, but the word may also be related to turāb, meaning ‘clay’. The Promised Messiah AS says:

The word turāb ‘clay’ is derived from tīrb and turbush-shai according to Arabs means ‘that thing which is created with it’. Tha’lab has said: tīrb to something is that which resembles it. Therefore, the clay has been called ‘turāb’ because it shares certain qualities of time or characteristics with heavens. In the beginning, the earth was created together with the heavens and both resemble each other as forms of the creation of God.

According to this, the revelation indicates that this knowledge is earthly and not heavenly. Only those who have a small share of spirituality employ it. The Promised Messiah AS also says:
name was revealed to me and concerning its wonders I received the revelation

هُدَّاءُ تَوْقُّبَهُمَا الْمَارِيَةُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

That is [Arabic] This is the ‘Amalut-Tirb of the mystery of which people of the present time have no knowledge.

[After giving a detailed commentary of verses of sūrah an-Nisā’ 4:158–160, the Promised Messiah as added:]266
I swear by Him in Whose hand is my life that just at this moment the truth stated above has been disclosed to me in a state of vision. Whatever I have just written is based entirely on the instruction of the True Teacher. [Allah be praised for all this.]

I was once severely stricken so much so that I arrived at the door of death and perceiving this condition I made my will. At that time I recalled the prophecy [relating to Mirzā Aḥmad Baig]267 and, feeling that I was at my last breath and my funeral might be offered tomorrow, I thought to myself perhaps the prophecy had a meaning which I had not comprehended. In that near-death condition the revelation came to me:

The history of the saints and the seekers after truth and their biographies show that those of high degree among them avoided having any recourse to such practices, but some people were led into them out of a desire to impress others with their saintliness or with another motive.

[Arabic] The truth is from your Lord, so why do you have any doubt about it?

Pointing to me God Almighty said in His Holy words:

[Urdu] Comparing him to the Prophet of Nazareth it will be appreciated that he is healing God’s creatures a great deal more than they were ever cured of physical ailments.

A long time ago I saw in a dream that I was standing near the blessed grave of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and there were many corpses of those who had died or had been killed and people wanted to bury them. Then a man came out of the chamber holding a long reed with which he pointed to a spot on the earth and told everyone where his place of burial was. In the course of doing this he approached me. Standing in front of me and touching a spot close to the blessed tomb with his long reed, he said to me: You will be buried here. Then I woke up.

Since it has not been possible to determine the period, this dream is being placed under 1891 when it was recorded. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
My interpretation was that this indicated the degree of closeness in the hereafter inasmuch as if a person on his death becomes spiritually close to a holy one that would mean that his burial place is close to the burial place of that close holy one. [But Allah knows best and His knowledge is decisive.]

1891

We believe in the rising of the sun from the West but it has been disclosed to me in a vision that the meaning of the rising of the sun from the West is that the Western countries, which, from ancient times, have been enveloped in the darkness of disbelief and error, will be illumined by the sun of truth and will partake of Islam.

I saw [in a vision] that I was standing on a pulpit in the city of London and was setting forth the truth of Islam in the English language, in a very well reasoned address.
Thereafter, I caught several birds who were sitting upon small trees and were of white colour and their bodies resembled the bodies of partridges.

I interpreted this vision as meaning that though I would not be able to travel to that country, my writings will be published among them and many righteous English people will be attracted by the truth.

God has sent me and has disclosed to me through His special revelation that Masih Ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary] had died. The revelation in this regards is:

[Urdu] Masih Ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary], Messenger of Allah, has died and you have come in his spirit according to promise.

[Arabic] [Allah’s promise will certainly be fulfilled. You are with Me and you are established on patent truth. You are on the right path and are a helper of truth.]

Allah the Almighty addressed me and said:
[Urdu] Being overcome—that is, being apparently belittled as someone who has been overcome—you will finally be victorious and the final outcome will be in your favour. We shall relieve you of all the burdens which have well-nigh broken your back. God has determined to spread about your uniqueness, your greatness and your perfection. God will manifest your countenance and lengthen your shade. A Warner came unto the world, and the world did not accept him, but God will accept him and will demonstrate his truth with powerful assaults. Soon a great kingdom will be bestowed upon him (meaning that, he will be granted acceptance and the hearts of a large number will be inclined towards him...) and treasures will be opened to him.

(This refers to the treasures of wisdom and verities, because the heavenly treasures that are bestowed upon the special servants of God Almighty, which they distribute to the world, are not the worldly riches, but consist entirely of wisdom and verities, as Allah the Almighty says:
Khair means wealth and in fact pure wealth is the wisdom that has been referred to in the hadith. This is the wealth which is a Sign among the Signs of the Promised Messiah.

This is God’s grace and it appears strange in your eyes. We shall soon show you Our Signs in your own selves and also around you. Proof will be established and the victory will be clear. Do they say: ‘We are a large party?’ All of them will be routed and shall turn their backs. Even if people desert you I shall not desert you; if people do not safeguard you, I shall safeguard you. I shall exhibit My flash and shall exalt you as a demonstration of My Power. Peace on you, O Ibrāhīm [Abraham], We have chosen you with sincere friendship. God will set all your affairs right and will bestow upon you all that you might desire. You are to Me like My Unity and My Uniqueness. Allah is not the one to leave you till He has separated the impure from the pure. He will raise your status and will increase your progeny and thereafter you alone will be considered the progenitor of your family. I shall make you famous with honour to the ends of the earth and shall exalt your name and shall put your love in the hearts of the people. [Arabic] We have made you Masīḥ Ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary]. [Urdu] Tell them: I have come in the footsteps of Jesus.

They will say: ‘We have not heard any such thing from our ancestors’ Respond to them that: Your knowledge is limited; God knows best. You are content with the letter and obscurity. The true reality has not been disclosed to you. He who realises that the foundation of the Ka‘bah was a design of divine wisdom is very wise, for he has partaken of the mysteries of the universe. One of high resolve will be born. He will be like you in beauty and benevolence. He will be of your progeny. [Persian] [Son, delight of the heart, high ranking, noble;] [Arabic] [A manifestation of the True and the High, as if Allah had descended from heaven. You will pass through different periods with different companions and will behold distant progeny. We shall bestow upon you a good life; eighty years or thereabouts.]²⁷¹

[After referring to the prophecies about the time of coming of the Promised Messiah mentioned in the aḥādīth, the Promised Messiah⁴⁸ writes:]

God Almighty has disclosed to me in a clear vision that the [second] advent of Ibn-e-Maryam\textsuperscript{as}, [the son of Mary] is indicated metaphorically in the Holy Qur’an\textsuperscript{273}.

He of His sheer grace, without the means of an earthly father, bestowed upon that Ibn-e-Maryam [son of Mary] a spiritual birth and a spiritual life, as He Himself conveyed to him in the revelation:

That is [Arabic] Those who will repent and will reform their ways, to them I shall then turn and I am Oft-turning with Mercy, and Ever-Merciful. There are people for whom We have made the guidance easy and there are people for whom punishment has been decreed. They plan and Allah also plans. Allah is the Best of Planners; and the plan of Allah is exceedingly great. They put you off with mockery [and say]: ‘Is this the one whom Allah has raised?’ Tell them: O ye disbelievers I am of the truthful ones; and you will see my Signs after a while. We shall show them Our Signs all around them as well as in their own lives. Proof will be established and victory will be clear. Allah will decide between you. Allah does not guide a liar who exceeds all bounds. They desire to put out Allah’s light but Allah is determined to perfect His light though the disbelievers might resent it. We intend to send down upon you certain mysteries from heaven and to crush your enemies altogether and to show Pharaoh and Hāmān and their hosts that which they apprehend. We have set dogs in authority over you and We have caused wild beasts to be incensed at your words and have tried you greatly. So be not grieved at that which they say. Your Lord is on the watch. Allah the Most Gracious issues this commandment about His vicegerent, the Sultan: He shall be bestowed a great kingdom, treasures of knowledge and wisdom shall be opened at his hand and the earth shall be lit up with the light of its Lord. This is Allah’s grace and it is strange in your eyes.

When Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain issued his edict against me declaring me a disbeliever and incited people by saying that I was not a Muslim, and that funeral prayers should not be said over any of us and that none of us should be permitted to be buried in Muslim graveyards, it created a great rancour and hostility against me and I was left almost alone. At that time I saw in a state of vision a person in the form of my deceased elder brother Mirzā Ghulām Qādir. However, I was immediately made to understand that he was an angel. I asked him: Where have you come from? He answered:

[Arabic] I have come from the Presence of [God] the One.

I asked him: Why? He answered: Many people have drawn away from you and their hostility towards you is increasing. This is the message I have brought you. I desired to have a word with him in private. When he withdrew I said to him: People have withdrawn from me, but have you also drawn away? He answered: No, we are with you. On this my state of vision came to an end.

Follow not that of which you have no knowledge (sūrah Banī Isrā‘īl, 17:37) [Publishers]

English translation of the remaining four lines of Arabic text from Ā‘īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām:

By “Allah Himself” I mean receding of the shadow in its origin and its complete absorption. As at times similar conditions take place among the lovers [of God Almighty]. The detail of it is that, when Allah decided something of the system of goodness, He made me, by His personal manifestations, in the position of His will, His knowledge, His nearness, His Unity and His Uniqueness, in order to complete His purpose and fulfil His promise. Such, indeed, has been Sunnah with the Abdāl [devotees] Aqṭāb [the shining stars of spirituality], and the Truthful ones.

If someone sees in a dream that he has become God, the interpretation is that he has been guided to the right path. (Ta‘īrul-Anām fi Ta‘bīrīl-Manām, by Ibn-e-Sīrīn of Egypt, page 9) [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] overpowered by something else that had absorbed it wholly so that its own being had completely disappeared.

At that time, I saw that the spirit of Allah the Almighty had enveloped my soul and, covering my body, hid me completely in itself so that not a particle of me remained. I beheld my physical self as if all my limbs had become His, my eyes had become His eyes, my ears had become His ears and my tongue had become His tongue. My Lord seized me with such great force that I disappeared in Him and I felt that His power and strength was surging in me and His divinity was coursing through me. The camps of the Lord of honour were set up all around my heart and the Lord of power ground down my ego so that there was no more of me nor any desire of mine left. My whole structure was demolished and only the structure of the Lord of the universe remained visible.

Divinity overcame me with such force that I was drawn to Him from the hair of my head to the nails of my toes. Then I became all kernel, which had no shell and became an oil which had no dregs. I was separated completely from my ego and I became like something which was not visible; or like a drop, which had become merged in the river so that the river comprehended it in its vastness. I no longer knew what I had been before or what my being was. Divinity coursed through my veins and muscles. I was completely lost to myself and God Almighty employed all my limbs for His purpose and took possession of me with such force that nothing could exceed it. Being so seized by Allah, I became non-existent. I believed that my limbs had become God’s limbs and I imagined that I had discarded my own being and had departed from my own existence and that no associate or claimant had remained as an obstruction. God Almighty entered wholly into my being and my anger and my gentleness, my bitterness and my sweetness and my movement and my inertness all became
His. In this condition I said: We desire a new universe, a new heaven and a new earth. I then created the heaven and the earth in a mass without order or distinction and then, according to the divine will, I arranged and classified this mass. I felt that I had the power to create it. Then I created the lower heaven and said:

Then I said: We shall now create man from the essence of clay. Then my condition moved from vision towards the reception of revelation and my tongue uttered:

284

[It was conveyed to me that when God Almighty determines to create a man He creates the heavens and the earth and all that is necessary in six days and creates Ādam towards the end of the sixth day. This is His settled way. It was also conveyed to me that the creation of a new heaven

283 Publishers’ Note: The Promised Messiah has given a description in Urdu of this in Chashma-e-Masih as follows:

In a state of vision I saw that I had created a new earth and a new heaven and then I said: Now let us create man. At this the ignorant maulavis raised a cry: Watch now, this man claims to be God. Actually, the meaning of the vision was that God will bring about through me such a change as if the heaven and the earth had been renewed and true men will come into being.

284 I determined to make a vicegerent so I created Ādam. Then We created man in the best mould. [Publishers] and new earth, which I saw in my vision, indicated heavenly and earthly support and provision of appropriate means for the achievement of the true purpose and the bringing into being of people with natures fitted to make them righteous and pure.

It was also conveyed to me that Allah the Almighty commands from heaven everyone with the appropriate nature to become ready to help His servant and to run towards him.

I had seen this vision in Rabī‘uth-Thānī, 1309 AH, Allah be praised for this. This did not mean pantheism or incarnation of God, but was illustration of the ḥadīth mentioned in Ṣaḥīḥ Bukhārī which describes how through voluntary prayer the virtuous draw near to God.\[285\]

I have written in a previous letter that I have been commissioned for a heavenly determination\[286\] and to set up its overt arrangements, I have proposed a gathering for December 27, 1891 which will be attended by many sincere people from different places.

In the course of supplication I once saw in a vision that you [Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān] were with me and that suddenly you had raised your neck. Just as a person raises his neck out of joy at the time of some accession to his rank or honour, a similar condition was created.

I wonder what kind of honour it was related to and when would be the time for it. But I can say definitely that some dignity, success or increase in honour is destined for you by Allah the Glorious, whether soon or at some later time. Though I had been saddened by the anxiety with which you are faced, now I am happy, for through this vision a good end has been revealed.

God Almighty has addressed me and has said in clear words:

Await the prophecy contained in the Announcement of July 10, 1887288 along with which is the revelation:

[Arabic] They ask you: ‘Is this true?’ Say: Yes, by my Lord, it is true and you cannot prevent it from happening. We have married289 her to you. No one can change My words. When they see a Sign they will turn away and will not accept them and will say: ‘This is a strong deception or magic.’

288 1887 is scribe’s error. Should be July 10, 1888. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

289 It is true that the revelation said that her marriage with me had been celebrated in heaven. But, as I have stated, one of the conditions for the manifestation of the marriage celebrated in heaven was also announced at the same time and that was:

[Arabic] [O Woman, repent, repent, for misfortune is pursuing you.]

Hence, when this condition was fulfilled the marriage was dissolved or delayed.

Peace be on him who fathoms our mysteries and follows the guidance.

My experience is that whenever I am seriously ill, Allah the Noble bestows healing upon me from Himself. On one occasion I suffered severely from bleeding dysentery… but in that critical condition God Almighty bestowed healing upon me from Himself in a wonderful manner…. In the same way, in this other illness also when I was at the door of death, I received the revelation from God Almighty:

اِلْإِلَهَيُّ

Therefore, I am certain that God the Noble will bestow healing upon me from this illness.

My humble self cannot adequately thank God Almighty for His bounties. In this time of condemnation when, from all sides, I hear the scholars of the time calling out: كَنِيُّ اسْتَمَعْتُ إِنَّكَ مُؤْمِنًا [You are not a believer]; the call from Allah the Glorious is:

This morning before dawn at 4:30 a.m. I saw a large house where my wife (Maḥmūd’s mother) and another woman were sitting. I filled a white water-skin with water and carried it into the house and poured the water into an earthen vessel of mine. When I had finished pouring the water, the other woman suddenly came over to me wearing a beautiful red dress. I saw that she was a young woman and was clad in red from top to toe. Perhaps it was netting material. I thought to myself that this was the woman about whom I had published the announcement, but she appeared to me to have the features of my wife. It seemed that she said or thought: ‘I have arrived.’ I responded: ‘O Allah, may she come.’ Then she embraced me and thereupon I woke up. [Allah be praised for all this.]

Two to four days before I had seen in a dream that [a woman of the name] Raushan Bībī [Lady of light] had come and was standing outside the door of my verandah and I was sitting inside. I said to her: ‘Come, Raushan Bībī, do come in.’

August 1892

Three or four days ago I had seen a frightening dream the interpretation of which was that an enemy had attacked

297 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsīna: This frightening dream was concerning Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ Iīna and the reference to a friend is also about him. In the same letter the Promised Messiahī writes:

Upon receiving your loving letter in yesterday’s mail, being human, I was overcome by concern. But soon my mind was cleared. This is a trial from Allah, the All-Wise and Noble. If Allah the All-Powerful so wills, there is no need to be fearful…. I do not know what provocation has led to such a flagrant directive. How unfortunate is the state from a friend of mine and had caused him some injury but it was found that the enemy also suffered mortally.

August 1892

God the Noble knows well how much and with what a painful heart I supplicated for your honoured self last night…. In the course of the supplication, God caused the following words to flow from my tongue:

These words were a converse from God Almighty and proceeded from Him alone.

which such blessed, well-disposed and true well-wishers are expelled. I do not know what else is in the offing.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Yaʿqub ʿAlī ʿIrfānī”, in explaining the background of this flagrant order, says: ‘Opponents of Ḥaḍrat Ḥakīmul-Ummat” and Maulāvī Muḥarram ʿAlī Chishti charged them with a political conspiracy. Raja Amar Singh loved Ḥaḍrat Ḥakīmul-Ummat” and he was very deeply in love with the quality of his daily life and truthfulness. He was a young man of astute sense and keen judgment. The group that knew Maḥārājā Partāp Singh and controlled him suspected that Maḥārājā Partāp Singh would be deposed and Maḥārājā Amar Singh would replace him. This was a political move and struggle for power. But it was given a religious colour and it was alleged that when Maḥārājā Amar Singh assumes power, Maulāvī [Nūr-ud-Dīn] would convert him to Islam. With this kind of plot, Maulāvī [Nūr-ud-Dīn] and Maulāvī Muḥarram ʿAlī were ordered to leave Jammu. He informed the Promised Messiah’s as letter… was in response.

August 14, 1892 CE, Muḥarram 20, 1309 AH. I saw in my dream last night that Muḥammadī (Begum), concerning whom a prophecy has been made, was sitting with some people in a village rest-house and perhaps her head was shaven and she was naked and she looked very repulsive. I said to her three times: The interpretation of your head being shaven is that your husband will die. I placed both my hands over her head and again stated the same interpretation during my dream. The same night Maḥmūd’s mother saw in a dream that my marriage with Muḥammadī (Begum) had been performed and my wife had a document in her hand which specified that the dower for the marriage was one thousand rupees. Some sweets were sent for. Then Muḥammadī Begum was seen standing near me in [my wife’s] dream.

Last night about 2 a.m. I saw a serpent creeping about in the house of Şāhib Jān (deceased) and then it stopped on the floor and Muḥammad Saʿīd put his finger on the head of the serpent designing to kill it. I, too, put my finger on its head and its head caught fire, but I felt that it had bitten me on my right forefinger, which had become swollen. I was apprehensive lest the poison might affect my heart, but I did not perceive such an effect. I learnt in the same dream that Maḥmūd had also been hurt in some way, but was apparently all right. Lord, safeguard us against every trouble. Āmīn.

What God the Noble has revealed and conveyed to me is that even if some of the theories of astronomers and physicists concerning meteors and comets should be accepted, there is no contradiction between the statements of these wiseacres and what God, the Lord of Honour and Glory, has set out in the Holy Qur’an concerning the spiritual purpose of these celestial bodies. The objective of these people is only to discover the material causes and the customary behaviour of these bodies so as to establish the general rules that regulate the physical system; but the Holy

On one occasion I received a letter from Sayyed Muḥammad Ismāʿīl, the brother of my wife (who was at that time ten years old), who wrote from Patiala to the effect that his mother had died and there was no one to look after his younger brother Ishāq. At the end of the letter there was a note that Ishāq had also died and that we should come [to Patiala] immediately. This letter caused me great anxiety, more particularly as my wife had high fever at the time. In this state of anxiety I was overcome by a light slumber and the revelation came:

أَنِّيُنَّكَنَّ عَظِيمًَمَْ

That is [Arabic] O women! Great are your stratagems.

…From this I understood immediately that this was merely a ruse. Then…I sent my servant Sheikh Ḥāmid ‘Alī to Patiala and on his return he told us that both Ishāq and his mother were alive and safe.

It was October 17, 1892 when, in response to Nur Afshān, my humble self concluded setting forth my arguments in full that the spiritual Judgment in truth was the advent of the Holy Prophet, may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. I had supplemented this with verses in praise of the Holy Prophet, may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, whose true praise is in fact beyond description, and added, by way of a sample, some praise of his noble companions, may Allah be pleased with them, to prove my point. When I went to sleep after writing the ode in praise of the Holy Prophet(sa) and narrating the qualities and virtues of his companions(ra), I saw a blessed and holy dream. I found myself in the upper storey of a large mansion, the rooms of which were very spacious and wide and richly carpeted. I was addressing a large gathering and was setting forth to them divine truths and higher knowledge. Among the audience was a maulavī whom I did not know and he did not believe in me. He was sitting among the gathering and did not belong to our Jamā’at [Community]. I took note of his features. He was slim and white bearded. He interrupted my discourse and said: These are matters relating to the nature of God’s Being and any discussion of them is prohibited. I admonished him: Foolish one, this has nothing to do with the nature of God’s Being. This is holy knowledge concerning Him. I was deeply distressed by his irrelevant interruption and tried to silence him; but he persisted in his mischief which made me angry and I said: The evil-minded divines of this age persist in their mischief, but God will expose them and added some more phrases of the same type, which I do not now recall. Then I called out: Is there anyone who would expel this maulavī from this gathering? Thereupon, I saw someone who looked like my servant Ḥāmid ‘Alī who seized the maulavī and pushed him out down the stairs. Then I looked up and saw the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, standing on a large terrace near our gathering as if he had been strolling there and was quite close when the maulavī was expelled. I had not noticed him before but on looking closely now I saw that he was holding the book Ā’ina-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām in his hand. At the place that I have mentioned, which appears to have been printed already, he had placed one of his blessed fingers at the spot where his praise was mentioned and his pure, effective, and high teachings were set out, and another finger at the place where the qualities and the truth and loyalty of his companions, may Allah be pleased with them, were set out. He was smiling and said:

That is [Arabic] this is in my praise and this is in praise of my companions.

Then my mind moved from the dream towards revelation and a state of vision was created. It was revealed to me in a vision that God Almighty expressed His pleasure over His own praise mentioned at that place and the revelation about it came to me:

I saw another dream on December 7, 1892 that I had become Ḥaḍrat ʿAlī, may Allah honour his face; meaning that in my dream I felt as if I was the very same as him. It is one of the wonders of a dream that sometimes a person feels that he is someone else and in that way I felt at the time that I was ‘Alī Murtaḍā and the situation was that a group326 of Khawārij was opposing my Khilāfat, that is to say, they wished to obstruct my becoming Khalīfah and were creating mischief for that purpose. Then I saw the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, close to me and he said with kindness and affection:

That is [Arabic] O ‘Alī! Stay away from them, their helpers, and their harvest. Leave them and turn away from them.

I found that the Holy Prophet, may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, advised me to be steadfast in the midst of that trial and to refrain from getting involved with those people. He told me that I was in the right, but that it would be better not to address them. By their harvest is meant the followers of the maulavīs who are influenced by their teachings and whom they have been preparing for a long time.

Then my mind moved towards the reception of revelation and God disclosed to me that one of my opponents said:

That is [Arabic] Leave me free to kill Mūsā [Moses]; that is, my humble self.

I saw this dream at about 2:40 a.m., and it was the morning of Wednesday. [Allah be praised for all this.]

326 This shows that the Khilāfat that would be established after the Promised Messiah would be opposed by a community which will try to create disorder.

(A) It has been disclosed to me through a vision that Ḥaḍrat ‘Isā\textsuperscript{as} [Jesus] was apprised of the poisonous doctrines which have spread in the world through the Christians and thereby his soul was moved towards his spiritual descent upon the earth and, being deeply affected by the determination of his followers upon self-ruin, he desired a substitute who should resemble him and should be possessed of the same nature as himself as if he was the same. So God, according to His promise, bestowed upon him one who resembled him and upon this one descended the resolve and qualities and spirituality of Masīḥ [Messiah]. He and Messiah\textsuperscript{as} were firmly bonded together as if the two were fashioned from the same essence and the attention of Masīḥ made the heart of the other his own resting place so that he might fulfil his urge through him. In this manner he took on the identity of Masīḥ and the fervent designs of Masīḥ\textsuperscript{as} descended upon him by virtue of which his coming was metaphorically described in the revelations as the coming of Masīḥ.

(B) As it has been disclosed to me through visions, the soul of Ḥaḍrat Masīḥ\textsuperscript{as} [Messiah] was in travail on account of the falsehoods that had been attributed to him in this age, and fervently desired the descent to the earth of one spiritually his like and he supplicated God Almighty to that effect. So God Almighty responded to his agitation and sent his like into the world so that the promise, already made, should be fulfilled…. The soul of Ḥaḍrat Masīḥ, peace be upon him, had two occasions to demand a substitute. The first was six hundred years after his death. This was when the Jews insisted more than ever that he was an impostor and a liar and that his birth was illegitimate and that is why he died on the cross. On the other hand, the Christians proclaimed that he was the son of God and even God himself, and that he had laid down his life on the cross for the salvation of mankind.

It was then that the soul of the Masîh [Messiah] was moved, in accordance with Allah’s will, and demanded to be exonerated from all these charges and beseeched God for a substitute. Thereupon, the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was raised… This was the first agitation of the soul of Jesus of Nazareth which achieved its purpose in the advent of our lord and master, our Messiah, the Seal of Prophets, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. [All praise belongs to Allah.]

The second time when the soul of the Masîh as was agitated was when the Christians completely assumed the qualities of Antichrist…Thus in this age the soul of the Masîh was agitated a second time and longed for his substitute to appear in the world. When this desire reached its climax, God Almighty raised one who was his spiritual reflection to defeat the Antichrist of this age. This spiritual reflection, by coming in the likeness of the Masîh as, is called the Promised Messiah.…

On account of the current troubles, it was only the advent of the Masîh that was called for. It was his people who had been corrupted and among whom the qualities of the Antichrist had spread. Therefore, it was only proper that the soul of the Masîh should have been agitated.

This is the subtle spiritual comprehension that has been bestowed upon me through a vision.

It has also been disclosed to me that, after a time of piety and purity and the supremacy of Divine unity, the world will again return to polytheism and transgression. Some will devour others like insects, ignorance will prevail, the Masîh [Messiah] will be worshipped once again, and the error of creature-worship will be widespread. All this mischief will proceed out of Christianity in the last part of these latter days. Then again the soul of the Masîḥ will be greatly troubled and will seek its descent in a majestic form. Then, with the advent of an awe-striking semblance of his, this age will come to an end. That will be the end and the expanse of the world will be rolled up.

This shows that on account of the unworthy behaviour of the followers of the Masîḥ\textsuperscript{as}, it had been decreed that the spirituality of the Masîḥ\textsuperscript{as} should descend into the world three times.

December 1892

Now I have been told that he who calls a Muslim a disbeliever and despite finding his adherence to the qiblah, affirmation of the creed and belief in the doctrines of Islam, does not desist from calling him a disbeliever, is himself outside the pale of Islam. I have, therefore, been commissioned to enter into a mubāhalah [prayer duel] with those who are the leaders in the campaign of declaring me a disbeliever and are called muftī, maulavī and muhaddith and who also have wives and children. It would be necessary that in a public gathering I should set forth my reasoning in a detailed speech, and should refute all their charges and should try to clear up all their doubts that agitate their minds and if they should still persist in calling me a Kāfir I should enter into a mubāhalah with them.

The word of God that has descended upon me, granting permission for mubāhalah, is as follows:
God has looked at you with a fragrant look. Some of the people said in their hearts: ‘O Allah, will You appoint in the world one who will cause disorder in it?’ He answered: I know that which you do not know. They say: ‘The book written by this man is full of disbelief and falsehood.’ Say to them: Come, let both of us call our sons, women and dear ones, then let us pray fervently for the triumph of the truth and invoke the curse of Allah on those who lie.

I have been commanded that I should publish the invitation to a mubāhalah with the book, Ā’ina-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām.

[Maktūbāt-e-Ahmadiyyah, vol. 5, no. 4 p. 20, Letter dated December 10, 1892, addressed to Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Ālī Khān]

December 1892

This is the permission to enter into mubāhalah, which has been granted to my humble self. I put down here some of these revelations along with some other revelations conveying good news. These are:
That is [Arabic] On that day truth will come and truthfulness will be laid open and the losers will suffer loss. You are with Me and I am with you and this is known only to those who possess good sense. We shall grant you success a second time and shall convert your fear into security. The moon of the Prophets will come and your affair will become manifest. Allah will make your countenance cheerful and will illumine your reasoning. Soon will a son be born to you and grace will come close to you. My light is near.³²⁷

³²⁷ Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: The birth of a second son whose name is Bashīr Aḥmad was foretold in a prophecy which is printed on page 266 of Ā‘īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām. The words of the prophecy are:

[Arabic text]

That is [Arabic] the moon of the Prophets will arrive and your affair will become manifest. Allah will make your countenance cheerful and will illumine your reasoning. Soon a son will be born to you and grace will come close to you. My light is near.

By Faḍl [grace] being near was meant that his coming would be a source of grace and also that in his features and build he will be like
They ask you: ‘Whence have you obtained this?’ Say: Allah is Wonderful. Such are His acts: He honours whomsoever He wishes. Despair not of the mercy of Allah. Look at Yūsuf [Joseph] and his glory. The time of victory has arrived and victory is close. The opponents, who are destined to be forgiven, will fall into prostration and will supplicate: Lord forgive us, for we were in error. There shall be no blame upon you this day. Allah will forgive you; and He is the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy. I was determined to appoint a vicegerent and so I created Ādam, who comprises mysteries. We created him on the day of promise.

This means that the Promised One has appeared at the time which had been indicated through the Holy Prophet, may the peace and blessings of Allah be on him, and it had been indicated that at the time of his appearance such and such a people will be on top in their empire and strength, and such and such type of worship of creatures will be prevalent. The Promised One has been born in the same age, which is the time of the Cross and worship of ‘Īsā [Jesus].

I have been shown, told, and made to fully comprehend that Islam alone is the true faith in the world and it has been revealed to me that whatever has been bestowed upon me is by way of blessing on account of following the Seal of Fadl Aḥmad, my son from my other wife... This son was born according to this prophecy on April 20, 1893 as is set out in the announcement of that date and he was named Bashīr Aḥmad [Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad M.A].

Prophets, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. There is no instance of this in other faiths, for they are false.

(A) I have been given the definite good news that if any opponent of the faith comes forward against me I shall prevail against him and he will be humiliated.

(B) It has been revealed to me that I shall prevail over every blind opponent and Allah has said:

(C) He has, of His grace and benevolence, honoured me with His special words and has informed me: I, the True and Perfect God, shall be with you and shall bestow victory on you in every contest pertaining to spiritual blessings and heavenly support.

I have been told that I shall also prevail over these Muslims in the sphere of my visions and revelations. Those from among them who claim to be recipients of revelation should come forward in opposition to me. Thus if in the matter of divine support and heavenly bounties and heavenly Signs they prevail against me, I would submit to being slaughtered by them with whatever kind of knife they might choose. If they are not willing to come forward, then I call upon those who have declared me a Kāfir [disbeliever] and for challenging whom I have been granted permission through revelation, that they should agree through a writing in advance, which should be published, that if they witness a miraculous Sign they would accept my claim without any further ado. I am ready for this task and my Noble God is with me. But I have been commanded that I should enter into such a contest only with the leading characters from among those who have declared me a Kāfir.

As to the common people…if they wish to see a miraculous Sign, they should come and stay in my company for sometime. God Almighty…will not let this humble one be lost and will refute completely my opponents and will show His Signs before too long.

December 10, 1892
While I was writing this letter\textsuperscript{329} I received the revelation

\begin{center}
\textit{ربّ تَمَّ ذَٰلِكَ بَيُّهَنَّيۡنَكَ عَلَى مَبَاءٰتَكَ رَبّكَ مَتَّىَرَأَيۡنِئُوَےۡنَكَ الْبَيِّنَاتَ رَبّكَ نَكُونَ مَعَكَ بِكَمْبَتَكَ}
\end{center}

That is [Arabic] Truth will be manifested and truthfulness will be laid open. Those who have suffered the loss due to ill-will, will also suffer the loss through humiliation and disrespect.

\textsuperscript{329} The reference is to the letter addressed to Navvāb Muḥammad ʿAlī Khān of Malerkotla published in Ā’īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām on pages 331–357. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
The moon of the Prophets will arrive and your affair will become manifest. Your Lord achieves without fail whatever He wills.

But I cannot say when all this would happen. Allah has no use for one who is in a hurry. He is Self-Sufficient and is not dependent upon any. He does everything with wisdom and appropriateness. He tries a person and then displays His support.

Before the arrival of Mr. Webb in India, the Promised Messiah as saw in a dream that Mr. Webb had come to India and was beating a drum. The interpretation was that he was occupied in a futile endeavour which would not lead to anything; and so it proved.

1892

A few months ago I read an article in which Miyān Muḥammad Ḥusain had written concerning me that I was a liar, Antichrist, faithless, completely ignorant and stupid and altogether unaware of the knowledge of faith. I then supplicated the Divine for help. After the supplication I was favoured with the revelation:

أُنفِقُوُي أَسْتَجِبِبْ لَكَ

That is [Arabic] Call on Me, I shall respond to you.

But I was naturally loath to pray for the punishment of anyone.

I had intended to compose this letter\textsuperscript{330} in Urdu, but was made to understand last night by some revelatory indications that I should write this letter in Arabic. I also received a revelation that it would have very little effect on my opponents; although, I shall have carried the matter to its conclusion.

Stand up and warn [people about the impending calamities] for you have been commissioned to warn people whose ancestors have not been warned and so that the way of the guilty ones might be fully exposed. We have made you Masih Ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary], so as to perfect My warning for those who have adopted Christianity. Say: This is the grace of my Lord and I shun all kinds of titles. I have been commissioned by Allah and I am the first of the believers. He watches the times and knows well their requirements. He has large stores of everything with Him. When He determines upon a thing He directs it to ‘Be’; and it is. Say: Do you wonder at what God does? Say: Allah is the Most Wonderful of all who are wonderful. He exalts whom He wills and abases whom He wills; He bestows honour on whom He wills and humiliates whom He wills and chooses for Himself whom He wills. He is not called to account concerning that which He does.
This is what my Lord has revealed to me at this time and before. He bestows His bounties upon those whom He wills and He is the Best Bestower.

God has given me the good news just now and has said:

They have said: ‘This is a book full of disbelief and falsehood.’ Say: Come, let us call our sons and you call your sons, and we call our women and you call your women, and we call our people and you call your people and then let us pray fervently and call down the curse of Allah on the liars and call My servants to the truth and give them good tidings of the days of [the manifestation of the Glory of] Allah and call them to the clear book. 1893

My Lord has informed me that I am like the Ark of Nūh [Noah] for mankind; whoever comes to me and enters into the covenant will be safeguarded from being lost.

I have perceived in a vision that Hazīratul-Quds [the garden of holiness] is irrigated with the water of the Qur’an which is a raging ocean filled with the waves of the water of life. Whoever drinks from it comes to life. Indeed, he becomes one of those who bring others to life.

I beseeched Allah the High and threw myself before Him desiring that the mystery of descent might be resolved and the true interpretation of the Antichrist might be revealed so that I should know it with the certainty of knowledge and should see it with the certainty of sight. His favour then turned towards my instruction, my understanding, and it was revealed to me. I was taught from His Presence that descent in its true meaning is a reality, but that the Muslims have not understood that reality…. My Lord informed me that descent is spiritual and not physical…. As to the Antichrist, now listen, I will explain to you the reality on the basis of the clear and pure revelation that I have received…. Then understand, my dear ones, that it has been disclosed to me that the reference to the Antichrist as one individual is not designed to indicate his personal individuality, but his unity as a species, meaning thereby that in that species there will be a unity of ideas as is, indeed, indicated by the word dajjāl [Antichrist] itself and in this name there are many Signs for those who reflect. The meaning of the word dajjāl is a chain of deceptive ideas, the links of which are so attached to each other as if it was a structure of equal-sized bricks of the same colour, quality and strength, some of them firmly overlapping others and further strengthened by being plastered from outside.

In those days I had a vision of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, after I had beheld him only a short while before. He converted me into his whip and prepared me for a contest so that I should fight the Pharaohs and the wrongdoers.

My Lord felicitated me and said:

1893

(A) I saw in a dream that I had saddled my horse for some particular purpose though I did not know whither I was bound and for what purpose. I had a feeling in my heart that I was preparing for something very eagerly. I put on some arms and, following the way of the righteous, mounted my horse trusting in Allah. Then, I felt that I had received intelligence about some mounted people who were armed and had come to my home for the purpose of destroying me. I was alone and I had no helmet or other safeguarding armour except those arms which Allah had bestowed upon me for my defence. However, I disliked withdrawing from the contest and sitting inside in fear and so I started in one direction rapidly with full vigour and effort for the achievement of the purpose that I had in mind,

339 [Arabic] We shall destroy her husband (also) as we have destroyed her father and will return her to you. This is the truth from your Lord, then be not of those who doubt. We shall delay it only for a fixed period. Say: Wait till the end of the term and I am with you among those who wait. When the promise of God is fulfilled [it will be said]: Is this what you called false or were you blind? [Publishers] which was to produce the best results from the point of view of the world and faith. Suddenly, I saw thousands of people, all mounted on horses, advancing rapidly towards me. On seeing them, I felt as joyful as if I had won great spoils. I felt a great upsurge in my heart for opposing them and began to pursue them as a hunter stalks his quarry. Then, I galloped up to them to ascertain their condition and was certain in my mind that I would be victorious against them. As I came up to them, I discovered that their clothes were worn and torn. Their features were repulsive; they looked like pagans and were dressed like the rebellious. I noticed that they were manoeuvring their horses for the purpose of plunder and I was watching them carefully while I advanced rapidly towards them like a brave champion. My horse went forward so fast as if it was being urged by some invisible power, as camels are urged by the chanting of their drivers. I was also delighted by the charm and beauty of its paces. Then they turned suddenly to obstruct my power and my plan, to destroy the fruits of my garden, to uproot my trees and to plunder them. They advanced towards my garden and entered into it, which made me anxious and much perturbed as I gathered that they wanted to destroy the fruit of my garden and to cut its branches. I advanced towards them rapidly and realised that it was a time of great danger and my enemies had made their homes in my land. I began to entertain fear in my heart like one weak and afraid, but I advanced towards my garden so that I could assess the situation. When I entered my garden and looked carefully, I tried to discover the place where they had stationed themselves. I saw from a distance that they had all fallen down in the middle terrace of the garden scattered like dead people. Thereupon, my anxiety departed and I was reassured and advanced towards them rapidly and joyfully. When I came close to them, I observed that they had all died suddenly being abased and overcome by divine wrath. Their skins had been stripped off, their heads had been smashed, their throats had been slashed, and their hands and feet had been chopped off and thrown away in bits. They had been destroyed suddenly as people are destroyed at one stroke of lightning and they were utterly consumed. Then I stood at the place where they had gathered to oppose me, which became the place of their destruction. My eyes were shedding copious tears and I supplicated: My Lord, may my life be laid down in Your cause, You have bestowed favour upon me and You have helped your servant in a manner the like of which is not to be found among the annals of nations. Lord, You have destroyed them with Your hands even before the two sides had fought or two champions had battled or two knights had entered the arena. You do whatever You will. There is no helper like You. You have rescued me and delivered me. O You Most Merciful, if You had not taken pity upon me, it would not have been possible for me to escape all the calamities and afflictions.

Then I woke up while I was still occupied with thanking God Almighty and my soul was still turned to Him.
[All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds.]

I interpreted this dream as meaning that God Almighty would send His help and success without the intervention of external means and of human efforts. He desires to perfect His bounty upon me and to admit me to His grace. I shall now interpret it to you in detail so that you might obtain true insight into it. Smashing the heads and cutting the throats of the enemy refers to breaking their arrogance and their boastful pride and humbling them. Cutting off their hands means destroying their opposing strength, frustrating them, stopping them from putting up opposition and contest, depriving them of weapons and arms, and reducing them to helplessness. Cutting off their feet means repelling all their arguments, closing upon them all ways of escape, and convicting them and reducing them into the position of prisoners. This is all Allah’s grace Who has power over everything. He punishes whom He wills and has mercy on whom He wills. He vanquishes whom He wills and bestows victory upon whom He wills and no one can frustrate Him.

(B) [Badr reports that the Promised Messiah [as] said]:

A long time ago, I saw in a dream that I was riding a horse and went towards my garden all alone. In front of me appeared an army bent upon destroying my garden. I felt no fear of them and was certain in my own mind that though alone, I was more than adequate for them. They entered the garden and I entered after them. When I arrived inside, I saw that they were all lying dead, with their hands, heads and feet all cut off and their skins stripped off. Observing this spectacle of divine power, I was overcome and wept thinking who else would have the power to do all this?

...The army is in reference to the people who desire to turn the members of my Community into apostates and to distort their beliefs. They desire to cut off the trees of the garden of my Community. God Almighty will demonstrate His power and will defeat their purpose and will render all their efforts vain.

...By their heads being cut off is meant that their pride will be broken and their arrogance and disdain will be trampled underfoot. A person’s hand is a weapon with which he fights the enemy. The cutting off of their hands means that they would be deprived of all means of fighting. A person can run away after a defeat with the help of his feet; their feet being cut off means that they would have no means of escape left. By the stripping off of skin is meant that their secrets will be disclosed and all their faults and defects will be exposed.

The interpretation of this revelation is:

Translation: [Persian] O Lekhrām340 why do you revile Muḥammad, may peace and 340 Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: In general terms, the Promised Messiah as mentioned this prophecy on February 20, 1886 in an announcement (Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, volume 1, page 98). Then in Barakātud-Du‘ā’ (Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 6, pages 2–4), Karāmātus-Šādiqīn back title cover and Ā‘īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Īslām (Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 5, page 649) he narrated the revelations in detail. In these, he wrote clearly that if Lekhrām did not desist from his mischief, misdeeds, and abusing of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, he would die on a day after ‘Īd within six years.

Lekhrām wrote in his book that he has received a revelation from his Permeshwar that this man [the Promised Messiah as] would die of cholera within three years.

The events unfolded as the Promised Messiah as had prophesied that: Exactly according to it he died within six years through murder. As had been prophesied, he was cut to pieces, was cremated, and his ashes were dropped into a river just like the calf of Šāmiri. For details see: Istifā’ Urdu, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 12, page 125; Sirāj-e-Munir, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 12, pages 110–111; Tīryāqul-Qulīb, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 15, pages 172, 191; Nuzūlul-Masih, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 18, pages 522–524; Ḥaqiqatul-Wahi, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 22, page 294; Chashma-e-Ma’rifat, page 125 etc.
blessings of Allah be upon him? Why are you not afraid of his sword which will cut you down to pieces?

(A) In my Announcement of February 20, 1886, I suggested to Lekhrām Peshāwarī that if he was willing I would publish some prophecies concerning him. Thereafter… Lekhrām sent me a post card stating: You are free to publish whatever prophecies you desire about me; I give you permission. Then I supplicated to Allah the Glorious, in his affair and received the revelation:

That is [Arabic] He is just a lifeless body of a calf out of which issues a disagreeable sound. On account of his impertinence and reviling, punishment, pain and torment has been decreed, which he is bound to suffer.

(B) [This\textsuperscript{341} meant that] he was like a lifeless calf which is completely devoid of spiritual life. He possesses nothing but meaningless sound. He will be cut to pieces like the calf that was fashioned by Sāmirī. Bear in mind that according to the meaning with which Allah the Almighty has inspired me, \textsuperscript{342}.

\textsuperscript{342} He will receive the same kind of torment and punishment as the calf fashioned by Sāmirī did. [Publishers]
February 20, 1893

(A) This day, which is Monday, February 20, 1893, I supplicated to ascertain the time during which this torment would be afflicted upon Lekhrām. It was disclosed to me that within six years from today’s date this man would be afflicted with great torment on account of his reviling the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

[Announcement of February 20, 1893, attached to Ā'īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 5, p. 650]

(B) One of the prophecies concerning Lekhrām was

\text{يَقُصُّ إِمَامَةً فِي سِتَّ}

That is [Arabic] His matter will be settled in six.

…The events happened exactly in accordance with the indication in the prophecy. Lekhrām was cut up on March 6 at the sixth hour of the day.

It was disclosed to me that shortly after he\textsuperscript{343} dies, Punjab would be afflicted with plague.

[Letter of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{a} dated June 14, 1903, published in al-Fadl, vol. 39, p. 5, no. 97, April 25, 1951, p. 4]

1893

During the period of the writing of this book [Ā'īna-e-Kamālāt-e-Islām], I was twice honoured with beholding the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and he expressed great pleasure over the compilation of the book.

\textsuperscript{343} Refers to Lekhrām Peshāwarī [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
I also saw one night that an angel was calling people towards this book with a loud voice and was saying:

That is [Arabic] This is a blessed book, then stand up due to its glory and respect.

February 25, 1893

Last night, being greatly perturbed by the attitude of Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alī of Hoshiarpur], I supplicated for a heavenly decision. Thereafter, I was shown in a dream that I had sent some money to a shopkeeper as the price of something good and fragrant. He took the money, but sent an evil-smelling substance. When I saw it, I was angry and told my messenger: Go back to the shopkeeper and tell him to send me what I had asked for, otherwise I would file a complaint against him for cheating and he will be sent to jail for at least six months and probably longer. The shopkeeper sent back word that he had not done this on his own but that he had been influenced by the babblings of a mad man which made him forget his duty and that he was now ready to send what I had asked for.

344 Six months before Sheikh Mehr ‘Alī was imprisoned, Allah the Almighty showed to the Promised Messiah in a dream that the seat of Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alī] had caught fire and the Promised Messiah put the fire out by pouring water over it. The Promised Messiah immediately informed Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alī] of this trial and tribulation and asked him to repent and seek forgiveness of Allah. But after he was released Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alī] denied receiving the letter. Instead, he started saying that there was no such letter, but he was being pressured to issue a statement to this effect. The Promised Messiah is referring to this painful attitude of the Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alī]. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
I interpreted this to mean that the Sheikh [Mehr ‘Alî] would be afflicted with such humiliation and eventually would be remorseful and that for the moment he was acting under some one else’s influence.

I supplicated again concerning this matter and received the revelation:

\text{زَرْعَتُكَ وَرَجْحَاتُكَ}\\

That is [Arabic] We are watching from heaven that your heart has turned from the well wishing of Sheikh Mehr ‘Alî towards supplicating for his chastisement. We shall turn the matter in heaven as you make it turn upon earth. We are with you, and shall raise your ranks.

1893
I had seen in my dream that a fire had flared up in his house and that I had put it out…. Thereafter, I had made another prophecy concerning him that he would be afflicted with another calamity. Accordingly, he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

345 Sheikh Mehr ‘Alî of Hoshiarpur. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

(A) Today, Sha‘bān 29, 1310 AH, at the time of writing this essay, God Almighty made my heart incline towards supplication and I immediately supplicated in a very moving manner for success in this competition. My heart was reassured and I realised that my prayer had been accepted. I am sure that the revelation which I had received concerning Miyān [Muḥammad Ḥusain] Batālavī in the words:

had reference to this occasion. I have appointed a period of forty days for this competition in my supplication, and the same time-period was caused to be uttered by my tongue.

(B) (God the Almighty) has informed me that if Miyān [Muḥammad Ḥusain] Batālavī or any of his colleagues would enter into competition with me, they would be defeated and greatly humiliated.

I have supplicated for you with as much attention as was humanly possible…and the revelation I received at the end, after repeated attention, was:

I am with both of you, hearing and seeing. Repel with that which is best. We have delivered you from sorrow and have tried you well; The good news has arrived that the days of sorrow will pass. To Allah belong the affairs before and after. You will die and they will die. We shall certainly change your fear into security. They shall beat their faces and say: Is there a way of escape? On the day on which the earth will be changed for another earth.

This means that the thoughts and ideas of the people on earth shall be changed.

He affords them respite till a fixed term, which is near. We are Strong and We are Powerful. ‘Lord forgive us, we were erring.’

I have received this revelation just now. The meaning of this revelation which has descended upon my heart from God Almighty is that the Lord desires good for you but that this is conditional upon your making progress in the development of your Islamic capacities and in your observance of the fast, prayer, righteousness and purity. These conditions indicate that the undisclosed purpose is something replete with blessings because such conditions have been prescribed for it.

Messiah\textsuperscript{as} received a revelation\textsuperscript{354} which indicated that Maulavî [Ḥakîm Nûr-ud-Dîn\textsuperscript{ra}] should migrate to Qadian. Next morning he informed him of this and suggested that he should emigrate to Qadian and should not return home. This faithful one made no excuse. The house remained unfinished but this man of God did not go back.

This morning, April 2, 1893 CE corresponding to Ramaḍân 14, 1310 AH, I saw in a state of light slumber that I was sitting in a large house in the company of a few friends, when a man of strong build and terrifying appearance—as if blood was dripping from his face—came and stood before me. When I looked up, I felt that he was a strong creation possessing extraordinary characteristics as if he was not a man but was one of the terrifying angels. All hearts were overawed by him. The moment I had looked at him he asked me: ‘Where is Lekhrām?’ And then he named another person and asked: ‘Where is he?’ From this I understood that he had been appointed for the chastisement of Lekhrām and of the other person whose name has \textsuperscript{354} Note by Maulânâ Abdul Latîf Bahawalpuri: Ḥaḍrat Khalîfatul Masîhi I\textsuperscript{ra} mentioned this revelation in his autobiography which he dictated to Akbar Najîb Ābadî as following:

\begin{quote}
The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} told Maulavî ‘Abdul-Karîm\textsuperscript{ra}: I have received a revelation concerning Nûr-ud-Dîn. It is in the form of a couplet in the poem of Ḥarîrî:

I call God the Glorious to witness that He has told me clearly by revelation that Ḥaḍrat Masīḥas [Jesus] was without distinction a man like all other men, but that he was a true Prophet and a Messenger of God and a chosen one. I have also been told that whatever was given to the Messiahas [Jesus] has been given to me also, on account of my 355 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: The events as they unfolded revealed that the other person was Shardhānand, who, in accordance with this prophecy was killed by ‘Abdur-Rashīd, scribe, of Delhi. Referring to the murder of Shardhānand, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IIra says:

This incident is in accordance with the prophecy of the Promised Messiahas….. He had made a prophecy about the murder of two people. One was Lekhrām, and the Promised Messiahas did not recall the name of the other. The interesting fact is that Shardhānand was previously named Munshī Rām and when he was killed his name was Shardhānand. That is the reason that the Promised Messiahas could not recall his name. He is also the deputy who took over the task of Lekhrām. The newspaper Tej has written that when the news of the murder of Lekhrām reached Delhi, Swāmi Shardhānand left all his affairs in Delhi behind and came to Lahore and took over the affairs of Lekhrām. In short, he was a leader of great standing among the Āryās. Many of the events relating to his murder resemble Lekhrām’s murder. Lekhrām was murdered on Saturday, the day after ‘Īd. Shardhānand was killed on Thursday, which also adjoined the Friday. In both cases the murderer had wrapped himself in a blanket. In both cases an attempt was made to stop the entry of the murderer, but he was permitted to enter afterward.

I saw that this man [Maulavi Muḥammad Ḥusain] will acknowledge my being a believer before his death and I saw that he had given up calling me Kāfir [disbeliever] and had repented of this position. I saw all this in a dream and I am hoping that my Lord will make it come true.

June 5, 1893

What was disclosed to me last night is that when I supplicated the Divine with great humility and earnestness: ‘May You decide this matter between us; we are Your humble servants, we cannot accomplish anything except through Your will.’ He gave me this Sign, as a glad tiding, that whichever of the two parties in this debate is deliberately adopting a false stand and deserting the True

356 Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: In 1914, twenty years after this prophecy, Maulavi Muḥammad Ḥusain had the following testimony recorded in the court of Magistrate Grade 1, in the District of Gujranwala, with reference to different sects of Islam:

All these sects believe the Holy Qur’an to be the Word of God. Like the Qur’an, all these sects also believe in hadīth. A new sect, Aḥmadi, started a short time ago ever since Mirzā Ghulām Aḥmad of Qadian made his claim to be the Massiah and Mahdī. This sect also believes equally in the Qur’an and hadīth…. My sect certainly does not consider any of the above mentioned sects to be kāfir [disbelievers].

357 The reference is to the debate between the Promised Messiah and Deputy ‘Abdullāh Ātham which is described in Jang-e-Muqaddas.

[Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
God and is deifying a humble man, will be severely afflicted within a period of months corresponding to the number of days of this debate. That is to say, within fifteen months he will be greatly humiliated, provided he does not turn to the truth. And he whose stand is on the truth and who believes in the True God will be thereby exalted. When the prophecy is fulfilled some who are blind will begin to see, some who are lame will begin to walk, and some who are deaf will begin to hear.

Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: This prophecy had clearly predicted that if Ātham did not turn to the truth he would be afflicted within a period of fifteen months. Thereafter, contrary to his habit, Ātham refrained from uttering anything objectionable against Islam or the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. The other indications also prove that he had been afflicted with fear due to the grandeur of the prophecy and was impressed with the truth of Islam. God Almighty, therefore, had mercy on him in accordance with His way [Allah would not punish them while they sought forgiveness] and he was delivered from the affliction predicted for him. Thereafter, however, he refused to affirm that he had turned towards the truth. On this, after reminding him several times, the Promised Messiah as announced that if Ātham would declare on oath that he had not turned towards the truth, the Promised Messiah as would pay him Rs. 4,000 if he survived for one year after taking the oath. In that announcement the Promised Messiah as stated:

Now if Atham would make the required statement on oath, then the term of one year is definite and final and is not subject to any condition. The divine decree in that case will be unalterable and even if he does not make the required statement on oath, God Almighty will not leave unpunished one who has tried to deceive the world by concealing the truth …and the days of his punishment would be near and not far.

[Announcement concerning award of Rs. 4,000, p. 11, Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 2, p. 106]

The Promised Messiah also announced:
Ātham will not make the statement on oath even if the Christians would cut him to pieces or slaughter him.

June 5, 1893

Maulavī ‘Abdul-Karīm⁰⁰ reported that:

Today after returning from the debate the Promised Messiah⁰⁰ received a congratulatory revelation at about 1 p.m. which he immediately announced to those present. This was:

I shall humiliate him who designs to humiliate you. We shall suffice against your scoffers. O Āḥmad, God has blessed you. You did not let loose but it was Allah who let loose so that you should warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and that the way of the guilty ones might become manifest. Say: I have been commissioned and I am the first of believers. Proclaim: The truth has arrived and falsehood has vanished, falsehood always vanishes away. Every blessing is from Muḥammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, then blessed is he who taught and he who has been taught. Say: If I have invented it, the sin of it is on me. They plan and Allah plans and Allah is the Best of planners. He it is who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth so as to make it prevail over every religion. There is no changing the words of Allah. I am with you so be you with Me wherever you might be. Be with Allah wherever you might be. Whatever direction might face there is the countenance of Allah. You are the best people raised for the good of mankind and a source of pride for the believers. Despair not of the mercy of Allah. Hearken, the mercy of Allah is near. Hearken, the help of Allah is near. It will come to you from every distant track. Allah will help you from Himself. Men will help you whom We shall direct from heaven. There is no changing the words of Allah. Today you are in a position of high standing and trust with Us. They will say: ‘This is all his own invention’. Say: Allah is the Source of all this; and then leave them being beguiled by their sport. And who is more unjust than one who invents a lie against Allah? My mercy is on you in matters of the world as well as of faith. You are of those who are helped.

Good news to you, O My Āḥmad, you are My purpose and with Me. I have planted the tree of your honour with My own hand. Is this a matter for wonder for the people? Say: Allah is Wonderful, He chooses whom He wills from among His creatures. He is not called to account for what He does but they are called to account. These are days that We revolve between the people. When Allah helps a believer He makes many envious of him. Deal kindly with people and have mercy on them. You are among them in the position of Mūsā [Moses]. Then be steadfast under the oppression of the oppressors. Do people imagine that they should be left alone to say: ‘We have believed’; and that they should not be tried? Here is a trial, then be steadfast as those of high resolve were steadfast. Beware, it is a trial from Allah so that He might love you with a great love. Allah will bestow upon you your full reward and your Lord will be pleased with you and will perfect your name. They only mock you. Say: I am one of the truthful; then wait for My Signs for a while. All praise belongs to Allah, Who has made you the Masīḥ Ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary]. Announce: This is the grace of Allah and I eschew every kind of title. I am one of the Muslims. They desire to put out the light of Allah with the breath of their mouths but Allah will perfect His light and will revive the faith. We intend to send down to you Signs from heaven and to scatter your enemies completely. The command of Allah the Gracious, for the vicegerent of Allah who is invested with authority. Then put your trust in Allah and construct the ark under Our supervision and direction. Those who enter into a covenant with you enter into a covenant with Allah; Allah’s hand is above their hands. There are many groups who have become deserving of punishment. They plan and Allah is the Best of planners. Say: I have with me proof from Allah, then will you believe? Say: I have with me proof from Allah, then will you submit? My Lord is with me, He will show me the way. Lord, show me how You do revive the dead. Lord, forgive and show mercy from heaven. Lord, leave me not alone and You are the Best of heirs. Lord, reform the people of Muḥammadṣa. Our Lord, judge between us and our people with truth. You are the Best of Judges. They try to frighten you with others than Him. You are under Our care. I have named you Mutawakkil [the one who trusts in God]. Allah praises you from His Throne. We praise you and send down blessings on you. O Aḥmad your name will come to an end but My name will not come to an end. Be in the world as if you are a stranger or a traveller. Be of the righteous and the faithful. I have chosen you and have poured My love over you. Hold fast to Unity, to Unity, O children of Fāris [Persia]. Give good tidings to those who have believed that they have a standing of truth with their Lord. Do not turn away from Allah’s creatures and be not tired of people and deal kindly with the Muslims. The Company of the Lounge, and how would know what the Company of the Lounge is? You see their eyes streaming with tears. They call down blessings on you: Our Lord, we have heard a crier calling to the faith. Our Lord, we have believed, then write us down among the witnesses. Wondrous is your standing and near is your reward. With you are the hosts of the heavens and of the earth. You are to Me like My Unity and My Uniqueness. The time has come that you should be helped and be recognised among people. Blessed are you, O Aḥmad, and deserving of the blessing that Allah has bestowed on you. You have a high standing in My Presence. I have chosen you for Myself and you have a standing with Me of which people have no notion. Allah would not leave you till He separates the unclean from the clean. Look at Yūsuf [Joseph] and his glory. Allah is supreme over His commands, but most people know it not. I decided to appoint a vicegerent and created Ādam so that he might establish the law and revive the faith. The book of [My] friend is the Dhulfaqār [sword] of ‘Alī. If faith had ascended to the Pleiades a man from among Abnā-e-Fāris [children of Persia] would have brought it down. Its oil would well-nigh glow forth even though no fire were to touch it. The Champion of Allah in the mantle of Messengers. Say: If you love Allah, then follow me, Allah will then love you. Call down blessings on Muḥammad and the people of Muḥammad, the Chief of all mankind and the Seal of the Prophets. Allah will have mercy on you and will safeguard you Himself even if men will not safeguard you. Allah will safeguard you Himself even if no one from the dwellers of the earth will safeguard you. Ruined are the two hands of Abū Lahab and ruined is he. It did not behove him to enter into this affair but in fear. Whatever befalls you is from Allah and know that the end is for the righteous. Warn your near relatives. We shall show them a Sign from among our Signs in the matter of the widow and shall return her to you. This has been settled from Our side and We shall certainly do it. They used to reject Our Signs as false and were of the scoffers. Good tidings to you on the marriage. The truth is from your Lord, then be not of the doubters. We have married her to you. There is no changing the words of Allah. We shall return her to you. Your Lord surely accomplishes that which He determines upon. This is grace from Us so that it should be a Sign for the beholders. Two goats will be slaughtered and all that are upon the earth are mortal. We shall show them Our Signs in the universe and in their own selves, and shall show them the punishment of the disobedient. When the help of Allah comes and the victory and the age turns to us, it will be asked: Is this not the truth? Those who have disbelieved are in patent error. I was a hidden treasure and liked to be known. The heavens and the earth were a solid mass and We split them asunder. Say: I am but a human being, it is revealed to me that your God is One God and that all good is contained in the Qur’an, to the deeper meaning of which only the pure can penetrate. I have lived a whole life among you before this, then do you not understand? Say: The only true guidance is the guidance of Allah and my Lord is with me. He will show me the way. Lord, forgive and show mercy from heaven. Lord, I am overcome, do You avenge me. My Lord, why have you forsaken me? O ʿAbdul-Qādir I am with you, hearing and seeing. I have planted the tree of My mercy and My power for you with My own hand and today you have with Us a high rank and a position of trust. I am your inevitable recourse. I shall revive you. I have breathed into you the spirit of righteousness from Myself. I have poured My love on you so that you might be nurtured under My care like a seed that puts forth its sprout, then makes it strong; it then becomes thick and stands firm on its stem. We have bestowed upon you a clear victory so that Allah might wipe out your previous and subsequent weaknesses. Then be of the grateful. Is not Allah Sufficient for His servant? Is not Allah aware of those who are grateful? Allah has accepted His servant and has cleared him from what they alleged and he has a high standing in the estimation of Allah. When his Lord manifested Himself on the mountain He broke it into bits and Allah will frustrate the plans of the disbelievers. So that We might make him a Sign for the people and a mercy from Ourself and so that We might bestow upon him glory from Ourself and thus do We reward those who do good. You are with Me and I am with you. Your secret is My secret, the secrets of the friends of Allah cannot be numbered. You are based on clear truth, of high standing in the world and in the hereafter and of those who are close to Allah. A foolish one recognises only the fatal blow. He is My enemy and your enemy, he is like a calf with an inanimate body from which proceeds a meaningless sound. Say: The command of Allah is approaching, so do not be of those who are in a hurry. The moon of the Prophets will come to you and your affair will become manifest. It is incumbent upon Us to help the believers, So on the day the truth arrives and will be laid open

I do, however, recall that the meaning of the other phrases was: May God help you, may you have victory. Although according to the common belief of Muslims \( Lailatul-Qadr\)\(^67\) is a blessed night, the verity of which God Almighty has informed me is that besides this generally accepted connotation, \( Lailatul-Qadr \) also denotes another time period, namely, the time when darkness spreads over the world, and there is darkness upon darkness all around. Then that darkness demands that a light should descend from heaven. Then God Almighty sends down to earth His angels of light and Rūḥul-Qudus [Spirit of Holiness] in a manner that befits the dignity of angels. Then Rūḥul-Qudus attaches itself to the reformer who, being honoured with the robe of acceptance and purification, is commissioned to call people to the truth. The angels attach themselves to all those who possess good fortune and good sense, and are eager. They draw them towards good and incite them to the doing of good. Then, the ways of peace and good fortune are opened upon the earth. This process is continued till the faith arrives at that stage of perfection which is appointed for it.

My Lord has given me good news concerning the Arabs and has directed me to take care of them, to show them the right path, and put their affairs right.

It has been conveyed to me that the words of the hadith concerning the descent of ‘Īsā as [Jesus] near the minaret of Damascus indicate the time of his appearance inasmuch as the value of the letters of those words indicate the year of Hijrah in which Allah raised me. The word ‘minaret’ was chosen to indicate that the land of Damascus will be illuminated and brightened in consequence of the supplications of the Promised Messiah after having been darkened by all sorts of innovations. You are also aware that the land of Damascus has been the source of the mischief of the Christians.

[Hamāmatul-Bushrā, p. 37, Rūhānī Khazā’in, vol. 7, p. 225]

My Lord revealed to me that I should perfect the divine challenge against them (the Christians) and should expose to mankind the ignorance of the disobedient ones. That is why I have compiled this booklet [Nūrul-Ḥaqq].

[Nūrul-Ḥaqq, part 2, p. 61, Rūhānī Khazā’in, vol. 8, p. 259]
When I had decided to compile this book [Nūrul-Ḥaqq], I received a revelation from the Lord of lords that the disbelievers and those who have declared me a disbeliever would not have the power to compile a book like it in its arrangement of prose and its poems, and containing the insights and wisdom set forth in it. Therefore, he who desires to controvert my revelation should produce the like of what I have set forth; for the Mahdī is guided towards matters to which no one else is guided. His opponent will

 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: Pīr Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu’mānī narrates:

I remember that when the Promised Messiah made up his mind to write the book Nūrul-Ḥaqq in Arabic, he received a revelation in Masjid Mubarak after Morning Prayer when my humble self was massaging his back, legs and neck:

[Arabic] [Should you be in doubt...]

He immediately narrated this revelation to us and conveyed to us the glad tiding that no one would be able to produce the like of this book, even if the whole world were united to do so.
not be able to get anywhere near him, even though he were to fly through the atmosphere.

[C] It has been revealed to me by my Lord that they are all like the blind and will not be able to produce the like of it and that they are false in their claims.

[D] Though the booklet Nurul-Haqq has been written as a challenge to the Christians who claim to be divines, yet some of my opponents, namely Muhammad Husain Batalavi and those who follow in his footsteps, like Miyān Rusul Bābā, who have declared me a disbeliever and who revile me and use foul language, are not excluded from this challenge. The revelation shows conclusively that none of the disbelievers or those who have declared me a disbeliever will be able to write a refutation of the booklet Nurul-Haqq, because they are false, impostors, liars, ignorant and stupid.

Two dreams and two revelations have disclosed to me that my enemy and my opponent will fail to produce the like of it.

...I am able to say that I am like an amulet for this government, and am like a refuge to safeguard it against calamities. God has given me the good news saying:
[Arabic] Allah would not chastise them while you are among them.

(A) I have seen Ḥaḍrat ‘Īsā [Jesus], on whom be peace, several times in my dreams and have met him several times in a state of vision. He has eaten with me on the same table. Once, when I saw him, I asked him about the trial which had befallen his people. He was overwhelmed with awe and recalled the greatness of Allah the Almighty, and started proclaiming His Glorification and Holiness. He pointed to the earth and said: ‘I am from the earth and am innocent of the allegations attributed to me.’ In short, I found him a courteous and humble man.

[Nūr-ul-Ḥaqq, part 1, p. 41, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, vol. 8, pp. 56–57]

(B) Of the wonders which God has bestowed upon me, one is that I have met Jesus the Messiah several times in a state of perfect wakefulness which is called a vision. I have talked to him and have ascertained from him the nature of his real claim and teaching. A major point, which is worth attention, is that Jesus the Messiah is so disgusted with the doctrines of Atonement, Trinity, and Sonship, as if these are the great impostures that have been fashioned against him.

This evidence of vision is not without support. I believe firmly that if a sincere seeker after truth would come and stay with me for a period and would wish to meet the Messiah in a vision, he would be able to do so through the blessings of my supplications and attention. He can also talk to him and receive his affirmation of what I have stated for I am the person in whose soul the soul of Jesus, the Messiah, resides by way of reflection.

On another occasion I saw him [Ḥaḍrat Ḥaṣan ‘Īsā], peace be upon him, standing at the threshold of my door holding a paper in his hand as if it was a letter. Then it was conveyed to me that the letter contained the names of those who love God and whom God loves and that it describes the ranks of nearness to God which they enjoy. I read this letter and discovered that towards the end there was an entry with regard to me proceeding from Allah the Almighty to the effect:

(Pathway of Unity and Uniqueness) He is to Me like My Unity and Uniqueness and soon will he be made well-known among people.

[1894] (A) The truth that has been shown to us by the True God, the All-Wise, and the information conveyed to us by the Knower of the Subtleties is that the weapons of the Promised Messiah are heavenly and not earthly and that all his campaigns are with a spiritual outlook and not with material weapons. He will kill his enemies with his looks and his courage, that is to say with his spiritual force and his penetrating arguments and not with arrows, lances, or swords and that his kingdom is heavenly and not earthly.

(B) Our Lord has revealed to us that the battles of the Promised Messiah are spiritual battles, which will take place with a spiritual outlook.

It was revealed upon my heart that the Masîḥ[1894] as [Messiah] applied the term Antichrist to the Christians of the latter age. He did not apply the epithet to earlier ones though they were also astray and were given to perverting the scriptures. The clue to this is that the earlier Christians did not exert themselves so hard to mislead people as the later ones did. Indeed, they had not the power to do so.

It has been revealed upon my heart that the meaning of the word rūḥ in the verse (370) is the company of Messengers, Prophets, and Muḥaddathīn, all together, on whom Rūḥul-Qudus [the Spirit of Holiness] descends and who are granted the converse with Allah.

The correct interpretation and the true and correct meaning [of the ḥadīth] is that ‘the moon would be eclipsed on the first night in the month of Ramaḍān’ means that it will be eclipsed on the first of the three nights in which it is full, as you well-know the expression ayyām-e-bīd [white days]…. Also, the meaning of his words that ‘the sun would be eclipsed on the middle [day]’ is that the solar eclipse would occur in a manner that it would split in the middle the days on which an eclipse takes place. ...I have not said this on my own; rather, it is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds.

He [Ḥaḍrat Abū Bakr] may Allah be pleased with him, had cognition of the perfect degree, was meek of nature, and compassionate in temperament. He lived a life in the mantle of humility and meekness. Forgiveness, kindness and compassion abounded in him. He was recognised by the light of his forehead. He was deeply attached to the Holy Prophetṣa and his soul had been united to the soul of the Best of Creationṣa. He was covered by the same light which had been bestowed upon his master, the beloved of the Lord. He was enveloped by the light of the Holy Prophetṣa and his great bounties. He was distinguished from all other men in his understanding of the Qur’an and in his love of the Chief of the Messengersṣa and the Pride of Mankindṣa.

