Dear Brother,

السلام علیکم ورحمة اللہ وبرکاتہ

Instances of pious people accepting Aḥmadiyyat after being guided through true dreams.

If a person prays sincerely and without prejudice, within forty days Allāh Almighty will reveal the truth to him.

May Allāh increase new and old Aḥmadīs in faith and devotion.

On 24th Nov 2017, Ḥaḍrat Khalīfa-tul-Masīḥ V ایدہ اللہ تعالیٰ delivered the Friday Sermon at Baitul Futūh Mosque, London.

Ḥūzoor ایدہ اللہ تعالیٰ said: The Promised Messiah علیہ السلام says "If a person prays fervently to Allāh for forty days, and his prayers are unbiased and free from any kind of obstinacy, then God Almighty will disclose the truth to him within this period." But it is important to be pure-hearted and free of prejudice. Those who pray with a pure heart will get guidance. Allāh guided many people through dreams at the time of the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام. A man from Lahore wrote to the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام that he saw in a dream that the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام was true. When he related this dream to a mendicant-saint to whom he was devoted, the mendicant said that Mirzā Ṣāḥib's continuous progress for such a long time shows that he is true. Another mendicant who was listening said that he would ask God about this. The next day he said that God had told him that Mirzā Ṣāḥib was true in his claim.

Ḥūzoor ایدہ اللہ تعالیٰ said: During the life of the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام a certain person intended to write a book against the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام, but then he saw the Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a dream who admonished him and told him that Mirzā Ṣāḥib was true.

Ḥūzoor ایدہ اللہ تعالیٰ said: Allāh also guides pure hearted people in order to save them from wrongdoing. This continues to happen even to this day. A brother from Mali writes that in his dream he saw a man with a white turban. Later he saw the picture of the same man at a friend's house and learnt that this was the Imām Mahdī. He decided to accept Aḥmadiyyat and invited his brothers and sisters to do the same but they opposed him. The next day after Fajr he saw in a dream that the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام was telling him to recite surah Al-Hijr which speaks of the prostration of the angels to Adam and the arrogance of Iblis. Then he immediately accepted the Bai'at.

Another brother writes: I saw in a dream that there were many worshipers in the mosque, but I spread my prayer mat away from them. Someone then asked me what sect do you belong to? I said I am an Aḥmadī Muslim. He then told me to go to the Aḥmadiyya mosque. Then I accepted the Bai'at.

Ḥūzoor ایدہ اللہ تعالیٰ said: A sister from Yemen writes that she saw in a dream that a moon-like star came down to earth and entered her house through the roof. She was amazed and awe-struck. Then in another dream she saw five stars that were smaller than the first. The first star was the Promised Messiah علیہ السلام and the five were the Khalīfas. She started watching MTA and her love for the Imām Mahdī started to grow. She then heard in Hawar-ul-Mubashir that one should pray for guidance. She then offered two rak‘as of prayer and went to sleep. She then saw in a dream that she was in a large crowd in Mecca and people were thronging to have a look at a man and some were saying that the Imām Mahdī has come. When I looked at him, his face seemed like the bright moon. When I looked carefully, it was the same face I had seen on MTA. Thereafter I pledged the Bai‘at.

A brother from Egypt writes that for nine years he used to hear a powerful voice in a dream. Then in 2010 when I started watching MTA, I heard some extracts being read by Sharif Audah Ṣāhib and remembered that it was the same voice I had heard in my dreams. Then when I saw the picture of the Promised Messiah عليه السلام on MTA, I addressed it and asked to tell me whether you are true or not. When I turned on MTA later that day, an extract of the Promised Messiah’s عليه السلام writing was being read out in which he says: O my people, I am from God, and I hold God as my witness that I am from God. I then involuntarily clutched the Promised Messiah’s عليه السلام picture and started saying عليك السلام. عليك السلام.

A Syrian brother who lives in Canada says: I was introduced to the Jamā‘at and given books which I continued to read for a year and then I wanted to join the Jamā‘at but did not find myself righteous enough to do so. Then I met some Aḥmadīs and found spiritual solace by talking to them. Then I started praying for guidance and one night in a dream I saw a pious friend who handed me a piece of paper saying that this is from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and on it was written السلام عليكم, and when I woke up I was reciting the verse 'Enter therein with peace, in safety'. I saw this as a clear message and accepted Bai‘at.

A delegation from Ivory Coast said they kindly be briefed about Aḥmadiyyat. Consequently a program was held after Isha prayers a questions and answers session was held. At the conclusion of this session, 160 persons accepted Bai‘at.

A sister from France says: Some time ago I saw a video about the persecution faced by Aḥmadīs. I then started praying for guidance and saw in a dream that I was sitting in the Aḥmadiyya mosque in France and my father gave me some documents. I then accepted the Aḥmadiyyat.

A brother from Algeria says: I used to watch MTA, and one day I saw in a dream that the Promised Messiah عليه السلام and his five Khalīfas came to my home. When I mentioned this dream to my family, they said this is a common dream, because one is likely to dream what one is thinking about. I said it is impossible that I should pray to God and should instead be answered by Satan. Therefore I pledged the Bai‘at.

Ḥūzoor ايدو اللہ تعالیٰ said, these are but a few of numerous such instances. May Allāh increase the new as well as old Aḥmadīs in faith and sincerity. Amīn.

Please convey these guidelines given by Ḥūzoor ايدو اللہ تعالیٰ to members of your Jamā‘at.

Jazākumullāh.

Wassalām,

(Ch. Hameedullah)
