Dear Brother,

السلام علیکم ورحمة اللہ وبرکاتہ

On 27th September 2013, Hazrat Khalīfatul-Masīh V (May Allāh be his Helper) delivered the Friday Sermon at the Taha Mosque in Singapore.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: By the grace of Allāh I have once again been given the opportunity to meet the Ahmadīs in this region. It is relatively easy to come to Singapore, and many Ahmadīs have come here from nearby countries such as Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Burma (Myanmar) and Vietnam, in order to meet me. Speaking about the victimisation of the Jama‘at in various countries, Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that whenever the Jama‘at is persecuted Allāh produces the best results for us and grants us many new converts as a result and at the same time it causes Ahmadīs to grow in faith and sincerity.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that even in countries where there is no persecution and Ahmadīs are free to fulfil their religious obligations, Ahmadīs should keep watch over their selves, strive to foster their faith and to spread the message of Ahmadiyyat. They should spread the true teachings of Islām so that people may recognize the excellence of Islām and the Holy Qur‘ān.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that God has favoured us by enabling us to accept the Promised Messiah عليه السلام and to become part of his Jama‘at. It is now our duty to spread this message no matter what the circumstances. We have to present before the world all the beautiful aspects of the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم life. At the same time we should follow in his footsteps and attract people towards Islam through our own example.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) exhorted members of the Jama‘at to listen to his sermons and other programs in order to bring about self-reformation. It has been noted that some office-bearers do not listen to the sermons regularly. These sermons are the need of the time and Ahmadīs should attach themselves to these teachings so that there is uniformity in Ahmadīs everywhere as far as their beliefs and their practical lives are concerned.

The Promised Messiah عليه السلام says the Ahmadīs should always repeat their pledge to give preference to the religion over the world and to act accordingly. God’s help comes to those who keep progressing in virtue and do not stand still. Ahmadīs should pray for a positive change in their children. Your deeds should testify that you are an Ahmadī.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that in the light of these teachings, we ought to be mindful of how far we have transformed ourselves, what we have done for the proper upbringing of our children, and to what extent have we conformed our actions to the teachings of the Holy Qur'ān. Let us act in a manner that compels others to confess that Ahmadīs are better believers than others. Seeing your example, they should gravitate towards Ahmadiyyat. If you attain these standards, we will be drawn nearer to God and all this persecution will evaporate into thin air.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) prayed that Allāh may strengthen every Ahmadī in faith and conviction, keep them under His protection, and frustrate the designs of our opponents. Āmīn

Please convey these guidelines given by Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) to members of your Jama'at.

Jazākumullāh.

Wassalām,

(Ch. Hameedullah)