When the life of the hereafter and the mysteries of the Divine were manifested to him, he forsook worldly connections and physical attachments, and was coloured with the hue of his Beloved. He gave up all objectives for the sake of the One sought after. He discarded all physical impurities and took on the colour of the One, the True, and he disappeared in the pleasure of the Lord of the worlds.

When the love of the True Divine saturated the whole of his body and soul and its impact and light began to manifest themselves in all his words and deeds and his attitudes, he was named the Şiddiq. He was invested with fresh and deep knowledge from the presence of the Best of Bestowers. Faithfulness became his well-established nature and natural inclination, and its effects made themselves manifest in all his doings and sayings, movings and stoppings, and in his senses and in his pure breath. He was included among those upon whom the Lord of the heavens and the earths had bestowed His favours. There is no doubt that he was a comprehensive illustration of [acting upon] the teachings of the Holy Prophet⁷⁷⁴. He was a leader of those who are recipients of grace and perfection and had partaken of the nature of the Prophet.

Do not think that my statement above has any type of exaggeration. Nor is my statement merely the result of giving any benefit of doubt or apologetics or in a gush of love, but is a reality which has been disclosed to me from the presence of the Lord of Honour.

[Sirrul-Khilāfah, pp. 31–32, Ṭūḥān Khazā’in, vol. 8, p. 355]

(A) Divine revelation apprised me that Deputy ‘Abdullāh Ātham partook to some degree of turning to the truth by his acknowledgement of the greatness of Islam and recognising its prestige. This delayed his prophesied death and being afflicted to the utmost degree. He was in a manner afflicted, but his greater affliction, which is called death, was delayed for a short while…God Almighty… revealed to me:

[Arabic] Allah has taken note of his grief and sorrow. Allah has granted him respite until the time that he reverts to his impertinence, harsh language and falsehood and forgets the favour done to him by Allah the Almighty.

This [second sentence above] is an interpretation [of the first sentence] on the basis of the meanings inspired by God Almighty.

And then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] This is the way of Allah and you will not find a change or alteration in the way of Allah.

376 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shamsra: Malik Ṣalāḥ-ud-Dīn narrates from Munshī Muḥammad Ismāʿil Siālkoatī that:

When it was the last day of the time appointed for Ātham’s chastisement, the Promised Messiahra came to the upper floor of Masjid Mubārak and called for Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīmra and said: I have received a revelation:

[Arabic] [Allah has taken note of his grief and sorrow.]

I have been given to understand that ‘his’ refers to Ātham. This shows that he would not die within the announced period.

[Aṣḥāb-e-Aḥmad, vol. 1, p. 57]
I was given to understand that the way of Allah is not to inflict chastisement until all the causes that invoke the wrath of Allah appear in full. Even if there is some hidden fear of God in any corner of the heart and one starts fearing the impending punishment, the punishment is averted and is postponed to a later time.

And then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] Therefore, do not wonder, nor grieve and you will be on top if you remain steadfast in belief.

The last phrase above is addressed to my Community. Then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] By My honour and My glory, you are on top.

The sentence above is addressed to my humble self. Then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] We shall crush your enemies into bits. That is, they will be humiliated and their schemes will be frustrated.

I was given to understand that this means that I will be on top, not my enemy.

[Arabic] And God will not stop or halt till He exposes all the machinations of the enemy and frustrates their schemes.

That is, the scheme that has been devised and fashioned shall be shattered, shall be cast away like carrion, and its corpse will be exhibited to the people. Then the revelation continued:

[Arabic] We will lay bare the real truth, that is, will expose their designs and will openly manifest the Signs of victory and on that day the believers will be pleased, both the first and the last.

[Arabic] To grant respite for the reason mentioned is in accordance with God’s way, which has been stated. Now, whosoever wishes may adopt the way that leads to His Lord. In it there is admonition and rebuke for those who think evil.

I was also given to understand that those who are rightly guided, are desirous only of God’s pleasure, and are not dwelling in the darkness of any kind of miserliness, prejudice, haste, or faulty judgment, will accept this statement and will find it in accord with the teachings of God. However, those who are followers of their ego or egotistical stubbornness and are not realistic, will reject it out of daring and darkness of their selves.

(B) From this writing of mine, let no one imagine that whatever was to happen, has happened and that there is nothing more, for the revelation contains the following glad tidings for future, namely:

[Arabic] وَقَدْ مَنَىَ الْكُفَّارَ وَمَنَىَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ َوَلَيْسَ كَذَلِكَ مَنْ كَيْفَ مَنَىَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَيْسَ كَذَلِكَ مَنْ كَيْفَ مَنَىَ الْكُفَّارَ.

That is [Arabic] The opponents will be totally crushed with the defeat and on that day the believers, both the first group and the last group, will be pleased.

Be sure, therefore, that the days are coming when all will be fulfilled according to the revelation. The enemy will be frustrated, the opponents will be humiliated, and victory will be demonstrated on every side. Be certain that this is in itself a victory and is a presage of the victory to come.

[Anwârul-Islâm, pp. 15–16, Rûhânî Khazâ’in, vol. 9, pp. 16–17]

(C) Sometimes a prophecy with a hidden meaning is vouchsafed as a trial for people so that God Almighty might demonstrate to them the limitations of their understanding. I have already written that, as stated in a ḥadīth of the Holy Prophet, this prophecy was meant to be a trial for the weak-hearted. It was, therefore, fulfilled in a manner which requires insight for its understanding, but it has other essential aspects which will appear later, as is indicated in the words of the prophecy about laying bare the real truth.

Note by Ḥadrāt Mirza Bashir Ahmad: Ḥadrāt Maulānā Ḥājī Ḥāfiz Nūr-ud-Dīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ writes:

My son ‘Abdul-Ḥayy is a Sign of Allah. Muḥammad Aḥmad had died. A critic from Ludhiana raised objections on that basis...I paid no attention to his critique. But my leader and Imām attended to it. Thereupon, he received a glad tid ing which is recorded on page 26 of Anwārul-Islām [Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 9, page 27] A few years after that, this boy, ‘Abdul-Ḥayy was born. In accordance with the vision he had pustules on his body. My knowledge of medicine came to naught to treat despite of being a physician. ‘Abdul-Ḥayy was very restless because of these pustules, but we child of his own was playing in his lap. That child had a good complexion, was handsome and had large eyes. I said to Maulavī [Nūr-ud-Dīn]: God has bestowed on you in place of Muḥammad Aḥmad, a son, who, in his complexion, his features and his strength, is much better than Muḥammad Aḥmad, and I thought to myself that this child must be from another wife for the first child was weak and looked ill and only half alive, whereas this one is strong and has a good complexion. Then the following verse [al-Baqarah, 2:107] passed through my mind; I do not recall having recited it:

were helpless and could not do anything to help him. The vision also had a reference to the treatment for the pustules, and turmeric had been indicated as one ingredient in its treatment. With turmeric was another medication which could not be recalled. Seeing his restlessness, we thought of putting turmeric on his wounds, but the Promised Messiah said: I cannot dare do that because I do not recall the other ingredient. However, we made a mistake and applied the turmeric. This made him very restless and he suffered greatly. We, therefore, had to wash off the turmeric. This increased my faith and I recognized how weak we were that we could not reach the valid conclusion by our own thinking. I also recognized that this group of the Apostles and Messengers of God is like a machine which is run by Allah the Almighty alone; they do not speak without His will. Anyway, my faith precedes these Signs. This is by the Grace of Allah that He has not left us without Signs. He showed hundreds of Signs to us.

The boy was born on February 15, 1899-five years after this prophecy and was named ‘Abdul-Ḥayy. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
I realised that this is the reply of God Almighty to that enemy of the faith [Sa‘dullāh of Ludhiana] for he has attacked Islam by making himself a supporter of the Christians and that attack is unwarranted and full of bad faith.

...I also noticed that the child I saw in my dream had pustules on his body and someone said: Its remedy is turmeric and one other thing. [Allah knows best].

Wednesday:

I saw [in a dream] last night that I was at the house of Muḥammad Ḥusain Batālavī. We held prayer service there and I perceived that I led it and by mistake I recited [sūrah] al-.toIntah al-Fātiḥah aloud..., I said: Why did you not prevent me from reciting it aloud. Then I thought that I had only called out the takbīr aloud, and not sūrah al-Fātiḥah. I do not recall whether Muḥammad Ḥusain was with us in the prayer service or whether he had observed it before we did. When we had finished the Prayer, I found that I was sitting on a bed in front of Muḥammad Ḥusain. It seemed to me that at that time he was dark of complexion and quite naked and it appeared to me that his complexion was darkish. I felt embarrassed and would not look at him....It seems that I said to him: Is it not time that you should make up with me, and incline towards peace? He replied in the affirmative and came close and embraced390 me while I was sitting. Then I said to him: Do you overlook whatever I have said concerning you which might have hurt you. So forgive it, if you wish because I wish that there should be no ill-will or quarrel in your mind on the day that we would be raised and shall be standing before Allah the Almighty. He said: I 390 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams(ra): This dream was fulfilled during the time of Ḥaḍrat Amīr-ul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ II(aba). He writes:

At the time of my Khilāfat, Allah created remorse in his mind. Once I went to Batala and he came to see me himself. I noticed sign of great remorse on his face... Allah the Almighty also fulfilled this dream in this way that two of his sons came to Qadian for studies and took a covenant of bai’at at my hand.

overlook all those things. Then I said to him: Bear witness that I have forgiven you all that you have said concerning me and declaring me a disbeliever and your charging me with falsehood and other things. Then I stood up and recalled my dream about this matter and said: Those of my followers who are present know that I had seen in my dream about it earlier.

Then someone called out that a person by the name of Sulṭān Baig was at his last breath; whereupon, I said: He will soon die for I had seen in my dream that we shall make up between ourselves on the day of his death.

Then I said to him: I had seen in a dream that you and I would make up on the day of the death of Bahā’-ud-Dīn. Muḥammad Ḥusain smiled and was greatly surprised and said: This is absolutely true, Bahā’-ud-Dīn has indeed died. It seemed that he was marvelling at the greatness of the news. Then the scene shifted from that place to another place in the same house. I thought of inviting him to a meal to be arranged for him. I drew nearer to him and asked him to accept my invitation for a meal and after a little hesitation he accepted and said I shall come soon. I said to him that I had seen in my dream that we would make up with each other without the intervention of a third party and so it had come about. At the time that he embraced me, it seemed that he was a small child of dark complexion.

391 Note by Syed Abdul Ḥayee: In Sirāj-e-Munīr, the Promised Messiah has mentioned this dream with some differences as following:

I saw in a dream that I went to the house of Muḥammad Ḥusain [Batālavī] with a party of people. We held our prayer service there and I led it. A thought passed through my mind that during the Ẓuḥar or ‘Āṣr Prayer I recited the sūrah Fāṭiḥah aloud, but then I recalled that I had not done so but had only called out the takbîr aloud. When we had finished the Prayer, I found that Muḥammad Ḥusain was sitting in front of us totally naked and it appeared to me that his complexion was dark. I felt embarrassed and would not look at him, but he came over to me and I said to him: Is it not time that you should make up with me; or, perhaps I said: Do you wish to make up with me? He replied in the affirmative and came close and embraced me. At that time he appeared to me like a small child. Then I said to him: If you would agree, I wish you to overlook whatever I have said concerning you, which might have hurt you, but remember that whatever I have said was not but out of goodwill. I fear Allah and the time when we shall all be standing before Him. He said: I overlook all those things. Then I said to him: Bear witness that I have forgiven you all that you have said concerning me and declaring me a disbeliever and your charging me with falsehood.

After this, he appeared to me at his full size and I saw him clad in white. Then I said: It has all come about as I had seen in my dream.

Then someone called out that a person of the name of Sulṭān Baig was at his last breath; whereupon I said: He will soon die for I had seen in my dream that we shall make up between ourselves on the day of that man’s death. Then I addressed Muḥammad Ḥusain and said to him: I had seen in a dream that you and I would make up on the day of the death of Bahā’-ud-Dīn. Muḥammad Ḥusain was surprised at this and looked at it as a great wonderful happening and said: This is perfectly true, Bahā’-ud-Dīn has indeed died. Then I invited him to a meal and after a little hesitation he accepted. I said to him that I had seen in my dream that we would make up with each other without the intervention of a third party and so it had come about. This was Wednesday December 12, 1894.

A few days ago, I saw in a dream that I was sitting somewhere and suddenly some money appeared before me. I was surprised as to its source and thought to myself that an angel of God had put the money there to provide for my needs. Then, I received the revelation:

آله مرسیاء آیتولا صدیق

Meaning that [Arabic] I am sending you a present.

At that time it passed through my mind that the interpretation was that my sincere friend Ḥājī Seth ‘Abdur-Rahmān personified the angel and would send the money. I noted down this dream in Arabic in my diary. This was confirmed yesterday. Allah be praised. It is a sign of [your gift] being acceptable to God and it was confirmed in a dream as well as by revelation.

It has been revealed to me [by Allah the Almighty] that the true faith is Islam and the true Prophet is Muṣṭafā, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, who is the Chief spiritual leader, the unlettered one, and trustworthy Messenger. Thus, as worship is due to God alone, Who is One without associate, in the same way, obedience is due to our Prophet alone, for he is unique in the fact that he is Khāṭamul-Anbiyā’ [the Seal of the Prophets].

$^{394}$ This dream was narrated by the Promised Messiah$^{44}$ in 1907. However, since he has mentioned that he saw it at the time of the birth of Sāhibzādah Mirzā Sharīf Aḥmad, it has been recorded here accordingly. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]
(B) At that time, I saw in a vision that a rupee descended from the sky and was placed in my hand on which was written:

In this revelation, the eye is expressly mentioned and the other two organs are not specified. It is commonly said that the proper functioning of life requires that the eye, the ear and intelligence should be preserved. The fulfilment of this revelation can be judged from the fact that I have been suffering from diabetes for eighteen years and doctors and physicians know what a threat this disease constitutes for eyesight. Then what is the power which informed me in advance that I would be exempted from the operation of this rule and then proved it accordingly?

March 16, 1896
On the 29th of Ramadān, Monday, March 16, 1896 exactly at 1 a.m., I saw Imām ʿAlī Shāh in my dream as if I had first gone to visit him in his house and then he accompanied me to my house with a company of about ten men. He enquired from me: What is your way? I answered him in Persian:

[Persian] [In the matter of the repetition of There is no God except Allah; your practice was limited and defective and our practice is wide and comprehensive. Look, what you did was like a bud and all its components were hidden.]

And I illustrated this with closing my hand like a bud. Then I said:

398 This vision was fulfilled in a way when, during the night between 23 and 24 May, 2018, the opponents demolished the dome and minarets of Baitul-Mubārk mosque and the adjoining historical house of Ḥākīm Husām-ud-Deen, in Sialkot, Pakistan. [Publisher]
I illustrated this by opening my hand wide like a blooming flower and said:

\[\text{Persian} \quad \text{Look, the credo: ‘There is no God except Allah’; is like this. This negates everything in detail.}\]

When I said that, he experienced a great pleasure as if he had learned a new and splendid point of view. I noticed his pleasure from the expression on his face. He presented me with a rupee. I thought to myself: I had at one time given him two rupees out of which he has presented me with one. Then while still standing in the lane to the north of our house he asked me: When will you go to Gurdaspur? I answered him:

\[\text{Persian} \quad \text{I do not know, not a step can be firmly taken unless God so wills.}\]

Then I left him standing in the lane. I wrote down these few lines immediately thereafter at 2 a.m.

"O 'Isâ whose time will not be wasted, you have a standing with Me of which the people have no notion. You are to Me like My Unity and Uniqueness. So the time has come that you should be recognised by people and be helped. He is the One God Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth so that He might make this religion prevail over every religion.

No one can change the prophecies vouchsafed by Allah. Say: I have been commissioned and I am the first of believers. He is the Most Gracious One, Who has taught the Qur'an, so that you might warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and so that the way of the guilty ones might become manifest. We suffice you against the scoffers. Say: I have with me a testimony from Allah, will you then believe? Say: I have with me a testimony from Allah, will you then accept? My Lord is with me, He will soon show me the way. Say: If you love Allah, then come and follow me, Allah will also love you. Shall I tell you on whom do the satans descend? They descend upon every sinning liar. They desire to put out Allah's light with the breath of their mouths and Allah will perfect His light, though the disbelievers might resent it. We shall soon put fear in their hearts.
When the help and victory from Allah comes and the age will turn to us it will be asked: Was not this the truth? I am with you. Be you with Me wherever you might be. Be with Allah wherever you might be. You are the best people raised for the benefit of mankind. You are under Our sight. Allah will exalt your name and will perfect His bounty upon you in this life and in the hereafter. O Aḥmad, your name will come to an end but My name will not come to an end. I am about to raise you towards Me. I have poured My love on you. Wondrous is your status and near is your reward. The heaven and the earth are with you as they are with Me. You have a high standing in My presence. I have chosen you for Myself. You have a high standing in this world and in the Hereafter. Holy is Allah, Who is the Source of Blessings, and very High. He has increased your rank. From now on, the name of your forefathers will be cut off and God will begin with you. You have been helped with prestige and have been revived with truth, O Ṣiddiq [Truthful One], you have been helped and the opponents will say: ‘There is no way of escape left. Allah has preferred you to us even though we disliked it. Our Lord, forgive us, we were in error.’ ‘O you who have returned with repentance no blame will lie upon you this day. Allah will forgive you and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.’ Allah will not leave you till He has demonstrated the difference between the clean and the unclean. Allah is Supreme over His decree but most people know it not. When the help of Allah comes and the victory, and the words of your Lord are fulfilled it will be said: This is what you had desired to be hastened. I determined to appoint a vicegerent and so created Ādam. I perfected him and breathed into him My Spirit. He will establish the Law and will revive the faith.

Had faith been hanging with the Pleiades he would have brought it down. Holy is He Who took His servant on a night journey. He created Ādam and honoured him. The Champion of Allah in the mantle of the Prophets. Those who have disbelieved and obstructed people from the way of Allah were refuted by a man of Persian origin. Allah appreciates his effort. The book of this friend of Allah is like the Dhulfaqār [sword] of ‘Alī. Its oil would well nigh glow forth even if no fire were to touch it. Adhere to Unity, adhere to Unity, O Children of Persia. We have sent him down close to Qadian and have sent him down with the truth and to meet a real need. Allah's command was bound to be fulfilled. Do they say: ‘We are an avenging host?’ All of them will be scattered and they will turn their backs. Fear not, My servant, I hear and see. See you not that We are gradually reducing the earth from its borders? See you not that Allah has power to do all that He wills? Call down blessings on Muḥammad and the people of Muḥammad. He is the Chief of mankind and Seal of the Prophets. You are on the straight path; so convey clearly that which you are commanded and turn away from the ignorant ones. They ask: ‘Why was not it sent down on some great personage of the two large towns? They ask: ‘Whence have you obtained this? This is a plan that you have devised in the town and other people have helped you in it.’ They look at you but do not see you. O people! Know well that the earth was dead and Allah is reviving it afresh. Allah is for one who is for Allah. Allah is with those who are righteous and those who do good. They have said: ‘This is but imposture.’ Say: If I have invented it, this heavy burden is on me.

You have a position of high rank and trust with Us this day. My mercy is on you in the world and in matters of faith and you are of those who are helped. Allah praises you from His Throne. Allah praises you and is walking towards you. Hearken, the help of Allah is near. A jewel like you is not wasted. Good tidings for you My Ahmad. You are My purpose and are with Me. I am your Helper. I am your Guardian. I will make you leader of men. Is it a matter of wonder for people? Say: Allah is Wonderful. He chooses whom He wills from among His servants. He is not called to account for what He does and these others are called to account. These are days that We revolve among the people. They say: ‘This is certainly an imposture.’ When Allah helps a believer He creates those in the earth who are envious of him. Say: Allah has sent down this revelation; and then leave them being beguiled by their sport. No one can comprehend the mysteries of the friends of Allah. Deal kindly with people and have mercy on them.

You are among them in the position of Mūsā [Moses]. Then be steadfast against whatever they say and leave up to Me the punishment of those who reject from among those who were favoured. You are from Our water and they are from fashal.\textsuperscript{402} When it is said to them: Believe as the good people have believed, they retort: ‘Shall we believe as the ignorant and foolish ones have believed?’ Take note, they are the foolish ones but they know it not. Say: If you love Allah, then follow me, Allah will then love you. It was said: Turn towards Allah; but you do not turn. And it was said: Overcome your doubts: but you overcome them not. All praise is to Allah, Who has made you Messiah, son of Mary. There is mischief here, then be steadfast like those of high resolve. Ruined are the two hands of Abū Lahab and ruined is he. It was not for him to jump into this affair except with fear. Whatever afflicts you is from Allah. It is a trial from Allah so that He should love you with a great love... Love from Allah, the Almighty, the Noble; a bounty unlimited. It is a time of trial and a time of distinction. The time of torment will not be turned away from the guilty people. O the Community of this appointed one, slacken not and grieve not, you will be on top if you are believers. It might be that you like something and it might prove harmful for you, and it might be that you dislike something and it might prove good for you. Allah knows all and you do not know.

I was a hidden treasure and I desired to be known. The heavens and the earth were a solid mass and We split them asunder. They are given to mock you, saying: ‘Is this the one who has been raised by Allah?’ Say: I am but a human being like you. It is revealed to me that your God is One God and that all good is contained in the Qur’an. I have spent a whole lifetime among you before this; are you not well informed of my affairs? They say: ‘This is but imposture.’ Say: The guidance of Allah is the true guidance, without any error, and take note, it is the party of Allah who will triumph.

We have bestowed upon you a clear victory so that Allah might suppress all your past and future sins. Is Allah not sufficient for His creatures? Allah cleared him of all their allegations and he has a high standing with Allah. Allah will render their plan ineffective. And We shall make him a Sign for the people and an example of Our mercy... That was a matter decreed. This is the word of truth, which people doubt.

Mercy flows from your lips, O Aḥmad. We have bestowed abundance of verities, points of wisdom, and blessings upon you, and have granted you a pious progeny; then supplicate your Lord and offer sacrifice. He who talks ill of you is deprived of blessings, that is, God will leave no trace of him and he will die frustrated.\(^\text{403}\) The moon of the Prophets will come and you will achieve your objective. On that day the truth will arrive and truthfulness will be demonstrated and the loss of the losers will be obvious.

Observe Prayer for My remembrance. You are with Me and I am with you; your secret is My secret. We have removed from you the burden, which had well-nigh broken your back and have exalted your name. They frighten you with those beside God; they are the leaders of disbelief. Be not afraid, you will be on top. I have planted for you the trees of My mercy and My power with My own hand. Allah will never let it happen that the disbelievers should be able to blame the believers. Allah will help you in diverse places.

Allah has decreed from eternity that: I and My messengers shall prevail. No one can change His words. Allah is He Who has made you the Messiah, son of Mary. Say: This is the grace of God and I do not desire any titles. O ‘Īsā! I shall cause you to die and shall raise you towards Me and shall place those who follow

\(^\text{403}\) The revelation [The line of your enemy shall be cut off] was conveyed to my humble self from Allah the Almighty when Sa‘dullāh, a convert to Islam from Hinduism, sent me a poem full of vile abuse. This progeny of the Hindus used such words concerning me as cannot be used unless he was vicious by nature and had a corrupt heart. I received the revelation when I read his announcement and pamphlet. If the revelation concerning this vile person is not fulfilled and he does not die frustrated, humiliated, and disgraced, then it might be concluded that I am not from God.

you above those who deny you till the Day of Judgment. Allah has looked at you fragrantly. People said: ‘O God! Will you appoint such a trouble-maker as vicegerent?’ God said: I know that which you do not know. People said: ‘This is a book full of disbelief and falsehood.’ Say to them: Come, let us gather together with our and your sons, women, and people, and then let us pray fervently and call down the curse of Allah upon the liars. Peace be on Ibrāhīm (that is, my humble self). We gave him Our hearty friendship and delivered him from sorrow. This pertained only to Us, and We did it. O Dāwūd [David], treat people kindly and benevolently. You will die in a condition that I am pleased with you. Allah will safeguard you against the mischief of people. They gave the lie to My Signs and mocked at them.

So Allah will suffice you against them and will bring her back to you. This is Our decree and We are determined to enforce it. After returning, We married her. This Commandment is from your Lord, then be not of the doubters. There is no changing the words of Allah. Your Lord surely carries out that which He determines. He shall bring her back to you. On that day the earth will change into another earth. When the trumpet is blown there will be no relationship left between them. God grants them respite till a specified term which is near. The moon of the Prophets will come and all of your affair will be achieved. This is a hard day. Today I have addressed Myself to making the judgment. We shall bring her back to you. If she should seek refuge with you then give her refuge and be not afraid; We shall restore her to her previous quality. We have granted you a clear victory.
O Nūḥ [Noah]! Keep your dream secret. People asked: ‘When will this promise be fulfilled?’ Say: Allah's promise is true promise. You are with me and I am with you, and this verity is known only to those who are rightly guided. Despair not of Allah's mercy. Look at Yūsuf [Joseph] and his glory. Allah has taken note of his, that is Ātham’s, grief and therefore He has postponed the chastisement. This is the way of Allah and you will not find a change in the way of Allah. Do not be surprised and do not grieve. You will be on top if you remain steadfast in faith. By My honour and My glory you will surely be on top. We shall break the enemies into bits and their plan will come to naught. We shall lay bare the secret and on that day the believers will be happy, a group from among the earlier ones and a group from among the later ones. This is a reminder and let him who wishes, adopt the way to his Lord. The Christians have changed the reality and We shall bring back humiliation and defeat upon them. Ātham will be thrown into the exterminating fire. We give you good tidings of a gentle son, who will be a manifestation of truth and exaltation as if Allah had descended from heaven. His name is Emmanuel, which means God is with us. A son will be granted to you and grace of God will come close to you. My light is near. Proclaim: I seek the protection of the Lord from the mischievous creation. He is a lifeless calf from which proceeds a meaningless sound; (this refers to Lekhrām); for him is pain and torment, that is, in this very world.
Revelation in Persian and Urdu:

Persian] [Tread joyfully that your time has arrived and the feet of the Muslims have been planted firmly on a high tower]. [Urdu] God will set all your affairs right and will bestow on you all that you desire. I shall manifest My flash and shall raise you with My power and shall spread your blessings till kings shall seek blessings from your garments. A Warner came into the world and the world accepted him not but God shall accept him and will demonstrate his truth with powerful assaults 404.

It has been put in my mind that I should write this letter 405 in Arabic and translate it into Persian and should, thus, take its readers through the real meadows and should propagate the message in the Islamic tongues so that this propagation should reach the point of perfection for seekers after truth.

October 1, 1896

Yesterday I received one hundred rupees sent by your dear self. It is a divine wonder that nearly seven hours before the arrival of this amount, God, the Lord of Honour and Glory, had informed me of it. It is enough of a recompense for you for this service of yours that God Almighty is pleased with you. Once His pleasure is won it matters not if the world goes to pieces. I have received such a vision and revelation concerning you twice. [So Allah be praised, Allah be praised.]

410 [Arabic] It is indeed you who have appeared (as Jesus) in the mantles of spiritual manifestation. This is the true promise which has remained a hidden secret. December 21, 1896

A paper written by me on the qualities and miracles of the Holy Qur’an will be read in the Great Conference of Religions to be held in Lahore Town Hall on December 26, 27, and 28, 1896. This paper is above the reach of human faculties and is a divine Sign having been prepared with His special support…. God the All Knowing, has informed me by revelation that this paper will tower above all others. It contains such light of truth, wisdom and insight as shall confound the followers of other faiths who might be present and listen to it from beginning to end. They will not be able to match its qualities from their own books whether they are Christians, Āryas, Sanātan Dharmists or any others, for God has decreed that the light of His Holy Book be manifested that day.

I saw in a vision that a hand from the unseen touched my palace and immediately there burst forth a bright light which spread all round. My hands were also lit up by it. Then someone who was standing next to me called out:

\[\text{Allāh al-\'ākhirī, ḥārisat Khaibar.}\]

The interpretation is that by the palace is meant my heart which is the place of descent and manifestations of lights and those lights are the learning contained in the Holy Qur’an. By Khaibar are meant all other religions which have been corrupted and which have got mixed up with paganism and falsehood and wherein man is deified or divine attributes are degraded from their perfect station. Thus I was informed that by the wide publication of this paper the falsehood of false creeds will become patent and the truth of the Holy Qur’an will begin to spread through the earth till it spreads all-around.

Then my mind moved from a vision towards the reception of revelation and the revelation came:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَكَ. إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُفْصِلُ مَا يَشَاءُ.

That is [Arabic] Allah is with you. Allah takes His stand wherever you stand.

This is a metaphor for the expression of divine support.

This revelation was widely published in an announcement of December 21 and within a couple of days all and sundry had been informed that my paper will be acclaimed above all others, and so it happened. In the Conference itself, representatives of other faiths came to the platform and testified to that effect. The Civil and Military Gazette, the Punjab Observer* and several other papers wrote emphatically that my paper was the best of all.

Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: Secretary of the Conference Dhanpat Rāi, B.A., L.L.B. Pleader Chief Court Punjab writes in the report of the Conference of Great religions (Dharam Mahotsū):

There was a break of half an hour after Pandit Gordhan Dās’s speech, but since a speech was to be delivered after the break by a well-known advocate of Islam, most of the audience remained in their seats. Well before 1:30 the spacious building of Islamia College started getting filled up quickly and it was full in just a few minutes. There was a crowd of about seven to eight thousand. Several respected and scholarly men of different religions, communities and societies were present. Even though chairs, tables and room were provided, hundreds of men could not do anything but stand. And among the admirers standing were Chiefs, respected leaders of Punjab, accomplished scholars—barristers, lawyers, professors, extra assistants and doctors. In short, all kinds of men from various branches of high society were present there. The extent to which these
When I completed writing the paper, it was revealed to me from Allah the Almighty:

[Urdu] The paper has been declared supreme.

I have on several occasions met in vision, in a state of complete wakefulness, some persons who had been dead. I saw that the bodies of some of the evildoers and the erring ones were so black as if they had been compounded of smoke.

I was delighted a few days ago to receive the cheering revelation from God Almighty:

respected people had sympathies with this noble cause was apparent from the fact that these people gathered like this and then stood, at that time, for four to five hours with patience and forbearance... Even though the committee had assigned only two hours for this essay, the participants of the conference generally developed such interest in it that the moderators allowed, with pleasure and fervour, the proceedings of the conference to continue until this essay was finished. This decision of theirs was exactly in line with the wishes of the organizers and participants of the conference; because the participants and the moderators thanked Maulavi Abu Yusuf Mubarak ‘Ali with a loud applause when, after the elapsing of the assigned time, he gave his time to this essay as well… The essay was finished in about four hours and carried a sustained interest and popularity from the beginning to the end.

Translation: [Arabic] I shall come to you suddenly with My hosts.
This appears to be an indication of some great Sign.

January 1, 1897

(A) My Lord has cheered me with the news of a fourth son by His mercy, saying that: 414

Thereafter in a vision between waking and sleeping I was again shown a visible representation of this event. The spirit of the fourth son moved within me in the vision and called his brothers saying:

I imagine that he indicated a complete year or some other term which is known to the Lord of the worlds.

(B) The same boy 416 spoke to me before his birth on January 1, 1897 by way of a revelation addressing his brothers and said: There is a term of one day between you and me.

[Tirīyāqīl-Qulūb, p. 41, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 15, p. 217]

(C) According to the revelation received by me after my mubāhālah [with ‘Abdul-Ḥaqq], God bestowed a son upon me by whose birth the number of my sons from my second wife became three. Not only this, but I received repeated

415 [Arabic] There is a term of one day between you and me appointed by God. [Publishers]

416 That is, Mubārak Aḥmad, the fourth son. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] revelations regarding the birth of a fourth son. I wish to assure ‘Abdul-Ḥaqq that he will not die till after he learns of the fulfilment of this revelation. Now if he has any pretentions let him pray that this prophecy might be averted.

God Almighty… has indicated to me concerning a son whose name is Mubārak Aḥmad that ‘Abdul-Ḥaqq will not die till after that son is born…. Another name of this boy on the basis of a dream is Daulat Aḥmad.

I am anxious every moment that the Christians and we should somehow come to a settlement. My heart is rent asunder because of the mischief caused by the worship of a dead man.… I would have expired long ago under the burden of this grief had not my Lord, the Strong and Powerful, comforted me with the assurance that in the end God’s Unity will be victorious. Other gods will be destroyed and false gods will be cut off from their godheads. The worship of Mary will die off and the death of her son will now be definitely established. God the Almighty says: If I were to will so, I would cause Mary and her son Jesus and all that are on the earth to perish. He has now determined to put an end to the wrongful worship

417 To affirm my truth and to falsify all my opponents, and to warn ‘Abdul-Ḥaqq Ghaznavī, God Almighty fulfilled the prophecy concerning the birth of a fourth son on Wednesday June 14, 1899, that is to say, the blessed fourth son was born on that day.

of both. So now both of them will die and no one will be able to save them. All those evil faculties which were prone to accept false gods will also perish. There will be a new earth and a new heaven. The days are approaching when the sun of truth will rise from the West and Europe will recognise the True God. Thereafter the door of repentance will be closed, for those who wish to enter will have entered eagerly and only those will remain outside whose hearts are by nature sealed, and who are in love, not with light, but with darkness.

The time is near when all religions will perish except Islam. All weapons will be broken except the heavenly weapon of Islam for it will neither be broken nor will it be blunted till it has broken all Antichrist tendencies to bits. The time is near that the true Unity of God, which is perceived within their nature even by those who dwell in the desert or are completely unaware of any teaching, will spread through all regions. On that day there will remain no artificial atonement nor an artificial god. A single stroke of God will frustrate all the plans of disbelief, not by any sword, nor by any gun, but by bestowing light on eager souls and by illumining the pure hearts. Then will there be an understanding of all that which I say.

February 1, 1897

During the pre-natal stage of my daughter, Mubārakah, there was some concern because of miscalculation [of the expected delivery date]. The anxiety mounted and there was concern that there might be an undiagnosed health problem. I prayed in the court of Allah the Almighty and was granted the revelation:
The day of deliverance is coming soon.

It was conveyed to me that a daughter would be born. Accordingly, a daughter was born on Ramaḍān 27, 1314 AH and was named Mubārakah.

During my wife's pregnancy, God Almighty gave me the glad tiding of the birth of a daughter and said concerning her:

That is She will be brought up among ornaments.

This was an indication that she would not die young, nor would she experience privation.

Thereafter a daughter was born, who was named Mubārakah Begum.

February 1897

(A) One Shia gentleman who called himself by the title of Sheikh Najafī arrived some time ago in Lahore and raised a storm of opposition and demanded a Sign from me. I promised him in my announcement of February 1, 1897, that within forty days God Almighty would show him some Sign. It is a bounty of God that before the expiry of forty days the Sign of the death of Lekhrām Peshāwarī was fulfilled. Thereupon, Sheikh Najafī made haste to disappear from Lahore.
(B) Ḥaḍrat [Ḥājī Sheik Muḥammad Raḍā Ṭehrānī, Najafī, alias] Sheikhu'll-Islām [who is a Shia] promised in his letter that he was ready to show a Sign within forty minutes. Well then let him announce a prophecy and we shall give him, not forty minutes, but forty hours. Thereafter if no Sign appears on our side within forty days and he shows a Sign within forty hours, or, indeed within forty days, we shall believe in his spiritual eminence and we shall give up our own claim. But if within the period specified a Sign appears on my side and none appears from his side, this would be the proof of my righteousness and of his falsehood.

February 1897

On one occasion I saw [a vision] about the same Lekhrām that there was a spear the head of which shone brightly.

418 Shiekh Najafī had in his letter promised to show a Sign within forty minutes and in my announcement of February 1, 1897, I promised a Sign within forty days…. It is God’s bounty that after thirty-five days from February 1, 1897, that is to say within forty days, the Sign of the death of Lekhrām Peshāwarī occurred…. Now on our side the Sign has appeared and Najafī’s falsehood has been established. Even so, to make things easier for him, we are quite willing that as he claimed he should ascend to one of the minarets of the Shāhī Masjid [Royal Mosque] in Lahore and throw himself down from it. While Sheikh Najadī [the Satan]* has been granted respite, there would be a sudden end to Shiekh Najafī. If he still does not [come forward to] show his Sign, then: [curse of Allah be on the liars.]

Maulavī Muḥammad Aḥsan Amrohāvīra writes: on Ramaḍān 9, 1314 AH, the Promised Messiahas saw in a dream that his servant Pīrā was at the door calling: Take this letter, it is from Maulavī Sayyed Muḥammad Aḥsan. When the Promised Messiahas took this letter, he found a lot of writing in it, but he noticed only the word (Al ‘Ārif). When he took the letter into the house the full phrase Miskul-‘Ārif became visible. Then he woke up.

Some time ago I had received a revelation:

\[\text{ترجمة ما نقله بنا من يحيى بنت ديني} \]

That is [Arabic] Enlarge your house; people will come to you from very distant lands. Accordingly I have seen this prophecy fulfilled [through the coming of visitors] from Peshawar to Madras. However, the revelation had been repeated, which is an indication that the prophecy will be fulfilled in greater strength and greater numbers. [Allah does whatever He wills and no one can obstruct that which He determines upon.]

1897

Having been informed by God, the All-Knowing and All-Aware, I had disclosed in my announcement of March 12, 1897 that the death of Sir Sayyed Ahmad Khān K.C.S.I. was approaching. I had expressed my regret that I had not had the opportunity of meeting him even once and had invited his attention to the announcement saying that this was the substitute for a meeting. One year after the announcement Sayyed [Aḥmad Khān] died.

1897

I assure you\(^{419}\) that I have been favoured with a revelation in clear words that the Hindus will once more turn to Islam with great eagerness.

March 15, 1897

Just now, while writing this, I have received a revelation, as following:

سلامت بر تو اس مسلمت

Translation: [Persian] Security for you, O man of security\(^{420}\).

\(^{419}\) Refers to Sir Sayyyed Aḥmad Khān. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

(A) Concerning Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain of Batala…. I have been apprised three times that he will turn back from his present position of error and that Allah will open his eyes. [Allah has power to do all that He wills.]

[Sirāj-e-Munīr, p. 78, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 12, p. 80]

(B) It is possible that Muḥammad Ḥusain’s end might be in accord with the verse 421 because some of my dreams support this interpretation.

(C) A vision which has been vouchsafed to me by God Almighty shows that he will believe in the end. I do not know, however, whether his believing will be only like that of Pharaoh422 when he said 423, or

421 I believe that there is no God but He in Whom the children of Israel believe. (sūrah Yūnus, 10:91) [Publishers]

422 Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams4a: The Promised Messiah said: Actually, Muḥammad Ḥusain was an intelligent person but I perceived that from the very start he suffered from a degree of egotism. God Almighty designed to purge him and bring out [his evil] in this manner. There is one of my revelations entered in Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah in which he was named Pharaoh. He was also to say at the end, [I believe that there is no God but He in whom the children of Israel believe]. For him also the time for: 423 [I believe in Him in whom...] is fixed.

The Promised Messiah4a was asked: To what would this good fortune be due? He answered: This is known to Allah alone; but he wrote a good review of Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah and wrote it very sincerely. He was so devoted to me at the time that he would dust my shoes and put them in front of me and on one occasion he took me to his house so that it might be blessed. On another occasion he insisted upon pouring out the water while I made ablutions. In short, he used to express great sincerity. On several occasions he expressed the wish that he should come and settle in Qadian, but each time I told him that the time was whether he will believe like the righteous. [Allah knows best].

He had a private interview with me and requested me to make a particular supplication for the Sultan of Turkey and also desired to know what was destined for him for future in the heavenly decree. I told him in very clear words that: the government of the Sultan was not in a good position and that through my vision I did not find his advisors in a good position either; and added my belief that in view of this the end would not be good.

427 Husain Kāmī, vice-consul of Turkey, who came to Qadian and met the Promised Messiah in 1897. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

428 About two or three months ago I had learnt from a respectable Turkish gentleman that the said Husain Kāmī had been dismissed from his office on account of an offence and that his property had been confiscated. I did not publish this, considering that it was a statement of one individual and that he might be mistaken. Today I have learnt in detail from the issue of October 22, 1899 of Nayyar Ashafi of Madras that the prophecy I had made concerning Husain Kāmī has been clearly fulfilled. He disregarded the admonition I made to him in privacy: Repent so that you might receive a good reward. I had also published it in the Announcement of May 24, 1897. He arrived at an evil end because he disregarded it. I am sure he now recalls that admonition… I set out below the letter … printed in Nayyar Ashafi.
Unfortunately for the vice-consul, he resented my telling him this. I emphasised it in several ways that the Turkish Government was in default in the estimation of God in many respects and that God desires true righteousness, purity and sympathy with human beings. The present condition of Turkey calls for a complete demolition. Repent so that you might receive a good reward.

I feel that he resented all this, which was again evidence that the Letter from Constantinople:

It seems that the amount which the Muslims of India had collected during the last two years for the immigrants of Crete and for the wounded of the forces in Greece and which had been paid to the Turkish vice-consul in India, has not been remitted in its entirety to Constantinople. The reason for this belief is that Ḥusain Bek Kāmī, Turkish vice-consul in Karachi, had received about 1600 rupees from Maulavī Inshā’Allah editor Vakīl Amritsar and Maulavī Maḥbūb Ālam editor Paisa Akhbar Lahore, which they had collected from various places, but he embezzled the whole of it and did not remit a penny to Constantinople. God be thanked, however, that when Salīm Pāsha, member of the relief committee got to know of it, he worked diligently for the recovery of the amount and finally succeeded in recovering it through a sale of the property of Ḥusain Bek Kāmī. He also reported the fact of this embezzlement to the Higher officials which resulted in the dismissal of Ḥusain Bek Kāmī from his post. …

Ḥāfiz ʿAbdur-Raḥmān Hindī of Amritsar, Sikka Jadīdah, Vakālah Şāleḥ Effendi, Cairo, Egypt.

429 In that statement [which I told the vice-consul] there were two prophesies; (1) Your conduct, as a nation, is not good and you lack the noble attributes of honesty and integrity; and (2) If you do not reform personally you will fare ill and will come to a bad end. I had added in my announcement: It would have been better if he had not visited me. It was most unfortunate for him that he spoke ill of me after he had left me. That is why he resented my admonition and reviled me.

See also Tiryāqul-Qulūb, p. 118, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, vol. 15, p. 409]
Turkish Government was not in a good state. His going back speaking ill of me is further evidence of the coming decline. I also explained my claim of being the Promised Messiah and Mahdi to him and told him that I had been raised by God and that it was nonsense to think as the general run of Muslims think that a blood-thirsty Messiah or Mahdi will appear for the renaissance of Islam. I warned him that:

God Almighty has determined that whoever, from among the Muslims, keeps away from me will be cut off, whether he is a King or a commoner.

I imagine that all this was most disagreeable to him but none of it was my own thinking. I told him only that which God had revealed to me….

I again wish to emphasise to the readers that I had no desire to meet the vice-consul…. It was at his insistence that I agreed to receive him in Qadian. But Allah the Glorious, a false utterance concerning Whom amounts to being stained with His curse, knows that He, Who knows the Unseen, had informed me in advance that the vice-consul was, by nature, insincere and so it came out.

I had proposed for a religious purpose and as a token of gratitude to God to submit a book bearing the title ‘Tuḥfah-e-Qa하실iyah’ as a present to the Empress of India. I perceived from a dream, which I saw last night that I might possibly not be successful in this purpose of mine. A revelation also indicates a trial for our Community. But the end is all good and safe.

[Letter dated June 9, 1897, addressed to Seth ‘Abdur-Rahmān of Madras]

I have been deeply concerned to note that the issue of June 15, 1897 of [the newspaper] Chaudhawīn Ṣadī has sought to humiliate, disgrace, and mock me, taking the excuse of the matter of the Sultān of Turkey….. I do not consider that I am called upon to waste my time in refuting whatever has been written, for He who takes account of everything is watching. But it is necessary to mention one interesting aspect of this affair. When the article in Chaudhawīn Ṣadī was read to me, my soul was moved towards supplicating for retribution at the point where this paper states that when an eminent personality had read the announcement (of my humble self) he instantly recited a Persian couplet:

[meaning that ‘When God desires to expose someone, He inclines him towards speaking ill of the righteous.’] I made every effort to counter this movement of my soul and tried that this inclination of mine should be expelled from my mind, but I did not succeed. I, therefore, concluded that this was a direction from God. Then I supplicated concerning the person for whom the word eminent personage has been used in the paper and I know that my supplication has been granted. The terms of the supplication were: Lord, if You know that I am a liar and that I have not been raised by You and that, as stated in the article, I am accursed and rejected by You, and that I am a liar, and that I have no relationship with You nor have You any relationship with me, then I beseech You most humbly to destroy me. But if You know that I have been raised and sent by You and am the Promised Messiah, then do You expose this person.

Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: Allah be praised that this prophecy was fulfilled very magnificently and the eminent personage referred to in Chaudhawīn Ṣadī wrote very humbly and meekly to be forgiven. He wrote:

My lord and master, [peace be on you and the mercy of Allah and His blessings]. A sinner confessing his sin presents himself (through this letter) at the blessed place Qadian and begs for your mercy. You have granted respite to this sinner from July 1, 1897 to July 1, 1898. I hereby confess myself guilty against you in the heavenly Kingdom. (I have perceived that as your supplication was heard so this my humble entreaty has also been heard and that I have been forgiven and acquitted by your holy self)…. At this moment I stand before you as a guilty sinner and ask your forgiveness (I have no hesitation in appearing personally but in view of certain circumstances beg to be excused). It is possible that I might present myself before July 1898.

I am hoping that you might be moved from the Holy Presence of Allah to grant me pardon [He forgot, and We found in him no resolve to disobey]

It is also a legal principle that an offence that has not been committed deliberately is compoundable and forgivable. [Then forgive and thereby bring about an improvement in me for Allah loves the benevolent.] I am your guilty one: who has been referred to in the article as an eminent personage. Should he, however, come to Qadian and repent in public then do forgive him, for You are Merciful and Gracious.

(signature of the eminent personage)

This was the supplication that I made about the personage. I do not know who this eminent personage is—or where he lives nor which religion or people he belongs to—who has proclaimed me as a liar and has prophesied my exposure, nor have I any need to know all this. But his words have hurt me and I have been moved to make this supplication and have begged for a decision from God Almighty between July 1, 1897 and July 1, 1898.

July 1897

In July 1897 when my friend Mirzā Ya‘qūb Baig appeared in the final examination for surgery and I supplicated on his behalf, I received the revelation:

جے کہ اے سہ یو یو ہو رہے ہیں

[Urdu] You have passed.

This meant that he had passed, for in the case of sincere friends who are so close as to reach the point of unification such phrases are sometimes employed….

The Promised Messiah wrote in reply:

May God Almighty forgive the fault of this eminent personage and be pleased with him. I am pleased with him and forgive him.

[From Announcement of November 20, 1897, Majmū‘a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 2, p. 482]

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: This eminent personage was Khwājah Jahāndād Chief of Gakhkhar, resident of District Rawalpindi. (See al-Hakam, volume 47, number 23–24, dated June 21/28, 1943 page 4)
Eventually he passed his examination very well.

July 29, 1897

Last night I saw in a dream that lightning was proceeding towards my house from the West. It was not accompanied by any sound, nor did it cause any damage. Rather, it was proceeding like a bright star slowly towards my house and I was watching it from a distance. When it arrived near, my feeling was that it was lightning but my eyes saw it only as a small star, which had been perceived as lightning by my heart.

Then my mind moved from this vision to the reception of revelation and the revelation came:

It meant that [Arabic] what I saw did not amount to anything except a threatening official process. Nothing more would come out of it.

Thereafter I received the revelation:

Translation: [Arabic] The believers were put to a trial.

432 Referring to his earlier notebook, Ḥaḍrat Mufti Muḥammad Ṣadiq ra has given the date August 21, 1897 as the time of the following four revelations:

Allah knows best.

Moreover, he has cited two more revelations: \((1)\) \((2)\) for the same date. (See Dhikr-e-Ḥabib, 2nd edition, Majlis Anşarullāh, page 221). [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] that is, on account of the case that would be instituted against me, my Community would be tried.

Then I received the revelation:

433 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: The reference is to the murder charge against the Promised Messiah brought about by Martyn Clark. The Promised Messiah writes:

This case started in this manner. A man of the name of ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd was incited by the Christians to make a statement before the District Magistrate of Amritsar that he had been sent by me to murder Dr. Henry Martyn Clark a Christian missionary. Thereupon the District Magistrate Amritsar issued a warrant for my arrest. On August 1, hearing this, my opponents gathered at the Batala and Amritsar station platforms and on the roads leading thereto, to witness my disgrace. But by Allah’s grace it so happened that somehow that warrant miscarried and in the meantime the District Magistrate of Amritsar realised his lack of jurisdiction in the case and sent a telegram, on August 6, to the District Magistrate of Gurdaspur that the execution of the warrant should be stopped. This telegram surprised everyone at Gurdaspur as they had received no intimation of any warrant. When the record was received by the District Magistrate of Gurdaspur he summoned me to his court and treated me with great courtesy, providing me with a chair close to him. The name of this District Magistrate was Captain M. W. Douglas. He was a wise, intelligent and just man and realised immediately that the whole case was false and without foundation, and that is why I have compared him to Pilate at another place, but in his courage and justice he was much better than Pilate. By the further grace of Allah it so happened that ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd himself confessed that he had been put up by the Christians to make his original statement which was entirely false. The District Magistrate, being convinced of the truth of this, wrote a strong order discharging me and congratulated me with a smile.

For a detailed account, see Kitābul-Bariyyah, pages 1–104, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 13, pages 19–122.
These words are addressed to my Community. They purport to say that God does so to demonstrate who strives sincerely in the way of His appointed one, and who is false in his covenant of allegiance. Thus, indeed, it came to pass. One group exerted themselves sincerely and with full sympathy in the matter of this case and the other case which was decided in the court of Mr. Douie, and held back from no kind of sacrifice which was needed and proved their truth through their suffering; and there was another group who took no part in all this, for them the door was closed which was opened for the sincere ones.

Then I received the revelation:

That is [Persian] he alone is true in the sight of Allah who spends the time of trial in love and fidelity.

Thereafter my mind was inspired with a [Persian] couplet which was not verbal revelation but the meaning of which was conveyed to my mind as having been revealed. It was:

That is [Persian] If by chance a lover is put in bondage he kisses the chain which is imposed on account of the beloved.

Thereafter I received the revelation:

[Arabic] Allah will surely distinguish those from among you who strive and He will surely distinguish those who are liars.

[Publishers]
Translation: [Arabic] The All-Powerful God Who made the Qur’an obligatory on you will bring you back, meaning that matters will conclude with safety and farewell. I shall come to you suddenly with My hosts (who are angles). I am the Gracious One. I alone am particularized with Majesty, and the Highness. That is, I alone will prevail.

Then I received the revelation meaning that:

[Urdu] Disagreement among your opponents and the humiliation and disgrace and the reproaches of people upon one who is prone to rivalry.

The final result was conveyed in the revelation:

Meaning [Arabic] Clearance.

Then came the revelation:

Meaning [Arabic] There will be acquittal, but there is something in it.

(This was a reference to the notice that was written after the acquittal that the debate should be conducted without acrimony.)

This was followed by the revelation:

435 Note by Ḫaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsī: This is the rendering of the revelation as published. The Promised Messiah as says: 'The revealed words were much harsher regarding Batālavī; I have given a paraphrase in milder words.' (Kitābul-Bariyyah, Title Page, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, volume 13, page 1)
Meaning [Arabic] My Signs will be lit up and more and more proof in their support will become available.

(So it came to pass. In the case decided by Mr. J. R. Drummond in September 1899, ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd, the accused in that case, confessed over again that his first statement against me had been false.)

And this was followed by a revelation:

لَوَّاهُ تَمْسِيحٍ

That is [Arabic] The standard of victory;

and then came the revelation:

إِنَّمَا أُنْهِرُوا إِلَيْنَا بَعْضُهُمَا بِئِسَانَةٍ لَا تُعْلَنُ لَهُمُ الْخُطَّةُ

That is [Arabic] For Our commandments, Our method is that when We determine upon something We direct it: Be, and it is.

(B) Three months before the institution of the case\(^\text{436}\) I had received the following revelation about this tribulation\(^\text{437}\):

\[\text{Meaning that [Arabic] You and your fellow believers will be tried with inquiry from the}\ \(^\text{436}\) That is, the case of charge of murder against the Promised Messiah\(^\text{88}\) brought by Rev. Martyn Clarke. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] officials, but it will only be an official threatening process, and nothing more. God, who has assigned you to serve the Qur’an, will again bring you back to Qadian. I shall come to help you suddenly with My angels. My help will come to you. I am the Majestic, the High, the Most Gracious.

[Urdu] I shall cause disagreement between your opponents. (This is an indication that in the end ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd, Reverend Gray, and Padre Nūr Dīn would give mutually contradicting statements). The sentence șnāsī kā ‘illāt ʿawrāntaṭ ‘awrāmantī 438 refers to Muḥammad Ḥusain Batālavī and indicates how in the matter of entitlement to a chair, and to diverse types of humiliation in the matter of evidence supporting the false allegation of the Christian priests, he was destined to face insult and humiliation.

And the end result would be:

[Arabic] You will be discharged and declared innocent and My Sign will be lit up.

(C) One part of this revelation was fulfilled when disagreement arose between our opponents, that is to say, between ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd and those who had put him up, when ‘Abdul-Ḥamīd confessed that he had been tutored by them and had made an utterly false statement. … Another part of the revelation was fulfilled in this manner: Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain appeared as a witness on behalf of the Christians against me. He was surprised to see that contrary to his expectations I had been granted great honour. Seeing me so honoured he immediately asked for a chair himself but the District Magistrate rebuked him and told him that he could not be provided a chair. Therefore, it was a divine Sign that what he wished to do to me [humiliation] was inflicted upon himself.

Accordingly, I went to Multan to make my statement and it so happened that the presiding officer forgot to put me on oath and started recording my statement.

Allah the Almighty has addressed my humble self in His revelations and said: [Urdu] You are from Me and I am from you. The heaven and earth are with you as they are with Me. You are from Our water and the others are from dryness and you are to Me as My Uniqueness and you are to Me in a state of communion that is not known to anyone in the creation. 440 Promised Messiah's Note: These revelations of mine have been published in my books—Barahin-e-Ahmadiyyah, A'ina-e-Kamalat-e-Islam, Izaa-e-Auham, Tuhfa-e-Baghdad, etc. I have been publishing them for the last twenty five years.

world. My perfect bounties have been bestowed upon you. Announce to the people: If you love God, then come and follow me, so that God may also love you. [Say] God bears witness to my truth, then why do you not believe? You are in My presence, I have named you Mutawakkil [the one trusting in God]. God praises you from His throne. We praise you and send blessings upon you. People will wish to extinguish this light, but God will bring this light—which is His light—to perfection. We will put awe in their hearts. Our victory shall arrive and the purpose of the age will end with us. On that day it will be said: ‘Was not this the truth?’ I am with you, wherever you may be. The direction of God is in the same way as is your direction. Pledging allegiance to you is the same as pledging it to Me. Your hand is My hand. People will come to you from distant lands and the victory from God will descend upon you. For your sake, people will be granted revelation from God and will assist you. No one can avert the prophecies of God.

O Aḥmad mercy has been made to flow from your lips and your name has been exalted. God will illumine your reasoning. You are brave. If faith had ascended to Pleiades, you would have brought it down from it. Upon you have been bestowed the treasures of God's mercy. The mention of your forefathers will be cut off, and God will begin from you. I determined to appoint a vicegerent, so I created Adam, that is you. [Sanskrit] Āwāhan (God has manifested Himself in you).

[Urdu] God will not forsake you, not abandon you, until he makes a distinction between the pure and the impure. I was a hidden treasure; so, I determined to be recognized. You are a means of establishing relationship between Me and the world. I have breathed my soul into you. You will be helped and there will be no way of escape left for any one. You have come down with the truth and the prophecies of the Prophets have been fulfilled in you. God sent his apostle to strengthen His faith and to make it prevail upon all other faiths. God sent him down near Qadian. He descended with truth and was sent with the truth, and it had been so ordained from eternity. You were on the brink of a pit of fire, God sent him to save you. O My Aḥmad, you are My purpose and are with Me. I have planted the tree of your greatness with My own hand. I shall appoint you as the leader of people. Do people wonder at this? Say: God is Wonderful, He chooses whom He wills and He is not called to account for that which He does. God’s shade will be upon you and He will ever be protecting you. Heaven and earth were both closed; We opened them. You are the ‘Īsā whose time shall not be wasted. A jewel like you cannot be wasted. We shall make you a Sign for people, and this had been determined since eternity. You are with Me. Your secret is My secret. You are honoured and granted nearness in this world and in the Hereafter. On you is the special favour, and you have been exalted over the rest of the world.

[Persian] Tread joyfully, for your time has come and the feet of the Muslims have been placed firmly upon a high tower.

[Urdu] I shall exhibit My flash and shall raise you with My power. A Warner came to the world, but the world accepted him not. But God will accept him and will demonstrate his truthfulness with mighty signs. He has a station where no man can arrive through his own efforts. You are with Me. I have created the night and day for you. You have a relationship with me of which people have no notion. O people, the light of God has come to you, so do not reject it.

[Urdu] I shall bless you and bless you greatly; so much so that kings will seek blessings from your garments.

November 1897

al-Ḥakam reports that:

Ḥuḍūr Ḥujjatul-Islām [The Promised Messiah⁷⁵] saw in a dream that plague had invaded Qadian. But he was given to understand that this would only mean itching. [Mentioning the dream] he said: Qadian will be safeguarded and protected against the disastrous plague, but perhaps itching might spread here.

Based on the above, he came to the conclusion that (a remedy which is likely to induce itching might prove helpful in cases of plague).

(The parenthetical observation is based on reasoning and deliberation; it is not a revealed statement).

December 1897

In these very days\(^{441}\) I have seen in a vision that some of my friends will not be alive at this time next year. I cannot say to whom this vision applies, but I know that I have been shown this vision so that everyone, on their own, should remain ever-prepared for the journey to the hereafter.

Sheikh Ya‘qūb ‘Alī Editor al-Ḥakam writes:
I am aware that during the recent famine my master and Imām [the Promised Messiah], may peace and blessings of Allah be on him, was very concerned about his Jamā‘at that it has several members with large families and most of them are poor, and would find themselves in great difficulties. Thereupon he received the revelation:

(A) My Lord had revealed to me and promised me that He will help me till my message reaches the Easts and Wests of the earth. The oceans of truth will be stirred till the people look with wonder on the bubbles riding upon its waves.

(B) God has revealed to the Promised Messiah⁴⁸:

[Urdu] I shall carry your message to the ends of the earth.

Editor al-Ḥakam reports that:

I now consider that the revelation previously received by me:

might be about the plague.

(B) Prior to this, I have also received a revelation concerning the plague as following:

443 [Arabic] Allah does not bring about a change in the condition of a people until they bring about a change in their own selves. [Publishers]

444 The diary of Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān shows that the date of this revelation is January 14, 1898. (See Aṣḥāb-e-Aḥmad, volume 2, page 525) [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

445 (1) [Arabic] Allah does not bring about a change in the condition of a people until they bring about a change in their own lives. (2) He will give shelter to the town [after it has suffered a little]. (3) (I shall come to you suddenly with My attribute of Raḥmān [the Gracious]) (4) Allah will frustrate the plans of the disbelievers. [Publishers]
This means that till the disease of sinfulness is removed from the hearts, the visible epidemic will not be removed.

[Announcement concerning ‘the Plague’, February 6, 1898, Majmū‘a-e-Ishṭihārāt, vol. 3, p. 5]

This means that God has determined not to remove the affliction of plague until the people remove from their minds the thoughts that surge therein. That is to say, till they accept the commissioned one and Messenger of God. The Almighty God will guard Qadian against the plague so that you should recognise that this was so because the Messenger and Apostle of God lives in Qadian.

February 2, 1898

Two days ago I received the revelation:

[From the letter written by Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karīm February. 4, 1898, al-Ḥakam, vol. 2, no. 2 March 6, 1898, p. 1]

February 6, 1898

(A) Today, Sunday February 6, 1898, I saw in a dream that God’s angels were planting black trees in different parts of

446 This refers to the vision regarding the dark plants of the plague that are mentioned ahead. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

447 [Arabic] The day on which that will come which will cover up everything, on that day everyone will be granted salvation according to his conduct. On that day, We shall recompense everyone according to his conduct. [Publishers] the Punjab. Those trees were very ugly, black in colour, terrifying and of small size. I asked some of those who were planting them: What kind of trees are these? They answered: These are trees of the plague which is about to spread in the country. It remained unclear to me whether it was said that the plague would spread during the coming winter or the winter after, but it was a terrible sight which I saw.

(B) When this prophecy was published on February 6, 1898, only two districts in the Punjab were affected by the plague. But thereafter twenty-three districts were affected by it. In less than ten months, there were 316,000 cases and 218,799 persons died according to figures published by the Government.

February 1898

I have learned through a spiritual means that this disease [the plague] and itching have the same essence and I believe that this is probably true because the remedies for itching all contain mercury or sulphur and it is imagined that such medicines might be helpful in the case of plague also. If the essence of these two disorders is the same it would not be a matter for surprise if inducing the disorder of itching would reduce the chances of being affected by the plague. This is a mystery of the spiritual methods from which I have benefited. If those who are occupied in research could pay attention to it and would take steps to spread the disorder of itching among those who are likely to be victims of the plague, it might be that the germs of plague might thereby be dissolved and the spread of the plague might be checked. But the attention of the Government and physicians is also dependent upon the will of God. I have mentioned this purely out of human sympathy as this idea came to my mind with such force that I could not resist expressing it.

March 25, 1898
I am puzzled by some of the dreams and revelations about myself. Twice I have dreamt as if I have been afflicted by the plague and the swelling has also appeared. Last night I had the same dream and there was also a revelation which indicated some pain or tribulation. The interpreters of dreams have sometimes interpreted plague [if seen in a dream] as meaning plague, sometimes as itching, sometimes as some punishment and trouble from Government officials, and sometimes as other mischief or affliction. I do not know what the interpretation of my dream might be.

1898
When the book Ummahātul-Mu’minīn was published by the Christians, Anjuman-e-Ḥimāyat-e-Islām Lahore, presented a memorial to the Government that the publication of the book should be banned and its author should be prosecuted. I was much opposed to this memorial and had published clearly in my writing that this was not a good way to proceed448. But they did not accept my advice;

448 See Announcement of May 4, 1898, Majmū’a-e-Ishtihārāt, volume 3, page 41. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] indeed, I was reviled for it. At that time I received a revelation:

\text{بَنَّا نَارِيَةُ هِيَ رَحْمَتُ عَلَيْنَا وَرَحْمَتُ عَلَيْيْنِينَ إِلَى الْحَلِیْلِ}

That is, ‘You will soon recall my words…’ This was an indication that the memorial would fail of its purpose and that I commit to God the way that I had adopted, which was to refute the charges of our opponents and to deal with them. This revelation was communicated to a large number of people and it happened accordingly—that is to say, the request made by the Anjuman was turned down.

1898

The title ‘Messiah’ is bestowed upon a righteous person whose touch is blessed by God….It is also applied to the Antichrist through whose evil nature and influence calamities, atheism, and faithlessness would be propagated….This is the connotation that has been conveyed to me by Allah the Almighty.

1898

On one occasion I received the revelation:

\text{يَا مِسِیْحِ الکَشَّفَیَّ عَدْرُوْمَا}^{450}

\[\text{[Arabic]}\text{ You will soon recall my admonition; I commit my cause to Allah. [Publishers]}\]

\[\text{Publishers’ Note: The Promised Messiah as writes about this revelation:}\]

Meaning that [Arabic] O Messiah, who has been sent for the good of mankind, help us to be delivered from the plague.

I consider that ‘Adwas here means the plague.

In Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah wherever the revelation vouchsafed to me relates to spiritual mysteries and insights, I am mentioned by the name of Aḥmad, as for instance, in the revelation:

And where the blessings of the world are referred to I have been called by the name ‘Īsā, as, for instance, in the revelation:

In the same way is the revelation:

[Urdu] I shall bless you, so much so that kings shall seek blessings from your garments.

This is the mystery concerning the names of Mahdī and ‘Īsā which has been revealed to me by a divine revelation on Monday, Șafar 13, 1316 AH, July 4, 1898 CE.

God Almighty has revealed to me that there are many who are of my Jamā‘at and have not yet joined it but who are its members within God’s knowledge. I have repeatedly received with reference to them the revelation:

[Arabic] They will fall into prostration, supplicating: Our Lord forgive us, for we were in error.

The next season appears to be the same about which some indications were given in a revelation. The intimation creates apprehension. I advise that in these days the worldly concerns and business should be kept to the minimum. The days will be hard. As far as possible, you should admonish all your brothers. Even if they do not desist, you would have performed your duty….Regularity in performing the Prayers is vital these days. I have been apprised that these days will be days of great calamities and death and affliction for the world….I feel that in this time of severe tribulation of which I have been warned through revelation, all my dear friends should, as far as possible, be in Qadian.

This medicine has been prepared in conformity with revelation.

al-Ḥakam reports that:

After the Fajr Prayer, the Promised Messiah[as] said: ‘I saw in my dream that I took out of my mouth a piece of my molar, which had become rotten. I found that it was very clean and I kept it in my hand.’ Then he added: ‘In a dream if a tooth is thrown away the interpretation is fearful, otherwise it is a glad tiding.’

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 2, no. 22 and 23, August 6 and 13, 1898, p. 16]

When, based on a motion initiated by my opponents, the government moved to have me assessed to income tax and I filed an objection, I was overcome with a state of vision, while I was sitting in the small mosque with some friends and we were busy compiling a statement of income and

454 Refers to Tiryāq-e-Ilāhi [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] expenditure. I was shown that the Hindū Taḥşīlândar⁴⁵⁵ of Batala, before whom the matter was pending, had been transferred and his place was taken by a Muslim. Along with this vision there were some indications that presaged my victory. I related this vision immediately to those present—one of whom was Khwājah Jamāl-ud-Dīn, Inspector of Schools, Jammu and Kashmir, and there were many others. Thereafter the Hindū Taḥşīlārd was suddenly transferred and his place was taken by Miyān Tāj-ud-Dīn as Taḥşīlārd of Batala. He made an honest inquiry and sent his report to Mr. Dixon, Deputy Commissioner Gurdāspur. By a happy co-incidence, he too was an intelligent and just official. He recorded an order to the effect that: Mirzā Ghulām Aḥmad is the head of a well-known sect and I do not have any doubt about his integrity... He accepted my objection and exempted me from any tax and closed the file of the case.⁴⁵⁶

I had, by nature, a retiring disposition and did not take happily to meeting people, which bore heavily on me. My father was disappointed in me because of this and considered that I was like a guest in the house requiring only board and lodging and realized that I preferred to be left alone and was not happy in the company of people. He admonished me sharply over this and counselled me, day and night, openly and in secret, to try to make material progress and directed my attention to worldly attractions, but I was being drawn very strongly towards God. My brother was like my father in these matters and he also treated me in the same way. Allah the Almighty caused both of them to die, and did not prolong their lives and He revealed to me that:

I was made to understand the meaning that someone, on achieving his purpose, would send a large portion of his wealth as an offering. I noted this revelation in my diary and had it written out and posted in beautiful calligraphy on the wall of the mosque close to my home. There is no indication in the revelation of the period in which this

Therefore the revelation means: [Arabic] He gave away, he gave away, he gave away to him, all at once, a major portion out of his wealth. [Mirzā Bashīr Āḥmad] would happen, nor of any particular person who would achieve such success and express such delight.

September 26, 1898

Last night I saw that I drank a large cup of sherbet of the utmost sweetness which I could scarcely endure. Nevertheless, I went on drinking it despite the feeling that I was inclined towards diabetes and should not drink anything so sweet in such abundance. Yet I finished the whole of it.

Sherbet means success and this was an indication of the success of Islam and my Jamā‘at.

I am the spiritual leader of the age and God is my support. He stands for me like a sharp sword. I have been informed that: Whoever opposes me out of wickedness will be humiliated and frustrated.

Bear witness that I have conveyed to you that with which I am charged.

God has…informed me repeatedly through revelation that: In this age no one’s insight about God, nor anyone’s love of God, comes up to my insight of God and my love of God.

_al-Ḥakam_ reports that:

In the morning after _Fajr_ prayer, the Promised Messiah as said: Last night I lied down after _Tahajjud_ and, in a light slumber, I saw that I had four leaves of _Surmah Chashm-e-Āryah_ in my hand and someone said: the Āryas themselves are now publishing this book.

October 14, 1898

On October 14, 1898, in his Friday sermon Maulavī ‘Abdul-Karīm said that those who had disbelieved from among the Banī Israel were cursed by God by the tongue of David as and Jesus son of Mary. This was because they exceeded the limits of transgression and disobedience. They had given up forbidding evil and enjoining good. The great and the small among them had all been reconciled to each other’s misdeeds. That is why they were cursed by the tongue of David as and Jesus as ….Now again the time has come for the dry trees to become green once more. The grace of God Almighty is descending like rain. The spiritual leader of the age has appeared with the title ‘Son of Mary.’ He has also been called David. It is necessary, therefore, for people to beware lest those, who strive against him an unholy striving and turn away from him, should be subjected to the curse which issued from the mouths of Dāwūd as [David], and Masīḥ Ibn-e-Maryam as [Messiah son of Mary].

When Maulānā [‘Abdul-Karīm ra] uttered the underlined words the Promised Messiah as received the revelation:
November 4, 1898

Today, November 4, 1898, I saw in a dream that someone sent me some money. I was very glad and was sure that fifty rupees would arrive today; accordingly fifty rupees were received from you today, November 4, 1898. [Allah be praised and may He reward you]. It seems that this offering of yours is acceptable to God.

[From Letters to Dr. Khalilfah Rashid-ud-Din, letter dated November 4, 1898, Friday]

Some days back I had seen in a dream something that portended an affliction and sorrow for you [Navvb Muhammed Ali Khan of Maler Kotlah]. Such dreams and revelations are normally not disclosed, but I was afraid. Now it has been manifested in this manner. This was an inevitable decree which has been fulfilled.

(A) Revelation [concerning] Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān:

463 The inscriptions of both these revelations have these two names written in front of them respectively. As the first Revelation is concerning Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān, the second revelation seems to be about Maulavī Muḥammad ‘Alī. Allah knows best. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri] [Urdu] May God forgive me my sin also.

(B) Previous Monday night, about 3 a.m. I received a revelation concerning you [Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān of Maler Kotlah], which is:

قِلَّا لِيِّمَانِي السَّبِيلَةِ، وَلَمْ تَكُنْ مَطْرُورًا

These are the words of Allah the Glorious. He is addressing you saying that after experiencing this calamity, from which greater calamity will you draw a lesson.

November 21, 1898

Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain of Batala… has left no stone unturned in bringing me into contempt and humiliating me and reviling me…. Some of my friends had suggested to him with great gentleness and courtesy that… he might settle with me by way of mubāhalah for if a matter cannot be settled in any other way, the last resort is the Judgment of God which is called mubāhalah. It was also said that from our side the term of the mubāhalah would be one year; and this term has been set on the basis of a revelation…. Instead of accepting this in good faith, Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain … prepared a filthy announcement full of abuse and had it published in the names of Muḥammad Bakhsh Ja‘far Zatallī and Abul-Ḥasan Tibbetī.

At this time, this announcement is before me and I have supplicated God Almighty that He should Himself decide between Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain and me. My supplication was the following:

My Lord of Glory, if I am in Your estimation so base and such a liar and impostor as Muḥammad Ḥusain of Batala has repeatedly declared in his Journal Ishāʿatuṣ-Sunnah, calling me a liar, Antichrist, impostor and as he and Muḥammad Bakhsh Jaʿfar Zatallī and Abul-Ḥasan Tibbetī have tried their utmost to humiliate me in their announcement of November 10, 1898, then, my Lord, if in Your estimation I am as they have represented me, do You abase and humiliate me within thirteen months, that is to say, between December 15, 1898 and January 15, 1900 and proclaim the honour and high-standing of these people and thus put an end to this daily squabble. If on the other hand, my Lord and my Master, my Bountiful One, the Bestower of all those bounties which are within Your knowledge and my knowledge, I have a position of honour in Your presence, then I humbly beseech You, that within the said thirteen months, which will be counted from December 15, 1898 to January 15, 1900, do You humiliate in the eyes of the world the said Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain, Muḥammad Bakhsh Jaʿfar Zatallī and Abul-Ḥasan Tibbetī who have published this announcement in order to humiliate me. (The period of thirteen months was determined under revelation, namely one month has been added to a year.)

In short, if these people are truthful and pious and righteous in Your estimation and I am a liar and impostor, then do You bring about my humiliation and ruin within these thirteen months, but if in Your presence I have standing and honour, then do You manifest this Sign that all three might be abased, humiliated, and worthy of being named as * Those who have been humiliated* [Those who have been humiliated] Āmīn, again, Āmīn.

This was the supplication I made and in answer to it I received the revelation:
[Urdu] I shall humiliate and disgrace the unjust one and he will bite his hands.464

(By biting his hands it is meant that the unjust one, who was not in the right, wrote an unfair statement. He will be ashamed of his hands and will regret that they were employed in such a thing.)

I also received some revelations in Arabic, which are given below:

464 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Bashīr Aḥmadra: The revelation also included the Urdu sentence [He will bite his hands] and so it happened. With one threat from the Magistrate, Muḥammad Ḥusain made a lasting pledge that he would never call the Promised Messiah by the names infidel, Antichrist, and liar, even though he had written in his magazine Ishā’atus-Sunnah that he would continue to do so till the end of his life. The same happened to Abul-Ḥasan Tibbi and Ja’far Zatallī. Their pens were so broken that their name was not heard again. (For details, see Announcement of December 17, 1899, Majmū’a-e-Ishṭiḥārāt, volume 3, pages 214–217)

465 [Arabic] Those who obstruct people from the way of Allah will be subjected to the wrath of their Lord. Allah’s stroke is much severer than the stroke of men. Our method is that when We determine a matter, We direct it: Be; and it is. Do you wonder at My command? I am with those who love Me. I am the Gracious, the Majestic and the High. The unjust one will bite his hands. He will be thrown before Me. The recompense of evil is a penalty proportionate thereto. They will be humiliated; no one can save them from Allah. Be steadfast until Allah’s decree is issued. Allah is with those who are righteous and with those who do good.
This is the Judgment of God. Its purport is that of the two sides mentioned in the announcement, that is to say myself on one side and Sheikh Muḥammad Ḥusain, Jaʿfar Zatalli and Maulavī Abul-Ḥasan Tibbeti on the other, both being under the command of Allah, the one who is a liar will be humiliated. As this Judgment will be on the basis of revelation it will be a clear Sign for the seekers after truth and will open the way of guidance for them....

The summary of this revelation is that those who are reviling a truthful one in order to humiliate him and are devising projects to that end will be humiliated by God. The term is thirteen months from December 15, 1898 as has already been mentioned and the period till December 14, 1898 is a respite for repentance and turning to God. The end.

466 In the announcement of November 21, 1898... the following revelation was set forth for the unjust and lying party:

[Arabic] The recompense of evil is a penalty in proportion thereto and they will be humiliated.

That is to say that the unjust one will be afflicted with a penalty, the like of the evil that he did to the other side. Today that prophecy has been completely fulfilled. Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain had reviled me and humiliated me, he called me a disbeliever, Antichrist, liar and a perverter and had an edict prepared on those lines against me by the maulavī of Punjab and India. On that basis he persuaded Muḥammad Bakhsh Jaʿfar Zatalli and others of Lahore to calumniate me and the members of my family. So now a similar edict has been issued against Muḥammad Ḥusain himself by the maulavīs of Punjab and India including his own master and teacher Nadhīr Ḥusain. They have stated that he is a liar, Antichrist, impostor, disbeliever, innovator, and that he is outside the pale of Ahl-e-Sunnat and indeed outside the pale of Islam.

This morning I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Almighty is He. He sets right a ruined project and breaks up a running one. None has access to His secret.

The Promised Messiah⁴⁶⁷ said: Last night I received the revelation:

Then he said: This star is also known as the Bastard Killer, for when it rises certain types of insects are destroyed. Abul-Faḍl has said with reference to it: The Bastard Killer rose as the blessed star.

When Khwājah Jamāl-ud-Dīn, B. A., who is a member of my Jamā‘at, failed in the examination for a judicial appointment, and became a prey to disappointment, despair, and pain, I received a revelation concerning him:

That is [Arabic] God will remove his grief.

⁴⁶⁷ Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: The star Suhail [Canopus] appears in the Arab countries after the rainy season following summer.
Soon thereafter he was appointed in the State of Jammu and Kashmir to a post which he found better than the judicial post. That is, he was promoted as the Inspector of Schools for the entire State of Jammu and Kashmir.

About 1898 468

At one time, the eyes of my son, Bāshīr Aḥmad, gave him great trouble. His eyelashes fell off and water ran constantly from his eyes. Finally, I supplicated on his behalf and received the revelation:

Meaning [Arabic] My boy Bāshīr’s eyes have recovered.

Within a week God Almighty bestowed healing upon him and his eyes were restored to perfect health. Before that we had tried both the Allopathic and Ayurvedic medicine for several years but none of them did any good and the condition of his eyes had gone on deteriorating.

468 According to this date, which is an estimate, Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Aḥmad ʿa was five years old at the time of this revelation. However, he was suffering from eye disease up to the age of seven years. Thus this revelation seems to belong to the year 1900. [JALAL-UD-DIN SHAMS]
February 3, 1899

(A) I saw a dream on the night of Friday, Ramaḍān 21, 1316 AH, when I perceived a great display of spiritual blessings and I imagined that it was Lailatul-Qadr [Night of Decree] and a steady light rain was falling. This dream has reference to those people who constantly try to create doubts concerning me in the circles of our benign government. I saw that someone said to me: If your God is the All-Powerful God, then beseech Him that this stone which you are carrying on your head should turn into a buffalo. I then saw that I had a heavy stone on my head which I sometimes imagined to be a piece of rock and sometimes a piece of wood. On perceiving this, I threw it.

[Arabic] Allah would not chastise them while you are among them. [Publishers]

This is a book on the interpretation of dreams. The copy containing the writings of the Promised Messiah is available in the Khilāfat Library, Rabwah. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

[Arabic] The water was made to subside and the matter was decided. [Publishers] immediately to the ground and then supplicated to the Almighty God that the piece of rock may be turned into a buffalo, and I was completely absorbed in this prayer. Thereafter, when I lifted up my head I saw that the stone had become a buffalo. I looked first of all at its eyes which were very big and bright. Seeing that God had turned a stone, which had no eyes, into a handsome buffalo with big and bright eyes—and it is a useful animal—I was deeply moved and recalling the power of God I immediately fell into prostration and glorified God Almighty in a loud voice in the words:

\[472\text{My Lord is the High, my Lord is the High.}\] [Publishers]

My voice was so loud that I felt it must have carried over a long distance. Then I said to a woman who was standing near me and whose name is Bhāno\[473\], and it was probably she who had asked me to make the supplication: See how Powerful our God is, who has made a stone into a buffalo and has bestowed eyes on it. While I said this to her my heart was once again deeply moved by the thought of God’s power and was again filled with His praise and again I fell into prostration. Every time my heart was moved at the thought: Lord, how great is Your Majesty and how wonderful are Your acts that You have turned a lifeless stone into a buffalo and have bestowed upon it big and bright eyes through which it sees everything. Not only this, but we hope to obtain milk from it too. I was still in

\[472\text{[Arabic] My Lord is the High, my Lord is the High.}\] [Publishers]

\[473\text{Bhāno was a sincere Ahmādī lady who lived in Basrāwān, close to Qadian. She was a frequent visitor of the household of the Promised Messiah.}\] [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] prostration when I woke up. It was about 4 a.m. [Allah be praised for all this].

I interpreted this dream to mean that my ruthless opponents who convey baseless and false tales concerning me to the Government will not succeed in their efforts and that as God Almighty in my dream converted a stone into a buffalo and granted it big and bright eyes, in the same way, He will bestow insight concerning me upon Government officials and they will reach the correct conclusion. These are God’s doings and appear strange in the eyes of people.

(B) The appearance for the criminal case is now fixed for February 14, 1889. So far it seems that the magistrate is not well disposed towards me. On Friday night I saw in a dream that by virtue of my supplication a stone or a piece of wood was turned into a buffalo. Perceiving that a great Sign had appeared I fell into prostration and glorified Allah in a loud voice repeating:

474 It appears that this dream relates to the case.* The stone or piece of wood represents the magistrate who might be seeking [to do me] harm and whose eyes are closed. The interpretation of his becoming a buffalo having big eyes seems to be that suddenly something might arise which would open his eyes.

* i.e. Case filed by the police against the Promised Messiah in the court of Mr. Douie, Deputy Commissioner, Gurdaspur. [Publishers]

475 The interpretation of falling into prostration in the dream also is victory over an enemy.

I imagined that the interpretation is that the piece of wood or stone represents the harsh, hypocritical magistrate and his turning into a buffalo through my supplication might be an indication that it has been turned into something useful from which milk might be expected. If my interpretation is correct there is strong hope that the case will take a good turn in my favour. The interpretation of falling into prostration in a dream is given as victory over an enemy. There are other revelations also with the same indications. It is possible that this dream might be manifested on some other occasion. In any case, it is good for us whatever may be its application.

A criminal case was made up by the police against me in the court of Mr. Douie, Deputy Commissioner, Gurdaspur with the intent of having me punished. About it, God Almighty informed me that the perpetrators of this effort will be frustrated, and so it happened. I received a revelation in this context

إِنَّا نَفَقَتْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ السَّمَائَ عَلَى كِمْبَةٍ

That is [Arabic] We fought with the sword and as a consequence the enemy was totally destroyed and his resources were also cut off.

The enemy here refers to a Deputy Inspector [of Police] who had charged me falsely out of enmity. In the end, he died of the plague.

476 [Arabic] My Lord is High, my Lord is High. [Publishers]
The revelations that I received thereafter reinforce the dream that I had seen and I set them out below so that when they are fulfilled people’s faith might be strengthened….These revelations supporting that dream are:

That is [Arabic] Allah is with the righteous. You are with the righteous and you are with Me; O Ibrāhīm [Abraham], My help will come to you. I am the Gracious One. O earth, swallow up your water (meaning the false tales and reports that have been spread against me). The water subsided and the decree was fulfilled. You have been granted peace; the Merciful Lord has said so. Separate yourselves, O ye guilty one. We vanquished the enemy and all his resources were cut off. Ruin upon them, how they invent things! The unjust one will bite his hands and will be prevented from his mischief. Allah will be with the virtuous and He has the power to help them. Faces will be

477 That is, the dream of February 3, 1899 mentioned earlier. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

478 The date of this revelation is written as January 18, 1899 by the Promised Massiah as in the footnote of the book, Ta’īrul-Anām. This book is available in Khilāfat Library, Rabwah. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] distorted. This is a Sign of Allah and it is a great victory. You are My name that is higher than all. You are at the station of the loved ones. I have chosen you for Myself. Say: I have been commissioned and I am the first of all the believers.

Concerning the case instituted against me in the court of Mr. Douie, District Magistrate, Gurdaspur, on the report of Munshi Muḥammad Baksh, Deputy Inspector, Batala, … God Almighty informed me, through revelation before the event, that He would safeguard me against the ill designs of my enemies and that their efforts would be frustrated.

It happened accordingly.... Before the case was instituted, God Almighty informed me through revelation that a case of that type would be filed against me. Upon this, I supplicated and, my supplication being accepted, I was discharged from the case. Before the decision of the case I also received the revelation:

تَوَكَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ رَبَّنَا لَا تَبَرَّدْ لَنَا وَلَا تَضْرُبْنَا لَنَا مُؤَاذَيَةً كَبِيرَةً

[Urdu] Your honour and life will remain secure and you will be safeguarded against the attacks of your enemies made with this evil intent.

One day about the time of Ḍuḥar [the noon Prayer], I suddenly received the revelation:

الّذِي نَظَهِّرُكَ إِذَا آرَى

Meaning [Arabic] You will see a painful thigh.
I told him [Sheikh Ḥāmid ‘Alī] of this revelation and I left immediately along with him for the mosque to join in the service. He also got down from the stairs with me. As we descended from the stairs, we saw two young men riding their horses. They were aged about twenty years; one, a little older than the other. They reined in their horses near us and one of them said to me: This other rider is my brother. He has severe pain in his thigh and we have called to enquire about some remedy. I said to Ḥāmid ‘Alī: You be a witness that the revelation has been fulfilled within a few minutes.

March 10, 1899

al-Ḥakam reports that the Promised Messiah as said:

I saw in my dream that Mubārakah479, (may Allah guard her) was saying in Punjabi:

[Paṇḍī] No one can say about me that she came and brought this affliction.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 7, no. 21, June 10, 1903, p. 2]

April 13, 1899

On April 13, 1899, I received the revelation:

That is [Arabic] Wait a short while, I shall soon bestow on you a pure son.

It was Thursday, Dhul-Ḥajj 2, 1316 AH. Along with it I received the revelation:

479 Ḥaḍrat Sayyeda Navvāb Mubārakah Begum [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
That is [Arabic] O my Lord! Grant this my wife security from disease and restore her to health.

This was an indication that the birth of the child might be accompanied by some disorder. I announced this revelation to all my friends who were present in Qadian and Maulavī ‘Abdul-Karīm wrote several letters to our friends informing them of it.

May 19, 1899

That is [Arabic] We know the real matter and We indeed have knowledge. The affair will soon be manifested and We shall break all into little bits.

June 13, 1889

(A) When the day dawned on 13th of June 1899, which was exactly two months after the revelation received on April 13, 1899, the soul of that boy spoke to me under divine direction and I heard his words as revelation:

That is [Arabic] My time has now arrived. I shall fall upon the earth from Allah and from His hands and then shall proceed towards Him.

480 After the birth of the child my wife became ill as was indicated in the revelation. She is still suffering from some of the after effects but has, by the grace of Allah, recovered from the graver symptoms.

481 [Arabic] We know the real matter and We indeed have knowledge. The affair will soon be manifested and We shall break all into little bits. [Publishers]
On the following day June 14, 1899 he was born.

[Biryāq-ul-Qulūb, p. 41, Rūḥānī Khāzā’in, vol. 15, pp. 217]

(B) God had informed me that He would bestow another son upon me and this is the fourth son who has just been born and has been named Mubārak Aḥmad. I was informed of his birth about two years previously and then again two months before his birth. I received the revelation just prior to his birth:

That is [Arabic] I fall upon the earth from the Hand of Allah and shall proceed towards Him.

My own interpretation of this revelation is that this boy will be righteous and will face towards God and will move towards Him or that he will die early. Allah alone knows which of these two interpretations is in accord with His design.

June 1899

Thereafter I received the revelation:

482 The promise for the birth of the fourth son was also given fourteen years before it’s advent. See revelation under year 1885 on page 165. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

483 Sahibzādah Mirzā Mubārak Aḥmad passed away in childhood on September 16, 1907. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

484 Meaning this revelation was after [Arabic] This is enough. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

485 [Arabic] This is enough. [Publishers]

Publishers’ Note: The indication given in this was that the Promised Messiah would not have any male child born to him thereafter.
June 14, 1899
The time of delivery was near for my wife and on June 14, with the first pains, my wife’s condition became serious. Her body temperature dropped and she suffered from extreme weakness. It seemed as if she would faint. I imagined at that time that perhaps she was about to leave the world. The children were all deeply overcome and the women and her mother were almost out of their senses for the crisis had arisen suddenly. Believing that she was at her last breath and yet being certain of God’s power to perform wonders, I supplicated for her health and her condition changed immediately and I received the revelation:

\[\text{تحَلِّيَتُ الْمَوْتُ}

Indicating that [Arabic] We have postponed death and moved it for another time.

Her body temperature rose again and then she regained her full senses and the boy was born who has been named Mubarak Aḥmad.

June 17, 1899
Maulānā ʿAbdul-Karīm ra wrote in a letter about a dream of the Promised Messiah as:
The Promised Messiah as saw that there was fire and smoke and sparks were flying towards him but did not hurt him. In this situation he was supplicating:
June 25, 1899

More or less two days ago I saw you [Seth ‘Abdur-Raḥmān of Madras] in my dream.

1899

[Urdu] He who does not follow you and does not enter into a pledge of bai‘at with you and remains hostile to you, is disobedient to God and His Messenger and is destined for hell.

[From the Letter of the Promised Messiah as dated June 16, 1899, addressed to Bābū Ilāhī Bakhsh, Majmū‘a-e-Iṣtiḥārāt, vol. 3, p. 275]

June 30, 1899

On June 30, 1899 I received the revelation:

[Urdu] First unconsciousness, then swoon, then death.

And the indication was that this had reference to a sincere friend whose death would cause me great pain. I announced this revelation to several members of my Jamā‘at and it has been published in the al-Ḥakam of June 30, 1899.

486 [Arabic] O Ever-Living and Self-Subsisting One, I supplicate for Your mercy. Indeed, my Lord is the Lord of the heavens and earth. [Publishers]
Thereafter towards the end of July 1899 a very sincere friend of mine, Dr. Muḥammad Būrhey Khān, Assistant Surgeon, died suddenly in Qasur. He first lost consciousness, then suddenly entered into a swoon and then passed on from this mortal world. There was a difference of only 20–22 days between the time of his death and this revelation.

Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīmra writes in a letter:
This morning the Promised Messiahas saw in a dream as if the Empress of India (may Allah preserve her) had arrived in the house of the Promised Messiahas. The Promised Messiahas told my humble self, ‘Abdul-Karīm, in his dream, while I was sitting close to him, that: ‘The Queen Empress had most graciously arrived in my house and had stayed for two days; some means should be found of thanking her for her graciousness.’ The interpretation of the dream was that the Promised Messiahas would soon witness some divine help.487

487 The most wonderful and interesting event of this week was… the receipt of a letter by the Promised Messiahas in which it is set out in detail and with full proof that in the vicinity of Jalalabad (Afghanistan) there is a platform which is known as the platform of Prophet Yūz Ṭs. The local tradition is that this Prophet came from Syria about two thousand years ago. There is a jāgīr attached to this platform granted by the Afghan Government….The Promised Messiahas was so delighted with this letter that he observed: ‘God Almighty is a witness and knows that if someone had brought me millions of rupees that would not have given me so much joy as this letter has brought me’…. Thus the fulfilment of his dream of the morning was manifested at the time of Ďuhar.
(A) On one occasion I suffered from severe toothache which would not let me have a moment’s rest. I enquired from someone whether there was a remedy for it. He said: The only remedy for toothache is to have the tooth taken out; and this I shrank from. I was sitting on the ground in my state of restlessness and there was a chār-pa’ī [cot] nearby. In my restlessness, I put my head on the foot of the cot and was overtaken by a light slumber. When I reverted to wakefulness, the pain had disappeared altogether and the revelation flowed from my lips:

\text{That is [Arabic] When you fall ill, He bestows healing on you.}\]

488

[Allah be praised for this].

(B) More than a month ago Maulavi Nur-ud-Din⁴⁸⁸ began to suffer from a severe toothache which continued for a number of days and yielded only to the tooth being taken out. The Promised Messiah as said:

I too once suffered from a severe toothache which made me unconscious and in this condition I received the revelation:

\[
\text{[Arabic] When you fall ill, He bestows healing on you.}\]

489

488 This Revelation is given here because it was determined from the statement of Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim⁴⁸⁹, given in section (B), that this revelation occurred prior to July 10, 1899. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

489 [Arabic] When you fall ill, He bestows healing on you. [Publishers]
When I came back to consciousness the pain had disappeared.

July 6, 1899

Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīm(ra) writes in a letter:
On the night of July 6, God Almighty showed the Promised Messiah(as) a view of paradise and hell. First he was shown paradise and every type of its fruits and bounties and he received the revelation:

\[\text{490} \quad \text{These will come to you from every distant track.} \]

Then he was given a view of hell which was most repulsive and looked like a privy and the following revelation flowed from his lips: \[\text{491} \quad \text{hadīth of the Holy Prophet(as), the world has been described like a rubbish heap. This revelation supports that simile and purports to say: It is Allah’s grace that He made me oblivious of worldly considerations; otherwise, I would also have been a worm of such a filthy place.} \]

\[\text{492} \quad \text{Meaning [Arabic] ‘Had it not been for the grace of Allah and His mercy on me, my head would have been thrown into this privy.’ This is a way of expressing Allah’s Grace. That is, Allah the Almighty has not created him for such an abode. Prior to this, he had seen several people in such a dark cave.} \]

August 27, 1899

I have received the revelation concerning myself:

[Urdu] God has determined to foster your name and to make it shine in the universe. Many thrones have descended from heaven, but your throne has been set up the highest of all. The angels⁴⁹³ helped you at the time of meeting your enemies.

August 30, 1899

[Urdu] The silent means of the provision of divine mercy.

August 30, 1899

Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīm⁴⁹³ writes in a letter: On the same day in a dream the Promised Messiah⁴⁹³ put his fingers on his pulse and said: Let us see whether it emits the sound of humiliation or of divine help. The pulse gave the sound of divine help.

September 2, 1899

Just at this moment when I was writing this part of the book, I received this sentence in revelation:

494

This is Saturday September 2, 1899 1 p.m., time for Duhar Prayer.

[Tiryāqul-Qulūb, p. 59, footnote, Rūḥānī Khazā’īn, vol. 15, p. 262, footnote]

September 14, 1899

On September 14, 1899 I received the revelation:

[A title of honour], a title of honour;

[For you there is a title of honour.]

There will be a great Sign with it.

These are all the words of God Almighty…. I construe these to mean that God Almighty, in order to put an end to this controversy which has become somewhat old and has attracted charges of falsehood and disbelief, will show such a Sign of blessing, mercy, grace and peace, as will be above the reach of human hands and will be entirely pure. Then observing such clear proof of truthfulness people’s attitude will change and the rancour of the men of goodwill will suddenly disappear.

494 [Arabic] Our Lord, we have believed, then write us down among the witnesses. [Publishers]

495 God has named me a Prophet in order to bestow a distinction upon me and this is a title of honour bestowed upon me.

[Letter dated May 23, 1908 published in the Akhbār-e-‘Āam of May 26, 1908]
September 18, 1899

Last night, Monday September 18, 1899, I saw in my dream that a light rain was falling steadily. I said, probably in my dream, that: ‘I was about to supplicate for rain and it is raining.’ I do not know whether this means that soon there will be rain or whether there will be the rain of mercy and help and victory on our Jamā‘at in fulfilment of the revelation of September 13, 1899:

[Urdu] A title of honour, a title of honour.
[Arabic] [For you there is a title of honour.]
[Urdu] A great Sign will appear with it;

or both might happen. My dream is true and will be fulfilled and one of these two contingencies will happen. That is to say, either there will be merciful rain from the sky for the creatures of God Almighty, or some extraordinary Sign of spiritual help and victory will appear. But it will be a Sign and nothing common.

September 19, 1899

On September 19, 1899, God Almighty addressed me and revealed His words to me:

إِنَّا أَخْرَجْنَا اللَّهَ رَسُوْلَنَا إِلَيْهِ ٍ إِبْتِرَا هُمُهُ

496 See also al-Ḥakam, volume 3, number 33, September 16, 1899, page 6. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

497 In al-Ḥakam the date is stated as September 13, but the Promised Messiah has himself stated the date of this revelation as September 14 in his book Appendix Tiryāqul-Qulūb, as has been recorded above. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed]
That is [Arabic] O Ibrāḥīm [Abraham]! We shall produce for you spring harvests.

Zurūʿ [the word used in the revelation] is the plural of zaraʿ which is used in Arabic for Spring harvests comprising of wheat, barley, and food grains. Thus it does not appear that this revelation will be literally fulfilled, for the days for the sowing of the spring harvest are almost over. I, therefore, interpret it as a reassurance: ‘Why need you worry, you will gather many harvests’ that is to say: We shall make provision for all your needs.

October 4, 1899

I have received another revelation on October 4, 1899 which is allegoric:

[Urdu] Thanks from the Emperor of India.

This is very surprising for I am a person living a secluded life and disinclined towards rendering any service which might be acceptable and indeed consider myself as dead before my death. Then what occasion can there be for thanking me? Such revelations are allegoric till God Himself makes their meaning manifest.

October 20, 1899

In a dream that I saw on October 20, 1899, I saw a boy whose name was ‘Azīz and his father’s name began with Sulţān. That boy was brought before me and was seated before me. I noticed that he was slim of body and had a fair complexion.

My interpretation of the dream is that ‘Azīz means one who is honoured; and Sulţān, who in the dream was understood to be the boy’s father, means a conclusive reason or argument such as is self-evident and carries its appeal to the hearts on account of its shining brightness. Sulţān derives its meaning from authority and is not applied to every kind of argument but only to such a one as takes possession of the hearts on account of its acceptability and brightness and completely rules over gentle and reasonable minds. Thus the interpretation of the dream is that a Sign which will take possession of people’s hearts will be shown and its result, or, in other words, its child, will be that I will

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: Ḥaḍrat Sheikh Ya’qūb ‘Alī ‘Irfānī writes:

The said dream has been published with a symbolic interpretation. He said clearly that he had seen ‘Azīz Aḥmad son of Mirzā Sulţān Aḥmad. (al-Ḥakam, March 10, 1906 page 1)

This is how the dream was fulfilled. At the end of February 1906, about six years after the dream, Ḥaḍrat Mirzā ‘Azīz Aḥmad, son of Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Sulţān Aḥmad took the pledge of allegiance at the hand of the Promised Messiah and joined the Aḥmadiyyah Jamā’at. The fact that Mirzā ‘Azīz Aḥmad is shown in the dream in relationship to Mirzā Sulţān Aḥmad also shows that it was destined that Mirzā Sulţān Aḥmad would join the Jamā’at and thus become a spiritual, as well as physical, son. Alhamdu’llillah, he took the bai’at at the hand of his younger brother Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ II and joined the Jamā’at of the Promised Messiah.
become dear to the hearts of people and this has been shown allegorically in my dream in the shape of ‘Azīz.

October 21, 1899

I have just seen a dream … on October 21, 1899 in which I saw my dear friend Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiq….His face was very bright and shining and he was wearing a grand white robe. We were both riding in a carriage. He was lying down and I had put my hand on his back.

This is the dream. The interpretation of this dream which God Almighty has put in my mind is that truth, which I love, will be demonstrated with a brightness as was the face of Ṣādiq that I saw in my dream. Thus the time is near when I will be accounted truthful and people will perceive the brightness of truth.

Those who convey glad tidings [from God] suffer no decline. The time of the fulfilment of the prophecies of the Governor General⁴⁹⁹ has arrived.

⁴⁹⁹ One of the names that I have been given is رئیس, which is the equivalent of Governor General in the English language.

It was imperative that the Second Messiah should also not be raised to wield the sword, and his kingdom be only heavenly. And so has it happened. God has not raised me to wield the sword, nor has He ordained the jihād for me. Rather, He has informed me that peace and friendship will spread through me. A wild beast will be at peace with a goat and a serpent will play with children. This is what God has determined, though people might wonder at it.

[Ishtihār Wājibul-Izhār, pp. 2–3, Appendix Tiryāqul-Qulūb, Rūḥānī Khāzā’īn, vol. 15, p. 521]
January 5, 1900

One of my cousins, of the name Imām-ud-Dīn, was much opposed to me. He created a difficult problem for us. He built a wall in front of our house at such a place that our way to the mosque was blocked and my visitors and guests, who used to come to see me in my sitting room or came to the mosque were obstructed, and my Jamāʿat and I were put to great trouble. In a sense, we were besieged. We were, thus, compelled to go to the Civil Court to obtain relief and filed a suit in the court of Munshī Khudā Bakhsh, District Judge. After the suit had been filed we discovered that it would be virtually impossible to win this case. The difficulties in our way were that the record of a previous case disclosed that the land on which the wall had been erected had been in the possession of Imām-ud-Dīn, the defendant, for a long time. Actually, this piece of land had belonged to a co-sharer of the name of Ghulām Jīlānī but it had gone out of his possession and he had sued Imām-ud-Dīn for recovery of possession in the civil court at Gurdaspur. That suit was dismissed on account of the adverse possession of Imām-ud-Dīn who had since continued in possession of the land…

In view of these severe problems, our lawyer, Khwājah Kamāl-ud-Dīn, had also advised us that we should settle the matter by a compromise. That is to say, we might persuade Imām-ud-Dīn to remove the wall in return for some monetary compensation. I had agreed reluctantly to adopt this suggestion, but he [Imām-ud-Dīn] was not a man who could be persuaded. He was personally hostile to me.
Indeed, he was hostile to Islam itself. He had also come to know that the avenues of filing a suit successfully were blocked for us; therefore, he became more arrogant. In the end, we left the whole matter in the hands of God Almighty…. Imām-ud-Dīn intended further mischief. He used to stand in the courtyard in front of our house where our visitors used to arrive and continuously obstructed them and abused us. Moreover, he was now preparing that after our suit was dismissed, he would erect a long wall in front of our doors so that we would be completely besieged and should not be able to go in and out. These were days of great anxiety for us, so much so that it might be said about us that [the earth, with all its vastness, became too straitened for them.] All this had arisen very suddenly. I supplicated the Divine and beseeched His help, whereupon, I received the revelation given later.

These revelations were not received at different times but at one time, one after the other. I recall that at that time Sayyed Faḍl Shāh of Lahore, brother of Sayyed Nāṣir Shāh, Overseer Barah Mula (Kashmir) was massaging my feet and it was noon time when the revelations relating to [this case about] the wall began to be received.

I told Sayyed [Faḍl Shāh] that the revelations were concerning the case of the wall and he should take them down as they were received. He took the pen and paper and it so happened that every time there was a slight slumber, the revelation came sentence by sentence, and flowed from my tongue as is the way of Allah. It is worth noting that the good news contained in the revelation begins with the word faḍl [grace] and the name of the person who took down the revelation as it came was also faḍl.

When one sentence was completed and was written down I was again overtaken by a slumber and the next sentence of the revelation flowed from my tongue till the whole of it was completed and was written down by Sayyed Faḍl Shāh of Lahore. I was given to understand that these revelations related to the case about the wall constructed by Imām-ud-Dīn and I understood that in the end the case would be decided in our favour. Accordingly, I announced these revelations to a large number of my followers and informed them of their meaning and the occasion of their being revealed. They were published in al-Ḥakam\textsuperscript{501} and I told everyone that though the case was troublesome and appeared hopeless, God Almighty would create some means whereby we would win; for this is the gist of the revelations. I will now write the revelations along with their translation:

\begin{quote}
[Arabic] The mill will revolve and divine decree will descend.

This means that the case will take on a new aspect as happens when a mill revolves rotating away the part that was visible and bringing into view the part that was not within sight...

This is the grace of Allah which has been promised; it will surely come and no one can turn it away.... Say: By my Lord, this is the truth. This decree will not change in the least nor will it remain hidden. A matter will arise which will surprise you. This is a revelation from the Lord of the high heavens. Surely my Lord does not forsake the straight path tread by His chosen servants, nor does He forget His servants who need help. So you will have a clear victory in this case but it will be delayed till the time fixed for it by God. You are with Me and I am with you. Say: All matters are in the hand of Allah; and then leave the opponent in his error and pride and arrogance.... The All-Powerful is with you and He knows all that is hidden. Indeed, even matters that are utmost secret and beyond the comprehension of man, are known to Him.... He alone is the truly worthy of worship God, there is none else worthy of worship; man should not rely upon any one else, as if this other person were worshipped by him. This is an attribute that belongs exclusively to God. He is the only One Who knows everything and sees everything. Allah is with those who are righteous and fear Him and when they do a good deed, they fully carry out all its fine requirements. They do not perform good deeds in a superficial and defective way; rather, they satisfy their minutest details and do full justice to them. Such are the ones whom God helps, because they serve His favoured paths, treading them and guiding others to them. We sent Aḥmad—that is my humble self—to his people, but they turned away and they said: 'He is a wicked liar, engaged in worldly greed’, that is, profiting from such tricks. They bore witness against him to get him arrested and they fell upon him like a fierce storm that comes down from above, but he says: My Beloved is very near to me; He is near but is hidden from the eyes of His opponents.

502 This prophecy had been published widely several months before the judgment was given in the case and was carried to far countries by the al-Hakam*, in which it was printed. Then the time of judgment came…. It so happened that our lawyer Khwajah Kamal-ud-Din thought of looking up the index which gives a summary of the major decisions of the record of the previous cases. When he did so, he discovered something entirely unexpected. The order in the previous case had found that the piece of land on which the wall was now constructed was in the possession not only of Imam-ud-Din but also of Mirza Ghulam Murtaq, my father. My lawyer realized at once that this was a crucial factor in our support which would win the case for us. The Judge’s attention was drawn to this and he immediately sent for the index and the previous record whereby he was satisfied of the truth of the matter and he decreed the suit against Imam-ud-Din with costs. Had that document not been presented, the Judge would have had to dismiss our suit and we would have been subject to every kind of trouble and inconvenience at the hands of our ill-willed enemy. This was God’s doing. He does what He wills.

This revelation actually comprised of two prophecies, not one. One was that the case would be decided in our favour and the other was that a matter would come to light which had been hidden from everyone.

Note by Hadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra:

As al-Hakam, volume 5, number 30, dated August 17, 1901 shows the judgment in the case was pronounced by the District Judge, Gurdaspur, on August 12, 1901, whereby he directed the pulling down of the wall and issued a permanent injunction against any structure being raised on the open space and awarded one hundred rupees as damages to the plaintiff plus the costs of the case. Mirza Imam-ud-Din later begged the Promised Messiahra to forego the recovery of damages and costs to which the Promised Messiahra most generously agreed.

A few months ago the Promised Messiah, on whom be peace, received the revelation:

506 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams: al-Ḥakam reports that:

In accordance with this revealed prophecy, cholera broke out and it is well known how many a life was lost....This revelation was received when there was no trace of cholera etc. in the Punjab.... Similarly, “To Allah we belong, and to Him shall we return; was also received, which indicated the death of a sincere friend of the Promised Messiah as. These prophecies, which were the words of Allah the All-Knowing, were fulfilled at their appointed time and some very sincere and zealous friends departed from us. Among them was Miyān Muḥammad Akbar of Batala, who passed away according to this revelation.

April 11, 1900

(A) On the morning of the day of ‘Idul-Adhā\(^{507}\) [the Festival of Sacrifices] I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Say something in Arabic.

This was communicated to several friends. I had never made a speech in Arabic before. When on that day I stood up to deliver the ‘Id sermon in Arabic, God Almighty made a clear and eloquent Arabic address flow from my tongue which was pregnant with meaning and which is set out in the book entitled Khutbah Ilhāmiyyah [Revealed Sermon]. The address extends over several juzw\(^{508}\) and was made spontaneously in one continuous delivery. God has called it a Sign in His revelation, for the address was delivered entirely under the influence of divine power. I do not believe that any Arabic orator, scholar or literary figure, can deliver such a speech extempore.

(B) On the morning of April 11, 1900, the day of ‘Idul-Adhā [the Festival of Sacrifices], I received a revelation:

[Urdu] Deliver an address in Arabic today, you have been bestowed the capacity.

507 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad\(^{a}\): al-Ḥakam, volume 4, number 14, April 17, 1900 writes:

Today, the morning of ‘Id, Maulānā [‘Abdul-Karīm Siālkoāt\(^{a}\)] went inside and said [to the Promised Messiah\(^{a}\)]: ‘I have come today especially to request you to speak, even if it be a few sentences.’ The Promised Messiah\(^{a}\) said: ‘That is what Allah the Almighty has commanded.’ He also added: ‘I received a revelation last night: [Urdu] Say a few sentences to the gathering in Arabic. I had thought that it would be a different gathering, but perhaps this is the one.’

508 A juzw consists of 16 pages of a bound book. [Publishers]
This was followed by the revelation:

كِتَابُ الفِتْحِ مِنَّ الْمَثْقُولِ الرَّمْي

That is [Arabic] This address has been made eloquent\(^{509}\) by God Almighty…

Thereupon, I stood up after the ‘\(\mathbf{I} \)\( \mathbf{d} \)’ Prayer to deliver the address in Arabic. God Almighty knows that the capacity was bestowed upon me from the unseen and the eloquent Arabic address proceeded from my mouth extempore, which was utterly beyond my capacity. I cannot imagine that, without the help of special divine revelation, a speech which extended over several juzw could be delivered [extempore] at such level of fluency and eloquence by anyone, unless it was first recorded on paper. This Arabic address has been named Khuṭbah Ilhāmiyyah\(^{510}\) and it was \(^{509}\) Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\(^{\text{ra}}\): تَفْصِيلَةً refers to the word kalām [speech]. Since in its import the speech is plural, the feminine construction has been employed. It is an established usage in Arabic that the word kalām, being a composite of several sentences, can be treated as plural. As a poet Mazāh ‘Aqīlī says:

َاذَيْنَكَُمْ كَمَا قَدْ كَتَبْتَنِهِ حَتَّى

[See Lisānul-‘Arab]

\(^{510}\) Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\(^{\text{ra}}\): Two dreams recorded in the words of the Promised Messiah\(^{\text{as}}\) have been found about this revealed sermon. Under the date April 19, 1900, the Promised Messiah\(^{\text{as}}\) wrote about a dream of Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour\(^{\text{ra}}\) in which Miyān ‘Abdullāh Sannourī said that Munshī Ghulām Qādir (deceased) of Sannour had come there. Miyān ‘Abdullāh asked him about the gathering. He said there was a great clamour up there [in the heavens].

This dream is in exact accord with the dream of Sayyed Amīr ‘Alī Shāh, because he had seen that when the Arabic address was being delivered on ‘\(\mathbf{I} \)\( \mathbf{d} \)’ day, the Holy Prophet (may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), Ḥaḍrat ‘Īsā\(^{\text{as}}\) [Jesus], Ḥaḍrat Mūsā\(^{\text{as}}\) [Moses] and Ḥaḍrat Khīḍr\(^{\text{as}}\) were present among the audience listening to the sermon. He was shown this as a vision while he was sitting and listening to the sermon.

[Writing of the Promised Messiah\(^{\text{as}}\) on the title of the book Ta‘īrul-Anām, available in the Khilāfat Library, Rabwah] delivered to an audience of about two-hundred. Subḥānallāh [Holy is Allah]. A fountain was at that time bursting forth from the unseen. I do not know whether it was I who was speaking or an angel speaking with my tongue. I knew only that I had no part in this address. Sentence after sentence issued from my mouth, already properly arranged and every sentence was a Sign for me….

This is a literary miracle exhibited by God and no one can match it.

(C) This is the book a part of which was revealed to me from the Lord of mankind on the day of the ‘Īd which I delivered to the audience extempore speaking under the influence of the Rūḥul-Amin [The Spirit, faithful to the trust]. There is no doubt that it is a great Sign. It is not within the power of any human being to deliver such an address extempore…. It is a great bounty of the Divine and it is, as it were, a means of transportation for people to... good fortune. It is a rain of mercy from Allah after a universal famine which had brought ruin to the world. The verities and points of wisdom set forth in it are not to be found even in the most outstanding works of the wise men that have passed away. Indeed, these are truths that have been revealed to me by the Lord of the universe.

514 The following section gives six narrations regarding Khutbah Ilhamiyah [The Revealed Sermon]:

1. Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Sher ‘Alī Şāhib ṭa states: ‘On the morning that day, the Promised Messiah ṭa came out for the ‘Īd upon the steps of the stairs of the Mubarak Mosque, and said that during the night I received the revelation that I should speak some words in Arabic. So a message was sent to both Ḥaḍrat Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim Şāhib and Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Noor-ud-Din Şāhib that they should come with paper, pen, and inkpot because a revelation had been received directing that some words be spoken in Arabic. The Prayer was led by Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim Şāhib and the Promised Messiah then began to deliver a sermon in Urdu, likely while sitting on a chair. After the Urdu sermon he began to deliver the sermon in Arabic while seated upon the chair. At that time there was a very special kind of appearance that enveloped him. His eyes were closed. Every sentence was delivered loudly at the start and then the sound became lower and lower. In the front, on the left, Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Şāhibān [both] were writing [the spoken words down]. One from among the two did not hear a word, so he asked and Ḥaḍrat Şāhib told him the word and then said that any word that is not heard properly should be asked immediately because it is possible that I myself may not remember it. He said that I continued speaking so long as the process [of descent] continued from Above, and when it came to an end I stopped. [Register Riwāyat-e-Ṣahābah, narration no. 10, pp. 303-304]

2. Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Sher ‘Alī Şāhib stated that after the Sermon Ḥaḍrat Şāhib would say that this Sermon was not from myself but words would be put into my heart from Allah, and at times some written words would appear in front of me, and so long as this continued the Sermon continued, and when the words stopped coming, the Sermon came to an end. [Ṣiratul-Mahdī, narration no. 156, vol. 1, pp. 148-150]

3. Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Sher ‘Alī Şāhib stated that Ḥudūr started delivering the Sermon in Arabic. At the time of delivery of this Arabic Sermon his condition and voice would be very faint and frail. While speaking his eyes were closed. During the address at one point Ḥudūr directed both the Maulavi Şāhibān that if any word is not understood ask me at that very moment; it is possible that afterwards I myself may not be able to tell you. The world appeared to be a strange place at that time, which I cannot express in words...He said that as the words continued to descend I kept uttering them and when this process [of descent] ended I also ended my address. He used to say that during the address, there were some times when words were seen by me in written form. [Siratul-Mahdi, vol. 1, narration no. 623, pp. 592-593]

4. Ḥaḍrat Bhāṭi ‘Abdūr-Raḥmān Qadiani narrates: Sometimes Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Ṣāḥib was in need of asking because he may have lagged behind in writing or due to not understanding some word, or regarding the letters in a word; for example, whether it was an alif or an ‘aīn, or a ṣād as opposed to a sin or perhaps a thā, or perhaps a ẓā instead of a ṭā etc. etc. So when he would ask, the condition of Sayyednā Ḥaḍrat Aqdas, the Promised Messiah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, would be quite strange, and Ḥudūr would respond as if someone is speaking having been woken up from sleep or as if responding coming back from another world. And after responding about the word or the letter he would return to his earlier condition and the state of separation from the world was such that people felt that though the physical body of Ḥudūr was here, his divinely lit soul—having reached to the world in the heavens—was speaking by reading or having heard things from there. The motion of the blessed tongue must have been felt by Ḥudūr alone but the feeling was that being out of his control, it moved when it was made to move by someone else. It is difficult to put in words this situation and scene. Separation, state of being cut off from the world, drowsiness, or a condition of being totally absorbed and being separated from oneself, deprived of the senses, and being totally lost and wonderstruck—some such words may fit aptly regarding the condition that prevailed upon Ḥudūr at this time—apart from this, his actual state had undergone such a spiritual transformation that transcends my ability to express in words. Because it appeared that his entire body and its every particle was as if it was under the control of some other power. [Siratul-Mahdi, vol. 2, p. 369]

5. Respected Syed Mahmood Alam Ṣāḥib states: Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Nūr-ud-Dīn Ṣāḥib used to say that when the Promised Messiah delivered the ‘Īḍul-Adhā Sermon in Arabic, and when he was asked afterwards about his condition he said that the angels would bring one slate after another of words written in thick letters which I would look at and read out. One slate would come and when I would finish reading it out then another would come and the first would disappear. Thus, the series of these slates continued. When someone from among the writers would ask a question then the slate that had disappeared would come back, looking at which I would reply. [Register Riwāyāt-e-Ṣaḥābah, narration no. 4, p. 38]

6. Ḥaḍrat Miyān Muhammad Yāsīn Ṣāḥib Ahmadī states: The Khutbah Ihāmiyyah was delivered by Ḥudūr on the day of ‘Īḍul-Adhā. During the

穆罕默德读出这番话非常缓慢，仿佛在教他该说的，然后他自己说出。在这些期间，穆罕默德的精神状况极为不寻常。

Sermon the voice of Ḥuḍūr was unusually very faint. And after the Prayer Ḥuḍūr, peace and blessings be upon him, said that when I had completed stating one sentence I did not know what I would say next. I would be shown what I was to say next and then I would speak. Ḥuḍūr read out this Sermon rather slowly. It appeared as if someone was teaching Ḥuḍūr what to say and then Ḥuḍūr would say those things that he was taught. At this time the condition of Ḥuḍūr appeared to be totally unusual. Translation: [Arabic] O servants of Allah, ponder and reflect on this day of yours, which is the day of the Festival of Sacrifices, for verily hidden secrets have been placed in these sacrifices for those who are wise. All of you know that many animals are slaughtered on this day—many caravans of camels, herds of cattle, and flocks of goats are slaughtered—and all this is done in seeking the pleasure of the Lord of the universe. Such has been the practice ever since the inception of Islam and continues even in these days. In my opinion, these sacrifices that are made in our illustrious Shariah are beyond the realm of estimation, and they are far superior to the sacrifices made by those belonging to the earlier nations of prophets. The abundance of these sacrifices has reached a point that the face of the earth has been covered with their blood; so much so that if all of it were to be amassed and irrigated, streams would flow out and rivers would gush forth with it and all of the plains and valleys of the earth would be inundated with blood. In our religion, this deed is counted among those that are a means of attaining qurb [nearness] to Allah the Most Holy. They have been taken to resemble a mount that is like a flash of lightening in its speed and resplendence. It is for this very reason that these slaughtered animals have been given the name qurbân because it is mentioned in the ahādíth that they are a means of acquiring qurb [nearness] and communion with God Almighty for all those who offer these sacrifices with sincerity, devotion, and faithfulness. These sacrifices are among the most exalted acts of worship in the Shariah. Hence, the sacrificial animal is called nasîkah. In the Arabic language, the word nusuk denotes submission and worship. Similarly, the word nusuk is also used in the aforementioned language to refer to the sacrifice of those animals whose slaughter has been enjoined by the Shariah. So this commonality of meanings in the word nusuk points out conclusively that a true worshipper and sincere servant is he who “slaughters” his self along with all his faculties, and all of the beloveds who have enamoured him, for the pleasure of the Lord of all creation. Such a one repels his selfish desires with a force that causes them to be totally shattered and annihilated. He himself becomes consumed with no trace left of his self and becomes hidden. The fierce winds of fanā [self-annihilation] blow upon him and the particles of his very being are blown away by the strong gusts of these winds. And anyone who reflects upon the commonality of the two meanings of the word nusuk, and ponders over this station with an awakened heart and open eyes, will not fail to realize, and will not dispute that this commonality in the meanings of nusuk reveals the secret that the worship which delivers one from a loss of the Hereafter is the slaughter of nafs-e-ammarah which is the self that fervently incites towards evil in the likeness of a ruler who constantly enjoins evil. Thus, salvation lies in the fact that one slays the self that enjoins evil by the knives of turning exclusively towards Allah, the possessor of bounties, power and authority; and by considering God Almighty—to the exclusion of all creation—as being an intimate friend and the comfort of one’s soul. Moreover, one must endure diverse forms of bitter hardships to save one’s self from the death of heedlessness. This is the meaning of Islam and the true import of perfect submission. A Muslim is one who submits himself to slaughter before Allah, the Lord of all the worlds, and who, for His sake, has slaughtered the she-camel of his self and has thrown it down on its forehead; and is never oblivious, even for a moment, of the time of death. In short, the slaughters and sacrifices that are ordained in Islam are a reminder of the objective of giving oneself freely. They are also an incentive for achieving this station, and a forerunner of the reality to be attained after perfect enlightenment. Thus, it is incumbent upon every believing man and woman who seek the pleasure of the Loving God to understand this reality, so as to make it as their ultimate objective, and to imbue this reality in to their own being until it permeates every particle of their existence. They should not rest or sit at ease until they have offered this sacrifice for the Lord whom they worship, and not be content, like the foolish and ignorant, with the outer form and hollow shell. Rather, one ought to offer true sacrifice, and carry it out with all their intellect, and with a spirit of righteousness and the spirit of sacrifice. This is the height of the pilgrim’s journey, the ultimate objective of those seeking enlightenment, and the culmination of all the stations of the righteous. All the destinations of the truthful and the saints are arrived at, and the journey of the auliya’ reaches its height zenith. If you arrive at this station, you have taken your struggle to its ultimate limit and have achieved the stage of fanā. It is then that the tree of your sojourn [towards God] will thereby grow to its utmost perfection; and the neck of your soul will reach the soft green buds in the meadow of purity and sublimity like a she-camel with a long neck reaching the high branches of a verdant tree. Thereafter begins the experience of the feelings, the fragrance, and the glorious manifestations of the One True God, so that He may cut asunder any remaining veins of human frailties. Thereafter, the soul that is content and pleased with God and whom God is pleased with, and which has achieved the stage of fanā, is granted life, permanence and nearness, so that this servant may be equipped with the capacity to receive favours after his second life. After this, the perfect man is adorned with the robe of khilāfat by the One True God. He is conferred the colour of divine attributes by way of reflection so that it is proven that he is worthy of the station of khilāfat [i.e., vicegerency]. Then, he descends towards humanity so that he may draw them to spirituality and bring them out of mundane darkness into the heavenly light. Such a man is made to inherit from those that have preceded him from among the Prophets, the Truthful, the men of learning and scholarship, and from the suns of divine nearness and friendship. He is granted the knowledge and insight of those who have preceded him among the learned divines and the wise scholars of the nation, so that it may be proven that he is worthy of the station of warāthat [i.e., spiritual inheritance]. Such a man stays in the world for as long as it is ordained by his Lord of honour to enlighten humanity with the light of guidance. After he has illumined the people with the light of his Lord, or has taken the matter of delivering the message to its due level, [the purpose of] his titles is fulfilled and his Lord calls upon him and his soul is raised to its spiritual station. This is the meaning of rafa‘ [i.e., raising] according to those who possess knowledge and understanding. Marfū‘ [i.e., one who is raised] is he who is granted a draught of communion by the hand of the True Beloved who is the ocean of beauty and grace. He is draped in the mantle of divine providence, even though he permanently retains his station of servitude. This is the ultimate station that a seeker after truth attains in human life. O company of people, do not be oblivious to this station, nor to the secret that is found in sacrifices. Let your sacrifices be like mirrors that reflect this reality. Do not disregard these advices, nor be like those who have forgotten their Lord and their death. A reference to this hidden secret has been made in the Word of our All-Sustaining Lord. The Most Truthful among the truthful says whilst addressing His Prophet:

[Say, ‘My prayer and my sacrifice and my life and my death are all for Allah, the Lord of the} worlds.’] See how He has elaborated the meanings of the word nusuk by the words mahyā [i.e., life] and mamāt [i.e., death]. By this elaboration, He has thereby pointed towards the reality of sacrifice. O wise ones, reflect upon this. Whoever offers his sacrifice with a true understanding of the meaning of sacrifice, and does so with a sincere heart and pure intention, has verily thereby offered the sacrifice of his self, his children and his grandchildren. And for him is a great reward, like the reward which was for Ibrāhīm [Abraham], from his Benevolent Lord. Our Master, the Chosen One, the Messenger Elect, the Imam of the Righteous, and the Seal of the Prophets who is the most truthful after Allah, has stated that: Verily sacrifices are mounts that lead you towards the Lord of Creation; and erase faults and ward off afflictions. This is what has been conveyed to us by the Messenger of God, the best of creation, peace and magnificent bounties of Allah be upon him. In this, he indicates the wisdom of sacrifices in eloquent words that shine like pearls. It is immensely pitiful that many people do not understand these hidden subtleties and do not follow this advice. To them there is no meaning in ‘Īd other than to bathe, wear new clothes, gorge themselves and devour mouthfuls of food in the company of their families, servants, and household workers; and then to proceed forth for the ‘Īd prayer adorned like feudal lords. You will find that their greatest joy on this day is to eat sumptuous food, and the height of their desire lies in fine and splendid garments as a display to the people. They know not what sacrifice is, nor the purpose behind the slaughter of goats and cattle. According to them, the purpose of 'Id is nothing but to eat, drink, and engage in sheer enjoyment from dawn till dusk; to wear elegant dress, ride swift horses, and consume fresh meat. On this day you will find that their preoccupation is nothing more than to wear fine attire, comb their hair, apply collyrium to their eyes, perfume their clothing, style their dangling forelocks and sidelocks as women do for adornment. Thereafter they repeat quick movements in their prayer in the likeness of a hen that pecks at grain—completely devoid of focus, abounding in stray thoughts and prey to a distracted heart. Thereafter, they attend to the consumption of a variety of foods and victuals, and fill their bellies with all types of blessings like the cattle. They are inclined towards sport and pastime and towards useless diversions. They leave their selves free to graze in the pastures of lust. They ride horses, carriages, camels and she-camels, mules, and the necks of men. All the while they are fully decorated. They waste the entire day in frivolous talk, giving gifts of meat to each other and displaying their pride in the meat of their cows and goats. This is accompanied by enjoyment, diverse forms of celebrations, attractions to please the self, acts of transgression, laughing with open mouths displaying both their front and back teeth, and thronging towards the dancing of loose women, kissing and embracing them, and after that [reaching for] their girdles. of the plights that have descended upon Islam, and the vicissitude of the times. Hearts have died, and sins have become rampant while grief has intensified. Thus in the black of night, and in the darkness of the stormy winds, the mercy of Allah demanded the descent of heavenly light. So, I am that light and the reformer who has come by the command of God Almighty, the servant [of Allah] who enjoys support. I am the awaited Mahdi and the

Where it is stated in the hadith that the Promised Messiah will descend, the word nuzūl [descent] has been used to indicate that this age will be such that darkness would have swallowed the entire world, while honesty, trust, and truthfulness would have bid it farewell. The earth would be filled with injustice and tyranny. It was to be then that God would send down a light from the heavens and would thereby illumine the world once again. It was to descend from above, because light always descends from on high. The time of the Promised Messiah is said to be one in which all means for the propagation of Islam would have been out of reach and Muslims would be left totally powerless. This will happen because the jealousy of God wills to remove, refute and eradicate the objection that has been raised against Islam suggesting that it was spread by the sword. Therefore, it is ordained that during the time of the Promised Messiah swords be sheathed and no one take up the sword for the sake of religion. If anyone does so, they would be defeated and suffer humiliating defeat by the disbelievers. The hosts of Ḥaḍrat Mūsā, who had been banished from Egypt continuously suffered defeat in the battles in which they marched forward against the command of Mūsā. So too will it happen now, for the descent of the Promised Messiah from the heaven is an indication that his hand will not utilise worldly means. Rather, he will irrigate the garden of Islam with heavenly water, because now God desires to manifest the miracle that Islam does not depend upon the sword and worldly means for its propagation. Thus, anyone who despite this clear prohibition, and in view of the hadith containing the words يضع الحرب [he will put an end to warfare], raises the sword and seeks to be a warrior, would essentially cast doubt upon this miracle. It is God Almighty who has willed to manifest this miracle, namely, to make Islam victorious and loved by the people, without the use of material means. [Author] Promised Messiah. I have been appointed by my Lord to a station that no man fathoms. My secret is above and beyond the ken of most men of Allah, let alone the common folk. My station is beyond the grasp of those who delve deep in understanding, nor can the height of my ascension be perceived by those who judge. My gait in the sojourn towards Allah is faster than the swiftest she-camels. Therefore, do not judge me by comparing me to others; nor compare others to me. Do not destroy yourselves with suspicion and antagonism. I am the kernel that has no shell. I am the soul that has no body. I am the sun that cannot be concealed with the smoke of enmity and malice. You may search for someone like unto me, but you will surely fail, even if you search carrying a lamp in hand. But this is no pride, it is gratitude for the favours of the God who has planted this seedling. I have been cleansed with the water of divine light and have been purified in the fountain of divine holiness, and have been purged of all filth and impurities, and my Lord has named me Ahmad. So, praise me and do not abuse me and do not take your affair to the brink of hopelessness. Anyone who praises me and leaves no kind of praise unmentioned, has spoken the truth, and has abstained from uttering falsehood. Whoever rejects this statement, speaks falsehood and kindles the wrath of the Gracious God. Woe upon him who doubts, and breaks the covenant, and pollutes his heart with the whisperings of Satan. I have descended from a lofty and honoured station so that my Lord may demonstrate some of His attributes of glory and beauty through me—that is, to remove evil and spread goodness. For the age demanded that the evil, which had exceeded all bounds, be eradicated, and the virtue which had vanished, be re-established. Therefore, the grace of God willed that the present age be granted what it demanded in light of its prevailing circumstances, and so that mercy may be bestowed upon men and women. Therefore, I was made a reflection of the Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, so that God may remove the elements of harm and misguidance. And He made me the reflection of the most honoured Prophet, Ahmad, the Guided One, to benefit the people and to shower down, once again, the rain of understanding and guidance, and to purify the people from the filth of heedlessness and sin. Thus, I have come with two yellow robes that are coloured with the hues of glory and beauty. And I have been conferred the qualities of causing to die and bringing to life—and I have received these qualities from the Lord who is the Doer of what He wills. But the grandeur that I have been granted by Allah the Possessor of Glory is a result of the reflection of Ḥusayn [that manifests itself in me], so that I may put an end to the evil of polytheism which surges forth and is present in the doctrines of the misguided and which has been kindled with utmost fury; for it is the greatest of all calamities in the sight of Allah who is the Knower of all circumstances; and so that I may raze the pillars of falsehood that they have erected in opposition to Allah. The beauty that I have been granted by Allah the Benevolent and Gracious is a result of the reflection of Ahmad so that I may bring back the virtue of Tauhīd [i.e., the Oneness of God] which has vanished from the tongues, hearts, words, and deeds of people, and thereby establish the religious order. I have been commanded to slay\textsuperscript{518} the swine of disorder, heresy and misguidance which trample underfoot the pearls of truthfulness, destroy the harvests of people, and wreak havoc in the fields of faith, purity, and deeds. This slaying is to be with heavenly weaponry, not with swords and arrows, as is the belief of those who are devoid of rectitude and truthful speech. They are themselves misguided and have misled many others from among the ignorant. It is true that I have been forbidden from fighting the disbelievers. It was ordained even before my existence that I would abolish warfare and would have no inclination towards bloodshed. Thus, there remains no jihād, except the jihad of the tongue, and the jihād of signs and argumentation. Similarly, I have been commanded to fill the houses and pouches of the Muslims with wealth—but not with the wealth of gold and silver; rather, with the wealth of knowledge, rectitude, guidance, and certainty of the highest degree— so that faith may be made firmer than the mountains and glad tidings be given to those who are buried under burdens. Therefore, glad tidings be to you that the Messiah has come, and he has been anointed by the All-Powerful God, and has been granted eloquent speech by Him. He safeguards you from the caravan that travels the earth to deceive people, and he calls you towards Allah and removes all doubts. So felicitations to you that the awaited Mahdi has come to you with an abundance of wealth piled in hoards. He strives to restore to you the wealth that you had lost; and to return from the grave your prosperity that had been buried alive. It is not a thing that has been forged, but it is the light of Allah which is accompanied by extraordinary signs. O people, I am the Messiah of the dispensation of Muhammad and I am Ahmad, the Mahdi [i.e., the Guided One]. Verily, my Lord has remained with me since my childhood and shall stand by me until I reach my grave. I have been granted a fire which devours and water that is sweet. I am the Yemeni Star and a heavenly rain. Infliction of a wound by me is a sharp spear, and my supplication is a proven remedy. I manifest my glory to one people and my beauty to another. I hold a weapon in one hand with which I destroy the practices of cruelty and sin. In my other hand, I possess an elixir by which I restore life to the hearts—an axe to destroy and a breath to revive. I possess glory, because, like the son of Mary, people have tried to uproot me. And, I possess beauty because, just like my Master, Ahmad, my mercy surges forth to guide the people who have become heedless of the Lord who is the Most High. Are you, then, surprised at this, and do you ignore the time and its need? Do you not see that the present age yearns for the Lord, who is the Doer of what He wills, to manifest the attribute of His Glory to one people and the attribute of His Beauty to another. Verily, signs have appeared, [prophesied] indications have been manifested, and all disputes have been resolved. So why do you not see? The solar and lunar eclipses took place in the month of Ramaḍān, but you fail to recognise. Some from among the people have died in accordance with the tidings of Allah while others, in light of prophecies of death, were killed, but you do not reflect. Many a sign has been manifested in my support, but you pay no heed. The earth, the heaven, water and dust have testified in my favour, but you do not fear in the least. Intellect, tradition, indications and signs, as well as other testimonies, dreams and visions also stand in support, but you remain in denial. These signs carry a magnificent import for those who reflect. The Dhus-Sinīn [i.e., comet] has appeared, and nearly a fifth of the century has elapsed. So, tell me where the mujaddid [i.e., the rejuvenator] is, if you know. The plague has broken out, the Ḥajj has been stopped, deaths have multiplied, nations have gone to war over gold mines, the cross has been raised, and Islam has shifted away from its true position and has disappeared like a wayfarer. Wickedness and the wicked have increased manifold, people have become enamoured with wine, gambling, and dancing; evildoers and tyrants have appeared. The righteous have shrunk in number and the time for the manifestation of our Lord has arrived, and all that the Prophets had foretold has come to pass. So what will you believe in after this? O people, stand firm altogether or individually for the sake of Allah; fear Him and reflect like such a one who is consumed with neither greed nor enmity. Is this not the time when Allah should have mercy on men? Is it not time that evil be repelled and the thirst of the hearts be quenched by rain? Has not the deluge of evil reached its height? Has ignorance not cast its net in all corners? All the land has been corrupted and Satan has thanked the ignorant. So, be thankful to Allah who has remembered you and remembered your Faith and safeguarded it from ruin. He safeguarded the seeds that you had sown and the crops that you cultivated from catastrophe and sent down rain and thus brought His investment to fruition. He sent His Messiah to ward off harm and His Mahdi to foster goodness and bestow reward, and caused you to join the age of your Imam after the age of the others had gone by. Brethren! This age of ours bears a perfect resemblance with this month of ours, because this is the last age and this is also the last month in the Islamic calendar, and both are about to end. There are sacrifices to be made in this month and also there are sacrifices to be made in this last age. The difference is only of the actual and its mirror image. An example of this has appeared earlier in the age of the Best of Creation, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. O men of understanding! The real sacrifice is that of the spirit. The sacrifices of goats are metaphoric and symbolic. So understand the secret of this truth. After the Companions of the Holy Prophet, may Allah be pleased with them, you are the most deserving and most worthy of understanding this truth. You are the last people that has been joined with them by the grace and mercy of Allah. The succession of the dispensations has come to its culmination in our age by the One True God just as the months of the Islamic calendar come to an end with the month of sacrifice. In this, there is a hidden indication for those who possess good judgment. I have been appointed at the highest station of wilāyat just as our Chief, the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, was at the highest station of nubuwwat. He was the Seal of the Prophets and I am the Seal of the Auliyā’. There is no wali after me except the one who is from me and is under my covenant. I have been sent by my Lord with every power, blessing, and honour. I stand on a minaret where all heights culminate. So fear Allah, O stalwarts. Recognise me and do not disobey me; nor die in a state of disobedience. The age is near when every soul shall be called to account for its deeds and be recompensed. There are many calamities and nothing can deliver you except faith. The errors [of man] are colossal and nothing can eradicate them except for self-annihilation. O my helpers, fear the chastisement of Allah; and for him who fears his Lord are two heavens. So do not sit among the heedless and with those who have forgotten death. Hasten towards Allah and ride swift steeds and abandon lame horses, so that you may meet the Lord of Creation. Adopt the habit of severing ties for Allah so that you may be granted His communion and nearness. Break away from material means so that means may be devised for you. Die, dear ones, so that you may be granted a new life. This day, the argument is complete against the opponents and all the excuses of those who plea have been shattered. Those people who spread misguidance and whisper evil have lost all hope in you. They wasted their lives in worldly pursuits and did not gain aught of faith. Indeed, they are like the blind. So this day Allah has broken their backs and they have turned away disappointed. This day, the truth has become clearly manifest to those who can see and the path of the guilty has become evident. Only such a one has turned away from the truth who is deprived by his eternal misfortune, and only he alone has rejected it who is deprived by his cruel nature. So we bid farewell to them with greetings of peace. The argument has been perfected against them and their being worthy of punishment has been established. If even now they do not desist, patience is called for, and soon, He who is aware of their circumstances will take them to task.

_al-Ḥakam_ reports that:

While Maulānā [Abdul-Karīmra] was reading out the translation^{519}, the Promised Messiah[^as^] fell into prostration in a fervent expression of gratitude to the Divine and the whole audience also fell into prostration with him. Rising from the prostration, the Promised Messiah[^as^] announced: I have just seen [in a vision] in red letters the word:

[Urdu] Felicitation

This means that the address has found acceptance [with God].

On one occasion, during the lifetime of the deceased [Mirzā Ayyūb Baig], I supplicated repeatedly for his recovery. Then, I saw in a dream a road which seemed as if it had been paved with blocks of the moon and a person was leading Ayyūb Baig along this road which led to the sky. The road was very bright and shining as if the moon had been laid upon the earth. I related this dream to the members of the Jamāʿat. I made myself hope that it was an indication of his restoration to health, but I felt troubled at heart in fear that restoration to health might not be the correct interpretation. Now, its interpretation has been manifested. [To Allah we belong and to Him shall we return.]

April 25, 1900

While writing this letter, as my mind was dwelling upon Ayyūb Baig (deceased) and I was thinking how quickly he had disappeared from our sight rendering our relationship a mere memory, I suddenly received the revelation:

[Urdu] Blessed is the man who enters through this door.

This is an indication that the death of our dear [Mirzā] Ayyūb Baig has been a blessed one and that fortunate is the person who dies such a death.

God directed me: Arise and tell these people: I have with me proof from God, then will you reject God’s evidence? The words of God that descended upon me were:

At the time of the writing of this booklet it was conveyed to me that what I wrote in Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah about Qadian, in consequence of a vision, namely, that Qadian is mentioned in the Holy Qur’an, is indeed correct. It is a certainty that the verse of the Holy Qur’an:

\[\text{\textit{Glory be to Him Who carried His servant by night from the Sacred Mosque to the Distant Mosque, the environs of which We have blessed,...}} (\textit{Banī Isrā‘īl}, 17:2)\] describes not only the \textit{mi‘rāj} [ascent] of the Holy Prophet with reference to space, but also his ascent with reference to time, for without this the ascent would be incomplete. In other words, as God took the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, from the Sacred Mosque to the Distant Mosque as a journey between the two places, in the same way He also took him on a spiritual journey through time from the age of the splendour of Islam which...

521 Glory be to Him Who carried His servant by night from the Sacred Mosque to the Distant Mosque, the environs of which We have blessed,... (\textit{Banī Isrā‘īl}, 17:2) [Publishers] was the time of the Holy Prophet (on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah) to the age of the blessing of Islam which is the time of the Promised Messiah. From this point of view, which takes note of the journey of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, in a vision to the latter days of Islam, Aqṣā Mosque [the Distant Mosque] means the mosque of the Promised Messiah which is located in Qadian and concerning which God’s word set out in Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah is:

\[\text{مبارك و مبارک} \]

This use of the phrase مبارك [mubārak and mubārik—blessed, and a source of blessings], which is used both in its subjective and objective connotations, corresponds to the phrase: [The environs of which We have blessed]\(^5\) in the verse of the Holy Qur’an. There is no doubt, therefore, that Qadian is referred to in the Holy Qur’an.

\textbf{June 2, 1900}

Today, Saturday June 2, 1900, at 2 p.m. in a light slumber I was shown a sheet of paper which was very white and in the last line of which was written:

\[\text{عِرْضَال} \]

\textbf{[Urdu] Glory}

I conceive that the word occurring in the last line means that the end would be glorious.

\(^5\) [Arabic] Blessed, and a source of blessings and every blessed affair will be determined in it. [Publishers]

\(^5\) \textit{(Banī Isrā’īl, 17:2)} [Publishers]
Then the revelation came:

[Urdu] The Powerful One has manifested His affair;

Those who called [me] a disbeliever have been seized.

The meaning of this, which has been conveyed to me, is that soon such powerful Signs would be shown whereby those who called me a disbeliever would be charged themselves and will be seized securely and would have no way of escape left. This is a prophecy which every reader should remember.

June 3, 1900

Thereafter on June 3, 1900 at 11:30 a.m., I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Those who called [me] a disbeliever have been put down,

All and every one of them have been seized.

This means that those who call me a disbeliever shall witness such Signs that they will have no excuse left. The revelation indicates that soon some bright Sign will be manifested which will be decisive.

I have been told that of all faiths, Islam is the only true one. I have been vouchsafed knowledge that of all guidance, only the guidance contained in the Qur’an is perfect and free from human interpolation. I have been made to understand that of all Prophets the one whose teaching is perfect and is at the highest level of purity and wisdom, and who has set the highest example of human perfection in his life, is our lord and master Muḥammad, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah. God’s pure and holy revelation has informed me that I have been sent by Him as the Promised Messiah and Mahdī and am the arbiter of all internal and external differences.

Translation: [Arabic] Allah has blessed you, O Ahmad. He has taught you the Qur’an so that you might warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and so that the way of the guilty ones might become manifest, that is, it be made known who the guilty ones are. Say: I have been commanded by God and I am the first of all the believers. Allah, Who has sent His Messenger, has sent him with two objectives: He has graced him with the bounty of guidance... and has granted him the religion of truth... so that He might prove the superiority of Islam over all other faiths from every point of view. You were on the brink of a pit from which He has delivered you and this had been ordained since eternity. There is no one who can change the words of Allah. He will suffice against those who mock. All of this enterprise is by the mercy of your Lord. He will perfect His favour unto you so that it might be a Sign for the people. Tell them: If you love Allah, then follow me, so that Allah may also love you. Tell them: I have with me testimony from God for my truthfulness, then will you accept God’s testimony or not? Tell them: Carry on, on your side, and I will carry on, on my side, and then will you know who has the support of Allah. God has shown a manifestation in order to show you mercy, but if you turn away, He will also turn away, and the opponents of truth shall remain in eternal confinement. They try to frighten you. You are under Our watchful care. I have named you the Mutawakkil [the one who trusts in God]. Allah praises you from His throne. We praise you and send down blessings on you. People desire to put out Allah’s light with the breath of their mouths, but Allah will not leave this light uncompleted even if the disbelievers should resent it. We shall soon put fear in their hearts. When the help of Allah comes and the victory and the [people of the] age turn towards Us, it will be asked: Was it not the truth, which you disbelieved? They say: ‘This is but imposture.’ Tell them: It is Allah, Who has created this enterprise, then leave them occupied with their sport. Tell them: if I have invented a lie, the sin thereof is on me; and who is more unjust than the one who invents a lie against Allah? We are Powerful to show them a manifestation of Our power before your death as promised to you, or cause you to die. I am with you, so be you with Me wherever you might be; [be with Allah wherever you might be. In whichever direction you turn there is the countenance of Allah]. You are the best people raised for the benefit of mankind. You are a source of pride for the believers. Despair not of the mercy of Allah. His mercy is close to you. The help of Allah is close to you. His help will come to you from every distant track. People will come to help you from every distant track. Allah will help you from Himself. People upon whose hearts I shall convey my revelation will help you. I shall deliver you from sorrow. I am the Lord—All-Powerful. We shall give you a clear victory. The victory granted to a friend of Allah is always a great victory. We have made him an intimate of Ours. He is the bravest of men. Had faith ascended to the Pleiades, he would have brought it down. God will illuminate his reasoning. Mercy flows from your lips, O Ahmed. You are under Our watchful care. Allah will exalt your name and will perfect His favour unto you in the world and hereafter. O My Ahmed, you are My purpose and are with Me. I have planted your tree with My Own hand. We looked at you and commanded the fire, which is the fire of mischief from the people: Be cool and safe for this Ibrâhîm [Abraham].... O Ahmed, your name will come to an end but My name will not come to an end. O Ahmed, you have been blessed and you alone were deserving of what Allah has blessed you with. Your status is wonderful and your reward is near. I shall make you the promised leader of men, that is, will appoint you as the Promised Messiah and the awaited Mahdi. Is this a matter of wonder for people? Tell them: Allah is Wonderful. This is His way

525 This is a summary of the meanings as expressed by the Promised Messiah. The literal meaning is: Your Lord is All-Powerful. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

526 The import of this revelation is: O Ahmed, your name will reach its ultimate point, but My name, being unlimited, will never be reached fully. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed] since eternity; He pulls towards Himself whom He wills from among His servants, and joins him with His elect. He is not accountable for what He does and people are accountable. You have a high standing in My Presence. I have chosen you for Myself. The heaven and the earth are with you as they are with Me. Your secret is My secret. You are to Me as My Unity and My Uniqueness. So the time has come that you should be recognised among people. You are currently passing through a time that nobody recognises you. Soon you will be recognised by people. They ask: ‘Whence have you obtained this rank; to us, it seems to be only imposture.’ The truth is that when Allah helps a believer and includes him in His elect, He creates many in the land who envy him; this is the way of Allah. So tell them: I am nothing; it is all from Allah and then leave them occupied with their useless concerns. Holy is Allah, Blessed and High, Who has increased your status. The time is coming that no one will talk of your ancestors, and count of the progeny will begin with you (and this is the way Almighty God has always treated the Prophets and the great appointed ones). Allah will not leave you till He has demonstrated the difference between the unclean and the clean. I determined to appoint a vicegerent and so I created Ādam. O Ādam, dwell you and your companions and your wife in the paradise. O Aḥmad, dwell you and your companions and your wife in the paradise. O Maryam [Mary], dwell you and your companions and your wife in the paradise. You will die at a time when I am pleased with you. With Allah’s grace, you will enter the garden. In security, with purity and with peace, you will enter the paradise.
[Urdu] God will set right all your affairs and will bestow on you all that you desire. [Arabic] Peace on you, you have been blessed and I have exalted you above all the people of your time. They will say: ‘This is an imposture. We have not heard of it from our ancestors.’ Your Lord is Powerful. He pulls towards Himself whom He wills. We have honoured the children of Ādam and have exalted some of them above others. Tell them: Light has come to you from Allah, then do not deny it, if you are believers. Those who have disbelieved and have hindered people from the path of Allah have been refuted by a man of Persia [whose effort God has appreciated]. The book of the friend of Allah is the sword of ‘Alī. If faith had ascended to the Pleiades, he would have brought it down. Its oil would well-nigh glow forth even though no fire were to touch it. He approached God and marched forward till he stood between two bows. … We have sent it down close to Qadian. We have sent it down with truth and with truth it has descended. It has fulfilled the prophecy contained in the Qur’ān and Ḥadīth, that is, he is the Promised Messiah whose advent is prophesied in the Holy Qur’ān and the ahādīth. It is the word of truth which you doubt. Some of them will say: So and so who lives at such a place was more deserving of this appointment. And they will say: This is a plan which you have devised in the city. They look towards you but cannot see you. Look, what a great Sign it is that Allah Himself has taught him; and none except the pure are given knowledge of the Qur’ān. O servant of the Almighty, I am with you. This day you are in a position of trust with Me and My mercy covers you in this world and the next. You are one of those who are helped and are successful. You are honoured in this world and in the hereafter and you are one of those who are close to God. I am your indispensible support. I have revived you. I have breathed into you the spirit of truth from Myself and have poured My love on you. You have been brought up under My care. Allah praises you and walks towards you. He created Ādam, that is, yourself and honoured him. He is the Messenger of Allah in the mantles of the Prophets. He who has been rejected from his maṭba’\(^{527}\) has no place of resort left. Keep in mind the time in future when he who has proclaimed you a disbeliever will devise a stratagem against you and will say to one possessing great influence: ‘O Hāmān, light the fire of mischief for me so that I might discover the God of this man, though I consider him a liar.’ Ruined are the two hands of Abū Lahab [the father of flames] and ruined is he (that is, he who wrote the edict, and the one who dictated it). It did not behove him to enter into this matter except in fear\(^{528}\) .... Whatever pain will afflict you in consequence of this edict of apostasy is from Allah. It will be a trial, then be steadfast as were steadfast the prophets of high resolve. In the end, Allah will frustrate the plan of the disbelievers. Know it and remember it that this trial will be from Allah so that He might love you with a great love; love from Allah the Mighty, the Lord of Honour. The reward destined for you in consequence of this trial is a bounty that will not be cut off. I was a hidden treasure, so I desired to be known. The heavens and the earth were a solid mass, whose substance and secrets were hidden and We split them both.

\(^{527}\) Maṭba’ literally refers to the place where things are printed or stamped. His maṭba’, in this revelation, seems to mean that, in this age, he who does not receive the stamp of the approval of faith from the Promised Messiah\(^{\text{as}}\) has no resort left. Allah knows best. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed]

\(^{528}\) The revelation: ‘It did not behove him to enter into this matter except in fear’ indicates that if one does not comprehend something stated by a reformer, there is no harm in holding a discussion with due respect, good intention and purity of heart. But the matter should not reach the point of enmity and harshness, because that would result in loss of faith and the title of ‘Abū Lahab’.

[Diyā’ul-Ḥaqq, pp. 33–34, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 9, p. 294]

This means that there have been created people in this age who are discovering the nature and characteristics of material things in earth and in contrast to them other people have been raised for whom the gates of heaven have been opened.

The disbelievers mock you and say: ‘Is this the one whom Allah has raised up?’ Tell them: I am but a man from God; it is revealed to me that your God is one God. All good is in the Qur’an. [Persian] Tread joyfully because your time has arrived and the feet of the Muslims have been planted on a high and firm tower. [Urdu] The same Holy Muḥammad(sa), who is the Chief of the Prophets. [Arabic] O ‘Īsā [Jeṣūṣ], I shall cause you to die and shall raise you towards Me. I shall place your Jamā‘at above your opponents till the Day of Judgment. There will be a company from among the first, who will accept in the very beginning and a company from among the last ones, who will accept after witnessing repeated Signs. [Urdu] I shall exhibit My flash. I shall exalt you as a demonstration of My power. A Warner came to the world, but the world did not accept him; but God will accept him and will demonstrate his truth with powerful assaults. [Arabic] Allah is his Guardian. Allah’s favour is his guardian. We have revealed it and We are its Guardian. God is the best Guardian and He is the Most Gracious, Ever Merciful. The leaders of disbelief will try to frighten you. Be not afraid, you will be supreme. Allah will help you in every field. My day will be the day of great judgment. I have given My word: I and My Messengers shall prevail. No one can change My words. You are with Me and I am with you. I have created the night and the day for you. Act as you would, I have forgiven you. You have a standing with Me of which the people have no knowledge. Do people think that he is a mysterious man who resides in heavens or hides in a cave. Say: Allah will perform wonders upon wonders. Everyday He puts forth a new wondrous Sign. He it is Who sends down the rain after they lose hope. [Tell them: Put forth your argument if you are truthful. Give glad tidings to those who have believed that they have a standing of truth with their Lord.] To Him ascend all pure words. Peace be on 529 Note by Munawar Ahmed Saeed: The Promised Messiah as states in Arba‘în, number 2, pages 6–9, published 1900, Rūḥānî Khazā‘în, volume 17, page 355:

This is an indication that: ‘Can the imaginary Messiah, who according to these opponents resides in the heavens, and the imaginary Mahdī who, according to some other opponents, resides in a cave, be more wondrous that Our Signs which are replete with real knowledge and true philosophy?’ No doubt the phenomenon based on knowledge is more wondrous because it contains points of wisdom wherein lies abundance of good.

[Arabic] [Holy is Allah, Who is the Source of Blessings, and very High, Who has augmented your status. He will cut off your collaterals and will begin with you. This is a bounty which will not be cut off. Peace is the word from the Merciful Lord. It will be said: Ruin overtake the people who do wrong. You will witness distant progeny and We shall bestow upon you a pleasant life. Eighty years or thereabout or We shall add some years to it. The promise of Allah is bound to be fulfilled. This is of the mercy of your Lord. He will complete His favour unto you so that it should be a Sign for the believers. Allah will help you in many fields. Allah will perfect His light though the disbelievers might resent it. They plan and Allah plans and Allah is the Best of planners.

Hearken! The mercy of Allah is near. Hearken! The help of Allah is near. His help will reach you from every distant track. Your helpers will come from every distant track. Men will help you whom We shall direct from heaven. No one can change the words of Allah. He is the High, the Great. He it is Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, and for the reform of morals. They say: Soon will this affair be frustrated; while they have no knowledge of that which is hidden. We have bestowed upon you the world, and the treasures of the mercy of your Lord, and you are of those who are helped by God. I shall place those who follow you above those who disbelieve till the Day of Judgment. You have a position of honour and trust with Us. You have a standing with Me of which the people have no knowledge. God would not leave you till He demonstrates the distinction between the pure and the impure. So leave Me alone to deal with those who give you the lie. God is supreme over His command but most people know not. When the help of Allah arrives and the victory and the words of your Lord are fulfilled, (it will be said): This is what you desired to be hastened. I decided to appoint a vicegerent and created Ādam. He will establish the law and revive the faith. Had faith ascended to the Pleiades, he would have brought it down. We have sent it down close to Qadian and We have sent it down with the truth and with the truth it has descended. Allah and His Messenger have affirmed the truth and Allah’s decree was bound to be carried out. The heavens and the earth were a solid mass and We split them asunder. He it is Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth so that He might cause it to prevail over all religions. They say: ‘This is all imposture’. Say: If I have fabricated it, I shall bear the burden of its guilt. I have spent among you a whole lifetime before this, then will you not understand? They say: ‘We have not heard any of this from our forefathers’. Say: The guidance of Allah is the only true guidance and he who seeks something else beside it, it will not be accepted from him and in the hereafter he will be among the losers. You are certainly on the straight path. You have a good standing in this world and the next and you are one of those who are close to Allah. They say: ‘Whence did you obtain all this? This is but the word of a man and other people have helped him in the matter, then will you submit to magic deliberately? Fie on that which you are being promised by this low person who cannot make his meaning clear, being ignorant or a lunatic.’ Say: If you love Allah, then follow me, Allah will then love you. We shall suffice you against those who mock you. Leave Me alone to deal with those who give you the lie. All praise belongs to Allah Who has made you Masîh ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary]. He chooses for Himself whom He wills. He is not accountable for that which He does, and they are accountable. There are people for whom We have made it easy to accept the guidance and there are people for whom Our chastisement has been decreed. They plan and Allah plans and Allah is the Best of planners and the plan of Allah is the greatest. They mock you and say: ‘Is this the one whom God has raised up? He is a man who will ruin the faith.’ My Signs have been illumined and they have denied them unjustly and arrogantly while their hearts realise their truth. Allah ruin them, whither are they turned away? Say to them: O ye who disbelieve, I am of the righteous, I have with me evidence from Allah that I have been commissioned and I am the foremost of believers. Build the ark under Our supervision and according to Our directions. Those who enter into a covenant with you enter into a covenant with Allah; Allah’s hand is above their hands. Those who turn to Me and reform are the ones to whom I shall
The leader is the best of all creation. The enemy will say: ‘You are not a Messenger.’ We shall seize him from the snout. Call to mind when your Lord said: I am about to place a vicegerent in the earth; and they said: ‘Will you place therein one who will commit disorder?’ He answered: I know that which you do not know. They look at you but do not see you. They are awaiting your being afflicted with misfortune; they themselves will be the subjects of evil fortune. Say: Carry on, on your side, and I shall also carry on, and then soon will you know. Allah will safeguard you, though men may not; though men may not safeguard you yet Allah will safeguard you. Holy is Allah. You are His dignity, He will not forsake you. You are the Messiah whose time will not be wasted. A pearl like you is not wasted. Allah will not furnish the disbelievers with a cause against the believers. Have you not seen that We are diminishing the earth from its borders? Have you not seen that Allah has power over all things? Then await the Signs for a while. You are the honoured Messiah and I am with you and with your helpers and you are My high name. You are to Me like My Unity and My Uniqueness and you have with Me the standing of a loved one. Then be steadfast till Our decree arrives and warn your near relations and warn your people and tell them: I am a plain Warner. They are an immoral people; they have rejected Our Signs and have mocked them. Allah will suffice you against them and will return her to you. There is no changing of His words. Allah’s promise is true and Allah has power to do all that He determines. Say: Yea, by my Lord it is the truth, and be not of those who doubt. We have married her to you. It is Our way that when We determine a matter We say to it: Be; and it is. We give them respite till a fixed period which is near. Great is Allah’s grace upon you. My help will come to you. I am the Gracious One. When the help of Allah arrives and I address Myself to the judgment, they will say: Our Lord, forgive us, we were in error; and they will fall down on their faces. (They will be told:) No blame shall lie on you this day. May Allah forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy. Glad tidings for you in those days. Faces will be disfigured. On that day the unjust one will rub his hands in remorse and will say: ‘Fie on me! I wish I had adopted the way of the Messenger.’ They say: ‘This is only the word of a man.’ Say: Had it been from any other than Allah, they would have found in it much contradiction. Give glad tidings to those who have believed that they have a standing of truth with their Lord. Allah will not humiliate them. Allah will not destroy the members of your family. Those who have believed and have not adulterated their faith with the least injustice are the ones who will have peace and they will be rightly guided; for them the gates of heaven will be opened. We desire to send down on you more mysteries from heaven and We shall shatter the enemies completely and shall show Pharaoh and Hāmān and their hosts that of which they were afraid. Say: O you who disbelieve, I am of the truthful ones, so await my Signs for a while. We shall show them Our Signs in the universe and in their own selves. (On that day) proof will be completed and there will be open victory. The command of Allah the Gracious One, for the vicegerent of Allah, the Sultaṅ: he will be granted a great kingdom and treasures will be opened for him and the earth will be lit up with the light of her Lord. This is Allah’s grace and it is strange in your eyes. Peace be on you. We have sent you down as a proof and Allah is All-Powerful. Blessings on you and peace. Peace is the word from the Merciful Lord. You are able and shall therefore receive plentiful rain. Mercy will descend upon three of your organs, the eyes and two others and We shall bestow on you a pleasant life. Surely We have given you abundance of good. So pray to your Lord, and offer sacrifice. I am Allah, then worship Me and do not seek help from any other than Me. I am Allah, there is no God except Me and there is no strength except My strength. When We descend into the environs of people, evil is the morning of those who have been warned. I shall come to you suddenly with My hosts and there will be triumph and victory. I shall roll like the waves of the sea. There will be a trial here, then be steadfast as were steadfast those of high resolve. We shall send you flames of fire (by way of trial). Believers will be tried and then security will be restored to you. It may be that you dislike a thing which might be the better for you. Allah knows and you do not know. The mill will revolve and the decree will descend. The grace of Allah is sure to come and no one will be able to obstruct it. Say: Yea, by my Lord, this is the truth, it will not be changed nor will it remain hidden. A matter will arise which will cause you to wonder. This is revelation from the Lord of high heavens. My Lord does not err, nor does He forget. (You will have) clear victory. We give them respite during a fixed term. You are with Me and I am with you. Say: everything is in the power of Allah and then leave him in his error and pride. He is with you, He knows all that is hidden and beyond the knowledge of men. There is no God except Him; He knows and sees everything. Allah is with those who are righteous and who carry out their duty to the utmost. We sent Aḥmad to his people but they turned away and said: ‘He is a mischievous liar.’ They bore witness against him and tried to overwhelm him like flood water. My Beloved is near; He is near but is hidden. They seek to kill you but Allah will safeguard you and watch over you. I am your Protector. The favour of Allah is your protector. You will witness distant progeny, the children of Qamar. We shall suffice you against those who mock you. Your Lord is on the watch, He will turn children into old men. Diseases will spread and lives will be lost. I shall soon descend and My day will be a day of great judgment. Be not surprised at My affair. We intend to honour you and protect you. The moon of the Prophets will come and your affair will be achieved. You are not the one to let go of Satan before overcoming him. They desire to put out the light of Allah and Allah is supreme over His decree, but most people know it not. For you is elevation and debasement is your enemies’ share. Whichever way you turn there will be the countenance of Allah. Say: The truth has come and falsehood has vanished. Allah is the One Who had made you the Masīḥ ibn-e Maryam [Messiah, son of Mary], so that you might warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and so that you might convey the message to another people. It may be that Allah will bring about friendship between you and those who are your enemies. We are aware of the matter and We know. All praise belongs to Allah, Who has bestowed upon you a good descent and provided you with good relations by marriage. Recall My bounty for you have seen My Khadijāh. This is of the mercy of your Lord. He will perfect His favour unto you so that it should be a Sign for the believers. You are with Me and I am with you, O Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. You are a bright and decisive Sign. Allah will show His path through you. You are firmly established upon the attributes of God. You are a manifestation of the Ever-Living. You are the beginning of the affair from Me. You are from Our water and they are from filth. When the two hosts meet I shall stand with My Messenger and angels will help him. I am the Gracious One, the Lord of Glory, the High. He does not speak out of his own desire, it is all revelation vouchsafed to him. I desired to appoint a vicegerent and created Ādam. To Allah belongs all authority before and after. O My servant, be not afraid. Do you not see that We are

Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīmra writes in a letter:

While he was suffering from headache yesterday, the Promised Messiah[as] repeatedly received the revelation:

1900

While I was engaged upon the compilation of this book, Allah the Almighty addressed me and said:

यलाश नाम अपने ही नाम है

[Urdu] Yalāsh is the name of God Himself.

This is a revealed new word which is not found in this form in the Qur’an or hadith or in any dictionary. It has been disclosed to me that it connotes [yā lā sharīk] [O You without an associate]. The purpose of this revelation is that no human being possesses a quality or a name or performs any action which is peculiar to Him and is not to be found in any other. That is why the qualities and the miracles of every Prophet are displayed, by way of reflection, by some of his selected followers who have a perfect spiritual relationship with him, lest the ignorant ones should hold a Prophet to be without an associate because of some uniqueness. To call a Prophet Yalāsh would amount to utter disbelief.

537 [Arabic] I shall come to you suddenly with the leaders. [Publishers]
When the Dajjāl [Antichrist] is destroyed there will be no Dajjāl thereafter till the Judgment Day. This is a determination by the All-Wise, All-Knowing. This is an intimation from our Noble Lord and good news from Allah, the Compassionate and the Merciful.

God Almighty has informed me that all these aḥādīth which are cited [by my opponents] suffer from perversion of meaning or text or have been entirely fabricated. And he who has been commissioned as the Arbiter has the authority to select, on the basis of knowledge bestowed by the Divine, out of the corpus of aḥādīth those that he deems authentic and reject the others, based on the knowledge bestowed by the Divine.

[Appendix Tuḥfa-e-Golārhiyyah, p. 10 footnote, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn vol. 17 p. 51 footnote]

(A) Once I was shown in a vision a person well versed in Sanskrit who was a great believer in Krishan [Krishna]. He stood before me and addressed the following words to me:

Which are a bundle of conjecture and are distorted and doubtful….The Holy Qur‘an also establishes these aḥādīth as false.

I understood therefrom that the whole world whether Hindu, Muslim or Christian, is waiting for a Ruddar Gopāl, but he has been described in different words and languages; and all are agreed that this is the time of his advent. All have set out two qualities for him: slayer of swine, and protector of cows. I am the one [possessing both these qualities]. Among the Hindus it has been proclaimed from ancient times that the subject of these prophecies would appear in the Āryāvart, that is to say, in this country India. Those prophecies also set out names of places of his habitat but they are all metaphoric, subject to interpretation.

(B) God Almighty has disclosed to me repeatedly in my visions that a person of the name of Krishan, who appeared among the Āryas, was a chosen one of God and was a Prophet of his time.

The expression Avatar which is current among the Hindus is in its essence synonymous with Prophet. There is a prophecy in Hindu scriptures that in the latter days an Avatar would appear, who will possess the qualities of Krishna and will be his reflection. It has been conveyed to me that I am that person. Krishan had two qualities; one, that he was Ruddar i.e. the slayer of wild beasts and swine, [evil characters] that is to say by reasoning and Signs; and, two, that he was Gopāl i.e. the nourisher of cows, that is to say he was a helper of the virtuous through his spirit. Both

539 Ruddar in Sanskrit means terrible or wrathful. Its import here is ‘He who annihilates the evil beings’ and Gopāl means a cowherd. Here it signifies ‘He who nourishes and protects the righteous beings.’ [Munawar Ahmed Saeed] of these are the qualities of the Promised Messiah and God has bestowed both of them upon me.

(C) God, who is the Master of heaven and the earth, has disclosed to me and has told me—not once, but several times—that: ‘You are Krishan for the Hindus and the Promised Messiah for the Muslims and the Christians.’

(D) Now let it be clear that it has been made manifest to me that Rāja Krishan was, in fact, such a perfect man that his match is not found in any Rishi and Avatar of Hindus. He was the Avatar, that is, Prophet, of his time and the Spirit of Holiness descended upon him from God. God had bestowed victory and majesty on him. He cleansed the land of Āryāvart of sin. He was in fact a prophet of his time, but his teachings were distorted in several things after him. He was filled with the love of God and held piety dear to him and loathed evil. God had promised that his reflection, that is an Avatar, would be sent in the latter days; so this promise was fulfilled in my appearance.

(E) Among other revelations concerning myself I also received the revelation:

[Urdu/Hindi] O Krishan, Ruddar Gopāl, your praise is recorded in the Gītā.

(F) I am the Krishan for whose advent the Āryas are waiting in these days. I do not make this claim on my own, but God Almighty has conveyed to me repeatedly that:
Krishan who was destined to appear in the latter days is you yourself. The King of Āryas.

1900
I was sitting on a large square throne which was set down among the Hindus. One Hindu inquired from someone: Where is Krishan Jī? He pointed to me and said: This is he. Then the Hindus, who were present, began to make offerings of money etc. to me. One of the Hindus in the crowd called out

The Promised Messiah⁴¹ said:

I saw in a vision that Maḥmūd’s mother came holding a pair of shoes in her hands and said to me, ‘Please wear this new pair of shoes’. Then she handed it over to me and repeated, ‘This pair of shoes is for you, so please put it on. The enemy has been overcome’.

[From the Letter of Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karīm⁴⁰, published in al-Ḥakam, vol. 4, no. 37, October 17, 1900, p. 2]

October 27, 1900

(A) It happens often that the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be on him, tells me something and I hear it, but I do not see his face. This is a condition midway between vision and revelation. Last night he⁴¹ said concerning the Promised Messiah:

⁴³⁴⁴

[Arabic] On the one hand, he will put off fighting and on the other, he will bring about peace between people.

Meaning that there will be two Signs for the Promised Messiah:

First: external, that there will be no fighting, and Second: internal, that mutual peace will be made.

Thereafter, he⁴¹ said:

Silmān means a double peace.

⁴³ The word بَنِينَ has been inadvertently omitted by the scribe. al-Ḥakam, volume 9, number 42, dated November 30, 1905, page 2 shows that the revelation is: [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

⁴⁴ [Arabic] Salmān is one of us, a member of the household.

[Publishers]
He then said:

meaning that Ḥaḍrat Ḥasan, may Allah be pleased with him had brought about a double peace, one whereby he made peace with Ḥaḍrat Mu‘āwiyyah and the other that he brought about peace between the Companions of the Holy Prophet. This shows that the Promised Messiah has the characteristics of Ḥasan.

Then he said:

[Urdu] He will drink the same milk that Ḥasan drank.

Then the Promised Messiah[as] observed: The saying that the Mahdī will be a descendant of the Holy Prophet has been explained by this revelation and also the function of the Promised Messiah, who is also the Mahdī, has been expounded. Those who allege that as soon as he appears he will wield the sword and will slaughter the disbelievers are in error. The truth is, as indicated in these revelations, that he would inherit two kinds of peace—that is, he would bring about peace externally, and would also promote reconciliation internally.

(B) It is a historical fact recorded in the history of my ancestors that one of my grandmothers was from a noble family of the descendants of the Holy Prophet, through his daughter Fāṭima. This was confirmed by the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be on him, in a dream when he addressed me in the following words:

545 [Arabic] According to the method of Ḥasan. [Publishers]
Thus, he named me Salmān (Silmān), that is to say double peace. Silm, in Arabic, means peace. That is to say, it is destined that I would bring about two kinds of peace, one internal which will put an end to ill will and rancour and the other external which will remove the causes of external enmity and by displaying the greatness of Islam will attract the followers of other faiths to Islam. It seems to me that by the mention of Salmān in the ḥadīth, it was I who was meant because the prophecy with regard to double peace does not apply to the other Salmān.

546 [Arabic] Salmān is one of us, a member of the household, following the method of Ḥasan. [Publishers]
لا يجب أن تكون حياتك في الدنيا والأثرة في الدار الآخرة. فكم من الناس كان أصغر مكسيكيه كمال، فأخذت مهنته تخبر، ولن يحياء من الأحياء إذا لم يذكر الله من بين الناس. لن تتجه إلى الحرم الإلهي، بل تتجه إلى دارك، ولن تكن من السيدة في الدنيا والأثرة.

وفى الوقت، كان أبًا ونبيًا، يخدم الله من عنده ولا يظلمه فتعليمه. واتيكانتا من السماوات، وقيل، إنه لم ي知ってه، واتتكانتا له في الدنيا وأيامها. ولقد أذن الله له بإذن الله، وابن الله، وابن الله.

وليشقنا بها، وسنشتقتها في السماوات، وليم الله. تجعلنه من بين الناس. ومرا أمراً، وذكر الله من بين الناس، وفطر الله من بين الناس.

لا يذكر هذه، حتى يذكر الله، لا يذكر الله من بين الناس. وذكر الله من بين الناس، وكثيرًا من الناس. وذكر الله من بين الناس، وذكر الله من بين الناس، وذكر الله من بين الناس.
Translation: [Arabic] Glad tidings for you, My Aḥmad. You are My purpose and are with Me. I have planted for you My tree with My own hand. Your secret is My secret and you have a good standing in My presence. I have chosen you for Myself.

You are to Me like My Unity and My Uniqueness, so the time has arrived when you should be helped and be known among the people. O Aḥmad, grace—that is verities and points of wisdom—flow from your lips. You have been blessed, O Aḥmad, and the blessing that Allah has bestowed upon you was deserved by you.

The Gracious One has taught you the Qur’an—that is, informed you the meanings of the Qur’an that people had forgotten—so that you might warn a people whose ancestors passed away unheeded and so that the guilty ones might be faced with a conclusive argument from God. Tell them: I am not saying this on my own, but on the basis of revelation from God and I am the foremost of the believers in this age. Tell them: If you love Allah, then come and follow me, so that Allah may also love you. These people will plan and Allah will also plan and Allah is the Best of planners.

Allah is not such as to leave you till He has distinguished between the pure and the impure. My mercy covers you in the world and the hereafter. This day you are in a position of honour with Us. You are of those who are helped. You have a standing with Me of which the people have no knowledge. We have sent you in order to show mercy for the universe. O Aḥmad, enter Paradise along with your zuaj. O Ādam, enter Paradise along with your zuaj.
This \[zauj\] means that everyone who associates with me, whether it is my wife or friend, will achieve salvation and will experience a heavenly life and will ultimately enter Paradise….

This station is by the Mercy of Allah, so that it may be a Sign for people.\(^{547}\) I determined to establish a vicegerent on the earth and so I created this Ādam. This Ādam will establish the law and revive the faith.

This is a Messenger of Allah in the mantles of the Prophets—with good standing in the world and in the hereafter and one of those who have attained nearness to Allah.

I was a hidden treasure and I liked to be known. We shall make this servant of Ours a Sign for the people and a mercy from Us and this was a matter determined since eternity.

O ‘Īsā [Jesus], I shall cause you to die a natural death, that is your opponents will not succeed in killing you, and shall raise you towards Me, that is will establish with clear arguments and manifest Signs that you are near to Me, and shall purify you from the charges of the disbelievers and shall place those from among the Muslims who follow you above your opponents till the Day of Judgment. A company of your followers will be from among the first and a company from among the last. They seek to frighten you of their mischief, but Allah will safeguard you Himself from the mischief of the enemies even if the people do not safeguard you and your Lord is Powerful.

Allah praises you from His Throne—that is, in contrast to the abuses of the people, Allah praises you. We praise you and send down blessings on you. We shall suffice you against those who mock you. They say: ‘This is a lie which he has fabricated; we have heard nothing like it from our ancestors.’ These ignorant ones do not realize that it is not hard for Allah to grant this station to someone. We have honoured some people above others. This status has been granted by the mercy of your Lord so that it should be a Sign for people. But these people have rejected the Signs of God unjustly and arrogantly while their hearts accept them.

Tell them: I have with me a special testimony from Allah; do you believe it not? Tell them again: I have with me a special testimony from Allah; do you submit or not. When they see a Sign, they say: ‘This is just an ordinary thing; it has happened so since eternity.’ [And if they see a Sign, they turn away and say, ‘A passing feat of magic.’]548 ...Allah has decreed since eternity: I and My messengers will surely prevail—meaning that no matter how severe the opposition, people raised by God would never be vanquished. Allah is Supreme over His decree, but most people know it not. He it is Who has sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth, so that He might make it supreme over all religions. There is no changing the words of Allah. Those who have believed and have not adulterated their faith with any injustice are the ones who will be secure from every calamity and they are rightly guided.

Do not supplicate Me in the matter of those who have committed wrong; they are a people drowned. They treat you with mockery and say: ‘Is this the one whom Allah has raised up?’ They look at you but do not see you. Keep in mind when the one who will declare you a disbeliever will plan against you… and will call upon his elder Hāmān to light the fire of persecution saying: ‘Initiate the edict of apostasy yourself because people have greater regard for you and you can incite them all with your edict. Therefore you be the first to put a stamp of approval, so that all ulema might be excited, and follow your stamp with their stamps. So that I should discover whether God is with this man or not though I consider him a liar.’ (Then he put the stamp.) Ruined is Abū Lahab and so are the two hands (one with which he held the edict and the other with which he put the stamp or wrote the edict). It did not behove him to intervene in this matter but in fear. Whatever pain will afflict you, it will be from Allah.

There will be a great trial after Hāmān puts a stamp on the edict of apostasy, then be steadfast as were steadfast the Prophets of high resolve…. This trial is from Allah, so that He might love you with a great love. It is an everlasting love that will never be cut off. Your recompense is with Allah. Your Lord will be pleased with you and will perfect your name. There are many things that you like for yourselves but they are not good for you. And there are many things that you desire not, but they are good for you. Allah knows and you know not.\textsuperscript{549}

God Almighty has informed me that you are forbidden and absolutely forbidden to offer your Prayers behind an imām who pronounced me a disbeliever or liar, or who is in doubt\textsuperscript{550}. Indeed, your imām should be one of yourselves. There is an indication of this in one aspect of the \textit{ḥadīth} of Bukhārī:\textsuperscript{551}

\textsuperscript{549} Since these revelations have been received several times in different orders, no specific order has been followed in the sequence of the sentences. Every order followed is divinely inspired as the recipient of the revelations was made to understand.

And then said:

Meaning that [Arabic] We shall bestow upon you a pleasant and comfortable life, eighty years or thereabouts—meaning, a few years less or a few years more. You will witness distant progeny. Manifestation of the True and the High, as if Allah had descended from heaven.

Then I received the revelation:

Meaning that [Arabic] The moon of the Prophets will come and your affair will be achieved. You are not the one who would let go of Satan before you overcome him. It is your lot to be victorious and the defeat is destined for your enemies.

And then [Allah the Almighty] said:

Translation: [Arabic] I shall humiliate him who designs to humiliate you and will help him who helps you. Allah will not leave you till He has distinguished the pure from the impure. Holy is Allah; you are His dignity, so how should He leave you. I am Allah, then devote yourself wholly to Me and affirm: Lord I prefer you to everything.
And then the revelation came:

Meaning that [Arabic] The enemy will say: ‘You are not from God’. We shall seize him from his snout, that is, will close all his avenues with conclusive arguments, and shall exact retribution from the wrongdoers on the Day of Judgment. I shall come to you suddenly with My hosts, that is, you do not have the knowledge of the hour when you will be helped. The day will come when the wrongdoer will bite his hands in remorse and will say: ‘Fie on me; I wish I had not opposed this Messenger of God and had stayed with him.’ They say: ‘This Jamā‘at will soon disperse and their affair will be frustrated;’ whereas they have not been granted the knowledge of the unseen. We have sent you as an argument and Allah has all power to send an argument at its needed time.

Then the revelation came:
We sent Al-ımad to his people, but people said: ‘He is a great liar.’ They started bearing false witness against him and fell upon him like the waters of a flood. He said: My Friend is near but hidden.

My help will come to you. I am the Gracious One. You possess the capability and will receive plentiful rain. I shall send to you the groups from every people in large numbers. I have illumined your house. This is a revelation from Allah, the Mighty, the Merciful. If someone asks: ‘How would we know that this is revelation from God’, the evidence for them is that this revelation is accompanied by many Signs. Allah will never furnish the disbelievers with a cause to make a real charge against the believers.

You are the city of knowledge, pure and accepted of the Gracious One. You are My High Name. Glad tidings for you in these days. You are from Me, O Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. You are established on His attributes. You are the manifestation of the Ever-Living One. You are the beginning of the desired affair from Me. You are from Our water and they are from cowardice.
Do they say: ‘We are a host able to take retribution. All of them will flee and they will turn their backs.’ All praise is due to Allah who has provided you with good relations through marriage and a good descent. Warn your people and tell them: I am a plain Warner from Allah. We have produced for you many harvests, O Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. They say: ‘We shall destroy you;’ but God said to His servant: There is nothing to fear; surely I and My Messengers shall prevail. I shall come to you soon with My hosts. I shall roll like the waves of the ocean. Allah’s grace is coming and there is no one who can obstruct it. Tell them: By my Lord! This is the truth which will not be changed nor will remain hidden, and that will come down which will surprise you. This is revelation from the Lord, Maker of the high heavens. There is no God but He, He knows and sees everything. Allah is with those who fear Him and perform virtuous acts nicely and carry out good deeds beautifully. For them will the gates of heaven be opened and for them there will be glad tidings in this life. You are being reared in the side of the Prophet and [you dwell on the tops of mountains].

I am with you in all circumstances.

And then the revelation continued:

be guilty of greater wrong than one who fabricates lies against Allah? This is revelation from Allah, the Mighty and the Merciful, so that you might warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and that you might invite other people to the acceptance of truth. It may be that Allah will soon bring about friendship between you and those who are at enmity with you and your Lord has power to do whatever He wills. They will fall down prostrate on their faces, supplicating: ‘Lord, forgive us, we were in error.’ No blame will lie on you this day. Allah will forgive you and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy. I am Allah, then worship Me, [and do not forget Me] and keep striving to reach Me and keep supplicating your Lord and be diligent in supplication. Allah is a Friend and is Compassionate. A title of honour; a title of honour. There will be a great Sign with it.... God has determined to exalt your name and to illumine it greatly in the universe. I shall exhibit My flash and shall exalt you as a demonstration of My power. Many thrones have descended from heaven, but your throne has been set at the highest level. Angels helped you at the time of your meeting with your enemies. The British dealt kindly with you. God was on the side on which you were. Those who look to heaven suffer no grief whatsoever. This is not a good way. ‘Abdul-Karīm, the leader of the Muslims, should be told not to pursue it. [Arabic] [Be compassionate, be compassionate, for

A title of honour seems to indicate that circumstances will be such that most people will accept and will address him with respect and this will happen after the appearance of a Sign.

A title of honour seems to indicate that circumstances will be such that most people will accept and will address him with respect and this will happen after the appearance of a Sign.

(A) ...Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karīm had spoken somewhat harshly to his wife. This caused the commandment that such harsh language should not be used. Normally a believer should be gentle and courteous towards everyone though on occasion a harsh expression might be employed like a bitter medicine, but only in case of need and to the degree needed. Harshness should not become a habit.

(B) This revelation contains guidance for the whole Jamā‘at, that they should treat their wives with kindness and courtesy. Your wives are not your slaves. In point of fact, marriage is a covenant between man and woman. Therefore, strive not to be false to your covenant. God Almighty says in the Holy Qur’ān:

‘Lead a life of kindness and equity with your wives.’ And it is mentioned in a hadith:
compassion is the principal virtue]. [Urdu] Be compassionate, be compassionate, for compassion is the principal virtue....

[Urdu] God will set all your affairs right and will bestow on you all that you desire. The Lord of hosts will attend to it. Compared with Jesus of Nazareth, the blessings in this case are by no means less. Threaten me not with fire, for fire is my servant and indeed the servant of my servants. 557

(B) I remember having once received the revelation in the Urdu language:

[Urdu] Do not threaten us with fire, for fire is our servant and indeed, the servant of our servants.

The truth is that a true servant of God will not be afflicted with the plague. Anyone who suffers, does so on account of his own default.

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 5, 6, November 28, December 5, 1902, p. 34]

‘The best among you is he who is best towards his wife.’

Therefore, be good to your wives both spiritually and physically. Keep praying for them and avoid divorce. A person who is hasty in divorce is sinful in the eyes of God. Do not hasten to break like a dirty vessel that which God has brought together.

557 God Almighty revealed this sentence as a statement on my behalf.

People came and made all sorts of claims. The lion of God seized them and the lion of God was victorious.

Then it was revealed:

[Persian] Step forth for your time has approached and the feet of the followers of Muḥammad have been firmly established on a high tower.

[Urdu] Holy Muḥammad, the Chosen [Prophet of God], the Chief of the Prophets. [Persian] [And My Signs have been illumined]. [Urdu] That will be a day greatly blessed. A Warner came into the world, but the world did not accept him; but God will accept him and will make his truth manifest by powerful assaults.

Āmīn.

The meaning of the sentence ‘feet of the followers of Muḥammad have been firmly established on a high tower’ is that the Promised Messiah of the latter days, about whom all the prophets had prophesied, was born amongst the Muslims—even though the Jews and the Christians thought that he would be born amongst them. Hence the high tower of respect was given to the followers of Muḥammad. The word [of Muḥammad] has been used here to signify that those looking at only the apparent power and majesty of Islam – of which the word Muḥammad is a manifestation—will now receive abundant Signs from the heavens. This is a requisite for the manifestation of Aḥmad since the name Aḥmad demands not only humility and submissiveness but also self-effacement of the highest degree—which is an essential requirement for expressing as well as deserving the true state of praise, devotion and deep love. The Signs of support go hand in hand with this true state of praise and love.
A friend\textsuperscript{559} of mine, with good intentions, had raised a point with me that verse \textsuperscript{560} was special to the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, and was not applicable in the case of any other claimant of revelation…. I explained my point of view to him. The same night, I experienced the condition which generally presages my revelations. The scene of the discussion was replayed before me and then I received the revelation:

\text{"Tell them: The true guidance is the guidance of Allah." [Arabic]}

This indicates that the connotation of these verses which had been disclosed\textsuperscript{562} to me by Allah is the correct one.

without due consideration. When I had looked through that book and had put it aside, I received the revelation concerning Munshī Ilāhī Bakhsh:

Translation: [Arabic] They desire to see menstruation blood in you. [That is, they are seeking to discover impurity and filth and vulgarity] but God desires to exhibit His continuous favours unto you.

How can they find in me any matter resembling menstruation and what trace of it is left in me, for God has converted, through holy changes, that matter into a handsome boy; and that handsome boy has the status of a son in the estimation of Allah, meaning that although the limbs of a child are nourished and developed through menstruation blood, the child cannot be called impure like menstruation. God has affirmed that I had developed from the state of impurity which is part of human nature into 563 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: al-Ḥakam, volume 4, number 44, December 10, 1900 writes about this revelation:

On the morning of December 4, 1900, the Promised Messiahra said: Last night I was shown the appearance of Ilāhī Bakhsh Accountant’s book, and then I received this revelation…

Referring to the revelation, he said: This revelation has an academic and philosophic aspect, which is related to the juxtaposition of menstruation blood and my progeny. What is the significance? That these people see you as an impure and useless thing, whereas they are not aware that [You are to Me like my progeny]. In short, this revelation of glad tiding shows the ultimate destiny of the true Promised Messiah as against that of a victim of wrath and anger.
purity and that it is folly on the part of my opponents to seek impurity in me because I have become a pure child by the hand of Allah and like a son in His estimation.

God is my Guardian and Providence. There is, thus, the resemblance of a paternal relationship. God has put down the fire which has been sought to be kindled through this book ‘Aṣa-e-Mūsā. God is with the righteous who carry out their duty to the utmost and mind the finer points of taqwā [fear of God].

The Promised Messiah[^as] said: I do not know what is meant[^568] by eleven—eleven days or eleven weeks or what.

[^568]: Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams[^ra]: Subsequently, it was made clear to the Promised Messiah[^as] that the revelation refers to Bābū Ilāhī Bakhsh. He writes:

Bābū Ilāhī Bakhsh died of the plague after the death of eleven beasts as was indicated in the revealed couplet:

This shows that Bābū [Ilāhī Bakhsh] was number twelve and that there are two more after him so that the number fourteen might be completed.

Since prophecies are multi-faceted and possess diverse points of wisdom, they are fulfilled repeatedly in diverse ways to rejuvenate the faith and add to the knowledge of the believers. Another manifestation of the fulfilment of the prophecy appeared in Khalīfatul Masīḥ II[^ra]. In interpreting this revelation as having reference to an incident during the migration from Qadian in 1947, He said in a Friday sermon:

When a study of the revelations vouchsafed to the Promised Messiah convinced me that our migration from Qadian had been indicated with certainty and I decided to leave Qadian, a message was sent to Lahore by telephone that some transport might be arranged for, but no reply was received for eight or ten days. Finally, the reply that came was that Government was not able to arrange for any transport, and thus no transport was available. At that time also I was studying the revelations vouchsafed to the Promised Messiah and I found one revelation ‘After eleven’ [After eleven].

It passed through my mind that possibly it meant that transport would be arranged after the lunar date eleven, but days passed and the solar date 28 arrived and yet no transportation became available. I was pondering over the meaning of the phrase: After eleven; in the revelation of the Promised Messiah, when I received a message from Mirza Bashir Ahmad that Major Bashīr Āḥmad, brother of Major-General Nadhīr Āḥmad had come to see me. This was a mistake. It was not Major Bashīr Āḥmad, but his brother Captain ‘Atāullah. I described the situation to him and asked

(C) Then, I received the Revelation:

[Urdu] There are our pure members in Lahore. They should be informed. They are made of fine clay. Doubt will be removed but the clay will remain. In the context of the acceptance of him whether he could make some arrangement for transportation and security. He told me that he would make some arrangement the same day on his return to Lahore. Accordingly, he procured the car of Navvāb Muḥammad Dīn and the jeep of Mirzā Maḥṣūr Aḥmad and the cars of some other friends and started for Qadian. In the meantime, next day we tried to procure some transportation through an Aḥmadī friend who had promised that he would arrive in Qadian between 8 and 9 a.m. with a military escort. He did not arrive till 10 a.m. and then it passed through my mind that the phrase ‘eleven’ in the revelation might mean eleven o’clock and that transportation might become available after 11 a.m. Mirza Bashir Ahmad was in charge of all these arrangements and every few minutes I received his message that all arrangements had fallen through and that no effort had been successful. I telephoned to him that in view of the phrase ‘after eleven’ in the revelation I was thinking that some arrangement would go through after 11 a.m. I had originally thought that the phrase had reference to a date but that I was now thinking that it had reference to the hour. At five minutes past eleven I was about to lift the receiver of the telephone to try to find out from Mirzā Nāṣir Aḥmad what the situation was, but before I dialled his number, his call came through that Captain ‘Atūllah had arrived with transportation and we thus travelled from Qadian to Lahore.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 4, no. 45, December 17, 1900, p. 2]

(D) At one time I received a revelation:

لا يوجد بشر ساه يك بته بته هو موسر علي به مصر الدين

[Urdu] We have pure friends in Lahore. Doubt has arisen but the clay is fine; doubt will be removed but the clay will remain.

On one occasion the son of Doctor Nūr Muḥammad, owner of the medicine factory, Ḥamdam-e-Ṣiḥat, fell seriously ill. The boy’s mother was very restless with anxiety. I took pity on her and supplicated for the boy’s recovery, whereupon I received the revelation:

ايمها موسرت

[Urdu] Will recover

I communicated this revelation to those who were then close to me. It happened accordingly that by Allah’s grace, the boy recovered completely.

al-Ḥakam reports that:

Ḥaḍrat Ummul-Mu’minin, peace be on her, [wife of the Promised Messiah] felt unwell on January 3, 1901. During the walk the Promised Messiah said that:
‘A few days ago I said to my wife: I have seen in a vision that a woman came and told me that something seems to be wrong with you\(^{569}\), and this was followed by the revelation:

This vision and revelation were fulfilled yesterday January 3, 1901, when my wife became suddenly unconscious and a woman came and told me, as I had seen in my vision.’

(A) The Promised Messiah[as] said: Last night I received a revelation:

This means that [Arabic] in this competition of writing a commentary, no one will be able to compete with you. God has deprived the opponents of the capacity and the knowledge. Although the revelation refers only to a single masculine person, namely, Mehr Shāh [Pīr Mehr ‘Alī Shāh], I have been given to understand by God that all opponents are included in it so that a truly highest and greatest Sign might be shown; that is, if all opponents were to join together like one person to write a commentary in competition with me, they would certainly not be able to do it.

(B) I was shown a cheering dream on Tuesday night when I had supplicated the Divine that He should make my commentary a miracle for the scholars and that none of them should have the power to compile the like of it, nor should they have the strength to write anything in competition with it. On that blessed night, my prayer found

[571] [Arabic] They said: This commentary (that is, I’jāzul-Masīḥ) amounts to nothing. [Publishers] acceptance from the Presence of the Great One and my Lord cheered me saying:

[Arabic] He has been forbidden by the Forbidder from heaven.

Then I understood that the indication was that my opponents would not have the power to attempt it and that they would not be able to produce the like of it either in eloquence or in its qualities. This good news was given by Allah the Most Benevolent, during the last ten days of Ramaḍān.

[I’jāzul-Masīḥ, pp. 66–67, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 18, pp. 68–69]

(C) When the mauлавīs were unable to come forward to compete in writing a commentary and Mehr ‘Alī Shāh of Golarhā had recourse to all kinds of reprehensible devices, God Almighty bestowed upon me the miracle of writing a commentary on my own. I prepared the booklet I’jāzul-Masīḥ in seventy days, though there were several interruptions and, for a good part of the time, I was ill…. During those days, I was vouchsafed a revelation about this book:

Meaning that [Arabic] He has been forbidden by the Forbidder from heaven.

This revelation has been fulfilled so clearly that neither Miyán Mehr ‘Alī nor any of his supporters have been able to write a reply so far.

I had received a revelation relating to my book I’jāzul-Masīḥ:

February 22, 1901

Last night I had much trouble with a pustule, which appeared some days back, and by an itch. Being human, I was apprehensive lest this should be the effect of diabetes 572 (A) One Muhammad Hasan Faizi of village Bheen, Tahsil Chakwal, District Jhelum, a teacher in the Madrassah Nu’mainiah in the Shahi [Royal] Mosque Lahore, made a public announcement that he would write a reply to my book. After making such a tall claim, when he started compiling his notes and with reference to some of the verities that I had set out in my book he called down the curse of Allah upon liars, he perished soon thereafter. Observe how, having called down a curse upon me, he died an accursed death within a week.

(B) Pir Mehr ‘Ali Shah of Golarha wrote a reply to this book I’jazul-Masih after a long time in Urdu, but it was proved that even the Urdu text was a verbatim copy of the book of Muhammad Hasan Bheeni, and this brought great humiliation upon Mehr ‘Ali Shah. Thus, the revelation was fulfilled in his case also.

573 Note by Hadrat Maulana Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: This revelation has been placed in 1901 because the paper al-Badr says that it is two years old. al-Hakam of February 14, 1903 also refers to it as an old ilham.

There is a grand prophecy in it: ‘Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the People of the Elephant?’ That is to say, their own device became the source of their ruin…. This prophecy will continue till the Day of Judgment. Whenever a People of the Elephant arise, God Almighty makes arrangements to ruin them by frustrating their efforts….

In this age attacks are being made on Islam in the way of the People of the Elephant. Muslims suffer from many weaknesses … and the People of the Elephant are in full force but God Almighty intends to repeat the same instance….

I too have received the same revelation which shows that the help and support of God Almighty is bound to do its work.

July 1901

Three days ago, I received the revelation

579 Haḍrat Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiqra has given August 22, 1897 as the date of this revelation. (See Dhikr-e-Ḥabīb, p. 221) [Abdul Latif Bahawalpurī]

580 ‘Sulṭān’ in Arabic, has two connotations: ‘Sovereignty’ and ‘Ability to overpower’. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed]

I have been pondering over the fact that I have received this revelation several times and particularly in connection with the cases brought against me. The use of the word [hosts] indicates that powerful devices are being directed against me by a number of people, for God Almighty is not moved by any personal emotion. Even when He exacts retribution there is an element of compassion in it. When He comes with His hosts it means that there are hosts in opposition to Him. It is not till the opponents carry their vindictiveness to an extreme that the retribution of God Almighty comes into play.

August 11, 1901

The Promised Messiah[as] added: When I received this revelation I was frightened by the expression ‘Allah’s wrath’ and I supplicated and received the revelation:

August 28, 1901

al-Ḥakam reports that the Promised Messiah[as] said on the morning of August 28, 1901:

My opponents are of two types: one, the Muslim maulāvīs etc. and the other: European Christians etc. Both of them, respectively, carry their opposition to me and their unfair attacks upon Islam to an excess. Today I was shown a scene about both of those people and a state of revelation was experienced; but I do not recall the details. About the Christians, an impression was conveyed that many of them will value the truth; but with regard to the maulāvīs etc., I conceived the impression that most of them would be rendered helpless.

September 2, 1901

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I saw in a dream last night that Allah the Almighty was holding court and there was a large gathering and a discussion on swords was in progress. I addressed God Almighty and said:
The best and the sharpest sword is Your sword which is with me.

I then woke up and did not go to sleep again, for it is written that when one sees a dream which conveys good news one should not sleep thereafter as far as possible. By the sword is meant the campaign that I am waging against my opponents which is a heavenly campaign.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I once saw in a vision that I was holding a paper in my hand. I gave it to someone and asked him to read out that which was written therein. [al-Ḥakam, vol. 5, no. 39, October 24, 1901, p. 2]

al-Ḥakam reports that:

On the night of September 30 Ḥaḍrat Ummul-Mu’mīnîn, peace be on her, saw a dream about midnight and she immediately narrated it to the Promised Messiah[as]. It is the following:

The problem of ‘Īsâ has been resolved. God says that when I send down ‘Īsâ, I withdraw my ladder.
From this she understood that the life and death of Jesus were unaffected by any human intervention.

The above was the subject of her dream. The Promised Messiah said: When I pondered over it, it was conveyed to me that:

[Urdu] In truth, the revival that has now taken place after a thousand years of death is free from human intervention.

This means that as God has created Jesus without any father, the Promised Messiah was bestowed spiritual life without the intervention of a teacher or a spiritual preceptor. A teacher is like a father; indeed he is the true father. Plato has said: A father brings a soul to the earth and a teacher raises a soul from the earth to heaven. In short, just as Jesus had been born without a father and without the intervention of a human being, in the same way, in this case God bestowed spiritual life out of His pure grace and benevolence without the intervention of a teacher or a preceptor. Then, while I was thinking about death, I was overtaken by a light slumber and the revelation came:

[Urdu] Freemasons will not be put in power to destroy him.

From Freemasons, I understood people who conspire secretly. From the word ladder which had occurred in my wife’s dream, I understood that spirits descend from heaven and ascend to heaven.

What an interesting matter it is that Allah the Almighty has put a grand prophecy in it. It predicts that people will conspire to kill me, but God Almighty will not give them power over me.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 5, no. 37, October 10, 1901, p. 7]

I saw in a vision once that my fourth son Mubārak Aḥmad had fallen down near the matting and was seriously hurt. His shirt was all stained with blood. As Allah’s will would have it, within less than about three minutes I came out of the veranda and saw Mubārak Aḥmad, who was just over two years old, standing near the matting. He made a sudden child-like movement and his foot slipped and he fell down and his clothes became bloodstained. This happened exactly as I had seen in my vision.

October 21, 1901

Qādī Yūsuf ‘Alī Nu‘mānī, Superintendent, Executive Committee, of Jind State … had been seriously ill since five months. In his condition of sickness, he travelled with great difficulty from Sangrur to Qadian to be near the Promised Messiah[as]. One day his sickness took a very serious turn, namely, on October 21 his condition became very unstable and he appeared to be at death’s door…. His pulse became almost imperceptible…. Pīr Sirājul-Ḥaq Nu‘mānī was greatly worried and went to the Promised Messiah[as] and informed him of the condition of the patient…. Ḥaḍrat prepared three medicines and gave them to Ṣāḥībzdah [Pīr Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu‘mānī] for the patient and he turned to supplication. Within a few minutes, he saw two cheering visions and received the revelation:

ماَهَدَا خَلَقُنِّيِذَّ الْقُرْآنِ وَالْقُرْآنِينِ
It means that [Arabic] the treatment you gave was a timely remedy and use Zedoary\textsuperscript{590}, which counteracts the poison, also.

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} himself provided the Zedoary in the morning and directed its use. From the moment that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} had supplicated, the patient began to revive and made a very rapid recovery.

Then:

\textbf{November 17, 1901}

Last night I saw in a dream that a constable had come with a warrant. He wound a rope around my hand and I said to him: What is this, I find it delightful and pleasant. I drew an indescribable pleasure from it. Along with it, I was handed a notice and someone said: This has been received from the Chief Court. It was beautifully inscribed and appeared to have been in the handwriting of my brother, the late Mirzā Ghulām Qādir. I read it and found that the writing was:

“In a dream, it has been conveyed to me that she will attain to high rank.

She will have a title of honour which has been determined for her from the beginning;”

“May my children never find themselves helpless or afflicted or sorrowful;

May I see all of them righteous before my death;

You have bestowed this good news upon me already.

Holy is He Who has humiliated my enemies;”

“I recall Your bounties O, God. You gave me good news and then bestowed these children;

You gave me the assurance that they will not face ruin and that they will grow and increase like box-trees in a garden;

Often have you given me this news.

Holy, is He Who has humiliated my enemies;”

“You have given me the good news: One of your sons will one day be My beloved;

From that moon, I shall remove all darkness, and shall demonstrate that I have turned around a whole universe;

This good news is a nourishment for my heart.

Holy is He Who has humiliated my enemies;

An hour is coming which will be reminiscent of the Judgment Day.

My Lord has told me that.

Holy is He Who has humiliated my enemies.”

Once I saw in a dream that my fourth son Mubārak Aḥmad had died. Within a few days, he had high fever and lost 595  Navvāb Mubārakah Begum. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] consciousness eight times. The last time it appeared as if his life had come to an end. I began my supplication on his behalf and while I was so occupied I heard everyone say: ‘Mubārak Aḥmad has died’. I placed my hand on him and there was no pulse or breathing and his eyes seemed petrified like those of a corpse. But my supplication brought an extraordinary change and by my putting my hand on him he began to revive and the signs of life returned. Then I announced in a loud voice to those present: If Jesus son of Mary brought any dead person back to life, it would have been nothing more than this. That is, he would have revived someone near to death like this and not one whose soul might have reached the heavens and conveyed by the Angel of Death to its last resting place.

On one occasion I received the revelation:

[Arabic] Lord show me how do You bring the dead back to life. Lord, forgive and have mercy from heaven.

This was an intimation that I would have to supplicate in this manner and my supplication would be heard. Thus, my son Mubārak Aḥmad became so seriously ill that everybody said he had died. I started my supplication and put my hand on him and he began to breathe again. This revelation has also been fulfilled in this wise that through me, God Almighty has bestowed spiritual life on thousands who were spiritually dead, and continues to do so.

January 9, 1902

In the beginning of January 1902, an Arab visitor had arrived and people held diverse opinions about him. On the night of January 9, at about 3 a.m. the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} received a revelation concerning him:

\begin{align*}
\text{قُلْ بِجَزَاءٍ عَادَةٍ أَنَّهُ آنَثَى لَا يَسْتَنْفَعُ الْأَمْوَامُ رَآءَ الدُّعَاءَ} \end{align*}

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} says that thereupon he supplicated and received the revelation:

\begin{align*}
\text{قَدْ جُزِّيتُ عَادَةً أَنَّهُ آنَثَى لَا يَسْتَنْفَعُ الْأَمْوَامُ رَآءَ الدُّعَاءَ}

And then he received another revelation concerning the same Arab [visitor]:

\begin{align*}

Early this morning I received the revelation:

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalāl-ud-Dīn Shamsā: In this revelation, the reference is to the prayer of the Promised Messiah as which was made on behalf of the Promised Messiah as inside the House of Allah through Pir Munshi Aḥmad Jān in 1302 AH. and other members of the Jamāʿat kept saying ‘Āmīn’. When Pir [Aḥmad Jān] went for Hajj, the Promised Messiah as wrote to him in a letter:

‘Remember the request of my humble and unworthy being that when by the grace of Allah the Almighty you are granted the honour of visiting the House of Allah, please pray on behalf of this humblest of Allah’s servants with great humility and submission at that praiseworthy and blessed place in the following words:

‘O Most Merciful of all the mercifuls, a servant of yours – humble, unworthy, full of shortcomings, and unskilled—Ghulām Aḥmad, who resides in the country of India, prays that O Most Merciful, be pleased with me. Forgive my faults and sins, as You are Most Forgiving and Merciful. Grant me the ability to do what pleases you greatly. Create a separation between me and my self as East is separated from the West. Let my life and my death and all my capacities be an offering in Your way. Grant me life in Your love, and let me die in Your love. Raise me among those who love You perfectly. O Most Merciful, [fulfil] the task for whose propagation You have raised me, and the service You have entrusted to me with Your own grace. ...Complete the arguments against the opponents and all those who are unaware of the beauties of Islam at my hand...Keep my humble self and my sincere followers and companions under Your forgiveness, mercy... and support. In this revelation, by ‘distressed one’ is meant the supplicant; and by ‘the Sanctuary’ is meant that which God has safeguarded against ruin. The words [My heart is troubled] refer to God Almighty; that is an indication that the supplications are effective and speedily accepted. This is a Sign of the grace and mercy of Allah. Apparently, [My heart is troubled] may seem to be an unusual phrase, but it is similar to the phrase used in a hadīth of Bukhārī that God has great hesitation in taking possession of the soul of a believer.

The Torah has also employed expressions like ‘remorseful’ [referring to God] which have been misunderstood, because people have no cognition of this phenomenon. The words of this revelation are a demonstration of the deep love and the great mercy of the Divine. The word ‘sanctuary’ indicates shelter and protection.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 6, no. 17, May 10, 1902, p. 6]

It is incumbent upon you to make this prayer on behalf of this humble one in the presence of Allah, the Most Merciful, in the House of Allah without changing or modifying any word.

With greetings of peace,

The humble one, Ghulām Aḥmad

Sayyed ‘Abdul-Qādir Jilānī, may Allah have mercy on him, has said: رأيت رَؤْيَةٌ عَلَى صُورَةِ أَبِي meaning ‘I have seen my Lord in the form of my father’. I too have seen Allah the Almighty in the form of my father. He [my father] was a man of impressive presence. He had seen the days of being an estate owner and therefore, he possessed great courage and high resolve. I saw him seated on a glorious throne and it was conveyed to me that he was God.

The point of it is that as a father is deeply affectionate and compassionate and is most closely related, a vision of God Almighty, in the form of one’s father, is a manifestation of God’s favour, His closeness, and His deep love. That is why the Holy Qur’an says:

One of my revelations also says:

One day the Promised Messiah [as] said: I saw in a vision that Qadian had developed into a magnificent city. Its streets extended beyond the reach of sight. Its buildings rose up to several stories and its shops were well constructed with high platforms. There were fat and well fed bankers and jewellers who graced the market with their presence. They had in front of them heaps of jewels, rubies, pearls, diamonds, and gold and silver coins and there were shops exhibiting all manner of bright shining merchandise. There was so much traffic in the streets of all kinds of conveyances that pedestrians found it difficult to make their way through the traffic.

What was said four years earlier has been fulfilled…. Moreover, God Almighty has informed me during these days also as God, the Glorious and Exalted, says:

[Arabic] You are with Me and I am with you. I have made a bargain with you. My Lord has made a bargain with me.

It is obvious that God does not observe fast or break it. These words are not literally applicable to Him, they are used metaphorically and mean: I shall sometimes send down My chastisement and at other times I shall grant respite…. Divine books are full of such metaphors. For instance it is said in a hadīth that on the Day of Judgment God will say: I was ill, I was hungry, I was naked etc.

I shall stand with My Messenger and shall rebuke the one who rebukes him. I shall divide My time—for a part of the year, I shall break the fast, that is, shall destroy people with plague, and for another part of the year, I shall fast, that is, there will be peace and plague would subside or vanish completely. 610 The Promised Messiah as says:
Allah has revealed to me several times:
[Arabic] I am greatly wroth.
I call to witness the One, Almighty, that He has revealed to me that He is incensed against the world, for most people are so sunk in sinfulness and worship of the world that they have lost faith in the Almighty, and they mock the one who has spread and people will die except those who believe and do not adulterate their faith with the least wrong; they will remain secure and will be saved. Do not imagine that the criminals are secure; We are getting close to their lands. I am secretly preparing My armies, that is, am nourishing the germs of plague; so they will be left sleeping in their homes like a dead camel.

We shall show them Our Signs in the distant people and then in their own selves. These will be days of help from Allah and clear victory. I have made a bargain with you, that is something belonged to Me, but has been given in your possession and something was yours, but now belongs to Me. Do you also acknowledge that bargain and say: ‘My Lord has made a bargain with me.’ You are to Me like My children. You are from Me and I am been sent by Him for the reform of mankind. This mocking and abuse have exceeded all bounds. God has, therefore, announced that He will fight the wicked (The fight does not indicate a fight like the worldly, but a fight with His angels and His decrees) and will assault them in such a manner that is beyond their imagination, for they have so loved falsehood that they have sought to trample truth underfoot. Therefore, God says: I am determined to safeguard My weak and humble party against the attacks of these wild beasts. I shall show many Signs in defence of the truth.

[Announcement April 4, 1905, Majmū'a-e-Ishtihārāt, vol. 3, p. 518]

611 It must be remembered that God Almighty has no sons. He has no associate and no son; nor does anyone have the right to claim to be God or the son of God. However, this phrase, as used here, is a kind of figurative and metaphorical usage. As for instance in the Holy Qur’an, God has said  and has, thus, described His own hand as the hand of the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, in the words: Allah’s hand was above their hands. He has also used the expression  [Say, O my servants] instead of  [Say, O servants of Allah]; or as He said:  [Remember Allah, as you were wont to remember your fathers]. It is, therefore, necessary from you. The time is near when I shall raise you to a station that the world will praise. The above is with you and the below is with your enemies. Then, be steadfast till the decree of Allah arrives. A time will come upon plague that no one will suffer from it, that is, the end is safe and secure.

April 21, 1902
A long time ago, I had received the revelation in words as if a third person was speaking about the spread of the plague:

612

But today, April 21, 1902, I have received the same revelation with an addition and it runs:

Meaning that [Arabic] O Messiah of God, who has been sent towards mankind, come to our rescue and save us with your intercession. You to study God’s word with full concentration and care. Believe in what is allegoric and do not seek to go behind it; leave that to God. Hold fast to the truth that God does not take to Himself a son; yet, there are many allegories to be found in His word. Beware, therefore, of construing literally that which is allegoric, for that would be ruin. There is a clear revelation concerning me set out in Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah:

612

Publishers’ Note: The Promised Messiah has given the explanation of this revelation in Ayyāmūs-Sūlah as follows: O Messiah who has been sent for human welfare, help us to avert the plague.

will not hereafter perceive any wicked element or mischief from our side.

That is to say, they will then behave and will give up reviling and abusing me. The revelation that I have now received is in accord with the revelation mentioned in Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah that the plague would spread after sometime. As was said in my revelation:

[Arabic] We shall bestow Our favour upon this Yūsuf [Joseph] that We might remove from him all evil and indecency.

Meaning that the plague would be a favour in the sense that God would create fear in my foul-mouthed enemies to stop them from abusing and reviling me. Another revelation referring to the same period is as if the earth addressed me saying:

Meaning that [Arabic] O friend of Allah, I had not recognised you.

A full explanation of this is that the earth was presented before me in a state of vision and it said to me that it had not recognised me until then that I was [the friend of the Gracious God].

Meaning that [Arabic] Jabīz descended upon him, but he took it to be revelation or true dream.

By jabīz is meant dry and tasteless bread that has no sweetness and is difficult to swallow. The term is also applied to a person who is niggardly or a target of reprobation, whose nature abounds in the elements of meanness, helplessness and niggardliness. In this context, it refers to a dream or revelation that is the result of one’s own imagination or of one’s own desire and which is not accompanied by any heavenly light or any spiritual truth and smells of niggardliness. Such imaginations are experienced by people who lack spirituality but are very desirous of receiving revelations. Because of their desire, Satan descends upon their thoughts. Since it lacks any spirituality, the term jabīz has been employed for it by Allah the Almighty. A person who indulges too much in such an experience is in danger of going mad. The remedy is repentance and seeking forgiveness and total abandonment of such thinking. May Allah safeguard everyone from this calamity.

I had seen in a dream sometime ago that Mīr Nāṣīr Navvāb was constructing a wall, which was the city wall. When I looked at it, I was apprehensive for it was only as high as a man and could be easily scaled, but when I looked on the outer side, I perceived that the level of Qadian had been greatly raised and thus, from the outside the wall was very high. It appeared to be constructed with cement plaster and so was the floor. Upon close observation, I discovered that it circled our houses and there are plans that it would circle the whole town. The interpretation might be that Allah, of His mercy, might reduce the danger of the afflictions with which we are surrounded.

should enter dār [house], how can it be said for certain that he would be safeguarded? There is, however, one specific characteristic mentioned in this context; those who do not think highly of themselves out of arrogance have been promised security by Allah the Almighty. There is no such condition attached to the revelation: [He will shelter the town], but this seems to mean that there will be no general panic. identified with you through perfect obedience and complete righteousness shall all be safeguarded against the plague. This will be a Sign from God in these latter days so that He might demonstrate a distinction between people, but those who do not follow you completely are not of you. Be not anxious on their account.

This is a divine guarantee on account of which I myself and all those who dwell within my house have no need to be inoculated against the plague.

And He has also addressed me and has said: In general, Qadian will be safeguarded against such destruction by plague in which people should die like dogs and should become mad with grief and anxiety. Also, I have been told that the members of my Jamā‘at, however large in number they might be, will be safeguarded against the plague as compared with those who are opposed to me.

This morning the following revelation was received from Allah the Almighty:

623 I say repeatedly that God will so demonstrate this prophecy that no seeker after truth will remain in doubt and every sincere person will realize that God has dealt with this Jamā‘at [Community] in a miraculous way. It will be a divine Sign that in consequence of the plague this Jamā‘at will grow in a supernormal way which will be looked upon with wonder.

I was afflicted with severe pain⁶²⁴ related to the organs close to the back, which appeared to be a forerunner of death and God Almighty delivered me from it. It is related in the Torah that a Prophet told a king that only fifteen days of life were left to him. He supplicated in great humility and earnestness and God Almighty gave him the good news through the same Prophet that his life had been extended from fifteen days to fifteen years and along with it he was also told that he would be given victory over his enemy. In the same way, God Almighty has given me two glad tidings: one, of security and length of life, which is expressed in the phrase خوش‌کامام [An occasion for joy] and the second, the good news of help from God and victory.

Translation: [Arabic] He will soon run away and will not be seen again. This is news[^626] from Allah Who knows that which is secret and most hidden.

I write another dream, which I saw about the plague, which was as follows: I saw an animal of the height of an elephant, but whose mouth resembled a human mouth and some of whose limbs resembled the limbs of other animals. I saw that it came into existence suddenly through [Allah’s] decree. I was sitting at a place that was surrounded on all sides by a forest in which cattle, donkeys, horses, dogs, swine, wolves, camels etc. abounded. It was conveyed to me that all these were human beings who had taken on the form of animals on account of their misconduct.

Then I saw that the animal of the size of an elephant, which was a compound of various forms and had emerged solely with Divine decree from the earth, came and sat down near me, facing the north. It had a modest appearance and very shy looks. Every few minutes it would run into one of the surrounding forests where its entry caused great confusion and terror and it started killing and eating the animals in the forest. I could hear the noise of its crunching the bones. After every raid into the forest it returned to me and sat down close to me, staying for about ten minutes. Then it raided another forest where its action was repeated and, at the end of it, returned to me. Its eyes were very large and I studied it carefully each time it came back to me. It conveyed to me, by the expression of its face, that it was helpless in the matter and that it was only carrying out a task that had been assigned to it. It appeared to me to be a gentle and pious creature who did nothing on its own account, but only that which it was commanded to do.

Then it was conveyed to me that this animal was the plague and was the [germ out of the earth], mentioned in the Holy Qur’an, which would be sent in the latter days and it would bite people because they did not believe in God’s Signs .... The germ of the earth, mentioned in these verses, was destined to appear in the time of the Promised Messiah. It was further conveyed to me that this animal combining the features of many animals, which I had seen in my dream, was the germ of the plague. God had named it [germ of the earth] as this malady originates with the germs of the earth and is propagated by them and it first affects rats and then spreads in different ways. Just as humans are affected by it, so can all other animals. That is why in my vision I saw it in different shapes.

al-Ḥakam reports that:
The Promised Messiah[as] is writing Nuzūlul-Masih now-a-days and is also reviewing the book of the Pīr of Golarhā, Saif-e-Chishtiyā‘ī. While deliberating on these he received the revelation:

This is also a revelation. After the receipt of this revelation Nadhīr Ḥusain of Delhi, Fateḥ ‘Alī and Allah Bakhsh of Taunsā and several others departed from this world.

Evening Session: Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Maulāvī Nūr-ud-Dīn was indisposed yesterday. Allāhumma, he was feeling better today. The Promised Messiah enquired about his health and then he said: ‘After witnessing the way in which the divine will is exercised, I often do not even think of medication. At times, I was restored to health by medication, and at other times with supplications alone. I supplicated that He may restore the health without any medicine, then the verdict was given [by Allah the Almighty]: We have granted health. So the health was restored.’

Maulavi Nadhir Husain of Delhi died. On receipt of the news of his death, the following Arabic phrase flowed from the tongue of the Promised Messiah[as]:

The Promised Messiah said: Today the revelation again flowed from my tongue:

[The condition] except those who consider themselves high out of arrogance] always accompanies [this revelation]. I do not know its purpose but it might be that people should be warned and should adhere to righteousness. One [type of] thinking or speaking highly can be in obedience to the direction: [Keep proclaiming the bounty of your Lord]; another can be like that of Satan concerning whom it is said: [He disobeyed and was arrogant]. He was questioned: Are you really high or is your claim based on thinking highly in arrogance? The word [high] was, and has always been, used, for the righteous servants of Allah also, as for instance: [You will be on top], but this arises from humility and the other kind proceeds from arrogance.

October 18, 1902

(A) In the latter part of the night, I received the revelation:

[Arabic] I shall safeguard from plague all those who dwell in the four walls of your house. We shall make this a Sign of mercy for people. This has been decreed from beginning. [I have many remedies.]

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 1, October 31, 1902 p. 5 and al-Ịjakam, vol. 6, no. 39, October 31, 1902, p. 10]

(B) As usual, I noted down this revelation in my diary and I then asked my wife whether she had seen any dream that day. She answered: ‘I have just seen a dream that a large box full of medicines had arrived by mail, sent by Sheikh Rahmatullah. Ḥakīm Faḍl-ud-Dīn’s wife and the midwife named Harū were standing with me. When it was opened, it was filled to the brim with medicines in bottles and cartons; so much so that there were medicines instead of the dry grass padding also.’

To help strengthen her faith further, I communicated to her that: ‘I have received this revelation today’ and showed it to her written [in my diary]. This coincident occurrence is a wonderful manifestation from Allah the Almighty. The revelation said: [Mercy from Ourself] and the dream [of my wife] showed a box sent by Rahmatullah [Mercy of Allah]. Same is the case of the presence of Maryam, wife of Ḥakīm Faḍl-ud-Dīn and the box having been brought by Charāgh⁶³⁵ [Lamp]. These are all glad tidings. The meaning of: إِنَّناَ نَجْبَلُكَ إِلَىَ الْحَكِيمَةِ is that this promise of security will be a Sign for people. This is an indication that God Almighty intends to make something manifest, as had happened in the case of the revelation: إِنَّنا آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْفُرُوجَ. Nowadays a group of people is having recourse to inoculation and we take pride in this divine Sign.

October 18, 1902

Along with this [the Arabic revelation just mentioned], there was a revelation in Urdu also but it was a long one and the exact words have escaped my memory. The substance of it was:

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 6, no. 39, October 31, 1902, p. 10 and al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 1, October 31, 1902, p. 5]

This evening of November 6, 1902, it passed through my mind that I should compose a qaṣīdah about the debate at Modd.

There were two houses adjoining my house, which were not in my possession and the extension was needed due to the shortage of space. On one occasion, I was shown in a vision that there was a large platform in the courtyard. I saw in a dream that a large veranda should be built on that land, and I also saw that the open site to the east had prayed for our structure to be erected upon it and the open site on the west had said Āmīn to that.

November 15, 1902 (About)

On Saturday, November 29, 1902 the Promised Messiah[^as] narrated a dream which he had seen about two weeks earlier. It is as follows:

It seems that this is the house about which the Promised Messiah[^as] gave an announcement in Kashti-e-Nūh, and in which Ḥaḍrat Miyānī Bashīr Aḥmad used to reside. If that is so, this vision belongs to 1902 or somewhat earlier. However, since exact date could not be determined, the revelation has been entered in the year Kashti-e-Nūh was written. [Allah knows best.] [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
I was standing somewhere and a person bore down upon me like a kite and took away my cap from my head. He returned to attack a second time designing to take away my turban, but I felt assured that he would not be able to do it. A weakling took hold of him, but I had the feeling that this person was not sincerely disposed towards me. In the meantime, another person who was a resident of Qadian came up and also caught hold of him. I knew that this second person was a righteous believer. The offender was then taken to court and the judge immediately sentenced him to four or six or nine months of imprisonment.

The Promised Messiah said: I saw in my dream that a bare headed man clad in soiled clothes came up to me and I perceived an evil smell proceeding from him. He came close to me and said: I have the swelling of the plague under my ear. I said to him: ‘Keep back, keep back.’

The Promised Messiah added: I have not been given any understanding of it from the Divine.

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 5 and 6, November 28 and December 5, 1902 p. 34]

November 17, 1902

The Promised Messiah said: Last night I saw in my dream that there was a very gentle drizzle falling. It was just a sprinkling with a few drops falling gently and quietly.

November 18, 1902

The Promised Messiah[as] said:

Some twenty to twenty-five minutes before the time of the (Fajr) Prayer, I saw in a dream as if I had purchased a piece of land for the purpose of converting it into a graveyard for our Jamā‘at. I was told that its name would be Maqbarah Bahishtī, meaning that whoever is buried there would be admitted to Paradise. Then I saw that some old gospels had been discovered in Kashmir which would break the cross. I proposed that some persons should go there and bring those gospels so that a book could be written about them. Hearing this Maulāvī Mubārak ‘Alī declared his readiness to go but requested that a place should be kept for him in the Maqbarah Bahishtī. I said: Khalīfah Nūr-ud-Dīn should also be sent with him….

The Promised Messiah[as] continued: Sometime back I had planned that there should be a separate graveyard for our Jamā‘at. God has now approved of my plan. Injīl [Gospel] means good news. It would seem that God intends to manifest some great news from Kashmir and that the person who would carry through this task would certainly enter Paradise.

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 5 and 6, November 28 and December 5, 1902, p. 35 and al-Ḥakam, vol. 6, no. 42, November 24, 1902, p. 4]

November 20, 1902 (Thursday)

Upon prayer with concentration concerning Piggott, the Promised Messiah[as] saw in a dream some books on which 643 Piggott was a Christian priest of London who had claimed to be the Promised Messiah. A few people joined him. A typed announcement from him was received by Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiq, which he presented before the Promised Messiah[as]. Thereupon the Promised Messiah[as] gave a very short announcement of one page to Maulāvī Muḥammad ‘Alī to it was written three times: Tasbīḥ, Tasbīḥ, Tasbīḥ.⁶⁴⁴ and then received a revelation:

\text{الله Severity in Retribution} \]

This revelation indicates that the present condition of Piggott is not good or that he would not repent in future. It can also mean that he would not believe in God, or that what he has done by telling such a lie against God and planning against Him, is not good. The part [Allah is severe in retribution] shows that his end will be doomed and he will be afflicted with God’s chastisement. Indeed, it is a very daring thing to claim to be God.

In that announcement the Promised Messiah⁶⁴⁵ said: My secretary has received the announcement containing your claim. You are false in making this claim. If you have the power, come and compete with me. God has informed me that I am the Promised Messiah and Islam is the true faith. When he received this announcement, he made no response. The announcement was published by newspapers in England, and cuttings from them were received in Qadian. In those days he [Piggott] was co-habiting with a woman, for which he received adverse publicity in the newspapers. After receiving the announcement of the Promised Messiah⁶⁴⁵ he remained quiet and made no further claims, nor established any community. He died in this condition. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

I then said to Akhmi Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim in my dream: ‘The favour of your Lord’ in this context means me. Then I looked up at a veranda where a light was burning as if it was night time, and some people were copying this revelation from the Holy Qur’an with the help of the light, and I had a feeling that this revelation was to be found in the Holy Qur’an in the same sequence. I recognised one of those people as Miyaan Nabbi Bakhsh darner of Amritsar.

Last night I saw in a dream a fruit-bearing tree laden with delicious and beautiful fruits, and that some people were trying to train a creeper onto the tree. The creeper had no root….It appeared to be like a parasite. As the creeper spread on the tree, it damaged its fruits and the tree was losing its beauty and becoming unattractive. Some of its expected fruits were likely to be lost and some had been ruined. My heart was greatly moved and troubled by this and I asked a good and holy man who was standing near: What tree is this and what kind of creeper has such a nice tree in its grip? He made the answer: This tree is the Qur’an, the Word of God, and this creeper means the Aḥādīth and commentaries which are opposed to the Qur’an or are held to be opposed to it. The largeness of their number has the tree in its grip and is damaging it. Then I woke up.

[Arabic] He who turns away from the Holy Qur’an, We shall try him with evil progeny who would have a vicious life. They will run after the world and will partake nothing of My worship.

In other words, the end of their progeny will be evil, and they will not be able to repent and adopt righteousness.

(B) Maulavī Rusul Bābā of Amritsar...was afflicted with the plague. During his illness, I received, on Friday, the revelation:

(A) Last night I was in such a state that if I had not received Divine revelation, I would have been proved right in thinking that my last moment had arrived. While I was in this condition, I was overtaken by sleep and saw in my dream that I was in a cul-de-sac and three buffaloes were coming towards me. When one of them approached me I beat it away and the same happened with the second one. Then the third advanced towards me. I felt that it was so strong that there was no way of deliverance from it. While this was passing through my mind, Allah the Almighty so ordained that it turned away. Taking advantage of this I slipped through brushing against it and began to run. I was thinking that it would be running after me but I did not look Thereafter Karam Dīn filed a complaint against me at Jhelum and I was summoned to appear [in the court]. It was a criminal proceeding and as I had seen in my vision, he had engaged three lawyers against me. In the end, in accordance with the promise of God, his complaint was dismissed.

It was conveyed to me that this is the great name of God and that whoever supplicates in these terms would be delivered from every affliction.

(B) Of the Signs shown in my favour is one in which God, the All-Knowing and the Wise, informed me about a mean person and his great calumny against me and apprised me through His revelation that this man would attack me in order to humiliate me, but would himself become my target in the end. Allah the Almighty conveyed this to me in the course of three dreams. He disclosed to me in a dream that this enemy of mine would engage three helpers in my opposition to achieve success in his proceedings to dishonour me and to put me to trouble. I was shown in a dream that I was hauled into court like a prisoner but I was shown that I would be delivered in the end, though after an

He also said:

After the passing of a year, all this happened at the instance of Karam Dîn. (That is, he brought unjustified criminal charges against me).

After I had seen this dream I saw another dream in which I met someone who was riding a horse. When I approached my house, someone placed some change in my hand and the thought passed through my mind that this change would include 2 anna and 4 anna pieces. As I proceeded I saw Fajjo (Faḍl Nishān) the Kashmiri sitting in the way. When I entered the mosque, I saw thousands of people sitting. The clothes of all of them looked old. When I advanced into the mosque I noticed that a funeral bier was placed in the mosque. The corpse was lying on a big cot. I did not know whose funeral it was.

\end{equation*}

[that is, I break the fast and observe a fast]. How subtle are these phrases. God seems to be saying that He would adopt two attitudes with regard to the plague. For some time He would be quiet, that is, He would observe fast. And then for a time He would break the fast. This is what we have observed for some years. In the height of summer and in the depth of winter the plague is suppressed, that is the period of the fast; and in the February, March, and October etc., it rages fiercely, that is the time of the breaking of the fast. This revelation:

\begin{equation*}
\text{إِنِّي أَمَا بِالصَّمْحِ}
\end{equation*}

[Indeed I am the lightning] is of the same type of subtle revelation.

On December 31, 1902, Wednesday, the Promised Messiah\(^{[as]}\) said: On one occasion a sweeper woman swept out the courtyard and left a portion unswept. I expressed my gratitude to God that God had shown me from a distance that which she had failed to see despite her being so close to it.

January 1, 1903

I was first shown in a light dream, which resembled a vision, that I was wearing a grand robe and my face was shining. Then the state of vision changed into revelation. The words of divine revelation, some of which were before the vision and some after it, are as follows:

Translation: [Arabic] God, Who is Gracious, will manifest something 664 to manifest your truth. The decree of Allah is coming, do not hasten. This is a glad tiding which is conveyed to Prophets.

It was 5 a.m. on January 1, 1903, Shawwāl 1, 1320 AH and it was the day of the ‘Īd [Festival of the breaking of the Fast], when God conveyed this good news to me.

664 The Promised Messiah  as said: The word  indicates something of great importance. This is why God Almighty has kept it hidden. There is an indication of greatness in hiding something as it is said in the Holy Qur’an concerning the bounties of Paradise: When food is brought to the table it is also covered up. This is part of the honour done to food. Therefore, this is not a small matter.

The Promised Messiah[as] came out with a large scarf wound round his waist. He explained: I am beginning to feel some pain in my kidney and that is why I have wound this scarf round my waist. In a light slumber I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Till the restoration of health.
He added that health is bestowed by Allah and till He so decrees one can do nothing.

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 11, January 9, 1903, p. 85]

January 2, 1903

Translation: [Arabic] Ā’il came to me and he chose me. He revolved his finger and pointed out that: God will guard you from your enemies and will attack fiercely him who jumps upon you. [Urdu] Ā’il is Gabriel, the angel who conveys good news.
The Promised Messiah[as] added: Ā’il is derived from Ayālāt, meaning one who reforms and delivers the oppressed from the oppressor.

The reason for the use of the expression Ā’il rather than Jibrā’il [Gabriel] is to indicate that his function will be to deliver the oppressed from his oppressors. Then he pointed with his finger all round and indicated: [Allah will safeguard you against your enemies] etc.

This revelation also has an affinity to the previous revelation [He is the Benevolent, He walks in front of you and becomes the enemy of one who is your enemy.]
As the expression Ā’il might not be found in the lexicons or its use might be rare, the revelation itself has explained it.

Before the ‘Ishā’ Prayer the Promised Messiah[as] narrated the following revelation:

Then he said: This is not to be construed in its literal sense of ‘Not one of your men will die,’ for everyone, including the Prophets, is mortal, nor will everyone live till the Day of Judgment. But I do not know its real import. Possibly, it has a different connotation.

The same night I saw in a dream as if the sceptre of the Czar of Russia was in my hand and hidden inside it was the barrel of a gun and thus it served two purposes. \footnotesize{In \textit{Badr} the revelation is recorded as following: \textit{A furious battle}.}

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{68} said: It seems that it either refers to some aspects of the case; or it is possible that in response to an announcement made by the new Muslims challenging the Āryas, the Āryas may resort to abuse.

Accordingly, in the evening, an announcement from the Āryas was made public and it contained filthy language.

footnote to these meanings, the Promised Messiah as says:

The literal meaning of the revelation is: I shall err and I shall do right—that is, sometimes I shall do what I want, and at other times not; and my intent would be implemented at times, and at other times not. Revelation sometimes contains such phrases as have to be interpreted, for instance, there is one hadith which says that God hesitates to take possession of the soul of a believer, whereas God is Holy and above any hesitation. The phrase in this revelation: Sometimes My design miscarries and sometimes it is fulfilled; means that sometimes God overrules His decree and sometimes carries it out as determined.

Addressing Navvāb [Muḥammad ʿAlī Khān] during his morning walk, the Promised Messiah[as] said: Last night I saw your picture in a vision and the revelation came in just one phrase:

The meaning conveyed to me was that this had nothing to do with your personal affairs but that as you have left your brotherhood, tribe and society to come over to me, God has named you Ḥujjatullāh, that is to say, you will be a proof against them. On the Day of Judgment they will be called to account saying: This man from among you examined the truth and accepted it, then why did you not do it? He was one of you and was a man like you. As God Almighty has named you Ḥujjatullāh, it behoves you that you should complete your message to them in a conclusive manner—in writing, orally and in every other way.

This morning about 4 a.m. I saw a dream. I am wondering as to its interpretation. I saw your [Navvāb Muḥammad ʿAlī Khān]’s noble wife Amatul Ḥamīd Begum as if she was one of the saints, having a strong relationship with God Almighty. She had ten very white and clean rupees in her hand. I thought that: These are only ten rupees and I have seen them only from a distance. She tossed these rupees from one hand into the other and I noticed that the rupees sent forth rays of light like the rays of the moon but very sharp and bright which illumined the darkness. I was wondering how it was that these rays issued from the rupees and then a thought passed through my mind that the source of these rays of light was herself. I woke up while I was still wondering... I have been wondering about the interpretation of the dream and it is possible that the interpretation is that there is some good development in store for her which is within the knowledge of God Almighty. There have been many women in Islam who have been righteous and saintly, as for instance Rābī‘a Baṣrī, may Allah be pleased with her. It also seems to me that the interpretation might be that through some development you might attain to a high rank and this wife of yours might partake of it. Allah knows the future best.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: Last night I saw in my dream that someone gave me a notification written on a longish piece of paper. When I read it, I found that it stated that the court had issued an order prescribing the plague for four places. I perceived that this notification was issued by me and I was keeping it as superintendents of the court’s office do. Then I thought to myself, this notification was issued sometime ago but it has not yet been executed; how would I explain the delay. This occasioned me some anxiety and I spent the whole night agonizing over it. The word: was written very clearly in it. It seemed to me that the notification had been delivered to me and I had to see it executed. Thereafter I saw some persons belonging to my Jamāʿat who were wrestling with each other. I said to them: Come, I shall relate a dream to you, but they did not come and I admonished them: Why do you not listen? He who does not listen to God’s words is condemned to hell.

During several illnesses I have tried and found that God’s grace descended by supplication alone and the illness was removed. A few days ago I had become very weak because of frequent passing of water and diarrhea. I supplicated and received the revelation:

Last night I saw in a dream that a member of my Jamā’at fell from a horse. Then I woke up and was considering how to interpret the dream and what would be the closest that can be applied to it. In the meanwhile, I was overtaken by a light slumber and the revelation came:

[Urdu] He faltered in steadfastness.
Someone asked the Promised Messiah [as] who the person was. He answered: I do know, but unless there is permission from God, I do not disclose such things. My duty is to supplicate.

About this revelation my view is that it does not apply to all towns and the whole countryside, nor does it mean a total cessation [of the plague]. It probably means that in certain parts and for a number of months, as determined by God, there would be no plague and then it will appear again wherever God wills. It will not cease totally till Divine determination is fulfilled in all its details. The earth will continue to exude its matter till God’s determination is carried fully into effect.

He was repeating it again and again as if he wanted to convey that there were many victories. Then my mind moved towards the receipt of revelation and it came:

[A collection of victories.]

May 27, 1903

(A) First I saw that I had been given a black robe and its steel buttons were held in my hands. Then I put my hand into its pocket and found a piece of paper in it on which it was written:

[Urdu] Misfortune descending or arising or...

I told my wife in my dream that the writing therein was ‘Misfortune descending or arising or...’ There were two other pieces of paper but I cannot recall what was written on them.

(B) I received a revelation in these words... but do not know to whom they apply:

[Urdu] Misfortune descending or arising or...

I do not recall what followed after the second ‘or’. A dream is a curious thing. The matter is wrapped up in mysteries.

Note by Syed Abdul Ḥayee: In the Notebook of the Revelations of the Promised Messiah this revelation is dated May 18 and is cited on page eight as following: ‘First I saw in a dream that a man said to me: You achieved such victory, such victory, such victory; thereafter I received the revelation:

Last night I saw in a dream that I had forgotten my shoes at a certain place. When I recalled it, I went back to the spot but the shoes were not there, someone had taken them away but a large number of grains of gram were scattered on the spot instead of the shoes. Then I received the revelation:

[Urdu] All the affairs of the Resolver of difficulties have become difficult.716

I saw in my dream that someone gave me some money as coming from the Government. I imagined that it had been recovered in execution of a decree. I tied it up in the corner of a scarf and kept it and asked the person who had given it to me whether he would like a receipt for it. He answered that he did not need a receipt as he was a trustworthy person. Then I discovered that I had lost the money and someone had taken it away. I asked the man who had brought it how much it was, and he said it was eighty-seven rupees and two annas. I caught hold of one of my servants and charged him with taking the money but he denied it. I could not discover who had taken it. We were in the courts but no judge or magistrate was present. Then I received the revelation:

The Promised Messiah[as] said: Last night about 2 or 3 a.m. I saw in a dream that I went somewhere with some friends who generally remain close to me day and night. Among them there seems to be one opposed to me. He had a dark complexion, was tall and his clothes were dirty and soiled. As we proceeded, I saw three graves, of which I imagined one to be the grave of my father. I advanced towards the other graves and when I had gone some distance, I noticed that the person in the grave (that I had imagined was my father’s grave) had come alive and was sitting above the grave. When I looked at him with care, I discovered that his features were not like those of my father, but were different. He had a very fair complexion, was slim and had a full face. I understood that he was the person who had been buried in that grave. He extended his hand to me and I shook it and enquired his name. He said: Niżām-ud-Dīn. Then we left and

I gave him a message that he should convey my assalāmo ‘alaikum [greetings of peace] to the Holy Prophetṣa and to my father.718. On the way back, I asked the person who was opposed to me: Having seen this great miracle, will you still not believe? He answered: This is the limit, if I do not believe now, when shall I believe? I have seen a dead person come to life. Then I received the revelation:

I do not recall a part of the revelation.720

The coming to life of the father or of any dead person means that a matter that was dead has come to life. I also understood that my work was a means of manifesting the glory of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and also a source of the exaltation of my parents.

Towards morning I saw in a dream that Mirzā Aḥmad Baig, a relation of Niẓām-ud-Dīn, has died and it also occurred to me that he was in his last agony. Then I said that there were only six or seven days between the death of Aḥmad Baig and the death of Imām-ud-Dīn. As a confirmation, Šāḥibzādah Sirājul-Ḥaqq saw in a dream, on the same day, a flourishing tree that belonged to Niẓām-ud-Dīn, under which we were standing. Then Mīr Ismāʿīl came up and said: We shall cut off one of its branches; and he cut off a flourishing branch of the tree.

744 On one occasion when I was in Gurdaspur in connection with a criminal case (that had been instituted against me by Karam Din of Jehlam), I received the revelation: ..... [They will ask you concerning your status.]... Thereafter when we appeared in court, the other side’s lawyer asked me the same question: Is your rank and status as you have described it in Tiryaqul-Qulub?* I answered: Yes, by Allah’s grace that is my status; Allah has Himself bestowed it upon me. In this manner the revelation which had come to me in the morning was fulfilled about the time of ‘Asr.

*Note by Hadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: I would like to submit that the book concerning which the lawyers of the other party asked was actually Tuhfah-e-Golarhiyya, not Tiryaqul-Qulub. The pages which the lawyer referred to were 48–50. We have obtained a copy, bearing the court’s stamp, of the file which was submitted to the court and included the book.

Note by Hadrat Maulana Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: The statement of the Promised Messiah as recorded in the file is the following:

Tuhfah-e-Golarhiyya is a book written by me, published on September 1, 1902. It was written against Pir Mehr ‘Ali, not against Saif-e-Chishti.

Question: Are you the person to whom the descriptions on pages 48–50 of the book apply?

Answer: By the Grace and Mercy of Allah, I am the one to whom they apply.

[See Siratul-Mahdi, part 2, p. 67]

Thus the word Tiryaqul-Qulub has been written instead of Tuhfah-e-Golarhiyya by mistake in this reference from Haqiqatul-Wahi.

I had published an announcement in English on August 23, 1903 concerning Dowie and had under divine direction

747 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: Dowie was an American. He was a bitter enemy of Islam and a devout supporter of Christianity. He claimed to be an apostle. In spite of repeated admonitions from the Promised Messiah as, his attitude remained unchanged. Rather, he increased in pride, audacity and mischief. Finally, a prayer-duel took place between him and the Promised Messiah as which was published in many newspapers in Europe and America. (For details see Tatimmah Ḥaḍiqatul-Wahi, pp. 71–72, Ruhani Khazain, vol. 22, pp. 506–507)

The Promised Messiah as says:

His end was such that he was afflicted in every aspect of his life. He was proved dishonest; it was proved that he was addicted to liquor, which he had himself declared unlawful. To his great dismay he was expelled from Zion City, which he had founded and built at a huge cost. He was deprived of seventy million of cash which he had in his possession; and his wife and son turned against him. His father announced that he was a bastard…. Finally, he suffered a stroke of paralysis and was carried about like a log of wood. As the result of all these afflictions, he went insane… and finally breathed his last in great sorrow and misery in the first week of March 1907.

stated therein: Whether Dowie enters into a mubāhalah [prayer duel] with me or not, he will not escape God’s chastisement and God will decide between the false and the true.

Referring to him as jujube indicates that he was fruitful, that is, had children. The branch of the cypress tree indicates that the branch that would be cut off after the jujube would be without fruit. Accordingly, Maulāvī Ni’matullah was not yet married when he was martyred.

al-Badr reports that the Promised Messiah[as] narrated the following dream upon rising in the morning:

I had taken up a pen to write. I observed that its point was broken. Thereupon I said: Put on to it one of the nibs that had been sent by Muḥammad Afḍal. While those nibs were being looked for, I woke up....

\(^{753}\) al-Badr reports that:

After 10 a.m. the case brought by Karam Dīn against the Promised Messiah[as] and Ḥākīm Faḍl Dīn was brought up. Khwājah Sāḥib presented a request on behalf of Ḥākīm Faḍl Dīn that the charges made by Maulāvī Karam Dīn are the same for the investigation of which I have brought a case against Karam Dīn. Therefore the present case should be postponed till the earlier cases are decided. The lawyers on both side entered into a debate on this issue and the court decided to postpone the decision to the following day. In the evening the Promised Messiah[as] received the revelation:  *

\[Persian\] Be glad and happy. On the 24\(^{th}\) the case brought by Sheikh Yaʿqūb ʿAlī Editor al-Ḥakam against Maulāvī Karam Dīn and the Editor of Sirājul-Akhbār of Jhelum was to be heard. But since the testimony of the plaintiff was not available, the case was postponed to October 21, 1903. Since the court had not yet rendered a decision of the discussion of the previous day, Khwājah Sāḥib wanted to bring up additional legal points. After hearing him, the court decided after 1 p.m. that the plea for postponement be turned down. Thus the words of God, which He conveyed to His apostle on the 22\(^{nd}\) in the evening and which he had narrated on the morning of the 23\(^{rd}\) were fulfilled.

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra. This revelation was received during the court case of Karam Din.
Meaning that [Arabic] I shall safeguard from the plague all who dwell in this house.

This caused me indescribable distress. About midnight his condition deteriorated and I feared that it was not ordinary sickness but some other problem. I cannot describe the pain that I experienced from the thought that if, God forbid, the boy dies, the hard-hearted enemies would have much material to cover up the truth. In this condition I made my ablutions and stood up in Prayer and immediately I perceived that I had been put in a state of mind which is a manifest sign for the acceptance of prayer. I call God to witness, in whose hand is my life, that I had just completed about three rak‘āt when I saw in a vision that the boy had recovered completely. Then the state of vision was over and I saw the boy sitting in full consciousness upon the chār-pā‘ī [cot] and asked for water. I had completed the four rak‘āt. I gave him water immediately and I put my hand on his body and found that there was no sign of temperature and his restlessness and unconsciousness had completely disappeared. He was completely healthy. I was thus bestowed fresh faith in the acceptance of prayer through witnessing this spectacle of Divine Power.

A few years back I had said in a vision about my son Sharīf Aḥmad:

اُبِّيُّ اَلْمُجَابَرَةَ اَقْرَأْنِيْ اَتَّبِعْنِيْ نَصْرَالله

755 Since it has not been possible to determine the year of the revelation precisely, it is being recorded together with the vision mentioned above. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri]
Now you sit down in my place and I shall leave.
Translation: [Arabic] Allah’s decree is coming, so do not be in hurry. This is the good news which has been given to the Prophets since eternity. Allah is with those who adopt righteousness, that is, with respect, modesty and fear of Allah, they forsake even those ways of thinking which can be suspected as sinfulness and disobedience and do not take any daring step, but are fearful when they conceive of carrying out any action or word; and Allah is with those who are sincere in their devotion to Him and do good deeds to His servants. He is the Strong, the Mighty. He is Supreme over everything but most people know it not. When He determines a matter, He directs it: Be; and it is. Can you flee from Me? We shall exact retribution from the guilty ones. They say: ‘These are the words of a man and other people have helped him over it. He is ignorant or mad.’ Tell them: If you want to be the friends of Allah, then follow me, so Allah may become your friend. We shall suffice you against those who mock you. I shall humiliate him who designs to humiliate you; and I shall help him who designs to help you. I am such that My Messengers are not afraid in My Presence. When Allah’s help arrives and the victory and the word of your Lord is fulfilled, it will be said: This is what you desired to be hastened? When it is said to them: Create not disorder in the land; they retort: ‘We but desire to bring about peace.’ Take note, they are the disorderly. They have made you a target of mockery and they jokingly say: ‘Is this the one whom Allah has raised?’ This is what they say. The fact is that We have brought them the truth, but they dislike to accept the truth. The wrongdoers will soon know which way they are turned away. God is Holy and far above the calumnies which they attribute to Him. They say: ‘You have not been commissioned by God’. Tell them: I have with me proof from Allah, then will you believe? You have a high standing in My presence. I have chosen you for Myself. When you are angry with someone, I am angry with him and when you love something, I love it. Allah praises you from His Throne. Allah praises you and is walking towards you. You have a standing with Me of which the people have no knowledge. You are to Me like My Unity and Uniqueness. You are from Our water and they are from cowardice. All praise belongs to Allah, Who has made you Masīḥ Ibn-e-Maryam\textsuperscript{as} [Messiah, son of Mary], and has taught you that which you did not know. People said: ‘Whence have you obtained this status?’ Tell them: My God is Wonderful; no one can hinder His grace. He is not called to account for that which He does, but they are called to account for what they do. Your Lord, most surely, does that which He determines. He created Ādam\textsuperscript{as} and bestowed honour upon him. I determined to appoint a vicegerent in this age in the earth and so I created this Ādam\textsuperscript{as} [Adam]. They said: ‘Will you make a vicegerent of one who creates disorder on earth, that is, creates disunity.’ He said: The things that are known to Me are not known to you. They say: ‘This is but imposture’. Tell them: God has established this Community and after saying this leave them occupied with their sport. We have sent it down with truth and to meet a real need. We have sent you as a general mercy for the whole world. O My Aḥmad! You are My purpose and you are with Me. Your secret is My secret. Your status is wonderful and your reward is near. I have illumined you and have chosen you. A time will come upon you like the time of Mūsā\textsuperscript{as} [Moses]. Do not supplicate Me on behalf of the wrongdoers, because they will be drowned. These people will plan and Allah will plan and Allah is the Best of planners. He is the Benevolent One Who walks in front of you and considers your enemy to be His enemy. Soon He will bestow upon you that which will please you. We shall inherit the earth and shall eat into it from its boundaries, so that you might warn a people whose ancestors have not been warned and that the way of the guilty ones might become manifest. Say: I have been commissioned and I am the first of believers. Say: It is revealed to me that your God is One God and that all good is comprehended in the Qur’an. It is only the pure who penetrate to its true meanings and verities. Then in what hadīth will you believe, leaving it aside? They desire that your affair might be left uncompleted but Allah’s will is to bring your matter to its perfection. Allah would not leave you till the foul has been separated from the pure. God is He Who has sent His Messenger (that is my humble self) with guidance and the religion of truth so that He might make this religion prevail over all religions; and Allah’s promise was bound to be fulfilled one day. Allah’s promise has come. He has put down His foot and filled the gap. Allah will safeguard you against your enemies and will attack him who attacks you unjustly. His wrath has descended upon the earth because people were bent upon sinfulness and exceeded in their transgression. Diseases will be spread in the country and people will die of diverse causes. This matter has been determined in heaven. It is a command from Allah, the Mighty, the Noble. Allah will not change what has befallen the nation till they carry out a change in their hearts. He will provide shelter to the town, Qadian, after a brief trial. There is no security today except in Allah. Construct the ark under Our supervision and according to Our direction. The All-Powerful God is with you and with the people who belong to you. I shall safeguard all those who dwell in this house, except the ones who think highly of themselves out of arrogance, that is, are not perfect in obedience. And security from Me will always be with you in particular. There is peace from the Merciful Lord. Peace be on you, you are a pure soul. Step aside today, O ye guilty ones. I shall stand with My Messenger and shall observe a fast and shall break the fast, and shall rebuke him who rebukes you and shall bestow upon you that which shall endure forever. I shall bestow upon you the light of My manifestation. I shall not depart from the land till the expiry of the fixed term, that is, the manifestation of My wrath will not abate. I am the Lightning and I am the Gracious One, the Lord of bounty and forgiveness.

Hearken, all ye people, this is the prophecy of Him Who has created the heavens and the earth. He will spread this Jamā‘at of His in all lands and will make it prevail over all through reason and argument. The days are coming, and are indeed near, when this will be the only faith to be mentioned with honour in the world. God will bless this faith and this Movement in a remarkable and extraordinary way and will frustrate everyone who designs to destroy it. This superiority will endure forever till the Judgment Day... Bear it in mind that no one will descend from heaven. All our opponents, who are alive today, will die... and their children, who remain behind them, will die... and then their children’s children will die and none of them will see the son of Maryam as [Mary] descending from heaven. Then God will create unrest in their hearts that the time of the dominance of the cross had elapsed and the world had taken on another aspect and yet ‘Isā as [Jesus], son of Maryam as [Mary], had not descended from heaven. Then suddenly all men of understanding will be weary of this doctrine. The third century from today would not have elapsed when all who wait for ‘Isā as [Jesus] to descend from heaven, whether Muslims or Christians, will give up this doctrine in hopeless despair and disgust. Then there will be only one religion and one leader. I have come to sow the seed and the seed has been sown by my hand. It will now grow and flourish and there is no one who can hinder it.

Do not think that the Āryas, that is the Hindūs who follow Dayānand, amount to anything...... Millions of you will be alive and shall witness the disappearance of this faith.

It was my intention to complete this booklet before October 16, 1903 when I had to go to Gurdaspur in connection with a case… and to take it with me. But it so happened that I had a severe attack of pain in the kidney and I was much afraid that the task would remain incomplete. I only had a couple of days and if the kidney pain, which is a serious ailment, lasted for two to four days, I would not be able to complete this task. Then God Almighty put it into my mind that I should supplicate Him in this connection. At about 3 a.m. I told the members of my household that I would supplicate and they should say Āmīn to my supplication. Then in the same painful condition I put up my supplication basing it upon my desire to complete this booklet in which I had intended to set forth the event of the martyrdom of Ṣāḥibzādah ‘Abdul-Latif⁷⁵⁶. Immediately a light slumber overtook me and I received the revelation:

That is [Arabic] There is peace and security. This is the word from the Merciful Lord.

I call to witness Him in Whose hand is my life that before 6 a.m. I had recovered completely and the same day I was able to write down about one half of the booklet. [All praise belongs to Allah for this.]

Ḥadrat Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīm wrote in al-Badr:

‘Abdur-Raḥīm, the youngest son of our respected Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān, fell seriously ill of a fever which continued for a fortnight. His senses were disturbed, he experienced episodes of faintness, and finally he began to experience burning sensations... The Promised Messiah, may peace and blessings be on him, was requested every day to pray and he was continuously praying for him. On October 25, the Promised Messiah[as] was told with great agony that his life was almost despaired of. His compassionate and merciful self was praying for him in tahajjud when it was disclosed to him in a divine revelation that:

[Urdu] The decree is unchangeable and his death had been decreed.

…The Promised Messiah[as] said: I was severely distressed at this awe-striking revelation and quite involuntarily the words escaped my lips: O Allah, if there is no time left for supplication, I beg to intercede, for there is time for

This majestic revelation made me tremble and I was struck with fear and awe that I had interceded without leave. One or two minutes later I received the revelation:

That is [Arabic] You have permission.

Thereafter, ‘Abdur-Raḥīm made a recovery stage by stage and whoever looked at him was filled with gratitude to God Almighty and admitted that one who was dead had no doubt been brought back to life.

About 1903

About three years ago I was shown in a vision one morning that my son Mubārak Aḥmad had run up to me in great perturbation. He was restless and disturbed and said: ‘Father, water’ that is, he asked for water…

Thereafter we went straight to our garden at about 8 a.m. and Mubārak Aḥmad was also with us. He was about four years old at the time and started playing with some other children in a corner of the garden. I was standing under a tree and suddenly saw Mubārak Aḥmad running fast towards me in great perturbation and when he reached me, all that he could utter was: ‘Father, water’; and then he seemed to become unconscious. The well was at about fifty steps from the place where I was. I picked him up and carried him in my arms, as rapidly as I could manage, to the well and poured some water into his mouth. When he gained consciousness and was somewhat restored, I asked him what had happened and he told me that at the suggestion of some of his playmates, he had swallowed a large quantity of salt which obstructed his breathing and nearly choked him. God, of His grace, restored him in the manner I have described and the vision that I had seen was fulfilled.

[I saw in my dream that] I was sitting near a grave and the person who had been buried in the grave was sitting opposite to me. It passed through my mind that I should supplicate on this occasion in respect of many important matters and that this person should say Āmīn to my supplications. I started my supplications, some of which I remember and others I have forgotten. To all these he said a hearty Āmīn.

One of my prayers was: Lord, foster my Movement and lend it Your help and support. Some of my supplications were for my friends. In the middle of all this, I thought I should supplicate that my age might be extended to 95 years. I supplicated to that end but he did not say Āmīn to it. I asked him the reason, and he remained silent, but I persisted in my request and urged him very vehemently to say Āmīn. After a long time, he agreed and I supplicated:
Lord prolong my life to 95 years and he said Āmīn to it. I inquired from him how it was that he had readily said Āmīn to my other prayers but had made difficulties about saying Āmīn to this one. He made many excuses which have escaped my memory but the substance of some of them was: When we say Āmīn, our responsibility becomes very heavy.

In a meeting, reference was being made to the fulfilment of the prophecy about Sa’adullah. Someone…said: ‘This might be too soon to declare that.’ The Promised Messiah responded with great emphasis: ‘The prophecy has been fulfilled, and I have no hesitation to announce it. I am certain that Allah the Almighty will not falsify this statement. In it is my victory.’

I saw in my dream that I was sitting in my house and suddenly the room in the upper story, in which Maulavī ʿAbdul-Karīm resides, fell down with a loud crash. I was much grieved and the thought passed through my mind that my brother, Mirzā Ghulām Qādir, who was in that room, might have been killed. Then it was put in my heart that he was not in that room and had escaped. I saw this dream on Wednesday night, the 12th of Ramadān, and I have supplicated that God Almighty might safeguard me and the members of my family and my friends against the ill effects of this dream. Note by Syed Abdul Hayee: *This revelation was received on January 3, 1904 and January 27, 1904. Adding twenty years to it makes 1924. So this revelation points to 1924, when Fadl Mosque, London, was established. The series of magnificent international victories which has now started is closely related to this mosque. This year is the fulfilment of the [Sun will rise from the West] and the initiation of international success and victories. It is also a fulfilment of the dream of the Promised Messiah as about which he says:

We certainly believe in the prophesied rising of sun from the West, but what has been conveyed to me in a dream is that the rising of the sun from West means that the Western countries which have been steeped in darkness and infidelity for a long time will be illumined with the sun of truthfulness and they will partake of Islam.

I saw [in a vision] that I was standing on a pulpit in the city of London and was setting forth the truth of Islam in the English language, in a very well reasoned address. Thereafter, I caught several birds who were sitting upon small trees and were of white colour and their bodies resembled the bodies of partridges.

I interpreted this vision as meaning that though I would not be able to travel to that country, my writings will be published among them and many righteous English people will be attracted by the truth.

Dream: The Promised Messiah\(^{[as]}\) said: I was proceeding in one direction and saw an elephant. I ran away from it into another lane. Other people also were running away. Then I asked: Where is the elephant? People said: It has gone into some other lane; it did not approach us.

Then the scene changed and it seemed that I was sitting at home. I put on two nibs, which I had procured from England, on my pen. Then I said:

And then the revelation came:

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I was suffering from very severe cough, which sometimes drove me to extremity and I would think that I was about to die, when I received the revelation:

أَّمَا أَجَابَتُكُمْ عَلَى الْهُجْوُرِ وَرَأَيْتُ النَّاسَ يُبْدُوُونَ فِي دُنْيَتِهِمَا أَنْفُسَهُمْ

April 16, 1904

At the time of Fajr the Promised Messiah[^as] said: [In my dream] I have seen a road with very sparse trees. I arrived at a place like a dārah (where saints foregather). I was accompanied by Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiq and a few other friends, but I have forgotten their names and the rest of that part of the dream. Again I emerged on the road and saw a house which I imagined was my residence. I walked all around it but could not find a door. There was a brick wall where there used to be a door. I saw Fajjo (Faḍl-un-Nisā’) sitting clad in white and with her was Fajjā (Faḍl), who had a slight injury on his finger which made him cry. He came up and touched a column in the wall and immediately a door like a gate opened as some mechanical doors open by the pressing of a button. When I entered therein, someone said: Faḍl-ur-Raḥmān has opened this door.

[^as]: These revelations were received at about 10 a.m. on April 12, when he [the Promised Messiah] was supplicating. They are about the plague.

April 19, 1904

After a dream, the Promised Messiah as received the revelation:

ضَرِّبَ اللَّهُ كَانَ أُمَنِّى.

While narrating this revelation, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} added: Look! This revelation is also written on the wall of this mosque, having been received twenty-five years earlier.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 8, no. 13, April 24, 1904, p. 1]

\textbf{April 19, 1904}\textsuperscript{799}

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: I was praying for the members of my Jamā‘at and then for Qadian when the revelation came to me:

(1) \textit{[Urdu]} They have drawn away from the fashion of life;

(2) \textit{[Arabic]} Then grind them down a fine grinding.

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: I wondered why the act of grinding has been attributed to me. Then I looked at the prayer which is written on the wall of the Chamber of Prayer which is as follows:

\textit{[Arabic]} Lord, hear my prayer and crush Your enemies and my enemies and fulfil Your promise and help Your servant and show us Your days and sharpen for us Your sword and spare not a single mischief maker out of the disbelievers. [Publishers]

\textsuperscript{799} This date is recorded in the \textit{Notebook of the Revelations of the Promised Messiah}\textsuperscript{[as]}, p. 26, however, the sequence of the revelations recorded therein is different. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

\textsuperscript{800} \textit{[Arabic]} Lord, hear my prayer and crush Your enemies and my enemies and fulfil Your promise and help Your servant and show us Your days and sharpen for us Your sword and spare not a single mischief maker out of the disbelievers. [Publishers]
Taking this revelation and this prayer together, I understood that it was the time for the acceptance of my prayer.

Then the Promised Messiah[^as] said: It has ever been the way of Allah that those who obstruct His commissioned ones are removed by Him. These are days of Allah’s abundant grace. Observing how He is manifesting all these things, one’s faith and certainty in the existence of God Almighty are strengthened.

That is why I have been addressed with the names of all the Prophets, so that I might become a perfect manifestation of all their qualities. The attributes of God Almighty, that He bestows life and causes death, are both mightily in operation. On one side, people are being revived, and on the other they are dying. Divine attributes are being manifested in these days in their full glory; that is why the phrase ‘Arsh has been used in this revelation.

Many members of our Jamā‘at, especially those who live in Qadian, know about this revelation. I regret that I failed to publish this earlier. I am recording it now because I feel that this new Eastern power has a special relevance to the Aḥmadiyyah Jamā‘at. [Allah knows best.]

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Before the war between Russia and Japan, Korea was under the control of the Russia. This war was concluded with a peace treaty on May 27–28, 1905. The first clause in the treaty was that Japan will have complete sovereignty over Korea. Thus with the victory of the Eastern power (Japan) and the defeat of Korea, this prophecy of the Promised Messiah was clearly fulfilled. It should be noted that the prophecies have multiple fulfilments. Now that the East is gaining greater prominence on the international scene, it seems that the future events will unfold a new commentary of this revelation, [As Allah the Almighty so wills]

A Maulavī named Karam Dīn filed some criminal charges against me in Gurdaspur and the maulavīs opposed to me appeared as witnesses in the court of Ātma Rām, the Extra Assistant Commissioner…. Ātma Rām did not pay full attention to the merits and made up his mind to sentence me to imprisonment. Thereupon God conveyed to me that Ātma Rām would be afflicted with the deaths of his children. I communicated this vision to the members of my Jamāʿat. It so happened that within 20 or 25 days he lost two sons. In the end, though he had laid the foundation in his judgment of sentencing me to imprisonment, God held him back from that design, yet he imposed upon me a fine of 700 rupees. I was then honourably acquitted on appeal by the Divisional Judge. But Karam Dīn’s conviction and sentence were maintained. My fine was remitted but Ātma

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Qādī Muḥammad Yūsuf, Amīr Jamāʿat Alḥamdiyyah, Frontier Province writes in his book Sawānīh Zuhūr-e-Aḥmad Mauʿūd:

The Promised Messiah saw in a dream that a lion has taken away both sons of Ātma Rām. At the same time as the Promised Messiah narrated this dream, Ātma Rām received a telegram that his son is suffering from plague. Two sons of his died one after the other with plague.

[Zuhūr-e-Alḥmad Mauʿūd, pp. 51–52]
Rām’s sons did not come back…. According to the Divine prophecy which had been published already in my book Mawāhibur-Raḥmān, I was acquitted, my fine was refunded, and the issuing officer’s [Ātmā Rām’s] order was set aside and he was rebuked for issuing an improper order. But Karam Dīn (as I had already published in Mawāhibur-Raḥmān) was convicted and punished and the judgment of the court confirmed his being a liar.

864 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: This Sign which created the impression of the Judgment Day was fulfilled by the earthquake on morning of April 4, 1905. Many newspapers described it as an example of the Judgment Day. Vakīl of Amritsar wrote:

This earthquake was so awe-inspiring and terror-striking that it would be no exaggeration to call it the lesser judgment. When it was demonstrating the wrath of Allah the Most Supreme, people generally believed that the Judgment Day had arrived.

This was the confirmation of the words of the Promised Messiah when he had said:

This is a Judgment. Those who do not believe in the Judgment Day can see how a whole world can be destroyed in a second….

He added…

This morning I was busy writing this article and had just mentioned my revelation which is set out in the Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah:

[Urdu] A warner came into the world and the world did not accept him but God will accept him and will establish his truth by powerful attacks.

I was just writing these words and was about to set out proofs thereof when suddenly the earthquake struck. This is a powerful attack. The prophecy speaks of attacks in the plural which in Arabic signifies at least three. I am, therefore, apprehensive which other type of attack besides plague and earthquake God Almighty will mount as proof of my truth.

paid any heed to what I had said. I saw someone who was preparing a statement of accounts and I recognised him as Lachhmī Dās, who was at one time Accounts Clerk in the Treasury at Sialkot. I tried to call him but he too did not come and ignored me. I felt that there was a large shortfall and there seems to be no way to make it up. In the meanwhile, I saw a righteous person of simple mien, simply clad who poured a handful of money into my lap and left so quickly that I could not even ask his name. But there was still a shortfall. Then another righteous person came whose face was lit up and who was also of simple appearance and who resembled a sufi of Kotla, who is probably named Karam Ilāhī or Faḍl Ilāhī. He gave us some money by selling his shirt. He had the appearance of a human being but he seemed to belong to a different creation. He filled both his hands with money and poured it into my lap. This made a lot of money. I inquired his name and he said: What is there in a name? I have no name. I urged him to tell me his name and he said: Ṭīchī⁸⁶⁶ I was deeply moved that there are people in our Jamā‘at who contribute so generously and do not disclose their names. Then I said: He was not a man. He was an angel. When I saw a lot of money in front of me, I said: Out of it, I shall give to Manzung Muḥammad’s wife, for she is in need. Today I saw in a longish dream that I was sitting somewhere and Ātmā Rām, Magistrate Gurdaspur, was sitting near me.

We were sitting on the ground and talked about my case [which had been pending in his court and which he had decided against me]. I said to him something to the effect that: You have put me to great trouble; God established my innocence but you put me in pain. Then I said to him: I realize that it was not easy for you to be just in this case. You had two cross-cases pending before you at the same time. Your sense of justice was overpowered by your fear of public opinion or by your fear of your official supervisors. You did not act under the fear of God. I much regret that you put me to so much trouble on account of a vagabond. I said nothing concerning your sons on my own. I only saw a dream relating to them which was fulfilled. It may be that your hostility towards me was incited by that very dream. He confessed with a sigh that he had committed a mistake and that in truth it was Chandū Lāl who had forged this wickedness. Then he placed his head on my arm in great sorrow as if he was afflicted by some great misfortune and wanted to show his reverence for me and wanted to plead for forgiveness.\textsuperscript{872} I responded to it

Revelation:

Death is standing at the door.

April 3, 1905

Dream: I saw that Mirzā Sulṭān Aḥmad was standing in the house of Mirzā Niẓām-ud-Dīn clad all in deep black…. I was given to understand that this was an angel in the form of Sulṭān Aḥmad. I told my wife: This is my son. Then two more angels appeared and I perceived three chairs which were occupied by the three angels. They began writing something very rapidly with a pen. I could hear the sound of their pens moving on the paper. Their manner of writing was awe-inspiring. I was standing next to them (and then I woke up).

The Promised Messiah [as] narrated this dream and said: [I construe this to mean that] some terrible Sign is about to appear. Sulṭān Aḥmad means such reasoning and arguments which sway and overpower the hearts. Niẓām-ud-Dīn means some Sign which would strengthen and improve the Islamic Organisation, and its affairs would be straightened. Black garments indicate that a terrifying Sign is imminent. My saying: This is my son; means that all this is the result of my prayers, because the term child is also used for the consequence.

This prophecy means, in brief, that such wrongdoers will be held back and that such Signs will be shown that all their talk will not affect people’s hearts.

[Review of Religions, vol. 4, no. 4, April 1905, p. 170]
April 7, 1905

On the occasion of the earthquake of April 4, 1905, I received several letters from my friends in Lahore, informing me... that God Almighty had safeguarded them against this calamity. But no letter was received from Mīr Muḥammad Ismāʻīl... Again, no letter was received on the second day... nor on the third day; nor did any friend write about Mīr Muḥammad Ismāʻīl’s welfare. Both of them were severely afflicted and asked the Promised Messiah [as] to pray for him. The Promised Messiah [as] supplicated very earnestly on his behalf and received the revelation:

[English] Assistant Surgeon

April 8, 1905

About 3 a.m. I received the holy revelation from Allah the Almighty which is given below:

(Translation and explanation) This means that [Urdu] God will show a fresh Sign. It will be a shock for the people. That will be the earthquake like the Judgment Day.

I have not been told whether by earthquake in the revelation is meant a severe earthquake or some other calamity which shall overtake the world and which could

876 That is, the wife and the mother-in-law of the Promised Messiah [as]. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad]

877 Dr. Mīr Muḥammad Imsāʻīl stood first in the Punjab in the final examination from the Medical College Lahore and was appointed as Assistant Surgeon. He was appointed as Civil Surgeon in 1928 and retired in 1936. [Mirza Bashir Ahmad] be described as the Judgment Day. Nor have I been told when this calamity would happen, whether in a few days, or a few weeks. Or whether Allah the Almighty will manifest it after a few months, or a few years. In any case, whether it is an earthquake or something else, and whether it occurs soon or later, it would be more terrible than the ones before. It would be very terrible in its intensity. Were I not forced to disclose all this out of my deep sympathy for my fellow beings I would not have mentioned it.…

The meaning of the remaining Arabic revelations: Allah the Almighty says: safeguard yourselves by adopting righteousness before that day comes that will destroy in a moment. God says that He is with those who do good and eschew evil. He addressed me and said: My Grace drew close to you, that is, the time has come that you be recognised fully. Truth has come and falsehood has vanished...

Hearken! I have warned you. The earth listens as does the heavens that whoever, departing from righteousness, is inclined towards mischief and pollutes the earth with his viciousness will be seized. God Almighty warns that His wrath is about to descend upon the earth, for the earth is filled with sin and vice. Then arise and be warned that the end is near as had been foretold by the previous prophets. I call Him to witness Who has sent me that all this is from Him and not from me. Would that my warnings were viewed in good faith. Would that I were not treated as a liar, so that the world would escape ruin. …Otherwise, the day is approaching which will turn men mad. The unfortunate fool will say: These are all lies. Alas! why is he in such deep sleep when the sun is about to rise?
When the words of this revelation had been communicated to me by God Almighty, I heard an evil spirit exclaim:

[[Urdu] I fell into hell while I was asleep.]

What harm would man suffer if he were to give up vice and transgression? What loss would be incurred if he were to give up the worship of creatures? The fire has flared up. Arise and put it out with your tears.

[Ishtihār al-İndhār, April 8, 1905, published in al-İhakam, vol. 9, no. 12, April 10, 1905, p. 2]

April 9, 1905
God Almighty has again informed me on April 9, of a severe earthquake which will be frightful and will be an example of the Judgment Day. Since I have been warned about this forthcoming event twice by the All-Knowing One, I am certain that this terrible occurrence which will be a reminder of the Judgment Day is not very distant. God, the Majestic and Glorious, has also told me that both these earthquakes are Signs in support of my truth like the Signs which Musa [Moses] demonstrated before Pharaoh and the Sign which Nūh [Noah] showed to his people.

Remember also that these Signs are not all but that many others will follow one after the other till man takes note of them and inquires in surprise: What is happening? Each 878 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsia: The Promised Messiahia said:

If God Almighty holds back this great calamity, the maximum period of respite will be sixteen years and not more.

[Da'mīmah Barāhīn-e-Âlīmadiyyah, part 5, p. 97, Rūḥānī Khazā'īn, vol. 21, pp. 258–259] coming day will be harder and worse than the one before. God says:

[Urdu] I shall perform wonders and will not stop till the people have purified their hearts.

As there was a tremendous famine in the time of Yusuf\textsuperscript{as} [Joseph], so much so that even the leaves of trees were not available for eating, in the same way people will be confronted with a great calamity. As Yusuf\textsuperscript{as} helped save the people by storing up grain, in the same way, God has appointed me a messenger of spiritual sustenance. He who partakes sincerely of this food up to the required quantity will, I am sure, be dealt with mercy.

However, God the Almighty has also informed me that the number of my followers will be augmented through the plague and the number of other Muslims will thereby be reduced…. I tell you truly that the faith of him who accepts me after witnessing the Sign here prophesied will not be worthy of great honour. Let him who has ears hear. God Almighty says:

[Urdu] My wrath has been kindled upon the earth because the dwellers of the earth have turned away from Me.

Seeing that worldly government disapproves of and deals severely with disobedience, then you can imagine, how terrible God’s anger will be. Repent, therefore, for the days are near.
I close this announcement by setting down now the revelation that I have received in Arabic in this context:

That is [Persian] Eat whatever I provide you to eat. [Arabic] You have a standing in heaven and also among those who are able to see. I shall descend upon the earth in your support and shall show My Signs and shall demolish the structures which the heedless people put up, or will put up. This shows that there will not be one, but several, earthquakes, which will repeatedly demolish the structures.

Then Allah the Almighty says that He would safeguard the members of my Jamā‘at, who are sincere and are to me like children.

In this revelation Allah the Almighty has described me as Isrā‘īl and the sincere followers as my children, hence they are addressed as Banī Isrā‘īl. Then He says: I shall finally demonstrate that Pharaoh, that is People of Pharaoh’s character, and Hāmān, that is those who are of the character of Hāmān, were all in the wrong.

879 Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: This prophecy was fulfilled on May 20, 1905. A severe earthquake was experienced in Dharamsala and many newly constructed homes were demolished.

[See Civil and Military Gazette, May 24, 1905]

880 This sentence has literal, as well spiritual significance. It also means that Allah the Almighty would continuously destroy the structures of the plans put up by the ill-wishers.

Then He said: I shall come to you suddenly with all My hosts, that is with the angels, to demonstrate My Signs. This means [Allah the Almighty says] that: When most people will not believe and they will be occupied with laughter and mockery and will be entirely unaware of My purpose, I shall then demonstrate to them My Sign in such manner that the earth will tremble thereat. That day will be a day of mourning for the world.

Blessed are those who fear Him and would win His pleasure through repentance before the coming of the day of His wrath, for He is Forbearing and Benevolent and Forgiving and Oft-Returning with compassion as He is Severe in retribution.

God Almighty has disclosed to me that this is the last part of my life, as the following revelation indicates:

قُدِّرَتُمُ الدُّنْيَا وَقَدْ نُجِيْتُمُ النَّارَ

[Arabic] Your determined term of life is nearing its end, and We shall not leave any mention of anything which might become the occasion of your humiliation and reproach.

That is why He has enabled me to publish part 5 of Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah.

I saw in a dream that I was riding a vehicle like a railway train through the bazaar in Qadian and I saw a house ahead. Then there was an earthquake but it caused no damage to us.

I have observed that many of those who outwardly enter into the covenant of baiʿat with me are still not perfect in the trait of thinking well. Like a weak child, they stumble at every trial. Some unfortunate ones are quickly affected by that which the wicked ones allege and they rush into ill-thinking as a dog rushes towards carrion. Then how can I say that they have truly entered my baiʿat? From time to time I am given knowledge of these people, but I am not permitted to inform them specifically. There are many small ones who will be exalted and there are many exalted ones who will be reduced. Therefore, be wary.

Before Ẓuhūr, in a light slumber, I received the revelation:

885 886

April 15, 1905

(A) I saw in my dream last night that there was a severe earthquake, which seemed more terrible than the last one.

[al-Badr, vol. 1, no. 3, April 20, 1905, p. 1]

(B) [Urdu verses:]
A Sign will appear some time from now (today is April 15, 1905) which shall overwhelm villages, towns and meadows.

The wrath of God will bring about a revolution in mankind; the naked one will have no time to fasten his trousers.

Suddenly a calamity (lit. earthquake) will severely shake them all—be they humans, trees, rocks, or oceans.

In the twinkling of an eye the land will be turned upside down and streams of blood will flow like the water of a rivulet.

Those whose night garments were white as Jasmine will be in the morning [as if clad in red] like the Sycamore tree.

Men shall lose their senses and birds their consciousness; and nightingales and pigeons will forget their songs.

That hour will bear heavily upon every traveller; and wayfarers will lose their way in confusion and delirium.

With the blood of the dead, the running waters of highland streams will turn red like Bistort syrup.

The terror of it will exhaust everyone, great and small, and even the Tsar at that hour, will be in a pitiable state.

That divine Sign will be a specimen of terror. The sky will attack with a drawn hatchet.

Hasten not to repudiate this, thou undiscerning fool, for my truthfulness depends entirely on the fulfilment of this Sign.
This is a prophecy based on divine revelation and will doubtlessly be fulfilled; wait then awhile in righteousness and steadfastness.

Note: Divine revelation has repeatedly employed the word earthquake in this context and has indicated that the earthquake will be an example of the Judgment Day. Indeed, it should be termed as ‘earthquake of Judgment’ which is described in the verse 887 But I am not able to apply the world earthquake with certainty upon its actual manifestation. It is possible that it may not be a common earthquake but some other dire calamity, 888 which would be an example of the Judgment Day, the like of which has not been witnessed before, and which would bring about great destruction of life and property. If no such extraordinary Sign appears, while people have not openly reformed their way of life, I shall in such case have been proved false.

April 18, 1905

(A) I saw [in my dream] that I was calling out Allāhu Akbar, Allāhu Akbar (the entire Adhān) with great verve. Someone sitting on a high tree repeated the same phrases. Thereafter, I started calling down blessings on the Holy Prophet in a loud voice. Then that man descended from the tree and said: Syed Muḥammad ‘Ali Shāh has arrived.

Then I saw that there was a severe earthquake whereby the earth was being carded like wool. Then the revelation came:

> بَلْ هُوَ الْبَانِيُّ الْقَبْلَيْنِ : سَيُقَدِّرُكُمْ وَيَخْفِيُّكُمْمَا شَيْئًا

[Urdu] At the head of your path stands the One Who is your Benevolent Master.

> لِتَفْتَرَضُوا بِالْخُيُوبِ وَلَا تَتَىَّبُوا فِي الْخِزَاعِ

Wake up O sleepers, this is not the time to sleep;

The heart is all atremble in consequence of the warning conveyed by Divine revelation.

I see the earth turned upside down by the earthquake;

The time is now near, the flood is at the gate.

At the head of the path followed by the righteous is standing the Benevolent Master;

the righteous have nothing to fear, though there are tremendous whirlpools.

No vessel can save from this inundation;

All means of deliverance are futile except the One Oft-Returning with compassion.
O heedless ones! A big feast is to be laid out in a few days;
Which the Gracious God speaks about repeatedly in the Qur’an.
That hour will bear hard on mischief makers and sinners
In which they will witness being ground and then roasted.
It will become manifestly clear to the people as to whose faith is true;
They will learn whether the hallowed site of purification is Ka’ba or Hari Dawār?
Though Divine revelation apparently speaks of an earthquake;
It may yet be that some other calamity is in store for you.
Such destruction will come upon towns and villages,
The like of which is not to be seen in the world.
In an instant, houses of mirth shall turn into houses of mourning;
Those rejoicing shall beat their breasts in sorrow.
The high palaces and the lofty castles,
Shall come tumbling down like caves.
In a single jolt, houses will be reduced to a heap of rubble,
There will be no counting the dead.
When exactly all this will happen, only God knows;
But He did reveal to me that it would be in the days of spring.
‘The spring comes again, and God’s word is once again fulfilled;’
These are the words of God, consider, O men of understanding!

(B) At the time of the earthquake of April 4, 1905, we had moved into our garden with all members of the family and selected a piece of land, enough to accommodate 5,000 people, as our sleeping place. We had two tents put up and a tent wall was arranged all round. Even then there was danger from thieves as we were out in the open and in the surrounding villages there were several thieves who had been convicted many times.

On one occasion I saw in my dream that I was keeping watch and after I had gone a few steps I encountered someone who told me: Angels are on watch beyond this. The purport was that there was no need for keeping watch as the angels were watching my camping ground. Then I received the revelation:

آن است ورگامبجت مرتے

A few days later it so happened that a well-known thief who belonged to one of the surrounding villages crept into our garden for the purpose of theft. His name was Bishan Singh. It was the latter part of the night when he entered with that intent in our garden; but not finding an opportunity, he sat down in an onion field. He uprooted a quantity of onions and piled them up. He was then spotted by someone. He attempted to run away. He was of very strong build and it would not have been possible for ten people to hold him down had it not been that he was held down by divine prophecy. As he ran, his foot was caught in a hole. He recovered but in the meantime, he was surrounded by people. So, Sardār Bishan Singh was captured despite his utmost struggle and was convicted by the court without delay.

Sometime later a large poisonous snake appeared in our residential house in the garden where we used to spend our day. The snake was very long but it also received its punishment as the thief had done. In this way, we were furnished with immediate proof of our protection by the angels.

893 It seems that the divine wisdom in conveying this revelation to Ḥadrat Amīr-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ II ʻabra was that a special manifestation of it was destined to take place during his Khilāfat as happened in March 1953. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri] determined in heaven that a ruinous calamity, which God has repeatedly described as an earthquake, will overtake the world.\textsuperscript{894} I do not know whether it is near or it will appear after some days.... The repeated warnings indicate that it cannot be very far. It is a revelation from God Almighty who knows everything hidden....

God Almighty says: \textit{I shall come in secret. I shall come with My hosts at a time when no one would expect that this is likely to occur}. It will probably be in the morning or when some part of the night remains or a time thereabouts....

\begin{quote}
\textsuperscript{894} Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\textsuperscript{na}: The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{m} states that: ‘God Almighty has informed me that the calamity which He has named an earthquake will be an example of the Judgment Day and will be more severe than that which has happened before.... Although the word used is earthquake, it is quite possible that it might be some other calamity which possesses the quality of an earthquake. It will be a severe calamity—more ruinous than that which has occurred before—which will affect buildings also.... As God Almighty has informed me that such an earthquake will happen in my lifetime and will constitute a clear victory for me and a large number of people will join my Jamā’at and it will be a heavenly Sign in my support. God will Himself descend in my support and will demonstrate such wondrous works as the world has not seen before. People will come from long distances to join my Jamā’at. That earthquake will be greater than the previous one and God will manifest signs of the Judgment Day in it and it will bring about a revolution in the world. God says He would come when hearts are hardened and people feel secure against an earthquake. He says that He will come secretly at a time when people would be completely unaware, that is, will be busy diligently with their affairs. Then suddenly the calamity will descend when the people will imagine that they are secure against any such calamity. But God has said that it will be the time of spring. The sun will appear in the morning of spring and will set in the evening of autumn. Then there will be mourning in many houses, for they failed to recognize the signs of the time.’

God Almighty says: On that day, I shall show mercy to those whose hearts are atremble with fear of Me, who do no evil nor participate in evil gatherings. God has also said: You will have clear victory on that day, for on that day God will manifest everything that has been foretold. Fortunate are those who will take heed even now….

God also informed me so that those who do not recognize God Almighty nor me might be warned. I say out of pure sympathy, that it would be better if they would shun large two-storeyed or three-storeyed houses, for the danger thereof is obvious. But the choice is theirs.

April 1905

When we were in our garden in the spring of 1905, I had received a revelation concerning one of the people of my Jamā‘at who were with us in the garden:

[Urdu] God had not determined to heal that person but He changed His determination out of His Grace.

Thereafter it so happened that the wife of a member of the Jamā‘at, Sayyed Mahdī Ḥusain, who was with us in the garden, became seriously ill. She had been suffering from fever and swelling of mouth, feet, and all over the body, and was very weak and pregnant. After her delivery she took a turn for the worse and her life began to be despaired of. I continued my supplications on her behalf and in the end by the grace of Almighty God she received a new lease of life… Thereafter the following words flowed from her by way of revelation from Allah: You would not have recovered but now you will recover on account of the supplication of Ḥaḍrat Ẓāhīb on your behalf.

May 1, 1905

In a vision, I saw an announcement at the top of which was written:

and then the words of a revelation flowed from my tongue:

Then I saw in my dream that I had got up at night and first met Bashīr Aḥmad and Sharīf Aḥmad and then I advanced to check up on those who were keeping watch and I said or someone said:

[Urdu] Beyond this point angels are keeping watch.

The Afghans called Nādir Khān, who was then in France, for assistance. Nādir Khān came, and Bachchā Saqqā was arrested and killed by him. Nādir Khān ascended the throne of Afghanistan. He dropped his traditional and national title of Khān and was now called ‘Nādir Shāh.’

Later, on November 8, 1933 a man named ‘ʿAbdul-Khāliq killed Nādir Shāh amongst a large crowd in broad day light. The untimely and sudden death of Nādir Shāh prompted many Afghans and others in the world to say: ‘Alas, where has Nādir Shāh disappeared’.

897 God has informed me again that another severe earthquake will happen in the spring. It will be spring time, but I do not know whether it will be the beginning of spring when trees first put forth their leaves; or its middle or its end. The words of the revelation are فَهُمُبَآارُ بِشَكْرِكَاتِ مُحَـمَّدٍ بْنِ يَسَرُّ بْنِ يَسَرٍّ. As the first earthquake was in the spring, God has informed me that the second one will also be in the spring. As some trees begin to put forth their leaves at the end of January, the feared period would begin then and would last probably until the end of May.

I saw in a dream as if I was present in a court in connection with a case. I suspected that the magistrate was a man called Deputy Qā’im ‘Alī and his Reader was my brother Mirzā Ghulām Qādir. All three of us were sitting together and I felt that I was a plaintiff and wanted the defendant summoned. The presiding officer whispered something into the ear of his Reader which I also heard. He had said that I should deposit 25 rupees as summoning fee and then the defendant should be summoned. I paid the 25 rupees and the defendant was summoned.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: In Qā’im ‘Alī, the word ‘Alī (the High) is God’s name and signifies high rank. Ghulām Qādir was an indication that God intends to do something out of His Own Power and the summoning fee means some tribulation and pain. It is an indication that we would definitely succeed by divine power yet there is some trial and trouble in between, as is always the case with the Prophets and saintly people.

Miyān Muḥammad Ishāq, the younger son of Ḥaḍrat Mīr Nāṣir Navvāb, was ill and in the doctor’s opinion the condition was not well.

Translation: (1) [Arabic] ‘Peace on you’—a word of greeting from the Merciful Lord;
(2) [Urdu] But the mercy of God is there; there is no fear in this situation.

May 1905

The Promised Messiah said on May 24: Several days back when Ishāq was ill I saw in a dream several carrion eating cranes and a dead body placed near them. After this dream his place was changed and he recovered very soon. Earlier, I had received a revelation about him:

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: My wife was ill, suffering from severe headache, fever and cough. There is always a risk that people may fall into a trial. I supplicated earnestly on her behalf and (addressing Sheikh Raḥmatullāh) for you also. First I received a revelation of which the meanings was somewhat unclear. I do not know about whom it is.

\begin{itemize}
  \item (1) [Arabic] The mischief of those on whom you have bestowed your favour.
  \item (2) [Urdu] I shall punish them.
  \item (3) [Urdu] I shall punish that woman.

I do not know to whom these revelations relate. Thereafter I received revelation concerning my wife:

  \item (1) [Arabic] He has restored to her, her comfort and happy life.
  \item (2) I have restored to her, her comfort and happy life.

Dream: When I received the last mentioned revelation, I saw that someone said: This is the Sign of the predicted earthquake. When I looked up, I saw that something had fallen from the top of the tent which had been set up near the garden. What had fallen down was the top of the center pole of the tent. When I picked it up, I found that it was a nose-pin which is an ornament that women wear at their noses. It was wrapped in a piece of paper. It passed through my mind that it belonged to my wife and had been lost sometime back. It was now found from a height, and that this was the Sign of the earthquake.

The Promised Messiah[^as] said about the first revelation: God is about to manifest some of His powers for me. That is why He has named me ‘Abdul-Qadir [Servant of Allah the Almighty] in this revelation. The word ridwan [pleasure] indicates that He is going to manifest something in this world which would demonstrate to the world that He is pleased with me. Even in this world when a sovereign is pleased with anyone there is some external evidence of his pleasure also. The revelation means that I would see something overt which indicates Allah’s pleasure.

A believer holds the pleasure of God Almighty as very dear. It is mentioned in a hadith that when the believers are admitted to Paradise they will be asked: Ask for whatever you desire? They will answer: Lord, we desire that You should be pleased with us. He will respond: Had I not been pleased with you, you would not have entered Paradise.

Dream: I saw in my dream that I had with me a watch that belonged to Sheikh Raḥmatullāh. I felt that there was something similar to the two scales of a balance which resembled the sedanchair carried by the carriers. I was sitting in the sedanchair. Then someone put Miyān Ṣharīf Aḥmad in my place and began to rotate the chair. The watch fell out, at a place that seemed nearby. I said: Search for it, lest Muḥammad Ḥusain should file a suit for its recovery.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I conceive that by the watch might be meant the hour of the earthquake, which is not known. رَبّ [Allah knows best]. It also means that that hour would prove the hour of divine mercy for us.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: This revelation has been repeated after about 25 years which indicates that a time for another powerful manifestation of it is near.

And the help will come to you by every distant track, and such tracks will deepen by the travelling of the people who will walk on them. That is [Arabic] The mercy of Allah upon you is such that it extends from the Throne to the earth.

The Promised Messiah [as] said: This expression is by way of expounding the immensity of quantity and quality. This means as if the mercy of God Almighty has filled the atmosphere. This revelation is good news for the future. It is not simply words; it is about to manifest itself in practice. It is the way of Allah that when He is pleased with someone, He makes this manifest to the world in practice.

(A) The wife of the Promised Messiah [as] was ill and was suffering much. Several medicines were tried but to no avail. Then he supplicated and received the revelation:

Thereafter, within two minutes, God made the diagnosis clear. She suffered from a troublesome fever which was accompanied by other disorders.

Then it occurred to me that there seems to be a problem with the liver, which had not been diagnosed before and requires attention. That prescription was prepared. It was in the shape of tablets. After she had taken three or four of them, I saw in my dream one morning, that a person named ‘Abdūr-Rahmān came to our house and said: The fever has subsided. What a wonderful expression of power of Allah it is that soon after this dream I felt her pulse and found that there was no sign of fever. Thereupon, I received the revelation:

Morning: I was shown a paper (in my dream) that contained five lines of writing. They cannot be called poetry, but were not prose either—they were a mixture. The paper was handed over to me and I read all five lines of the writing but only one of the lines remained in my memory when I woke up. It was:

Meaning: It can be interpreted two ways: One, did Allah the Almighty pour the rain of mercy or not, that is, He certainly did. Second, the word بارخت may refer to Almighty Allah Himself and the translation will be: God Himself is the rain of Mercy; did He descend or not? This shows that the one who supplicates repeatedly comes into the house of Allah, and Allah does ultimately listen to him.

Before the Fajr Prayer, I saw in my dream: I was standing in my room in my house and I saw that a woman was sitting on the ground outside. She appeared to be opposed to me and was in a very bad condition. Her hair had been cut with a pair of scissors. She had no ornaments and her general condition was repulsive. She had wrapped a soiled piece of cloth round her head like a turban. I was averse to speaking to her. It was the time of the ‘Asr Prayer. I hastened to leave for the mosque and took along some clothes with me. I hastened so that she should not have an opportunity of talking to me. Because of the hurry, I carried my turban in my hand and covered myself with a red shawl and emerged from my room. When I passed near her, I said, or I heard a voice from heaven say:

Four people from my Jamāʿat fell very seriously ill when concerning one\(^{917}\) of them, I received the revelation right here in the garden:

> [Urdu] God had not designed his recovery. These are manifestations of self-sufficiency. Miracle of the Messiah.

This means that his death had been, as it were, finally decreed but that it was a miracle of the Promised Messiah\(^{as}\) that God bestowed healing on him. A final decree is not liable to change; but some decrees greatly resemble the final decrees and do appear as final in the state of vision. Such decrees can be changed through the perfect attention and attraction of Divine grace by one who is a recipient of blessings and is conversant with the mysteries and the glory of Allah.

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: This refers to the manifestation of Divine attributes. A particular attribute is manifested at one time and remains hidden at other times. When a long time elapses after the time of a reform and people lose their insight of God, Allah raises someone through whom His recognition spreads in the world. But at a time when He is hidden, the worship of worshippers and the devotion of the ascetics remain incomplete and without result. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was saying his Prayers and intended to recite \textit{sūrah al-‘Āsr} after the \textit{al-Fātiḥah}. Then he felt a light slumber and in place of \textit{sūrah al-‘Āsr} the following \textit{sūrah} flowed from his tongue with great force as a revelation:

\textit{إِذَا اجَآتَ الْمَسِيقُ دَعْوَاتَهُ وَإِلَى النُّجُومِ} \textsuperscript{928}

\[\text{Badr, vol. 1, no. 22, August 31, 1905, p. 2 and al-Ḥakam, vol. 9, no. 31, August 31, 1905, p. 10}\]

August 31, 1905

(A) The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: From midnight onward till \textit{Fajr}, I was occupied with supplication on behalf of Maulavī ‘Abdul-Karīm. When I slept after the morning [prayer], I had a dream… I saw that ‘Abdullāh Sannouri had come to me and, showing me a paper, said: ‘I want to have this attested by the judge, I am in a hurry as my wife is seriously ill but no one has paid any attention to me and I cannot obtain attestation.’ I noticed that ‘Abdullāh was very pale and looked very worried. I said to him: ‘These people have no regard for anyone nor do they pay any attention to any recommendation or intercession. I shall take your paper.’ I took the paper and went inside and saw that Mithan Lāl, who had, at one time, been an Extra Assistant Commissioner in Batala, was sitting in a chair, busy with his work and surrounded by his staff. I put the paper before him and said: ‘This person is my friend, and an old friend. I know him well; so will you put your signature to this document.’ He complied immediately, and returning with the paper I gave it to someone, saying: ‘Take care the signature is still wet.’ Then I asked him where ‘Abdullāh was and he said that he had gone out somewhere. I then woke up. Thereafter I saw in a light slumber that I was saying: Call Maqbūl, his paper has been attested. Angels adopt many forms. As for Mithan Lāl that I saw [in my dream], it was the representation of an angel. The interpretation of Sannouri is that in Arabic, Sannour means a cat and the interpretation of seeing a cat in a dream is illness. ‘Abdullāh Sannouri therefore meant ‘Abdullāh who was ill.

The Promised Messiah[as] added: Medicine is an external phenomenon and behind it there is another phenomenon without whose attestation nothing can happen.

(B) The Promised Messiah[as] said: During the height of Maulavī Şāhib’s illness, I supplicated earnestly for him and I saw certain things which were discouraging and it seemed that death was near,… till I saw the dream about ‘Abdullāh Sannouri, which afforded great satisfaction to my grieved heart…. In my supplication, I had made an intercession as was indicated by the words I used that that person was my friend. God intended to demonstrate His power and His being the Knower of the Unseen and Maulavī Şāhib recovered.

The followers of a Prophet are, in Divine Scriptures, described as women, as in the Holy Qur’an the righteous have been described as the wife of Pharaoh and at another place as the wife of Imrān. In the Gospels also Jesus has been called the bridegroom and his followers his brides. The reason is that the followers of a Prophet are under obligation to obey him as a woman is under obligation to obey her husband. That is why, in my dream, ‘Abdullāh said that his wife was ill. By ‘Abdullāh is meant a Prophet, as in the Holy Qur’an the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, has been described as ‘Abdullāh. Mithan means the delight and comfort of health that one enjoys after the bitterness of illness. Maqībūl means that prayer was accepted. These are all profound metaphors and allegories.

prophecy about زلزلة النائمة [Earthquake of an example of the Day of Judgment]. The Promised Messiah as says in this respect: “Today [March 27, 1906] I supplicated about the time of the earthquake. In that condition I envisioned the earthquake and then I received the revelation: [Revelation of March 27, 1906].’

In the humble opinion of the publisher, this revealed supplication corresponds with the other revelation, namely تَعَلَّمْ بِعَذَابِ الدَّيْنِ [Revelation of March 28, 1906]. God Almighty accepted this supplication as indicated in the revelation of March 28, 1906: ﴿إِنِّي أَخَذْتُ مِنْهُمْ مَعْتَرْفًا﴾.

The first revealed supplication was fulfilled as following: When he received the revelation on April 8–9 1906, Allah the Almighty showed him, in a vision, the view of an earthquake which was accompanied by the revelation: [revelation of June 11, 1906]. The awe-striking nature of this revelation needs no explanation.

Mention was being made of the phrase مَعْلُوْبُ الْبَرِّ in today’s revelation. The Promised Messiah\footnote{as} said: This can mean: Travelling among the Arabs. This might be an indication that I might visit Arab countries.936 Twenty five or twenty

935 Dr. Mirzā Ya’qūb Baig says that the revelation رُبُّبُلًا was received on September 4, 1905 when the major surgery was performed on Maulānā ‘Abdul-Karīm—See al-Hakam, volume 10, number 5, dated February 10, 1906, page 4. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

936 This prophecy was fulfilled through Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{a} who visited the Arab countries twice: first, when he travelled to Mecca, Medina, and Jeddah on his journey for Hajj and then in 1924 when he visited the Sacred Mosque and Damascus. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] six years ago I saw in a dream that someone was writing my name. He wrote half of it in Arabic and half in English. Migration is also a characteristic of Prophets but some of the dreams of a Prophet are fulfilled through him in his own time, and others are fulfilled through a descendant or a follower of his. For instance, the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, was given the keys of the treasuries of Caesar and Chosroes and these countries were conquered in the time of Ḥaḍrat ‘Umar(ra).

Dr. Mirzā Ya’qūb Baig writes about the first part:

After the operation, he felt unwell for several days. And there was no sign of scabbing. The Promised Messiah as supplicated. In the morning, he narrated the dream.... The same day, when I went to apply the bandage, I was surprised to see that almost the entire wound was scabbed over, whereas there was no sign of it before and putrefied material had been coming out of it. This was very surprising and supernormal that such a large wound which was 8 by 6 inches would be scabbed over in one day. My and Dr. Rashiduddin’s opinion was that it was 8–10 day’s event which occurred in a single day. This was the result of the supplication.

The Promised Messiah as said:

The revelation that came [two rafters had broken down], one of them was Maulāvī ʿAbdul-Karīm and it seems the other was Choudhry Ṣāhīb.

[^as]: The Promised Messiah

September 16, 1905

Dream: I saw that a man named Sharampat was with me. We were swimming in deep water like that of a lake and we were proceeding from one bank to the other. The bank was very far. I was lying on the water and went on swimming. When I arrived about halfway, I discovered that the water was only knee deep. Then we arrived at the bank and I recalled that we had left my son Mubarak Ahmmed on the other bank. Then we returned to fetch him and we saw that one side of the lake was completely dry and that there was water only on the other side. People were walking on the dry side and we also started walking on that side.

The Promised Messiah[^as] said: My supplications in these days are generally for Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim and probably this dream also refers to him. The interpretation might be that one part of the injury has been healed and the other Dream: I saw that my elder brother, Mirzā Ghulām Qādir, clad in very white garments, was walking along with me and was talking. Someone listening to him said: How eloquently he talks, as if he had committed everything to memory….

The Promised Messiah[as] said: My experience is that when I see my brother in a dream, the interpretation is that some difficult affair would be resolved. …Ghulām Qādir indicates the power of the All-Powerful.

September 20, 1905

Dream: I saw that I was going to Batala and thought that the time of Prayer was passing, so I entered a small mosque and while mounting its stairs I heard the voice of Mirzā Khuda Bakhsh saying: ‘But he went somewhere else.’ When I entered the mosque, I saw that Mirzā Raḥmatullāh, who was an old servant of … my father and had served him for fifty years and had died nearly forty years earlier, was present in the mosque and looked sad. Muḥammad Ishāq[945] was sitting on the wall of the well of the mosque and Pīr Manzūr Muḥammad was also there. Ishāq pointed to Mirzā Raḥmatullāh and said that my father had stopped his rations. He had made up his mind to go away somewhere but Manżūr Muḥammad had detained him on the assurance that both of them would be able to subsist on trade. I wondered in my mind, why my father had stopped the rations but then I thought that one could not take any objection to whatever the elders might have done. I then received the revelation:

Translation: [Arabic] I am the Gracious One. Messengers have no fear in My Presence. Tell them: This is all from Allah and then leave them occupied with their sport.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: This is a very significant dream and it seems it has reference to Maulāvī ʿAbdul-Karīm. Food is the source of life and food being stopped means passing out of this life. Apparently, therefore, having regard to the means for the maintenance of life, this severe illness indicates death but the food was restored because Manżūr Muḥammad had detained Raḥmatullāh. Raḥmatullāh means the mercy of Allah and Manżūr Muḥammad means that which Muḥammad desires. In God’s revelation I have also been named Muḥammad. So that the interpretation is the recovery of Maulāvī Ṣāḥib, for which we keep supplicating. Trade means prayer, faith in God, trust in Him and working righteousness, as the Holy Qur’ān says:

O ye who believe! shall I point out to you a bargain that will save you from a painful punishment? That you believe in Allah and
...Thus normal life, which was not in exchange for something, has come to an end but the life depending upon commerce, that is to say, the life which is granted as a result of prayers, has held Rahmatullāh [the mercy of Allah] when it was about to depart.

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} added: My experience is that gram, radish, eggplant, and onion, in a dream, indicate something disagreeable. Large raisins strengthen the heart and seeing them in a dream is a presage of something good. This dream, therefore, indicates that something disagreeable, large or small, will be encountered\textsuperscript{970} but the disagreeable aspect will be reduced or overcome by the combination of the raisins. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} further said: Human life is subject to a series of disagreeable experiences. Translation: [Arabic] I am with you. O son of the Messenger of Allah. [Urdu] Gather together all the Muslims who are on the earth [Arabic] [on one religion].

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsīa: The Promised Messiah said:

The commandment [gather together all the Muslims who are on the earth on one faith], is of a very special type. Commandments are of two kinds. Of one kind are legal commandments like observing prayer, paying Zakat, refraining from murder etc. Such commandments carry with them a kind of prophecy that some people will contravene these commandments. For instance, the Jews were commanded not to pervert the Torah, which indicated that some of them would be guilty of it, and so it proved. In short, these are legal commandments, and the term applied to them is: Shari'at.

The other kind of commandments are Divine decrees. For instance: [We commanded the fire to become cool and safe;] and this came about exactly as commanded. The commandment in this revelation is of this type. Allah the Almighty has decreed that all Muslims on the earth should unite [in one faith] and that will certainly come about. Of course, this does not mean that no differences will be left. There would be differences but they would be negligible and of no consequence.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 9, no. 42, November 30, 1905, p. 2]

 Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: On page 53 of the Notebook of the Revelations of the Promised Messiah, the revelation is recorded in Arabic as following:

November 1905

The Promised Messiah[as] said: A few days ago I saw Maulavī ‘Abdul-Karīm in my dream. We talked about different matters and then I recalled that he had died and I thought I would request him for prayer and said: Will you pray that I might be given enough respite which will afford me time for the full development of the Community. In answer he merely said: Taḥṣīldār. I said to him: This is irrelevant. Please pray for the matter concerning which I have requested you. Then he raised his hands for supplication, up to his chest, but no higher and said: Twenty one. I asked him to explain, but he gave no explanation. Only he kept repeating ‘Twenty one’, 975 and then left.

[Arabic] [Gather together all the Muslims on the face of the earth so that they should unite in one faith].

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad’ra: Repetition of the word ‘Twenty one’ by Maulavī Sāḥib indicates that the word has a special relevance to the life of the Promised Messiah[as], because the question that had been put to Maulavī Sāḥib’ra was that sufficient time span be granted to complete the propagation of the Community. In response Maulavī Sāḥib uttered the word: twenty one—indicating the time allotted for such propagation is twenty one years. The subsequent events provide a strong testimony to the truthfulness of this dream, because the Promised Messiah[as] issued the Announcement for bai’at in Jamādi’ul-Awwal 1306. During the twenty first year thereafter, he passed away in the same month. Similarly, the Announcement for bai’at was issued in 1888 (AD) and he passed away in 1908. This clarifies the interpretation of this dream that he was destined to pass away in the twenty first year.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Since Ḥaḍrat Amīr-ul Mu’mīnīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ II’ra was a reflection and second coming of the Promised Messiah[as], he also experienced a similar dream and
The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} added: A tahṣildār performs two functions, collection of the revenue and decision of disputes between people and establishing justice between them. These are also the functions of the Promised Messiah, namely that he shall demand the fulfilment of obligations due to God and then establish His Unity on the earth, and secondly to act as an arbiter and establish justice between the Muslims.

Exactly twenty one years after 1944 Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{ra} passed away and the word of God was fulfilled exactly.

\textsuperscript{976} The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: Reflecting upon these revelations, my understanding is that the time is very close. I received this revelation earlier too; it was accompanied by a dream at that time.

al-Ḥakam reports that:
The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: An uncle of mine had died a long time ago. I saw him in my dream once and inquired from him about conditions in the hereafter, how a person dies and what happens. He said: When a man’s moment arrives there is a strange scene. Two angels clad in white appear and say: \textit{Mo'alla\textsuperscript{[al-Ḥakam, vol. 9, no. 43, December 10, 1905, p. 2]}}

\textit{Lord, enough; Lord, enough.}

(The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} added: Truly when a beneficent personage departs, the appropriate expression is: \textit{Mo'alla\textsuperscript{[Publishers]}}

Then coming close, the angels place two fingers outside the nose [and exclaim]:

\textit{La-rūh\textsuperscript{[Syed Abdul Hayee]}}

\textit{In English, trans.}
[Urdu] O soul, come out the way by which you entered.
The Promised Messiah[as] said: The laws of nature indicate that the soul enters the body through the nose and also departs the same way. The Torah also confirms that the soul is breathed into the body through the nostrils. The hereafter is a world of mysteries which one cannot even understand fully in this life.

Then I woke up. I was wondering over what it had said and received the revelation:

The Promised Messiah[as] said: The words of the hen and the words of the revelation were both directed towards the Jamā‘at. Both sentences are addressed to my Jamā‘at.

979 In the Notebook of the Revelations of the Promised Messiah[as], p. 53, the date is shown as December 4. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri]
Translation: [Arabic] The end of your appointed term is approaching and We shall not leave any trace of things that may be a cause of humiliation for you. Very little remains of the term appointed by God for you and We shall remove and eliminate all objections—and shall permit nothing of them to remain—that might be intended to humiliate you.

The phrase:

\[\text{وَلَا تَثُّبَتُ كُلُّ سَبِيلٍ أَمَّامَ الْمُجَازَةِ} means that no mention of anything humiliating shall be left behind. This revelation has a great glad tiding that: We shall fulfil the ultimate purpose of your coming.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: Taking these phrases together, the Divine purpose appears clearly to be that when the call comes one would imagine that certain purposes remain unfulfilled. That is why the revelation contains the assurance that those will be completed by God Himself.

The Promised Messiah[as] added: Most of the People think mistakenly that everything should be completed by the commissioned one himself. They entertain high hopes and wish that commissioned one should do every thing in the lifetime. The thought also passed through the minds of the Companions of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, that the time had not yet arrived for him to depart. The claim was that he had been raised as the Messenger to the whole of mankind, but a large part of Arabia had not yet believed. But all these purposes are fulfilled by God Almighty gradually so that those who come after should also continue to receive the blessings of serving the faith.

Thus it is obvious that bright and clear Signs will always continue to be shown in support of the truth of this Community. the structures as they build them. They said: ‘Do you appoint as vicegerent one who commits disorder on earth?’ He said: I know about him that which you do not know. I shall humiliate him who designs to humiliate you. Be not afraid, because My Messengers are not afraid in My Presence. Allah’s decree is close at hand, then do not hasten it. This is the good news which has been conveyed to the Prophets since times immemorial. O My Aḥmad, you are My purpose and are with Me. You are to Me like My Unity and My Uniqueness. You have a standing so near to Me that people cannot perceive it. You have a high standing in My Presence. I have chosen you for Myself. He with whom you are angry, I am angry, and those whom you love, I love. Allah has preferred you to everything. All praise belongs to Allah, Who has made you Messiah, son of Mary. He is not accountable for that which He does and they are accountable. The promise was bound to be fulfilled. Allah will safeguard you against the mischief of your enemies and will attack him who attacks you. That is because they exceeded all bounds and treaded the paths of disobedience. Is not Allah sufficient for His servant? O mountains and birds, remember Me with zeal and pathos along with this servant of Mine. Allah has decreed: I and My Messengers shall prevail; and after their defeat, they shall soon be victorious. Allah is with those who are righteous and do good deeds. Those who have believed stand firmly on truth in the estimation of their Lord. Peace is on all of you from the Lord Who is Merciful. Step aside today, O guilty ones.

God has inclined my mind through His Wahī-e-Khafti towards the idea that some conditions should be prescribed for burial in the graveyard and only those who, because of their truthfulness and their perfect righteousness, comply with them, should be buried in it. There are three conditions which must be complied with by everyone. The first condition is that whoever desires to be buried in this graveyard should contribute towards the expenses of its maintenance according to his capacity.

The second condition is that he who desires to be buried therein should make a testamentary disposition that one tenth of his property shall, under the directions of the Community, be devoted to the propagation of Islam and the carrying out of the teachings of the Qur’an. It will be open to every righteous person whose faith is perfect to provide for this purpose in his will more than one tenth, but it shall not be any less.

The third condition is that every such person shall lead a righteous life and abstain from all that is prohibited and shall not be guilty of any kind of Shirk and Bid‘at. He should be a true and sincere Muslim.

This sentence ‘I shall die in Mecca or in Medina’ means that before my death I shall be bestowed a victory like that of Mecca. That is to say as the Holy Prophet ṣa had vanquished his enemies through the manifestation of the majestic Signs of Allah, so will it happen now. The second meaning is that before my death, I shall be bestowed a victory like that of Medina which means that people’s hearts will of their own be inclined towards me. The phrase: [Allah has decreed, I and My Messengers shall prevail] points to a victory like that of Mecca and the phrase: [Peace is the word from the Merciful Lord] points to a victory like that of Medina.

On February 22, 1906, at about 4:30 p.m., smoke started flaring near plague quarantine and started rising towards the sky. The smoke had light like the lightening and sound like cannons being fired. The smoke arose from the north and started moving towards the south. It totally demolished the roof of a brick building which was used for inoculation for tuberculosis. That is not all. Thereafter, this Sign of God fell upon the government butchery which was about two furlongs away and demolished its masonry top and a wall in its compound. A few people suffered minor injuries. Three out of four bullock carts present at the spot were turned upside down and a huge acacia tree was uprooted. Seven or eight other acacia trees were broken down. One part of a pair of scales which had been fixed in the ground was whirled about a furlong away in a field. Then, after demolishing the courtyard of the police post, the smoke disappeared.

About 3 a.m. there were peals of thunder and I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Get up. Let us observe Prayers and witness an example of the Judgment Day.

The Promised Messiah[^as] said: At such time our part will be to be occupied with Prayer and to witness the scene of God’s chastisement.

February 5, 1906

On Monday, the day of ‘Idul-Adhā [the Festival of Sacrifices], the Promised Messiah[^as] saw in a dream that preparations were being made for the announcement of the nikāḥ of Miyān Muḥammad Ishāq, son of Ḥaḍrat Mīr Nāṣir

I saw [in my dream] that a large group was standing with me and an official came and said: Why should this group not be asked to disperse? I said to him: There is no opposition on the part of this group. They are only being taught and trained. Then the official looked up to heaven—as if he was an angel—and spoke a few words which I did not follow. Then he addressed me and said: Peace; and left.

Then, I was given a book as if it contained currency notes and the revelation flowed from my tongue:

This revelation makes me think that someone might plan some harm secretly, like women, the ultimate result of which would be acquittal; but this is only my considered judgment. Allah knows best what is actually meant by it. A man attacks openly. To attack anonymously or in secret is not manly but is characteristic of women. The last sentence means: We saved Banī Isrā‘îl from the mischief of Pharaoh.

\textsuperscript{1010} Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: A letter written by Ḥaḍrat Qāḍī ‘Abdur-Rahîm\textsuperscript{[a]}

\textsuperscript{[a]} gives an account of the practical events that manifested the fulfilment of this prophecy. On the death of Charāgh Dīn Jamūnī, Ḥaḍrat Muftī [Muḥammad Ṣādiq]\textsuperscript{[a]} wrote to Qāḍī ['Abdur-Rahîm]\textsuperscript{[a]} to find out some details needed for investigating certain matters. He sent a detailed letter after his investigation which included the following about the wife of Charāgh Dīn: ‘His wife is accused of having illicit relations. She could possibly have been immoral during his lifetime too.’ This letter was published in \textit{Badr}, April 19, 1906, page 3. The opponents tried to institute a case of defamation against Qāḍī ['Abdur-Rahîm]\textsuperscript{[a]} and a big committee was formed for the presentation of the case. Qāḍī ['Abdur-Rahîm]\textsuperscript{[a]} wrote a letter to the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[s]} giving the details and requesting prayers. He also wrote that this could possibly be the import of the revelation of February 19: The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[s]} wrote on the letter in his own hand ‘This letter be preserved carefully, and a response be sent that he should now trust in God Almighty with great patience. Supplications will be made.’

Then it so happened that when all the preparations had been made on the day that the plaintiffs were going to make the presentation of their case, it was learned that the women concerned had eloped with her lover. Thus, the entire activity of the opponents was frustrated, and I witnessed a bright Sign of the acceptance of prayers and the blessings of the attention of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[s]}. The Promised Messiah[^as] said: I supplicate for a large number of people and do not know to whom the word Manzûr Muḥammad refers. It might be that the word بُشَرُ الدوّل means that a son would be born to Miyân Manzûr Muḥammad whose birth might bring with it prosperity and wealth; or it might be that the boy himself might rise high and be wealthy. But I cannot say for certain when that boy would be born. God has not specified any time. It might be soon or Allah the Almighty may delay it for several years.

In this revelation, by the reign of the just monarch is meant the period of the call of this humble one. No worldly kingdom is indicated here, but the kingdom of heaven that has been bestowed upon me. In summary, the meaning of this revelation is that when the kingdom of heaven, which in the estimation of Allah is the period of the Promised Messiah, began towards the end of the sixth millennium, as had been prophesied by previous Prophets, the effect of it was that those who were only Muslims in name began to be Muslims in fact, as has already happened in the case of about 400,000 of them.

I saw in my dream that Mîr Nâşîr Navvâb had come carrying a fruit-bearing tree upon the palm of his hand and when he gave it to me, it became a large tree resembling a mulberry tree. It was very green and heavily laden with fruit and flowers. Its fruit was very sweet and, strangely enough, even its flowers were sweet. It was not an ordinary tree; it was a tree the like of which has never been seen in this world. I was eating its fruit and flowers when I woke up.
I consider that Mîr Nâṣîr Navvâb means God the Helper, and the meaning of the dream is that God will help in a manner that will be extraordinary.

Jesus son of Mary has been so glorified that four hundred million people worship him and monarchs bow down to him. And although I have supplicated that I should not become a cause for spreading polytheism like Jesus son of Mary and I am sure that God Almighty will so ordain. But Allah the Almighty has repeatedly told me that He will glorify me greatly and will put my love in the hearts of people and will spread my Community throughout the earth and will make my sect prevail over all other sects. My followers will excel so much in knowledge and insight that they will confound all others with the light of their truth and their reasoning and their Signs. Every people shall drink of this fountain and this Community will spread with great force and will flourish till it encompasses the whole earth. There will be many obstructions and many trials but God will remove all of them and will fulfil His promise. …Then, O ye who hear, remember all this and make secure

Today, Sunday, I saw in my dream that I was sitting at my home and I had in my hand a fruit resembling a melon which I intended to peel to eat, but in the meantime, I saw Mahmūd Ahmad who was accompanied by an Englishman. He came into our house, first he stood near where the earthen vessels containing water are placed and then he advanced towards the upper room, where I sit and work, as if he wished to carry out a search. Then, I noticed someone resembling Mīr Nāṣir Naqvāb standing in front of me who indicated to me that I should also go into the upper room as the Englishman intended to carry out a search. It passed through my mind that the room contained only the manuscript of my new book; that is all that he would see. Then I woke up.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I do not know what the interpretation of this dream might be. A few days ago, I received the revelation:

غورت کوپان سے سب سے بہتری لیما سب سے تیاری بہتری نے اسنادہومن بہتری و رسالہ بہتری۔۔。

A woman’s move. [Hebrew] My Lord, my Lord, why have You forsaken me? [Urdu] Acquittal. [Arabic] And Call to mind when I held back (the enemy) from the Banī Isrā‘īl.

I had interpreted it to mean that someone will devise some secret plan in the manner of women which might take the form of a false case but that the end would be my acquittal. But this meaning was my own interpretation. It is possible that what I then saw and have now seen, might have some other interpretation. But this is the apparent interpretation. [Allah knows best.]

My seeing Maḥmūd and then seeing Mīr Nāṣir Navvāb in this dream, indicates a good ending. Maḥmūd indicates that all would end well and Nāṣir Navvāb means that God Almighty would help and through His help will grant deliverance from the trial and finally this trial will take the form of a Sign.

tāḥdat waḏab

That is [Arabic] O my God! Postpone the time of this earthquake which seems imminent.

According to Arabic grammar, instead of هدّاء, [masculine form for ‘this’], the word should have been هدى [feminine form]. However, here هدّاء [this] actually connotes هدّة الأعدّاء [this punishment], because the real intent is the punishment. As for earthquakes, there have been many before. This was followed by the revelation:

ترب لستطمئين على النار

That is [Arabic] O my God! Bestow upon me dominion over the fire.

Meaning: So ordain that the fire of chastisement should be placed under my control so that it should overtake him whom I wish to chastise and should be averted from him whom I wish to leave out.

Then in my dream I felt that there was an earthquake.

The revelation came:

Dream: I saw a big snake. It had a long neck like that of a wild duck. It ran after me and I climbed up a high wall and said to it:

Thereafter, I saw as if I was riding that snake, holding its neck in my hand and it tried to turn its head so that it might bite me. Then I held it nearer its head, so that it should not be able to bite. (End of the dream).

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: This dream indicates some mischief on the part of a hidden enemy who will try to harm me but would not succeed.

I saw Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīm in my dream, as if he had come back to life. I asked him: How are your wounds? He answered: They have all been healed. In the dream I wondered at this and thought this was the revival of a dead person. Then I thought, in the dream itself, that perhaps this was a dream, but many people had gathered and all were awake.

[Urdu] The spring has arrived again and with it the days of snow.

Thalj is an Arabic word. One of its meanings is the snow that falls from the sky and causes the temperatures to drop. It is always accompanied by rain. The term for it in Arabic is thalj.

Based on this meaning the revelation seems to indicate that during the spring season Allah the Almighty will cause to descend from heavens calamities of an unusual nature in our country and the snow and its necessary accompaniments shall cause extreme cold and heavy downpour. The second meaning of the word in Arabic is satisfaction of the heart which results from good reasons becoming available and putting the mind completely at ease. That is why the term ‘thalj of the heart’ is used to denote complete satisfaction caused by a speech, namely presentation of such conclusive arguments as provide complete satisfaction. Sometimes the word is also used for joy and comfort, which results from the satisfaction of the heart. It is obvious that when ones heart attains complete satisfaction in a matter, the necessary consequence is joy and comfort.
Deep reflection on the prophecy brings one’s mind inevitably to the feeling that if Allah the Almighty has used the word in its second connotation—to remove all doubts, and to afford complete satisfaction—then the sentence would mean that some unintelligent people had entertained some doubts and had remained deprived of true satisfaction during the previous two earthquakes. During the spring some Sign would be manifested which will remove all earlier doubts and uncertainties, and the argument would be established conclusively.

Further reflection upon the revelation also suggests that till the arrival of spring not one but several Signs would have been manifested so that by the time spring comes around, the hearts would be affected to such a degree by repeated Signs that the opponents would have no excuse left to them and those who seek the truth would be completely satisfied. The above interpretation would be

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams[r]: The Promised Messiah[as] said:

Now observe how this prophecy about the days of the coming of snow has been fulfilled. I had interpreted it as having two aspects. One was that God Almighty may show such Signs as would satisfy the minds of people. The other was that there might be such heavy snow and rain and severe cold that may not have been experienced for a long time. God Almighty has fulfilled both these aspects. The repeated Signs that have been shown have impressed the minds of people not only in the Punjab but also in Europe and America, namely, the death of Alexander Dowie... has carried conviction throughout Europe and America and the death of Sa’adullāh has had the same effect in India... These two and several other Signs have fulfilled [one aspect of] this prophecy. It has also been fulfilled in its literal meaning. There has been so much snow, hail and rain during the spring that people have cried out [in pain].

[Badr, vol. 6, no. 17, April 25, 1907, p. 6]
applicable if the thalj is taken to mean satisfaction and deliverance from doubts and misgivings. If on the other hand the connotation of thalj in the revelation is snow and rain, it would mean that Allah the Almighty will send some other affliction from heaven. [Allah knows best.]

ترجمة: [اللغة العربية] لا تكلموني عن أولئك الذين يتسببون في أخطارهم... هذه هي الحكمة من الله الذي لا يمكن أن يُهدأ.

I consider that this revelation concerns some members of our Jamāʿat who are too deeply occupied with the cares of the world and are indifferent to the faith and its problems. Thus, I have been admonished by God Almighty not to supplicate, nor intercede, on behalf of such people; as their faith has withered, so their world will also wither. Normally, one supplicates and intercedes on behalf of one’s friends, not the opponents. From this, I conclude that this revelation has reference to some special friends who have been warned of a severe chastisement. It is possible that such chastisement might involve others also but it certainly has reference to those who are nominally members of the Jamāʿat but whose worldly attitude is inconsistent with our teachings.

The earth will be shaken violently and it will bring forth whatever is in it that is, such will be the case at many places. Then man will say: ‘What is the matter with the earth today? it is behaving differently from it’s normal course.’ [On that day it will narrate its account, for your Lord has so directed it.]
This means that people would be surprised because what happens would be beyond the limits of their knowledge and experience. The earth will tell the tale of its affliction that day, as God will make His Messenger an interpreter of the condition of the earth and will reveal to him the causes that will have brought about the extraordinary afflictions.

Then, addressing me, Allah the Almighty said:

(A) Revelation was received:

][Urdu] Signs of life

Shortly after the Promised Messiah[aas] had received this revelation, a telegram came from Madras intimating that Seth ‘Abdur-Rahmān was feeling better. On this the Promised Messiah[aas] observed: God’s telegram arrived first and was followed by man’s telegram. The only connotation made for this revealed news was that the matter that had been conveyed in the telegram was intimated by God Himself.

(B) I received a telegram from one of my true friend and very sincere devotee Seth ‘Abdur-Raḥmān [merchant] of Madras that he was suffering from carbuncle, which is a deadly pustule caused by cancer. I was much concerned and anxious on account of his illness, because Seth [‘Abdur-Raḥmān] is a devotee of the first rank. About 9 a.m., during this condition of pain and concern, I was suddenly overtaken by a light slumber which caused my head to bow down and suddenly I received a revelation from God, the Lord of Honour and Glory:

[Urdu] Signs of life
This was followed by another telegram from Madras that the condition was better and there was no cause for worry.

(A)

Translation: [Arabic] The light—that is, capacities—of youth will be restored to you. There will come to you the time of youth. That is, capacities of youth would be restored so that the service of faith may not suffer. O people, If you are in doubt concerning that which We have sent down to Our servant then produce a healing like this one. Your wife’s comfort and health will also be restored to her.

The background of these revelations is that since three or four months I have been feeling great weakness. Except for Ẓuhar and ‘Asr Prayers I have not been able to go (into the mosque), and most of the time I offer my prayers in a sitting posture. A moment’s application either by writing or by reflection brings about dizziness and a sinking of the heart. My body feels lifeless and the faculties have been so drained that I feel powerless and feel that my end is near. My wife is also chronically sick and is suffering from disorders of the womb and liver. In this condition, I supplicated that God Almighty might be pleased to restore to me the strength and capacity of my youth so that I should be in a state of health in which I can serve the faith. I also supplicated for the restoration of the health of my wife. Thereafter, I have received the revelations cited above. God knows best their meaning but I only understand that God Almighty will restore me to health and will bestow upon me the capacity whereby I might be able to serve the faith.
[And Allah knows best]. There is also the good news that God Almighty will restore my wife to health and strength.

(B) I had become very weak on account of mental fatigue and dizziness and was much afraid that I would not be capable of doing any writing and publication at all. I was very weak as if I had no strength left. In this condition I received the revelation:

\text{That is [Arabic]} \quad \text{The capacities of youth will be restored to you.}

Thereafter, within a few days I began to perceive the restoration of my capacities and soon I became strong enough to be able to write two juzw\textsuperscript{1050} of my new book with my own hand daily. Moreover, I was able to reflect upon and think out the subject matter of my writing, which is an essential need for writing a new book. Of course, I do suffer from two disorders, one that affects the upper part of my body and the other that affects the lower part. In the upper part I suffer from headache and dizziness and in the lower part I suffer from the frequency of passing water. I have suffered from these two afflictions ever since the publication of my claim of having been commissioned by Allah. I have supplicated for release from these disorders but the response has been negative. It has been conveyed to me that from the very beginning it had been appointed that the Promised Messiah would descend clad in two yellow sheets with his hands resting on the shoulders of two angels. These are the two yellow sheets which represent my physical condition. The interpretation of a yellow sheet has been unanimously given by the Prophets to be a disease or disorder. Two yellow sheets, therefore, means two disorders which affect the two parts of my body. The same has also been conveyed to me by God Almighty that the two yellow sheets indicate two ailments and the word of God was bound to be fulfilled.

[Urdu] These are days of misfortune and afflictions.

Mention was being made of a friend who was involved in several worldly difficulties. The Promised Messiah[^as] said: This revelation seems to be about him.

(B) Yesterday I received a revelation from God Almighty in the following words or perhaps with slight verbal differences:

[Urdu] We have been afflicted with many misfortunes and calamities.^^52

[^as^: Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: The Promised Messiah[^as] says in the same letter: The whole day after the receipt of this revelation I was saddened by the thought of what this might represent. Today on reading [your] letter I perceived that God Almighty had conveyed your message to me.

May 30, 1906

(1) [Urdu] Those accepted by God carry with them incidents and signs of such acceptance. They are known as princes of peace.\(^{1053}\) No one can overcome them. The drawn sword of angels\(^{1054}\) is in front of you; but you have not recognized nor seen nor appreciated\(^{1055}\) the needs of the time.

(2) [Urdu] It is not good to set yourself up against the Brahman Avatar.

\(^{1053}\) These revelations are a refutation of ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm Khān who, calling me a liar and a mischief maker, claims that the mischief maker will be destroyed in the lifetime of the righteous one. He claims to be the righteous one and calls me a liar and mischief maker. God Almighty refutes this by affirming that those who belong specially to God are known as princes of peace, they are safeguarded against a humiliating death or humiliating torment. Were that not so the world would be ruined and there would be no distinction left between the true and the false

[Announcement August 16, 1906, attached to Ḥaqqatul-Waḥī, pp. 1–2, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 22 p. 411]

\(^{1054}\) ‘The drawn sword of angels’ means a heavenly chastisement which would be manifested without any human effort.

[Announcement August 16, 1906]

[Announcement August 16, 1906]
(3) That is [Arabic] O my God, do create a distinction between the truthful and the liar.

(4) You recognize every reformer and truthful one.

In these revelations [3 and 4] the statement of ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm is being refuted in which he says that the liar will perish in the lifetime of the righteous one. Since he regards himself to be the righteous, God Almighty says that he is not the righteous and God would clearly distinguish between the righteous and the false.

(B) I recall that when I prayed for Niżām-ud-Dīn, \(^{1056}\) I saw in my dream that a sparrow fell into my hand and committed itself to me, on which I said: This is our heavenly provision as the Banī Isrā‘īl used to be provided from heaven.

Translation: (1) [Arabic] No Prophet has been sent, except that Allah has humiliated on his account those who do not believe.

1056 Niżām-ud-Dīn is a mechanic in Sialkot. A few days ago, I received a letter from him…. The subject of the letter was that he had been arrested on a charge of a criminal offence and was greatly perturbed as he saw no way of deliverance from it. He said he had made a vow that if God Almighty would deliver him from the case he would immediately make an offering to me of fifty rupees in cash. It so happened that when his letter reached me, I was in need of money and I supplicated: Lord of Power and Benevolence, If you deliver this person from this charge, it will be of triple grace; one, this distressed person will be relieved, two, my need for cash right now will, to some degree, be fulfilled and three, it would be a Sign from You. A few days later, I received Niżām-ud-Dīn’s letter …. and the next day I also received the fifty rupees.

It has been conveyed to me by revelation that in the family of Miyān Manzūr Muḥammad, that is to Muḥammadī Begum, a son will be born, who will have two names:

(1) Bashīrūd-Daulah
(2) ‘Ālam Kabāb

Both of these names were revealed to me. My interpretation and understanding concerning these is as follows:

(1) Bashīrūd-Daulah means that he would be a good augury for our glory and prosperity. After his birth (or after his achieving his discretion), the prophecy concerning the great earthquake and other prophecies will be fulfilled and a large number of people will turn to us and a great victory will be achieved.

---

1057 This means that God felt that the world had been corrupted and was in need of a great reformer and God’s Seal achieved this purpose that a follower of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, has been raised to a rank whereby he is both a follower and a Prophet at the same time. Allah the Glorious, made the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets, that is to say, He invested him with a seal for the purpose of perfecting the spiritual evolution of his followers with which no other Prophet had been invested. That is why he was named Khātāmun-Nabiyyīn [the Seal of the Prophets], meaning that perfect obedience to him would make a person worthy of achieving the qualities of Prophethood and his spiritual attention would raise a person to Prophethood. No other Prophet has been invested with this power of purification.

(2) ‘Ālam Kabāb means that within a few months of his birth, or before he achieves his discretion, the world would be overtaken by a great calamity as if it was coming to an end. That is why that boy has been named ‘Ālam Kabāb. In short, this boy will be called Bashīr-ud-Daulah as he will be a Sign of our glory and prosperity and he will be ‘Ālam Kabāb because he will be an example of the Judgment Day for our opponents.

June 7, 1906

Thereafter, it has been conveyed to me that this boy has two other names also: (1) Shādī Khān, as he will be a token of joy for this Community and (2) Kalimatullāh Khān, because he will be a word of God. It has been so appointed from the beginning and will be fulfilled in this age. It is ordained that God will keep the mother of this boy alive till this prophecy is fulfilled. A previous revelation: [English]

A word and two girls; refers to the same prophecy....

Miyān Manzūr Muḥammad has two daughters and when the Kalimatullāh will be born then the prophecy A word and two girls\(^{1058}\) would be fulfilled.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsīa: The two Signs referred to in the revelation were the deaths of Sa’adullāh of Ludhiana and Dr. Dowie of America. The Promised Messiah[as] writes:

In the East, Sa’adullāh of Ludhiana died of pneumonic plague in the first week of January after my prophecy and the prayer duel. This was the first Sign. The second Sign, much greater in magnitude and a precursor of great victory, is the death of Dowie which occurred in the West…. This fulfils the divine revelation that Allah the Almighty will show Two Signs.

O Aḥmad, Allah has placed blessing in you. Whatever you shot, it was not you who shot; but Allah shot. God has taught you the Qur‘an that is disclosed its true meanings to you, so that you might warn a people whose ancestors had not been warned and so that the way of the guilty ones might become manifest, that is, be known who turns away from you.

Say: I have been commissioned from God and I am the first of the believers. Say: The truth has come and falsehood has vanished away, and falsehood was bound to vanish. Every blessing is from Muḥammad, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Then blessed is he who has taught and he who has been taught. They will say: ‘This is not revelation; rather these are self-coined phrases.’ Tell them: God is the One Who has revealed these phrases and then leave them occupied with their sport. Tell them: If these phrases have been invented by me and are not the Words of God, then I deserve the harshest punishment. And who is guilty of greater wrong than one who invents a lie and utters falsehood against Allah? God is He Who has sent His Messenger and Apostle with guidance and the religion of truth so that He might make it prevail over all types of religions. God’s decrees are bound to be fulfilled; no one can change them. People will say: ‘Whence have you obtained this status? All of this, being described as revelation, is man’s word and has been manufactured with the help of other people. O people, will you then knowingly submit to magic? The promise that this man makes is impossible; moreover, it is a promise from one who is lowly and disrespected. He is either ignorant or mad whose speech is pointless’. Tell them: I have with me a proof from Allah, will you then accept it or not? Tell them again: I have with me a proof from Allah, will you then believe or not? And I have already spent a whole lifetime among you before this, will you not then understand? This status is of the mercy of your Lord, He will perfect His bounty upon you. Then convey the good tidings, and you are, by His grace, not a lunatic. You have a standing and status in heaven and among those who are able to see.
We shall show Signs for you and shall demolish the structures which they build.

All praise belongs to Allah Who has made you Masīḥ ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah son of Mary]. He is not accountable for that which He does and the people are accountable.\textsuperscript{1068}

They ask: ‘Do you place in it as vicegerent one who creates disorder upon earth?’ He answered: I know about him that which you do not know.

I shall humiliate him, who designs to humiliate you. In My Presence, My Messengers are not afraid of any opponent. Allah has decreed: I and My Messengers shall \textsuperscript{1068} The holy word of God which I set out at some places in my book the \textit{Barāḥīn-e-Ahmadiyyah} [p. 497 footnote 3, p. 557 footnote 4, \textit{Rūḥānī Khazā’in}, volume 1, pp. 590, 664] clearly states how God Almighty appointed me as ‘Īsā ibn-e-Maryam, [Jesus, Son of Mary]. In that book God first named me Maryam [Mary] and then disclosed this Maryam was breathed the spirit by God Himself and then He said that after the breathing of this spirit my status as Maryam was converted into my status as ‘Īsā, and thus ‘Īsā having been born of Maryam was called ibn-e-Maryam. At another place in the same context God said:

prevail. And after their defeat, they shall soon be victorious. Allah is with those who are righteous and who do good deeds. An earthquake resembling the Judgment Day is about to happen, which I shall show you. I shall safeguard every one who is in this house. Step aside today, O ye guilty ones. Truth has come and falsehood has vanished away. This is that which you tried to hasten. This is good news which was given to Prophets. You have appeared with clear Signs from your Lord. We are sufficient [as your Helper] against those who mock you. Shall I tell you on whom do the satans descend? They descend upon every sinful liar. Despair not of the mercy of Allah. Hearken, the mercy of Allah is near. Take note that the help of Allah is near. Such help will come to you by every distant track, and shall arrive through tracks that will deepen with excessive travel. People will come to you in such large numbers that their tracks will deepen with excessive travel. Allah will help you from Himself. People whom We shall direct by revelation from heaven will help you. There is no changing the words of Allah. Your Lord has said: He will cause to descend such a decree from heaven as will please you. We shall bestow 1069 In this revelation God has named me ‘rusul’ [Messengers], for as has been set out in Barāḥin-e-Ahmadiyyah, God Almighty has made me a manifestation of all Prophets, and has given me their names. I am Ādam [Adam], I am Shīth [Seth], I am Nūḥ [Noah], I am Ibrāhīm [Abraham], I am Isḥāq [Isaac], I am Ismā‘īl [Ishmael], I am Ya‘qūb [Jacob], I am Yūsuf [Joseph], I am Mūsā [Moses], I am Dāwūd [David], I am ‘Īsā [Jesus] and I am the perfect manifestation of the name of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, that is to say I am Muḥammad and Aḥmad by way of reflection.

upon you a clear victory. The victory of a friend of Allah is a great victory. We have bestowed upon him such nearness to Ourself that made him Our confidant. He is the bravest of people. Had faith ascended to the Pleiades, he would have gone there to take hold of it. Allah will illumine his reasoning. I was a hidden treasure and liked to be known. O moon, O sun, you appeared through Me and I was manifested through you. When the help of Allah arrives and the age turns towards us [and the word of your Lord is fulfilled],¹⁰⁷⁰ it will be said: Was not this commissioned one true? You should not be wroth when you meet Allah’s creatures and do not be tired of meeting the large number of people. You must enlarge your houses, so that when people come in multitudes, there is enough accommodation for them. Give good news to those who have believed that they have a standing of truth with their Lord. Recite that which is revealed to you from your Lord to those who will join your Community.

The Company of the Lounge, how will you know what the Company of the Lounge is? You will see their eyes running with tears. They will call down blessings on you and will supplicate: Our Lord, we have heard a crier calling people to the faith, a summoner to Allah and a bright lamp.

O Aḥmad! Mercy has been made to flow from your lips. You are in My Sight. I have named you Mutawakkil [the one who trusts in God]. Allah will exalt your name and will perfect His bounty upon you in this world and in the Hereafter. You have been blessed, O Ahmad! And you alone deserved the blessing that Allah has bestowed upon you. You have a wonderful standing and your reward is near. The heaven and earth are with you as they are with Me. You have a high standing in My presence. I have chosen you for Myself. Holy is Allah, the Greatly Blessed, and the Most High. He will raise your rank. He will cut off the mention of your ancestors and the family tree will begin with you.1071

1071 It should be remembered that the family of my humble self was very well-known one on account of its worldly rank and standing. Even in the period of its material status was in decline, my grandfather owned eighty two villages in this area. Prior to that, my ancestors carried on as ruling chiefs and were not subordinate to anyone. Then in God’s wisdom and under His will, they lost almost everything as the result of some skirmishes during the Sikh times and were left with only six villages. Then two more villages were lost and only four were left and in this manner their worldly splendour, which never endures for anyone, went into decline. Thus, this family had been one of renown in this neighbourhood. But God Almighty desired that their position of honour should not be confined to its worldly aspect alone, for worldly honours betoken only vainglory, pride and arrogance, and, therefore, God in His holy revelation has promised and has addressed me saying that this family will take on another aspect which shall begin with me and that its previous history will be cut off. This revelation also indicates that I would have a large progeny. This family has been known as a Mogul family, but God, the Knower of the unseen, Who is aware of the reality, has repeatedly affirmed in His Holy revelation that my family is a Persian family and I have been addressed as a descendant of Persians. For instance, He says about me:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَيْسَ كُلُّ مَلِكٖ وَ لَا مُلْكُ عَلَيْهِ مَنْ كَفَرَ وَ مَنْ عَدَّلَ مِنْ بَعْضِهَا وَ ذَٰلِكَ فِي كُلِّ دُنْيَا وَ الْجَاهِرَةِ وَ لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ مَنْ كَفَرَ وَ مَنْ عَدَّلَ مِنْ بَعْضِهَا

That is [Arabic] Those who have disbelieved and have obstructed people from the way of Allah, have been refuted by a man of Persian origin. Allah appreciates his effort; and in another revelation He has addressed me and has said:
That is [Arabic] Had faith ascended to the Pleiades, a man of Persian origin would have brought it down thence. Again addressing me, He has said in another revelation:

\text{حَدِيثُ الْمُتَّوَجِّدَةُ النَّوعِيَةُ َبِأَبِيَاتِهَا الْفَارِسِيَّةَ.}

That is [Arabic] Hold fast to the Unity of God, hold fast to the Unity of God, O sons of Persia.

All these revelations show that my family is not Mogul but is of Persian origin. I do not know by what misunderstanding the family became known as Mogul. According to my information our family tree runs as follows. My father’s name was Mirzā Ghulām Murtādā, his father was Mirzā ‘Aṭā Muḥammad, whose father’s name was Mirzā Gul Muḥammad, whose father was Mirzā Faiḍ Muḥammad, whose father was Mirzā Muḥammad Qā’im, whose father was Mirzā Muḥammad Aslam, whose father was Mirzā Dilāwar whose father was Mirzā Allāh-Dīn, whose father was Mirzā Ja’far Baig, whose father was Mirzā Muḥammad Baig, whose father was Mirzā ‘Abdul-Bāqī, whose father was Mirzā Muḥammed Sulṭān, whose father was Mirzā Hādī Baig. It seems to me that Mirzā and Baig were titles bestowed upon the members of the family, as sometimes Khān is bestowed as a title. To sum up, what God has revealed is the truth. Man can be led into a mistake by a very slight cause; but God is free from unconscious or conscious mistake.*

*Subfootnote: There is another prophecy concerning my family, which is that God has Allah would not leave you till He has clearly demonstrated the difference between the foul and the pure. When the help of Allah arrives and the victory and the promise of God is fulfilled, it will be said: This is what you desired to be hastened. I determined to appoint a vicegerent and therefore I created this Ādam [Adam]. He approached God and then turned towards people and between the two he became like one chord between two bows. He will revive the faith and will establish the law. O Adam, dwell you and your companions in the garden. O Maryam [Mary], dwell you and your companions in the garden. O Aḥmad, dwell you and your companions in the garden. You will be helped and the opponents will exclaim: ‘No way of escape is left.’ Those who have disbelieved and obstructed people from the way of Allah have been refuted by a man of Persian said about me: サロンان، that is, my humble self, who lays the foundation of two types of peace is one of us, a member of the family. This divine revelation confirms a well known fact that some of my grandmothers were Sayyeds. Two types of peace indicates that God has ordained that one peace will be brought about through me between the various sects of Islam, thus eliminating many of the differences that divide them, and a second peace will be brought about through me between Islam and its external enemies, many of whom will be given an understanding of the truth of Islam and will identify themselves with it. Then the end will come.

origin. Allah is appreciative of his effort. Do these people say: ‘We are a host that will inflict devastating losses.’ All of them will be scattered and they will turn their backs. You have today a high standing with Us and are trusted and My mercy is on you in matters of the world and of the faith and you are of those who are helped by Allah. Allah praises you and is walking towards you. Holy is the Lord Who took His servant on a night journey. He created this Ādam [Adam] and then bestowed honour upon him. He is the Messenger of Allah in the mantles of the all Prophets, that is, he possesses some characteristic of every Prophet.\(^\text{1072}\)

Good news for you, O My Aḥmad! You are My purpose and are with Me. Your secret is My secret. I shall help you and I shall guard you. I shall make you a leader of men. You will be their guide and they will be your followers. Is this a matter of wonder for people? Tell them: Allah is Wonderful. He is not accountable for that which He does and they are accountable. These are days that We rotate between people.

They will say: ‘This is only an imposture.’ Say: If you love Allah, then follow me, so that Allah may also love you. When Allah helps a believer, He creates in the earth many of those who envy him. No one can turn away His grace. Hell is their promised place. Say: Allah has sent \(^{1072}\) The meaning of this revelation is that I have been bestowed a portion of the special faculties or special qualities of all the Prophets from Adam downwards whether they appeared among Israel or outside Israel. There has not been one Prophet of whose qualities or special circumstances I have not been bestowed a portion. My nature partakes of the nature of every Prophet. This is what God has told me.

all of these words, and then leave them occupied with their sport. When it is said to them: Believe ye, as the people have believed; they retort: ‘Shall we believe as the foolish ones have believed?’ Take note: They indeed are the foolish ones; but they are not aware of their foolishness. When it is said to them: Create not disorder in the earth; they retort: ‘We are actually the ones who promote peace’. Tell them: There has come to you light from Allah, then do not deny it if you are believers.

Do you demand any tribute from them which prevents them from bearing the burden of faith? On the contrary, We have brought them the truth and they dislike the truth. Deal kindly with people and be merciful to them. Your standing among them is like that of Mūsā [Moses]. Be steadfast against that which they allege. Will you destroy yourself out of grief that they do not believe? Do not follow that of which you have no knowledge. Do not address me on behalf of the wrongdoers, they will all be drowned. Build the ark under Our supervision and Our direction. Those who enter into a covenant with you, enter into a covenant with Allah. Allah’s hand is above their hands. Call to mind when the one who declared you a disbeliever\textsuperscript{1073} devised a plan against you and said: ‘Light a fire, O Ḥāmān, so that I might learn about the God of Mūsā [Moses] and I suspect that he is a liar’. Perished are the two hands of Abū Lahab and perished is he himself. It did not behove him to intervene in this affair but in fear. Whatever pain shall be afflicted upon you is indeed from Allah. A trial will arise here, then be steadfast as were the Prophets of high resolve.

That trial will be from Allah so that He might love you with a great love; a love from Allah, the Mighty, the Most Noble.

Two goats will be slaughtered and everyone upon the earth will finally perish. Do not be sorrowful, nor grieve. Is not Allah sufficient for His servant? Know you not that Allah has the power to do all that He wills. They have made you a target of mockery and jokingly say: ‘Is he the one whom Allah has raised?’ Tell them: I am but a man. It has been revealed to me that your God is One God and that all goodness and virtue is contained in the Qur’an, and in no other book. No one penetrates to its deeper meanings except those whose hearts are pure. Say: The guidance of Allah is indeed the only true guidance. They will say: ‘Why has not this revelation come down upon some well known person who is the resident of one of the two Abū Lahab here refers to a Maulavī from Delhi, who has passed away. This prophecy was made twenty-five years ago and was published in Barāḥīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah. It had already been published when these maulavīs issued their edicts of apostasy against me. The perpetrator of the edict of apostasy was the Maulavi from Delhi, whom Allah the Almighty has called Abū Lahab and about whom He revealed the news published in Barāḥīn-e-Aḥmadiyyah, before the edict was framed.

And they will ask you: ‘Whence have you obtained this status; this is but a stratagem that you people have joined together to devised [in the city]. These people look at you but do not see you. Tell them: If you love Allah, then follow me, so that Allah may also love you.

God has descended to have mercy upon you. If you again return to mischief We shall also return to your chastisement. And We have made hell a prison for the disbelievers. And We have sent you as a mercy for the universe. Tell them: Carry on, in your places in your way and I shall continue to carry on in my way. Then soon will you see whom God helps. Not the smallest particle of a deed can be accepted without righteousness. Allah is with those who are righteous and with those who are engaged in doing good deeds. Say: If I have invented it, my sin is on me. And I have already lived a whole lifetime among you before this, then do you not understand? Is Allah not sufficient for His servant. We shall make him a Sign for people and a sample of mercy and that is a matter already determined since eternity. This is the matter which you doubted.

Peace be on you, you have been blessed. You are blessed in this world and in the Hereafter.

That is, this claimant of being the Promised Rejuvenator belongs to a small village of Punjab. Why was not the Promised Rejuvenator raised in Mecca or Medina, the centres of Islam.

\footnote{1077} The divine revelation that: ‘People suffering from diseases will be blessed through you’ includes both those suffering from spiritual disorders as well as those suffering from physical ones. As for spiritual disorders, I see that thousands of people who have entered into the covenant of baʿiat with me had been involved in different types of vices but after making the covenant they straightened their ways, repented of diverse vices, and became regular in their Prayers. I see hundreds of people in my Jamāʿat whose hearts have been inspired with the eager desire to purify themselves of evil passions. As regards those suffering from physical disorders, it has been repeatedly observed that many with serious ailments have been healed through my supplications and spiritual attention.

metaphorical. As in this age ignorant Christians have deified Jesus because of such expressions, Divine wisdom determined the use of even stronger expressions with regard to my humble self so that the Christians should pay attention and should realise that there is someone in this ummah [followers of the Holy Prophetsa] for whom stronger expressions have been used than the words on the basis of which they deify Jesus.

Messenger has been proved right. And Allah’s decree was bound to be fulfilled.

All praise to Allah, Who has made you Masîh ibn-e-Maryam [Messiah son of Mary]. He [Allah] is not accountable for that which He does, but people are accountable. Allah has preferred you over everything.

[Urdu] Many thrones have descended upon the earth but your throne has been placed above all others.

[Arabic] They will desire to put out the light of Allah. Take note, surely the party of Allah shall prevail ultimately. Be not afraid, surely you will be on top. Be not afraid, the Messengers are not afraid in My Presence. The opponents will desire to put out Allah’s light with the breath of their mouths and Allah will perfect His light though the disbelievers might resent it. We shall send down to you many mysteries from heaven and shall crush the designs of your enemies into bits and shall show Pharaoh and Hâmân and their hosts that of which they are afraid.

Then grieve not over that which they say, because your Lord is watching them. No Prophet has been sent, except that Allah has humiliated on his account those who do not believe. We shall deliver you and will raise you high. I shall grant you such honour as will make people marvel. I shall comfort you and shall not wipe out your name and shall raise a great people from you. We shall show great Signs for you and shall demolish the structures that are being built. You are the revered Messiah whose time shall not be wasted. A jewel like you cannot be wasted. You have a high standing in heaven and among those who possess sight. The Gracious God will demonstrate a wonderful Sign for you. The disbelievers will thereby fall down in prostration. They will fall upon their chins supplicating: ‘Our Lord forgive us our sins, we were in error’. Then they will address you saying: ‘We testify to Allah that He has given you preference over us and that we were in error in staying away’. They will be responded: Now that you have believed, no blame lies upon you. Allah has forgiven your sins and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

Allah will safeguard you against your enemies and will attack him who attacks you. This is because they transgressed and treaded upon the ways of disobedience. Is not Allah sufficient for his servant? O mountains and birds, remember Me with ecstasy and heartfelt pain along with him. Peace on all of you from God Who is Merciful. Step aside today, O guilty ones. I, along with the Spirit of Holiness, am with you and with the members of your family. Be not afraid, the Messengers are not afraid in My Presence. The promise of Allah has come. He has put down His foot and repaired the gap. Then blessed is he who has found and seen. There are people who accepted the guidance and there are people who have earned torment. They will say: ‘He is not a Messenger of God’. Tell them: My truth is being testified by God Himself and also those who have knowledge of the Book. Allah will help you at a difficult time.

The commandment of Allah the Gracious, for the vicegerent of Allah, for whom is the heavenly kingdom. He will be bestowed a vast kingdom: Treasures will be opened for him.\textsuperscript{1080}

This is Allah’s grace and is strange in your eyes.

Say: O ye who disbelieve, I am of the truthful ones. Then wait for my Signs for a while. We shall soon show them Our Signs around them and in their own selves. On that day the matter will be carried to its end and there will be a clear victory. Allah will decide between you that day. Allah does not guide an extravagant liar. We shall take away your burden which has well-nigh broken your back. We shall cut off roots of the people who do not believe in the veritable truth.\textsuperscript{1081} Tell them: Continue on your side to strive for your success, I shall continue to strive on my side, then soon will you know whose efforts are deemed worthy of acceptance.

Allah will be with those who are righteous and those who are engaged in doing good deeds. Has not the news of the destined earthquake come to you? When the earth shall be shaken violently and shall bring forth its \textsuperscript{1080} This revelation has reference to the future, as happened in the case of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, who was, in a vision, given the keys of the treasuries of Caesar and Chosros, and this vision was fulfilled in the time of Ḥaḍrat ‘Umar Fārūq\textsuperscript{ra}. When God sets up a people He does not brook that they should all the time be trampled underfoot by the others. Finally, some kings join them and they are thus delivered from the hands of tyrants as happened in the case of the followers of Jesus.

\textsuperscript{1081} This indicates that the time is coming when truth shall be clearly manifested and all controversies shall cease, and the verdict shall be through heavenly Signs. The earth has been corrupted; now the heavens will confront it.

inner burdens and man will say: What is the matter with it, that such a calamity has overtaken it? On that day, the earth shall narrate the events that befell it. God shall reveal to His Messenger what happened to the earth. Do the people imagine that this earthquake will not occur? It will certainly come, and at a time that they will be completely unprepared and every one will be engaged in his own worldly pursuit when the earthquake shall seize them. They ask you: ‘Is the prophecy about the earthquake true’? Tell them: Yes, by my Lord, this earthquake shall certainly occur and it will not be turned away from a people who turn away from God. That is, they will find no refuge, and even if they are standing at the door of their house, they will be unable to leave the house, except through good deeds. A mill will rotate and the decree will come down. Those who disbelieve from among the people of the Book and the idolaters would not have desisted except for this great Sign.

[Urdu] Were God not to do this, the world would be confounded.

[Arabic] I shall show you the earthquake of the Judgment Day. Allah will show you the earthquake of the Judgment Day. On that day, it will be asked: Whose is the kingdom this Day? Is it not of Allah the Supreme.

[Urdu] I shall demonstrate to you the flash of this earthquake five times.\textsuperscript{1082} If I so wished that day would be the end of the world.

\textsuperscript{1082} This revelation indicates that there will be five earthquakes. The first four of them will not be of any tremendous severity and people will take them lightly, but then the fifth earthquake will be an example [Arabic] I shall safeguard all those who are in your house. I shall show you the marvel of divine decree that will please you.

[Urdu] Tell the companions that the time for showing wonders upon wonders has arrived. [Arabic] I shall bestow upon you a great victory, which will be very clear, so that your Lord may forgive your sins in the past and in the future. I am the Acceptor of repentance. He who comes to you comes to Me. Peace on you, you are the purified. We praise you and call down blessings on you. Blessings on you from the Throne down to the earth. I have come down for your sake and shall show My Signs for you. Diseases will spread in the land and many people will die. God is not such as to change His decree about a people till they carry out a change in their views. He will take this town Qadian under His protection after some of the Judgment Day which would drive people mad, so much so that they would wish that they had died before that day. Bear in mind that since the receipt of this revelation, up to today the July 22, 1906, there have been three earthquakes in this country; those of February 28, 1906, May 20, 1906, and July 21, 1906. But these are probably not included among the predicted earthquakes in the sight of Allah for they were very minor. It would appear that there would be four earthquakes like the one of April 4, 1905 and a fifth like the Judgment Day. [Allah knows best].

1083 Unjust human beings often bring up thousands of unfair criticisms against the Prophets and Messengers of God and try to find all kinds of faults in them as if they were a bundle of all kinds of faults, wrongs, crimes, sins and injustices. How long can one respond to such insinuations which are mingled with the mischief of the lower self. Therefore, the way of Allah is that finally He takes the matter in His own hand and manifests such a glorious Sign as clearly demonstrates the innocence of the Prophet. This is the meaning of ِبِنِي. [Haqiqatul-Wahi, p. 94 footnote, Ruhani Khazain, vol. 22, p. 97 footnote] tribulations.\textsuperscript{1084} Were it not for the sake of honouring you, I would have destroyed the whole of this town. I shall safeguard all those who are within the four walls of this house—none of them shall die of plague or earthquake. God would not chastise those among whom you dwell.

[Persian] The house filled with our love is an abode of peace.

[Urdu] The earthquake will occur—and with great severity—and the earth will be turned upside down.

[Arabic] On the day the sky will produce a visible \textit{pall} of smoke.\textsuperscript{1085}

And on that day the earth will turn yellow, that is, there will be signs of severe famine. I shall bestow respect and honour upon you after the attempt of your enemies to humiliate you.\textsuperscript{1086}

\textsuperscript{1084} The word \textit{زئي} is spoken in Arabic on occasions when protection is granted after some sufferings as Allah the Almighty says in the Holy Qur'an: \textit{الزئي} and as He says: \textit{&&}\textsuperscript{1085}

\textsuperscript{1085} This indicates that these are the signs of the earthquake which will be an example of the Judgment Day. There will be a famine a short while before it and the earth will remain barren. Either immediately after it, or shortly thereafter, the earthquake will strike.

\textsuperscript{1086} This indicates that before the major Signs appear, it is imperative that they be mocked at, diverse types of adverse talk take place, and allegations be made. Thereafter, the fearsome Signs will appear from
They will desire that your affair should remain incomplete, but Allah does not intend to leave you till the completion of all of your affairs. I am the Gracious One, I shall create ease for you in every matter. I shall show you My blessings from every direction. My mercy has descended upon three of your organs, the eyes and two other organs, that is, they will be protected. The glow of youth will be restored to you. You shall witness your distant progeny.

1087 We give you good news of a son, who will be a manifestation of the True, as if Allah had descended from heaven. We give you good news of a boy who will be your grandson. Allah has purified you of every shortcoming and has agreed with you and has taught you the verities that you did not know. He is the Noble One, He walks in front of you and is the enemy of your enemies. They will say: ‘This is but an imposture’. O critic, know you not that Allah has power to do all that He wills? He sends down His spirit on whomsoever He wills from among His servants, that is grants the station of prophethood. All of this blessing is from Muḥammad, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah. So greatly blessed is he who taught this servant of God, and greatly blessed is he who was taught.
[Urdu] God’s feeling\textsuperscript{1088} and His seal have accomplished such a high design, that is, God felt the need of the time, and His feeling, and the Seal of prophethood which carries great grace, have accomplished a great task. In other words, there are two objectives of your being commissioned: (1) Feeling by God of the need of the time and (2) The grace bestowed by the Seal of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa}.

[Arabic] I am with you and with the members of your family, and with all those who love you.

\textsuperscript{1088} This revelation means that God felt that in this age the world had been so corrupted that it is in need of a great reformer and God’s Seal achieved this purpose that a follower of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, has been raised to a rank whereby he is a follower in one respect and a Prophet in another respect because Allah the Glorious, made the Holy Prophet on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, the owner of the Seal [of the Prophets]. That is to say, He invested him with a seal for the purpose of perfecting the spiritual evolution of his followers with which no other Prophet had been invested, therefore, he was named the Seal of the Prophets. This means that perfect obedience to him would make a person worthy of achieving the qualities of Prophethood and his spiritual attention would raise a person to Prophethood. No other Prophet has been invested with this spiritual faculty. The same is the import of the hadith, that is, the ulema of my ummah will be like the Prophets of Banî Isrā‘îl. Many Prophets did appear in Banî Isrā‘îl, but their Prophethood was not a consequence of following Mūsā [Moses]; instead they were bestowed directly by God. They had nothing to do with being the followers of Ḥaḍrat Mūsā\textsuperscript{as}. That is why they were not granted the titles of both a Prophet and a follower like me. Rather, they were called Prophet in their own right and were bestowed Prophethood directly. Leaving them aside, when we look at the rest of Banî Isrā‘îl, we find that they partook very little of goodness, and righteousness. Moreover, the followers of Ḥaḍrat Mūsā and Ḥaḍrat ‘Isā [Jesus] were generally deprived of auliya’ullāh (the saints)—a rare occurrence of someone like that does not count.

[Urdu] My name demonstrated its flash for your sake. The spiritual universe has been opened for you.

[Arabic] Therefore, your sight is sharp today. Allah will lengthen your days.

[Urdu] Eighty years—four or five more, or four or five less. I shall bless you greatly, so much so that kings will seek blessings from your garments. My name has demonstrated its flash for your sake. I shall show fifty or sixty more Signs. Those who are accepted of God exhibit Signs and evidence of such acceptance. They are revered by kings and mighty ones and are called princes of peace. The drawn sword of angels is in front of you;\textsuperscript{1089} but you have not recognized or seen or known the time. It is not good to oppose the Brahman Avatar.

[Arabic] O God! Demonstrate the distinction between the true and the false. You recognise every reformer and truthful one. Lord, everything is in Your service. Then Lord, guard me from the mischief of the wicked and help me and have mercy on me.

[Persian] O enemy bent upon destroying me, May Allah ruin you and safeguard me against your mischief.

[Urdu] The earthquake that has been prophesied is about to strike. Servants of God shall get up and observe Prayer upon witnessing an example of the Judgment Day.

\textsuperscript{1089} This prophecy relates to someone who denied me after accepting me, and became arrogant, abusive, and exceedingly hostile. Allah the Almighty is telling him: Why do you exceed the limits of transgression; see you not the swords of the angels?

[Arabic] Allah will make you prevail and will spread your praise among people. Had I not created you, I would not have created the heavens.\textsuperscript{1090} Ask of Me, I shall grant you.

[Persian] Your hand and Your supplication and mercy from Allah.

[Urdu] Shock of earthquake that will demolish a part of the structure.

[Arabic] Permanent and temporary residences will all be wiped out. It will be followed by another earthquake.

[Urdu] When the spring comes round again, there will be another earthquake. When the spring has come round for the third time the days of the satisfaction of the mind will arrive, and by that time Allah the Almighty would have demonstrated many Signs.

[Arabic] Lord, postpone the time of the major earthquake. Allah will postpone the earthquake that will be an example of the Judgment Day till an appointed time.\textsuperscript{1091} Then you will see \textsuperscript{1090} On the appearance of every great spiritual reformer a new spiritual heaven and a new spiritual earth is created. That is to say, angels are appointed to help in the achievement of the purposes of the reformer and people with eager temperaments are guided towards him. This revelation refers to the same phenomenon.

\textsuperscript{1091} Earlier, I had received the divine revelation that the earthquake that will be an example of the Judgment Day was imminent. The Sign appointed for it was that Muḥammadī Begum, the wife of Pīr Manẓūr Muḥammad Ludhiānavī will give birth to a son. Since that boy would be a Sign for the appearance of the earthquake, he would be named Bashîrud-Daulah, indicating that he would be a good augury for our wonderful help and your opponents will fall down upon their chins supplicating: ‘Lord forgive us and pardon our sins, we were in error’. The earth will say: ‘O Prophet of Allah, I did not recognise you’. O defaulters, no blame shall lie upon you this day; may Allah forgive you and He is the most Merciful of those who show mercy. Be kind to people and have mercy on them. You are prosperity. Similarly, he would be named ‘Álam Kabāb, indicating that if the people do not repent the world would be overtaken by great calamities. Similarly, he would be named Kalimatullâh and Kalimatul ‘Azîz because he would be the Word of God that will appear at its due time. He will also bear other names.

Thereafter, I prayed that the appearance of this severe earthquake may be delayed somewhat. The revelation from Allah the Almighty mentions that supplication and then provides the response to it. As He has said:

\[\text{That is, Allah has accepted this supplication and has postponed the earthquake to another time. This revelation was published in Badr and al-Ḥakam about four months ago. Since the earthquake—the example of Judgment Day—has been delayed, it was also necessary that the birth of the boy be also delayed. Accordingly, a daughter was born to Pîr Manzûr Muḥammad on Tuesday, July 17, 1906. This is a Sign of the acceptance of the supplication and the truthfulness of the divine revelation that had been published four months before the daughter was born. However, earthquakes of a smaller magnitude must continue to occur, but it is imperative that the earthquake of the example of the Judgment Day be postponed till that boy is born. Bear in mind that it is a Sign of the mercy of Allah that by creating a daughter, He comforted us regarding the predicted affliction, that is, the earthquake of the example of the Judgment Day. It has been postponed in accordance with }\]

If the boy had been born, there would have been great apprehension and fear at the occurrence of every earthquake in fear that the appointed time has come and the postponement would have not been believed. But now the postponement has been tied to the fulfilment of a condition.

in the position of Mūsā [Moses] in My estimation. A time will come upon you like the time of Mūsā. We have sent a Messenger to you similar to the Messenger that We sent to Pharaoh.

[Urdu] Much milk—that is the milk of insights and verities—has descended from Heaven, [guard it].

[Arabic] I have illumined you and chosen you.

[Urdu] Provision has been made for your happy life.

[Arabic] Allah is better than everything. With Me is a good which is better than a mountain.

[Urdu] Many salutations of peace upon you from Me.

[Arabic] We have bestowed upon you in abundance. Allah is with those who follow the guidance and those who are truthful. Allah is with those who are righteous and those who do good deeds. Allah intends to raise you to a praiseworthy station.

[Urdu] Two Signs will appear.

[Arabic] Step aside today, o ye guilty ones. The lightning of the Signs of God would well-nigh strike them blind. This is what you desired to be hastened. O Aḥmad, mercy flows from your lips. Your discourse has been made eloquent by the Noble Lord.

[Persian] There is something in that which you say, to which the poets have no access.

[Arabic] Lord teach me that which is good in Your estimation. Allah will safeguard you against your enemies and will attack all those who attack you. They have disclosed all their weapons. I shall inform him (Muḥammad Husain of Batala) at the last moment that he was not in the right. Allah is Gentle and Merciful. We have made the iron soft for you. I shall come to you suddenly with My hosts. I shall respond along with the Messenger and will postpone or cancel My decree at certain times and will fulfil it at other times. They will ask: ‘Whence have you obtained this status’? Tell them: Allah is Wonderful. Āyel came to me and chose me and rotated his fingers and signified that the promise of Allah had arrived. Then blessed is he who finds it and sees it. Various kinds of diseases will spread and many lives will be lost in different calamities. I shall stand with My Messenger and shall break the fast and also observe it. I 1092 The words of this divine revelation literally mean that: At times, I will fault and at times be right; meaning that sometimes I will do as I wish and at other times I will not. And sometimes my intent would be achieved, and other times not. Such words do occur in the Word of God Almighty. As a hadith narrates [that Allah the Almighty says]: ‘At times, I hesitate to take the soul of a believer;’ whereas Allah is free from hesitation. This revelation that ‘Sometimes My intent is achieved and others not’ has a similar import. It means that sometimes I cancel My intent and decree, and others it is fulfilled as I desire.

1093 Here Allah the Almighty has named Gabriel as Āyel, because he visits often.

[Ḥaqqatul-Waḥī, p. 103 footnote, Ṭūḥān Khazā’īn vol. 22, p. 106 footnote]

1094 It is obvious that Allah the Almighty is free from keeping fast and breaking it. Therefore, these words cannot be attributed to Him in their literal sense. Hence it is only a figure of speech. The import is that ‘Sometimes I shall send My chastisement and sometimes I shall grant a respite like a person who sometimes eats and at other times keeps fast and stays away from eating’. Such figures of speech abound in the Word of God, as there is a hadith that Allah will say on the Day of Judgment: ‘I was sick, I was hungry, I was naked…

Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the People of the Elephant? Did He not revert their plan to work against them?

[Urdu] That which you have done will not turn out to be in accord with God’s pleasure. 1096

[Arabic] We have forgiven you. Allah helped you at the time of Badr, that is, in this fourteenth century, when you were weak. They will say: ‘This is imposture’. Tell them: Had this enterprise been from anyone other than Allah you would have found much contradiction in it. Tell them: I have with me proof from Allah, then will you believe or not. The moon of the Prophets will come and your affair will be completed. Step aside today, O ye guilty ones.

This shows that Bābū [Ilāhī Bakhsh] was number twelve and that there are two more after him so that the number fourteen might be completed.

1097 In this respect Allah the Almighty has revealed to me that as happened during the time of Prophet Isaiah, that in accordance with the prophecy of that prophet, a woman named Alma bore a son. Afterwards the king Hezekiah gained victory over Pekah. Similarly, before the earthquake, the wife of Pîr Manţûr Muţammad Ludhiînâvî whose name is Muţammadî Begum, will bear a son. That boy will be a precursor of the major earthquake which will be an example of the Day of Judgment. It is necessary that prior to that, minor earthquakes should take place. The boy will have the names as detailed below:

- Bashîrûd-Daulah—because he will be Sign of our victory;
- Kalimatullâh Khân—that is, the Word of the Almighty Allah;
- ‘Alam Kabâb; Word; Shâdî Khân; Kalimatul-‘Azîz—because he would be the Word of God that will bring victory for the truth.

All creation is the words of God. Therefore, naming someone Kalimatullâh is not something unusual. That boy has not been born this time because Allah the Almighty has said:

That is: The earthquake that will be an example of Judgment Day has been postponed.

[Haqîqatul-Wâhi, p. 106 footnote, Rûhâni Khazâ’in vol. 22, p. 109]

In Isaiah 7 the word is given as Pekah, which is the name of a king.

July 30, 1906
The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} said: I received a revelation today of which I do not remember all the words, but what I do remember is certain. I do not know whom it might relate to but it portends great danger.\textsuperscript{1100} The words I remember are:

أَنْفُسُكَ تَمْسَخُتُ بَيْنَ بَيْنَ

[Urdu] His breath stopped in a moment.
The revelation is in a rhythmically balanced sentence, but I have forgotten one of its words.

August 1, 1906
I saw [in my dream] that there was an earthquake and then I received the revelation:

\textsuperscript{1100} On its fulfilment the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} was granted the knowledge that the revelation referred to Miyānī Šāhīb Nūr immigrant from Afghanistan. See Tatimmah Ḥaqīqatul-Wahī, page 4, Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 22, page 435. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]
Translation: (1) [Arabic] I shall safeguard all who are in this house. (2) [Arabic] I determined to appoint a vicegerent, so I created this Ādam [Adam].

August 5, 1906

On one occasion, the lower half of my body became numb so that I could not move one step…. I apprehended that these were symptoms of paralysis. I was in great pain and was restless. I could not even turn over in bed. During the night when I was in great pain, I was fearful—for the sake of faith, and for no other motive—that my opponents would gloat over it and I supplicated before the Almighty…. Thereupon, in a light slumber the revelation came to me:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ أَحَمَّلُ مَايْتَى مِثْلَ حَيٍّ لَا يُخْرِجُهُ اللَّهُ مِنْ مُّقَامِهِ الْمُكْرِمِينَ

That is [Arabic] Allah has power to do all that He wills, Allah does not humiliate the believers.

I call to witness God, the Benevolent, in Whose hand is my life and Who is also observing at this moment whether I am lying against Him or telling the truth, that within perhaps half an hour of this revelation I went to sleep and when I woke up suddenly, I found that no trace of my trouble was left. All were asleep and I got up and began to walk about to test my recovery and was satisfied that I was perfectly well.

(1) [Urdu] Look, I shall cause [the rain] to descend from heaven for you and shall produce from the earth. But those who are opposed to you will be seized.

(2) [Urdu] Streams shall flow through the courtyard and severe earthquakes shall occur.

[Badr, vol. 2, no. 39, September 27, 1906, p. 12]

1102 In al-Istiftā’ page 76 footnote, Appendix Ḥaqīqatul-Wahi, Rūhānī Khazā’in, volume 22, page 702 footnote, the Promised Messiah has given July 10, 1906 as the date of this revelation. It seems that the revelation was revealed again. [Allah knows best.] [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

1103 (A) God has told me that there will be earthquakes and other afflictions, not only in the Punjab for I have not been raised only for the Punjab. I have been commissioned for the whole population of the earth. So I tell you truly that these earthquakes and afflictions will not be confined to the Punjab, but that the whole world will partake of them. As there has been great destruction in America, the same will happen some day in Europe and then these terrible days have been determined for the Punjab and India and all parts of Asia. He who lives will see.

(B). Bear in mind that God has informed me generally of the coming of earthquakes. Then be sure that as according to this prophecy there have been earthquakes in America and Europe, so will there be and in different parts of Asia. Some of them will be an example of the Judgment Day. There will be death on such a large scale that streams of blood will run. Even animals and birds will not escape this death. Such destruction will overtake the earth as has not happened since man was born. Many places will be turned upside down as if they had never been

August 21, 1906

(1) Last night I saw in my dream that there were such vast numbers of wasps (meaning low enemies) that the whole inhabited. There will also be other afflictions of a terrible type in the earth and the heavens, so much so that every person with understanding will view them as most extraordinary and no mention or trace of them will be found in the books of astronomy or of philosophy. Then people’s minds would be filled with anxiety over what might be apprehended. Many will be delivered but many will be destroyed. The days are near, indeed they are at the door, when the world will witness scenes of the Judgment Day and not only earthquakes but awe-striking calamities will appear, some from heaven and some from the earth. This will happen because the human beings have given up the worship of God and have succumbed with all their thoughts and their designs and their resolves towards the world. Had I not appeared these calamities might have been delayed for a while, but with my coming the secret designs of God’s wrath, which had long been hidden, have been manifested…. Do not imagine that while America etc. has been severely shaken, your country is secure. What I see is that you might experience greater misfortunes. O Europe, you are not secure; and O Asia, you are not protected. O ye that dwell in the islands, no artificial god will help you. I see cities falling and find the habitations in ruin.

earth was covered with them and they were greater in number than a locust swarm—so numerous that they virtually covered the ground. Some of them were flying as if they would sting but they did not succeed. I said to my sons, Sharīf and Bashīr: Recite this verse of the Qur’an and then blow over your bodies, you will not be harmed. The verse (sūrah as-Shu’arā’, 26:131) is:

Then I woke up.

(2) I received the revelation:

نَصْرَتَ بِالْرُّقِبِ وَكَانَ أَوْلَادُ جَنِينَ مَنَامِ

[Arabic] You have been helped with prestige and they said: There is no way of escape left.

(3) After midnight, I received the revelation:

مَتْعُوْدَاً بِعَشْرٍ كَانَتَ مَوْعِدَةٌ

[Urdu] Have patience. God will destroy your enemy.

The Promised Messiah \[\text{[as]}\] said: Last night I saw in my dream that a robe which had a good deal of gold work on it had been granted to me from the Unseen. A thief ran away with it but someone ran after him and caught him and took away the robe from him. Thereafter the robe changed into a book of the name of \textit{Tafsīr-e-Kabīr} and I was given to understand that the thief had run with it in order to destroy the \textit{Tafsīr}.

The Promised Messiah \[\text{[as]}\] said: The interpretation is that by thief is meant Satan, who desires to remove my sayings from the notice of people, but that he will not succeed. The \textit{Tafsīr-e-Kabīr} [the large commentary] being shown in the form of a robe means that it will be a source of honour and ornament for me \[\text{[Allah knows best]}\].

I saw in my dream that Dr. ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm Khān (an apostate and enemy) was standing near our house and the mother of Muḥammad Iṣḥāq (wife of Mīr Nāṣir Navvāb) asked him to come in, but I stopped his coming and I said:

[Urdu] I would not let him come in as this would be a disgrace for us.

The entry of an enemy into the house in a dream means some affliction or death. He was not able to come in, which meant that God had averted the affliction. Then I received the revelation:

Moreover, I was shown a piece of meat in my dream which indicated some sorrow and I also saw that I was holding an

I am collecting notes about the Signs for the book Ḥaqīqatul-Wahi. It occurred to me that, along with the Signs that were shown in the past, there should be some fresh Sign. Allah the Almighty granted that wish...
Since ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm is an opponent, so he has been shown. The entry of an opponent in the dream is interpreted as an affliction or death. I said in the dream that I would not permit his entry, that is, my prayer caused the affliction to be averted...
The revelation that ‘I shall safeguard…’ that accompanied this dream shows that some episode of plague is about to take place.

1108 After these dreams the Promised Messiah[^as] stopped Mīr Nāsīr Navvāb[^ra] and his family from proceeding to Lahore as they had intended. He told him that he feared that some calamity was about to befall his family; if it happened during the journey, the enemies would have an excuse to ridicule. Respected Mīr [Nāsīr Navvāb[^ra]] and family bear witnesses to this. Next morning Mīr Muḥammad Isḥāq became ill with high fever and developed swelling of two nodes in the groin which was a symptom of the plague. It caused great fear and everyone in the house was terror-stricken. Ḥaḍrat Maulāvī Ḥakīm Nūr-ud-Dīn[^ra] was the attending physician; but even he was terrified upon seeing the swelling of the nodes in both groins. The Promised Messiah[^as] occupied himself with earnest supplications, and prayed with great concentration and pathos. By the grace of God, as a consequence of the prayer, within two or three hours the fever subsided. The swellings and all signs of plague disappeared. Miyān Muḥammad Isḥāq[^ra] has now been restored to full health. [Allah be praised for all this]

According to this prophecy, Miyān Šāhib Nūr immigrant [from Afghanistan], who was from Sāhibzādah ‘Abdul-Latif’s Jamā’at, died suddenly due to bursting of his belly in Sha‘bān 1324 AH. It was discovered that there had been a tumour in his belly for some time but he did not feel anything. He was young, strong and healthy. All of a sudden, he had a stomach ache. His last words, repeated three times, were [My belly burst] and he died thereafter.

[Dream] The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} saw in a dream that Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Nūr-ud-Dīn had sent him a paper which appeared to be a proof of something. Probably by the 13\textsuperscript{th} of this month is meant the 13\textsuperscript{th} ofSha‘bān. [Allah knows best]. I do not know whether this means the 13\textsuperscript{th} of the current month of Sha‘bān or the 13\textsuperscript{th} of some subsequent Sha‘bān. And I do not know for certain to whom the revelation refers and therefore am feeling sad. May Allah have mercy. Āmīn.

1112 If the number was 30, it might refer to Miyān Šāhīb Nūr [immigrant from Afghanistan] who died on Sha’bān 30, 1324, October 19, 1906. (See Badr quoted above) [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

October 9, 1906

Last night I saw in my dream that my brother, Mirzâ Ghulâm Qâdir (deceased) was riding a strong horse and I thought that he was an angel, who had appeared in that form on account of the affinity to the word ‘Qâdir’ (Powerful). 1118 It should not be a surprise that why the revelation of October 2 was published in al-Ḥakam of September 30. The fact is that al-Ḥakam was published late, but the date on which it was due was printed on it. Accordingly a note to this effect was given in al-Ḥakam, volume 10, number 34, dated September 30, 1906, page 1. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] a whip in his hand. He was like a well built strong soldier and we proceeded in a certain direction in the town as if the angel had been commissioned to perform some task or service. Thereafter, I received the revelation:

[Urdu] O ‘Abdul-Ḥākim! May God Almighty safeguard you against all harm, against blindness, paralysis, and leprosy.

It was conveyed to me that I had been named ‘Abdul-Ḥākim.

The import, in brief, is that the wisdom of God Almighty would not brook that I should be afflicted with any of these disorders for that would give my enemies an opportunity to mock me.

October 15, 1906

I saw in my dream that I was writing something and in the course of the writing, I saw the following writing:

IIaba states:

‘Ilm is an Arabic word meaning ‘knowledge’ and darmān is a Persian word meaning ‘treatment’. The import is that the knowledge of the treatment would be known after 223 days. Now we need to see what is the 223rd day after October 15— it is 25 May 1907. The Promised Messiah⁶⁶ passed away on May 26 in accordance with this revelation.

Another matter for reflection—which the opponents may deny for lack of understanding—is that the revelation was [Arabic] ‘Ilmud-Darmān 223

The Promised Messiah[as] said: ‘Ilm is an Arabic word and Darmān is Persian. What follows is the number 223. I do not know what this might mean.

October 16, 1906

I saw (a vision) that someone’s death was near, though I was not informed specifically whose death was meant. I supplicated in the course of my vision and received the revelation:

received in 1906, but the Promised Messiah[as] passed away in 1908. That makes it one year and 223 days.

Bear in mind that there are two reasons for it. One, that there is another revelation which followed closely: [The Arrows of death do not miss], which also proves that the revelation containing 223 is about death. Then another revelation was received:

(See Review of Religions, November 20, 1906, page 2) meaning that your death was destined in 1907 but We have increased your appointed life and thus the calculation started after one year.

The second reason is that the date appointed for his death was May 26. If he had died in 1907, some of his opponents would have raised the clamour that he died within the period given in their prophecies. Moreover, in that case his death would have been on the 27th. Therefore it was necessary that he should pass away in a leap year (which would have 29 days in February) so that he would pass away exactly after 223 days on May 26. Thus his death would definitely be in 1908 which is a leap year, not in 1907 which has 28 days in February and the 223 days are completed not on 26 May, but on 27 May.

 Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: In Tash-hīdh-ul Adh-hān, volume 2, number 5, May 10, 1907, on page 23, is written Immā instead of Innā due to scribe’s error.
That is [Arabic] The arrows of deaths do not miss.

Thereupon I suppicated again during the state of vision: ‘Lord, You have power over all things’; and received the revelation:

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: The Editor of al-Ḥakam writes: The paper was published late; therefore it contains some events that took place after October 24.
November 2, 1906

I saw (in my dream) that I was sitting somewhere at night and another person was with me. I looked at the sky and saw that many stars were clustered at one place. I looked towards those stars and, pointing to them, said:

[Urdu] The kingdom of heaven

Then I perceived that there was someone at the door knocking at it. When I opened the door I found that it was a lunatic whose name was Mîrân Bakhsh. He shook hands with me and came in. There was another person with him but he neither shook hands with me nor did he come in.

I interpreted this to mean that the kingdom of heaven stood for the chosen people from among the members of my Community whom God will spread in the earth and the lunatic is someone proud, arrogant, wealthy, or bigoted person whom God will enable to take the pledge of allegiance (bai‘at). Then I received the revelation as if I was trying to comfort someone:

November 7, 1906

Last night, about midnight, I was talking to my wife that: ‘The monthly expenses of the public kitchen have now exceeded 1,500 rupees; should we take a loan?’ Then I thought a loan would not help much for even if I borrowed 2,000 rupees that would be spent within a month. Then I went to sleep. In the morning, I received the revelation after Prayers:

On the way back, the dust again caused darkness, and feeling the rein of the horse, I held on to it. After a few paces it became light and, seeing a large terrace, I dismounted. There were some boys who cried out that Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karīm had arrived. Then I saw Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karīm (deceased) coming and I shook hands with him and said: assalāmo ‘alāikum [may peace be upon you]. Maulavi Šāhīb took out something and presented it to me and said: The Bishop, who is the chief of the Christian priests, also works with this. This article was like a brown rabbit from which a tube was protruding and at the end of the tube was a pen. The tube gets filled with air which makes the manipulation of the pen easy. I said: ‘I had not sent for this pen’. Maulavi [‘Abdul-Karīm] answered: Perhaps Maulavi Muḥammad ‘Alī did; on which I said: ‘Very good, I shall give it to Maulavi [Muḥammad ‘Alī]’. Then I woke up.

common citizens of the State vis-a-vis the heir apparent of the Ruler. They had made every effort with respect to the problems with which they were confronted but had not succeeded. The only recourse now left to them was to submit a memorial to the Governor General and seek justice at his hands, but they had not much hope of success as the authorities below the Governor General had decided definitely against them. In his distress Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān not only requested me to supplicate on their behalf, but also promised that if God, by His grace, would deliver him from his distress, he would immediately donate three thousand rupees for the public kitchen. After repeated supplications on their behalf, I received the revelation:

[Urdu] O sword, turn your face the other way.

I informed Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān of this divine revelation and thereafter God Almighty had mercy on him.

Last night was the twenty-seventh of the blessed month of Ramaḍān and it is generally held that this might be the lailatul qadr. I thought to myself: ‘There is no guarantee of life; I do not know whether I would have another opportunity to be blessed with this night’ I got up and occupied myself with supplication after ʿsalāt\(^{1129}\). After the prayer, I received the following revelations:

(1) [Urdu] Powerful is He Who sets right a broken affair; And breaks up a running concern. No one can fathom His mysteries.

(2) [Urdu] The degraded person\(^{1130}\) has been ruined.

(3) [Urdu] Your prayer has been accepted.

Basically, all three of these revelations are prophecies, whether they might relate to one person or to three separate persons.

Abdul-Karīm,\textsuperscript{1132} son ofʿAbdur-Raḥmān of Hyderabad Deccan, is a student in our school. The decree of Allah so ordained that he was bitten by a mad dog and we sent him for treatment to [the Pasteur Institute at] Kasauli, where he went through the treatment for a few days and then returned to Qadian. A few days later, he exhibited the usual symptoms of rabies which include agitation and hydrophobia—fear of water—which are normal results of being bitten by a mad dog. An alarming situation was created. I was deeply moved by pity for that helpless visitor and felt a strong urge towards supplication on his behalf. Everyone thought that the poor man would expire within a matter of hours. Finally, he was segregated in a house separated from the boarding facility with all due care and a telegram was sent to the Doctors of [the Pasteur Institute at] Kasauli, describing his symptoms and asking for instructions for treatment. A reply was received that nothing could be done for him. But I was moved in an extraordinary manner to continue my fervent supplications for the helpless visitor. My friends also begged me to pray for him, for everybody sympathised with him because of his being helpless and away from home. There was also an apprehension that if he passed away our opponents would mock us viciously. My heart was filled with great agony and restlessness for him and a supernormal concentration—which is a pure bounty of Allah and cannot be achieved by human efforts alone, and if it is achieved, it shows an impact through Allah’s grace that may well-nigh revive the dead—was achieved. When that condition of attendance in the presence of God reached its ultimate point, and agony saturated my heart to its brim, then that sick man—who really was dead—started demonstrating the Signs of responding to my attention towards God. Instead of fearing from water and running away from light, his health suddenly took a turn for the better and indicated that he was no longer afraid of water. He was given water, and he drank it without any fear. He also performed his ablutions with water and joined in the service. That night, he slept in comfort throughout and all the wildness left him. Within a few days he was back to complete health. It was conveyed to me immediately that the symptoms of agitation had not appeared in him as a presage of death but for the purpose of the demonstration of a Divine Sign. Those who are experts in these matters affirm that it has never happened that after someone has been bitten by a mad dog and the symptoms of rabies have appeared, the person might be saved. This is fully confirmed by the fact that the specialists at Kasauli appointed by the Government to treat the dog-bitten patients had replied to our telegram that nothing could now be done for Ḥabūl-Kārīm.

Sorry nothing can be done for Abdul Karīm
I forgot to mention above that in answer to my supplications, Allah the Almighty conveyed to me that a particular medicine should be administered. I administered that medication to him a few times, and he recovered. You can also say that the dead man was revived.

(A) A particular matter needed some further consideration with reference to which I received a revelation:

(B) The result of the persecution of several persecutors was that God Almighty demonstrated Signs in connection with them. I have made mention of some of these people in Ḥaqqatul-Wahī, for the enlightenment of seekers after truth. One recent event of this nature is of a person who died in the month of Dhul-Qa‘dah 1324 A. H. He used to revile and curse me persistently. His name was Sa‘adullāh. His abuse was hurtful like a dagger. When such persecution reached its limit and he exceeded all others, God Almighty informed me of his early ruin, of his disgraceful end, and cutting off of his progeny and said:

1135

I announced this revelation of Allah the Great publicly and thereafter, God Almighty fulfilled my revelation. Then I intended to write it in detail and convey publicly how Allah dealt with this mischief maker and enemy of the servants of the Gracious God. A lawyer who is a member of my Jamā‘at tried to stop me from publishing this prophecy, and expressed his fear of the consequences of my intended publication. He said that this matter would certainly be reported to the authorities which would result in my conviction and punishment from which there would be no way of escaping. An unending chain of calamities would ensue and the ultimate result after the troublesome prosecution is also obvious; the government would definitely impose a punishment. He urged me, therefore, that this revelation should be given no publicity. I told him that divine revelation must be duly honoured, and that my failure to announce it publicly would be sinful and an act of lowly character. I also told him that no one except God Almighty had the power to hurt me, or to cause me any damage and that I was not afraid of the result of any prosecution that might be launched against me. I tried to reassure him that I would naturally pray to Allah, Who is the source of all grace and benevolence, to safeguard me against every misfortune and mischief, but that if He desired that I should undergo some misfortune, I would accept cheerfully the humiliation involved therein. I affirmed with an oath in the name of Allah that He would not let that evil man prevail against me and would safeguard me against his mischief by afflicting him with some calamity. When my unique and sincere [friend] Maulavī Ḥakīm Nūr-ud-Dīn who is a scholar and is well-versed in spiritual matters, heard this affirmation of mine, he immediately recalled a saying of the Holy Prophet\textsuperscript{sa} by Maulavī [Nūr-ud-Dīn] Şāhib served to reassure those present. They realized that our lawyer friend was mistaken and his fears had no substance. Thereafter, I continued to supplicate during three days for Sa‘adullāh’s ruin and begged Allah to cause his death. Thereafter, Allah the Almighty revealed to me:

Meaning that there are some people who, in the eyes of the common people, have tousled hair and are covered with dust, but they have such a status in the eyes of Allah the Almighty that if they were to take an oath in the name of Allah about something, Allah the Almighty would certainly fulfil their oath. From this it was meant that Allah the Almighty will safeguard me against the mischief of that person. I swear by Allah the Almighty, that only a few days had passed that news of his death arrived. So Allah be praised for having made that enemy the target of His whip.¹¹³⁶

¹¹³⁶ Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadraː: The lawyer was Khwājah Kamāl-ud-Dīn. In al-Ḥakam, volume 38, number 7, February 28, 1935, pages 3–4, narrating the eye-witness accounts of Maulāvī Muḥammad Ibrāhīm Baqāpūrira, includes this event. The following is a summary of his statement:

When the Promised Messiahas stated in Ḥaqiqatul-Wahī footnote page 364 (Rūḥānī Khazā’in, volume 22, page 378) that the son of Sa‘adullāh Ludhiānavī was impotent, Khwājah [Kamāl-ud-Dīn], being a lawyer was afraid that if Sa‘adullāh brought up a suit, it would be impossible to prove that his son was impotent. He begged the Promised Messiahas to delete that footnote. The Promised Messiahas said: ‘I have written according to the will of God; I will not delete it.’ Khwājah [Kamāl-ud-Dīn] said again: ‘I will remain worried about it.’ The Promised Messiahas said: ‘If Sa‘adullāh brings up a suit, I affirm that I will not take you as my attorney.’ He kept quiet and went to Lahore, from where he wrote a letter to Maulāvī Muḥammad ‘Alī that he could not sleep all night. If Sa‘adullāh were to bring up a suit, it would be difficult for us to prove the point. Only two options can resolve this matter: either the Promised Messiah should delete the footnote, or Sa’adullāh should die. When the Promised Messiah was informed, he said: ‘It would be no surprise if Sa’adullāh were to die soon.’ Thereafter he received the revelation: After a few days, a telegram conveying the news of Sa’adullāh was received, and the Promised Messiah recorded these events in Ḥaqīqatul-Wahi.

I have suffered for a long time from two ailments. One of these is migraine, which has caused me a great deal of suffering and resulted in many alarming side-effects. I had suffered from it for nearly twenty-five years and then it was accompanied by dizziness. Physicians have opined that these disorders may lead to epilepsy. I continued my supplications that Allah the Almighty might safeguard me against this contingency. On one occasion I perceived in a vision that I was about to be attacked by an affliction in the form of a black animal of the size of a sheep having long hair and big claws. It was conveyed to me that this was epilepsy. I struck it with my right hand on its breast with great force and said: Avaunt, you have no part or lot in me. Thereafter God knows that all those dangerous symptoms disappeared along with the migraine, except that occasionally I suffer from dizziness, so that the prophecy relating to two yellow sheets should continue to be fulfilled.

The second disorder from which I have suffered for nearly twenty years is diabetes…. Even now I need to pass water about twenty times a day and sugar has been detected in the tests of urine. One day it passed through my mind that according to the physicians, diabetes brings about epiphora in the eye or erupts in the form of carbuncle, a cancerous growth, which proves fatal, whereupon I received the revelation about epiphora:

That is [Arabic] Mercy has descended upon three, the eye and two other limbs; and when the thought of carbuncle passed through my mind, it was revealed [to me]:

Thus Allah has, for a long time, safeguarded me against these calamities. [All praise belongs to Allah].

(1) And I saw in my dream that there was a pit about the size of a grave and I was given to understand that there was a snake in it. Then it passed through my mind that the snake had emerged from the pit and had slithered away in some direction. After this thought of mine, Mubārak Ahmād put his foot into the pit and as he lowered his foot I felt that the snake was still inside and it immediately began to move and emerge from the pit. As it started to flee, it appeared that it was a python with two legs; one was comparatively thin and the other was fat like that of a buffalo or an elephant. Mubārak Ahmād’s mother ran towards the python and cut off its thin leg with a knife. Then the python moved to the other side of the house and I went towards it. I had a knife in my hand and I cut off its bigger leg with it. It was easily cut, as if it were a radish or a carrot, but a great deal of poisonous liquid remained sticking to the knife. I threw the knife into a fire which was burning close by and it gave out a very evil smell. I was apprehensive lest the poisonous smell should do me some harm. However, I suffered no harm, but the python was destroyed. Then as the three of us emerged from the house,

I noticed Dr. ‘Abdullāh coming towards us. When he arrived near us, he smiled and said to me: A telegram has been received that: [Urdu] Two bridges have fallen down. I asked him: Which bridges, and at what places, have fallen down? He said he did not know and all that was known was that the fallen bridges were in the Punjab.

Thereafter I received the revelation:

On February 9, 1907, I received the revelation: رَأَيْتُ أَنَّكَ أَنتَ الْقَمَّةُ. That is surely you are on top. And then on the same date I received a revelation: أَنْ تَأْتِيَكَ نَيْتُ الْفَرْخَةِ. That is you will be granted another sign of happiness through which you will achieve a great victory. I was made to understand that in the eastern countries Sa’dullāh Ludhānvī died in the first week of January in accordance with my prophecy and after entering into a mubāhalah [prayer duel]. This was the first sign. The second sign would be much greater which will bear a great victory. So that is the death of Dowie which took place in the western countries. See Badr, February 14, 1907. Thus was fulfilled the divine revelation [I shall show two signs].

It is possible that my revelation: [Not even one will remain by the end of the week] might refer to some specific people and the revelation might be manifested in that way. Yesterday a letter was received from Delhi that Maulavi ‘Abdul-Majid Dehlavi, who was a staunch opponent, died suddenly.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: In explaining this revelation, Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Muʿminīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ II said:

The revelation received on February 18 had been received earlier with reference to the Promised Son. When I read it, it occurred to me that the prophecy has been revealed again and I noticed that both times it was revealed in February. This shows that when the demise of the Promised Messiah was near, about fifteen months before he passed away, the prophecy was repeated by Allah the Almighty, so that, due to the lapse of time, people may not think that the prophecy had been abrogated. Along with it He said: (1) كُلُّ الْفَتْحَاتُ بَعْدَهُ (2) مُظْهَرُ الحَقِّ وَالْعَلَّامَةُ كُلَّمَةٌ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ, meaning that the real victories will be achieved after this Sign. This is followed by another revelation in the same context in which it has been conveyed that the enemy will attack from all sides when the prophecy is fulfilled. As soon as the import of the prophecy was made clear to me, the Ahl-e-Paighām raised a storm of opposition in full force and started using all kinds of allegations, fabrications, and falsehood. However, Allah the Almighty had also revealed (١١٤٦), which has the same Meaning that a Sign will be manifested which would comprise all victories in it. At that time, truth will be manifested and will be victorious as if Allah Himself would descend from Heaven.

February 20, 1907

Translation: (1) [Arabic] I shall stand with My Messenger and shall rebuke the one who rebukes him. (2) [Urdu] A scattered host. (3) [Urdu] A sorrowful news has been received.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: It passed through my mind, after I woke up, that this last revelation might relate to some of our friends in Lahore. The revelation might possibly have the same import.

(4) [Urdu] It would be better if he marries again.

The Promised Messiah[as] said: I do not know to whom this might refer.

import as the verse of the Holy Qur’an: (sūrah al-Qamar, 54:46). That is, all enemies will join forces to attack, but Allah the Almighty would disgrace and humiliate them and they would be put to route. This revelation is very similar to the other revelation about the Promised Son: Meaning when the Promised Son appears, truth will appear and the falsehood would flee. Falsehood is only capable of fleeing.
February 20, 1907

Allah the Almighty says:

[Urdu] I shall manifest a fresh Sign which will bring great victory.¹¹⁴⁷ This Sign will be for the whole world and will be wrought by God's hands and from heaven.

Let every eye wait for it, for God will manifest it soon as His testimony that this humble one, who is being reviled by all peoples, is from Him. Blessed are those who would take advantage of it.

¹¹⁴⁷ (A) Alexander Dowie died so soon after this prophecy that within a fortnight of the publication he met his demise. Thus it is a sure proof for a seeker of truth that it related to him, because, first, the prophecy specified that the predicted great Sign would be for the whole world and second, that it would be manifested soon. How sooner could it be, that the unfortunate Dowie could not complete even twenty days of his life after the prophecy, and was reduced to dust. The Christian missionaries, who had raised such an outcry in the case of Ātham, must now pay attention to the death of Dowie.

(B) Obviously, what could be a greater miracle than this? My principal function is the breaking of the cross. By Dowie's death, a great part of the cross has been broken for, of the whole world, he was the foremost champion of the cross. He claimed to be a prophet and had announced that through his prayer, all Muslims would be destroyed, Islam would disappear and the Ka'bah will be deserted. Now, God has destroyed him at my hand…. I can declare it on oath that he was indeed the swine, concerning whom the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, had said that he would be slain by the Promised Messiah.
February 23, 1907

Translation: (1) [Arabic] When they see a Sign, they turn away and say: For sure this is magic. (2) [Arabic] The host will be scattered and they will turn their backs.

This indicates that the time is approaching when it would not be possible to deny God’s Signs. The Sign will be manifested in an irrefutable way.

(3) In my dream it seemed that I said or someone else said:

[Urdu] We shall now take part in the funeral service when we arrive there

It seems that someone’s funeral services will be offered.

Translation: (4) [Arabic] Be not afraid, God is with us.

Some friend has been comforted in this revelation, as if I would reassure some friend.

\[21\] Translation: (2) [Arabic] Were it not for honouring you, the whole of Qadian would have been destroyed.

This revelation indicates that some people will die of the plague in Qadian also. [Urdu] A severe earthquake came and it will also rain today.

[Badr, vol. 6, no. 10, March 7, 1907, p. 1 and al-Ḥakam, vol. 11, no. 8, March 10, 1907, p. 1]

1149 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: Accordingly it rained that day. An earthquake occurred on the night after March 2. (Reported in the above cited Badr and al-Ḥakam).
February 28, 1907

March 2, 1907

I understood this to mean that: O members of the household, God intends to try you so as to make it manifest whether you have full faith in whatever He might determine and so that He might purify you completely. Then with reference to my wife, I received the revelation:

(2) [Urdu] It is heavy, but accept the trial from God.

and this was followed by the revelation:

(3) [Arabic] O ye people, worship your Lord, Who created you. Its meaning conveyed to me was: O members of the household, do not rely upon anyone else. God Who created you will suffice you and will provide for you. This was followed by the revelation:

[Persian] Your arrival is a source of joy; your arrival is a source of blessings. [Publishers]

Normally it is said to welcome someone. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed]

(1) [Arabic] God desires to remove from you all uncleanness, O members of the household, and to purify you completely. [Publishers]
(4) The translation is: [Arabic] O Members of the household! fear God and do and say nothing contrary to His will and pleasure. He is the Lord Who created you.

Then I received a revelation as if I am saying to others:

Revelation:

(5) [Urdu] O members of my household! May God safeguard you against ill.

Then I received a revelation addressing me:

(6) That is [Arabic] You have been raised by Me and I have been manifested through you. You are the one whose soul has flown up to Me.

[Badr, vol. 6, no. 10, March 7, 1907, p. 1 and al-Hakam, vol. 11, no. 8, March 10, 1907, p. 1]

March 7, 1907

(1) [Arabic] Our Lord! Judge between us and our people.

(2) [Arabic] Do you wonder that you might die?

(3) [Urdu] His body has been brought wrapped in a shroud.
I do not know to whom, or to which people, this might refer.

[Note by Haḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams]: The events that unfolded later proved that the reference here was to the demise of the Promised Messiah. When he passed away in Lahore, a coffin was prepared and he was brought up to Batala in it. Then it was carried on a cot to Qadian, wrapped in a shroud.

March 7, 1907

(A) [Urdu] Twenty-five days; (or, till twenty-five days).

The revelation concerning twenty five days means that some event will take place, either on the termination of twenty-five days or within the period of twenty-five days counting from the date of the revelation, March 7, 1907. And it is destined that the divine determination would withhold that event till twenty five days have elapsed starting from March 7, 1907 or that it would take place within twenty five days. If it is interpreted as twenty-five days then it is imperative that this event may be expected to occur on April 1, because in the revelation the seventh is included in the twenty-five days, thus completing the twenty-five days on March 31. That would make April as the month of the fulfilment of the prophecy. But the question is: what is the event that has been prophesied? I am unable to answer that at this time except that it would be something either frightful or wonderful. When it does take place, it will be recognised as the fulfilment of the prophecy. I cannot even say whether it relates to me, or to any friend, or to my enemies. That which God has not disclosed, it is not possible for me to unravel.

[Badr, vol. 6, no. 11, March 14, 1907, p. 3 and al-‘Ijakam, vol. 11, no. 9, March 17, p. 1]

(B) Thereafter, the manner in which this prophecy was fulfilled is the following. Exactly on March 31, 1907—the completion of twenty-five days from March 7—a huge fiery flame appeared in the sky and, with a frightening flash, was observed over a distance of more than seven hundred miles (according to present observation; it might have been more) to be falling upon the earth. Thousands of people watched this phenomenon and some of them fell down senseless by its impact and had to be administered water to revive. Most of those who observed it have described it as a fiery ball that appeared to fall upon the earth and then to rise towards the sky in the form of smoke.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams ṭa:
This prophecy that was fulfilled was regarding Dowie. [Tash-bīdh-ul-Adh-hān, vol. 2, no. 2, March 3, 1907, no. 4/140]
The degraded one has been ruined. Your prayer has been accepted. Those who do not heed you, do not heed God either.

March 1907

God will bestow an extraordinary honour upon you and the doors of every bounty will be opened for you. It is not God’s will to involve you in difficulties. Rather, He will make everything easy for you.

March 9, 1907

Thousands of people are under your wings.

The Promised Messiah said: When a Messenger of God Almighty appears, he becomes a means of the spiritual nourishment of people. Divine grace first descends upon him and then others partake of it through him.

The Promised Messiah, peace and blessings be on him, has clarified that this revelation points to the demise of Reverend John Alexander Dowie. (See the Arabic book al-Istiftā’, Rūḥānī Khazā‘īn, vol. 22, p. 702) [Publishers] [Translation] (5) [Arabic] Verily, Allah is with the truthful.

This revelation has been fulfilled today. The Civil [and Military Gazette] has announced the death of Dowie, concerning whose chastisement I had made a prophecy. He is the one whom I had invited to a prayer duel.

Translation: (6) [Urdu] There is a trial, in consequence of which some will be seized and some will be left alone.

Translation: (7) [Arabic] God has willed to remove all uncleanness from you, O members of the household, and to purify you completely.

This is the third time that I have received this revelation. [Allah knows best].

Translation: (8) [Arabic] Your death has astonished me.

[Translation] (9) [Urdu] A type of plague will spread in Europe and other Christian countries which will be very severe.

[Translation] (10) [Urdu] About 85,000 people will die in the State of Kabul.

(1) قدرت کے دروازے مکمل ہیں.

(1) [Urdu] The doors of Divine determination are open.

(2) میتی راہ اسلام کے احکام و قوانین.

(2) [Urdu] Virtue is to fully carry out God's commandments.

(3) ایہیں یاد کریں اور آئے تھے.

(3) [Urdu] He is pleased with your humble ways.

(4) اِنْ نَّاَتِکَ وَ اِنْ تَنَّاَتَکَ.

(4) [Arabic] I have illumined you and chosen you.
A friend of mine, Sayyed Nāṣir Shāh, Overseer in the State of Jammu and Kashmir, was much perturbed at having received orders of transfer to Gilgit which would involve him in great hardship during the journey and his stay there, to which he did not find himself equal. He took leave and came to me and asked me to pray that he should be posted in Jammu and should not have to travel to Gilgit. One night I supplicated for him and in respect of several matters including the glory of Islam. Then I received the revelation: [Urdu] All prayers have been accepted, including the one for the strength and glory of Islam. In this manner, I was informed that Sayyed Nāṣir Shāh’s transfer had been postponed. It gave me great pleasure that God had accepted my supplication on his behalf.... I informed him immediately that my prayer about him has been accepted. Thereafter, on about the 3rd or 4th day, he received a letter from some official of the State that his transfer had been postponed.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: Though this may have some other meaning also, but one of its meanings is that these reviling Āryas, Som Rāj and Ichhar, who used to publish weekly newspapers always full of vile abuse, were the afflictions of this town. Allah the Almighty removed them and sent them to hell.

[Badr, vol. 6, no. 17, April 25, 1907, p. 7]
(9) [Urdu] There is a Mūsā [Moses] whom I shall make manifest and upon whom I shall bestow honour in the eyes of people.

(10) Translation as understood by me: [Arabic] I shall drag him who has sinned against Me and shall show him hell.

(11) [Arabic] My Signs will be manifested.

(12) [Arabic] Say: There is Allah and then leave them occupied with their sport.

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: The Promised Messiah as said: Ever since I received this revelation...Qadian has remained safe. This also is a fresh Sign.

Note by Ḥadrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad: Alhamdulillāh, this prophecy was fulfilled on the seventeenth day after its publication. The Promised Messiah as was named Moses by Allah the Almighty. In opposition to him, Bābū Ilāhī Bakhsh, Accountant, also claimed to be Moses. Allah the Almighty revealed to the Promised Messiah as that he alone is Moses and no one else. The prophecy was first published on March 21, 1907 in Badr and then on March 24 in al-Ḥakam. The seventeenth day from March 21 is April 6, 1907. As noted in footnote 2 on page 602 of Tadhkirah Edition 4, that is the date of his death. His disgrace becomes more evident because of the publication of revelation number 10 prior to the event. [Allah knows best]. (See Badr vol. 6, no. 15, April 11, 1907, p. 5)
(B)

Translation: [Arabic] My Signs will be manifested. Some Signs will be manifested after others so that the Honour of Moses be established. But he who has sinned against Me, I shall drag him and will show him hell. I have preferred you and chosen you. [Urdu] I have been pleased with your humble ways. My enemy has been destroyed. [Arabic] Verily, Allah is with the truthful.

(1) I saw in my dream that my wife said to me:

[Urdu] I have given up my pleasure for the pleasure of God;
and I said to her in reply

[Urdu] That is why you are glowing with beauty.

This observation of mine is of the same type as the sentence in the Psalms: You are far above mankind in your beauty.

Translation: (2) [Arabic] I have decided that the time of the earthquake should arrive.
This does not appear to refer to an ordinary earthquake. It shows that out of the severer earthquakes intended by God Almighty, the time of one has drawn near.\footnote{1158} [Arabic] Meaning that they will soon be ruined.

This means that anyone who claims to be in relationship with God cannot maintain such relationship unless he accepts me. He who neglects this commandment will not escape divine chastisement.
(5) [Arabic] Sulṭān ‘Abdul-Qādir
In this revelation, God has named me Sulṭān ‘Abdul-Qādir, meaning that as a Sulṭān rules over others, in the same way I have been invested with authority over all those who seek spiritual communion with the Divine. Such communion cannot be maintained unless they obey me and consider obedience to me as incumbent upon them. This revelation resembles an observation of Sayyed ‘Abdul-Qādir Gīlānī (may Allah be pleased with him):

قدْمِنْ هَذِهِ مِنْ عَلَّمٍ رَقَبَةَ كُلِّ ذَٰلِكَ اللَّهُ غَيْرَ كُلِّ ذَٰلِكَ اللَّهُ which means: I have my foot on the neck of every saint.

(6) (Explanation) [Arabic] All good things have been made lawful for this Sulṭān ‘Abdul-Qādir. Tell them: I have done nothing against the commandment of God, but have done only that which Allah has commanded me.

(7) I was then shown in a vision the graveyard which God has named: Bahīshṭī Maqbarah [Heavenly Graveyard]; and I received the revelation:

کُلَّ مَکْتِیاَرِ الْآَرَضِ لَا إِکْتِیاَرُ هَذِهِ الْآَرَضِ

That is [Arabic] None of the graveyards in India can compare with this land; meaning that the blessings bestowed upon the land of this graveyard have not been bestowed upon any other graveyard in the Punjab and India.

(8) Then I saw that I was following a path and was accompanied by my son Mubārak Aḥmad and his mother and I had a feeling that Mīrzā Ghulām Qādir (my brother) was also with me. I saw that the way was covered with wasps as if they were a swarm of locusts. One of them came and sat inside my navel and then flew away without doing me any harm. Then we entered a mosque which was also filled with millions of wasps but we suffered no damage from them

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmadra: All praise belong to Allah that this prophecy was fulfilled by the deaths, caused by plague, of Achhar Chand, the manager of the newspaper Shubh Chantak, and Som Rāj, the editor. Both these men, in their indecent talk and abusive language, were leaders of the Āryas of Qadian. While staying in Qadian, they used to speak and write against the righteous Community with utter impurity. [Allah knows best]. (see Badr, April 11, 1907, p. 5)

That is: The end of some of the bitter opponents would be that, after witnessing some of the Signs, they will fall down in prostration before God Almighty saying: Our Lord, forgive us, we were in error. Then they will address me and say: We testify before Allah that He has exalted you above us and that we were in error in opposing you. They will be responded: No blame lies upon you. Allah will forgive you and He is the most merciful of those who show mercy. This will come about when great Signs will be manifested which will induce well intentioned people to reflect that no true Messiah could have shown greater Signs or could have manifested Divine help and support to a greater degree. Then, suddenly they will be given strength from the unseen to accept and they will accept the truth.

Dream: I saw that Maulavī Abū Sa‘īd Muḥammad Ḥusain Batālvī was sitting in our house and I said to one of our people: Serve a meal to Maulavī [Muḥammad Ḥusain] hospitably; he should not be put to any inconvenience.

This dream seems to indicate, though Allah knows best] that the time is near when God Almighty Himself might guide Maulavī Muḥammad Ḥusain for He has power over all things. I had received previously a revelation that towards the end, God Almighty will make it manifest to him that he was in error in rejecting me and that my claim of being the Promised Messiah is true. But I do not know what might be meant by ‘towards the end’.1174

(1) Vision: Today I was shown in my vision someone whose face I cannot recall, but I do remember that he is a bitter enemy of mine and reviles me in his speeches and writings and uses foul language. This was followed by the revelation:

(2) [Urdu] The recompense of evil is evil. He is afflicted with the plague.

This is a prophecy, meaning that he will suffer from plague. I am sure that soon or late you will hear that some such enemy—about whom your hearts will testify that he deserved the affliction as indicated in this revelation—will die of the plague. If this does not happen you would be entitled to reject my claim.

(3) Thereafter, it was manifested to me that: heedlessness, sin and daring have spread widely in the country and that people will not give up opposition till God manifests His strong hand.

Thereafter, I received the revelation:

(4) [Urdu] The result will be the outbreak of a severe [kind of] plague in the country. [Arabic]

it was a moral problem, not a problem of religious belief…. Thus the prophecy of the Promised Messiah as was fulfilled in my person and also fulfilled was the dream that I saw about the wrestling match which had informed me that ultimately Maulavi Muḥammad Ḥusain would join us.
Woe on that day unto those who reject the truth.

\textsuperscript{1175} Note by Syed Abdul Hayee: Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul-Masih IV\textsuperscript{th} made the following comments on the Promised Messiah's\textsuperscript{as} revelations and in his Friday sermon on December 12, 1997:

I want to tell you that there were certain revelations of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} which were applied to Ḥaḍrat Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmad\textsuperscript{ra}. I am the only person—there might possibly be others—who always believed that these revelations are really about his son Mirzâ Maṃsûr Aḥmad. As happened during the time of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, there are sometimes prophecies about someone, but they are fulfilled in his son.

As I will explain to you, there is no doubt that these revelations were about the son of Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmad and were destined to be fulfilled in him.

The revelations are about Sharîf Aḥmad, during his illness (in 1907) it was revealed:‘\textsuperscript{9} Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul-Masih IV\textsuperscript{th} II\textsuperscript{nd} made the following comments on the Promised Messiah’s\textsuperscript{as} revelations and in his Friday sermon on December 12, 1997:

I want to tell you that there were certain revelations of the Promised Messiah’s\textsuperscript{as} which were applied to Ḥaḍrat Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmad\textsuperscript{ra}. I am the only person—there might possibly be others—who always believed that these revelations are really about his son Mirzâ Maṃsûr Aḥmad. As happened during the time of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, there are sometimes prophecies about someone, but they are fulfilled in his son.

As I will explain to you, there is no doubt that these revelations were about the son of Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmad and were destined to be fulfilled in him.

The revelations are about Sharîf Aḥmad, during his illness (in 1907) it was revealed:‘Allah has granted him life contrary to expectation.’

Then it was revealed:‘Allah has appointed him as a leader contrary to expectation.’ That is, it could not be expected that he would be appointed as Amīr for such a long period. ‘Amīr’ means that he would be appointed as Amīr, that is, one who holds authority.

Another revelation which says (Here comes the King) also proves the same. In explaining this revelation the Promised Messiah’s\textsuperscript{as} says ‘He would be made a Qāḍī, that is, one who renders verdicts’…. Ḥaḍrat Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmad\textsuperscript{ra} did not live very long—he was the youngest to die among his brothers. To say that he lived long contrary to expectations may be a wishful expression, but not a statement of facts as they unfolded. He was never appointed as Amīr…. That is the reason why I always considered these two revelations to refer to Ḥaḍrat Mirzâ Maṃsûr Aḥmad. His life is a witness to that.

He suffered several heart attacks, and every time the doctors were despair of his survival. But he recovered contrary to expectations, to the amazement of the doctors…. Thus the revelation definitely applies to him.

Moreover, the revelation I have calculated the time of his appointment as Amīr. He was first appointed as Amīr during the time of Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masîh III\textsuperscript{rd}. No one was appointed as Amīr during the 52 years of the Khilâfat of Hadrat Khalifatul Masih IIra, as Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad was during the Khilâfat of Ḥadrat Khalifatul Masih IIIra and me. He was appointed as Amir forty-five times. During the present period of my migration, he served as Amir for fourteen years continuously. That is contrary to expectation. No one could imagine that anyone could serve as Amir for so long during the life of a Khalifah. The office of the Local Amir of the headquarters is normally held by the Khalifah himself. When he is present the Local President runs the day to day affairs, but the Khalifah holds the office of the Local Amir. Thus, for all practical purposes, he took my seat, in accordance with my directive, and handled all affairs with great courage.

About the revelation of the Promised Messiah as says: The other person said: He has yet to be a Qâdî. This was the voice heard along with the revelation. The Promised Messiah as said: Qâdî is he who upholds the truth and refutes falsehood. This characteristic was present in Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad in an unusual way. I have hardly seen any one so bold as him in refuting falsehood.

Here I am reminded of another revelation. In a vision the Promised Messiah as said to Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmadra: ((Now be seated in my seat and I shall go)).

Obviously, this was not fulfilled in Mirzâ Sharîf Aḥmadra…. It was fulfilled in Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad. I am at this time the vicegerent of the Promised Messiah as and Mirzâ Sharîf is not among us. The office of Amir, which I held, was held by Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad and exactly fulfilled the words: ((Now be seated in my seat and I shall go)).

He certainly had a status that is manifested by the revelations of the Promised Messiah as. History has demonstrated that he was a blessed personage whom had the status of the spiritual son of the Promised Messiah as. Whatever the Promised Messiah as saw about his son was fulfilled in the son of that son. Now that I have appointed Mirza Masroor Ahmad, the son of Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad, as the Nâẓir A’lā and Local Amir, I thought of the revelation as if the Promised Messiah as was saying that once again now. All these matters assure us that the soul of Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad was a noble soul. He was a brave man—a drawn sword to support Khilâfat…. Now I ask the entire Jamā’at to pray for Mirzâ Manşûr Aḥmad, and thereafter, for Mirza Masroor Ahmad, that Allah the

The Promised Messiah\(^{[as]}\) said:

At 2 p.m. today the thought passed through my mind that the members of my family would have arrived in Amritsar by then and I was hoping that they would arrive safely in Lahore. Simultaneously I was overtaken by a light slumber and saw in a vision a dish of gram (which is interpreted as sorrow and unhappiness) mixed with raisins and I ate the raisins out of it. The thought came to my mind that the dish represented their condition, the grams indicating that they might encounter some trouble or sorrow. Then my mind was inclined towards receiving revelation and the revelation about the matter was received:

Thereafter as part of the same dream, I saw some pice which is an indication of anxiety and sadness, just like the grams. (end of dream)…

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams\textsuperscript{a}: Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’minīn Khalīfatul Masīḥ \textsuperscript{H} said in his Friday sermon on June 14, 1935, in the midst of the mischief of Aḥrār:

There were no serious tribulations in the life of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} after these revelations were received, which proves that they relate to future…. See how it has been foretold in these revelations that a hell would be prepared for his followers. Since it did not happen in his lifetime, it must be for the future. But it was also prophesied that Allah the Almighty would safeguard his followers. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} would be greatly maligned, but God Himself would defend him. The divine support would continue till Aḥmadiyyat gains ascendancy and the slogans of [Urdu] [Victory to Ghulām Aḥmad] are heard around the world. The word ‘Jai’ indicates that the Hindus would also join the Muslims in their opposition, but it has been announced that ultimately they would be forced to pronounce ‘Jai’. Thus it is conveyed in the Word of God that there would be tribulations after the demise of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. The tribulations would be severe and abuses would be hurled. Hindus would join Muslims to oppose Aḥmadiyyat. But Allah the Almighty would grant victory to Aḥmadiyyat, till the opponents are forced to proclaim \textsuperscript{H} Victory to Ghulām Aḥmad.

The Promised Messiah’s as son, Miyān Mubārak Aḥmad, is ill with high fever and sometimes loses consciousness. Today, a revelation concerning him was received:

[Urdu] Has been accepted. Nine days’ old fever has subsided.

Meaning that the supplication has been accepted and Allah will grant recovery to him. I do not recall definitely on what day the fever had started but Allah, by His grace, has given the good news of his restoration to health in advance. The meaning of the ninth day has not been disclosed, nor can it be determined. But it seems that the day on which the fever became high, was the beginning [Allah knows best.]

Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad⁷⁸: The Editor Badr writes: Last August Mubârak Aḥmad suffered from high fever and was again and again losing consciousness. The fever reached 105 degrees (F). He was tossing around with great pain the situation seemed hopeless due to the fear of meningitis. Thereupon a revelation was received. This revelation was published in Badr of August 29 and accordingly on August 30, 1907, the fever subsided and Mubârak Aḥmad recovered and went for a walk in the garden. The fever recurred and then subsided on September 14, 1907. He recovered and started playing around. He did recover from this illness, but a prior Word of God was destined to be fulfilled. Thus Mubârak Aḥmad suffered from another illness, because the Word of God was bound to be fulfilled. The details are that: One day before the birth of Mubârak Aḥmad it was conveyed by revelation that the boy would die young and go back to Almighty Allah. The Promised Messiah⁷⁸ has given a detailed account of this in his book Tiryāqul-Qulūb (published in 1902), p. 40, (Rūḥānī Khazā’in, vol. 15, p. 213). Given below is the original wording:

Allah the Almighty has revealed to me that He would grant me another son. This is the fourth boy who has been born now and has been named Mubârak Aḥmad. His birth was conveyed to me two years prior to his birth and was repeated two months before his birth. Just before his birth, I received the revelation (I fall upon the earth with Allah’s Hand, and shall return to Him). I interpreted it to mean that the boy would be pious and guided to Allah. His movement will be towards God, or he would die young. Only Allah knows which of the two is destined.

The Promised Messiah[^as] said:

This has been a period of trials. For about twenty to twenty-five days, I have not been able to sleep. Last night, in a light slumber, I received the revelation:

[Urdu] God has been pleased.

This indicates that God is pleased that I have lived up to this trial. The import of this revelation is: ‘You have lived up to the trial.’

Thereafter, I went to sleep and in my dream I saw that I had a paper in my hand on which there were fifty or sixty lines of beautiful handwriting. I read the writing but the only phrase I remember out of it was:

That is [Arabic] O servant of Allah, I am with you.1193

Reading these lines gave me as much joy as if I had seen God Himself.

There are also some warning dreams, for instance the burial of someone in a graveyard and the skinned carcass of a goat. I do not know what might be meant, and to whom they refer.

That is [Arabic] Men whom We shall direct from heaven will help you. They will be coming to you by every distant track.
In this revelation, God Almighty has metaphorically compared me to the House of Allah, inasmuch as the verse is related to the Ka‘bah in the Holy Qur’ān.

[Urdu] The humiliation and destruction of your opponents was destined to be at your hands. This means that those who desired to humiliate and destroy me, will themselves be humiliated and destroyed.

Then the revelation came:

That is [Arabic] I am the Most Gracious, Lord of Honour and Majesty, He who is the enemy of My friend is as if he had fallen from the sky. I am present, then wait for My verdict. Chastisement from God will overtake those who do not desist from opposition. We do not chastise till after We have sent a Messenger, meaning that when great calamities befall the earth, it indicates that the Messenger has appeared.

Then Allah the Almighty says:

Those alone will attain deliverance from chastisement who purify their hearts; and those who corrupt their hearts will be chastised. Tell them: I have been commissioned over you, then do as I command. These are the days of blessings, so show them due regard. O servant of Allah, I am with you. I call to witness the growing brightness of the day and I call to witness the night that is dark, that your Lord has not deemed you to be an enemy.

And then God said:

[Urdu] I shall not destroy the root of your progeny. God, the Benevolent, will restore that which has been lost.

[Announcement November 5, 1907]

Then it was revealed in Urdu:

[Urdu] I am in agreement with you in all circumstances according to your wishes.

[Announcement November 5, 1907]
Then the revelation came:

That is [Arabic] There is good news for you in this life and in the Hereafter. Your end is good. [Urdu] Good and help and victory, God the Almighty willing. [Arabic] We shall relieve you of your burden, which had well-nigh broken your back and shall exalt your name. I am with you. I have remembered you, then do you remember Me. Enlarge your house. The time is near when you will be helped and your name will be exalted among people. I am with you, O Ibrāhīm [Abraham]. I am with you and the members of your family. And you and the members of your family are with Me. I am the Most Gracious One, then wait for My help. Tell your enemy: Allah will seize you.

In the end God said in Urdu:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيمٰ

[Urdu] I shall lengthen your days also.\(^{1201}\)

1201 Note by Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad⁰⁴: This is a prophecy in response to ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm Khān (apostate) who had made a prophecy about the Promised Messiah⁰⁵. This is how it was fulfilled. Allah the Almighty kept extending the life of the Promised Messiah⁰⁵ until the time that ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm himself withdrew his prophecies in which he had prophesied the demise of the Promised Messiah⁰⁵ within a certain period. But when he specified a date for his prophecy, Allah the Almighty falsified him in another way. The details are the following: He published a prophecy on July 12, 1906 that:
Mirzā is perverse, liar and deceitful. He will perish in the presence of the truthful. The period has been revealed as three years. (Kānā Dajjāl, p. 50)

In response to this, the Promised Messiah as was taught the following prayer in revelation:

[Arabic] O Allah, discriminate between the truthful and the liar.

Then he [‘Abdul-Ḥakīm] wrote on July 1, 1907:
In response to his impertinence and disobedience, God has reduced the three year limit—which was to be completed on July 11, 1909—by ten months and eleven days. He revealed to me on July 1, 1907 that Mirzā would die and cast into hell within fourteen months from today.

[I’ilānul-Ḥaqq wa I tmāmul-Ḥujjah wa Takmilah by the apostate mentioned above, p. 6]

In response, the Promised Messiah as published his revelation in the Announcement of November 5, 1907:

[Urdu] I will lengthen your days also.

Thereafter the said apostate announced on February 16:
Mirzā would die before Sāwan] 21, 1965 [Bikrami] [corresponding to August 4, 1908].

[I’ilānul-Ḥaqq wa I tmāmul-Ḥujjah wa Takmilah, p. 26]

The Promised Messiah as stated in response:
In response to his prophecy, Allah the Almighty has conveyed to me that he himself would be cast into torment and Allah will annihilate him and I shall remain secure from his mischief.

Then the said apostate announced through a letter dated May 8, 1908 in the newspapers:
Mirzā would fall prey to a fatal illness and would die on Sāwan 21, 1965 [Bikrami] [August 4, 1908].

[Paisa Akhbār, May 15, 1908 and Ahl-e-Ḥadīth, May 15, 1908]
This means that those of my enemies who say that only fourteen months of my age are left after July 1907 or prophesy my death within a certain time will all be confounded and God will lengthen my days so as to demonstrate that He is God and everything is under His control.

There is also another prophecy with it that a severe plague will break out in this country and other countries the like of which has not been experienced before. It will terrify people into madness. I do not know whether it will break out this year or next year, but God has assured me that He would safeguard all those who dwell in my house. My house will then be like Nūḥ’s [Noah’s] Ark, whoever enters it will be saved.

[Announcement November 5, 1907, and al-Ḥakam, November 10, 1907, p. 6]

The Promised Messiah as wrote in response:

Allah the Almighty will manifest who is the truthful.

[Badr vol. 7, no. 19–20, May 24, 1908, p. 7]

Allah the Almighty so ordained that the apostate himself cancelled his three earlier prophecies. Thus Allah the Almighty falsified his last prophecy, because the Promised Messiah as passed away, not on August 4, 1908, but on May 26, 1908. [Allah and his Messenger spoke the truth and Allah’s decree was bound to be fulfilled.]

The prophecies of the apostate were reverted upon him. He had claimed a revelation on October 30, 1906 the ‘Mirzā has died of lungs disease’. But he himself succumbed to lungs disease. He prophesied that; ‘Mirzā’s foundation will be uprooted’ and had stated about himself; ‘You will succeed’. [I’ilānul-Ḥaqq, p. 7], but he himself was so uprooted that he went into total oblivion. But Allah the Almighty has blessed the mission of the Promised Messiah as so much his devotees are found today in every part of the world. [All praise is due to Allah for all of this].
November 6–7, 1907

Translation: [Arabic] I give you glad tiding of a pure and righteous son. Lord, bestow on me pure progeny. I give you good news of a son whose name will be Yaḥyā (It seems that this means: one who will live long.) You will see How Allah will deal with your opponents who are devising plans to destroy you. Allah shall seize them and this servant of God will alone survive; none else shall survive to compete with him. Truth has come and falsehood has vanished away, that is, will vanish. [Urdu]

Death of someone is near. Allah will bear all burdens (The import of this is still not clear, Allah is All Powerful; He might reveal the details later). He who serves you, has performed a deed as if he had served the whole of mankind and he who hurts you, does something that hurts the whole of mankind. [Persian] Felicitation on the coming of the ‘Īd [Festival]. [Urdu] It is ‘Īd [Festival], celebrate it or not. ¹²⁰²

¹²⁰² Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsa: In explaining this revelation Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIaba said during an ‘Īdul-Fiṭr sermon: There was an immediate import of the revelation. It was not certain on that day whether it was ‘Īd [Festival] or not. That uncertainty was removed by the revelation. Allah the Almighty said: [It is ‘Īd [Festival], celebrate it or not]. However, in my opinion, this revelation is not limited to that aspect, because Allah the Almighty has said: When Allah the Almighty Himself says about Thereafter, there was a revelation which I am not permitted to disclose. It is possible that permission might be given later. Its first sentence is:

[Urdu] Pay attention, I present to you a very secret matter.

[About the same prophecy, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} wrote in a letter to Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alīra] (One) awe-inspiring matter which keeps me sorrowful is a prophecy that has been conveyed to me several times by God Almighty. I have not disclosed it to anyone except my wife. One part of it applies both to you\textsuperscript{1203} and me. I continue to supplicate earnestly that God might be pleased something, ‘whether you do it or not’, a special revelation about it seems unnecessary. I believe that in addition to the above meaning, there is fine point made in this revelation. It points to the appearance of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. The appearance of the Prophets is an ‘Īd [festival]. That is, by their appearance, the days of the manifestation of God’s grace descend upon the earthy and the seed of progress is sown. The seed grows slowly into such a big tree that the whole world benefits from its fruits and shade. But many people fail to recognize that ‘Īd and turns themselves aside…. The sentence points toward that ‘Īd of the appearance of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. It does not mean that it does not make any difference whether you celebrate or not. But it is like the expression: ‘He is truthful; whether you agree or not.’ Meaning that the blessing has been made available; it is up to the people to benefit from it or not…. In this revelation Allah the Almighty has stated a deep psychological point. To celebrate the festival depends upon the inner feelings of man, and the mere availability of means is not all. Rather it is essential that those means be put to use.

\textsuperscript{1203} Refers to Navvāb Muḥammad ‘Alī Khān [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] to avert it. Its second part affects me specifically and someone of my family.

\textsuperscript{1210} Note: [During Jalsah Sâlânah 1907] some guests were served meals very late. There was enough food, but because of the shortage of space, only a limited number of people could eat at a time, which caused delay. Some guests retired to their rooms without eating. … They received the reward that Allah the Almighty consoled with them and a revelation was conveyed direct by Allah to His apostle [Feed the hungry and the distressed]. When the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} enquired early in the morning, he found that some of the guests remained hungry. He called for the manager of the public kitchen and admonished him to take good care of the guests.

Note by Syed Abdul Hayee: About the same revelation Dr. Ḥashmatullāh Khān\textsuperscript{as} says: On the morning of December 28, 1907, at 8 a.m., after taking food, my humble self was absorbed in listening to the speeches. I also heard the speech of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} and was greatly satiated. I offered Maghrib and ‘Isha’ Prayers [combined] and as directed, took my seat in Mubārak Mosque to participate in the general meeting of the Executive Board of Ṣadr Anjuman Āhmadiyyah. I thought that I would eat after the meeting, because according to the announcement, participation of the Presidents and Secretaries of the Jamā’ats was required. I was twenty years old and was feeling weak and hungry and had not eaten anything since 8 a.m. I thought to myself that all members of the Anjuman must have gone to the public kitchen to eat and felt like doing the same. But I kept sitting, for fear that I might miss the meeting. I waited for two hours and felt the pangs of hunger. At 8:45 p.m. the respected members of Anjuman and some others arrived and the meeting started, and was over at 11:45 p.m. My desire for food vanished automatically, since no strength to experience the feeling was left. I came out of mosque and headed towards the public kitchen and found it closed. I had no choice but to return to my residence at the Treasury. I was about to sleep when someone knocked at the door and said: Any guest who has not eaten can come to the public kitchen to eat. I went and gratefully ate what was available.

Next morning about 9–10 a.m. I saw that the beloved Messiah was standing at the door of Mubārak Mosque facing the street and many of his devotees were present. He asked that Maulavī Ṣāḥib be called. So Ḥadrat Maulavī Nūr-ud-Ḍīn presented himself. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: It seems that the arrangements for food were not very satisfactory. The cry of some hungry one reached the Throne of Almighty Allah and I received the revelation.

This revelation was received at 10 p.m. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} called for the organizers and asked them to feed the guests who had not eaten. That is why one of them knocked at my door.

April 1908

The wife of Miyān Manzūr Muḥammad1220 who lived in the house of the Promised Messiah[as], is suffering from tuberculosis and the Promised Messiah[as] received the following revelation concerning her:

1220 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams[ra]: Her name was Muḥammadī Begum. She finally died on October 9, 1908, and the revelation was fulfilled literally. The Editor of al-Badr writes:

I have also heard that this is exactly what happened. Allah the Almighty, Who sent the Promised Messiah[as] had foretold in the word Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams[ra], that is, the patient would die. However, since tuberculosis is an infectious disease, the promise was also made that [I shall safeguard all those who are in the house against this infectious disease]. He was also told about some medications to relieve her distress during the remaining days of her life. In accordance with the revelation and indeed she lived even though death had been destined.

[al-Badr, vol. 7, no. 39, October 15, 1908, pp. 1–2]
Translation: (1) The word Ḥā Mīm mentions the name of the patient briefly; the meanings of the other words are that there are many Signs in it which have been determined in the Book of God.

(2) [Urdu] The patient cries out a lot.

(3) [Urdu] A house of mourning.

(4) [Arabic] I shall safeguard all those who belong to the house against this disease—such disease as is infectious. (From this disease means from this affliction).

The Promised Messiah \[\text{as}\] said: On surface there seems to be a grammatical flaw in this revelation. However, Allah the Almighty is not bound by the grammar, of which there are examples in the Holy Qur’an also.

The Promised Messiah \[\text{as}\] was then shown some medicines for the patient and received the revelation:

A manuscript written by the Promised Messiah \[\text{as}\] himself has been found in which this revelation is inscribed as ١٢٢١ and this version is being given in the text above. The earlier editions of Tadhkirah recorded this revelation as ١٢٢١. Since the latter version was based on some newspapers, it is also being recorded here in the footnote. [Publishers]
(5) [Urdu] There was improvement beyond expectation.

(6) [Urdu] A second life.

(7) [Urdu] Cancelled life.

(8) [Arabic] I am disgruntled with this. (This is said by someone else.)

(9) [Arabic] Allah has charged Himself with mercy.

(10) [Arabic] It is incumbent upon Us to help the believers.

(11) [Arabic] Instances of mercy at the beginning of the reminder and at its end.

Meaning that when supplications were made for the two people who were sick, the mercy of Allah the Almighty was shown.

1222 The handwritten collection of the revelations of the Promised Messiah as, al-Bushrā, manuscript compiled by Pir Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu‘mānī ra, which is available in the Khilafat Library inscribes this revelation on page 146 in the following words:
(12) [Urdu] Words of mercy and grace. Words of gratitude.

Moreover Pîr Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu’mānī has added the following note on the same page to the effect that: “In the revelation as cited in al-Ḥakam the sentence says kalam instead of muqam in both instances.” This shows that the Promised Messiah as received this revelation with both of these different wordings. 1876 or Earlier

Sūfī Nabī Bakhshh relates that the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said:

A case had been instituted against the Elder Mirzā Šāhib.\textsuperscript{1229} I supplicated and saw an angel in my dream who was like a small boy. I asked him his name and he answered: My name is Ḥāfīẓ [Guardian]. Thereafter, the case came to an end.

About 1876

Mīyān Imām-ud-Dīn of Sekhwān\textsuperscript{ra} relates that, talking of the dreams and visions during his fast which extended over nine months, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said:

When my fasting had lasted for nearly three months I saw, in a vision, a tall well-built man with reddish complexion who was saying in my presence:

\begin{center}
قرت، قرت، قرت…
\end{center}

\textsuperscript{1229} That is, Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Ghulām Murtādā (deceased), the father of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] [Arabic] You have been granted authority, you have been granted authority, you have been granted authority.

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates:
When I first came to Qadian in 1882 I had … one wife and was thinking of marrying another. I had also seen some dreams in that connection. One day I mentioned the matter to the Promised Messiah as, … he wrote a letter to my maternal uncle, Muḥammad Yūsuf (deceased),… and enclosed in it a letter for Ismāʿīl, (whose daughter I had wished to marry)…..Immediately after writing the letters the Promised Messiah as started his prayers in that behalf … and during the course of the prayer, he received a revelation:

[Urdu] Failure

He supplicated again and received the revelation:

[Persian] [How many a desire ends in dust.]

1230 This Register is securely held in the Khilāfat Library, Rabwah.

1231 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsā: The cited reference of al-Ḥakam also gives the meaning as follows: You have been granted authority, you have been granted authority, your have been granted authority, and then adds: ‘This was also a vision.’ It is possible that there might be an inadvertent error in hearing the word and it may have been and the letter  might have been missed as it is evident from the translation.  means dignity and greatness.
Thereafter he received another revelation:

[Arabic] [Comely patience is good for him.]

…The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} observed: Miyān ‘Abdullāh must have a very strong relationship with me for as soon as I supplicate on his behalf, I receive a reply from God Almighty. A few days later he received a reply from Muḥammad Yūsuf who wrote that his father, grandfather, and father-in-law were agreeable but that Ismā‘īl was unwilling. Upon this the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: I shall now speak to Ismā‘īl myself… for it is possible that the revelation means that the manner in which the matter has been approached has drawn failure and that some other method might be successful…. Then the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} spoke to Ismā‘īl but he made several excuses and rejected the proposal.

[\textit{Siratul-Mahdī}, part 1, 2nd ed, \textit{Riwāyat no. 101, pp. 85–87}]

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates:

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} told me: ‘Before I spoke to Ismā‘īl, I saw in a vision that Ismā‘īl had purged himself over my right hand. I also saw in the vision that Ismā‘īl’s forefinger had been cut off from which I understood that his reply would be disagreeable….’ Thereafter Ismā‘īl married off his daughter to someone else…. But after the marriage Ismā‘īl suffered great misfortune.

1883

Mirzā Dīn Muḥammad of Langarwal relates:
On one occasion the Promised Messiah as woke me up in the morning and said to me:

…I have seen a great deal of salt on all four sides of my divan. …The Promised Messiah as also added: This means that a large amount of money would arrive.

I stayed there for four days thereafter. In my presence, a money order came of the value of more than a thousand rupees.

(A) Ḥāfiẓ Muḥammad Ibrāhīm relates that:

The Promised Messiah said: In 1883 when there was a display of meteors and shooting stars in the sky, I perceived in a vision that Sayyed ‘Abdul-Qādir and I were standing close to each other and then I saw that Sheikh Sā‘adī and ‘Abdul-Qādir were walking in a garden.

In the same period The Promised Messiah as received the revelation:

The Promised Messiah as said: Auliya’ are granted the title ‘Abdul-Qādir when it is destined that Signs of God’s Power be shown on their behalf.

(B) Ḥāfiẓ Nūr Muḥammad of Faizullāh Chak District Gurdaspur narrates that the Promised Messiah as once said: I once saw in a dream that Sayyed ‘Abdul-Qādir Jilānī has come. He had some water heated and gave me a bath, and a new robe to wear. Then standing near the stairs of the round room, he said: Let us stand close and compare our heights. Then he stood on my left and we stood shoulder to shoulder the height was the same.

[Siratul-Mahdī, part 3, Riwāyat no. 481 and al-Ḥakam, vol. 37, no. 33, September 14, 1934, p. 4]

Maulāvī Raḥīm Bakhsh of Talwandī Jhunglan Distt. Gurdaspur relates:
The Promised Messiah said: I have received a revelation:

1233

[Arabic] [Allah will deliver you from sorrow and your Lord is Powerful.]

He added: By God’s grace, I have no sorrow but perhaps the revelation has reference to some future sorrow. When they reached home, someone came from Amritsar and told him that the stone for his ring that he had sent to Ḥakīm Muḥammad Sharīf of Amritsar to be inscribed with:

[Arabic: Is Allah not sufficient for His servant?] had been lost. He also brought a page of the Barāhīn-e-Ahmadiyyah which had been very badly printed and was illegible. The Promised Messiah was perturbed... and both of us took a train from Batala for Amritsar. When we arrived at his house, Ḥakīm Muḥammad Sharīf said with joy: The stone had been lost but has been recovered just now. When we went to the press we found that the book was being printed in good quality. Thereupon the Promised Messiah observed: God Almighty had assured me in advance that He would deliver me from sorrow. This was the sorrow.

[Siratul-Mahdī, part 2, Riwāyat no. 450, pp. 139–140, second edition and al-Ḥakam, vol. 37, no. 29, August 14, 1934, p. 3]

Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Muʾminīn(ra) said:
Before my marriage, the Promised Messiah(as) had been conveyed that his second marriage would be with someone from Delhi.

[Siratul-Mahdi, part 1, Riwāyat no. 69, second edition, p. 57]

Ḥafiz Ḥāmid ‘Alī (deceased), who used to attend upon the Promised Messiah(as) relates that when the Promised Messiah(as) married the second time he felt great weakness in himself as he had led a celibate life for a number of years and had adopted a course of physical discipline. Then he used the prescription which was revealed to him and which is known by the title Zad Jām-e-‘Ishq,1234 and it proved very blissful….

There are two reports about its being revealed. First, that the prescription itself is revealed; and second, that someone told the Promised Messiah(as) about this prescription and then he was commanded by revelation to use it. [Allah knows best].

[Siratul-Mahdi, part 3, no. 569, p. 50–51, 2nd ed]

Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Muʾminīn(ra) relates:

1234 The following is the formula for Zad Jām-e-‘Ishq—an abbreviation in which each letter represents the first letter of an ingredient: zā‘afrān [saffron], dār chīnī [cinnamon bark], jā’ifal [nutmeg], afyūn [opium], mushk [musk], ʿaqīqarḥā [pyrethrum], shingraf [cinnabar], Qaranfal [clove]. These ingredients are taken in equal weight, ground, and made into pills, which are then coated with Roghan-e-Sammul-Fār [Arsenic dispersed in Cow butter] and taken once a day.

After my marriage I stayed in Qadian for a month and then went to Delhi. While I was in Delhi the Promised Messiah wrote a letter to me in which he said that he had seen in a dream that I had three grown up sons.

Mīr ‘Ināyat ‘Alī Shāh of Ludhiania relates: Returning from Delhi, the Promised Messiah received a revelation at the Sirhind railway station:

[Arabic] [To Allah we belong, and to Him shall we return.]

…The Promised Messiah said: This revelation indicates that some friend of mine will stumble. I am afraid lest it should be Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī Shāh of Ludhiana.

[Register Riwayat-e-Sahabah, vol. 1, p. 119]

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates:
(A) In 1884 the Promised Messiah had desired to go into chillah [a forty days’ religious seclusion] somewhere outside Qadian.... His first choice was Sujanpur, District Gurdaspur.... Then he received a revelation relating to his intent to go to Sujanpur.

Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: This revelation was published during the lifetime of the Promised Messiah as following:

A revelation of the Promised Messiah as is well-known; its words are the following, or words close to the following:

Sheikh Ya‘qūb ‘Alī ‘Irfānī, Editor al-Ḥakam writes:

(B) The Promised Messiah as, having been directed by a subtle inspiration from Allah the Almighty, wanted to go into retreat to carry out intensive devotion in a hilly area (Sujanpur) in the Gurdaspur District. Then, in a clear revelation, Allah the Almighty directed him to go to Hoshiarpur, and mentioned the name of the city specifically.

1886

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates that during his chillah in Hoshiarpur the Promised Messiah as received the revelation:

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams ra: The wording, as recorded by the Promised Messiah as himself is:

[Arabic] Blessed are those who are with you and are around you.

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams ra: This revelation was received during the chillah [a forty days’ religious seclusion] in Hoshiarpur. Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates that the Promised Messiah as lived upstairs….One day when he went upstairs with food, the Promised Messiah as told him that he had received the revelation.
[Arabic] [Blessed is he who is in it and who is around it.]

He explained that by ‘in it’ was meant himself, and by ‘around it’ were meant those of us who were with him.

[Siratul-Mahdi, part 1, Riwāyat no. 88, 2nd ed]

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates:

Five or six miles out of Hoshiarpur there is the tomb of a saint…. The Promised Messiah as went to the tomb… and spent some time in supplication. He then …said: When I raised my hands in supplication, the revered person who is buried here came out of his grave and sat down respectfully in front of me. Had you [Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour] not been with me, I might even have been able to talk to him. He had large eyes and a dark complexion. Then he asked me to find out whether there was any servitor about. I found one but he explained that he had not himself seen the saint as he had been dead for more than a hundred years but that he had heard from his ancestors that the saint was greatly revered in those parts and was held in much esteem. The Promised Messiah as asked him whether he could describe his appearance. The man replied: I have heard that his complexion was dark and he had large eyes.

[Siratul-Mahdi, part 1, Riwāyat no. 88, p. 71, 2nd ed]

Miyān ‘Abdullāh of Sannour relates:

After the publication of the prophecy concerning the Promised son, the Promised Messiah as sometimes asked us to supplicate that God Almighty might soon bestow the Promised son upon him. His wife was expecting a child in those days. One day it rained and I went up to the roof of the Mubârak Mosque and supplicated for a long time on the open roof.... Then it came to my mind that I should go out and supplicate in the open woods..... I went out to the east of Qadian. During prostration, I supplicated for a long time in the woods in the rain.... The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said to me the same day in the evening or the next morning: I have received the revelation:

(B) On one occasion I received the revelation:

It was conveyed to me that all the letters up to the end of the verses containing the promise comprise the names of all my perfect and sincere supporters and also the names of all who deny me vehemently, and denounce or oppose me.

Then the Promised Messiah as said:

Khwājah Ḥasan Niẓāmī has published a letter of the Promised Messiah, an extract from which is the following:

I supplicated the Almighty, for your health and received the revelation:

Ḥaḍrat Maulavī Nūr-ud-Dīn Khalīfatul-Masīḥ Ira relates:

On one occasion in the course of a debate an opponent asked the Promised Messiah, to cite a reference...

1241 al-Bushrā, unpublished collection of Revelations of the Promised Messiah, compiled by Pīr Sīrājūl-Ḥaqq Nūrānī. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

1242 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: Ḥaḍrat Sheikh Ya’qūb ‘Alī ‘Irifiant writes: As far as I remember...this happened in Lahore. Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm of Kalanaur was debating the Promised Messiah on the subject of muhaddathiyat and nubuwwat... In describing the nature of muhaddathiyat, the Promised Messiah referred to a hadīth in Bukhārī which discussed the muhaddathiyat of Ḥaḍrat ‘Umarra. Maulāvī Aḥmad ‘Alī, a helper of Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Ḥakīm asked for the reference and himself sent Bukhārī. Maulāvī Muhammad Aḥsan tried to locate the reference, but could not find it. Finally the Promised Messiah himself presented the reference... The opponents were completely dumb-founded...and concluded the debate therewith.

[Sīratul-Mahdī, part 3, p. 5–6]
…The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} took hold of Bukhārī and started turning over its pages very rapidly. Then he stopped at one place and said: Here is the reference. Everyone was surprised and someone inquired from him, how he had found the reference so quickly. He answered:
When I took the book in my hand and started turning over its pages it appeared to me as if they were blank. I turned them over quickly and then came to a page where I saw some writing and I was sure that that was the reference that I needed.

Last night I saw a dream and something in writing was presented before me. I do not recall the writing except that it contained the letters ﷺ ﷽. I also cannot recall the entire dream. I can only recall that the last phrase was:

March 1893
I gave two glasses of milk to Nūr-ud-Dīn. I gave him one and he asked for another, which was given to him. He said it [the milk] was cold. It then turned into a stream and I began stirring a lump of sugar into it.

April 2, 1893

The Promised Messiah mentioned to Maulavi ‘Abdul-Karim one day that he had received a revelation:

لا تقصدوا رأي أهل الأرض فليتانية وتمسحون

[Arabic] Do not be inclined towards your home, in that there are humiliation and trials.

The Promised Messiah said:

It appears that this revelation has reference to Nūr-ud-Dīn.

Revelation received by the Promised Messiah:

إِنْ هَذَا أَنَّ جَارَّيَانِ يُرِيدَا يَأْمُرُونُ أَنْ يُخْرَجُوا كُلُّهُمَا.

Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: This date is recorded in the Jaib Bayād of Ḥadrat Khalifatul Masih I, but it does not record the year. However, we have entered 1893 here because it can be established based on firm evidence. For this reason we have entered it under this year.

Note by Syed Abdul Hayee: The Jaib Bayād of Ḥadrat Khalifatul Masih I, page 149, records it as following:

لاَ تَقْصَدْوا إِلَى الْوَطُنِ فَلَا يَتَدَمَّرُوا وَلَا يَطْهَرُوا

[Arabic] Do not be inclined towards your home, you will be treated with injustice and will face trials;

And adds to it the next couplet of Hariri:

فَأَرْضَا بُصَائِرُ الحُكْرَيْنِ - أَوْطَانُهَا يُلْغِنُ الْعَفْيَانِ

[Arabic] Remember, a man of his own mind suffers a loss in his country.

Note by Ḥadrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams: The Jaib Bayād of Ḥadrat Khalifatul Masih I does not record a date for this revelation, nor does it give any explanation. But it is recorded on the same page as the revelation cited above starting with the word لاَ تَقْصَدْوا.
The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{[as]} in a vision saw the following writing on pages fifty and fifty-one of Tafsīr Ḥusainī:

وَلَنَعمَلُكُمَا نِيَةً وَنَنْظُرُ إِلَىِّ الْخَاطِرِ يُنَبِّئُهَا لَنْ نَسْحُوْهَا الْحَمَامَ فَلَا يَنْبِيِّنَّ اللَّهُ قَالَ أَسْلَمْتَنَّ أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ كُنْ حَمَامٍ وَقَدْيَرٍ قَصِّرَهُ نُورًا عَلَىٰ الْمَحْرَابِ.

[Arabic] [So that We might make you a Sign unto people. Observe how We adjust and set the bones and then clothe them with flesh. When all became clear to him, he said: I know that Allah has the power to do all that He wills. Nūr-ud-Dīn has expounded this with wonderful insight.]

The Promised Messiah saw (in a dream) that he was bitten by a snake on the forearm. Search was made for a doctor and he appeared in the form of Mirzâ Ghulâm Murtâdâ. The Promised Messiah as saw in a vision a paper on which was written: (‘Abdullâh), (Sulţân Muḥammad); and then he received the revelation:

From this he understood that the reference was to Ātham and the Promised Son.

[Jaibî Bayâḍ of Ḥaḍrat Khalîfâtul-Masîḥ I*]

A revelation is recorded earlier in Tadhkirah* in the following words:

Mirzā Ayūb Baig relates:
In expectation of the eclipse of the sun on April 6, 1894 (in the month of Ramaḍān)... many people were trying to observe the eclipse through glasses which they had darkened with ink. Only a very slight darkening had appeared when someone told the Promised Messiahāṣ that the sun had been eclipsed. He looked through the dark glasses and observed that the eclipse was very slight. He was saddened and said: I have seen it, but it is so slight that most people might not be able to observe it and thus the Pîr Sirājul-Ḥaqq Nu‘mânî narrates that one day at the time of the Fajr Prayer, the Promised Messiah as said:

A short while ago, I received a unique revelation which I could not decipher. First I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Senior aunt came.

Note by Ḥâdrat Maulânâ Jalal-ud-Din Shams a.s.: Ḥâdrat Amîrul Mu’mînin Khalîfatul Masîḩ II a.s. states: There are three prophecies in this revelation. First, that there would be a Khalîfah from among the children of the Promised Messiah as. Second, that the senior aunt of his children would join the Jamâ’at at that time, and the third prophecy was about the longevity of the senior aunt …that she would survive until that time and would take the pledge of allegiance at the hand of a Khalîfah from the children of the Promised Messiah as.

[Friday Sermon delivered by Ḥâdrat Khalîfatul Masîḩ II a.s., published in al-Faḍl, vol. 15, no. 47, December 9, 1927, p. 8]

Note by Ḥâdrat Maulânâ Jalal-ud-Din Shams a.s.: The name of the respected senior aunt was Ḥurmat Bībî, and she was the widow of Mirzâ Ghulâm Qâdir, the elder brother of the Promised Messiah as. In 1916, she took a pledge of allegiance at the hand of Ḥâdrat Khalîfatul Masîḩ II a.s. (See al-Faḍl, volume 3, number 94, March 4, 1916)

She died on December 1, 1927 at the age of 97. She was a mûsiyâh and buried in the special enclosure of Bahîshṭi-Maqqarah.

[al-Faḍl, vol. 15, no. 47, December 9, 1927, pp. 5–8]

Note by Ḥâdrat Maulânâ Jalal-ud-Din Shams a.s.: ‘A telegram has been received’ meant that Allah the Almighty was conveying the news with a heavenly telegram.

[See al-Faḍl, vol. 15, no. 47, December 9, 1927, pp. 5–8]

When Ahmadiūs were so much persecuted in Qadian that they were even obstructed from coming to the mosque for worship, and physical barriers were placed to make the pedestrians stumble, the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said that he had been shown [in a dream] that the town would spread so that it would reach the Beas river.

[al-Fadl, vol. 16, no. 13, August 14, 1928, p. 6]

(B) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masih IIaba relates:

I recall that while passing through this open space, the Promised Messiahas related a dream of his in which he had seen that the habitation of Qadian would extend up to the Beas river, and would also expand greatly towards the East.

1276 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: It seems that the word in the revelation is ٍ، which had been written as ٍ through scribe’s error. [Allah knows best]. In summary it describes the condition of someone who gets so affected even by a pointless sermon as if he were a skinned goat.
At that time there were only eight or ten Ahmadi houses of poor Ahmadi here. The others used to visit as guests.

One evening near ‘Ishâ’ time it was conveyed to him in a dream or by revelation that this was a heavy burden upon the defendants and that they [defendant relatives] were being put to great trouble by it. The Promised Messiahas said: ‘I would not be able to sleep during the night’ [because of this]. He directed that someone should be dispatched immediately to tell them that he had remitted the costs.

1277 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams: This revelation is about Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ II. In his childhood when he was travelling to Batala to appear in the Middle School examination, the Promised Messiah received this revelation. There is a reference to it in al-Ḥakam, volume 6, number 3, page 15, dated January 17, 1902: ‘Ṣāḥibzādah Maḥmūd also appeared in the examination. In the next issue we will publish the revelation which the Promised Messiah received in this matter.’ Unfortunately, the revelation could not be published. My humble self [Ḥaḍrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad] asked Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ II about this revelation. He responded in a letter:

‘This revelation is correct. I was young; Maulāvī Sher ʿAli narrated it to us when he returned from the company [of the Promised Messiah].

Ṣardār Master ‘Abdur-Raḥmān\textsuperscript{ra} of Jullundar relates:

When the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} had challenged Pīr Mehr ‘Alī of Golarhā to write a commentary on the Holy Qur’ān in competition with him, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} received a revelation that some people might try to assault him with the intent of murder. I was in charge of making arrangements for watch and ward around the house of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. I discovered that two or three persons from the Rawalpindi District who could have been emissaries of Pīr Mehr ‘Alī Shāh had arrived in Qadian and questioned people about the movements of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} and his place of residence etc. I informed the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} of it and he arranged through Ḥakīm ‘Alī, constable, that they should be sent back to Batala.

(A) Narrated by Mufti Muhammad Sadiq ra: In August 1903 a Christian of Bannu of the name of Gul Muhammad came to Qadian and indulged in very irreverent argumentation and discussion and he went back in the same attitude. After he had left, the Promised Messiah as saw in a dream that Gul Muhammad was applying collyrium to his eyes. The Promised Messiah as said that this was an indication that he would be guided aright. Several years later it was heard that he had reverted to Islam. I received a post card from the widow of the well known Dr. Pennell of Bannu in which she stated that Gul Muhammad had left Christianity and had reverted to his original faith.

The Promised Messiah as said to her: That does not matter as I have returned safe.

The Promised Messiah as interpreted the dream that the Magistrate (who was a bigoted Ārya, and was bent upon giving the decision against the Promised Messiah) would sentence him to a fine, but nothing more. However, on appeal he would be acquitted and would thus be made secure against the mischief of the Magistrate. That is

On the (day) on which judgment in the case of Karam Dīn was to be announced... the Promised Messiah as was walking... under the trees at the time of ‘Aṣr.... He stopped suddenly from walking and said something to Maulavī Šāhib [Nūr-ud-Dīn]. At that time the case was called and when we returned to the shed, the Promised Messiah as said to Maulavī Šāhib [Nūr-ud-Dīn]: I have seen in a vision that my handkerchief had fallen in a pool of water but was recovered. He interpreted this as meaning that he would be sentenced to a fine which would be remitted. And that is what happened.

Miyān Allah Yār Contractor of Batala narrates through Maulavī Ghulām Nabī Miṣrī that:

At the end of the case in Gurdaspur, when the Promised Messiah as was about to leave for Batala for the return journey to Qadian, he received a vision or a revelation:

[Urdu] The route via Batala is dangerous.

The Promised Messiah as asked for the carriages to be brought, and three of them were brought. (He changed his route and commenced the journey.) He explained the reason for the change of route. In the meantime a ṛath (bullock chariot) had been sent from Qadian to Batala to meet him. Instead of the Promised Messiah as some of his companions including Sheikh Ya‘qūb ‘Alī, travelled in it. When they arrived at the canal bridge, they found that some of the opponents from Massanian and Batala were pretending to hold a meeting. They had conspired to waylay the Promised Messiah as at the bridge and throw him into the canal. ….When the chariot approached the bridge it was surrounded by the crowd of opponents... and there was a skirmish… but when they discovered that the Promised Messiah as was not in the chariot, they apologised for the assault.

About 1905

Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II ra writes:

About five years or more ago the Promised Messiah as published a dream of his in which he had seen that Ḥaḍrat Maulavī Nūr-ud-Dīn had fallen from a horse. This dream was exactly fulfilled on November 18, 1910.1281

[Tashḥīdhul-Adhḥān, vol. 5, no. 11, November 1910, p. 399]

1281 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams ra: Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ II ra, during his days as the editor of Tashḥīdhul Adhḥān, stated: ‘For a prophecy to be made at a time when not just the Promised Messiah as, but none of the Ahmādis of Qadian were in possession of a horse; for the Promised Messiah as to pass away without this prophecy being fulfilled; for some person to have given ‘Abdul-Ḥayy … a horse as a gift, not at a price; for Ḥaḍrat Maulavi Śāhib to go there in spite of the visit of Navvāb Śāhib; for the stirrups to have been shortened and for him to have denied the request to prolong it due to its impact on the children; for the guests to have desired to walk with him and for him to deny it; for the horse to have been scared and sped up, resulting in both of the other partners to fall behind and for him to have fallen exactly on the stony ground; all these events are so unusual that one is left with no choice but to attribute them to the special decree of God, in support of the fulfilment of the prophecy of the Promised Messiah as.

Miyān Imām-ud-Dīn of Sekhwan narrated that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said:

‘God has told me that the wicked ones out of my opponents would be chastised in this world as well as in the Hereafter, but that if an opponent would pass his time peaceably then, even if he was an idol worshipper, God’s promise is that such a one would be chastised only in the Hereafter.

Dr. Mīr Muḥammad Ismā‘īl\textsuperscript{ra} narrates from Pīr Manzūr Muḥammad\textsuperscript{ra} that:

When the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was dwelling in the garden after the severe earthquake he received a revelation:

\[\text{[Urdu] The death of one of the three great men.}\]

…Shortly thereafter Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīm Sialkoti fell ill and died after a few days.

Qādī Ḥabībullāh of Lahore narrates that when the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) was returning after having prayed at the grave of Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīm\textsuperscript{ra} after his burial,... he said:

Last night I received a revelation:
This revelation was repeated several times. The Promised Messiah[^as] said: I have received this revelation on previous occasions also, but last night a new interpretation of it was conveyed to me which was that God Almighty says that He has decided that He would not in future create enemies like Lekh Rām, ‘Abdullāh Ātham, Padre Pfander and Imādud-Dīn.

December 1905

Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II[^ra] relates:

I remember very well that on one occasion when the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) was in the garden, he said: ‘In a dream I saw some graves here which were made of silver and an angel said: These are the graves of you and of the members of your family.’

That is why that particular plot was reserved for the members of his family. Although this dream is not published in this way, but I remember that he stated it as such.

Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II ra related during the Jumu‘ah sermon:

In 1907… the Promised Messiah as suffered from severe cough…. Sometimes there was such a spell of hiccups that it seemed that his breathing would be stopped. While he was in this condition, a friend from outside came and brought some fruit for him as a present. I put the fruit before him. He looked at it and said: Say to him: May Allah reward you. Then he took something which was probably a banana and …asked me how would this affect his cough. I answered: It is not good. He smiled and peeled the banana and began to eat it. I again submitted: You have severe cough and this is not good for cough. He smiled again and continued to eat. Due to my ignorance, I repeated that he should not eat it; on which he smiled again and said: I have just received a revelation:

[Urdu] Cough has been removed.
He was immediately relieved of the cough.

1908

The Promised Messiahas said:

God has told me that so long as the management of the public kitchen is in my hands it would continue to run. But that if I were to commit it into their hands, it would be closed down within a few days.1284

1284 Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: The reference is to the people who criticized the expenses of the public kitchen. Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul Masīḥ IIas said:

When the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) was in Lahore, one of the critics wrote a letter to his friend saying that actual expenditure of the public kitchen was much less than its income, and some of the money was spent on the family and friends of the Promised Messiahas. …The letter was sent to Lahore a few days before he passed away, and the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) was greatly grieved upon hearing about it. (al-Faḍl, volume 1, number 50, May 27, 1914, page 21). He said: ‘The writer is totally senseless and un-informed. He should realize that the guests are coming here [in Lahore]. Very few people are visiting Qadian at this time. He should have added the expenses made in Qadian and Lahore.’

Given below are revelations, visions and dreams for which the year could not be determined. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams]

(1) In the early days the Promised Messiah as saw in a vision in Aqṣā Mosque: ‘A garden is being planted and I have been appointed its gardener.’

[Ḥayāt-e-Ḥmed, p. 245, published by Ya’qūb ‘Alī “Irfān”]

(2) It is narrated by Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’mīn ra that the Promised Messiah as said: God Almighty …has conveyed it to me… that the following should be repeatedly made:

[Sirat-ul-Mahdī, part 1, no. 1, p. 2, 2nd ed]

(3) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masih I ra relates:
The Promised Messiah as saw him [Maulavī ‘Abdullāh Ghaznavī] in his dream in the form of the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah. This was on account of his perfect conformity to the sunnah.

[Introduction to the Mīrqātul-Yaqīn fī Hayāt-e-Nūr-ud-Dīn, under subject, Madh’hab wā ’Aqā’id, p. 39]

(4) (A) Muftī Muḥammad Ṣādiq ra relates that:
In the time of the Promised Messiah as someone belonging to the State of Jind, being ill, came to Qadian for treatment and stayed at the house of Pīr Sirājul-Ḥaqq. Pīr Ṣāḥib requested the Promised Messiah as: He is sickly; please pray for him. On supplication, the Promised Messiah as received the revelation:

[Arabic] Holy is Allah and worthy of all praise, Holy is Allah, the Great. [Publishers]
A mix of processed Nux Vomica Quinine and Iron is called ‘Dawā-e-Hamzād’ [Urdu] Tablet [pill] weighing half Ratti\textsuperscript{1286} of a mix of processed Nux Vomica, Quinine and Iron in equal quantities—is a revealed prescription.

Haḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{ra} relates that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} received a revelation and was shown [in a vision] with regard to the house [of Mīrzā Nizām-ud-Dīn] adjacent to Mubārak Mosque that we would enter it partly by following the way of Ḥasan and partly by following the way of Ḥusain. … It is not clear what the meanings of this revelation are.\textsuperscript{1287}

One Ratti is equal to $\frac{1}{8}$ gram and half Ratti is equal to $\frac{1}{16}$ gram.

Note by Haḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams\textsuperscript{ra}: Haḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{ra} states: But the real import is manifested at its proper time… (It means that)…we would enter by adopting the manners of Ḥaḍrat Ḥasan and Ḥusain\textsuperscript{ra}. … Whatever was their way, would be ours. Partly by peace, and partly by combat, we would enter that house. Both these forms manifested themselves. The part concerning combat (the element of grandeur) was fulfilled according to the revelation of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}:

[Urdu] This house will be the abode of many a widow.

The part relating to grace was fulfilled in that only one child survived in the house and he accepted Ahmadiyyat.
(5) (B) Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’minin ra relates that:
This prophecy of the Promised Messiah as that we would enter this house partly by way of Ḥasan and partly by way of Ḥusain has been gloriously fulfilled.

[Sirātul-Mahdī, part 1, p. 31, Riwāyat Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’mīnin’’ra]

(6) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II ra related the following dream of the Promised Messiah as in his speech:
There was a throne laid out on the top of the small mosque and I was sitting on it and with me was Maulavī Nūr-ud-Dīn. One person (whose name need not be disclosed) 1288 began to attack us wildly. I said to someone: ‘Catch hold of him and expel him from the mosque.’ He pushed him down the stairs and he went away running.
Bear in mind that the interpretation of a mosque is the community.

[Barākāt-e-Khilāfat, Speech of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II’ra, p. 31]

(7) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II’ra relates:
A few days ago, I read a revelation of the Promised Messiah as that:

[Urdu] Many people think that their wives are their servants. They are not servants but they are their companions.

(8) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ II’ra relates that:

1288 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams’ra: In his book Kashfūl-Ikhtilāf, Ḥaḍrat Maulavī Sayyed Sarwar Shāh’ra (published February 1920, page 12) records this dream and adds that the man was Khwājah Kamāl-ud-Dīn. When he was proposing a pact with the newspaper Watan, the Promised Messiah as said that he had seen dreams of warnings about him.

[Summary of reference quoted]
On one occasion when the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was very ill, he got up during the latter part of the night for \textit{Tahajjud} Prayer and fell down in a faint and he was not able to offer his \textit{Tahajjud}. On this he received a revelation:

\begin{itemize}
  \item In such a condition you may repeat the same while laying down, that is [Arabic] \textit{Holy is Allah and worthy of all praise. Holy is Allah, the Great.}
\end{itemize}

(9) (A) Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul-Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{aba} related in a Friday sermon:

There is an unpublished revelation of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}:

\begin{itemize}
  \item That which is due to the children is contained in themselves.
\end{itemize}

It is not necessary that only the physical descendants be taken as children in this context. The children include everyone who has accepted the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} and has thus become his spiritual progeny.

(9) (B) Ḥaḍrat Khalifatul-Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{aba} relates:

The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} passed away. After that my mother took me to Bait-ud-Du‘ā and placed the notebook containing the revelations of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} before me. She said: I believe that this is your greatest inheritance. I read the revelations. One of the revelations about his children was:
...the import was that the rights relating to the outside world (lands, properties) do not carry much value. What is more valuable is that [God Almighty said:] ‘I have bestowed upon your children the capacity to be the leaders of the world…. This is the inheritance that We have placed firmly in the minds of your children.’

(10) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIra said while giving a commentary on sūrah al-Ghāshiyah verse 4–7:

In the context of the plague, the Promised Messiahas once said: ‘What you have seen so far is insignificant. The day will come when people will say:

[Urdu] There used to be a city called Lahore as well.'

1289 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shamsra: The prophecy about the destruction of Lahore that was published during the life of the Promised Messiahas is the following:

It is said that the soil of Lahore contains elements which exterminate the plague germs. But plague has also taken hold there. People still do not know, but after several years they will see what will happen. A number of people and villages will be completely wiped out. The world will forget about them and there will remain no trace of them. But such would never be the case with Qadian.

[al-Ḥakam, vol. 8, no. 23 and 24, July 17, 24, 1904, p. 12]

However, no revelation about Lahore, in specific words, is cited. Nor do the testimonies that have been published contain specific wording. However, the sense of the revelation is contained in the following testimonies.

Apart from Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IIra, twenty seven testimonies have been published in al-Faḍl as following: (1). Ḥakīm Muḥammad Ḥusain Qurāishi, (2). Bhai ‘Abdur-Raḥmān Qādīānī, (3). Sardār ‘Abdur-Raḥmān (Mihr Singh), (4). Mūfī Muḥammad Şādiq, (5).
(11) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIra has written: 1290

I was too young at that time, but Maulāvī Sher ‘Alī narrated upon his return from a meeting [with the Promised Messiahas] that… [The Promised Messiahas said that he saw in his dream that] … ‘Maḥmūd was standing on the road with a lamp which gave forth very bright light and lit up the road.

(12) Ḥaḍrat Amīrul-Mu’mīn Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIaba relates that:

One of the names bestowed by God Almighty on the Promised Messiahas was:

[al-Faḍl, vol. 23, no. 229, April 4, 1936, p. 1, Friday Sermon, March 27, 1936]

1290 In response to an inquiry about certain revelations made by myself in a letter to Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ IIra written on July 2, 1953, Ḥudūr wrote this as well: [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri]
(13) Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIra said during the meeting of Mushāwarat in 1936:
I am Khalīfah because even before the Khilāfat of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ Ira the Promised Messiahas had, on the basis of revelation from God Almighty, said that I would be Khalīfah. Thus I am not only Khalīfah but am a Promised Khalīfah.

(13A) Ḥaḍrat Sayyedah Maryam Ṣiddīqah [wife of Ḥaḍrat Khalīfatul-Masīḥ IIra] reports on the basis of a document by Ḥaḍrat Navvāb Mubārakah Begumra that:
The Promised Messiahas received a revelation:

Upon receiving this revelation the Promised Messiahas advised me not to go to the upper floor often.

(14) Ḥāfiẓ Ṣūfī Ghulām Muḥammad of Maritius narrates that the Promised Messiahas said:
It came to my mind once that I should write a book setting out the bounties that Allah had bestowed upon me. When I was about to start on this project, I saw in a vision that heavy rain was falling and God said to me: If you can count these drops of rain you will be able to number My bounties. Then I gave up the idea.

(15) Ḥāfiẓ Nūr Muḥammad of Faqīłullāh village stated to me [Ḥaḍrat Mirzā Bashīr Aḥmadra] in writing:
The Promised Messiahas had often said that he had on many occasions met the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, in a state of wakefulness, and had obtained from him confirmation of several aḥādīth even if they are regarded as weak or of lower reliability by people.

[Siratul-Mahdī, part 3, p. 52, Riwāyat no. 572]

(16) Dr. Sayyed ‘Abdus-Sattār Shāh narrates that the Promised Messiah as said:

Very close to this Minaret, two angels appeared before me [in a vision]. They had with them two sweet loaves of bread. They gave those loaves to me, saying: One is for you and the other is for your followers.1291

[Siratul-Mahdī, part 3, Riwāyat no. 885, p. 263]

(17) Mīr ‘Ināyat ‘Alī Shāh narrated that the Promised Messiah as related a dream to Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī of Ludhiana at an early period in Qadian as following:

We went to a city and found that the people were not well disposed towards me. They put forward some of their objections which were answered but their attitude did not change. Then I offered to lead them in Prayer, to which they replied that they had already offered their Prayer. In the dream this happened in a house where we had been invited to a meal. We were then asked to sit down in a large room but the meal was not served there. Then we were moved to a small room and we ate there with great difficulty.

After relating this dream the Promised Messiah as observed [to Mīr ‘Abbās ‘Alī]: ‘Maybe that city was your Ludhiana.’

1291 Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Din Shams as: This dream is published under About 1874, page 23, where one angel and a nān is mentioned; and word dervishes is used instead of followers. If it is the same dream, there may be some lapse in the memory of the narrator. Or it may be a different vision. [Allah knows best.]
Then this dream was fulfilled in the house of Munshī Rahīm Bakhsh at Ludhiana.

(18) Dr. Mīr Muḥammad Ismā‘īl narrates that Ḥaḍrat Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīm related that a person fell deeply in love with a woman, and despite his utmost effort, he could not get her out of his mind. In the end, he came to the Promised Messiah and requested him for prayers. The Promised Messiah said to Maulāvī Ṣāḥib: ‘God has informed me that this man will have illicit connections with that woman, but I will continue my prayers for him with utmost earnestness.’

Thus, that man stayed on in Qadian and the Promised Messiah continued his supplications on his behalf. One day that man said to Maulāvī ‘Abdul-Karīm:

Last night I saw that woman in my dream and I had intercourse with her. While I was in this situation, I found that her private part was like a pit of hell which created such fear and aversion in my mind that all my love for her evaporated from my heart and I became disgusted with her. Thus I have been safeguarded against a sin and have discarded my insane behaviour by the grace of Allah and through the prayers of the Promised Messiah.

(19) Ṣāḥibzādah Pīr Sirajul-Ḥaq narrates that the Promised Messiah said:

One day I was lying down in the courtyard of my house when, in vision, I experienced a meeting with angels. I saw many angels in my vision, beautifully and richly clad, singing joyously. They came round to me repeatedly and each time extended their hand towards me and recited a verse of a poem, the concluding word of which was, [Spiritual preceptor of spiritual preceptors]. Pointing with their hands towards me when they were right opposite to me, they repeated: [Spiritual preceptor of spiritual preceptors].

[Tadhkiratul-Mahdi, by Pir Sirajul-Haqq, part 1, new ed., p. 47–48]

(20) Sahibzadah Pir Sirajul-Haqq narrates that the Promised Messiah said:

About an hour ago, I saw [in a vision] that Mahmud’s mother was reciting the Holy Qur’an placed before her, she recited:

وَمَنْ يَبْيِرِ الرَّسُولَةِ وَالرَّسُولُ وَالْيَتِمَّةِ وَالْيَتِيمَةِ وَالْعَامِرَةِ وَالْمُتَرَبِّمَةِ وَالْمُنَاطِرَةِ وَالْمُطْلَبَةِ [Tadhkiratul-Mahdi, by Pir Sirajul-Haqq, part 2, new ed., p. 274]

(21) Sahibzadah Pir Sirajul-Haqq narrates that once the Promised Messiah said:

God has conveyed to me that there would be a great split in my Movement as well, and mischief makers and those who are the slaves of their own desires will depart. Then God Almighty will bring this split to an end. But those who deserve being cut off, as being unconnected with the truth and given to mischief, will be cut off. Then there will be a great uprising in the world. That would be the first uprising. Kings will invade kings. There will be so much bloodshed that the earth will be filled with blood. The subjects of all kings will also fight fearfully among themselves. There will be universal ruin and destruction. The centre of all this will be Syria.

Addressing Şāḥībzādah Sirājul-Ḥaqqa directly, the Promised Messiah as continued:

It will be the time of my Promised Son. God has decreed these events in connection with him. Thereafter our Movement will spread and kings will become members of the Movement. Be sure to recognize the Promised One.

[Tadhkiratul-Mahdi, part 2, new ed., p. 274]

(22) Dream: The Promised Messiah as said:

‘I saw [in my dream] that I was mounting a ladder but I was afraid lest I should fall and I jumped from one rung to the next. When I had climbed the ladder, blood came from my nose…’

The Promised Messiah as continued:

‘The interpretation is very good, for if it is said: blood came; it is good. But if it is said: Blood flowed or, blood went out; it is not good. There is loss in it. Therefore one should say blood came. This dream shows that money will come and God Almighty will bestow affluence upon me.’

(23) The Promised Messiah as said:

‘Once on the day of the Pilgrimage, I was shown the scene of the Pilgrimage in my vision, so much so that I could hear the people talking to one another, and also their proclamations of labbaik,1294 tasbih,1295 and tahlil1296. Had I

1294 Saying the following words during pilgrimage: Labbaik, Allāhumma labbaik, labbaik lā sharīka laka labbaik. Innalhamda wished, I could have written down some of their conversations.’

(24) The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said on one occasion:
‘Today I have been shown [in a vision] that of the people present, there are some who have turned their backs towards me, and have stepped aside and, out of aversion, have turned their (faces) away from me.’

[Tadhkiratul-Mahdi, part 2, new ed, p. 314]

(25) One day, I\textsuperscript{1297} was sitting with the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} in Mubārak Mosque.... He lifted his head and said: Just this moment, I have received the revelation:

c̃c̃

[Arabic] [Truth]

[Tadhkiratul-Mahdi, part 2, new ed, p. 314–315]

(26) The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was in the Mubārak Mosque on one occasion...The conversation turned upon the meaning of the expression: بیشانی [Sab‘a Mathāni].

\textsuperscript{1298} Some opined that it was the name of al-Ḥamd [sūrah al-Ḥaqq] and some applied it to other verses. Someone said

\textsuperscript{1295} Recitation of Subhānallāh [Holy is Allah] or other phrases expressing the Holiness of Allah. [Munawar Ahmed Saeed]

\textsuperscript{1296} Note by Munawar Ahmed Saeed: Recitation of Lā ilāhā illallāh [There is none worthy of worship except Allah].

\textsuperscript{1297} i.e., Şāhībzādah Pīr Sirāj-ul-Ḥaqq Nu‘mān\textsuperscript{a}. [Jalal-ud-Din Shams] that al-Ḥamd was revealed both in Mecca and Medina and that is why this expression was applied to it. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: ‘That might be so, but according to me this sūrah is given the name Sab‘a Mathānī, because first it was revealed to the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, and second time it was revealed to [Imām] Mahdī and the Promised Messiah’.

\[Letter of Mīr Sirāj-ul-Ḥaq Nu‘mān\textsuperscript{as}, p. 1\]\textsuperscript{1299}

(27) The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said:

Last night I received the revelation:

\[Arabic\] [As [for] those who say, ‘Our Lord is Allah,’ and then remain steadfast, the angels descend on them, [saying:] ‘Fear you not, nor grieve; and rejoice in the Garden that you were promised. We are your friends in this life and in the Hereafter.’]

(28) Then the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} received the revelation:

\[Nūr-ud-Dīn\]

\[Letter of Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams\textsuperscript{ra}: In al-Ḥakam (cited above) and al-Bushrā, page 64 do not include the phrase خُرْسُ الْأَسْلِمَيْنِ. Moreover, in al-Ḥakam the words خُرْسُ الْأَسْلِمَيْنِ [Nūr-ud-Dīn] are written instead.\]

(52) Ḥaḍrat Munshī Zafar Aḥmadī of Kapurthala has narrated that:

On one occasion the Promised Messiah had suffered greatly from itch. His hands were all covered by it and it was difficult for him to write or carry out other tasks. He was getting regular treatment but no remedy brought any relief…. One day I presented myself to him about the time of the ‘Asr Prayer and found that his hands were all clear but that his eyes were running…. I took the courage and inquired from him the cause of the unusual flow of tears. He answered: A sinful thought had passed through my mind that Allah the Almighty had committed such a great task to me and my health was such that I continued to suffer from something or the other. On this I received the revelation:

[Urdu] Have I guaranteed your health?

That is why my heart has been overpowered with humbleness and awe: why did I think so. Simultaneously with this revelation, however, I saw that my hands were quite clear and no trace of itch remained anywhere. With this majestic revelation on one side and such grace and mercy on the other, my heart is full of the greatness and 1309 Note by Maulānā Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri: This revelation was probably received in 1891 or 1892. Ḥaḍrat Miyān Bashīr Aḥmadī has said that the suffering from itch was in 1891. [Sirātul-Mahdī, vol. 1, pp. 256–257 Riwāyat no. 26] majesty of Allah and the experience of His mercy and grace has moved me deeply so that I cannot control my tears.

And Ḥaḍrat Dr. Mīr Muḥammad Ismā’īl has said that it was in 1892.

(53) Ḥāfiẓ Nūr Muḥammad of Faizullah Chak relates:

On one occasion, I [was in Qadian and] asked the Promised Messiah’s permit to go back [to my village]. He said: ‘No, Stay today’. The Promised Messiah had received a Revelation:

That is [Arabic] Even if he should put forward excuses; which he interpreted as meaning that no excuse of mine could be accepted today.

[al-Ĥakam, vol. 37, no. 32, September 7, 1934, p. 4]

(54) (A) Miyān Faḍl Muḥammad of Harsian relates from Ḥāfiẓ Ḥāmid ‘Alīra:

On one occasion, the Promised Messiah sent me on an errand to a foreign land. I boarded a vessel bound for my destination. About half way, the vessel was caught in a storm and everyone was terrified that it was going to sink. All the passengers started screaming and there was a great clamour in the ship. All the people were crying and wailing. I tried to reassure all the passengers and stated confidently that I belonged to the Punjab and was going on an errand on behalf of one whom God had appointed his Prophet for this age and that so long as I was on the vessel, Allah the Almighty would safeguard this ship from sinking. God Almighty thereafter caused a change in the situation and the vessel arrived safe at my destination and I disembarked. It proceeded on its further voyage and sank

1310 The reference is to Ḥāfiẓ Ḥāmid ‘Alī. [Abdul Latif Bahawalpuri] after a short time. When the news reached India, members of my family went crying to the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} and told him that the vessel by which Ḥāmid ‘Alī was traveling had sunk; on which the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: Yes, I have heard that the vessel by which Ḥāmid ‘Alī was traveling sank on such and such a day. After saying that, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} remained quiet for a short time; and then added: But Ḥāmid ‘Alī is busy with his errand. He did not drown. The later events confirmed what he had said. It would seem that The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} had learnt about the entire situation through a vision.

(54) (B) Ḥāmid ‘Alī ‘s brother, Sheikh Zain-ul-‘Ābidīn, relates that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said:

I have received a revelation concerning Ḥāфиз Ḥāmid ‘Alī that he would return safe and will bring back benefits.

(55) Sheikh Faḍl Ilāhī, postman, relates:

On one occasion I was taking the mail to the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} and when I passed in front of the house\textsuperscript{1311} of Deputy Shankar Dās, I saw him sitting on a cot in the terrace in front of the house. He called out to me (as O

\textsuperscript{1311} Note by Syed Abdul Hayee: This house was purchased by the Jamā’at around September 1931. At the time of purchase it had not been plastered nor white-washed, and also the floors were unfinished. Apart from this, two rooms and verandas were yet to be built in the upper storey. After necessary construction and repairs, Ḥadrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ II\textsuperscript{a} inaugurated the re-constructed building in April 1932. (For details see \textit{al-Faḍl}, May 3, 1932, p. 5, column 1–2, as quoted in \textit{Tārīkh-e-Ahmadiyyat}, vol. 5, p. 298)

Since the extension of Aqṣā Mosque was under consideration for long time, the building—which had been in a very poor condition—was demolished with the approval of Ḥadrat Khalīfatul Masīḥ V\textsuperscript{aba} in October 2007. Now this space is being used for the extension of Aqṣā Mosque.

(56) Ḥakīm Muḥammad Qāsim of Lala Musa has narrated that the Promised Messiah as said:

God Almighty tells me that:

(57) Master Allah Ditta Muhājir, Qadian has narrated that the Promised Messiah as once said to Muftī [Muḥammad Ṣādiq ra]:

I have seen [in my dream] that a kite sprang towards Manzūr. You should arrange to feed one poor person [on a regular basis]. Ḥaḍrat Muftī Ṣāḥib (may Allah safeguard him) submitted that he had arranged it.

(59) Miyāṅ Imām-ud-Dīn\textsuperscript{ra} of Sekhwan has recorded in his \textit{Pocket Book} that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} stated:

I saw in my dream once that two well fed horses were tied in front of our outer house. They appeared to be Arabian horses. Then [I saw that] the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah, was riding one of the horses and I was riding the other. We moved on fast like cavaliers and there was no slackness in our speed. Then I woke up.

(60) Maulavī Ṭalīm Bakhsh of village Bahadur Ḥusain, subdivision Batala has stated in writing that:

One day I and Sharampat and the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} were in the Aqṣā Mosque. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was walking up and down in the courtyard and we were also walking with him. The Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} addressed Sharampat and said: I have received a revelation that Malāwāmal is Judas Iscariot, and Judas Iscariot was the one who had Jesus\textsuperscript{as} captured. He [Malāwāmal] is my friend, so do not tell him of this lest he should feel hurt, but keep a note of the date and the revelation. A long time after this, Malāwāmal became a bitter opponent of the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}.

(61) Ḥāfiẓ ʿAbdul-ʿAlī, brother of Maulavī Sher ʿAlī\textsuperscript{ra} has narrated that the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said:

I am informed, during my supplications during the night, about the spiritual condition of those of my friends who massage my feet and I pray for them.
(62) A Sikh of Mitha Tiwana, Shahpur District, brought his son, who was probably suffering from tuberculosis, to Qadian for treatment by Ḥaḍrat Maulāvī Nūr-ud-Dīn(ra). The father used to ask the Promised Messiah(as) to pray for his son’s recovery. The Promised Messiah(as) supplicated for the young man and a prescription was revealed to him which was used under the care of Ḥaḍrat Maulāvī Ṣāḥib and the young man recovered.

(63) [Munshi Zafar Ahmad of Kapurthala relates that] The Promised Messiah(as) said:

I have seen in my vision that three or four of our friends will die in the course of the year. I [Munshi Zafar Ahmad of Kapurthala] asked him: Do they belong to Qadian? and he answered: No. Then I asked him: Do they belong to Kapurthala? And he answered: No, Kapurthala is like a part of Qadian.

(64) [The Promised Messiah(as) wrote to the Navvāb of Rampur:] God has conveyed to me that the worries and anxieties with which you¹³¹⁴ are beset would be removed by God Almighty through my supplication provided you would believe in the commissioned one of God.

¹³¹⁴ Note by Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Jalal-ud-Dīn Shams(ra): al-Faḍl writes regarding this: The Navvāb of Rampur was in great pain those days. One of his favourite wives was suffering from tuberculosis, and could not survive despite all treatments. Allah the Almighty conveyed this condition to the Promised Messiah(as).

God Almighty conveyed it to me last night\textsuperscript{1315} that:

The Promised Messiah as directed that those working in the public kitchen should be set aside and expelled from Qadian for six months and should be replaced by good-natured and pious persons.

(65) (B) The Promised Messiah as said:

Last night I was rebuked by God Almighty…

Then the Promised Messiah as himself oversaw the arrangements for food and all were fed alike.

[One day] my son Muhammad Ḥusain was massaging him. The Promised Messiah had his eyes closed at that time. Another boy of Patti named Jalāl, who was a Mughal, was also massaging him. Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’minīn was sitting near. Suddenly the Promised Messiah opened his eyes and said:

[Urdu] Muḥammad Ḥusain will be Deputy Commissioner and Jalāl will put fodder before his horse.

When Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’minīn heard this, she went inside and felicitated my wife.

On one occasion when I was putting oil into a lamp my clothes caught fire… and a great part of my body was burnt. Dr. Ya‘qūb Baig said I would not survive more than twenty minutes, and Ḥaḍrat Maulavī Nūr-ud-Dīn said, I would barely survive for an hour.

The Promised Messiah as said: ‘I have just seen a vision in which he is in a garden.’ The indication was that I would have children….Then the Promised Messiah as prayed for me throughout the night and asked Ḥaḍrat Umm-ul-Mu’mīnīn ra and two other women to attend on me turn by turn during the night. ...Allah the Almighty saved me from death and granted me health.

[Notebook of Maulavī Sadr-ud-Dīn]

The Promised Messiah\textasciitilde had foretold all the principal events of my life, and they happened accordingly. The Promised Messiah\textasciitilde had also said that I would die on a Friday.

He died [on Friday October 7, 1927] in Qadian and was buried in the Bahishti Maqbarah.\textsuperscript{1326}

The Promised Messiah\textasciitilde addressed some grievances [to Allah the Almighty] concerning some members of the Community and received the revelation:

\begin{center}

بَخَيْنٌ مِرَّانٌ بِذَيْنِ سَائِف

That is [Persian] You will have to carry on with these people.

(85) Respected Qādī Muḥammad Yūṣuf writes:

The Promised Messiah\textasciitilde saw in a dream that a tiger had carried away the two sons of Ātmā Rām. Just at the time that the Promised Messiah\textasciitilde narrated this dream, Ātmā Rām received a telegram that his son had been afflicted with plague. His two young sons died of the plague one after the other.

[\textit{Zuhūr-e-Aḥmad}, pp. 51–52]

(86) Maulavī ‘Abdullāh Botālawī writes:

When I came to Qadian, during my stay, the Promised Messiah\textasciitilde once came to Mubārak Mosque from his home…. He said that some of the Jamā‘at might recall that as he had mentioned previously he has been shown [in his vision], that the whole area—between the small mosque

\textsuperscript{1326} In the First Edition of \textit{Tadhkirah} the narration was given in the footnote on page 134, but was moved to the text in Appendix in Second Edition. [Publishers]
[Mubārak] and the big mosque [Aqṣā]—was the area of Mosque…. Then the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} said: I have been shown again that the entire area between these two mosques is nothing but a mosque.

[Aṣḥāb-e-Aḥmad, vol. 7, p. 207]

$(87)$ (Ṣāliḥah Bībī\textsuperscript{ra} wife of Qāḍī ‘Abdur-Raḥīm\textsuperscript{ra} narrates that):

Once during the morning walk while passing through the bazaar of the Hindus, which is called the Bigger Bazar now, but was small at that time, the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} stopped near the well in the bazaar to the north of the big mosque near the House of Maulāvī Sher ‘Alī. About ten to fifteen of us women were with him. On his return he stopped in the same bazaar near the well at the crossing to the north of the Bigger Mosque and pointing at a point on the earth with his staff he said: This will soon be called: Aḥmadī Bazar; and there will be many many Aḥmadīs here.

$(88)$ (Mirzā Ghulāmullāh Anṣār of Qadian says that): My brother Mirzā Niẓām-ud-Dīn told me that:

During the time when the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} was employed in Sailkot, I was living with him. He used to teach me the Holy Qur’an, and also to Lālah Bhīm Sein, Pleader, who was a Hindu. He had read fourteen parts of the Qur’an with the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as}. One day, when the Promised Messiah\textsuperscript{as} got up in the morning, he narrated this dream to Lālah Bhīm Sein:

Last night in my dream I saw the Holy Prophet, on whom be the peace and blessings of Allah. He took me to the Divine Presence where I was bestowed something and was directed to distribute it to the whole world.
